Hansford County residents have been notified that they will vote on the 17th day of December to decide on a bond election for the construction, repair or renovation of the buildings and improvements at Hansford Manor and the hospital in Spearman. The amount voted on is $2,500,000.00 and the complete details are printed below. Of course your newspaper is for this very worthwhile project, which mainly is to add some 40 beds to the Hansford Manor.

Voting places, and questions to any of the proposed bond election can be answered by the hospital members, and of course the news papers in the county will be glad to furnish any kind of information that we can.

TAKE NOTICE that an election will be held in the Hansford County Hospital District on the 17th day of December, 1985, in accordance with an order adopted by the Board of Directors which is a part of this notice for all purposes and reads as follows:

AN ORDER ordering a bond election to be held in the Hansford County Hospital District, making provision for the conduct of the election and resolving other matters incident and related to such election.

BE IT ORDERED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE HANSFORD COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT:

SECTION 1: An election shall be held on the 17th day of December, 1985, in the Hansford County Hospital District, for the purpose of submitting the following proposition:

SECTION 2: Paper ballots shall be used for said election, which ballots shall be prepared in accordance with the V.A.T.S. Election Code so as to permit the electors to vote "FOR" or "AGAINST" the aforesaid proposition. Said proposition shall appear on the ballot substantially as follows:

"THE ISSUANCE OF $2,500,000 GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS FOR HOSPITAL PURPOSES"

SECTION 3: The District shall be divided into four (4) election precincts for this election and the polling places designated for each election precinct and the persons hereby appointed to serve as Presiding Judge and Alternate Presiding Judge for each polling place are shown in Exhibit "A", which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as a part hereof for all purposes.

Each Presiding Judge shall appoint not less than two (2) nor more than six (6) qualified clerks to serve and assist in holding said election; provided that if the Presiding Judge herein appointed actually serves, the Alternate Presiding Judge shall be one of the clerks.

On election day, the polls shall be open from 7:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M.

COX/CROSLIN and ASSOCIATES
ARCHITECTURE AND PLANNING
ONE CAPITOL OF TEXAS BLDG. SUITE 1001, AUSTIN, TX 78701

HANSFORD MANOR

Hansford Manor expansion project is moving right along. Above you see the "View from the Terrace" drawing as designed by Cox/Croslin & Associates from Austin. What you are seeing is the south terrace looking into the large day room with fireplace and cathedral ceilings. To the right and left of the day room you can see the two smaller quiet areas. One of the areas will have french doors and can be closed for private visits with family and friends if residents desire.

Other construction will consist of a new and greatly enlarged dining room with doors opening to a large terrace for spring and summer dining as well as cookouts.

In the residential section there will be eight suites which are much like large and competently equipped hotel suites, there is also a small refrigerator in the rooms. Nine private rooms and eight semi-private rooms, new nurses stations and support areas complete the expected 2.2 million dollar expansion and renovation project.

At this time a bond issue is tentatively scheduled for December 17, and if passed with a beginning construction date of mid March, 1986 and completion 12 months later. We currently have 30 individuals on our waiting list and it seems to grow every day. There is no question that this expansion is needed and with additional beds it will help to bring the facility into a better financial situation. It is expected that the expansion will generate enough revenue to retire the bond without increasing taxes.

The preliminary drawings are in the administrator's office in the hospital and are available to the public for review and comments. Mr. Dennis Robertson will be glad to answer any questions you might have.

SECTION 4: All resident qualified electors of the District shall be permitted to vote at such election, and on the day of the election, such electors shall vote at the polling place designated for the District Election Precinct in which they reside. This election shall be held and conducted in accordance with the Texas Election Code, except as modified by Chapter 372, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971, and as may be required by law, all election materials and proceedings shall be printed in both English and Spanish.

SECTION 5: A substantial copy of this order shall serve as proper notice of said election. Said notice, including a Spanish translation thereof, shall be posted at three (3) public places within the District and at the administration offices of the District not less than fourteen (14) full days prior to the date the election is to be held, and be published on the same day in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the District, the first of said publications to be made not less than fourteen (14) full days prior to the date set for said election.

Coming to Hansford County:

FIRST PLUS CREDIT

Don Townsen, President of the First National Bank announced today the introduction of a new banking service that has not previously been available to Spearman and Hansford County. The new service for wholesalers, retailers and service industries will be offered by First National Bank the first of the year. It will be called First Plus Credit. Don expects First Plus Credit to be well received by the community and will provide a valuable service for those businesses who wish to participate.

