

INSURANCE SUITS SETTLED

Ten civil lawsuits filed by Hansford, Ochiltree and Lipscomb County residents against Southern States Life Insurance Company of Houston, C.R. or Clifford Sinclair of Houston and Donald J. Weller of Houston were recently settled out of court.

Nine of the suits were filed in 84th District Court and one in 31st District Court against Southern States Life Insurance Company, Donald J. Weller of Houston, a vice president in charge of agents for the company and C.R. or Clifford Sinclair an agent for the company.

Howell Whitaker, Ernest Negem, Donald W. Laird, Howland Reich and Jack Harvey

Domec, all insurance agents for Sinclair were named as defendants in some of the different suits.

Attorney J.D. Helms of Spearman who represented the ten plaintiffs said his clients sued to have alleged loans removed from their insurance policies on the grounds of alleged fraud and the return of any money paid to the company under fraudulent conditions by some of the plaintiffs.

In the suits the plaintiffs charged that Sinclair and his agents were working as agents of Southern States Life Insurance Company and Donald J. Weller as Vice President in charge of agents was acting within the scope and course of his employment of the company.

Helms said all of his clients were owners of paid-up insurance policies with Southern States Life Insurance Company.

The suits charged that Sinclair and or one or more of his agents approached the policy holders with offers that because they had paid up policies and for tax savings to the company, Southern States Life Insurance, would issue them another paid-up policy at no cost to the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs signed blank forms which they charge were represented as applications for the additional free insurance, but which later developed to have been an application to purchase additional insurance. The plaintiffs charged they signed the forms in blank because the agents claimed they did not know the face value of the paid-up insurance and it would have to be determined before the amount of free insurance could be issued.

The plaintiffs charged the agents later filled in the signed applications for additional insurance and made application for loans on their paid-up insurance policies to pay the first and sometimes second years' premiums on the new insurance.

A large portion of the first year's premium goes to the agent selling the insurance.

The new policies were mailed to the policy holders, but only one of the plaintiffs caught the fact that a loan had been filed on his old policy or policies.

The other plaintiffs did not discover the alleged fraud until they received notices from the company that premiums were due on the new insurance they did not know they had purchased.

In their suits the plaintiffs charged that Donald J. Weller furnished C.R. Sinclair and his agents with the names, ages, and amount of paid-up insurance owned by policy holders of the company.

In the settlement out of court, Helms said the plaintiffs had the loans removed from their policies and any money they had paid on the additional insurance, plus the costs of bringing the suits.

Similar lawsuits have been filed by policyholders in other counties of the Panhandle.

Criminal charges of theft over $50 have been filed here against C.R. Sinclair, and Ernest Negem. These were filed on August 20, 1964 in Justice of Peace Court before Judge J. P. Vernon. The men are each free on $5,000 bond.

As a result of these suits and other complaints filed with the Texas Insurance Commission, a hearing was held on March 19, 1965 and the commission has suspended the insurance licenses of Weller, Sinclair, Whitaker, Negem, Laird, Reich and Domec.

Mayor Proclaims This Week To Be Spearman FFA Week

Spearman Mayor Bob Vaughn signed a proclamation this week making Feb. 19-26 officially Future Farmers of America Week in Spearman, thus the city joins the rest of the nation in officially recognizing this national youth organization.

Watching the signing was the officers of the Spearman FFA Chapter President Larry Babbs, Vice President Phillip Renner, Secretary Mart Brillhart, Treasurer, Richard Pipkin, Reporter Ricky Howerter and Sentinel Lynn Buzzard.

Mayor Vaughn told the officers he was honored to sign the proclamation and he was proud of the record the local FFA has compiled this year.

There are 98 boys in the Spearman FFA. They are all enrolled in Vocational Agriculture in high school. Advisors and teachers Jerry Felder and Warren Mitchell teach four years of agriculture.

Besides the regular classwork which includes the study of crops, livestock, soils, grasses, record keeping, shop work and other agriculture related subjects, the FFA members have been active in contests and showing livestock in the major shows.

This is the first year the Spearman FFA members have been on the major show circuit. They have done well in their rookie season.

Last October nine boys showed 12 animals at the State Fair of Texas. Charles Gilliam placed highest with a barrow that was second in the medium weight Poland China Class. There were 700 barrows in the show.

The chapter took 38 barrows to the Amarillo Fat Stock Show and placed 27 head. There were 560 entries in this show.

Daniel Smith had a bred champion in the show and Lynn Kemper had a first place winner. Six other boys had barrows to place second or third.

In the steer show at Amarillo Glenn Blodgett and Jock Lee had steers to place in their classes.

The chapter took barrows and steers to the Fort Worth (Con't. on back page.)

