Car-Truck Crash Injures Two Men

Two men are hospitalized with injuries received in a two-vehicle accident on highway 760 and Fifth street intersection at the east edge of Spearman Tuesday morning. Dennis George, 58, of Spearman received fractured leg, and fractured ribs. The attending physician said George's leg had six fractures. T.C. Harvey Jr., 45, of Gruver received several fractured and crushed ribs, the doctor said.

Highway patrolmen investigating the accident said Harvey was going south on 760 and George was traveling north. The officer said George started to make a left turn on Fifth street and the vehicles hit almost head-on. The officers said neither vehicle was going fast, but there were no skid marks on the pavement.

Both vehicles were heavily damaged and a piece of machinery in the rear of the Harvey pick-up crushed the rear of the cab and drove some large bolts through the cab, just missing Harvey, according to officers.

Chief of Police Wayne Pierce said the accident happened about 7:55 a. m.

Both men were taken to Hansford Hospital for treatment. They are still hospitalized here.

Time for Fun Party Is Held

The Time For Fun Party was held Monday evening, Nov. 29 in the Home Demonstration clubroom with the Town and Country HD Club sponsoring the event.

Mrs. W.L. Mackie and Mrs. H.H. Crooks celebrated their birthdays.

Mrs. Carl Hutchison won the ladies door prize and George Stewart won the mens. Cookies, punch and coffee was served to the twenty one senior citizens attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trayler and son DeWain of Petersburg were Friday overnight guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Trayler.

There are so many beautiful things for and about Christmas these days, it's become a real chore to sift down through the tinsel and sparkle to find the things you want for your family. It's a pleasant "chore" though and one that you can find plenty of help in solving.

I have been completely enthralled with the current magazines, their tender Christmas stories, beautiful decorating and gift ideas and scrumptious recipes. McCall's has a lovely pictorial feature entitled "Famous Fathers and Their Little Girls: A Portfolio of Holiday Fashion." The little girls are simply adorable in their Christmas finery and the looks of pride on their fathers' faces, well, they're lovely.

Ladies Home Journal has a thought provoking article "The Children Santa Forgot" that will make you sad unless you can feel that this is your chance to share Christmas. Don't read this one though unless you're prepared to do something about it ... it would be depressing otherwise.

Speaking of sharing Christmas, it's absolutely the only way to celebrate this lovely holiday you know. A perfect example of that is a very dear friend I visited Thanksgiving day. She was by the way, my freshman English teacher and last contact with the basics of grammar so I can appreciate what she was trying to do for me now. Miss Ira, now retired, was busily sewing and fashioning 39 dolls for the children at the Methodist Home for Christmas. Some were pillow dolls for teenagers and others cuddly rag dolls for the younger children.

Making dolls and gifts for the children at the home isn't her only way of sharing Christmas either. Every year except two since 1935 she has entertained with a Christmas dinner for the circle to which she belongs. The decorations, different every year, are always unique and the handmade favors are equally special.

This year she will entertain her Sunday school class too, so she has over 100 beautiful handmade favors ready for both occasions.

Some people really know how to make the most of Christmas; they give of themselves, their time and ingenuity and are richer for it from that day on.

There are three things to remember for next Sunday afternoon. First, if you are interested, the American Field Service meeting will be held in the high school teachers' lounge at 3 p.m. Geir Overland, foreign exchange student and his "family", the Jack McWhirters will be there if you'd like to visit with them or ask questions.

Then, the local flower shops will both be holding open house Sunday, showing all kinds of holiday arrangements and decorations, so here's your chance to spend a pleasant Sunday afternoon if you're one who enjoys something different to do.

We received a brochure this week from Hallmark and just as I suspected, we're not getting our share of the dimes and quarters people are spending for Hallmark cards. It seems the world's most famous greeting cards are selling at the rate of SEVEN MILLION A DAY now. I haven't figured it out by modern or dark-age math, but I'm pretty sure we aren't getting our share of the seven million sales each day. Therefore, we'll appreciate it if you'll come in and help us meet the standard.

