County population increases by 4.7%

The population of Hansford County increased more rapidly than the national population from 1960 through July of 1984 according to a report recently issued by the Census Bureau. The number of people in Hansford County increased from 6,209 in 1960 to an estimated 6,500 in July of 1984 or by 4.7% while the nation's population increased from 231,106,727 in 1960 to an estimated 236,634,000 in July of 1984 or by 2.4%. The population of Texas increased by 12.4% or from 14,227,770 in 1960 to an estimated 15,989,000 in July of 1984.

While the Census Bureau only makes a comprehensive count of the national population every ten years, it issues periodic estimates that update these totals. These estimates are important for reasons beyond their statistical significance. A number of federal agencies base grant funding for localities upon these reports. Additionally, many national corporations take these reports into consideration when planning future activities. On several occasions, interim population reports by the Census Bureau have distressed local officials so much that they have gone to court to prevent the federal government from making use of these figures for funding projections.

To obtain preliminary population figures, the Census Bureau makes use of federal tax data to determine the number of persons whose county of residence has changed. The Bureau uses data on Medicare enrollees, as well as independent studies to estimate the population over 65 years of age. Additionally, the Census Bureau takes into account birth and death statistics to estimate natural (as opposed to migratory) net population changes. Other factors including resident students, military personnel, and immigration from abroad are also taken into consideration in preparing interim population reports. These reports are estimates, but it is generally agreed that these are the most reliable population estimates available.

Information released in the current population report indicates that the population of Hansford County is increasing while it decreased from 1970 through 1974. During that period, the Census Bureau estimated that the population increase in Hansford County continues through 1990, the population of Hansford County will have increased by 11.8%.

However, there are so many factors that affect local population changes that it is highly unusual for the rate of change for a county's population to remain constant over a ten-year period. If the rate of population growth in Hansford County had continued as it did from 1970 through 1974 until 1990, Hansford County's population would have decreased to 5,970 by 1990 or by 6.0%. In fact, the population of Hansford County declined to 6,209 in 1980 or by 2.2%.

Changes in the national population as well as changes in state population also seldom remain constant over a ten-year period. For example, if the national rate of population growth were to continue at its current rate, the number of persons living in the United States would increase by 6.0% or to 244,973,000 by 1990. Whether or not this will occur remains to be seen. From 1970 through 1974, the national population increased by 4.0%. If this rate had remained level throughout the decade, the country's population would have increased by 10.0% from 1970 through 1980. Actually, the national population increased by 11.1% from 1970 through 1980.

These same factors affect state population changes. If current demographic trends remain constant, the population of Texas will increase by 31.0% to 18,636,375 by 1990. However, from 1970 through 1974 the population of Texas increased by 9.3%. If this rate of growth had been maintained, the state's population would have increased to 13,803,000 or by 23.3% in 1980. In fact, the population of Texas had increased to 14,227,770 by 1980 or by 27.0%.

The population estimates for 1984 indicate certain general demographic trends, however. It seems apparent that the national rate of population growth is declining. The Census Bureau had predicted that this would take place. Current population figures, however, indicate that the nation's population has increased slightly less rapidly than expected. The Census Bureau had predicted that the national population would be between 245,743,000 and 254,122,000 by 1990.

This does not appear to be the case in Texas. The population of Hansford County is apparently increasing more rapidly than the national population. The population of Hansford County increased less rapidly than the population of Texas from 1980 through 1984.

Amber will be at County Fair

AMBER CHAILEENE PENNINGTON

Amber Chaileene Pennington, six year old daughter of David and Donna Pennington of Stinnett will once again entertain residents of Hansford County at the Hansford County Fair on October 5th.

This will be Ambers second year to perform at the Fair and a lot has happened in this past year for the tiny blonde. Amber has performed twice at Gilleys in Pasadena, TEXAS SEVERAL TIMES AT The Johnnie High Country music revue in Ft. Worth, in June she appeared with Ralph Emery and guest Tom T. Hall on the Nashville Networks Nashville Now Show, and most recently Amber has been featured in the Houston Astrodome singing the Star Spangled Banner for the Houston Astros vs. Cincinnati Reds Baseball game. Amber became the youngest person to ever sing in the Astrodome, and it is being researched as to if she is the youngest person to ever sing the National Anthem at a major league game. There is a possibility she may be entered in the Guinness Book of World Records for this accomplishment.

Amber recently recorded her first record release on the Calico Record Label. Amber is featured performing "Country Girls U. S. A." A song which was written by her paternal Grandmother, Lee Pennington and Randy Palmer of Amarillo, as well as Look What Has Come Over Her, which was also written by Randy Palmer of Amarillo. This record can be purchased at Gordons Drug in Spearman.

