Industry, Officers Seminar Draws 100

—This blowout ought to prove lawmen have a sense of humor. You can't deny this bunch has taken a lot of 'ribbing' tonight."

The grizzled veteran officer looked the newsman straight in the eye and told him if he identified the punster, he'd haul him in for a misquote without even the benefit of an "alleged."

The "blowout" was a seminar on theft of oil field equipment co-hosted by Baker and Taylor Drilling Company and the Hansford County Sheriff's Department with more than 100 people registering including law enforcement personnel from four states.

The punster sheriff was right...they did have a keen sense of humor for men in a grim business that may call on them to lay their lives on the line before breakfast.

Nothing spoiled their fantastic appetites for barbecued ribs (done to a turn by Spearman's Owen Montgomery whose M & M Deli catered the affair.) but when the serious business of the seminar got underway, they were ready for that, too.

Hansford County Sheriff R.L. McFarlin was master of ceremonies for the complete program, introducing Bob Flowers of the Texas governor's office for an address before the seminar on oil field equipment began. Flowers headed up the criminal justice division administering federal LEAA funds until President Carter cut them off in a vain attempt to balance the federal budget.

Flowers is still involved in the criminal justice program that provided much radio equipment and other assistance to sheriff's departments and police departments across the state, because Texas is the only state with the program still going—financed from surplus state funds.

Flowers' address was concerned with the governor's anti-crime program and he was well qualified to speak for the state's chief executive having served as chief enforcement officer under three Texas attorneys general.

He reviewed 10 bills now before the current session of the legislature he said derived from a search by the governor's office to provide "tools" for law enforcement officers and prosecutors to deal with the criminal element. He noted that some of these measures were actually amendments to existing legislation to eliminate shortcomings of the existing laws that often led to mistrials and expensive new trials.

The first measure he touched was the wiretap bill which all were interested in because it has been so heavily opposed. Flowers explained the way it would work should the measure pass and noted that it was in proposal—restricted to the "high-roller" suppliers in the state's drug traffic. It would be administered by the Department of Public Safety with permits issued for 30 days only and the possibility of only one 30 day extension if the case warranted it.

Flowers told his audience that 37 states now have wiretap legislation in some form or another, had had it for some time and not one state had seen fit to repeal that legislation.

Aldermen, Trustees Absentee Voting Starts March 16

The election is all over but the voting!

The Wednesday candidate registration deadline passed with the city roster of aspirants remaining at five while there were two to register at the eleventh hour for the school board race.

These were John R. Wilde and Dennis Nelson, each seeking the unexpired term of Clark Mires who moved out of the school district.

A drawing was conducted in city council chambers, Thursday, to determine the order in which city alderman candidates will be placed on the ballot. This is the way choices will appear to the voter at the polls, April 4:

In first position on the ballot is Frank Salgado followed in order by Frank Shields, Gerald Heinrich, Jim Mercer and Bob Pearson.

In the voting for positions on the Spearman Independent School District board of trustees, candidates for the two regular terms will appear on the ballot in this order:

Tommie White, Jim O. Davis and Craig Schuman.

Ballot position of candidates for the unexpired term on the board will be John Crawford, Roger Odegaard, John R. Wilde and Dennis Nelson.

From this point through April 4, the emphasis will be on getting voters to the polls, with the time spent until then urging voting members of the community to study the candidates and to make a choice based on their own assessment of candidate qualifications.

Absentee Voting starts March 16.

All Spearman Entrants Place

On Thursday, March 5, at the Houston Livestock Show, the Spearman FFA had 10 students in competition—3 in the Steer Competition, 2 in the Sheep Competition, and 5 in the Swine or Pig Competition. Of all those 10 Spearman FFA Competitors, all 10 placed!!

"The kids are doing great the Livestock Show in Houston," Wanda Archer, Spearman High School Secretary, said, "All the ones that competed yesterday (March 5), placed!"

The Entrants placed very high in their categories at the Stock Show.

Tracy Vernon, a high school Junior, won Breed Champion with his Angus Steer. Tracy must be a "wiz" at winning the Breed Championship with his steer, because whenever there is a Livestock Show, Tracy is Breed Champion!!

Greg Odegaard, high school Senior, placed 8th with his Short Horn.

Tal Jackson, Senior, placed 11th with his steer—at press time, we didn't know what brand of steer Tal competed with.

There were 2 persons who entered Sheep in the Livestock Show Competition yesterday, March 5—Thursday—and placed high in the standings.