First Plus Credit is First National's trade name for a service known as "accounts receivable factoring". The factoring of accounts is a banking service that has been used extensively in merchant banking for many years by urban banks and businesses. Factoring accounts very simply means that the participating merchant can take his current accounts receivable to the bank and get cash for them. For a small fee, and the participating merchants guarantee of the accounts, the bank sets up charge accounts for the merchants customers. Then each charge purchase by the customer is deposited at the bank for immediate credit to the merchant. The bank then handles all billing, record keeping and receiving of payments on the accounts. The accounts are billed out monthly similar to the way credit card purchases are billed. The monthly statement to the customer will show his total charges for the month to the merchant and will have invoices enclosed. Then the customer is given the option of paying off the balance of the account at no interest, for the time from purchase to statement date, or the customer may pay a minimum of 20% of the balance and finance the rest for the next 30 days.

Don commented, "The merchants have been very good to provide charge accounts to the people in the community. They have provided farmers and all other credit worthy purchasers with a very convenient source of short term credit. There is more charge purchasing than any community of this size that I have seen, and it has been very successfully handled with apparently small losses on delinquent accounts. It appears though, that the economic slow down has increased the amount of outstanding accounts and slowed down the repayments, causing tighter cash positions for the merchants. The increase also may force some merchants to hire additional help or to buy computer facilities to handle maintenance and billing of their accounts. Our bank has in-house computer facilities and will have capable people trained and ready to handle the merchants account maintenance, billing and payment processing. First Plus Credit can significantly reduce the merchants' expenses and time spent on maintenance of account receivable and provide instant cash for the accounts. All for a small fee of 2 to 2 1/4% of the accounts factored, about one-half the cost of Master Card and Visa purchases."

"First Plus Credit will be available beginning January 2, 1986, but we will be very happy to answer questions and visit with the merchants about this new service at their convenience," explained Don Townsen. He urges interested merchants to call him or to stop by the First National Bank.

Proposed additon to Hansford Manor

The new building will contain 15,312 square feet and 2,171 square feet in the remodeling of the existing facility.

Hopefully, at the November 14, Board meeting, the architect will have available a scale model of the complete facility. This model will be placed in various locations for the citizens of Spearman and Gruver to view. At this time a bond election is tentatively scheduled for December 17th.

It will take approximately one year to complete the project. At the completion, we feel that Hansford Manor will be an outstanding asset to our community and to the residents of Hansford County.

In many ways our facility will be a pace setter for this area. We will be capable of offering "suites" to our residents who request such. The suites are designed primarily to accommodate residents that need only minimal supervision, assistance with medications or diets, or only the assurance that licensed medical personnel is available, if needed, 24 hours per day.

Hospital News

The patients in the Hansford Hospital are: Auby Sparks, W.E. Jones, Dave Stewart, Christa Urban, Mabel Adams.

Dismissed were Charla Roberts, Christopher Vela, Debra Soaps, Oso Ogamill.

Danny Gamble and Bob Hunnicutt will be exhibiting and selling their art work at the Hansford County Library on Tuesday, December 10 from 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. The library is located at 122 Main Street in Spearman. The artists will donate 15% of their proceeds to the library.

Twelve preschoolers came to Storytime at the Hansford County Library on Wednesday, December 4.

"Eating" was the theme this week following Thanksgiving. Blooey, the library's blue, fuzzy puppet with golden ponytails ate her chocolate chip cookie for the children, and then Librarian Rita Curtis read the poem "The Worm" by Ralph Bergengren.

(Come to the library, read that poem, and you'll discover it fits right in with our eating theme!) The books Blueberries for Sal and The Fat Cat were read to the boys and girls, and then they watched the film "Mole as a Chemist" which had nothing at all to do with food!

Kids in attendance this week were: Becky Porter, Albert La Rochelle, Tracey Bergeson, Cami Winegarner, Jennifer Lopez, Cassie Butt, Jacque Cook, Aaron Thompson, Micah Antalek, Brittni Beedy, Michael Lusby, and Brian McLaughlin.

Next Storytime will be Wednesday, December 11 from 10:30 - 11:00 at the library.

In mixing bowl, using electric mixer on high speed, beat egg whites with salt until soft peaks form; gradually beat in sugar, beating until whites are stiff but not dry. Carefully fold whites into custard mixture; spoon custard into 4 sherbet glasses. Cover and refrigerate until chilled, about 2 hours. To serve, top each portion with 1 tablespoon whipped topping and dash nutmeg.

