ESCAPEE CAPTURED IN HANSFORD CO.

ESCAPEE

Jerry Noles signs papers in the office of Judge Johny P. Vernon. He was apprehended while driving

On Saturday, August 17, the FBI from Oklahoma City, called the Perryton police department and advised them that Jerry Noles, 44, alias B.L. Burnett, might be in the Spearman, Gruver, Perryton area. B.L. Burnett was an escapee from Oklahoma State Pen at McAlester, Okla. He was serving 21 years for murder. The FBI stated that he might be armed and dangerous. This also came out on a tele-type and Sheriff McFarlin immediately notified the Spearman Police Department. Several people in Gruver remembered seeing a 1980 Pontiac Firebird with Mississippi tags on it. On Wednesday morning August 21, an alert Gruver citizen spotted the car and called the Hansford County Sheriff's Department, who called the Spearman Police Department for assistance.

Approximately 30 minutes after a tractor in the Bernstein area of Hansford County.

the Gruver citizen notified Sheriff McFarlin and the Spearman Police Department, Chief Alberts and Sgt. Raper intercepted the vehicle approximately 2 miles west of Spearman on the Gruver Highway. A woman was driving the car and she was arrested and held for questioning for the Perryton Police.

Local officers developed information that Noles was driving a tractor Northeast of Gruver in the Bernstein area. At this time Sheriff

FIREBIRD

This 1980 Firebird with a 1986 Mississippi license was driven by McFarlin, deputies Martin and Evans and Chief Alberts changed into farm clothing and drove to the area where Noles was plowing. They were in a pickup truck and approached the tractor with Deputy Martin driving and Deputy Gary Evans hiding in the back with his shotgun. Also in front with Deputy Martin was Chief Alberts and Sheriff McFarlin. They stopped the tractor and Noles dismounted the tractor and went over to visit with the apparent farmers. He was taken by surprise when all four men pointed rifles and shotguns at him. Sheriff McFarlin placed him under arrest at 11:54 a.m. Wednesday, August 21. He is wanted for being an escapee from Oklahoma State Pen at McAlester, Oklahoma. He was serving a 21 year term for murder. Sheriff McFarlin wants to thank the Spearman Police Department for their assistance in apprehending this escapee.

Betty Burnett, wife of Jerry Noles, was released to Perryton authorities on alleged theft charges. This arrest was made possible by an alert Gruver citizen who called the authorities. Citizens of Hansford County are urged to attend the Neighborhood Crime Watch organizational meeting in Spearman Thursday, August 29, 1985.

Among The Neighbors

Many of the neighbors who remember Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Ooley will be pleased to know that they have returned to Spearman and set-up business here.

They left Spearman in 1969, lived in the San Fernando Valley of California for nine years, then moved to Santa Barbara until returning to Spearman. Their four children remained in California. Eddie and Robert are in Santa Barbara, Cheryl Mendez is in Salina, and Kayren Sanger is in New Hall. The Ooleys have five grandchildren.

Mrs Ooley will be doing tailoring in her home and Mr. Ooley will be a cabinet maker in his shop on the premises. They bought the Ceril Batton residence at 112 South Townsend.

Word was received last Wednesday by Rick Smith of the death of his father, Mr. Edgar Smith, following a heart attack. The services were held at Halfway, Texas on Friday, August 16. Mr. Smith and the children attended, however Mrs Smith was unable to attend. The same day she was called to Lubbock as her mother suffered complications following open heart surgery. Mrs. Smith returned to Spearman several days later. Her mother is still in serious condition.

Helen and Ric Melton spent several days in Colorado last week, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smallwood of Dalhart. They were gone but a few days but spent some time in several places-Pagosa Springs, Grand Junction, Durango, Cimmaron among them. The highlights of the trip were the Cliff Dwellers, and watching Gerald Ford, Bob Hope and Glen Campbell on the golf course at Vail.

Mrs. Adalyn Barnes and Mrs. Mary Ooley returned Tuesday from Arcadia, California, where they had gone to attend the funeral of their brother, Clifford Dougherty. He passed away after a long illness and the services were held last Wednesday. The Dougherty family lived in Spearman in the late 1930 and left here in

More People Reap Benefits From H&R Block Tax Course

Thousands of successful tax preparers started their careers with the H&R Block Income Tax Course. H&R Block has been teaching income taxes for 30 years and this year is offering a basic income tax course starting September 5th with evening classes available. Many of the most successful people in the tax preparation business started with this basic course which teaches all phases of income tax preparation. The 13 week course progresses from simple to complex tax problems. Students learn through classroom discussion and homework. Qualified course graduates may be offered job interviews for positions with Block. Many of Block's employees find the flexible hours a plus. However, Block is under no obligation to offer employment, nor are graduates under any obligation to accept employment with H&R Block. The course is ideal for those interested in tax preparation as a career or for those who want to learn about taxes for their own personal use. The course is challenging and, for those who are highly motivated, can prove to be profitable as well. No prerequisites are required for enrollment. One low course fee includes all textbooks, supplies and tax forms necessary for completion of the course. Certificates and 7.5 continuing education units will be awarded upon successful completion of the course. Registration forms and a brochure for the income tax course may be obtained by contacting the Perryton H&R Block office at 314 N. Industrial. Telephone 806-435-5616.