Five FFA'ers placed in the Swine Competition and placed high, although it wasn't Breed Champion or Reserve Champion.

At press time, we didn't get the specific brand-name of the swine or better known as pigs for these 5 competitors.

Roger Buchanan, Junior, placed 15th, Thursday, March 5, in the competition.

Jerry Ross, high school

Senior, placed 19th in the Pig Competition at the Houston Livestock Show Thursday, March 5.

James Lieb placed 20th in the Pig Competition at the Stock Show Thursday—edition of Competition.

Gary Thomas, a high school Sophomore, placed 24th in the Competition yesterday—Thursday, March 5—at the Livestock Show in Houston.

The final entrant for the Spearman FFA in the Swine or Pig Competition was Stephen Tindell—he placed, also. Stephen is a high school Junior and placed 25th in the Pig Competition.

These places—15th, 19th, 20th, 24th, and 25th—probably don't sound like very good "places", but as Mrs. Archer put it—"There are a bunch of entries and competitors at the Houston Livestock Show!"—which is the biggest in Texas.

These kids all placed and did a GREAT job. We are all proud of them!! Today, March 6, there will be some more competition. If the kids do anything "dramatic" at the Livestock Show today, we will let everyone know before we take the paper to get printed!!

IRISH COFFEE - IN A PIE No matter what heritage a person is, it seems everyone is Irish on St. Patrick's Day. This year, top off your celebrations by serving deliciously light "St. Patrick's Coffee Pie" for dessert. Since it's prepared with unflavored gelatin, the full robust flavors of traditional Irish Coffee are tasted. This is no blarney. "St. Patrick's Coffee Pie" is sure to bring raves!

ST. PATRICK'S COFFEE PIE 2 envelopes Knox Unflavored Gelatine 6 tablespoons sugar 3 eggs, separated 1-1/4 cups water 2 tablespoons instant coffee 1/3 cup Irish whiskey 2 cups (1 pt.) vanilla ice cream, softened 9-inch baked pastry shell

In medium saucepan, mix unflavored gelatine with 5 tablespoons sugar; blend in egg yolks beaten with water. Let stand 1 minute. Stir over low heat until gelatine is completely dissolved, about 5 minutes. Pour into large bowl; stir in coffee and whiskey. With wire whip or rotary beater, blend in ice cream. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. In medium bowl, beat egg whites until soft peaks form; gradually add remaining sugar and beat until stiff. Fold into gelatine mixture. Turn into prepared crust and chill until firm. Garnish, if desired, with whipped cream and chocolate curls. Makes about 8 servings.

FACTS & FIGURES The government now requires a uniform tire quality grade to be stamped on all tires to let consumers compare the relative performance of passenger car tires in the areas of treadwear, traction and temperature resistance. In addition to Resources for Life, the organization is involved extensively in relief and development, child care, evangelism, Christian leadership training and mission challenge. That work is conducted in 78 nations.

Insurance Corner FIRST AID FOR SCALDS First aid for scalds is the same as first aid for other burns. For minor scalds or those confined to a small area, soak the burn in cold water. Usually in a few minutes, the pain will diminish and the cold can be felt. The objective is to cool the skin. Cold water stops the destruction of tissue that can continue long after the burn is inflicted. However, too much cold to large areas of the body can bring the body temperature down to dangerous levels, causing shock. For more serious scalds involving large areas of the body, wipe off the scalding liquid with a towel or other cloth soaked with cold water. Also, remove soaked clothing that is not stuck to the skin. Seek medical treatment as soon as possible. Better than first aid, though, is not getting burned. Remember, anytime you're careless around hot liquids, you're playing with "fire". This information has been brought to you as a public service by John R. Collard, Jr., your one stop answer to complete business and personal insurance protection. ENERGY SAVING WAYS With Refrigerator/Freezers The refrigerator/freezer is one of the most important elements of the kitchen. It efficiently stores large quantities of foods, cuts down on food spoilage and waste, expands the life of foods which, in turn, helps to save money. In addition, many models also manage to provide us with a plentiful supply of ice cubes automatically. That's a mighty big job--and it does take energy to accomplish it. However, according to home economists from Whirlpool Corporation, energy costs can be reduced by following a few simple rules. Here are some of their suggestions: • Make sure there is enough space behind and above the unit to allow for good air circulation. Restricted air flow forces the refrigerator/freezer to work harder and use more energy. • Place the refrigerator away from any heat-producing unit such as the range/oven, radiators and windows where intense, direct sunlight enters. • Clean the condenser coils regularly. Accumulated dust on the coils reduces efficiency and wastes energy. POLICULAS MEXICANAS La pelicula para este Domingo, el 8 de Marzo, es "La Mafia de la Frontera". ## Older Worker Week

