

HANSFORD COUNTY'S LEADING NEWSPAPER

The Hansford Plainsman

VOLUME VI., NO. 48

SPEARMAN, HANSFORD COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1965

Many people have all kinds of ideas for building a town, but here are some ideas on "How to Ruin a Town" from the Marceline, Mo., News. They are guaranteed to work.

1. Never attend any meetings. Just sit around and criticize about the way they are doing things.
2. Vote against any kind of tax levy, whether the purpose is good or not. "They" just want your money.
3. Make fun of the fire and police departments. "They" are just out there for the glory and pay.
4. Don't ever go to the movie, school concert or ball game, benefit program or exhibit. Sit in a half-trance in front of that "idiot box".
5. Knock your city council. This is a must. Everyone of them is just on the council to get a little kick-back.
6. Stay out of church. You might go on Easter and Christmas just to prove to yourself that the minister does not know what he's talking about and everyone there is a hypocrite.
7. Buy everything you can out of town and from traveling salesmen. These people are always the first to come forth with donations and service to the community.
8. Don't support your town's newspaper. The out-of-town papers are a lot better and contribute much more to your town than the local bugle. But jump on your paper's editor the first time Aunt Hogatha's visit is left out--forget the other ten times it was in.
9. Spread any story or rumor that is defamatory or uncomplimentary about the town. Never say anything nice about anyone. All kids are delinquents, all businessmen are crooks.
10. Above all, always be skeptical and cynical about anything supposed to be good for the progress and betterment of the community.

Your motto should be: "If it's good, it can't happen here."

If you are interested in your pocketbook, you should start writing some letters to your state representative, A.C. Hallmark, and State Senator, Grady Hazelwood, about the teacher pay raise bill.

As you are probably aware, there is a big battle between the Governor and the Texas State Teachers Association over who has the best bill.

On the surface the conflict appears to be just over the pay raise. Whether the teachers get the $405 raise they want immediately or a series of raises on a 10 year period with the first raise being $185.

The big concern for the non-teacher is the governor's attempt to switch a big part of the cost of education from the state to the local districts.

Under the governor's plan the local districts will pay a bigger share of the cost of textbooks, pay for the teacher, and teacher retirement and probably other costs.

The teacher's bill would cost this district an additional $13,142.80 for them to have the $405 raise. Under the governor's bill the $185 pay raise and the district's increased share of the school's cost would cost the district an additional $22,185.60. These are figures for the 1965-66 year.

Governor Connally defends his bill on the basis that all the funds come from the taxpayers' pockets whether it is handled by the state or locally. This is true, but we see of no bill to cut state taxes in the amount local school taxes will be raised to meet the increased local costs.

We have a sneaking idea

There were four men, three incumbents and one new candidate, seeking the three places on the council.

The fourth candidate, Clarence Pettitt received 50 votes. There were only 149 votes cast in the election.

Next year city voters will elect a mayor and two city councilmen.

Kenneth Irwin, Gruver banker, was named mayor and Keith Gross, businessman, was named commissioner. No candidates filed for the office, the candidates were write-ins. Irwin received 96 votes and Gross 78.

Mayor Don Hudson and Commissioner Ted McClellan had requested that they not be returned to office.

Buzzard Heads School Board

A slate of new officers were elected by the Spearman School Board Monday night after the Saturday election was canvassed and declared official.

Lloyd Buzzard, who has been acting president since former President Dr. D.E. Hackley, became ill, was elected president. Max Baggerly was named vice-president and Ray Moore was re-elected secretary.

In canvassing the election, the two incumbents and one new candidate were declared winners. Buzzard led the ticket with 422 votes. Marvin L. Jones was added to the board with a vote of 307. Incumbent Jack Lovett was returned with a vote of 291.

The other candidates received the following votes: Carl Archer 239, Edward Dear 197, Bill Massie 154 and James Lair 137. Marcus Larson received one write-in vote.

After reorganizing, the board employed five teachers for the school faculty.

Employed in the elementary and junior high levels were Mrs. Wilbur Hull of Spearman, who is returning to the school after a year's absence. New teachers employed are: Miss Connie Hules of Stephenville, a graduate of John Tarleton State College; Mrs. Frances Lorella Read of Spearman, a graduate of Panhandle A&M.;

Lynx Will Compete In District Track

For the first time in several years the Spearman Lynx will go into the district track meet with a chance to capture more than two or three points.