A Center Piece

Here it is, Friday and I am, running late with my report from the Golden Spread Center. Last Tuesday night, Aug. 13, we had a Ice Cream Supper. We want to thank those who made Home Made Ice Cream, Cake, Cookies, after over indulging, we all enjoyed talking and playing games.

I trust everyone that could go, went to the Home Demonstration Club Room and helped Jessie Tompkins celebrate her one hundred birthday.

Ladies, remember our quilting on Mondays, arts and crafts on Thursday.

Please remember the Van is available on Wednesday for Doctors appointments and shopping, from 10:00 a.m. till noon, so please call 9-3521 for Pearl Pierce, Director.

Though we were disappointed that there was less than average in attendance, a pleasant time was enjoyed for the covered dish supper and fellowship.

Remember, this coming Monday the 26th we will be quilting. Tuesday will be games and goodies at 6:30 p.m.

If you haven't been coming, prepare your favorite dish or goodies and come join us.

You will always be assured of a delicious meal and you'll never find friendlier folk and a good place to visit your friends and neighbors. Come join us -- You'll like it.

Tom Etter, who felt he was doing so well following his surgery, suffered a complication and had to be rushed back to the hospital in Amarillo by ambulance Tuesday. He is recovering at this writing and expects to return home soon, but will be immobilized for some time.

The J.L. Pierces have enjoyed having their daughter and children visit them for the past two weeks. Karon Hardy and 8 year old Shameka and 6 year old Derek of Chesapeake, Virginia, returned to their home Thursday. Karon had not been here for four years and enjoyed relaxing and renewing old friendships. She is employed at the Norfolk Naval Yard.

The Pierces had another event for which they were appreciative, Rosa, who plans to enter W.T.S.U. this month was notified that her Don Harrington scholarship would be increased by virtue of her extremely high score on the A.C.T. test.

Mr. and Mrs. David Knox and daughters, Cindy, Shelly and Traci, spent several days with his parents, Gloria and Don Knox. The David Knoxs have spent the summer on the campus of Northern Arizona University at Flagstaff, Arizona. He was working on an advanced degree. The family feel that they all benefited educationally as they made trips to places of interest-Grand Canyon, observatories, etc. They returned to their home in Hart, Texas on Tuesday. David and Rita are both in the school system there.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

Prevent sprinkling too much cleansing powders by uncovering only one or two holes. You'll use much less powder at a time.

For someone who likes to crochet, whose birthday gift is hard to buy, fix a basket made up of several sizes of crochet hooks, small scissors, tape measure, large eyed needles and safety pins for marking rows.

Use a fine crochet hook to pull the thread through to the wrong side in machine-knitted clothes for an easy repair job.

The last fertilizer for roses in southern U.S. should be applied the last week in August.

'Bill of rights' for crime victims

Attorney General Jim Mattox has announced a new program involving a "bill of rights" for victims of crimes.

Mattox announced the new program at a recent news conference, held in conjunction with the statewide meeting of People Against Violent Crimes, a citizens' organization. Joining Mattox at the news conference were representatives of People Against Violent Crimes, including founder and director Nell Myers, who presented Mattox with a plaque of appreciation from the organization for Mattox's work to assist victims of violent crimes.

The new "bill of rights" cards for crime victims were developed by Mattox in an effort to better inform victims and families of victims about certain rights they have in the Texas criminal justice system. The "bill of rights" was made possible by passage of a law during the 69th session of the legislature, a bill sponsored by Rep. Frank Tejada of San Antonio and Sen. John Montford of Lubbock.

The 10 rights are spelled out on cards that will be distributed statewide by Mattox's Office, in public buildings such as libraries and by cooperation law enforcement agencies.

"For far too long in this country, the criminal justice system has not taken the rights of crime victims into consideration," Mattox said.
"That is beginning to change now, with the advent of organizations like People Against Violent Crimes and with increased media attention to victims.

"I am hopeful that this new bill of rights for crime victims will be widely distributed so that victims will know that they don't have to be ignored," Mattox said. "They have a right to be informed about proceedings regarding cases against persons who committed the crimes, and many victims have a right to seek compensation through our Crime Victims Compensation Fund."

"I want to commend People Against Violent Crimes for its help in making this bill of rights a reality," the Attorney General said. "Nell Myers has worked on this project since 1982, and her work has paid off for all victims of violent crimes."

Radiation therapy class graduates

The second graduating class of the School of Radiation Therapy Technology at the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center were honored at a certificate and pinning ceremony at 7 p.m. Friday at the Center, 1500 Wallace Blvd.

Keynote speaker was Dr. Brian Pruitt, medical oncologist for the Cancer Center and assistant professor of internal medicine at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center.

The school is a two-year certificate program that is academically accredited through Amarillo College. Students who complete the program receive associate's degrees through AC and certification for approximately 1,700 hours of clinical training at the Cancer Center, according to program coordinator Alan Burns, R.T.T., technical director of radiation therapy at the Center.

This year's graduating students included William J. Brown, Rebecca Oppelt and Gwen Sterling Nelms. Graduates of the program may receive national certification by passing a board exam given by the American Registry of Radiological Technologists.

"Our program has a 100-percent passing rate for the national board exam," Burns said, pointing to growing student volume. Currently seven new students are enrolled in the program for the upcoming fall semester.

