

13 Local Tennis Players Compete in Highway 80 Tourney

"I am well pleased with the results in such tough competition," said tennis instructor Perry Coursey this week.

Coursey was discussing the way 13 Spearman tennis players competed in the Key City Highway 80 Tennis tournament in Abilene Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Coursey said the Highway 80 series of tournaments from Dallas to El Paso are the toughest in the state and the local entries played well.

Two local players came close to bringing home first place trophies. Jyniece Callaway, teamed with Sharon McNutt of Junction to advance to the finals of their division of doubles before losing to Gurth and Hutchinson in the finals.

Phil Windom beat Steve Gurth of San Angelo and then lost to Jimmy Black of Corpus Christi on split sets in the semi-finals.

Black was the top seeded boy in the division. Windom won the first set 4-6, then lost the second 6-4 and the final set 7-5. At one point Windom has Black down on triple match point, but lost the point. Coursey said if Windom had won that point he would probably have won the title in that division.

Gary Cates lost his first match in split sets to a Lubbock player.

In the same age bracket, Richard Booth and Gary Cates lost in the first round of doubles play.

Cathrine Lyons and Cynthia Cochran both lost in the first rounds of singles competition, then in the first round of the doubles.

Deanna Sheets won her first match, then lost to McNutt of Junction. Jyniece Callaway won her first match, then lost to Candy Hutchinson of Andrews.

Karon Baggerly drew a bye in the first round, but ran afoul of Hutchinson in the second round.

Callaway and McNutt beat Sheets and Baggerly in the first round of doubles, then beat an Abilene team before losing in the finals.

Booth lost in his first singles match and Frank Wilmeth lost his first match.

P. A. Lyon III, won his first match, then lost to McCormick of Dallas.

Terry Butt beat an Abilene boy in his first match, then lost to Graham of Abilene in the second match.

James Ray Lyon won his first match then met Paul Geist of Houston one of the top seeded players in the division, 6-2, 6-3.

Wally Windom won his first match and lost the second.

Wilmeth and P. A. Lyon III were defaulted to the semi-finals of their division of doubles, then lost to Shane Terry and Wallace Buck 7-5, 6-2. Terry and Buck won that division of the tournament.

James Lyon and Butt beat an Abilene team in the first round, then lost to Geist and Black 6-2, 6-3. These boys were seeded first in the division.

Cindy and Barbara Bramlett, formerly of Spearman and now of Seminole won their divisions of the singles competition.

Adults taking the group to Abilene were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilmeth, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Windom, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lyon Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Coursey.

HANSFORD COUNTY'S LEADING NEWSPAPER

The Hansford Plainsman

VOLUME VI., NUMBER 79

SPEARMAN, HANSFORD COUNTY, TEXAS 79081

SUNDAY, JULY 25, 1965

Some of the business people who have been saying they will support the Chamber of Commerce when it begins producing something are going to have to put up or hunt another excuse.

An announcement will be forthcoming in the next few weeks about a new industry that is to locate here. It is going to be big, possibly get bigger and will probably attract more.

The Chamber of Commerce is the group that has worked hard to get this industry. They have some more good nibbles, but have no funds to work with.

For the lack of a few bucks we may possibly lose thousands.

The fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans has held that irrigation water is a depletable resource and the defendant in the case Marvin Shurbet of Hale County is entitled to a tax deduction.

Details of the case and how the depletion was figured is in the July North Plains Water District News.

If irrigation water is going to be considered a depletable resource, there will be restrictions on its use in a few years if it follows the usual pattern.

You can bet the draft will be increased if the Armed Services are given all the men they want, or say they need, for Viet Nam.

Some of the college students who have been marching, protesting this and that may find themselves marching and the sergeants doing the protesting.

Those boot camp and recruit camp barbers will probably pass out with joy when they get their clippers on these beagle hair cuts.

They had so much fun with the ducktails of a few years ago, they probably won't be able to contain themselves when they get in a trainload of beagle cuts.

Cpl. Sutherland Home on Leave

Marine Corporal Frank Sutherland is home on leave before reporting to a new duty station.

