Lynxettes Battle Queen Bees In Bi-District Preparations

Spearman's District Champion Lynxettes complete their practice games prior to bi-district competition by meeting the Wayland Queen Bees in Lynx gym at 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

The game was moved to an afternoon contest, so as not to interfere with a church function that had been postponed twice because of basketball.

Coach Dean Weese expects the Bees to be real tough. Cheryl Caldwell, a freshman from Tulia has been moved back to the Bees from the Varsity this week because the Queens could only take 12 to a tournament. She is the one who beat Spearman in the bi-district game with Tulia last year.

Saturday night the Lynxettes ran into some tall timber topers from Trent and lost 77-62. Trent is rated second in class B competition.

Coach Weese said his girls not only could not rebound against the tall Trent forwards, 5'8" to 6'3", but they made lots of other mistakes like walking, bad passes and unnecessary fouls.

He said it was a bad night for his guards, but if they were going to have a bad night, it is good it was in a practice game.

Although playing under some of the hardest pressure of the year, the forwards managed to keep Spearman in the game until the fourth quarter.

In the final quarter Spearman lost all three big guards, Joan Hackley, Sharon Close and Kathi Pattison on fouls and the three short guards, Robbie Ownbey, Bethany Donnell and Sharon Cook could not compete with the height. One foul made the difference in the game as Trent also had three girls, including their 6'3" forward, with four fouls. Trent led 20-18 at the end of the first quarter, 40-33 at the half. The score was tied 51-51 at the end of three quarters.

Forwards Phyllis Patterson, Vicki Wilde and Helen Greever had a good night from the floor and hit 52 percent of their field goals. Patterson led with 10 field goals and eight free shots for 28 points. Wilde had nine field goals and five free shots for 23 points. Greever hit four field goals and one free shot for nine points. Linda Bengé scored on two free shots for two points.

Spearman jumped out to a six point lead before Trent got the ball, then quickly went on to a 10-2 lead before the tall girls got started.

Trent only hit 33 percent of the 75 attempted field goals, or 24, and added 27 free shots. Spearman hit 23 field goals and 16 free shots. The three Trent forwards presented a balanced scoring attack of 27, 26 and 24 points.

Petitions Put 3 on Ballot

Petitions have been presented to the County Judge's office placing the names of three candidates on the Morse School Trustee ballot.

Petitions have placed the names of Jim Womble, Willard McCloy and R. C. Womble on the ballot for re-election.

One man has filed for re-election to the County School Board. L. L. (Buck) Edge filed for the board from Precinct Two. Ott Crawford, chairman of the board, has not filed for re-election, yet.

Saturday Is School Day

Spearman students will join many others this Saturday in making up the snow enforced holidays of early February.

Saturday, Feb. 29, will be a regular school day for all Spearman students and teachers. Buses will run on their regular schedules.

This is the first of four days to be made up by local students. The other three days will be made up on Friday March 13, and March 27 and 30, the regular Easter holidays.

Supt. James Bramlett said all the four days missed because of snow must be made up. State law requires 175 days of school and Spearman had only one extra day in the schedule and that was used for a holiday when President Kennedy was killed.

Grand Jury Called Back

Members of the current grand jury have been notified to return to duty on Thursday, March 5.

The only case awaiting action by the grand jury is the murder charge against Jack Day, 37, of Spearman.

Day was charged with murder in the shotgun death of Harold Ray Cook at Old Hansford, Feb. 6. Day has been held without bond since the examining trial the following Monday.

HAYS TRANSFERRED

Bob Hays, local farmer, has been transferred to an Amarillo hospital this week. He was undergoing treatment in Hansford Hospital.

Three File for Trustees ; One New City Candidate

Local politics picked up a little more steam this week as more men filed for places on the city and school election ballots.

Three men have now filed as candidates for places on the Spearman Independent School District Board of Trustees. Ray Moore and R. E. Sanders, Jr., have filed for re-election. Charles Gilliam has filed for a place on the ballot, also.

Moore filed for re-election, then Gilliam filed early Tuesday and Sanders filed Tuesday afternoon.

The deadline for filing as a candidate for a place on the board is midnight, March 4, 30 days before the election April 4.

Absentee voting in the school race will be from March 16-31, with County Judge Johnnie Lee acting as election judge. Persons may vote at the judge's office between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Another candidate has filed for a place as alderman for the city. Ray Lackey put his name on the ballot recently for the office.