Sales Program Set Here Saturday Night

A capsule course in Human Relations and Over-The-Counter Selling will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Junior High Cafeteria for local merchants and their sale personnel. The meeting includes a dinner.

Sponsored by the Hansford Plainsman, the sales training event is the opening gun to a city-wide promotion in which leading merchants are participating.

It is a new approach to improving the image of Spearman as a friendly, progressive community, with emphasis on shopping facilities.

The sales clinic will be conducted by Bill Leigh, President of William A. Leigh Associates, Inc., a national sales promotion firm.

Other communities where this clinic has been held report that this capsule course gives an informative and comprehensive presentation of down to earth problems in both salesmanship and human relations.

Mr. Leigh has a background of many years of experience in both management and direct selling. He is well-versed in advertising and community promotions. For the past 15 years he has been a consultant and director of sales promotion in over 2,000 communities throughout the nation. His lectures have always been a feature of his stops in cities around the nation.

Although the sales clinic is designed principally for the benefit of salespeople who come in direct contact with customers, professional people in varied fields say the course is of great educational and inspirational value.

Tom Kemper will assist Leigh in explaining the city-wide promotion to Spearman businessmen.

If for any reason a business firm is not contacted and would like to participate, call the Hansford Plainsman.

The sales representatives came to Spearman from Perryton and Guyton, Okla., where they have just concluded successful presentations.

Agriculture is by far the nation's largest single industry. While the percentage of farm people to total U.S. Population is declining, there still are 14.3 million persons living on farms. The value of farm products sold in 1965 was in excess of 40 billion dollars.

the 1964 crop. This large crop raised the supply to 1,221 million bushels, 7 percent of sorghum grain is expected to substantially increase during the 1965-66 year due to the large crop and expected lower prices. Exports should be above last year but slightly below the previous record supply of 1963-64.

McHaney said domestic use equal the record of 148 million bushels of last year. Total disappearance is expected to increase by 7 percent to over 600 million bushels, he said. The October 1, 1966 carryover is expected to be about 600 million bushels, up 34 million from a year earlier.

As for sorghum grain prices, McHaney believes they will average lower in relation to corn this year than in 1964-65. The much larger production in 1965, the reduction in the loan rate from $p.77 to 1.65 per cwt. and the lower CCC sale price are major factors putting downward pressure on prices, he said.

The economist believes corn prices will average lower than CCC sale prices and nearer the 1965 loan rate of $1.05 per bushel than was the case in 1964-65.

Cat prices are likely to average below those of a year ago for the remainder of the 1965-66 marketing year, predicts McHaney. Barley prices, on the other hand, are expected to remain high in relation to corn and other feed grains because of the below average production and reduced carryover.

Production of Feed Grains Sets New Record in 1965

The production of feed grains in the nation set a new record in 1965. Yields were 18 percent higher than in 1964 and 11 percent above the previous record set in 1963, reports John G. McHaney, Extension economist at Texas A&M University.

The record per acre yields increased the supply for 1965-66 by 10 million tons above the previous year but the 217 million tons available, McHaney explains, is 5 million tons below the 1959-63 average.

The disappearance of feed grains is expected to increase during 1965-66 and may reach 157 million tons or 5 to 6 million above the past year and above the 196-162 record. Lower feed grain prices and generally favorable livestock feed-price ratios, feeding livestock to heavier weights and an 8 to 10 percent increase in exports were cited by McHaney as major factors in the total disappearance picture. Despite the bright picture some 5 million tons will be added to the carryover at the end of the marketing year, he said, due to the big 1965 production.

As for sorghum grain, McHaney said Texas produced a lot of the record 655 million bushels, 34 percent higher than

Research Shows Less Frequent Feeding Range Cattle Saves Labor, Travel

Cattlemen may be able to save time and money by feeding protein supplement twice a week during the winter rather than daily feeding. Research done by Texas A&M University scientists indicates feeding protein supplement twice a week is just as satisfactory as feeding daily or three times a week. This doesn't mean feeding less protein--just feeding larger amounts less frequently.

The result from twice weekly feeding: about a 60 percent saving of labor and travel compared to daily feeding.

The research was done by A.A. Melton, associate animal husbandman at A&M's McGregor field station, and J. K. Riggs, professor in the Animal Science Department at A&M. It was done in the Trans-Pecos area, but the researchers say less frequent feeding may well apply to most other areas of Texas.

Melton said winter roughage for range cattle in the Southwest usually consists of dried native grass. The dried grass may provide adequate energy but be deficient in protein during the winter and spring months. Thus, the need for protein supplement.

The common practice is feeding cottonseed cake or other protein on a daily basis. As labor and transportation costs increase, cattlemen are looking for labor saving systems of supplemental feeding. One of these methods is feeding less frequently.