Besides lovely cards, we are also well stocked with Christmas entertaining supplies so let Hallmark plan your next party. It's the easiest way.

Music Club Hears Pampa Vocalists

The Music Club met Monday evening at the First Christian Church with Mmes. Ray Robertson and Rue Sanders hostesses.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the collect of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Mrs. Will Douglas gave the story of the Hymn of the Month and the hymn "Come, Ye Thankful People" was sung by the club.

Mrs. Coy Palmer then introduced "The Climbers" a group of six freshmen girls from Pampa, who entertained the club by singing eleven different folk songs. The girls' mascot is an exchange student from South America and is making her home with the family of one of the Climbers. Several mothers accompanied the girls from Pampa.

Attending were Mmes. W. B. Barnes, Robert Brandt, Will Douglas, Don Knox, Billie Miller, Coy Palmer, Ray Robertson, Rue Sanders, Ronald Schaefer, Tom Sutton, Russell Townsend, J.D. Wilbanks, Donnie Desimone, Miss Linda Webb, patron members, Mmes. Deta Blodgett, Joe Trayler, C.A. Kleeberger, R.E. Lee and three guests, Mmes. Sarah Townsend, William Douglas and A.F. Holland, the "Climbers" and several mothers from Pampa.

At the next regular meeting the group will go to Pioneer Manor for a Christmas program.

Miss Jones Is Honored With Autograph Party

An autograph party honoring Dotty Jones on the publication of her book "A Search For Opportunity" was held Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 p.m. at the Hospitality Room of the First State Bank.

The book is an interesting and colorful history of Hansford County honoring all pioneer families, together with many pictures.

Hosts for the courtesy were members of the Historical Survey Committee. Present were Tom Jones, president, Mrs. Johnnie Lee, Mmes. Bob Archer, Gwenfred Lackey, J.R. Keim, N.F. Renner, and Olin Sheets and Lee McClellan.

The honoree was presented a white rosebud corsage by the hosts.

The serving table was laid with a white cut work cloth centered with an arrangement of fall flowers in autumn colors. The silver coffee and tea service was presided over by Mrs. Joel Lee Lackey and Mrs. Freeman Barkley, assisted by Mrs. Olin Sheets.

Guests were registered by Nan Sheets.

Approximately 50 registered during the afternoon from Morse, Gruver and Spearman.

prepare for the great crossing. In accepting the bell, the Rev. Cordes said the church appreciates Santa Fe's generosity. Also, the church shall strive to use the bell to assist in getting people to come to Church and to hear the Word of God.

The bell will be mounted on the roof of the church when it is finished, Jack Oakes said. Later, it may be put in a bell tower.

The church congregation expects to have services in the building by Christmas and the formal dedication will be in February.

The bell came from a mountain type engine No. 3716 that operated from Dodge City, Kan., to LaJunta, Colo., in the Western division of Santa Fe.

This engine weighed 238,800 pounds and was built in October, 1920, at a cost of $82,202.42. It was taken out of service in 1952.

Langley said the bells are scarce and Santa Fe now reserves all of its dwindling supply for churches and schools. Most go to churches, now.

Santa Fe does not have a steam engine in operation so there are no more bells, when the present supply is exhausted.

Langley said it was fitting that Santa Fe should reserve the bells for churches since the name "Santa Fe" in Spanish means Holy Faith.

either of his teams, but his girls are undefeated and the Lynx have been coming strong. They have lost their last two games by a total of five points. The losses were to Gruver, who has almost all of its team that went to state last year, and to Stratford, another strong basketball power.

The finals of the Shamrock tournament will be played Saturday.

EDUCATION LAG

Only 45 per cent of girl high school graduates enter college, as compared to 63 per cent of boy graduates.

HIGH-RISE LIVING

High-rise apartments begin to displace city tenements on a large scale as living quarters between 1885-1900 with greater use of structural steel, improvement of elevators and increased supplies of electricity.