The district run for the points will be held Saturday in Dick Bivins stadium. It will be run as a part of an all-day track festival which will also feature district meets for AAAA and AAA schools of this area.

Spearman should pick-up points in the relay races, the 100 yard dash, 880-yard dash, broad jump and high jump. The team has been scoring in these events in larger meets and may add points in other events.

Phillips, because of their large field of entrants and speed will be favored to win the title. Stinnett has been strong in the running events, also.

Members of the relay team are: Mike Morris, Ronald McDonald, Jimmy Ownbey and Ken Shufeldt. They run both relays, the 440 and mile, Ronald McDonald who has a 10 flat and 10.2 second time in the 100 yard dash will be in it.

Morris and Ownbey will run in the 220 and 440 yard dashes.

Shufeldt, Clayton Cochran and Lynn Buzzard will be entered in the 880-yard dash.

Larry Butts will run in the high and low hurdles.

Harold Atkison in the shot putt and Harley Reeves and Mike Morris will be entered in the pole vault.

Broad jumping will be McDonald, Ownbey and Rennie Berry. Ownbey and Berry will do the high jumping and Shufeldt and Morris will throw the discus.

Entries in the mile run will be Berry and Gary Ellsworth.

Freshmen tracksters will compete Tuesday, April 13 in Boys Ranch in the district meet for seventh, eighth and ninth grade track teams. The Spearman Seventh and Eighth grade teams will also be there.

Spearman Ranks Third Among Eight Schools in Student Cost

Spearman is third in money spent per pupil for education among eight North Plains schools studied recently by the local school board and administration.

White Deer spends the most money per pupil, Stinnett is second and Spearman is third. White Deer spends $638.74, Stinnett spends $610.25 and Spearman spends $585.85.

Panhandle with $538.48 and Sunray at $535.79 are close behind Spearman.

The remaining schools of the eight are Shamrock at $480.80, Perryton at $472.14 and Dalhart at $404.19.

School officials said the Perryton figure shows the great economy in numbers. Their school is as much as twice or more larger than the other schools and the cost per student goes down because of greater efficiency.

The average cost per student in the eight schools is $533.03.

These figures do not include the capital expenditures of the school. When these are added the figures are: Stinnett $791.79, White Deer $786.53, Spearman $720.11, Sunray $654.22, Panhandle $643.19, Shamrock $559.98, Perryton

The amount added for capital outlay can be misleading as to the amount of bond indebtedness each school has. Some schools have their bonds on short pay schedules and others have them or 30 or more years.

Business manager Orvil Latham pointed out that the figures are a small amount higher than actual costs since he had to use last year's average daily attendance for the schools and this year's budget.

Last year Spearman had an average daily attendance of 935, and this year's budget is for about 1100 students.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb
Home Demonstration Agent

Home Demonstration Club members, press your dress and polish your shoes. It's time for the District THDA (Texas Home Demonstration Association) meeting. The meeting will be held Thursday, April 8, in Canyon.

Because the THDA program is constantly changing to meet homemakers' needs in this fast changing world, homemakers find it well to keep informed. In addition to regular programs of study in health, 4-H, safety, family life, citizenship and recreation, special attention this year will focus on studies of school drop-out problems; pesticide facts, and fears; an anti-litter educational program and improved motor vehicle safe driving practice.

You see, the Home Demonstration Club members are not only interested in "cookin' and sewin'", but all other phases of life as well.

With Easter only little more than a week away, the thoughts of Mothers, who have young children, are turning to the job of Easter Eggs and egg dye.

Little thought may be given to egg cooking, though, and I have some notes to help any homemaker who hard-cooks eggs.

There is quite a difference

Day by Day

It was interesting to hear of the Texas Federated Club Women's state president's comments concerning an article soon to appear in Life Magazine entitled "Unrest in Texas". It was filmed on the University of Texas campus and centers around the election of student body officers. The clean-cut, all-American boy who won the election is not the featured attraction, but rather his politically radical, beatnik runner-up.

Here's another case where we are making a mistake by accentuating the negative and playing up the seamy side of life. I'll be interested in seeing how the magazine handles what they call "unrest in Texas".

I read a prayer the other day from which most of us could benefit if we thought about it. It says:

"Slow me down, Lord. Steady my hurried pace with the vision of the eternal reach of time. Give me, amidst the confusion of my day, the calmness of the everlasting hills. Break the tension of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of singing streams that live in my memory."