Les Aspin, Rep. (D-Wis): "You can have the (military) build-up or the deficit-reduction, but you can't have both."

Safflower Oil Cuts Cholesterol in Soup

Soups can make appetizing, low-cholesterol meals. Starting with safflower oil, which is cholesterol free and highest of all vegetable oils in cholesterol-lowering polyunsaturates, this soup uses hearty ingredients such as turkey leftovers, fresh vegetables and barley.

Turkey provides the low-cholesterol, high-quality protein; the vegetables and barley add the fiber-rich, no-cholesterol carbohydrates. Heat it up, serve with a salad and you have one heart-healthy meal.

TURKEY BARLEY VEGETABLE SOUP

- 1 cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons safflower oil
- 7 cups turkey or chicken broth
- 1/4 cup uncooked barley
- 1 bay leaf
- 2 teaspoons dill weed
- 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 4 cups fresh vegetables cut in bite-sized pieces such as celery, carrots, mushrooms, turnips, etc.
- 2 cups cooked leftover turkey or chicken cut into bite-sized pieces

In large saucepot saute onion in safflower oil until tender, about 5 minutes. Add next 5 ingredients. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, 30 minutes. Add vegetables and turkey. Our Heritage of Faith

Style and content of Lutheran Liturgy. Lutheran-Liturgical-Christian Worship is distinctive in several features: 1. It is Doxological; Praise is the basic theme; praise for salvation, praise to God for His promises and revelations of Himself for the benefit of sinners. 2. Scriptural: Liturgical Worship is based on basic Christian teaching and could not exist without a Bible basis. Liturgical worship is orderly, at St. Paul demands without being rigid. Liturgical Worship recognizes the Lord's acceptance of any heartfelt Worship but that he also has a right to expect our best.

Parts of the Lutheran Worship Service may be referred to as Proper or Ordinary. Basically the Ordinary is the part of the Liturgy which may be appropriate at any time. The Proper indicates something which is appropriate at a Particular time. Simply this means that a Christmas Gospel calls for a Christmas prayer with Christmas hymns and a Christmas paragraph in the Communion Liturgy. The Propers are tied to the Gospel of the day while the ordinary is more general in nature.

To God A Note of Thanks

by Alma Greever

Friends in our study this week we are going to be reminded of a wonderful invitation. "Come" First let us read Isa. Chapter 1 verses 18-19-20. Come let us reason together saith the Lord. Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow though they be red like crimson they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient ye shall eat the good of the land but if ye refuse ye shall be devoured by the sword for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. These words were given to Israel who had completely failed God and so we today would say they had backslide. The Lord telling them he would not hear them when they prayed their assembling together meant nothing to him but a promise if they would wash and be made clean and do away with their evil doings he would again receive them and they would be fed in all that was needed but if refusing the sword would devour them. The sword of the Spirit (the word of God). In Old Testament times God dealt with his people as a nation but in New Testament times with the individual now let us hear the invitation of Jesus. Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me for I am meek and lowly in heart and ye shall find rest unto your souls Matt. 11:28-29. So being burdened down with sins and finding no lasting satisfaction or peace and rest we are told in him we can have peace quietness and assurance. The blood shed at Calvary will blot out all the sins we have committed and we have rest and then to take upon us his yoke and learn of him our example in life we can be given rest for our soul an assurance of immortality for as we have in almost every lesson been made to learn Jesus gave himself to cleanse us from all unrighteousness by his one offering (his blood). Doing the Fathers will take we be forgiven and himself to make us holy a pure heart fully yoked to him saying, "not my will Lord but thine be done." And friends this work of grace the Bible calls sanctification Jesus said I sanctify myself that all may be sanctified that they may be one even as I and the Father are one. Thoroughly washed by the blood of the Lamb the son of God: Now we are able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge that we might be filled with all the fulness of God Eph. 3:18-19.

And dear friends when Jesus went back to heaven he left his work for us to do and in Rev. 22:17-21 we read. And the Spirit and the bride (church the body of Christ) say Come and let him that heareth say come and let him that is a thirst come and whosoever will let him take the water of life freely. For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book. If any man shall add unto these things God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book and if any man shall take away from the words of the see through obedience to this word we can have a wonderful eternal abode but is we refuse what a loss. His plan is universal. May we all be glad to let him reason with us.

book of this prophecy God shall take away his part out of the book of life and out of the holy city and from the things which are written in this book. He which testifieth these things saith Surely I come quickly Amen. Even so come Lord Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. Friends when we realize God who made the world and all within who also planned our beginning and existence while here in this life and given us his word to live by. We can

Friends this week I will let you read a poem I wrote on Thanksgiving Day "

This another wonderful day the Lord hath made Yearly set apart in the USA as Thanksgiving Day It was made possible everybody could rejoice and be glad By Jesus at Calvary where a soldier pierced his side.