The trouble with those discotheque dances is that you can't tell who your partner is.

Flying saucers are not new, but in the old days only married men saw them.

Take your problems to Church this week — millions leave them there!

Indestructible

Pictures and other mementos are treasured, for they serve to remind us of someone we love, some occasion or rich experience. If these mementos be lost or destroyed we do not lose our love nor does the loss erase from our minds the memories.

Discovery of additional religious manuscripts from time to time is of value, both to Hebrew and Christian scholars, for it enables them to make corrections in the Bible, make additions and alterations and correct omissions. While some may become alarmed lest these discoveries disclose something that might weaken or destroy their faith, the scholar knows that the value of the Bible does not depend upon newly found manuscripts.

No manuscript, old or new, can throw discredit upon the authority of religion, of doing justly, loving mercy and walking humbly with God. No translation in any language can black out the Sermon On The Mount or destroy the authority of the two great Commandments, love God with all your heart and your neighbor as yourself. You can help perpetuate this authority in your own mind by regular attendance at the church of your faith.

The man or woman who wants to live to a ripe old age should find a legal mate. Such is the conclusion of the latest government statistics published in West Germany. They indicate that widowed women and divorced men die at earlier ages than those who are married and living with their spouses.

Editorial

by Janie Kirkland

"I'd rather fight than switch!" Apparently this saying does not apply to the students of SHS.

The question has recently been brought up about a new school song. Five to one of the students asked did not want a change. Many reasons were given for their opinion. Some were: "It means something! It's tradition! I like it!"

If the majority of the students are in favor of keeping the song why then do over half of them discuss during the singing of the school song whether to go fishing or hunting; wear hose or bobby sox; or how unfair Mr. Hickey is.

If this is tradition or a sentimentality--I'll eat my hat!

Yes, maybe SHS is due for a change, but with a little effort a change in attitude would correct the whole problem. How about you--"Would you rather fight than switch for Spearman High School?"

Kilroy Speaks . . .

Dear Kilroy,
Every time I go up town, I have to beat the girls off with a stick. It is getting real bad. The other day when I got out of my car, the girls swamped me and nearly tore my shirt off my back. I am so good-looking and charming that I can't get rid of them. What should I do? It is really wild.

Signed,
Good Looking
Dear Good Looking,
Enjoy it. One of these days you'll be old and gray and wishing for some of your youthful spunk and attention.
Kilroy . . .

Dear Kilroy,
What do you do when out of the blue a girl invites you over for an evening at her house, but when you get there she puts flea powder on the bear rug, and turns the three way lamp down low, and puts about 20 records on the record player, and has her mouth full of that chlorophyll chewing gum and says, "Make yourself comfortable." What should I do?

Dear Mohair Sam,

Dear Kilroy,

THE TALL TEXAN

According to an Associated Press story Sunday, a commodity American troops have always used unofficially, is going to become part of our battle plan in Viet Nam. We are going to officially begin using our built in friendliness and concern for others welfare as a method of combating communism.

With an official push and maybe more than just C-rations and candy bars to back up the GI's good neighbor policy, we will finally begin using the weapon the Reds cannot compete with.

According to the AP story the military is trying to win the loyalty of the people behind its lines with courtesy, helpfulness, food and assistance. The commanding officers are finding it does no good to fight to an objective, when the troops then have to fight their way back home.

A desire among the people for what we have is why the communist have been able to make such great strides in the under developed portions of the world. The people want the simple things, food, clothes and shelter first, then the other more complex things can be added.

Communist promise these things, but they cannot deliver. They are just like candidates running for office. They promise many things and deliver nothing. We are one of the few nations who can deliver these products.

The promise of food and shelter to those who have little or none can lead many people. In the 1930's it put us on the road to a welfare state.

By using our great production ability to help our friends around the world, not the rich at the top, but the hungry masses, American free enterprise will become much more popular than communism.

