The first step in the long road to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pa., will begin here tonight when the district All-Star Tournament begins at 6 p.m.

All-Star teams from Canadian, Sunray, Dumas and Spearman will compete in the two days of competition. The winners will advance to the next higher tournament.

The first game will be in the Little League Park here where Sunray will play Dumas at 6 p.m. Spearman will go against the Canadian All-Stars at 8 p.m.

Winners of the first two games will decide the championship at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Jimmy Kees is manager of the Spearman All-Stars and Bill Cochran is coach. Kees managed the pennant winning Dodgers in the local race and Cochran managed the second half winning Corvairs.

Members of the Spearman All-Stars were selected by the coaches of all the teams. Members of the All-Star team are: Richard Barnes, Yankees; P.A. Lyon III and Fred Shieldknight, Indians; Robert Archer and Lynn Brack, Bucks; Steve Greenway, Don Whitefield, Frank Wilmeth and Ronnie Lusby, Dodgers; Joe Bill Cochran, Dusty Fields, Randy Weston, Gary Staggs and Rony Harper, Corvairs. Alternates are Wesley Brown of the Corvairs and Rex Cook of the Bucks.

Perry Coursey will be the tournament director.

Annexation Requested

The New Hope School District has requested annexation to the Spearman School District in a letter which is on file with the county school board. The request must be passed by the county board and also concurred by the Ochiltree and Hutchinson county boards before acceptance.

The board will meet Friday to take the request into consideration and also to hold a hearing for persons requesting transfer from one district to another in the county.

At the present time the board has 9 students requesting transfer to the Gruver or Spearman School Districts.

The Morse School Board has contested all transfers out of their district and will come before the board to protest this action.

Bike Riding Prohibited After Dark

The City Council at its regular monthly meeting Monday night decided that the 1960 ordinance prohibiting bicycle on the public streets of Spearman between the hours of thirty minutes after sundown and thirty minutes before sunrise should be enforced.

Jimmy Pingleton, owner and operator of the Cosden Station, appeared before the council with a request for amendment to this ordinance. Pingleton asked that the ordinance be changed to allow bicycles with lights to be ridden after dark. The request was refused because the council believed that this would create an immediate danger to the safety and welfare of the citizens of Spearman, especially to the children.

Any person or persons violating this ordinance can be fined upon their conviction not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00. The council ordered the Chief of Police, Wayne Pierce, to enforce this ordinance.

The council approved payment to the Lewis Construction Co. of Dumas for repairs on the city streets upon completion of a few minor repairs.

It was decided that the city would run gas and water lines to the south property line of the airport. This is to supply water and gas to the hangars and to aid in future development of the airport. The laying of these lines on the airport property is to be a private endeavor and must conform to the city ordinances controlling water and gas lines.

The council also decided to move the stop light located at 5th and Dressen to a new location at 7th and Townsend to control the school traffic this fall.

The council discussed the budget presented by Ken Conrey, city manager.

Golfers Slate Tourney Saturday

There will be a Scotch Doubles golf tournament Saturday, July 25 at the local golf course.

The tournament is for members only and there will be an entry fee of $1.00. Play begins at 4 p.m.

Suspects Change Pleas to Guilty

After original pleas of not guilty and a morning of testimony Monday, three defendants charged with the April 18 burglary of the Gruver State Bank changed their pleas to guilty in U.S. Federal Court in Amarillo.

Defense attorneys Lloyd Larkin and Bruce Tarlton of Tulsa, Okla., pleaded the case for Lexie Paul Knott, 35, of Odessa, James Harold Brewer, 18, of Odessa, and Larry Hershell Taylor, 1, of Victoria, Ark., but when faced with overwhelming evidence the three men decided to change their pleas.

Tommy Lee Knott, 21, the other man charged in the burglary, is being held in Tulsa, Okla., in lieu of $50,000 bond and has waived a removal hearing.

The first prosecution witness was Kenneth Irwin, vice president and cashier of the Gruver State Bank. He testified that on Saturday, April 17, he was the last person to leave the bank about 12 noon. On Sunday, April 19, he came to the bank with his two sons about 4:30 p.m. and first noticed that his desk had been ransacked. He then noticed the vault door had been tampered with and there were tire tools, a sledge hammer and acetylene equipment lay on the floor near the vault.

Next on the stand was Hansford County Deputy Sheriff Billie Haden of Spearman. Haden stated that when he arrived at the scene he took pictures of the bank, the vault, the tools, the back of the bank and a house across the alley.

