Saving Sanity Is Great Riddle of 'Resurrection'

With removal or neutralizing of the death agent and renewal of respiration, the next step in bringing the dead to life is starting the heart. For this purpose a fluid is injected, as shown here, with Dr. R. E. Cornish giving artificial respiration and John Finn, left, and Dr. V. M. Margutti assisting. Another step in restoring life to the patient appraently has been successful here. Through teetering, artificial respiration, and an injection, the

RIVER AMENDMENT

BARRIER REMOVED

AUSTIN, Nov. 9, (U.P.)—The highest barrier to the Colorado river bill was removed when PWA attorneys in Washington said that the Dean amendment, subordinating water rights in the lower Colorado district to the upper was on bar to a federal loan.

The house is to consider the Centennial bill today as soon as the bills from the senate are cut of the Way.

A ruling of Jim Bujac, assistant attorney general, in 1925, was that under the gross production tax the companies were exempt from other and valorem tax on field equipment. Reese won the first skirmish, District Judge Mike Otero rulling for Reese, issuing a writ of mandamus ordering the tax commission to place the field equipment on the rolls. Humble appealed to federal court and sought to enjoin the commission from proceeding. Reese, filled a motion to dismiss the Humble suit, and the motion was upheld. Humble then filled an amended petition, ruling on which was announced this week. The Linan No. 1 is in section 13-18-37, and prior to voluntary gas an outpost. It was abandoned incompleted during the first flush of the East Texas discoveries, by its originally developers, National Securities Oil company.

The log of the well shows 16,-000,000 feet of gas was encountered off. At 4188 feet, the well was plugged back. It was believed by the developers the location was on the extreme western edge of the Hobbs pool and would not make a commercial producer.

Since then, the well has made eil and gas production voluntarily. The cellar is full of oil that is readily adaptable for use as fuel in the boilers at the rig.

The new developers believe from geographical experimentation the well is on the north end or east side of a separate oil pool.

PARIS—If you're famous you never know when your husband may be murdered, and if you're hotheaded you never know when you might take a notion to kill him yourself—so all our best brides these days are buying mourning outfits.

It may sound funny, but this is an age of practiability and nothing must be neglected. Take poor Queen Marina. Madame Herriot had to run hurriedly into a store and get her some heavy black veils which she draped over her black fur jacket and a black dress she happened to have in her luggage, so she could detrain at Marseilles in proper mourning for her late husband.

And you know mourning does

MARCH LEADS BIRTH MONTH

NEW YORK. (U.P.)—There are more Americans born during March than any other month, reports Ralph Hitz, nationally known hotel man. Hitz, who sends each guest registered at his hotel here a birthday card, disclosed that, of the 35,000 card sent out during 1934, about 17 per cent were mailed during March. HORSES KILLED GIRL

BOISE, Idaho. (U.P.)—Helen Louise Beck, eleven, of the May-field farming district, always rode the family horse to school. Recently, during lunch hour she noticed her faithful steed fighting with another horse. Helen Louise stepped between the kicking animals to attempt to quiet them. A hoof struck her. She died two hours later.

BARBECUE

The high school band, pep squad, team, and faculty will be guests of the American legion at a barbecue at Cloverdale given in celebration of Armistice.

Fred Middleton, former commander of the legion extended the invitation to the organizations of the support they have given to the school. He also invited them to furnish any entertainment for the picnic that they could before night, at which time the boy scouts would entertain with a campfire program.

The organizations wish to express their appreciation of the invitation.

John Philip Sousa was the best tor.

From the pens of great men and critics we have the following quotations: "There never will be an other Sousa. The Almighty gives only one such man to history. His fine nature was indescribable. (Without cat or prigishness, he had unmeasured contempt for anything low or vulgar. If he found himself in the company of men who were set upon objectionable or coarse remarks or stories, the appear. Surely he fulfilled in every way that definition of a true gentleman, a man who is incapable of doing an ignoble act."

No man has done so much to popularize and raise the standary of the concert band to its proper place of recognition in the sphere of good music. Sousa with his personal charm, matchless-ability and unchallenged reputation, carried the fame of American music to every civilized country in the world.

His death on March 5, 1932, created a great void in the musical life of America which will never be propentified. Sousa was honored by presidents and kings! Yet, his sympathetic understanding and kind the concert band to its proper and the concert ban