Teach me the art of taking 'Minute Vacation'—of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book. Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise that I may know that the race is not always to the swift; that there is more to life than increasing its speed.

Let me look upward into the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew great strong because it grew slowly and well.

Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life's enduring values that I may grow toward the starts of my greatest destiny."

In the Fort Worth Star Telegram's Sunday edition, a whole section was devoted to new homes and the latest modern conveniences. It suggested that homes built in the 1970s may cost as much as 25 per cent less than today's homes because so many pre-assembled rooms will be used.

"Complete rooms—fully equipped with floor and wall covering and all the trimmings—will be available in a wide range of sizes and shapes with many door and window combinations so they can be put together to form a home just as a child fits together the pieces of a jigsaw puzzle."

Another innovation in the offing is plastic houses—using a special liquid plastic which will be sprayed over a pre-assembled steel mesh frame in almost any shape desired. The plastic will form a streamlined, sturdy exterior shell that will never need painting.

Other conveniences will be removable wallpaper for instant redecorating, battery-operated light fixtures that can be relocated without need for electrical outlets, portable area dividers that are easily movable through tension clips that secure the walls in a variety of locations and new kitchen appliances that will permit push-button meal preparation from peeling potatoes to serving the meal.

What I really like though was the idea of many functions being performed by voice control. They expect voice commands to turn on and adjust lights, water taps, radio, stereo and television, to open and close doors, start appliances, and, get this, even bring forth an extension arm carrying desired apparel from a clothes closet. That last one is just too much to trust to a vocal command. As Jim said, at his house it might be tragic if babies cries count as "vocal commands". I can just see that extension arm emptying every closet in the house right in the middle of the nursery floor because it mistook "I'm hungry" for "Bring my pink and white ruffled bonnet."

Let me give you another cake recipe. This one was sent to me by my aunt and is really delicious. I don't know whether or not she would agree that it can be made with instantized flour, but I did and it turned out very well. She got the recipe from the Beaumont Enterprise.

SOUR CREAM CAKE

1/2 lb. butter or margarine at room temperature
3 cups sugar
6 eggs at room temperature
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. soda
3 cups flour (sifted with salt and soda 3 times)
1/2 pint sour cream
Vanilla or lemon flavoring

Cream butter and sugar until light and creamy. Add eggs, beating well after each addition. Add flour mixture alternately with sour cream, beginning and ending with flour mixture. Add flavoring and bake at 300 degrees 1 to 1 1/2 hours in a greased and floured tube pan. (Do not open oven during first hour.)

Pretty Look Stars For Spring

Soft News Appears In Gentle Fashion

Starting with the theory that individuality is the essence of good taste and good fashion, new spring styles develop the soft, feminine, ladylike look in a diversity of pretty ways. Silhouette news centers around slim, gentle shaping that follows and glorifies the feminine form without tightly "fitting" it. The line is slender, supple, subtly mobile. Color and fabric contribute to the gentle loveliness.

All in all, the fashions of this new season represent a gathering together of recent fashion trends. The skimmy shape, the now-classic A-line, the lively skirt, the feminine touch of ruffles and bows — they've all been seen before, and they're seen again for spring '65.

Summing Up Prevailing Mood of Spring

Yet, spring fashion sums up tried and true ideas so deftly and delightfully that the total result is very fresh, very new-looking indeed — new in sophisticated simplicity, new in youthful verve, new in excellence of fabric and tailoring, in every price range, and new in the many variations on the theme of the well-bred, ladylike look — variations calculated to please the personal tastes of every woman, yet related to the prevailing mood of fashion.

This mood is reflected in tops bloused and beautiful; skirts on the move in pleats, flares or gathers; in ruffles, bows and flounces, handled with discretion; in ease everywhere. It's a relaxed mood, as seen in deep-cut sleeves, lowered waistlines, tunics, longer jackets.

Pale pastels, delicately hued florals, muted paisleys color spring prettily and perfectly. Even the deeper, bolder shades seem misted over with a soft veil of color. Browns from light to dark take on a mellow tone; navy looks richer, gray very young and fresh.