E. J. Copeland had earlier announced for re-election as alderman. Claude Owens, the other retiring councilman, had declined to serve again. He has served two terms.

Three candidates have filed for the Mayor's office. Bob Vaughn has announced for re-election, Otto Holland and Clarence Pettitt have filed, also, for the office.

The show will open to the public at 6 p. m. Friday and will be open Saturday.

A special exhibit from Arnett that has qualified for state competition in Oklahoma will be shown at the Fair.

Fair director, Bob Barker, says he expects about 300 exhibits from Spearman and he has had no indications as to the number Morse, Gruver and New Hope will enter.

Principal Quits Job

A Spearman school administrator, re-elected two weeks ago, has resigned, effective the end of the school year.

Junior High School Principal J. D. McKeown resigned his position with the Spearman School system effective the end of the school year. His resignation was accepted Tuesday night by the Spearman board.

Two weeks ago the board gave McKeown a new two year contract along with the other administrators.

At that meeting Supt. James Bramlett, High School Principal Frank Cockrell and Elementary Principal Allen Alford were given new contracts of two years.

Tuesday night no action was taken in naming a replacement for McKeown.

Free Poll Tax Deadline Soon

Persons who have not paid a poll tax to qualify themselves for voting in local and state elections have until March 6 to get a free poll tax receipt for voting in federal elections.

These free poll tax receipts can be picked up at the tax assessor-collector's office in the courthouse.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Robert Cordes, Pastor
Oslo Lutheran Church

You and your church must be disturbers of the peace. (Be prophets). If we don't disturb the world, the church will soon be dead. We cannot give up speaking of the Christ we know.

But we often seek to conform rather than reform. If we make the Bible a souped up tranquillizer, we'll never move the world. We need dynamite under the pews to get us off our comfortable perches--to be disturbers of the peace (with the Gospel).

May you be so disturbed in your pew by the Law & Gospel that you might disturb the world with the Christian message of Jesus Christ. The Church must be disturbed and the disturber if it is to be the Church. This doesn't mean just wrangling and constantly tearing into other church's doctrines--but rather using the Gospel to search souls.

But you say we want peace and contentment. We often become disturbed by little things when we should beware lest famine from Word comes. We are too disturbed by minor things than with worldly irreverence. It is easier to fight a flea than a tiger.

We fear Democrats or Republicans, survival, bombs--but shouldn't we fear the unchurched without the Truth--Christ?

Rather than liquor laws, Blue Laws, Government, Supreme Court decisions we need to fear Christians failing to speak out against the devil and pagan thoughts. Will you lose your flavor and zeal as spearmint on the bed post overnight? Like a balloon falling on cotton? Some are so disturbed over Negro--than a non-Christian living without a Savior.

The Church is called to go out and disturb the world. You are the Church, dear believer in Christ. Don't let the Church become complacent--or settle on the sideline. Disturb consciences with the Law which shows where we sin--that God can show the Gospel which demonstrates how Christ has died to save us. Be Christian disturbers for God.

Rites Held Monday for G. G. Randal

Funeral services for George Gibson Randal, 67, of Spearman were conducted at 2 p. m. Monday in the Union Church with the Rev. George Bollinger, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Hansford Cemetery with Boxwells in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Randal was born Oct. 2, 1896 in Indianapolis. He had lived in Spearman for 20 years. He died at 4 p. m. Friday in Hansford Hospital.

Survivors include his wife, Flora; five sons, Edward of Altus, Okla., Loye of Dumas, George, Jr. of Perryton and Willis and Dale of Spearman; three daughters, Mrs. J. E. Davis and Mrs. Cecil Fryrear of Spearman and Mrs. Pete Bradshaw of Sunray; two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Harper of Muskogee, Okla., and Mrs. Dora Caldwell, 47 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Mrs. Bob Hohertz and children spent the weekend in Canadian with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Petree.

Mike Garnett of Hardin Simmons spent the weekend with his parents, the Wesley Garnett's and sister Lynne.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Carroll spent Sunday night in Panhandle with the Alvin Lewis family and shopped in Amarillo Monday.

Attending a bowling tournament in Oklahoma City over the week-end were Bob Hohertz, Ed Dear, James P. Linn, Dan Faries, Tommy White and Russell Townsend.

Thank you Lynx and Lynxettes for a very enjoyable basketball season!