Amber was showcased by Channel 7 Pro News in August and this news story was picked up by the ABC National News feed and aired on stations throughout the country.

"Servants of the Faith" to perform

First Baptist Church of Spearman is happy to present Servants of the Faith. Servants is a group of Christian laymen who have been singing together since March, 1984. The group includes:

TENOR I - Reagan Baker (custom fertilizer dealer) Jerry Don Davis (associate pastor of First Baptist Church, Spearman)

TENOR II - Mike Blanton (farmer)

TENOR II - Mike Blanton (farmer), Lonnie Hiller (farmer), John Roller (head girls' basketball coach at Spearman High School)

BARITONE - Billy Brown (farmer and professional horse trainer), Tony Ferguson (farm implement mechanic), Jay Pack (college student)

BASS - Wayne Biggs (farm implement mechanic), Johnny Miller (choral director at Spearman High School), Robert Queener (manager of Interstate Savings and Loan).

These men have come together for the purpose of sharing the love of God through music. Coming from varied backgrounds and diverse walks of life, they have the common bond of their faith in Jesus and a strong desire to share this faith wherever and whenever the opportunity is open.

The desire of Servants is that their singing not be a performance for the sake of performing, but, rather, a time of worship when God can speak through the music and the musicians. The music on this year's program is quite varied ranging from ballads such as "Living Sacrifice" to the comic but pointed "God Jonah," and including such standard favorites as "Amazing Grace."

Servants of the Faith will be singing this Sunday evening, September 29, at 7:00 p.m., at the First Baptist Church, 123 Bernice. The public is cordially invited to come to this special service of praise in music. There is no admission charge, and a nursery is provided.

La Leche League meeting held

Mothers interested in information about breastfeeding are welcome to attend the next meeting of the Spearman La Leche League. It will be held on Monday, September 30, 1985, at 7:00 p.m., at the First Presbyterian Church of Spearman. If you are thinking about breastfeeding your baby or are already a nursing mother we invite you to attend our meeting.

Today it is estimated that at least two-thirds of all babies born in hospitals in the United States are breastfed for some time. But many mothers abandon nursing when a problem arises or because of a lack of support. A new mother will always have questions and doubts about many aspects of child care, and if she is to gain confidence in herself, she needs the support and encouragement of people who reflect a positive attitude and can provide accurate information in answer to her question.

La Leche League fills this need with accredited Leaders kept up to date on the latest information concerning breastfeeding as well as La Leche Leagues almost thirty years experience working with nursing mothers.

La Leche League meetings are informal discussions based on mother-to-mother sharing, not lectures or classes. A series of four monthly meetings based on the manual The Womans Art of Breastfeeding will be held. Other services offered include a lending library of books on childbirth, child care, and breastfeeding.

The Spearman La Leche League has been a part of the community for over four years. During this time we have reached many mothers and would be happy for the opportunity to help you. For more information call: Teresa Kirk 659-2794 or Becky Bairley 659-5217.

Psychological Profiling has been used for many years. Thousands of cases have been thoroughly studied to gain the necessary knowledge to describe the type of individual that leaves a certain type of crime scene. The information has been compiled and put to use to be used in investigations throughout the United States.

The "Psychological Profiling" School, thought to be another way to aid investigators in all types of crimes, is new in the sense that for the first time this information and skills is made available for the use of officers outside of the FBI.

There were fifty in attendance at the School. The instructor was William T. (Bill) Peters of Albuquerque, New Mexico. Peters is retired from the FBI where he was a psychological profiler for over twenty years.

Dear Sir,

My wife and I wish to thank the people in Spearman who were so kind to us following a car accident we had south of Spearman on September 17th. Everyone went out of their way to show their concern for us and to assist us in every way possible.

We cannot possibly remember the names of everyone who were kind to us but we do wish to say a special "Thank you" to Johnny King who drove us into Spearman from the accident, helped us obtain a rental car and stayed with us until we were able to continue our journey. Thanks also to Mr. and Mrs. Dunaway and to Bruce and Rita Duncan who helped us transfer our luggage from the wrecked car to the rental. The deputy sheriffs, volunteer firemen and people at Gillaspie Chevrolet were also wonderful in helping us. Mr. James Noble was very kind and considerate to my wife who suffered injury to her right foot.

My son, Bob, who was with me when I returned the rental car on September 18th was tremendously impressed with the friendliness of the people he met. His comment was "A super town."

I Mrs. Cutter and I were terribly concerned about Mr. Frank Lewis who was also in the accident. We prayed for him and were overjoyed to hear that he was up and about a day or so after the accident.

For those of you who were so kind to my wife, you will be glad to know that she is getting along very well.