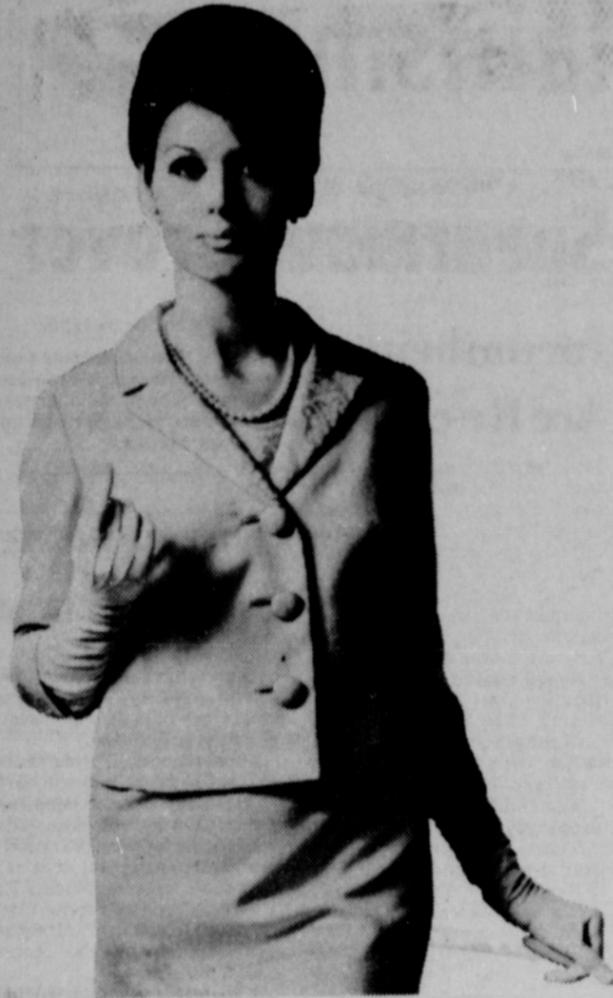

News to Note in Styles and Silhouettes

All the neutrals, including black, often add the crisp touch of white, in itself an important spring "color."

In fabrics, a return to flatter, smoother textures reflects the gentlewoman look, sometimes in a ladylike interpretation of men's wear textures, and sometimes in airy, open weaves such as the crochet look.

For further individuality, spring fashion offers a counter-trend to the softly feminine styles. Dubbed "tough chic," this trend is somewhat sportive in inspiration, with emphasis on a lean, spare, elegantly uncluttered look.

News to note for spring includes: shorter, fuller skirts in both suits and dresses; the costume look of the dress with jacket or coat, and the equally important look of the "separate" dress, returning to fashion prominence; tunic dresses and suits; the cape coat and the wrap coat; slim coats, often flaring toward the hemline, in both single and double-breasted versions; knits ever on the increase.

Ladylike elegance steps into spring in costumes like this one of pure silk linen. Pale paisley silk tops the dress and trims the collar and notched lapels of the three-button jacket. Skirt of the dress is eased to move with feminine grace. From Abe Schrader.

Defense Wants Change For Clements Trial

One of the three top witnesses for the Robert Earl Clements trial has been returned to Amarillo to await the opening of the Clements trial here Monday.

Ruel Alexander of Amarillo who is currently serving a federal prison term has been returned to testify in the trial and is being held in Amarillo.

Two other men, Coleman McSpadden and Billie Sol Estes, also in prison, are wanted as witnesses.

While the prosecution was bringing in its witnesses, Clements' defense lawyers have subpoenaed 50 witnesses in an effort to get a change of venue for the trial.

Defense lawyer Clyde Woody of Houston has filed a motion for a change of venue on the grounds that publicity about the case would make it impossible to get a fair trial in Spearman.

The trial was moved here from the 47th District Court in Amarillo on a change of venue hearing.

Clements has been convicted on the charge of theft over $50 in a trial in Amarillo, but the conviction was overruled by the State Court of Criminal Appeals on the grounds the indictment did not state from whom the money was stolen.

The charge arose from Clements' sale of Superior Manufacturing Co. of Amarillo to Ruel Alexander, Coleman McSpadden and Harold Orr.

TAKING A HAND

Femininity finds its way right to the fingertips of fashion, with new gloves accented by pretty details — buttons, bows, little pleats and tucks, embroidery, pearls and beading.

In an evening mood are fabrics with glitter — lame tweeds, brocades and matelasses are well as smooth silks and rayons.

LITERARY EVENTS SLATED

Morse School will host the District 1-B literary events this Friday. The speaking events will be open to the public. They will begin at 9:30 with Junior High boys and girls declamations. Extemporaneous speaking will be held at 11 a. m. with the poetry interpretations held at 11:30 a. m. Grade School declamation contests will be held at 1:30 p. m.