Until now, there has been little or no research to indicate that cattle perform satisfactorily on less than daily supplemental feeding. However, some cattlemen have been mixing salt with cottonseed meal or other concentrate to permit self-feeding, yet limit consumption. Some blend urea with molasses to permit self-feeding. For the most part, these have proved satisfactory.

In the A&M test, three groups of Hereford cows and heifers were wintered for four years. All groups got the same amount of cottonseed cake each week--only the frequency of feeding was varied between groups.

One group got two pounds of cottonseed cake per head daily the first year, and three pounds daily the last three years of the test. The second group was fed seven pounds each on Tuesdays and Saturdays during the first year, and 10.5 pounds on Tuesdays and Saturdays the last three years.

Group three got four and two-thirds pounds per head on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the first year and seven pounds on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the last three years.

Total gain for the 4-year test was slightly in favor of the cows fed twice weekly. Cattle fed three times weekly gained 535 pounds, those fed daily gained 564 pounds and those fed twice weekly gained 570 pounds. Cattle fed twice a week tended to graze more widely over the pasture and not wait for the supplemental feed as much as the other groups, said the researchers.

The scientists say calf production is the real test in evaluating animal response to feeding frequency. Here again, cows fed twice weekly came out slightly ahead of the others.

Those fed daily weaned an 81.3 percent calf crop, and those cows fed twice weekly weaned an 89 percent calf crop.

The researchers point out these figures are not significantly in favor of the twice weekly feeding until the saving of time and labor is evaluated.

Then the 60 percent advantage shows--and that can mean a big saving for cattlemen.

PRACTICE- Bobby Bowmer, an FFA boy, practices showing his sheep. The animal will be shown later this year in the county show.

came to Las Vegas highly recommended by publishers, broadcasters, merchants and Chamber of Commerce managers. His sales clinic here at Convention Center far surpassed our fondest expectation. The Las Vegas Review-Journal.

Hilo, Hawaii--"I cannot recommend Mr. Leigh too highly. His sales clinic here caused a greater impact on Hilo than anything since the 1960 tidal wave. The 700 sales people who attended this sales clinic will never forget Bill Leigh." Monte Marrow, Hawaii Tribune-Herald.

LaCrosse, Wis. "The sales clinic at LaCrosse is the best single thing we have done in seven years to improve relations with LaCrosse advertisers. At the dinner, 65 firms were represented by 167 retailers and their sales staff. We like what one man said after the clinic 'It's going to be downright dangerous for customers to come shopping in LaCrosse after all these sales people were inspired by Bill Leigh.'"

Grinnell Iowa--"After 30 years in advertising, radio, television and sales and having attended top sales meetings by professional sales managers I finally found one man from Oklahoma who laid the facts on the table and saw them gobbled up by eager-to-learn sales minded personnel and leading merchants. That man Bill Leigh! Attend just one of his lectures and you'll want to hear him more often." Braden Powell, manager Grinnell Chamber of Commerce.

His wife, Annetta, was visiting a daughter, Mrs. Tip McNulty in Grand Junction, Colo. at the time of the accident.

A brother, Moody Womble, of Morse was enroute to Truth or Consequences and passed the accident but did not recognize his brother's new car. Lynxettes Fall 64-58 To Powerful Springlake Spearman's iron six, the survivors of the Lynxette basketball team, battled the fast-flying Springlake Wolverinettes toe-to-toe for 32 minutes before falling 64-58 in Claude Friday night.

The tall, fast Springlake six is rated the number one team in Class A in the state and has victories over the top teams on the South Plains. They have split games with Tulia and Floydada, the leading AAA and AA teams on the South Plains. Springlake was leading 17-15 at the end of the first quarter and held the lead the rest of the way. They had a nine point lead, 34-25 at the half.

At one time in the third quarter, Springlake stretched the lead to 12 points, but the Lynxettes battled back and late in the fourth period they were behind only four points.

Barbara Wilde led the scoring with 23 points. Karen Gibson bombed the basket from the outside to rack up 20 points and Marcia Shieldknight put in 15 points. Wilde had eight field goals, Gibson had seven and Shieldknight had six.

The Lynxettes hit 16 of 21 free shots and 21 field goals. Springlake had 30 field goals and only four free shots.

Spearman's guards, Robbie Ownbey, Susan Hutchison and Nancy McCullough, were battling a big height advantage against Springlake, but were able to come up with a number of rebounds. Nancy McCullough was the only guard to pick up a foul. She had three trying to defend against the Springlake post girls.

Coach Dean Weese went all the way with his starting six until the last minute when he used guard Judy Jones.

Weese was well pleased with his girls' play, calling it an outstanding effort.

Springlake fans said their girls played one of their best games of the year against the Lynxettes.

Spearman meets Tulia there next Friday night. They play Electra at Shamrock for bidistrict on Feb. 28 in Shamrock.