Thank you all.

NEWS RELEASE

The Texas Water Conservation Association endorses and supports the passage of the Constitutional Amendments authorizing the use of state financial assistance for water resources conservation and development in the state of Texas on November 5, 1985.

According to Duncan Ellison, Lubbock, President of TWCA, the Board of Directors of the Association unanimously adopted a resolution at their September 16, 1985 meeting in Austin endorsing the passage of Propositions I & II providing for Constitutional Amendments amending Article III of the Texas Constitution which provides for the authorization of the issuance of an additional $980 million of Texas Water Development Bonds to create special water funds for water conservation, water development, water quality enhancement, flood control, drainage, subsidence control, recharge, chlorine control, agricultural soil and water conservation and desalination; to authorize a bond and insurance program; and to clarify the purposes for which Texas Water Development Bonds may be issued; and to authorize the issuance and sale of $200 million of Texas Agricultural Water Conservation Bonds.

Ellison stated that passage of these amendments will allow the State to provide financial assistance for water resources projects and establish a program of water resource development and management for the State of Texas. The costs and ability of local communities and subdivisions to meet the demands for water supply and water quality improvement projects continue to escalate creating a financial burden on the ability of some local entities to meet these needs. With the ever increasing demand for federal dollars, the federal government's financial participation in the development of water supply projects and water treatment construction grants continue to diminish and it has become necessary for state and local governments to have the capability to finance these projects, said Ellison.

Ellison stated the resolution also expresses the Association's appreciation and congratulations to the 69th Legislature of the State of Texas for its dedicated efforts in resolving the critical issue of financial assistance of water conservation and development.

The TWCA is a statewide organization composed of individuals, firms, corporations, cities, water districts and authorities, public and private agencies, and groups dedicated to the task of conserving, developing, protecting and utilizing the water resources of Texas for all beneficial purposes.

Boulter applauds trade stance

WASHINGTON - Reaction to President Reagan's speech to business leaders on U.S. trade policy today, Texas Congressman Beau Boulter (R-13) said it was "not a moment too soon."
"Our farmers," Boulter continued, "and businesses as well, were about to be swept away by the protectionist tide that is moving through the Congress. This speech is going to slow that tide dramatically."

In a fifteen minute speech the President outlined a new trade policy program that centers on the principles of free and open trade. He pointed out, at several points, that free trade can only be accomplished in an environment of fair trade.
"Several of our trading partners close their markets to us through unfair trade parties while our markets are wide open to them," Boulter said.
Boulter, as did the President, emphasized the fact that the United States would be ill-advised to counter the protectionist actions of other countries with protectionism in this country. "However," Boulter concluded, "those countries have to know that if they aren't going to trade fairly, there will be a price to pay."

The President's plan sets up a war chest to counter export assistance by other governments and designates a "Strike Force" to make certain that other governments live up to their trade agreements.

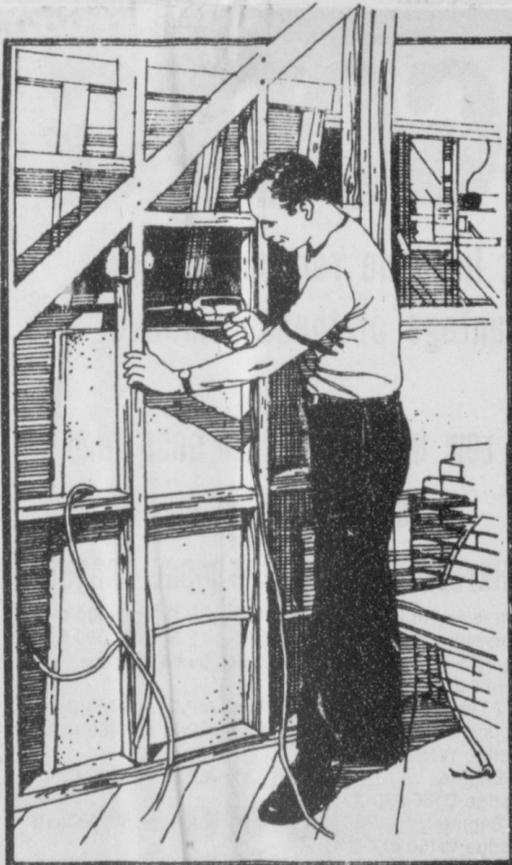

Additional news on the international trade issue was released today after a meeting of five major industrial nations resulted in a decision to try to drive down the value of the U.S. dollar on foreign markets. The high dollar value, generally blamed on high federal deficits that maintain high interest rates, is, as Boulter noted, "probably the biggest obstacle to increased exports for this country. Simply put, our team can't compete."