In other 4-H news this week the cooperative team, Suzanne Dixon and Sylvia Parks, presented their demonstration before the board of directors of Perryton Equity Monday in Perryton. The girls have been invited to give their demonstration before the annual stockholders meeting which will be held in May in Perryton.

Morse is growing each week. A new family, the Bob Schoolies, formerly of the Pringle community, moved into town last week. They are employed by Thane McCloy. They have five children, ranging in age from 2-13.

Other evidences of growth are the construction projects in town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reid are building a new home located on South Third street.

The fire truck garage will soon be completed and Morse citizens will have more adequate protection. This is a project sponsored by the Morse Lions Club for the betterment of the community.

The new service station being put in by Morse Oil Co. is located just across the street from another new business, the North Plains Irrigation. Work is progressing and completion date of the service station should be in the near future. The foundation and floors have been poured and the building is expected to be erected in a few days.

With all this evidence of growth the Morse Lions Club's official bulletin, the Head Lion-er, suggests in this week's edition that the citizens of Morse should be thinking about

Ag Research Dollar Adds $13 Annually

Every dollar spent on agricultural research has been shown to result in a continuing increase of $13 each year to the agricultural economy, according to a Texas A&M University official.

Dr. H. O. Kunkel, associate director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, said today that benefits of research on the Texas economy far outweigh its costs.

Kunkel said research by the University of Chicago shows that no investment in any factor--including land and buildings, fertilizer, machinery, labor or level of education--has greater influence on the economy than does the investment in agricultural research and extension.

The University of Chicago study indicates that for every dollar expended on research and its companion activity, extension education, "Kunkel said, will result in a continuing increase of $13 each year in the agricultural economy."

The development of hybrid grain sorghum in Texas has added an average annual increase of more than $110 million to the value of the grain sorghum crop, according to Kunkel.

The annual increase in this crop alone is three times the amount of tax funds appropriated by this state for agricultural research during the entire 77 years of existence of the agricultural experiment station," he said.

Citing other examples of income increases through research, Kunkel said cropping systems in rice based upon a new variety and new cultural techniques account for a $20-$25 million increase in the Texas Rice crop.

He said $4 million of the flax crop of 1963 can be attributed to the new Caldwell variety.

Research dollars will buy opportunity to develop the economy of the state and nation, Kunkel said, but inadequate funding means opportunity lost, resources undeveloped.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Archer and Carla honored Mrs. Archer's mother, Mrs. E. G. Garrett of Gruver, with a birthday dinner Wednesday evening, March 31. Those enjoying dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Lovett and Mike of Goodwell, Mrs. Bob Archer, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Garrett of Gruver and the hosts.

Low Calorie Foods Are Available In Abundance

If you are among the one-out-of-four-women or the one-out-of-five-men who are overweight, perhaps you'll want to consider some of the low-calorie foods available.

It may be worth your time, however, to be informed about what these foods actually are, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Some of these foods are on the dietary food counter only because they are salt-free, and not because they are any lower in calories in the dietetic form than in the regular form. Dietetic canned vegetables and tomato juice--which generally cost about one cent more per serving--are examples of salt-free foods.

Low-calorie dietetic foods may contain non-caloric vegetable colloids instead of oils in salad dressings--or they may be packed in water rather than in oil--as in brine packed tuna fish. Or they may have fat extracted, as in beef slices in barbecue sauce.

It's important to read the labels on these products to know exactly what they do contain and to note their caloric value. Some show little caloric difference from their non-dietetic counterparts.

Other foods, such as salad dressing and gelatin desserts, do reduce caloric values considerably.

Another consideration is to determine if the caloric reduction is significant in relation to cost. A dietetic gelatin, for example, might cost 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents more per serving. Homemakers can make low-calorie gelatin desserts for less by combining plain gelatin and unsweetened fruit juice.

"Consumers need to decide whether the calories saved in low-calorie dietary foods are worth the extra cost," Mrs. Clyatt says.

Zing into spring! Chevelle by Chevrolet

It's the most popular mid-size traveler built—which isn't surprising when you consider who built it.

There's no doubt that a car like this could get by on its good looks alone.