Hansford County Sheriff J. B. Cooke of Spearman was then called to the stand to give his account of the investigation. Cooke testified concerning the tanks of oxygen and acetylene left in the bank and that he went to Ardmore, Cont. on page 2

Toastmasters Meet Tonight

Spearman's Toastmasters Club will be formerly organized at a dinner meeting at 7 p.m. tonight in Grunewald's Restaurant in Plains Shopping Center.

Twenty-five men, including six from Amarillo and five from Guymon clubs, attended an information meeting Thursday night.

After learning about the club and its purpose, Ed Dear was named temporary chairman until the club is organized. Bill Massie will serve as temporary secretary. James P. Linn and Wayne Chapman were appointed as a by-laws committee. Jim Davis and James Cummings were designated to select a time and meeting place for the regular meetings.

The organization is to help men learn to speak before groups and conduct meetings, and in general overcome "stage fright." It is open to all men over 21 years of age.

Mojos to Play for Teen Town Dance

The Mojoes, a teenage band from Pampa, have been hired for the first Teen Town dance this Friday night at the Community Building. The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and last until 11 p.m. The age limit for the dance has been set by the board as high school age to 20 years old.

Annual Tourney Starts Sunday

Spearman's Annual Membership Golf Club Tournament will be played on the local golf course Sunday with the first players teeing off at 1 p.m.

There is no entry fee. Trophies will be given in the championship, A, B and C flights.

Testimony was also given concerning how the burglars entered the bank and the articles and money taken.

After the noon recess, the trio's attorneys asked that the jury be withdrawn and then changed their pleas to guilty. Attorneys requested that Taylor, who is out on bond, be allowed to remain free on bond. Judge Dooley granted the request, Knott and Brewer were returned to jail.

Farm-to-Market Roads Reviewed

Two representatives from the county commissioner's court went before the highway commission in Austin Tuesday to review the Farm-to-Market road system in Hansford County.

The representatives, Buddy Low and Johnny Lee, reported that possibly there will be a Farm-to-Market project for the county in September, but did not disclose the location of the project.

J.E. Haley Authors New Book

His pen dipped in acid, Canyon Historian J. Evetts Haley traces the career of Lyndon Johnson in his latest book just off the press.

The book is entitled "A Texas Looks at Lyndon...A Study in Illegitimate Power."

It is a critique of the life of a man who rose from the obscurity of a country school teacher to political power and material wealth—done while on public payroll, mostly as an elected official.

Haley describes himself as a cowboy-cattleman. He also is a historian and is considered outstanding by many in his field.

He is author of 12 books and takes an active interest in politics.

A Successful Close

With the All-Star tournament here this week another Little League Baseball season has drawn to a successful close. It has been a successful season in many ways, financially, sportsmanship and player participation.

It has been a success financially because a dedicated group of men took the reins of the program this year. Most of them had boys in the program and they were willing to give the time necessary to keep the Little League moving forward. Under their leadership and through the cooperation of organizations, businesses and individuals, the league has paid old debts and now has a bank balance.

The league is always a success in player participation because a large majority of young boys like to play baseball. Boys are natural competitors and have tons of atomic energy to expend each day. Little League games and workouts give them one avenue of energy release. Despite the articles to the contrary most boys like to play, if you doubt it, just get to the park early and see the early birds have a scrub game.

Probably the hardest thing to make successful in Little League is sportsmanship. Not among the players, but among the adult spectators and sometimes among the adults working in the program. The Spearman program has never had too much of this by adults, but at times it has cropped up. This year those associated with the league say this has been the most congenial season they have worked in.

To all the men who have given so generously of their time this summer to provide Spearman boys with a good supervised program, we speak for all the town when we say "Thank You" for helping our boys.

A Dangerous Business

Farming and ranching is a dangerous business! In 1962 there were 8,700 farm people killed and 800,000 injured in accidents. In fact, there are only one or two other industries that are as dangerous as farming.

In other industries there is a concentrated effort made to educate workers in safety. Large amounts of money and time is expended in safety education, safety equipment and safer ways of doing the work.

Familiarity is said to breed contempt and that is probably why there are so many accidents and deaths around farm equipment. A farmer lives every day with machinery and livestock. He knows or thinks he knows just what everything is going to do, but it is the sudden change in the routine that makes the accidents.