Among The Neighbors

Two former residents of Spearman have been here several days visiting old friends and relatives in this area.

Mrs. Pauline (Tom) Johnson now lives in Altus, Oklahoma. She lived here as a bride in the 1940s. Later her daughter, Lynda Webb, was the Home Economics Agent here in the mid 1960s. Lynda, now Lynda Ingram, lives in Lawton, Oklahoma where she is assistant manager of Wal-Marts. Her daughter, Teresa Garnett, now has a daughter of her own, Heather Rhnea Zimmerman.

Accompanying Mrs. Johnson is Mrs. Flonnie Mae Cecil Hancock. She was a graduate of Spearman High School in 1930, and attended the high school re-union here in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Shield-knight returned Wednesday evening from their lodge near Creed, Colorado. They had as house guests Mr. and Mrs. Dee Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gillaspie and their two daughters. The fishing was mediocre as there was snow several days. The group enjoyed the trip on the narrow gauge railroad at Durango.

Mrs. Jimmy Hester, and two sons, Tony and David attended the funeral of Mrs. Velma Braze in Snyder on Friday. Mrs. Braze was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Hester and the last member of the family of the late Jimmy Hester.

Mrs. Jean Close, night dispatcher at the sheriff's office joined the list of those who have fallen and broken bones recently. Tuesday evening she fell and broke some ribs and suffered some bad bru-ses. Fortunately she was with Mrs. Billy Frank Close who took her to the Hospital. Mrs. Close and her two children are visiting relatives here this week. Jean feels that she can resume her duties in a few days.

Mrs. Norma Jean Mackie and her mother, Mrs. Ed Hutton visited in Lazar, Texas over the week-end. The occasion was a family re-union at the home of Mrs. Hutton's brother, 93 year old Carl Harris. The other member of the family, another brother, came from San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Larson enjoyed a trip to Nevada last week. They went by motor home and spent a week. They were impressed by Laughlin, which is an unusual city. They participated in the usual entertainment in Las Vegas, after which Newell and Marcus felt that, depressed as it is, farming has some advantages over some other occupations.!!!

Mrs. Mabel Adams returned to her employment at Hansford Hospital after a weeks vacation. Mrs. Adams enjoyed the week in amarillo in the home of her sons, Jerry and John. Due to the rain, she missed going to the fair but found other entertainment.

Mr. Stan Witten is still in High Plains Baptist hospital in Amarillo where he has been several days. He expects to be dismissed shortly. While he was receiving medical attention and Mrs. Witten was with him, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Anderson, of Laverne, Oklahoma stayed here with the children. Mr. Witten's return to work with Baker-Taylor is indefinite at this time.

John J. Niehenke, assistant treasury secretary for domestic finance:

"If the debt limit is not increased, the government will be unable to meet all of its essential obligations when they fall due..."

Spend that dollar at home

What is a dollar worth? 33 cents? 47 cents? No, a dollar spent in Spearman, Texas, is worth more than five dollars even with inflation. But to be worth five dollars it must be spent in Spearman and no other place. Nonsense? Not really. One dollar spent in Spearman circulates at least five times before it leaves our local economy. For example, someone pays twenty dollars for a pair of shoes, and those shoes are purchased in Spearman. After that twenty dollars is "gone" it pays the salary of the salesman who made the sale or possibly it goes to pay the landlord the rent on the building. The landlord then has the money available to buy dinner at a local restaurant. The restaurant in turn has that money to buy more equipment or food. Or, possibly the money is simply deposited in the bank. Once deposited, the possibilities are endless: money for loans for construction, money for salaries, money to help purchase inventory or equipment.

Now, how much a dollar worth when it is spent out of town? About 33 cents. Because once it leaves our community it is lost to us and ceases to be of any value. We have the ability to determine whether or not Spearman will be prosperous. We decide with little things. Attitudes that encourage us to believe that we can get better "deals" in Amarillo or Borger do not help the local economy. Granted, Spearman may not have the variety of merchandise that the larger towns have. But Spearman does have much to offer, and when we buy locally, we make our dollars worth more, and in reality we are helping ourselves.

BEAUTIFUL?

It all depends on whether or not you are a lobster-lover. To those who enjoy this succulent fruit of the sea, a lobster is a thing of beauty. To others, it seems incredibly ugly.

Beauty is "in the eye of the beholder," but, contrary to another old saying, it is not skin deep. True beauty often can't be seen at all. It is something you feel, something of which you are aware—not necessarily seen.

Beauty, for instance, surrounds you when you walk into a church. There is something in the atmosphere that you can't quite define. No matter what's been happening to you, in God's Home, you feel a sense of peace, of sanctuary.

Had that experience lately?