Older Worker Week is planned for March 8-14, according to the U.S. Department of Labor. Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb, Inc. is encouraging employers to recognize their older workers during this week. Evidence that the older worker is a high-quality employee is mounting. According to a survey made recently among some of America's largest corporations, 84% of the personnel directors queried thought that older employees are more productive. Older workers were also more satisfied with their jobs than younger workers, according to the survey conducted by the Corporate Committee for Retirement Planning. Older workers were found to have better attendance and lower accident rates as well.

Green Thumb is a rural older worker employment program funded through the Department of Labor and is working to eliminate the unfounded prejudice against older workers. Local people employed under the Green Thumb program are Edna Hays who works as reassurance worker with the Golden Spread Center daily calling over twenty homebound senior citizens and checking on their needs and Ernest Newcomb who is employed at the Stationmaster's House Museum as photographer, builder of displays, carpenter, janitor, and general handyman.

Green Thumb directly hires nearly 1,000 workers 55 years of age and older, on a part-time basis. Green Thumb employees are placed in community jobs throughout the 107 county area in which the program operates. These workers not only demonstrate the value of accumulated experience and wisdom acquired with age, but also contribute services that their communities might not otherwise afford.

Green Thumb Director Diane Parrish urges both public and private employers to recognize their older employees during this Older Worker Week. "I've found that formal education and chronological age have nothing to do with one's ability," said Parrish. "During their years of work, they have learned a great deal, have gained invaluable experience and have come to appreciate and be proud of doing a good job. We should remember, especially during this week, that capability, not age, is the true measure of a worker's worth."

Green Thumb is an equal opportunity employer and is one resource for locating older jobseekers. For more information, employers may contact the Texas Employment Commission in their area or write to the Texas Green Thumb Office at: P.O. Box 7898, Waco, Texas 76710; or call (817) 776-4700.

Golden Spread Center

This service is furnished free to all persons who are sixty years of age or older. If you need transportation, call the Golden Spread Center (659-3521) on Tuesday and get your name on the list.

There will be a trip on the Golden Spread Center's van-bus on Wednesday, March 11, at 5:30 p.m. for an evening of food, fun, and fellowship at the Cattleman's Restaurant in Spearman.

Ed Freeman will be representing the Golden Spread Center at a meeting of the Area Agency on the Aging Advisory Council on Thursday, March 12, at 1:30 p.m. at the Amarillo Senior Citizens Center.

Through the years of its existence, the Golden Spread Center has produced a philosophy that has become its basic foundation, an atmosphere that recognizes the value of human life. Golden Spread Center, 14 S. Haney, affirms the older adult with dignity and selfworth as continuing to make a valuable contribution to the social process of one's community. Such an atmosphere demands the reaffirmation of creative potential, power of decision making, the skills of coping and defending, and the warmth of caring, sharing, giving, and supporting not only the individual but also to the broader community of Spearman and Hansford County.

Welcome Back

Ed and Betty Freeman returned Tuesday afternoon, March 3, from Portland Oregon. Ed had the privilege of uniting in marriage his son, Paul Calvin Freeman and Racquel Casciato at the Oak Pioneer Church, on Saturday afternoon, February 28. Twenty-seven of the Freeman relatives were in attendance at the wedding and the reception that followed at Our Lady of Snows Church Parish House.

Among the 150 guests at the wedding and reception were his brother, Peter and wife, Jo Ellen and 8 week old daughter, Rebecca Sue Freeman (Opa, Washington; Paul's step, Sally Curtis of Denver, Colorado; and Carol Walker of Minneapolis, Minnesota).

The Freeman's visited friends in Tacoma, Waington and truly enjoyed the lovely warm weather and beautiful green lawns, flowering trees in bloom, daffodils, crocuses and hyacinth also in bloom. They also saw the Cascade Mountain Range in all its glory. St. Helen's still steam, but freshly snow-covered. Along the highway between Tacoma and Portland there is still much dredging of ash clean the Toutle and Colum rivers, where so much devastation had been done from the eruption of Mount St. Helens last July 18th.

It has always been a tradition with the Easter Seal Society that the Governor of the State of Texas does the honor of opening the annual Easter Seal Appeal in this manner.

