THE CENTENNIAL'S ALIBI STORY

Japanese Stage New Raids Today, Killing 44 Chinese

PEKING, Jan. 25. (AP)—New Japanese air bombing raids into Chahar province, killing 44 Chinese, were reported today by Chinese sources, indicating apparently a renewal of the Japanese attack.

Chinese military authorities stated that Japanese fliers dropped three bombs on the Chahar and eight into Tushikow. The dead included five civilians. The others were militiamen and police.

Trouble Brews in Far East

The Jehol border in the south-western corner of Manchukuo, shown encircled in map above is the scene of latest Sino-Japanese difficulties. Angered at raids alleged to have been made by soldiers of Gen. Sun Chieh-yan, governor of Chahar province, over the Jehol border in the vicinity of Takochien, a punitive expedition has been launched by the Japanese government to expel the raiders. Fear was expressed by Chinese officials that the move masked Japanese intentions to annex Chahar to Manchukuo.

REHABILITATION MEETING TONIGHT AT COURT HOUSE

Detailed explanation of the rural rehabilitation program under which the federal and state governments will lease farm land from landowners for the benefit of tenants who have been on relief, will be given at a meeting here tonight by Colonel Sparkman, rural supervisor for Andrews, Martin and Midland counties.

The session will begin at 7:30 at the county court room.

A similar meeting was held by Sparkman at Andrews Thursday and another will be held at Stanton Saturday at 2 p. m. at the court house there.

Land owners interested in renting farm land for a period of three years, the lease paid in advance, and tenants seeking such relief work, are asked to attend the meeting here tonight.

Pastor's Retreat Closed Thursday

A sermon, a lecture, and special musical numbers were features of the closing session of the Pastor's Retreat held last night at the Baptist church.

Dr. J. M. Dawson of Waco lectured on the subject, "Progress of Religion in 1934".

The sermon on the evening was presented by Dr. R. C. Campbell of Lubbock.

A quartet of women's voices composed of Mrs. Don Quarles and Misses Marguerite Bivens, Juanita Cox, and Charline Parrott, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere", accompanied by Miss Edna Marie Jones at the piano.

Mrs. Quarles and Miss Bivens also sang a duet.

A double-pano number was presented by Mrs. Winston F. Borum and Wallace Wimberly.

A short business session was held.

The retreat was adjourned at the close of the Thursday night meeting instead of at noon today as had been planned.

Pastor, Board Are Honored at Banquet

A large number of the membership of the First Christian Church and visitors were present Thursday evening at the annual Church Banquet honoring the new Church Board and the new pastor of the church, Rev. J. E. Pickering.

The pastor was presented and he expressed his deep appreciation for the splendid way in which he had been received in Midland, not only by the members of the First Christian church, but by the men of Midland.

The new board was presented and each member expressed deep appreciation and pledged co-operation and loyalty to every endeavor of the church.

A splendid program of fun and entertainment was then given and round table talks were made by many of the men and women present. John P. Howe was toastmaster.

Nelsons Will Go to Houston

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Nelson Jr. and children will leave Midland next week for Houston, to which place Mr. Nelson has been transferred to the land department of the Standard Oil & Gas Co.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have been prominent and active in social affairs of the city. Nelson has been one of Midland's star tennis players. They came here in 1932.

Nelson's position with Standard here will be filled by Frank Fulk, who came here from Houston.

"ASTRONOMY CONSCIOUS"

PORT DAVIS. (AP)—The building of the McDonald Observatory here is making Fort Davis folk "astronomy conscious."

For example, it is now more widely known that the sun does not rise sooner nor set later the short day, Dec. 22. The sun does set later, but rises later, the astronomers say, until about mid-January. This means longer mornings and longer sleep for many. Some of the populace have learned that more eclipses of the sun and moon may be seen from water because there is a fifth more water than land on the globe.

44 MISSING AS SHIPS COLLIDE THURSDAY NIGHT

Most Passengers and Crew Rescued by Liner, Cutter

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. (AP)—A coast guard patrol boat radioed to the coastguard station here this afternoon that it had picked up nine bodies about ten miles south of the Mohawk shipwreck.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. (AP)—The freighter Mohawk, which rammed the liner Seagirt last night, reached port this afternoon without signs of survivors.

On that basis, one of the last hopes for safety of 46 missing persons was dashed.