Since the regular season of roundball is over and the Lynx have checked in their gear, we feel it is time to say thanks to the young men and women who worked so hard to give us a good basketball season.

For four long months the two teams labored, and basketball workouts are labor, to represent their school and town.

The young, inexperienced Lynx had trouble finding the winning combination, but when they did they started winning in district and finished third in the six team race. A very good showing for a team having to rely on several sophomores and inexperienced juniors.

The veteran Lynxettes rolled to victory after victory as was expected and racked up their fourth district crown.

The team left such a trail of defeated teams in its wake that when it did stump its toe and drop a game, people started talking about a collapse. Everyone seemed to forget that in 33 games any team is going to hit an off night and be beaten.

Coach Weese and his girls are going into the play-offs next week. They have already done what was expected, now they are going to see if they are another good team or a great one.

The rest of the way will be tough, there is very little room for mistakes because the opposition is wanting to step up to the next round, also. Only the teams who can overcome the handicaps and unexpected will survive.

Let's hope that like the great Lynxette team of 1961, they do not lose until they meet a team far superior to their own skill. That is what it will take, for like the 61 team, this year's squad has been great when the need arose.

DAY BY DAY

At the risk of repeating myself, I will again, one more time, question what is being done to get a foreign exchange student in Spearman.

I read in other newspapers in our area that applications must be in about the middle of March so there's certainly a minimum of time left if anything is to be done.

Since we've never had a foreign exchange student here, many people might be interested in knowing this qualification for the family in whose home the student will live. First qualification is parenthood-exchange students are not placed in childless homes, though they are sometimes placed in homes where the children are past high school age.

In every case of which I know, the adopted family has felt that sharing its home with a foreign exchange student has been a rare privilege and something the family members are glad they didn't miss.

Mary Lou Wysong called Tuesday to invite me to be a charter member of the Spearman Business and Professional Women's Club. She said at the first meeting Monday night there were 10 women present.

All interested working women who might be interested in joining the club are invited to a tea Sunday at 2 p. m. in the hospitality room of the bank when Mrs. Jewel Dean Lewis, District IX, Director of the club, of Pampa, will be present.

Now, to all women who are good cooks... I invite you to read no further. But, to those of us who depend on mixes and all the help we can get, I think I've stumbled onto a delicious "instant" cake recipe that you might use sometime when your originality fails you.

I would hint that this was a time-honored, never-fail recipe handed down through the generations, but since it calls for cake mix and instant pudding mix, I'm afraid that would be too obvious.

So, I'll just admit I don't know where I found it or what its name was supposed to have been and we'll just call it "Cake X".

You put one box of yellow cake mix and one package of instant pudding mix in a bowl and add a cup of water and 1/2 cup of cooking oil. Beat until smooth and add 4 eggs, beating one minute after each addition. Grease a 9" tube pan and cook 55-60 minutes at 350 degrees.

I have tried coconut and lemon pudding mixes and they both turned out very well. On the lemon cake, I put a thin icing made of lemon juice, butter and powdered sugar.

So there, I've shared my prize recipe with you.

Truax Studio To Give Recital

The Truax Music Studio will present a piano recital at 2:30 p. m. March 1 in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church. Guest artists will be Harley, Mike and Frances Murrell.

LAWMAKERS REPORT - - -

Beef Import Curb Ineffective Say Rep. Rogers, Sen. Tower

Congressman Walter Rogers and Senator John Tower classify the recent meat import agreement with New Zealand and Australia as completely unsatisfactory, while Senator Ralph Yarborough says it will help the livestock industry.

These stands on the important beef matter were expressed this week in the newsletters from the three Texas lawmakers.

Congressman Rogers says in his view the agreement does nothing but maintain the United States domestic cattle industry at the brink of economic disaster. He adds that even though the volume of meat coming from Australia and New Zealand is reduced below last year's record level, the agreement helps make permanent the conditions which have resulted in dangerously low prices paid recently for U. S. cattle.

Rogers points out that under the agreement meat imports of beef, veal and mutton will be reduced to the 1962-63 level, or about 773 million pounds. This is only 48 million pounds below the total imported in the record 1963 year.

The rate of increase in imports is limited to an increase of 3.7 percent annually of the total received the preceding year from Australia and New Zealand. Rogers says this means next to nothing, because of the rapid rate of increase in imports.

