Mr. H. L. (Hix) Wilbanks

Services for Pioneer Held Here Tuesday

Funeral services for H. L. (Hix) Wilbanks, 77, were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday, June 4, in the First Christian Church of Spearman.

Services were conducted by Rev. Hugh Pugh, pastor, and the Rev. Clifford Parker, pastor of the North Amarillo Christian Church. Burial was in Hansford Cemetery with Boxwell's in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Wilbanks, a retired farmer and rancher and ex-sheriff of Hansford County, died at 12:40 p. m. Sunday in Hansford Hospital.

Howell Lorenzo Wilbanks was born Sept. 17, 1886 in Johnson County, Texas. He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilbanks, three sisters and four brothers, moved to Hansford County on May 2, 1902. They settled three miles east of Spearman, although the town was not built until 1920.

He and Miss Trixy Winn, a school teacher, were married Oct. 11, 1908 by the Rev. Wilson in his dugout parsonage five miles northwest of Old Hansford.

When this land was later offered for sale, the Wilbanks bought it and have kept it for its sentimental value.

The family moved with the town of Hansford in 1920 to Spearman. Then later Mr. and Mrs. Wilbanks moved to their farm east of Spearman. They owned the property for 40 years.

Mr. Wilbanks was sheriff of the county two different times. He served first from 1919-1922, then from 1928 until 1945. He was both sheriff and tax assessor-collector.

During the depression and drouth of the 30's he helped many people secure loans on their land and keep it. It was also during this time that he earned the reputation of being an officer that did not carry a gun.

He earned his greatest fame as an officer when he spent many months in tracking a man who murdered his wife while traveling through the county. Mr. Wilbanks had no identification of the woman and only the manufacturer's label in a low-priced shoe as a clue. The husband was found and brought to trial.

Mrs. Wilbanks was killed and her husband critically injured in a car wreck, Nov. 25, 1959.

Mr. Wilbanks was a member of the Masonic lodge No. 1040, the First Christian Church, an honorary member of the Sheriff's Association, and a supporter of Boys Ranch and the Scottish Rite Hospital for Cripple Children.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Calvin Hazlewood of Fort Worth, Mrs. Ray Phelps and Mrs. Joe Dan Bryan, both of Spearman, and Mrs. G. R. Billingsley of Lubbock, a foster son, Marcus Larson of Spearman, two sisters, Mrs. G. B. Reed of Amarillo and Mrs. Floyd Hawkins of Austin, and 14 grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Guy Fuller, J. B. Cooke, Freeman Barkley, Clay Gibner, Roy Wilmeth, Hall Jones, Kiff White and Bill Russell. Honorary pallbearers were Robert Alexander, P. R. Hawkins, Lee McClellan, P. A. Lyon Sr., Rex Sanders, Carl Archer, Virgil Matthews, Joe Day, Garrett Allen, Homer Allen and E. L. Lindop.

Local Business Growth Continues On Upswing

Spearman's business population is on the increase again with new businesses, enlarged businesses and new homes for old businesses.

One new business has recently been opened, another was opened this week, two new businesses are preparing to open and an old business is getting a different and remodeled location. A new office building is under construction and another business will soon start a building.

The Gift Box, owned and operated by Mrs. Bud Jackson, Mrs. Robert Janzen and Mrs. Bud King has been open for the past few weeks. The new store is located on Hancock street in the TG&Y building.

Next door to the Gift Box Mr. and Mrs. Bill Swann of Borger are preparing to open their barbeque house. Fixtures are being placed in the building and an opening date is set for the near future.

Still in downtown Spearman another business is preparing to open. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Reamy from Springfield, Colo. are making preparations for opening a carpet, drapery and upholstery shop.

The business is located in the Womble building formerly occupied by Panhandle Furniture Mart.

Mrs. Reamy is an interior decorator and will also make draperies. The shop will carry carpets, materials for draperies and upholstery. They will also install carpets.

On the other end of Main Street Marvin Chambers is remodeling the old Cut Rate Grocery building and will move Chambers' Dry Goods into this much larger location. This move will be made in the near future.

In Plains Shopping Center Beedy's Gift Gallery is having its opening this week. The gift store is located in the mall in space formerly housing Henson Jewelers. It has a mall entrance and also one from the furniture store.

Jim Stubblefield will operate his watch and jewelry repair business in the Gift Gallery. Stubblefield moved here shortly before Henson's closed their shop. He opened his own repair service in Beedy Furniture while the Gift Gallery was being remodeled.

The North Plains Truck and Implement Co. on West Kenneth will start work soon on a new building and machinery lot on S. Highway 15. The new location for the year-old business is next to Spearman Super Service.

The move by the implement company was made necessary when the Hansford County Farm Bureau purchased the area being used by the implement house for machinery parking. Farm Bureau started work this week on a new office building on Davis street, just across from White House Lumber.

Work is still going on on two large projects in Spearman. Construction on the new Spearman High School is moving into its final three months. Also, work on the new Assembly of God Church is going ahead.

Home construction had been on the upswing before the recent heavy rains.

A bouquet of white feathered carnations centered with 3 white orchids was carried atop a white lace covered bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of cultured pearls, a gift from her parents. The tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue was carried out.

Matching green hats completed the costume. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations with flowing white streamers.

The flower girl was Carolyne Sheets, niece of the bride, who wore a pink nylon dress edged with white lace and flowers with a white hat and gloves and carried a white basket of pink rosebuds.

The ring bearer was cousin of the groom, Artie Ledbetter of Dalhart. He carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow edged in nylon lace which was designed and made by the bride.

Students Should Get Shots Now