We hope that every farmer and rancher and everyone who works on a farm will take the time to work carefully, keep the safety guards on his equipment, keep a close watch on that "gentle" bull and conduct his own safety education program.

Let each one do his share to reduce that number killed and injured in the agriculture industry each year.

Sunflowers Being Studied As Future Cash Crop in Texas

Will sunflowers be a profitable crop on the High Plains of Texas? Scientists at the High Plains Research Foundation, near Plainview, believe that sunflowers will be a cash crop for many areas of Texas and the Southwest within five years. The Foundation is conducting research to find out. A sunflower breeding program was started at the Foundation in 1957.

Several hundred strains have been selected which show considerable promise for sunflower production. The objectives of the program are to investigate sunflowers as a crop that could be profitably grown under existing conditions of soil, available water, and climate on the High Plains; and to develop improved varieties of sunflowers adapted to mechanized harvesting.

The search is for a sunflower variety that will have: (1) high yielding ability with a large single head with good seed set; (2) a short, sturdy plant that can produce a maximum amount of grain with a minimum amount of water; (3) disease resistant; and (4) exhibit a high degree of insect resistance, especially to the larval stage of the sunflower head moth. This insect has been the number one menace to sunflower seed production.

There were 670 strains of sunflowers in the 1963 breeding program-440 of these were original strains received from all over the world on a private exchange basis. To initiate this program, twenty four strains were inbred. Two hundred and twenty strains were obtained from the Plant Introduction Service of the USDA.

Two hundred and thirty open-pollinated heads were selected for planting, and a number of self-pollinated heads were selected for the 1964 breeding program. The entire row of two strains were harvested to obtain seed for planting this year for the purpose of increasing seed. When sufficient seed is available, these strains will be subjected to further testing.

The sunflower is valuable as a food for livestock and people. It has a good quality protein and oil. It is a profitable crop in Canada and several areas in the United States.

The modern sunflower has a large head, one to the plant, with bent head that prevents bird damage. A yield of 3,500 to 4,000 pounds per acre is being sought to produce a profitable crop. The sunflower plant desired has a strong stock resistant to early wind damage and can be produced with less irrigation water than other crops.

Small Grain Yield Results In Low Crop Residues

The light small grain yield on dryland in the Hansford Soil Conservation District brought about by inadequate moisture will also result in low crop residues.

Yet, in the long run, the residues if properly managed, could mean more than the sale of grain in this dry year. Each single straw that is left following harvest will do a job in soil and water conservation.

The most effective method of managing the residues for soil protection is to leave the stubble high on the surface of the soil.

Research and experience has shown that the expected percent of residue lost for each plowing operation for various types of equipment is as follows:

- a. Large sweeps, rod weeder and blade type-10
- b. Cultivator and close-spaced sweeps-15
- c. Tandem disk harrow-25
- d. One-way disk plow-50.

Several local clipping studies of dryland small grain residues (based on air-dry weight) by Soil Conservation Service technicians in the Hansford Soil Conservation District have shown an average production of 1250 pounds per acre.

Research and local experience have also shown that a minimum of 750 pounds of residue must be left for protection on the "heavier" soils, 1250 pounds for "medium" textured soils and 1750 pounds for "sandy" soils for drilled crops such as small grain.

The figures mentioned indicate that one plowing with a one way would leave only one-half the original amount of residue.

If there is only 1250 pounds to begin with, and your soil requires 750 pounds of residue for protection, the answer is simple--your soil goes to the man who protects his land. This would be a good year to start stubble mulch farming to help reduce your wind erosion problem.

Discuss this method of conservation farming with your Soil Conservation Technician or County Agent the next chance you get.

I will be receiving a weekly sorghum midge report beginning this week, which I will pass on to you by this column. The report will be based on survey findings by Mr.

PRAIRIE DOG BOMBS
I now have about 350 sulphur gas bombs for prairie dog control. These sulphur cartridges have proven satisfactory in killing prairie dogs if used correctly. They cost 10¢ each, so they should be used only on small towns or in cleaning up a town after poison grain has been used.

IRRIGATING COTTON
Don't start irrigating cotton too soon! Cotton that received a good pre-plant irrigation or has benefitted from recent rains should have enough moisture in the ground to last until the first white blooms appear. Cotton at this stage of growth should be about 60 days of age.

Watering cotton prior to this time can lead to troubles.

1. If watered too early (before white blooms appear) cotton tends to keep growing in a vegetative manner and doesn't start fruiting early.