SEAGIRT, N. J., Jan. 25. (AP)—Two seamen were known to have perished and 44 persons were accounted for today after a collision at 9:30 o'clock last night between the chartered Ward liner Mohawk and the freighter Talisman off the New Jersey coast.

The Mohawk, making its first southern trip for the Ward line, sank rapidly.

The Seagirt of 117 survivors, many in a serious condition, was taken to New York by the coast-guard cutter, Champlain.

Coastguardsmen reported one of the Mohawk's lifeboats missing. Whether it contained the fourteen passengers and 30 members of the crew unaccounted for had not been determined.

Robert Barnett, of Houston, Tex., ordinary seaman, on the Mohawk bridge at the time of the accident, said the automatic steering gear went "haywire." The collision occurred before the hand steering wheel could be connected.

Cause of the collision was mysterious as the freighter, a slow steamer, sailed an hour after the Mohawk.

The liner Algonquin reached New York today with 37 passengers and 37 members of the crew rescued from lifeboats. Captain J. E. Wood, master of the Mohawk, was among the missing.

Babson Says Whole Farm Structure Gaining Strength

BABSON PARK, Jan. 25.—The highlight of 1934 was the recovery on the farm. As a result of the drought, the American farmer finds himself better off today than at any time since 1930. The farm income of the country for 1934 totalled approximately $8,000,000,000 compared with $6,250,000,000 in 1933—an increase of about thirty per cent for the year. The improved financial position of the farmer today is one of the most promising factors in the business outlook for 1935. We cannot have prosperity in the factory without prosperity on the farm!

A year ago the agricultural problem was our major issue. 1934 opened with record supplies of some, and large excesses of practically all farm products. Due to the 1934 drought, these supplies, in most cases, were entirely wiped out and even shortages in certain commodities developed. The result has been a sharp rise in prices, and correspondingly sharp gains in most other farm products' prices—the average advance being twenty-nine per cent for the year. Hence, the farm picture today has changed entirely. The farmer is once again feeling happy for he has more cash in his pocket than at any time since the depression began.

While livestock and grain farmers have felt the improvement most, nearly all farmers are better off today than a year ago. The drought killed off thousands of dairy cattle and created a shortage of feed, thus cutting into milk supplies. Dairy prices to date have been less sensitive to the drought than feed prices. Hence, in some cases the advance

Square Deal Drill Is Challenge to Huey Long

Under oath to end dictatorship in Louisiana, this throng of Baton Rouge members of the Square Deal Association is massed for military drill with Old Glory flying, preparing for direct action against Huey Long. Similar groups drilled in many other cities. In the inset is Ernest J. Bourgeois, president of the association, megaphoning instructions to recruits. The growing threat against his rule brought Long hurrying home from Washington today to face the demand that the legislature be called to repeal all dictatorial laws.

WORKS BILL GOES TO SENATE

ESTIMATES HOT OIL PRODUCTION House Vote of 329 to 78 Follows a Day Of Debate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. (AP)—Rallying to the Roosevelt banner, re-united house democrats Thursday night showed the $4,800,000,000 work and relief bill onto the senate doorstep, where a new and stubborn contest apparently awaited it. The vote was 329 to 78.

Plans were made immediately in the senate to seek action on the measure next week after disposing of the world court. Some members of both parties there, however, plan moves to curtail the board powers the measure grants President Roosevelt.

Spurred by the chief executive in a special message, house democrats' leaders, who previously had made numerous concessions to insurgents, re-aligned their forces and succeeded in battering down more than 40 efforts to tie the president's hands.

With the exception of one minor amendment, only those agreed upon in the previous compromise were carried. The measure approved a lump-sum of $4,800,000,000 for the president to dispense at his discretion between now and Jan. 30, 1937.

In a final desperate effort to send the measure back to the appropriations committee for reworking and curtailment of presidential power, the republicans lost 303 to 100.

Final action came on the measure after a long day of debate in which democratic leaders pleaded to their colleagues to back President Roosevelt in his effort for recovery by taking 3,000,000 employables off the relief rolls and sending them $50 a month jobs on projects.

Want New Federal North Texas Court

LUBBOCK. (AP)—A movement has been started for creation of a new federal court out of the present Northern district of Texas. The proposed judicial district would include Amarillo, Lubbock, Abilene, San Angelo and Wichita Falls.