"Our major goal is to provide the Amarillo area with highly qualified radiation therapy technologists which will result ultimately in greater quality care for cancer patients," he said.

The educational affiliation between Harrington Cancer Center and Amarillo College affords the Texas Panhandle the only two-year radiation therapy technology certification program in the state. It is one of 15 such programs in the entire country. Generally, of the 97 existing programs in the United States, 80 percent are hospital-based, one-year programs.

Livestock events judges selected

Final selection of judges for the competition in the livestock events at the 1985 Tri State Fair has been completed. Lynn Griffin, fair manager, has announced the names of the judges, who represent six states. Bill Conley of Clarksdale, Missouri will judge the Open and Junior Angus shows. Hereford cattle will be judged by Sam Paylor of Brookville, Kansas. Dr. Stephen Hammack, Stephenville, Texas will judge the shorthorn cattle and the Simmental cattle. Longhorn cattle Show will be judged by G.F. Engdahl, San Angelo, Texas. Rick Maloney of Duncan, Oklahoma will place animals in the Junior Barrow Show. Junior lambs will be judged by Kyle Smith of Seminole, Texas. Dr. David Ames, Fort Collins, Colorado will place the Junior Steers. Capons will be judged by Dr. William Cawley, College Station, Texas. Charles Oltersdorf of Peoria, Arizona will judge the bantams and rabbits will be placed by Bob Berry of Lubbock, Texas. More than 2,000 head of animals are expected at the fair, scheduled for September 16-21.

Tri State Fair Sept. 16 - 21

When you think of a fair, the first thing that comes to mind is the carnival midway, cotton candy, candied apples and special stage acts. All of these ingredients are a part of the fair, but probably the most important aspect of a fair are the events where people match their individual skills, goods and animals against each other for prizes, ribbons and other awards. The 1985 Amarillo Tri State Fair, scheduled for September 16-21, will offer over $58,000 in prize money, plus scores of ribbons, banners and trophies to winners in competitive events. In addition to the traditional livestock events, there will be competition between hundreds of people in the areas of aquarium, art, photography, ceramics, china painting, 4-H baked goods, vegetables, canned goods, bread, cakes, cookies and pies. Also knitting, sewing, embroidery, quilts, rugs and novelty items. All of the above events are judged prior to the opening of the fair and will be on display throughout the week for viewing by fair-goers. Don't miss the opportunity to see all of the above items at the Tri State Fair next month.

Care Unit offers variety of help

"You were the only one who would help me."

It's a familiar statement heard by Kay Kropff, program manager for Palo Duro Hospital CareUnit.

"It is time that people know they can reach out and realize that other people will help them," Kropff said. "When they reach out we will be there."

"The first step is the hardest for people to take. But once they reach out, we do not leave them hanging because we really do care."

The Palo Duro Hospital CareUnit is one of many units under the supervision of the CompCare Corporation. CompCare is headquartered in Florida and California. The corporation has existed since 1971 serving the nation with different health care programs set up in units stationed around the country.

The Palo Duro CareUnit is known for a program that uses a team approach in the treatment of alcoholism and other drug dependencies. But the CareUnit is there for more than just alcohol/drug abusers that need help, Kropff said.

The unit is there for problems with eating disorders, stress, adolescent stress, adolescent drug/alcohol abusers, sexual dysfunctions and physical rehabilitation.

"If we cannot help people with a certain problem we refer them to another unit that specializes in that particular problem," Kropff said. I get the patient in the very best unit that they will benefit from.

"I set it up for them. I arrange and pay for transportation," she said. "If they stay for the whole program, we pay for the transportation back."

"The CareUnit is a community service where the initial consultations and evaluations are free and the after-care sessions are free.

"I treat people the way I want to be treated," Kropff said. "If they have a problem of any kind, they need to take that first initial step and call. One thing I want to stress is that we protect their confidentiality."

"We ask people to leave their name and number so that we can follow up on helping them, but they don't have to. Their biggest fear is that everybody will know, but we keep everything confidential."

The CareUnit offers a four to six week drug/alcohol program. The patient is medically detoxed, Kropff said. After the patient is out of detox, which is called special care, he is drug free. The unit team observes and evaluates at all times.

"People with alcohol problems need to realize that it is a disease that is progressive until death unless some changes are made," Kropff said. "We are here to help people make those changes. They need to realize that they are not going to get better until they are ready to make changes."

Tied in with the drug/alcohol program is a service called the Employee Assistance Program. We teach employers what to look for and how to help their employee.

"While the employee is in treatment, the employer is assisted with meetings with the staff and with the patient," Kropff said.

"For a lot of people all they have left is their job and it's a relief for them to know their job is secure," she said.

"We find employers are supportive of their employees getting help," Kropff said.

Kropff goes out into the public and gives talks on what the CareUnit in Canyon has to offer people. She also talks to students in the public schools.

"I enjoy going into the classrooms to give students drug and alcohol information. I teach them how to handle peer pressure," she said. "I would rather kids get information from professionals than off the street where they are told drugs and alcohol are cool."

The CareUnit works hard as a dedicated professional team, she said.

"I am proud of what we do here," Kropff said. "The hospital is supportive and the staff uses a team concept."

"We want people to know we will be there for them when they reach out for help," she said.