Since 1958 beef imports from the two countries have increased 29 times, from 18 million pounds in 1958 to 517 million pounds in 1963.

With imports at a high level, a cutback in customer purchase power would seal the doom of the cattleman, Rogers says.

Rogers says the 1,750 million pounds of imported beef represents between 3,500,000 and 4 million head of cattle. These cattle, if produced here would have eaten 20 billion pounds of feed, most of it now in surplus. Therefore, Rogers says, the cattle problem is a problem for all agriculture.

Rogers says it is increasingly hard to get aid on cutting imports because the "farm bloc" of congress is decreasing and 7 of every 10 seats in the House of Representatives is held by the city congressmen and they are interested in lower meat prices.

Sen. John Tower, (Rep.) called the import agreement nothing but a snow job designed to make the entire domestic livestock industry, from raiser to seller, believe that this Administration is trying to do something about a problem it has refused to face realistically.

Tower said he and other senators had sponsored a bill establishing annual quotas for imported cattle, beef and veal by averaging the five years preceding 1963. This bill was "successfully opposed" by the Administration.

By using only the two years of high imports in arriving at import quota, the Administration, said Tower, has merely guaranteed that an unfavorable situation will continue.

The Republican Senator said if the livestock raisers believe their problem has been solved by this, they will believe anything.

Tower added that the United Nations has now decided to proceed with plans to establish a livestock improvement center in Cuba. It will cost more than $1 million, 40 per cent of which will be paid for by American taxpayers through their U. N. contributions.

Senator Ralph Yarborough sees the agreement as a partial cure for the livestock program. He says the voluntary reduction of six percent by the two countries coupled with the loss of the eight percent normal increase in imports the countries would have sent will help take the pressure off local producers.

The senator says the natural increase in population in the country will make a bigger market for meat, also.

The reduction of imports and the increase in population will mean an improvement of three to four dollars a head on Texas beef, or a total improvement of 10 to 15 million dollars on beef in Texas.

Sen. Yarborough is hopeful the hearing before the Federal Tariff Commission to determine the conditions of competition in the U. S. as between beef produced domestically and that from foreign countries will provide even more protection for producers.

PROSPERITY BLUEPRINTS--These plans and surveys provide the pattern for better farming in the county.

Conservation Plans Must Fit Individual Farm

If you are a farmer, you know that your farm is different from any other farm. The same statement is true in the case of a rancher. No two farms or ranches are alike; neither are any two farms or ranches operated alike. This is the reason for the need of a conservation farm or ranch plan on your operating unit.

Every farmer or rancher has a farm or ranch plan. You continually make plans about how to run your farm or ranch. You may keep your plans in your head or you may put them down on paper; but you do have a plan.

You plan what crops to grow each year, which livestock to keep or sell, when and how to remodel the farm buildings or to install running water and electricity in them, and hundreds of other details. Your conservation plan is the blueprint for your farm or ranch operations.

When you make plans about how to conserve your soil for the future while increasing efficiency now, you are doing conservation farm planning. More than a million and a half farmers in the United States now have a written conservation plan. These farmers got help from their soil conservation districts in making these conservation plans. Soil Conservation Service technicians are available to farmers within the Soil Conservation District. These SCS technicians have farm backgrounds and degrees in agriculture from leading agricultural colleges. These technicians are well qualified to assist farmers and ranchers in solving their soil and water conservation problems.

Since the land on any farm is different from that on any other, you need to know the capabilities of your farm. Most of all, you need to know what the best use for each part of your farm or ranch is and the treatment needed to keep it productive. To find out just what kind of soil you have on your operating unit, the Soil Conservation Service makes a soil survey. This survey is the nucleus from which a conservation plan is formed.

When you have decided what each part of your farm is to be used for, you and the Soil Conservationist discuss the conservation measures needed on each field. The Soil Conservationist records your decisions on these items. This record of the farmer's or rancher's decisions is the narrative part of the conservation plan. The narrative, plan map and soil map are combined to form the three major parts of a conservation plan.

The Spearman Jaycees offered the riding club that privilege and we gratefully accepted.

Irrigation Program Slated

An irrigation management program will be held Tuesday, March 3, at 7:30 p. m. at the elementary school cafeteria in Spearman.

An interesting and educational program has been planned to assist farmers with their irrigation problems.