The Abilene Bar association was the first to take the action. It approved a petition asking congress to create the new district. The action was taken after reports were heard to the effect that appointment of a fourth federal judge for the district was being considered.

Members of the Lubbock Bar association also voted to petition congress to support the creation of the bill.

The present district has three judges, Edward R. Meek, James C. Wilson and William H. Iwell.

Martin Jones, Amarillo congressman from the 18th Texas district; Charles C. Crenshaw, Lubbock attorney; and R. E. Underwood, Amarillo attorney, are being mentioned for the judgeship in the event that it is created.

POINT BY POINT DENIAL MADE TO STATE'S CHARGES

Denies Connection With Kidnaping Or Murder

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 25. (AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann today denied connection with the kidnaping and murder of the baby, Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., declaring that the dead Isadore Fisch gave him, in a box, the $14,600 of Lindbergh ransom money found in his garage December 1933 and was not discovered by him to be money until August 1934.

Testifying in the trial for his life, Hauptmann categorically denied each and every detail of the crime. "Were you ever in Hopewell in your life?" Edward J. Reilly, chief defense counsel, asked.

"I was not," Hauptmann replied. "On the night of March 1, 1932, I did not enter the nursery of Col. Lindbergh."

"I did not."

Hauptmann said that on March 1, 1932, the day of the kidnaping, he awoke at 6 a. m., took my wife to the bakery, went home then to the majestic apartments intending to work. He said the superintendent told him there were no jobs that day.

He said he went to two employment agencies and to Radio City in a futile effort to get a job. He said he returned home around 5 p. m. He said he called for his wife at the bakery, her place of employment, at 7 p. m.

TESTIMONY FAILS TO SUBSTANTIATE ALIBI

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann began his eager alibi for the Lindbergh baby's murder from the witness stand at his trial Thursday afternoon.

His voice low and guttural, his manner confident, the German captor just before adjournment declared he stayed at home throughout the night of March 1, 1932, in a state of New Jersey where he collected $50,000 in ransom in the shadows of St. Raymond's cemetery.

Hauptmann's deliberate story did not reach the point of his alibi for the blustery night of March 1, 1932, when he is accused of climbing a ladder to kidnap and kill Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's first born son.

That alibi, says the defense, is that the accused killer was in a Bronx bakery "sipping coffee, chatting with his wife at the very hour of the crime."

But the alibi was jolted somewhat when the baker and his wife, testifying between Hauptmann's two trips to the stand were not sure enough to bolster it.

Christian Fredericksen the Danish baker, couldn't swear to it. That Hauptmann was there, he said, Hauptmann's voice, husky, heavily accented, told the methodical story of his life—a life, he said, of hard work, thrift, of bank accounts of money hoarded in his home, money that finally went into the stock market.

THE LAWYER'S RESPONSIBILITY

If you are an ordinary private citizen and you suddenly learn the whereabouts of a desperate criminal who is very much wanted by the police, it is your duty to tell the police where he is so that they can go and get him. But if you are a lawyer and the criminal gets in touch with you, you may keep your mouth shut as tightly as you please without violating any law.

This seems to be the meaning of the Chicago trial in which Attorney Louis P. Piquett was acquitted of charges of conspiracy to harbor the late John Dillinger during that gunman's spectacular flight from the cops.

There is little sense in quarreling over a closed case. The affair does, however emphasize the heavy responsibility that can rest upon the shoulders of an outlaw's lawyer.

He is given special privileges in his relation to his client; it is all the more incumbent upon him to see that these privileges are never abused.

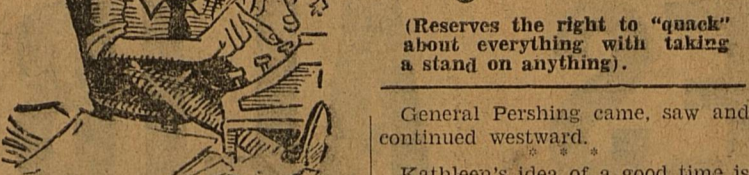

It seems silly to worry about this outbreak of talking sickness, when we know another wave of it is inevitable just before the November election.

We thought years ago that there would never be a story comparable to the sinking of the Titanic. Gracious! What fools we were to even imagine such.

As I recall it, the Titanic went down in 1912 and about 1,500 people drowned.

That was a mighty big disaster. But take the old brain out to see if you can't find some greater disasters since that time. Consider Huey Long, etc.