Prices farmers get for raw products dropped 0.8 percent in July, the fifth consecutive decline in the monthly indicator and 12 percent below a year ago, the Agriculture Department said recently.

CANCER: The GOOD News - Part I

Cancer dates to the days of the dinosaurs.

Yet only during the past decade have scientists made the discoveries that demonstrate this dreaded disease can be conquered.

No longer does curing cancer equate to an elusive, seemingly impossible dream. Achievements are reported with regularity as researchers patiently pry cancer's secrets out of the complex components within a single living cell.

Cure rates have greatly improved for such cancers as childhood leukemia, Hodgkin's disease, melanoma and bone cancer, which were usually fatal just 20 years ago. Today, those types, along with testicular, cervical and thyroid cancers, are largely curable.

The one big cloud marring the overall outlook involves cancers caused by smoking -- and that's an estimated 30 percent of all malignant diseases.

Smoking-linked lung cancer remains the chief cancer killer of American men and women combined, but tobacco products also contribute to at least six other kinds of cancer along with a variety of other diseases.

Cancer is this country's second major medical killer. Almost 1 million people will learn they have cancer this year. Estimates are that one in every four American will be affected by cancer during their lives. Stated another way, four Americans will be affected by cancer during their lives. Stated another way, cancer will touch about three out of every four families.

"With the exception of lung cancer, which is mainly preventable there is a lot of appropriate optimism about current cancer therapy and some of his newer treatment techniques on the immediate horizon," notes Dr. Irwin H. Krakoff, head of the Division of Medicine at The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston.

"We must be realistic in our anticipations, however. Because cancer is more than 100 different diseases, it is highly unlikely we will find a single cure for all types," he says.

Surgery remains the cornerstone of initial treatment for most tumors that have not spread beyond the point of origin. Many operations are combined with radiation therapy and drugs, and sometimes all three types of treatment are used. Newer techniques that depend on biologic agents to boost individuals' cancer-fighting abilities and such selective procedures as bone marrow transplants also are helping extend survival for many patients.

The current trend among cancer surgeons is toward less-radical operations, particularly for saving limbs, sparing breasts and preserving vital functions of the head and neck area. More conservative surgical procedures are not for all patients, but may be possible when tumors are relatively small and localized.

The approach to treating osteosarcoma, a type of bone cancer most common among teenagers, has altered dramatically in the last few years so that now amputating an arm or leg can be avoided in many cases. Aggressive chemotherapy, usually containing high doses of three potent drugs, sometimes is sufficient to cure these cancers. In other cases, the drug-reduced bone tumors are removed and an artificial metal bone takes the place of the diseased one.

In early breast cancer, limited surgery to take out small tumors is being combined with follow-up radiation in many cases and producing treatment results equal to the more common radical operations. For those women with more extensive disease, reconstructive breast surgery can be offered to many after mastectomies, thereby enhancing functional and emotional recovery.

Even for advanced oral cavity cancer, refined surgical techniques in concert with radiation and chemotherapy can spare some vital tissues, and newer artificial face parts are available to improve patients' appearances.

As many as one-half of all cancer patients in some centers get radiation therapy, the majority on an outpatient basis. High-energy cobalt units are the mainstay of many radiotherapy programs.

No place has progress been more spectacular than against cancers that strike children, including childhood leukemia and lymphoma, and rarer tumors of the eyes and kidneys. Increasingly successful combination chemotherapy for many childhood cancers have paved the way for curing more malignancies in adults, too. Almost 50 anti-cancer drugs are now being used.

"We are steadily improving our cure rate for childhood leukemia -- now more than 60 percent in some places -- through better classification and target therapy. Understanding that there are seven or eight different classes of leukemia in children and planning treatments tailored of each sub-set and age group can mean a big difference in the outcomes," explains Dr. Jan van Eys, head of M.D. Anderson's Division of Pediatrics.

Dr. van Eys is especially excited about progress in treating brain cancers, which account for one in three childhood malignancies, and he wants to clear up "that awful misconception that nothing can be done for these patients." Intense chemotherapy, radiation for some older children and highly selective surgery mean about 40 percent of childhood brain cancers can be cured today.

Two-year-old Nicole Wilson is just one active example of why he is encouraged by the steady therapy improvements.

"We learned she had a brain tumor just before her first birthday," recalls Nicole's mother, Tammy Wilson. "We were devastated. She's our only child, and we'd been through so much . . . Nicole was born with a serious congenital heart defect. We could have lost her then, only she had corrective surgery at seven weeks and seemed to be fine until . . ."

Mrs. Wilson said she and her husband, Joe, who live in the Aldine area near Houston, were advised there probably was nothing to do for Nicole's brain tumor. But after the child was referred to M.D. Anderson, a team of specialists devised a treatment plan that included using a new type of surgical laser to remove the large tumor. Nicole has been taking combination chemotherapy for several months now and has a favorable prognosis for cure.

The overall survival rate for all cancer patients across the age spectrum has risen to the point where many health experts contend cancer now is among the most curable of all chronic diseases. Yet physicians and scientists stress they could do so much better if more people worked at preventing cancer.

The major message about malignant diseases, they say, is not the advances in biotechnology and molecular biology, although these have enormous potential for eventually eradicating cancer as a human health threat.

No, the all-important aim is to motivate every person to take preventive actions that will make the difference in determining their individual cancer destinies.