Sutherland just re-enlisted for four more years in the Marines. He will be stationed at the Navy Ammunition Depot at McAlistier, Okla.

He served in the Far East before returning to the states earlier this year.

Sutherland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutherland.

Dumas Drops Spearman All-Stars

Spearman's Little League All-Stars hooked up with a strong Dumas nine in a 1-0 contest for five innings, before Dumas broke the game open and won 6-0, Thursday in Sunray.

Mgr. Jim Sutherland said the Spearman boys were baffled by a sharp breaking curve that the Dumas pitcher mixed with a blazing fast ball.

Sutherland was well pleased with the Spearman team. They played errorless ball and pitcher Rondal Schell held the Dumas team well for five innings.

In the sixth Schell walked a couple of batters, then Dumas got a scratch hit to score one run. They loaded the bases and a Dumas batter hit a high pitch for a grand slam home run.

Sutherland said Little Leaguers just do not see curve ball pitching in normal competition. Sutherland said the Dumas boy was as good as many high school pitchers.

He predicted the Dumas team will go a long way in the race, if they have one or two more strong pitchers.

Sales Promotion Meeting Conducted

A very small group of Spearman businessmen met Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce to attempt to plan a city-wide sales promotion and fall picnic.

Chamber Manager Don Floyd told the nine men about the successful Pampa promotion that he had helped judge recently.

Floyd said the Pampa promotion was built around store owners and employees dressed in crazy costumes and sale prices on a few items in the stores.

He told the men that Pampa had done this annually for three years and the merchants and Chamber officials said it had been bigger and more profitable each year.

The group decided to try and plan a promotion day along the same idea and also have a community picnic on the same day.

The nine men formed a promotion committee to talk to other business owners this week and try and enlist their support.

A second meeting to set the date and begin planning the event will be held at 7:30 pm Friday. All business owners are urged to attend this second meeting.

Girls Publishing 'Everyday Paper'

You have to live on the right street and in the right block if you are going to get your name in Spearman's third and newest newspaper.

The exclusive and newsy five-day-a-week paper began publishing on July 11, with editors, printers and circulation managers Debbie and Dixie Sheppard and Marcia Larson pecking out their first copy of the "Everyday Paper" on a typewriter.

This first issue contained a crossword puzzle, two news items, a joke and Rory's news.

Hunt and peck typing was rather slow and limited the circulation. It would take the three girls all day to peck out three or four copies.

Mothers, Mrs. Bert Sheppard and Mrs. Marcus Larson did not think the project would last long. Especially when the girls stayed up until 1 a.m. typing one edition because of increased sales.

Instead increased sales demanded more and faster equipment, so the girls now have a box of ditto jelly for making ditto copies. They hand-letter a ditto carbon, transfer the copy to the jelly and print copies.

Circulation is now 14 to 15 copies per day. Just about everyone on the block takes the paper and some buy more than one. The price is three cents per copy.

A problem is facing the circulation department. The J. L. Brocks have moved across town to the Bledgett and Linn Addition. They were the best customers, sometimes buying three copies, so the girls are working on a delivery plan to keep the Brocks on the circulation list.

There is no credit and no subscriptions. The girls take their papers and "bank", a large tin can, from door to door on the block. Prospective customers drop three cents in the bank, then get a paper.

Gathering news is no big problem for the three "crusading editors". They gather the news as they deliver the papers. The best news source is the neighborhood children.

When they started the new feature "Meet Your Neighbors", a short history on each family, the girls did not bother to interview the first family Mr. and Mrs. Earl Archer, they interviewed the son, Robert.

The regular feature is Rory's News. The girls collect this simply by writing up Dixie and Debbie's baby brother's baby talk which goes something like this:

"Ahh alawone aeha abu." One day the paper carried the item that Rory was asleep so there is no news.

Debbie is the printer for the paper. Dixie and Marcia, fourth graders, have been writing so long in school they have forgotten how to print, but Debbie, being a third grader remembers well how it is done.

Like all newspapers, the "Everyday Paper" has had its troubles. The girls had to suspend publication for a few days when the typewriter broke down and the ditto

PRINTING - Debbie (back to camera) and Dixie Sheppard and Marcia Larson all get their fingers in the printing as they press the paper on the ditto jelly to print the "Everyday Paper".