The Campaign, which begins March 1 and continues through April 19, is highlighted by the National Easter Seal Telethon on March 28 and 29th.

In addition to medically authorized orthopedic equipment purchase, including wheelchairs, braces and crutches, the Campaign permits the Society and its affiliates to provide therapies, medical, psychological and audiological evaluations and transportation.

The Campaign also helps fund the "Easter Seal Action Line," a toll-free number, which permits potential patients, their families, or handicapped persons in need of information to call 24 hours per day to receive assistance and/or information.

Speech pathologists have helped her progress in the acquisition of language, and occupational therapists have provided the necessary training to improve her skills in daily living tasks such as dressing and hygiene.

The total needs of the entire community and meeting them requires the cooperation of all resources in the community, since no one agency or resource can do this by itself. Your support and generosity in the Easter Seals 1981 Campaign will be used to help the disabled in your area.

Hadley Dennis Reed of Spearman was a winner in the Calf Scramble at the Feb. 28, evening, 1981 performance of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Hadley won a $400 calf purchase certificate donated by Houston Agricultural

Hadley Reed Wins Calf Scramble

Hadley Dennis Reed of Spearman, Texas wrestled a calf over the finish line at the Feb. 28, evening performance of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo to earn a $400 calf purchase certificate.

The certificate, donated by Houston Agricultural Credit Corp will enable Hadley to purchase a beef or dairy heifer which he will feed and groom during the coming year under the direction of Burt Williams, Ag/CEA teacher. At next year's Livestock Show the youngster will return with his calf to compete in the special show ring competition. The rough and tumble calf scramble takes place at each of the Rodeo performances. Twelve calves and 24 youngsters are turned loose. Each contestant who manages to halter a calf and drag it across the finish line receives a purchase certificate donated by Houston-area businesses and individuals.

While the viewing public sees only the scramble and judging events, the heart of the Calf Scramble program is the knowledge the scramble winners gain in the intervening year. Closely supervised by a Vocational Agricultural Teacher or County Extension Agent, each youth keeps accurate records and performs other obligations designed to underscore the responsibilities involved in raising a calf.

The Calf Scramble is only one example of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo's commitment to the youth of Texas, and the benefits of this one event alone are considerable. Many heifers purchased with these certificates form the basis for future cattle herds. Since the calf scramble began, more than 10,000 animals valued at more than $2 million have been donated to Texas youngsters.

The all time popular Calf Scramble event is only one of many exciting events which take place during the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. The show, which runs February 27 through March 8, draws first-rate professional cowboys who compete for the world's largest rodeo purse and features top names in entertainment field.

Buchanan Speaks at Breakfast

Burl Buchanan, local insurance agent and active Methodist layman, spoke to the interdenominational men's prayer breakfast on Wednesday morning, March 4, at 6:30 a.m. in the garden room of the Cattleman's Restaurant. Jed Meisner gave the blessing on the food.

Buchanan said that he had just recently discovered an old Christian classic, "In His Steps" by Charles M. Sheldon. The book is based on I Peter 2:21. "For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow in His steps."

God works through imperfect people. Why do we expect perfection from converts to Christianity when there was but one who was perfect? Why do we key in on people's imperfections and not on their good qualities? We let people's thoughts trip us up. In a letter Dale Simpson wrote recently, he said, "The Lord is working in our hearts in a tremendous way. We are trying to keep a steady stream of peace, joy, and living water flowing through us. In the past I have normally tripped up on my fellow Christians' faults and let it take my victory, but now I'm watching closely and when I see my peace go, I'm getting before the Lord for cleansing. I find myself in the Bible not just twice a day, but usually three times, as when I get tired in the afternoon, the negative thoughts try to take over."

The shoestring was invented in England in 1790.

Following Christ involves obedience, faith, love, and limitation. Jesus' love was absolute and unconditional. Can we accept people the way Jesus does? We have a tendency to call out people with whom we may have a personality conflict, or people who are different from us, dress differently, or think differently, or our competitor. As people in the world look at us and see us omitting these people they say, "What kind of a Christian is this?" The Love Jesus had was God's love. We can do no less.

Jesus said in Matthew 5:23-24, "Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift." I John 2:6 says, "He that saith he abideth in Him ought himself also to walk, even as He walked." Jesus said in John 12:26, "If any man serve me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there, shall also my servant be: if any man serve Me, him will My Father honor."

SQUEAK SQUEAK
Fresh peas should squeak when the pods are rubbed together. Store them unshelled in your refrigerator.