Estimated Tax Payment Due

The third installment of 1985 estimated federal income tax payments by individuals, except farmers and fishermen, should be made by September 15, 1985, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

Generally, taxpayers who have estimated tax of $500 or more, must complete Form 1040-ES, "Estimated Tax for Individuals," and make estimated tax payments.

Single social security and tier 1 railroad retirement recipients whose total income for 1985 is expected to be more than $25,000 (including tax-exempt interest and one-half of their social security and tier 1 railroad benefits) may have to pay tax of their benefits. Similarly, married recipients who expect to file a joint return, and who expect their joint income, including tax-exempt interest and one-half of their social security and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits, to exceed $32,000, may also have to pay tax on part of their benefits. Therefore, these taxpayer may need to pay estimated tax.

The IRS has a free Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax," which provides information about paying estimated tax as well as information on the new law requiring tax on some social security benefits and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits. The publication may be ordered by calling IRS. The number is listed in telephone directories.

NOTES--- COMMENTS

The best way to avoid bills is to pay cash.

There are many ways in which people try to have their cake and eat it too.

Studying the Bible may not end warfare, but it will improve human beings.

One of the dangers of looking ahead is that we see things that never happen.

Institute in Boston, where he remained until he expired on the 54th post-burn day.

There were no fabric samples available, since most of the victim's clothing was destroyed by flames. At the time of the accident, he was wearing a cotton flannel long-sleeved shirt, a cotton undershirt, dungaree-type pants, and socks and sneakers.

A Question of Burning

The victim was a previously healthy three-year-old male. He was described as being a "Dennis the Menace" type, curious, playful, and fun-loving.

On the day of the accident, it had been raining and the children had been kept inside to play. Late in the afternoon the victim and one companion (three-year-old female cousin) were playing in the cellar. The victim's fifteen-year-old sister had earlier been playing with the younger children, but had left them in the cellar and gone upstairs a short time before the accident.

The victim and the young girl had just received new bicycles and were very preoccupied with these treasured acquisitions. Disappointed at not being able to take the bicycles outdoors due to the bad weather, the children apparently decided to clean their bikes. For use as a cleaning substance, the victim obtained and used some gasoline, which was stored in a red plastic one-gallon jug in which a popular brand of auto antifreeze is distributed. It is estimated that there was approximately one quart of gasoline in the gallon jug, and it is not known whether there was a cap on the jug. The victim's father had obtained the gasoline from the car by siphoning, and had used it for cleaning a carburetor just two days before the accident. The victim had watched his father using the gasoline, and apparently concluded that if gasoline was good for cleaning auto parts, it would also be good for cleaning bicycles.

It is believed that the victim used the gasoline by pouring some on a rag, and then wiping parts of the bicycles with gasoline-soaked rag. It is clear that he paid particular attention to the seats, pedals, chain guards, rear wheels, and training wheels. In the course of applying gasoline to the rag and then wiping various parts of the bicycles, a liberal amount of gasoline was spilled on the floor and on the victim's hands and clothing. While the exact duration of this activity is not known, it is important to note that when a highly volatile liquid is spread in a thin layer over a wide area (as when spilled on the floor), it vaporizes rapidly.

The gasoline vapors apparently accumulated in the cellar, and eventually reached the gas-fired hot water heater, a distance of six to eight feet from where the gasoline had been spilled. It is not known whether the vapors were ignited by the pilot light, or if the water heater's main burner fired at that time. A vapor flash resulted and, in turn, ignited the surfaces that were wet with gasoline, including the floor in the area of the spill, various surfaces of the bicycles, and the victim's clothing. The other child was positioned beyond the perimeter of the gasoline spill and escaped with minimal consequences.

The victim's mother, who was in the kitchen at the time, stated that she heard no explosion and that the victim did not cry or scream even when engulfed in flames. The first indication of trouble was the appearance of smoke coming under the door leading to the cellar. The fifteen-year-old girl went to investigate and found the cellar filled with smoke. She knocked out a window to relieve the smoke and then went to fight some minor flames burning in the area where the gasoline had spilled on the floor. As she moved toward the fire area, she discovered the victim walking toward the bottom of the stairs leading to the kitchen. She states that the victim's clothing was on fire and that the boy was engulfed in flames like a "torch". The older girls grabbed the victim under the arms from behind and carried him upstairs to the kitchen where the victim's mother used the spray hose of the kitchen sink to extinguish the flames. Even after the active flames had been controlled, she states that all of the boy's clothing was smoldering except for his sneakers.

The victim was taken by police vehicle to the emergency room of a local hospital. Following evaluation and initial care, he was transferred for admission to the Shriners Burns

Letter to the Editor

Dear Billy Miller,

Enclosed with this letter you will find eleven different case studies of burn injuries. These studies are a result of Project Burn Prevention conducted by Shriners Burn Institute-Boston Unit, Educational Development Center and Massachusetts General Hospital. The book these studies originated from is sponsored by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission and may be reproduced.

The Spearman Fire Department has set goals in burn prevention efforts and has developed the enclosed program to aid in education of burn prevention. We ask that you review the enclosed articles and if possible we ask that one article per month be printed under the headline of "A Question of Burning".