But the fact that it is built by Chevrolet assures you right off it's got a lot more going for it than merely meets the eye. It tells you, for example, you can have the impetuous kind of power—6 or V8—that Chevrolet has a reputation for putting in its cars. It tells you that you get Body by Fisher handiwork inside and out. It tells you that you're going to get a ride developed by engineers who are old hands at putting the squeelch on bumps.

Knowing all this, you probably won't be startled by the fact more people are now buying Chevelle than any other car its size. But you will have a happy surprise when you check what you can buy one for—right now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Look for Style In Waists and Pockets

Designers found that there was room at the top when they styled the new slacks for spring and summer 1965. A great deal of attention has been paid to waistband and pocket details. Some slacks come with their own belts — some matching, others in smartly contrasting solids and stripes. Others entail the wanted golf slack details — big pockets, big comfort, big style!

Some of the new slacks are made with waistbands that look like belts. Western-type pockets, polo pockets, L-shaped pockets, new self-supporting features, new fabrics and (to defeat those humid days ahead) permanent press.

Spanish Look Spreads To Carpet, Rugs

Ole! Ole! Spanish-style furniture has been all the rage recently, and now the trend has spread to carpets and rugs.

The results are big, shaggy, warmly colored carpets that are the perfect complement to Spanish furniture, because both the colors and the patterns suit the furniture design. Other carpet style trends are evident. Floral patterns now have the flowers scattered in an over-all pattern like daisies in a field, rather than gathered into bouquets.

The development of new carpet machinery has led to an increase in carpets with "scroll" surfaces.

The tousled look is popular in carpets, too. Extra-long fibered, shaggy carpets provide contrast for clean-lined modern furniture.

Designers claim that mused carpets are more interesting than conventional carpets, because they never look the same twice — the shaggy surface gets swished into a new pattern every time someone walks on it.

For the first time this year more than half the carpets will be made of synthetics such as nylon and acrylic fibers. Carpets made of nylon are heavier, in an effort to make them softer underfoot, but a latex foam rubber carpet underlay can give them more walk-on comfort.

Another area where carpeting is developing new ideas constantly is washable, easy-clean carpets for the kitchen and outdoor use.

Stress Is on Quality In Newest Furniture

Available now in furniture stores and departments, spring's selection of furniture and furnishings is both abundant and tasteful. The stress is on quality in every price range.

There is a special flavor for every taste this year. Spanish and Mediterranean styles show traces of the hot sunshine and dry air of Iberia, softened somewhat to suit American split-level living.

Cool, collected modern appeals to many an up-to-date family. Today's contemporary furniture does not simply rely on utilitarian functionalism as did the severe, architectural modern of the 1930's. It features a slick elegance with lots of high gloss, polished surfaces and plenty of steel and glass.

Rich velvets and other luxurious fabrics give modern an opulent look. And modern stresses comfort too, with squared-off latex foam rubber cushions that make it a pleasure to sit for hours.

They're Cushioned for Relaxing Comfort
Country furniture provides a casual contrast to modern. Rough, grainy wood such as oak and rich, tawney colored fabrics are the identifying marks of country furniture. It comes from all countries. Country French, Spanish, English and Italian is on display this year.

Fluffier, puffier cushions are found in all styles of furniture. Arms and backs, too, are more heavily padded, but they are not massive. They are wrapped or tufted with plenty of foam rubber to make them soft to the touch.

In bedding, the big news is the introduction of a line of mattresses and bedsteads specifically designed to go together structurally and decoratively.

Casual Furniture Displays New Luxury
Summer and casual furniture has come a long way from the aluminum-tubing days under the impetus of suburbia and outdoor, patio living. Typical of the new trend is an outdoor recliner with a wrought iron frame and ample foam rubber cushions on seat, back, and leg rest.

Boys Borrow Style Notes From Dad for Spring

Handsome right for spring, little boys' apparel continues to borrow style notes from Dad, plus international fashion ideas.

The classic Eton suit for the very small boy is just one British influence. Now Oxford joins in, as knickers with checked jackets and matching caps become increasingly important for the growing-up boy.

Dad's favorite madras and Ivy-influenced tailoring make boys' wear news. Madras stripes have dash in smart, comfortable jumpsuits for the very young and active boy.

One of the easiest-to-prepare fillings for white cake is utterly delicious: apricot preserves mixed with brandy.

Bollingers Return From Mission Survey Trip

The Rev. and Mrs. George Bollinger, pastor of the Spearman Union Church, have returned from a mission survey trip in southeastern Utah.