One reason experience is such a good teacher is that she doesn't allow any dropouts.

Jacksons Move To Kelton

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jackson will move to Wheeler County Saturday. They will be living on a small farm three miles south of Kelton. The long-time farm and business family are planning to retire on the small farm they have bought there. "Bud likes to hunt and fish and this place is good for that and just fooling around," Mrs. Jackson said. Their youngest daughter, Robbie, will attend school in Kelton. Jacksons lived on a farm for seven years after they married then 20 years ago they moved into Spearman. Their daughter, Mrs. Robert Janzen, will continue to operate the gift store, and their son-in-law, Hal Sampson, will assume full operation of the Jackson's farm here. The parents have been partners in these businesses.

Paper . . .

jelly had not arrived. Friday, Debbie had to re-print the entire front page. She failed to fix her carbon right, and the papers came off the "press" printed in reverse.

True to the idea that the paper must come out, Debbie just rubbed the "writer's cramps" out of her fingers and started printing again.

Television gave the girls the idea for the paper.

"Opey on Andy Griffins show had a paper, so we decided to start one," Dixie commented.

Marcia Larson said the publishers will divide all their money when they decide to quit the publishing business. They keep all the income as profit.

That time is very indefinite. Debbie has a money goal set for halting publication. "When we each get about $30."

Besides news and jokes, the paper also carries crossword puzzles and pictures for coloring contests. There will be prizes, when the editors decide what to give.

News is handled in a very straight forward and complete manner. But, news must concern people on the block.

The Little League All-Star game was mentioned because Kim Brock was playing.

"The Everyday Paper" was also the first paper to announce that one of the women on the block was going to have a baby in August.

One of the bigger stories was:

"Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Read, Sheila and Jennifer went to Amarillo yesterday morning at 6:30. Della and Collette stayed here. The Reads will return home Friday or Saturday. Della got her hair cut and had her picture made for the high school annual."

One good story caused a mild surprise among the readers.

The paper reported that Collette Read got her tail cut off and the stitches would be removed in two days. Collette was a newcomer to the neighborhood and only one or two knew she was a poodle.

Texas' Tourist Attractions Show Big Increase Over Last Year

Despite unusually prolonged rains, attendance at tourist attractions across the state rose 14 per cent during the first half of 1965 over the same period last year.

The Texas Tourist Development Agency, which took the mid-year survey, said 14,069,333 visitors were counted in the first six months by the 18 attractions and the state parks. The count was 12,347,101 during the first half of 1964.

Attractions that keep a record of the out-of-state portion of their attendance told TTDA that segment of their business was up nearly 25 per cent in the first half.

Although attendance-cutting rain was mentioned frequently by reporting attractions, particularly those oriented to the outdoors, a dry July was said to be producing visitors by the drove.

In fact, most operators mentioned brisk early July business as heralding a second half even brighter than the first six months.

Largest single increase the first half was reported by the Fort Davis National Historic Site in far West Texas. Although still undergoing restoration, the historic frontier fort attracted 48,612 visitors, nearly 16,000 more than in the first half of 1964 for a 48.8 per cent gain.

Supt. Michael Becker told TTDA his June business alone was 59 per cent greater than the same month last year.

Significantly, another storied military post at the opposite end of the state accounted for the second largest increase during the period. The Old Stone Fort at Nacogdoches, deep in East Texas, recorded a 46.3 per cent gain with 12,553 visitors.

Old Stone Fort too reported the heaviest increase in out-of-state attendance, 53.1 per cent. Its visitors came from 33 states and seven foreign countries.

Big Bend National Park ranked third in attendance gains, up 41.9 per cent for the first half with 78,758 guests. Supt. Perry E. Brown told TTDA accommodations within the park overflowed during the Easter weekend and April attendance generally was 62 per cent above the same month last year.

"Already this year we are less than 40,000 visitors shy of last year's total attendance of 120,000," Brown said.

Rounding out the top four attractions in terms of increased patronage was still another fort, this time in El Paso. The replica of original Fort Bliss attracted 23,464 visitors, nearly half of them from outside Texas, for a 26.4 per cent increase.