In developing this program, we have reproduced titles and drawings to act as attention grabbers. If possible we feel a two column printing approach would allow printing of many of the drawings. Additionally, all but one article has a "rule of nines" burn diagram attached which will show burn areas to the victims.

Each article except the one investigative report asks questions which readers may consider. The fire department feels these questions raised may cause readers to request additional information. If you feel space permits, we ask that you include the departments address: SVFD, Project Burn Prevention, P.O. Box 214, Spearman.

Helping to promote increased interest in year round fire prevention is another goal the department has set and we feel the one article per month format will greatly enhance a month to month concern for fire and burn prevention.

You will find additional headlines, fillers, and drawings to be used as you feel best.

The Spearman Volunteers thank you in advance for your help with this new project as well as for the support and help you have provided in the past.

Gratefully,
Ron Antalek
SVFD Fire Chief

P.S. Remember, Fire Prevention Week is October 6-12, 1985.

In the history of officeholders few have ever tried to save their country by resigning.

Real success in life is not measured by how many individuals you excel, but by how many you befriend.

There are three classes of people in the world: the regulators, the regulated and the radicals.

Optimism is that quality that permits us to hope that someday someone else will do something for us.

The end of life will find most of us with a lot of business that should have been attended to several years earlier.

Faye's Daze

I had a pleasant surprise yesterday. The gang here at the office gave me a little party complete with cake with a question mark candle, gift card, etc. Guess they couldn't find enough candles to put on the cake. Anyway it was certainly nice and I appreciated it. Thanks also to my friends who called and wished me a happy birthday.

Speaking of age and birthdays, one of the girls in the office asked me if I felt any older. My reply was no, I still feel 39. One thing about living all your life in a small town, there is no point in trying to fudge on your age because everyone knows about how old you are anyway.

The following treatise, entitled "A Little Town", seems to fit this week's mood somehow. Author unknown.

"A little town is where you don't have to guess who your enemies are. Your friends will tell you."

"A little town is where few people can get away with lying about the year they were born. Too many other people can remember."

"A little town is where people with various ailments can air them properly to sympathetic ears."

"A little town is where, when you get the wrong number, you can talk for 15 minutes anyhow."

"A little town is where the ratio of good people to bad is something like 100 to 1. That's nice to remember."

"A little town is where it is hard for anybody to walk to work for exercise because it takes too long to stop and explain to people in cars who stop, honk, and offer a ride."

"A little town is where city folks say there is nothing to do, but those who live there don't have enough nights in the week to make all the meetings and social functions."

"A little town is where everyone becomes a 'neighbor' in time of need.

"A little town is where those same businessmen dig deep many times to help with countless fund-raising projects."

"A little town is where many teenagers say there's nothing to do and they are surprised to learn that their big city peers are saying the same thing."

"A little town, when all is said and done, is a nice place to live."

The annual antique, collectables, arts and crafts show and sale sponsored by the Spearman Study Club will be Sept. 21 & 22 at the Spearman High School cafeteria. This is always a big event for fall in Spearman with dealers coming from all over the area.

Andrews family enjoys reunion

Descendants of LeGrant and Hattie Andrews met in Red River, N.M., August 10, 11, 12th for a fabulous reunion. Most of the relatives stayed at the Silver Spur where accommodations were great, including their new meeting hall.

Being in Red River was a great "picker upper", especially for the young people. They capped off a two day visit with a family raft ride down the Rio Grande River.

Attending were Marvin and Louella Andrews, Randy, Joann, Ryan, and Matthew Andrews, Kenny, Nancy and Kody Andrews, all of Guymon, Okla.; Jerry, Jackie and Cindy Womble, Bob, Susie, Robert and Tye Womble of Morse, Hal, Jeanie and Piper Bennett, Roger and Cody West, all of Stratford; Verlin and Audrie Behne, Tamie and Hoot Lewis, Myrtle DeArmond, Billy, Cynthia, Clint and Shanna DeArmond, Dora Womble, Charles and Lola Newcomb, Earl and Hollie Riley, all of Spearman; Harve and Dale Haney of Aurora, Colo. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dahl of Gruver and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hendrix of Hardesty, Okla.

Dance exercise classes offered

Feeling the end-of-summer blahs? Ready for a change? Didn't shape up and lose weight like you wanted to this summer? Are you an exercise "drop-out"? If any or all of the above apply to you, join a dance-exercise class at the Y.M.C.A. and have fun while you whittle away the inches and burn fat.

The class starts out with warm-up stretches and movements to prepare your muscles for the aerobic portion of the class. This aerobic part is from 35 to 40 minutes of fat-burning, easy to learn, simple rhythmic dance movements that are so much easy to learn, simple rhythmic dance movements that are so fun you can't believe it's exercise! During this portion of the class, your working heart rate is carefully monitored by the instructor to make sure it's high enough to burn fat but not so high as to be harmful.

This is very important! Safety, both for the heart and muscles, is the by-word of this class. Last is the cool-down to gradually bring the body to its normal state. There are 20 to 25 minutes of spot exercises included to tighten the upper and lower abdomen, shape the hips, thighs, and bottom, and firm the "flab" on the arms (light weights are used during the arm exercises).

These classes are offered Mondays, Wednesday, and Fridays from 4:15 to 5:00, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 to 7:30, and Saturdays from 9:30 to 10:30 (A.M.).