Mr. Wayne Keese, Extension Service Agricultural Engineer Specialist from Texas A&M University, will discuss irrigation pump and motor design, their efficiency and other aspects related to the pumping plant.

Mr. Delbert Timmon, Field Representative with the North Plains Water District in Dumas, will discuss use of the Electric Log and the Development of an Irrigation Well.

Mr. Dan Huckabee, Area Engineer, Soil Conservation Service, will discuss Irrigation Water Management and Irrigation System Design.

A question and answer period will be held at the close of the meeting. Plans are being made to have several Hansford County Irrigation Farmers on this panel to assist with the answers.

This program is being sponsored jointly by the Hansford County Extension Service and Hansford Soil Conservation District. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

Don't forget this important program Tuesday, March 3, at the Spearman Elementary School Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. See news article concerning this meeting in this paper.

EVALUATE RESULTS

It's the increased net returns in dollars and cents--not the yield--that counts the most when evaluating the results of a fertilizer program, says John Box, associate Extension agronomist. Efficiency is best evaluated in terms of increased net returns. More efficient management practices will produce higher than average yields and this is the principal difference in maximizing net returns, he adds. Maximum yields and maximum net profit seldom go hand in hand. Soil test recommendations are made to give maximum net profit, he explains. He suggests keeping careful records on production, what fertilizers were applied and how and when. The records will show the influence of the various plant nutrients. Leave a check plot for comparison purposes and vary the fertilizer rate both up and down from recommendations in order to help establish the point of maximum profit, suggests Box.

FALLOUT SHELTERS

Since massive shielding is the only known protection from gamma radiation, everyone needs some type of shelter from radioactive fallout. This shelter need not be expensive or fancy, but it should be carefully planned to protect the family.

The simplest and least expensive shelter is one included in the home when it is constructed. It can serve a dual purpose as an extra bedroom, utility or recreation room, photographic darkroom, or other facility. Underground shelters can also be built near the home. The cost, size, location, amount of protection, and ventilation are some factors to consider when building a shelter.

If a fallout shelter cannot be constructed, a suitable area in the home should be located and steps taken to make it as safe as possible. The safest places in homes are usually basements, hallways, large closets or rooms with no windows.

In addition, nearly every community has buildings that offer some protection. The safest part of a multi-story structure is in the center of the middle floor. The government is designating certain areas of large buildings as shelters and stocking them with survival supplies.

Though different type structures provide varying amounts of protection from fallout, it is important to know how much protection is needed. If the dose level is high, an underground shelter will be needed for adequate protection.

But above all remember that any shelter is better than none. Even tunnels, mines, caves, and culverts would provide some emergency protection.

STOCK SHOW MARCH 16 Don't forget the change in the Hansford County Stock Show. It has been changed from Friday, March 13 to Monday, March 16. This year it will be in Spearman. More information will be given on the show later.

Western Auto Store Adds Catalogue Order Service

The Spearman Western Auto dealer store, owned by David Hutto, this week announced the opening of a new catalog order center as an added service for customers in this area.

Hutto said the new service is part of a nation-wide catalog order program being launched by Western Auto at this time through its 438 company stores and more than 4,000 home-owned and operated dealer stores. This will constitute the largest single group of catalog order centers in the U. S., he said.

The distribution of millions of colorful catalogs is now being made in all sections of the nation and should be completed soon. The catalog, with 320 pages, lists thousands of items offered by Western Auto. Hutto said he will complete distribution of the catalogs to his customers in the next few days. Anyone who does not receive a catalog can get one by coming to the store, he said.

Tennessee Ernie Ford, popular radio and television personality, has been signed to feature the new catalog order service on his ABC network television show. Hutto pointed out that the new catalog order service enables him to offer literally thousands of merchandise items which space would not permit him to display in his store.

Hutto pointed out that the new catalog order service enables him to offer literally thousands of merchandise items which space would not permit him to display in his store.

Hutto explained that one of the most important features of the new service is that prices shown in the catalog are the prices the customer will pay, including postage and delivery costs. The customer does not have to figure weights, freight rates, or shipping charges, and then add transportation costs to the price of the merchandise.

All charges are included in the listed catalog price. He also emphasized that Western Auto will extend its long-standing policy of satisfaction or money back to include all catalog order merchandise.

Mrs. Virgil Mathews and Karen and Mrs. Mathews parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cypert visited in Canyon Sunday with Steve Mathews, who is a student at WT.