The couple visited the Navajo, Utes and Towaoc tribes to see what churches were working in the reservations and how much work was being done.

They found the Ute reservation at Ignacio, Colo., to be an advanced group and being reached by missionary workers.

Bollingers found the Navajo tribe to be the largest group and the most primitive and large area untouched by any church group.

There are more than 72,000 Navajos and most of them still live in earth covered hogans, still raise sheep and weave rugs for their living.

If the children are educated, they are taken to boarding schools at the age of six. The schools are in the towns and cities in the area.

The Rev. Bollinger said these people live in fantastically beautiful country that has been passed by civilization.

The survey was ended in Mexican Hat, Utah, a town on the north edge of the Navajo reservation. There is 250 people in the town and no church. If the mission is established, it will be an outreach for the local Union Church and would serve the towns of Kayents and Bluff, as well as Mexican Hat.

The pastor said the groups in the headlines have been neglected, but here are people who ask nothing and who have given so much. Without a doubt they have been passed by prosperity, education, spiritual training and other advantages enjoyed by so many.

Dr. and Mrs. W.C. Davis returned to their home in Memphis Sunday after visiting last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, Jean and Jan and with Mr. and Mrs. Burl McClellan.

Recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Grimes and boys were Mr. and Mrs. Jon Herod, Kathy and Jeff of Elkhart, Kans.

PROGRESS REPORT TO THE OWNERS

Each year, Community Public Service Company mails to its more than 5,000 owners a report on the Company's business progress. These owners have voluntarily invested money in Community Public Service stock, money that is used to pay for the power facilities that are necessary to keep your electric service plentiful, dependable and reasonably priced.

Who are these owners? They are people from all walks of life and from every state in the Union, including many from Texas and New Mexico. Perhaps your neighbor is one, or a relative, or perhaps you.

Unlike money spent in government-supported power systems, money spent by investor-owned companies like Community Public Service Company, costs you nothing in taxes. It does, in fact, produce more taxable income and property. Investor-ownership is free enterprise at work. Investor-ownership means everybody benefits.

SIX FLAGS SETS SEASON OPENER FOR APRIL 16

Six Flags Over Texas will commence its 1965 season at 10 a.m., Friday, April 16, according to Angus G. Wynne, Jr., president of Great Southwest Corporation, owner/operators of the popular tourist attraction.

For the opening weekend, April 16, 17 and 18, the gates will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

A crew of about 150 specialists ranging from landscape gardeners to builders and lighting engineers, have been busily engaged over the winter and early spring months in completing a $600,000 expansion program before April 16.

The Six Flags personnel department which has the awesome job of interviewing thousands of applicants of college age each season for positions as hosts and hostesses, has settled on approximately 1,200 to begin the season. Another 400-500 personnel will be added when Six Flags commences daily operations May 29.

The bulk of the expenditures for this year is centered on expanding the Park's historical value and landscaping.

Other attractions have been added including a new ride named "El Sombrero" for the Mexican Section. An Aviary located in the Animal Kingdom, will be the new home of nearly 100 exotic birds recently imported from all over the world.

A true replica of one of America's most revered shrines, the Liberty Bell, has been obtained by Six Flags. Whitechapel

Bell Foundries, Ltd. in England who made the original bell in 1752, cast an exact replica from the same moulding pit in 1960. The bell, made of pure copper and tin, is 47 inches in diameter and weighs 2016 pounds.

A rare and interesting collection of branding irons from many legendary ranches in Texas and the Southwest, will be displayed in the Texas Section.

For young cowpokes and budding deputy sheriffs an indoor firing range containing J. Bean's "Shootin' Irons" has been built just across the porch from the venerable Judge's Jersey Lilly Courthouse.

Hanging baskets containing flowers or various planting are fairly commonplace. But when each basket weighs 100 pounds and is suspended from decorative 10-foot poles, then that's another story. Six Flags will have 60 of these enormous hanging baskets planted in ivy leaf geraniums around the Mall area inside the main gate. In all, $200,000 has been expended on landscaping with flowers and shrubs planted so as to be color coordinated and in harmony with the diverse building schemes.

The fascinating lighting display at Six Flags after dark which has always been a conversation piece, should have added visual dramatic effects, thanks to the efforts of the Park's lighting engineers.

Beginning April 23 and until May 28, Six Flags will be open only on Fridays from 5-11 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