The instructor for the dance-exercise classes is Wanda Archer, certified Jazz-Dancerize and Fitness Fantasia teacher.

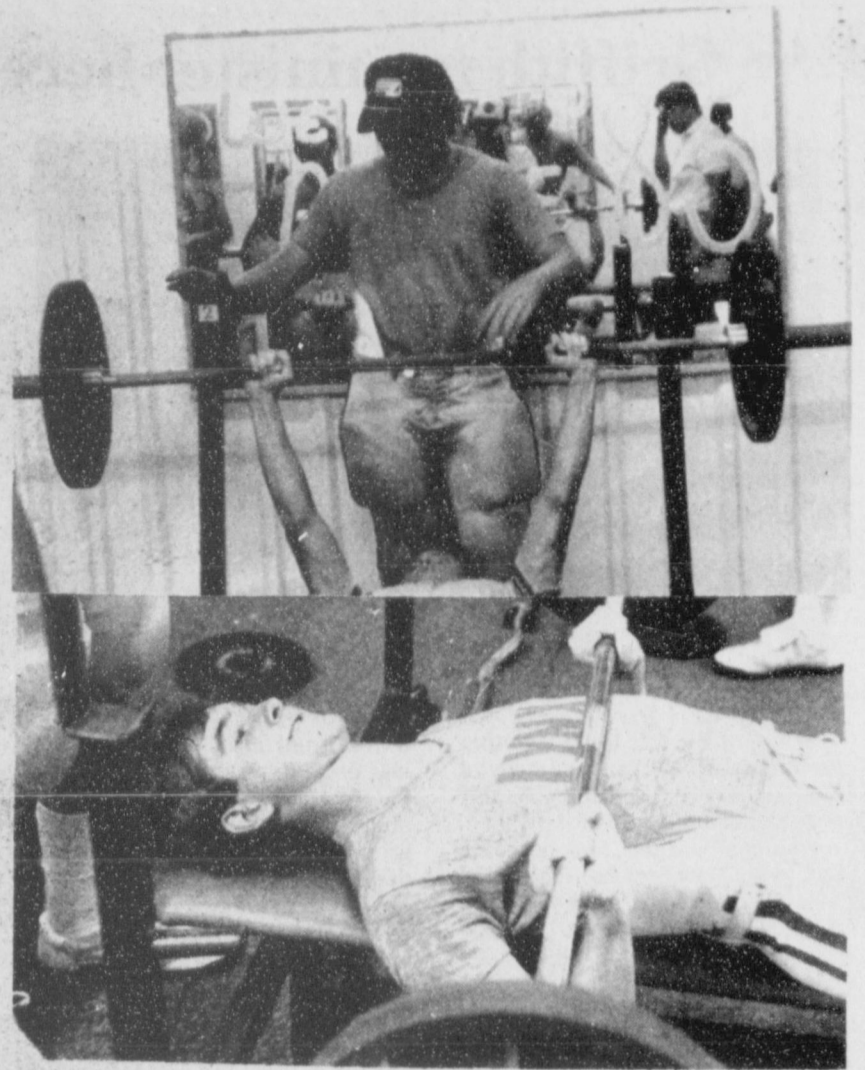

Call the Y.M.C.A. or Wanda for details. New classes for the fall begin Labor Day week (on Tuesday).

Annual Dad-Lad Cake Bake Sale

The Annual Dad-Lad Cake Bake Sale, Tuesday, August 27 at the County Barn at 7:00 p.m. The minimum bid for a cake will be $25.00.

The Cub Scouts will also be accepting personnel donations of any size. The money will be used for Cub Scout projects throughout the year. For example: Pine Wood Derby, Rain Gutter Regatta, Space Derby, etc. For more information call Candy DeLozier at 659-3649.

Square dancing is good exercise... but so is pumping iron. Damon Goodheart is helping Tim Willis with the lifts and Kyle Keim strains as he lifts weights in a warm-up exercise.

Square dancing good exercise

Are you looking for an inexpensive hobby both you and your spouse and/or friends may share? Do you like fun and music? Are you interested in good exercise, meeting friendly people and becoming involved in social activities?

Square dancing will answer all the above questions! It is one of the least expensive recreations around, the fun and music abounds (with much laughter), and square dancing is known to burn 350 calories each hour (or in a 2 1/4 hour dance, 875 fat-producing calories) - beating out walking (210), cycling (210), and swimming (300). Also, you will meet and socialize with friendly people from all walks of life.

If you've never square danced before or need to re-learn after not dancing, call 659-2958, to express interest in lessons. If there's enough interest, lessons will be offered. CALL TODAY!!!

Texas Farmers Union officer reviews ag policy

The Secretary of the Texas Farmers Union attended the Texas Agricultural Forum in Lubbock in early August and reported that farmers and ranchers, representing themselves and ag organizations, are a lot closer together philosophically than they have been at previous meetings.

"The debate on farm policy has reached almost all farmers and ranchers in Texas," says Robert Green of Hartley.

"It seems that there was a lot of sentiment for two ideas at the Lubbock meeting," said Green. "And those ideas are to regulate the production of ag commodities in some way, and to attempt to open up foreign markets for American ag products."

"The Reagan administration claims that they know things are bad out in the countryside, yet they don't seem to want to do anything to help farmers and ranchers. The current Secretary and his spokesmen claim that exports will bring the American ag economy out of the current depression. Most actual producers at the Lubbock meeting believe that it will take those exports, along with production controls, voted on by farmers themselves to get the supply and demand situation in agriculture back in order."