2. Early irrigation can lower soil temperatures in the root zone of cotton plants. This encourages blights, wilts and seedling diseases. Above all, irrigation shouldn't be practiced when fields of young cotton are disease-ridden, as this tends to compound the problem.

3. Watering too early can also keep roots from penetrating deep in the soil. Especially in the tighter soils area north of Lubbock, this can create hazards. If roots haven't penetrated deep in the soil, the normally hot, dry weather of August will cause plants to become moisture-stressed. An inadequate root system means farmers won't be able to irrigate their cotton fields often enough at this time to keep plants adequately supplied with water.

If irrigation water is short, it might be necessary to start watering before the first white blooms appear. Irrigation should be timed as closely as possible to appearance of the first white blooms.

Highest water requirement of cotton plants occurs at peak bloom stage. At this stage, cotton will use one-fourth to four-tenths inches per day. This compares to less than one-tenth inch per day for cotton plants from emergence to squaring stages. From white bloom to peak blooming stage, cotton plants will utilize one-tenth to one-fourth acre-inches water daily.

Several years research at South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, has shown a six-inch preplant irrigation plus two four-inch post-plants gives maximum yields with top net returns in normal growing seasons. A good rain at the proper time can eliminate one of the postplant irrigations.

Observance of a water cut-off date is very important. In areas from Lubbock north, water should be cut-off by August 20. From Lubbock south, August 20 to 25 are considered optimum cut-off dates. Following this practice will mean better grades of cotton going to the gin, with less "bollies" and more money in the bank.

"It is written that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God."
Dueteronomy 8:3

Even in this modern world today, bread alone is not enough. A man may achieve fame and great wealth, only to discover something still "missing" in his search for happiness. Whatever his means, the man lives by the words of God is richest of all.

Day By Day

Writing a column a week or so ahead is not an easy thing to do. There's always the chance that whatever you've chosen to write about will, in the meantime, be altered by newer developments and sound distinctly "old hat".

Still, if there's to be a vacation, that's exactly what must be done unless you try to write back some witty incidents enroute datelines "GRAND CANYON--or GREAT AMERICAN DESERT--".

I'd certainly be the last to criticize such entertaining columns as Harold Hudson, editor of the Ochiltree County Herald, just finished, written enroute to and at the World's Fair. After reading his accounts of the trip in the "From the Sideline" I almost felt like I'd made a very pleasant trip to New York City and the fair. Still though, I'm a little afraid I'd get off somewhere sightseeing and forget there was "work" to be done so I'm taking the easy route and writing ahead of time, for this week anyway.

I notice the stores in Spearman are now getting shipment after shipment of new fall clothing. The approach of autumn always seems to me to be the most exciting change of season, clothes-wise. Maybe there's more emphasis on clothing for the fall and winter season because of young girls replenishing their wardrobes before the exciting departure for college. Whether it's that, or just the anticipation of ball games and club meetings, almost everyone I know enjoys seeing what's new for the cooler weather ahead.

I like to try and not be back-woods about the latest styles but some of the syndicated columns concerning what is "in" and is definitely not, are faintly amusing to me. Like "another designer copied the wide stiff brim of the Boy Scout hat with narrow chin strap tie" and "watch for head-hugging caps that are sleek and curved to the contour of the head with sides usually narrowed down in semi-circle fashion over the ears." Now honestly!

I'll never make the best-dressed list I know, but when it comes to wearing modified Boy Scout hats and semi-circled, contoured ear-huggers, well, I guess maybe you'd have to see them to appreciate them.

Here's a cherry-angel dessert recipe that is as easy as pie, or maybe easier.

CHERRY ANGEL DESSERT
8 cups 1/2 inch cubes angel cake
One No. 2 can (2 1/2 cups) cherry pie filling
One pkg. instant vanilla pudding
1 1/2 cups milk
1 cup dairy sour cream

Place half the cake pieces in a 9"X9"X2" pan. Reserve 1/3 cup cherry filling; spoon remainder over cake. Top with remaining cake. Combine pudding mix, milk and sour cream; beat until smooth; smooth over cake. Chill 5 hours. Cut in 9 squares. Garnish with reserved filling.

Family Needs
C.W.F. Theme

The General Council of C. W. F. held a regular session Wednesday, July 15, at 2 p. m. in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church.

Ruth Bryan, president, opened the meeting with the C. W. F. prayer. Virus Wilbanks gave the devotional from Psalms 96.