The comments I've heard of the weather of late remind me of a sign that used to hang in Doc Fannin's drug store:

As a rule a man's a fool. When it's hot he wants it cool. When it's cool he wants it hot. Always wanting what is not!

LAUREL AND HARDY STAR IN "BABES IN TOYLAND"; SHOWING AT THE YUCCA

Victor Herbert's immortal "March of the Toys" and "Castle in Spain," as well as the delightful fantasy and story book figures of childhood, have been brought to the screen in a film that should prove a joy and revelation to children and grown-ups.

The picture is the Hal Roach-M-G-M production, "Babes in Toyland," a new feature-length vehicle starring Laurel and Hardy, now showing at the Yucca Theatre.

Fantastic Settings The combination of Laurel and Hardy's rollicking comedy with Victor Herbert's pulsating music, added to gorgeously fantastic sets and superb singing, makes a picture that can be enjoyed by anybody, young or old, rich or poor, Indian chief or candlestick maker.

In this feature, Laurel and Hardy again don costumes that differ from their orthodox baggy suits and derbies. They are two apprentice toymakers, who in their sincere but wild attempts to get the Widow Peep, who lives in "The Shoe," and her daughter, Bo-Peep, out of the clutches of Toyland's villain, Barnaby, involve themselves in a series of hilarious events that, at times, turn the operetta into a screamingly funny comedy.

Adroit direction, beautiful singing, clever acting and stirring music in addition to the comedy, make this one of the outstanding films of the year.

The Toyland set is undoubtedly one of the most fantastic as well as beautiful ever filmed for the screen. Through the set move characters dear to the heart of childhood: Jack and Jill, Mother Goose, Simple Simon, Old King Cole, The Cat and the Fiddle, Little Red Riding Hood and many others.

The supporting players include Charlotte Henry, Felix Knight and Florence Roberts.

"Bishop Manning and Jack Dempsey look alike." Don't laugh. A sculptress whose business makes her a close observer says so. She says, too, that Katherine Hepburn, James Truslow Adams, and Charles Evans Hughes resemble one another. They have, she says, "a youth, an aliveness and a keenness in common that make them look, in a sense, alike, and that mark them unmistakably."

The woman who thus honors Americans with the belief that they have a distinctive type of appearance is a Belgian by birth though she married a socially prominent American, Henry W. Farnam. Suzanne Silvercruys Farnam declares that she loves America, though she believes Americans should learn the art of living from the Old World.

Mary Margaret McBride, in a feature article about her says: "Mrs. Farnam can pretty well guess what business a man or woman is in by looking at his or her face. She also gets a definite impression of color from the person she meets and models. Katherine Hepburn, for instance, is such a vivid red that she almost hurts the eyes, the sculptor declares.

SUNNY LIVING starts at the table

How you feel and how you look depend largely on the foods you eat. The balanced menu provides the "bulk" to prevent common constipation—caused by lack of this essential fiber.

Common constipation frequently causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy. Yet, in most cases, it can be overcome pleasantly and safely by eating a delicious cereal.

Kellogg's All-Bran is a natural food for normal individuals. It furnishes "bulk" in convenient and concentrated form. All-Bran also provides vitamin B and iron.

Isn't this sunny way better than taking patent medicines? Two tablespoons of All-Bran daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If relief is not obtained, see your doctor.

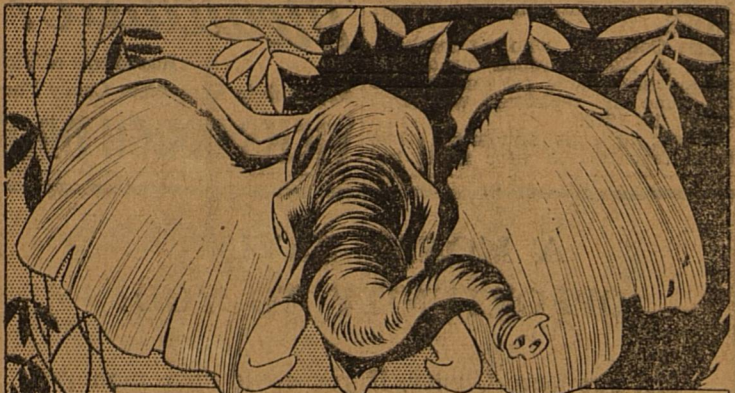

Serve All-Bran as a cereal, or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