"Supply is drastically out of kilter with demand in America. Agriculture, and we must put it back in balance. The result of this current imbalance is the greatest agriculture crisis in this century, and what the Administration offers as a solution is nails in the coffin of family agriculture," observes Green.

"It translates into frustration out in the fields, and then into apathy. It is disheartening to realize that the individual farmer can have little effect on federal ag policy, and how little the average consumer understands the impact that farming and ranching has on our economy."

"It is a must that Congress adopt a plan that will allow farmers and ranchers to control their individual production - Congress must understand that we have literally millions of individual, small businessmen and women producing as much as they possibly can plant and harvest, and that drives prices down in many major commodities. The United States must adopt a long-term policy that allows farmers and ranchers to plan what they plant, and the American consumer will be better off for that policy."

"Rural America is in a world of hurt right now, and what Secretary Block and the Reagan Administration is offering for farmers is going to turn the lights out in rural America."

Food price increase not found in farmers pockets

The president of the Texas Farmers Union noted the U.S. government's July report on the Producer Price Index, which indicated that prices at the producer level increases 0.3 percent in July, due mainly to the increase of the price of food.

"Food prices are going up in the supermarket, but study after study tell us that farmers are getting less and less of the food dollar," says Joe Rankin, president of the family farmer organization.

The monthly index that Rankin referred to measures the increase in prices of manufactured or finished goods that are to be sold to final users, either consumers or businesses.

"The increase in the Producer Price Index means little to the consumer; it translates into a very low annual inflation rate," according to Rankin.

"But it does have strong symbolism for farmers and ranchers. Prices are at the lowest point ever for agriculture, versus what it costs farmers and ranchers to produce agriculture products. So where are the increases going? To the processors and the packagers, and farmers are still not able to make a profit."

"There are obviously problems in the American society when farmers and ranchers receive such a small proportion of the consumer's dollar, and those hard-to-pinpoint middlemen get the lions share of that dollar. As Congress moves to debate the 1985 Farm Bill this coming September, the American consumer must recognize that eventually we could lose our cheap source of food if current agriculture policies are continued."

The Texas Farmers Union and other agricultural organizations are working on the quadrennial writing of the nation's food and fiber legislation this fall. Policy will be determined for the next four years by Congress on items ranging from farm price supports to soil and water conservation. The TFU has endorsed federal legislation that would control the supply of major agricultural commodities, instead of paying support prices to farmers and ranchers.

Arthur departed this life Friday, August 9, 1985, in a auto accident near Perryton, Texas. He was coming to Spearman to spend a few days with his daughter and family, the Don Schmehrs.

Born May 10, 1911, at Laverne, he was a farmer and a real estate man. He was married to Lila Faye Brinson on April 16, 1930 in Woodward. She died November 27, 1984.

Survivors include two sons, J.C. and Emery, both of Laverne; two daughters, Mrs. Don (Elda) Pemberton of Woodward and Mrs. Don (Faye) Schmehr of Spearman; a sister, Ruby Jones of Fort Supply, 11 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

His grandsons served as pallbearers, Gaylon Love, Douglas Love, Johnny Love, Ronnie Schmehr, Dennis Schmehr, and Terry Pemberton.

Our Dad and Grandpa

Our Dad and Grandpa was a special man Always there to lend a helping hand

He was the kind of person to give much more than to receive We often shared our problems and most always went away relieved We worked together and shared our fun as well

And can look back today and say "Boy! that day was swell" Even though several months ago he was left lonely and never wanted to be in the way

We loved him so deeply and will miss him each day Although today it's hard to say "Goodbye until we meet again"

It gives us great pleasure to know he through his family (as he always says) was Just Fine and Dandy

George P. Shultz, Secretary of State, on Soviet offering moratorium on N-testing: "We don't believe it is in our interest to stop our testing program under these circumstances."

UPTIGHT

The doctor tells you your blood pressure is up. Slow down, he says. Relax. Let's face it. If you're "uptight" there ARE things to do about it. Follow your doctor's orders, yes. Take a deep breath, and look at the beauty of the world around you. Help other people with their problems. But add one extra little prescription. Go to church. Just sit there and let God's peace engulf your anxiety. Chances are that when you walk out the door something new will have been added to your dimension in living.

Before signing any more papers, or surrender any more money or property to your lenders, STOP AND THINK. Do I know what I am signing? Do I know what I have signed in the past? Do I know what the lender really has for security or are the lenders just trying to save their own ship? Am I going to work all year, just to pay the lender interest? Negotiate with your lender. Delay and prevent Foreclosure. Refinance your Debt. Protect Equipment and Crops. Utilize the redemption period. Prevent a Sheriff's Sale. Write a realistic reorganizational Plan. # UPTIGHT

The doctor tells you your blood pressure is up. Slow down, he says. Relax. Let's face it. If you're "uptight" there ARE things to do about it. Follow your doctor's orders, yes. Take a deep breath, and look at the beauty of the world around you. Help other people with their problems. But add one extra little prescription. Go to church. Just sit there and let God's peace engulf your anxiety. Chances are that when you walk out the door something new will have been added to your dimension in living.