Bobby Novak gave the program entitled "Summertime Needs of the Family".

Phyllis Jean Davis reported on the church encampment she attended at Ceta Glen.

Betty Jean Davis closed the meeting with prayer.

Pheleo Circle served refreshments of cake and iced tea to the group.

Attending were Estelle Jackson, Margaret Evans, Bobby Novak, Virus Wilbanks, Hazel Wilbanks, Eleanor Reed, Lucy Mundy, Dorothy Pugh, Ruth Bryan, Betty Davis and Mae Floyd.

Mrs. David Coke Cudd

Brinkley-Cudd
Vows Exchanged

Miss Carla Junaita Brinkley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brinkley, became the bride of David Coke Cudd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Cudd of Perryton, in a double ring ceremony performed at 4 o'clock July 10 in the First Baptist Church.

Rev. Luther M. Berry officiated at the ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli and flanked by candles.

Mrs. Fred Groves played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Margaret Mullins as she sang "Whither Thou Goest", "Today", and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress of white patrician lace over white satin, fashioned with a round neckline, long fitted sleeves that came to a point at the wrists, and a chapel train. Her veil cascaded from a white satin pillbox embroidered with pearls. She carried an orchid surrounded by stephanitis.

Sandra Miller was maid of honor. Ann Pronger of Stratford and Betty Cudd, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Burton Schubert, sister of the bride, was brides matron. The attendants wore dresses of a privot embossed peau de soie. Their veils were attached to matching bows and they carried small white bibles topped by white glameillas.

The bride's mother wore an aqua suit with nude accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua and white dress with aqua jacket and black accessories. They wore white glameilla corsages.

James Banks was best man. Burton Schubert, brother-in-law of the bride and Leslie Witt were ushers, and groomsmen were Gary Parvin, Ardell Black and Danny Witt.

Ring bearer was Mike Cudd, nephew of the groom and flower girl was Margie Schubert, niece of the bride.

A reception was held following the ceremony in fellowship hall. The serving table was laid with an ecru lace tablecloth over apricot and the three tiered wedding cake was decorated with sugar bells. The bibles and flowers the attendants carried were used as a centerpiece.

The bride wore a white suit with red accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet on their wedding trip to Oklahoma City, Lake Texhoma and Turner Falls.

The bride is a graduate of Spearman High School and attended WTSU in Canyon. The bridegroom is a graduate of Perryton High School, attended PAMC at Goodwell and WTSU.

The couple will make their home in Perryton, where he is engaged in farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob White

Mrs. Johnny Ballard Stewart Jr.

Griffin - Stewart
United In Marriage

Miss Linda Jane Griffin, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Waid Griffin of Lubbock, became the bride of Ens. Johnny Ballard Stewart Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Stewart, in a formal military wedding ceremony solemnized recently. Asbury Methodist Church in Lubbock, where the bride's father is pastor, was the scene of the mid-morning service.

Fathers of the bride and bridegroom officiated at the double ring ceremony and Roy Ward gave his granddaughter in marriage. Both Rev. Griffin and Rev. Stewart are former pastors of the First Methodist Church here.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta with bodice of alencon lace over satin. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a cabbage rose outlined with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Chris Velte of Bedford was matron of honor to her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Marian McAadoo of Ama-riilo and Miss Clela Nell Allen of Lubbock. Miss Penny Griffin of Lubbock, another sister of the bride, lighted the tapers and flower girl was Miss Connie Ann Davis of Abilene. Paul C. Velte of Bedford was ringbearer.

Marine Cadet Danny R. Salyden of New Orleans, La., was best man and groomsmen were Don A. Stewart, brother of the bridegroom, and Chris Velte of Bedford. Ushering were Dickie Clemmer of Snyder, Dennis Lewis of Sweetwater and Grady Allen of Lubbock.

Traditional wedding selections were presented at the organ by Robert D. Winn and soloist was another sister of the bride, Tischa Gail Griffin of Lubbock.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. The couple then departed on a wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla.

The bride was graduated from Hockaday School in Dallas and McMurry College in Abilene, where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in music education. Her husband, a graduate of McLean High School, attended McMurry and recently received his commission and wings from the United States Navy, after having completed advanced jet training at Chase Field in Beeville. He will be stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., where the couple will reside.