Largest volume of guests was reported by Texas' 56 state parks. The host Texas Parks and Wildlife Department counted 4,706,710 visitors, up 25.8 per cent over the first six months of last year.

Second largest volume was handled by sprawling Lake Texoma on the Texas-Oklahoma border. Its 3,972,700 visitors represented a 16.9 per cent increase over last year's first half.

The Southwestern Historical Wax Museum in Dallas' Fair Park was up 20.7 per cent with 74,365 guests.

Crossing the two causeways onto Padre Island were 1,382,904 visitors, an increase of 19.4 per cent. The John F. Kennedy Causeway onto the northern end of the island at Corpus Christi reported more persons, 771,340, for an 18.7 per cent gain. Queen Isabella Causeway at the island's southern tip (Port Isabel) counted 611,564 visitors. Its percentage gain, however, was 20.1 per cent.

Also included in the mid-year report was attendance at the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts, Panhandle-Plains Museum at Canyon, the Alamo, Aquarena, Lake o'the Pines, Six Flags Over Texas, Buckhorn Hall of Horns, Witte Museum, San Jacinto Battleground and Wonder Cave.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Tracy and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilmeth returned Sunday after spending a week at Branson, Mo. While there they attended many of the final camp activities for their sons Richard Tracy and Ernest Wilmeth. Ernest is a first year camper and this is Richards second year at Kamp Kanakuk near Branson. Both boys made excellent records and plan to go back next year.

Eighth Birthday Party Honors Miss Pendergraft

Mrs. James Pendergraft, 735 Cotter Drive honored her daughter Stacey with a party on her 8th birthday Wednesday July 22.

Various favors and lipsticks for the girls were given each guest. Outdoor games were enjoyed by the group. Decorated birthday cake, ice cream and punch were served to Janice Cockrell, Debby Sheppard, Mary Lou DeArmond, Carmen Booth and Stacey's brothers Stanley, Bradley and Kevin Pendergraft. Mrs. John Laubhan of Follett, Stacey's grandmother, was also present to enjoy the party.

Circle Meets In Golightly Home

The Betty Morris Circle of WMU met at the home of Gowanda Golightly on Wednesday morning July 21.

Barbara Howe, chairman presided at the business session and Eva Adkison read the prayer calendar followed with prayer.

Deloris Guthrie brought the program of Bible study and was assisted by Magda Garnett and Barbara Howe.

Attending were Mmes. Garnett, Adkison, Angie Sheets, Guthrie, Abbye Ownbey, Ava Tops, Howe and hostess Golightly.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Vandenburg and Nelda spent several days this week in Lubbock. Nelda registered for the fall term at Tech while there and spent Thursday night in the dormitory.

SELECTATILTH® GEARBOX

10 or 1000 P.T.O. for 5 PLOW TRACTORS
CENTRALLY MOUNTED
3 POINT, 2 POINT
OR TRAILER

HOWARD ROTAVATOR

● The Model K Rotavator, designed for today's 5 plow tractors, will handle all forms of tillage in a wide variety of soil types and crops. This model is mostly used in corn, beans, cotton, rice, alfalfa and other crops grown in large scale operations. A planter hitch is available to pull a planter or drill immediately behind the Rotavator for one pass, till and plant operations. Special shields available as extras enable it to be used for bedding and cultivating work.

Howard's exclusive Selectatilth transmission makes it possible to change the rotor speed in minutes in the field. Just take off the cover and switch gears on the shafts, or change with the pair inside the cover. No wrenches are required.

EXCLUSIVE BLADE DESIGN — Howard's exclusive rotor and blade design for smooth running and even power requirement.

K-80 MODEL—preparing corn ground for winter wheat.

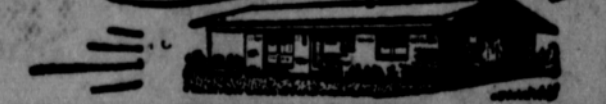

K-80 MODEL TRAILING
The K-80 is available as a trailing unit (above, right) or for direct mounting.