A grandson Robert Darrell invited me at midday to dine With him at the Perryton, Texas "Dutch Inn" But within my being I felt no great feasting today. Or it could be chastening from the giver of good things So it was up to me to make my choice.

He knows my uprisings, downsetting and all of my ways Yes knows if not temperate and show me the way I'll be happy today with a lesser diet my soul rejoice Remembering on one glad day he made me his choice.

In our wonderful USA many will be banqueting today And made sorry to know other rioting and drinking While others will renew their family joy peace and love And be sad at the close of day for another parting.

I'm sure my life will rejoice at the close of this day For being fed on Gods rich heavenly manna His divine word asks we seek first the kingdom of heaven And then our food and raiment will be added.

No chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous but grievous But will work the peaceable fruit of righteousness we are told When exercised by us when it comes our way So by Gods grace I am made very thankful.

Today I miss being with dearly loved family and friends Yet I find naught can compare being "Alone with God" For with them in this life there comes a last "Good Bye" But a yielded life to his will means "Eternally".

CRIME STOPPERS

VICTORIA, TEXAS--Dale Ray Waller has been described as a one man crime wave by law enforcement authorities in four states.

The 37-year-old Waller is wanted by 14 law enforcement agencies in Arkansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas on a wide variety of charges ranging from Burglary to Fraud, Theft and Embezzlement. Even the federal authorities want to get their hands on the travelling fugitive, since he is wanted by the U.S. Marshal's Office for Parole Violation.

This week Waller has been added to the Texas Most Wanted List. A reward of up to $1,000 is being offered by the Governor's Office for information leading to the capture of this most wanted fugitive.

Waller, whose list of aliases almost matches the number of charges against him, is wanted by no less than nine law enforcement agencies in Texas.

A typical case involving Waller is the January 3, 1984, theft of a camper shell from a Victoria recreational vehicle dealer. A man identifying himself as Roy L. Matthews bought a 1982 Viking Brand camper shell, using a $2,500 check drawn on an account with First State Bank in Port Lavaca. However, a week after the purchase, the Victoria business was notified that there was no account with First State Bank listing Roy L. Matthews.

Investigators, with the assistance of the Department of Public Safety's Crime Analysis Unit, were able to identify Waller as the suspect in the case. Roy L. Matthews, it turned out, was just another alias used by Waller.

On March 5, 1984, Waller was indicted by the Victoria County Grand Jury for Felony Theft.

In addition to the Victoria County charges, Waller is also wanted by the following Texas agencies.

--Howard County Sheriff's Department for Unauthorized Use of Motor Vehicle (warrant issued January 6, 1984).

--Grayson County Sheriff's Department for Theft by Check and Fraud (warrant issued August 10, 1984).

--Kerr County Sheriff's Department for Forgery of a $2,500 Surety Bond (warrant issued January 5, 1985).

--Reagan County Sheriff's Department for Forgery and Burglary (warrant issued January 18, 1985).

--Yoakum County Sheriff's Department for Larceny (warrant issued January 29, 1985)
--Comanche County Sheriff's Department for Larceny and Theft (warrant issued February 12, 1985)
--Rusk County Sheriff's Department for Larceny and Theft (warrant issued September 23, 1985)
--Hunt County Sheriff's Department for Larceny and Theft (warrant issued October 4, 1985).

In addition to all the Texas charges, Waller is also wanted for embezzlement by law enforcement agencies in McAlester and Eufaula, Oklahoma; Fraud in Batesville, Arkansas; and Fraud and Forgery in Clovis, New Mexico.

Work is progressing on the beautiful new Union Church in Spearman. The church recently held their annual Thanksgiving dinner and it was outstanding...

A question of burning

Mommy's Birthday (Gene, 5 years)

How It Happened

On Tuesday, Sam decided to surprise his wife Sally by making dinner for her birthday.

Sam washed the lettuce, and five-year-old Gene tore it into bite-sized pieces and put it in the salad bowl. While Sam chopped onion and peppers and tomatoes and chicken, Gene washed the strawberries.