Double Ring Vows Exchanged

In a double ring ceremony July 12, Miss Janie Jeffries, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jeffries became the bride of Joe Bob White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob White of Limon, Colo. The ceremony was held in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. T. Rafferty Sr. of Gruver. Rev. Herbert Hughes performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with a tall palm tree flanked by two white tapered stands holding pink candles and baskets of delphinium, pink roses and gladioli.

Music for the wedding was pre-recorded tapes by Mrs. Grace Bennett as pianist and Mrs. Rafferty as soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a two piece white silk suit fashioned with a round neckline and three-quarter sleeves. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a white bible topped with a white orchid surrounded by stephanitis.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Marian Jeffries. She wore a pale pink sheath dress accented by a pink and white corsage of carnations and roses.

Flower girl was Miss Trudy Ireland of Abilene, and candlelighters were Misses Candy and Kathy Ireland, also of Abilene. They wore white organza dresses trimmed in white lace and pink carnation corsages.

Best man was Ron Ascherman of Rocky Ford, Colo. The ushers were Barney Rafferty and Mike Ireland of Abilene, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Jeffries chose a blue silk dress and black accessories for her daughters wedding. The groom's mother wore a yellow silk dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

At the reception following the ceremony, the serving table was laid with a white cut-work linen cloth over pink, and centered with a wedding cake decorated with pink and white roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver candelabras with pink candles flanked the cake. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Serving were Mrs. Ed Rafferty, Jr. aunt of the bride, Sandie Rafferty, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Charles Black, aunt of the bride and Mollie Rafferty, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ada Joyce Stedje.

Mrs. John Ireland, aunt of the bride, registered the guests.

After a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will make their home near Limon, Colo. until fall when they will attend PAMC at Goodwell.

The bride is a graduate of Gruver High School and the groom is a graduate of Limon High School and both have attended PAMC.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb

Late sleepers usually miss or skip breakfast during the summer time and when school is in session, too.

Skipping breakfast is not a good idea at any age, and it is particularly harmful for youngsters and teenagers.

The human body needs refueling regularly and breakfast is the meal that follows the longest stretch of non-eating.

Without an adequate breakfast, fatigue sets in earlier, irritability is increased, work output is reduced, and virtually all reaction time slows down. School children do not learn as easily, for they lack energy and sometimes become behavior problems. So you can see why breakfast is the most important meal of the day—yet, too many do not eat breakfast.

Lack of time is the most frequent reason given for skipping or skipping breakfast. This shortage of time is mostly a habit and can be corrected by revising one's schedule and getting up a few minutes earlier.

If you make breakfast a family affair, everyone has the advantage of a good breakfast. And young people form a habit that will stand them in good stead the remainder of their lives.

If you think you need new breakfast ideas, look for them—they are easily found in recipe books, magazines and newspapers. We often fall into a rut with breakfast, which quenches some appetites. Breakfast can have as much variety as any other meal.

Fresh fruits while in season can be a boon to breakfast appetites. A larger volume of most fresh fruits can be expected this year.

Only the peach crop will be smaller. The U.S. crop of pears, sweet cherries and sour cherries are sharply above last year's crop. Larger crops of apricots, nectarines, plums and prunes are also in prospect.

Some of these fruits are available to us now, so take advantage of them for your family.

One hint I would like to pass along to you: Keeping clothing immaculately clean extends its life. It is very unwise to "press only" clothing which has been soiled with body oils, whether done at home or at the dry cleaners. Pressing just sets these damaging soils into the fabric so they are harder to remove.

I will be out of the office July 27 through August 14, attending district and state 4-H training meetings, and one week's vacation.

Party Honors David Smith

David Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, was honored with a birthday party at his home Thursday, July 16.

Hot dogs, pop and checker-board birthday cake were served to the honoree and guests. After supper the group went to the show.

Those helping David celebrate his tenth birthday were Eldon Allen, Jimmy Conrey, Danny Morris, David Thomas, Lynn Pierce, Larry and Terry McCume from Boise City and Ronnie Nunn from Tulsa, Okla.

James Snowden who is attending A&M University this summer visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Snowden.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Ayers had as their guests recently his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Altus Ayers and children from Yukon, Okla.

FEAR NOT!

One word that characterizes so many persons today is fear. For example we fear cancer may strike us; or we fear the careless driver on the highway, or we fear rains may not come, or storms may strike. We fear. We fear. We fear financial busts or rumors of wars. We fear death.