Today is Ash Wednesday, the first day in the season of Lent. In the Christian tradition the season of Lent--the six weeks preceding Easter plus the last four days of another week beginning today, Ash Wednesday--is a time to give special attention to our journey, to make a special spiritual pilgrimage. It is a time of introspection and self-examination when we probe deeply and respond honestly to how we are getting on with the process of inner transformation, of becoming a completely new person.

A Christian needs to be "in His steps." We need to imitate Jesus Christ. What is it to be a Christian? It is to walk in His

Other measures include oral confessions, instruction of juries by the judiciary, "shock" probation, aggravated rape and the structure of the pardons and paroles system, among others.

Flowers concluded by emphasizing that he felt the governor was probably one of the greatest supporters law enforcement officers in this state will ever have.

Lee Phillips, former law enforcement officer and now with Baker and Taylor, introduced members of that firm present, which included Art Deller, assistant to the president from the Amarillo office; Roy Bulls, vice president of the drilling firm and chief executive officer at Spearman and Ed Garner, chief warehouseman and administrative assistant to Bulls.

Phillips noted that Garner, in his position, could probably emphasize better than anyone present how much the company lost to theft each year and what it cost. Phillips also emphasized that Baker and Taylor was one firm that was going to cooperate with law enforcement officers 100 percent.

"If suspects of theft from our company are caught, we are going to file complaints and we are going to court with them."

Phillips introduced Bill Milner, intelligence officer with the Department of Public Safety who is particularly involved with theft of oil field equipment.

Milner heads up the Criminal Analysis System of the DPS and in explaining the various resources at hand and the aids his people can give law enforcement officers in the field, he noted that the CAS was setting up a separate set of files and records on oil field equipment alone.

Analysts in this department work as specialists. As Milner illustrated, there is one that deals with nothing but murders along public highways.

The have mode of operation information and "mug shots" of known operators from every field from sex offenders to "film-flam" artists. He illustrated with an account of officers in one small city flagged by a man who said he had been robbed of several thousand dollars. As it turned out, he was the victim of three confidence men. This particular department had one of the CAS mug books and the victim positively identified two of the three men.

The total lapsed time since he had flagged the patrol car was 20 minutes!

Milner closed with the emphasis that the only way his people could help in the recovery and prosecution of the theft of oil field equipment would be to have unreserved cooperation between law enforcement officers and industry.

After a drawing for door prizes supplied by firms in Gruver and Spearman, the entire seminar body moved to a display of oil field equipment arranged by Baker and Taylor and the Hughes tool firm.

Because of the vastness of the great Southwest, many law enforcement officers grew up in an entirely different environment than that they now serve. So the displays served to familiarize those not native to the "oil patch" with the various pieces of equipment most vulnerable and therefore the most common objects of theft.

Final phase of the seminar was reserved for law enforcement officers only and was a period when they compared notes on cases, methods and other matters dealing with the stated problem that was the subject of the seminar.

Sheriff McFarlin said he considered the conclave an unqualified success in both attendance and accomplishment and fielded gratitude and more...a great sense of pride in Baker and Taylor and the fact Spearman had such a firm that not only was important to the economy of the community but went the second mile with such extras as the seminar.

THE JAW PICTURE

A mini-message from the National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees. 1644 11th St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001.

Are you paying too much in taxes? If you haven't deducted all your deductions correctly, you may be paying more than you have to.

You may be able to pay a little less in taxes this year if you heed a few hints.

For example, if you have two jobs, you can deduct from your taxes the cost of traveling between the first job and the second. If you are a professional, you can deduct the cost of books, professional instruments and equipment that have a useful life of a year or less.

Donations to the government are also deductible. Anything you give to the country, state or town for public purposes such as education, public works and the like, are tax deductible. The gift may be to government itself or to a government agency such as a state university, a fire department, civil defense group or a committee to raise funds to develop land into a public park.

Taking all the deductions to which you're entitled can help put a whole new construction on tax paying.

Eddie Rabbitt inaugurated the "Silver Eagle" radio program, which is carried by some 400 ABC radio network stations. The performance was actually recorded live last fall at The Roxy in West Hollywood.

Rabbitt has just scored a second top five single with "Love, Rainy Night" which is from his latest album, Horizons. The album is also breaking into pop music markets and seems to be heading for Platinum sales status.

Eddie can be seen nationwide on Miller Beer spots. Not bad for a guy who came to Nashville as a $35 per week songwriter!