When mother got home, Sam and Gene yelled "Surprise!" "You fixed dinner!" she said. "That's fantastic." Mother followed Sam into the kitchen, but Gene ran to the dining room. They had forgotten something. They had forgotten to put candles on the table. He got the candles out of the cupboard and put them on the floor to light them. He got matches out of the drawer. He had never lit a match before, but he'd seen his parents do it plenty of times.

Gene pulled a match out of the matchbox and struck it. It didn't light, so he tried another one. The fourth match lit. Trembling a little, he held the match to the wick of one candle and lit it. Then he lit the other candle. He picked up one candle and carried it to the table. He went back and picked up the other. But just as he was placing it on the table, the candle fell out of its holder. When it hit the floor Gene stepped on it to put out the flame.

Then he saw that his shirt was on fire. "Mom!" he screamed. "Dad!" Mother ran into the room, and when she saw what had happened she immediately threw Gene on the floor and rolled him over to smother the flames. Then she took off his shirt and put cool water on the burned skin, while Sam called the hospital.

Questions
What "right" things did Sam do to let Gene share in party preparations?
When do you think a parent should teach a child the correct way to light matches?

ABILENE, TEXAS--Mario Blas Valera didn't waste much time getting into trouble with the law in his adopted country.

A native Cuba who emigrated to the United States during the Mariel Cuban boat lift about seven years ago, Valera is wanted by Abilene Law enforcement authorities for the October 28 murder of Frank E. Henry.

Investigators say the 44-year-old Valera also caught the attention of the Miami Police Department before leaving Florida, primarily over allegations that he was trafficking cocaine and marijuana.

Henry was gunned down on an Abilene street in what detectives believe was a narcotics-related killing. Witnesses told police the shooting appeared to be unprovoked.

An autopsy revealed that Henry was hit with what appeared to be a .32-caliber slug. When investigators searched Valera's apartment in Abilene, they found a partial box of Winchester .32-caliber silver-tipped hollow-point bullets.

Ironically, Valera had been arrested on September 3 in Abilene for Unlawful Carrying of a Weapon.

Detectives say that they received information that following Henry's murder, Valera fled to Odessa where there is a large concentration of Mariel Cubans.

He is also known to travel between El Paso, Odessa and Lubbock.

This week Valera has been added to the Texas Most Wanted List.

A reward of up to $1,000.00 is being offered by the Governor's Office for information leading to Valera's arrest.

He is described as being 5-6, 160 pounds, with black hair, brown eyes and has a very dark complexion.

Valera goes by several aliases, including the name Jean Finley.

Associates have told investigators that Valera usually carries a gun and has a reputation of having a quick temper. He is known to have contacts in Miami, New York City and Juarez, Mexico.

DANNY GAMBLE

Danny Gamble grew up on a farm in a small community near Hollis Oklahoma. He now lives in the country near Canyon, Texas, but instead of cultivating the soil he portrays the rural scenes of the Southwest with watercolor using his techniques which have made him well-known and his paintings easily recognized.

While a student at Southwestern Oklahoma University, Weatherford, Oklahoma, Danny was first introduced to art. After graduating with a B.A. degree, he moved to Amarillo, Texas where he taught in the public schools and Amarillo College for eight years. During this period, Danny developed a love for watercolor and was fascinated by the versatility of the media. His favorite subject-matter consists of windmills, old houses and barns, and other nostalgic scenes of the Southwest.

Danny conducts watercolor workshops throughout the Southwest. His paintings hang in numerous galleries and private collections in the United States and abroad.

BOB HUNNICUTT

Bob Hunnicutt was born in Achille, Oklahoma. At the age of six he moved to Spearman, Texas for two years, then to Channing, Texas where he resides today. Bob began working on area ranches at a very early age, and developed a strong love and admiration for the great outdoors and the working cowboy. His memories of rodeoing seven years, bunkhouse tales and actual experiences on area ranches have enabled him to reproduce in bronze what is actually happening on our ranches and in our rodeo arenas today.

Bob has a studio on the banks of the Canadian River near Boys Ranch where he does his research and waxes, which he then casts at his Bronze Art Foundry in Channing.

TRAILS

The history of man is a story of progress. Each of its thousands of volumes could bear one common title: The Quest for New Trails.

Even in childhood we display this strange genius which has brought us from primeval forests to this atomic age. We love to penetrate the untouched spaces . . . to open trails where none have ever been.

But this quest could destroy us more rapidly than it has profited us. History recounts the fall of many a civilization too busy with its search for new trails to understand its deeper needs.