Fear is not uncommon to the human race. Whenever our first citizens of this planet, Adam and Eve sinned, they ran and hid because they feared God. Fear is part of the universal fallen race, part of the broken relationship with God.

How do we overcome fear? Simply with courage? Never. Fear is not something we can neutralize by ourselves. We need to learn to trust in something.

For the Christian, we do not fear death, final judgment. Christ Jesus has become our substitute. On Him God has laid all our guilt. In Him we trust for resurrection from the dead, even as He was dead.

buried and raised again from the dead.

Christians are people who do not have to be afraid. Small as we are, we have a God of power and grace who goes on before us. We don't fear wars, and mental pain or threats of tyrannies. We know even these cannot make us surrender to fear.

For we know that the ultimate issues, the last decisions, will not be made by men or even nations. They will be made by the same God and Lord we have loved all our life.

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for Thou art with me..." (Psalm 23)

Fear may be in the world, but to Christians we trust alone in God and Christ, knowing He knows our problems, our needs. Are you afraid today friend? Put your trust in God. Seek out a Christian friend on whom you can talk and gain this trust that Christians have.

Cooperative Program Is Growing Trend

A cooperative education program under which a student alternates between a job and classes is a growing trend among colleges, says Mrs. Wanda Meyer, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M University. Cooperative education programs are in operation in 60 colleges around the nation and have some 30,000 students enrolled, the National Commission for Cooperative Education reports. The Commission hopes to double the number of colleges and increase the number of participating students by 45,000 during the next 10 years.

In a typical plan, a full-time job in industry or a government agency is shared by two students. When one student is on the job, the other attends college. At the end of a semester or quarter, they swap places. Thus the employer has the equivalent of a full-time worker, and each student spends about half of his time in college. Under most such programs, a student requires five years to obtain a bachelor degree.

Educators in charge of cooperative programs say they benefit a student in two ways: He earns considerably more--about $500 a year on the average--than a student who works full time only in the summer and part-time during school; and he gets valuable experience in his particular career work. Cooperative programs are most widely used in engineering colleges, but now are being extended to other fields, says Mrs. Meyer. Interested students can obtain the list of cooperating colleges by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: The National Commission for Cooperative Education, 8 West 40th Street, New York, N.Y., 10018.

Miss Henderson In Revue Today

The District I 4-H Dress Revue will be held at 2:30 p.m. today (Thursday) in the Federation of Women's Club Building in Wolfin Village. Judges will be Mrs. Mildred Patterson, Lubbock County Home Demonstration Agent and Juanetta Williams, Garza County HD Agent. Nineteen counties will be represented in the Senior Division of the contest. Miss Patricia Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henderson of Morse, will represent Hansford County. Junior girls will be modeling at the contest but will not be judged. Miss Rebecca Hutchison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hutchison, will be a junior model.

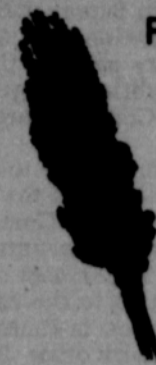

Highway 15 Plan Progresses

The Highway 15 Association will meet at the Borger Hotel at noon July 29. Representatives from all the towns from Big Springs to Spearman are to attend the meeting. This is to be the last meeting of the association before they present their project to the State Highway Commission. The project is a two state project to get the highways from Enid, Okla. to Dalhart redesignated as Highway 15. This will give access to the vacation areas of Colorado and New Mexico across the northern part of Oklahoma and Texas.

The Highway 15 Association will have to acquire permission to reroute Highway 15 from Spearman to Claude turning it west from Spearman to Dalhart. The association from Big Springs is trying to acquire a state highway from Big Springs to Spearman. This would take the place of the present Highway 15 from Spearman to Claude.

Highway 15
Plan Progresses

The Highway 15 Association will meet at the Borger Hotel at noon July 29.

Representatives from all the towns from Big Springs to Spearman are to attend the meeting. This is to be the last meeting of the association before they present their project to the State Highway Commission.

The project is a two state project to get the highways from Enid, Okla. to Dalhart redesignated as Highway 15. This will give access to the vacation areas of Colorado and New Mexico across the northern part of Oklahoma and Texas.

The Highway 15 Association will have to acquire permission to reroute Highway 15 from Spearman to Claude turning it west from Spearman to Dalhart.

The association from Big Springs is trying to acquire a state highway from Big Springs to Spearman. This would take the place of the present Highway 15 from Spearman to Claude.