For man can truly progress only when his spiritual growth keeps pace with his cultural and scientific advancement.

Or, bluntly, the future of this young Arctic explorer and of his world depends on the Church. The truths of God are unchanging—and ever more essential—as we seek new trails into the Unknown.

Support the Red Cross

After destructive floods in Louisiana, American Red Cross Volunteers assess damages.

The American Red Cross is issuing an urgent appeal for funds to replenish the Disaster Relief Fund. This disaster emergency relief fund drive is necessary due to heavy expenditures in assisting victims of hurricanes and floods. The Red Cross is asking local residents to support this effort by making a donation now. All Contributions are tax free and should be made to the American Red Cross and marked for "disaster relief". Contributions may be taken to Brock Insurance Agency or mailed to Brock Insurance Agency.

1985 has seen many devastating disasters both near and far. In our immediate territory hailstorms in Pampa and Hereford struck almost simultaneously. Six major hurricanes have hit the United States and earthquakes, volcano eruptions and flooding in other nations have resulted in more financial aid than was budgeted for Disaster.

Those making contributions can be assured that their donations will assist people in need. Not only does the Red Cross have a long and successful tradition and mission of disaster relief, it is also held accountable to Congress for its actions and expenditures. If a disaster strikes in our County, Red Cross will be here to help.

Please support Red Cross By sending your donation today. HELP US HELP.

Soldier's art displayed

Glen Ayers former Spearman resident

An emotion-filled series of paintings illustrating the feelings of Glen Ayers during his tour of duty in Vietnam was on display recently at the Center for the Arts in Dallas.

Artist Glen Ayers describes the works as "one soldier's intimate view of Vietnam." Many of the paintings were done while Ayers was in the field in Vietnam. He would take photos out in the bush during the day, and was allowed to paint at night in a small room with blankets draped over the windows to prevent shooting by snipes. His parents sent him paint and brushes and he used old canvas jeep covers as canvas for his portraits.

The works were on display at the Center for the Arts, Jacee Park, 2000 W. Airport Freeway in conjunction with the Irving Art Association nonjuried show which was held Sept. 29 through October 11.

A reception was held and during this time, Ayers was interviewed over channel 5. Ayers now makes his home in Irving with wife Cathy and two sons Scott Glen two years old and Trevor Austin who is 6 weeks old. Glen was reared in the Spearman Area and his parents, Flavil and Josephine Ayers now reside in Gruver.

In observance of Veteran's Day in 1973, Cpt. Ayers wrote a letter to the People of Spearman, which was also published in the Faith Independent of Faith, South Dakota the residence of his parents at that time. Since Veterans Day was observed about 3 weeks ago and Thanksgiving just last week, the editor of the Gruver Statesman would like to reprint this letter that was written over 12 years ago.

Dear People of Spearman. This letter is a letter of appreciation to a town called Spearman and the people who live there.

I have been in Viet Nam eight months now and I will be very glad to get back home. Every once in awhile, a fellow Marine asks me where I am from. I tell him. Of course he asks me where that is, which makes me a little mad, but I am proud of my little home town with its one little stop light, which seems to be the pulsating heart of a happy town.

A town floating in a sea of wheat with a proud banner called an elevator. It is a town far from killing and hunger. It only seems to have to worry about the next wheat harvest.

Being in a war zone, I have come to appreciate that little town more than ever. I hope my little town never has to experience the terrifying sight of bombs being dropped on its buildings or the flashing of flares all night long. I hope my little town never has to run to a foxhole everytime the fire whistle blows. The most important thing I don't want the people of Spearman to experience is the cold, weak terrifying feeling a human gets when bullets are buzzing all around him or mortar rounds are walking toward the foxhole he is in.

There is one particular group in my town I would really like to say something about. They are called Veterans. I know there are many in our town alone. Chances are they are solid citizens in the community and very glad to be a part of the town. Chances are they appreciate life very much and are doing a lot to help the town.

When I first came to Viet Nam, there was a sign over my bed. It read "to live you almost die, to those who fight for it, life has a savior the protected will never know." To you as Veterans you know exactly what those words mean. To you who are not Veterans, go find a veteran and shake his hand. You can bet he will appreciate it and the fact he is able to shake your hand.

In conclusion I must say something about the men who have given their lives to Spearman. They are monuments now, an inseparable part of Spearman. A monument along with the elevators and the wheatfields. They are truly Spearmanites and will never be loyal to another town and truly will be remembered as long as Spearman wants to remember them.