Do not turn this food over to some international organization, see that it bears the big "Made In U.S.A." label. Make sure that it goes only to our friends. See that the masses know it is coming from the U.S.A.

Cost a lot? Yes, it will cost. But part of it can come out of the defense budget. A nation with more friends than enemies, does not need a large military force.

It is not a simple problem to work out, but a country that can figure out traffic cloverleaves for six lane highways, gigantic shopping centers, striped toothpaste, and today's dances should be able to work out a plan to get food to hungry people.

We have never been one to criticize teenagers for their dress, hairstyles or other bits of eccentricity. We feel that is their business and besides many think our bicycle and striped overalls are nutty.

However, the new fad of breaking pop bottles on streets and parking lots is not eccentric, but destructive.

It would seem that even the lowest mental group would know that broken glass is a great hazard to a community that travels on rubber tires. And, the chief among those on wheels is the teen-age jet set.

We are probably just not among the "in group" for not knowing how much fun it is to shatter pop bottles. But, we are among the "in group" that know how much thrill there is to buying new tires. We will now probably need a truck to get the broken glass out of our drive. Most of the time when one comments on some such teen-age "activity" he receives the "treatment".

Don't Be Surprised—

Horror is continually expressed at the numbers of persons maimed and killed annually on streets and highways in automobile accidents. As a matter of fact, it is astonishing that ten times as many are not killed. It's just luck they are not.

The majority of automobile drivers today are the greatest lawbreakers and most discourteous individuals in the nation. Too many drivers think they have to show their prowess as racers by passing everything in restricted speed zones.

First, there are the midget cars whose drivers seem impelled to prove they must show their speed qualities. Then there are the imitation racing or so-called sport cars with their imitation speedway drivers. Then come the owners of their first behemoths cruising at 80 to 100 miles an hour.

They pass on the right or left, they run on your rear bumper, they don't come to a full stop at signs, they pay no attention to turn signals of the car ahead but speed past.

Nab pleasure cars, trucks and motorcycles run with mufflers open until the noise on city streets and freeways is deafening. If they know the rules of the road, they pay no attention to them or driver's manuals.

No wonder there is so much juvenile delinquency when there is so much adult delinquency.

There is not much use of talking about reducing automobile killings until the public abides by the commonest rule of courtesy and driving techniques.

In the meantime, try to keep out of the way of the drivers who think it is smart to break the traffic laws and don't be surprised at the mounting auto death rate. --Graham Leader

Hold My Coat—

A couple of years ago we carried an editorial titled, "Let's you and him fight". I'm running into that problem again. I hadn't been back on the job here more than a week before some folks sidled up to me here at the office or on the street and confidentially whispered in my ear that I should take an editorial job at this and so or this and that.

There are altogether too many such customers who are perfectly willing to hold my coat while I take pen in hand to castigate someone they don't like or some one they happen to have a grudge against at the moment.

But when I offer them all the space they need to take out after some one--or something, with the only requirement they sign their name, they begin backtracking.

"Oh, I can't do that, I'm in business", is the customary reply.

I always wonder what the heck they think I'm in. It just so happens I'm in business too, with the same problem of paying the rent, salaries, utilities, taxes and the like, while trying to make a modest profit. And we share the same customers, in most cases, and need to get along with them the same as anyone else.

I have the unique talent for getting into enough hot water on my own hook without any assistance from anyone. And I'll probably keep on doing so. But these are going to be self-inflicted problems and not those suggested by some one else.

And, I feel, this is the way it should be. I, alone, do not constitute a faction. As long as I, alone, originate my own controversies, there will be no factional strife in Lewisville. In fact, just the opposite will be the case. Folks who normally might not get along will become unified in a common cause, that of riding me out of town on a rail. You can't have factions when a community is united in such a worthy endeavor. --Clem Clements in Lewisville Leader

Highway Vandalism Is Problem

Highway signs are erected for the safety and convenience of the motoring public--not to provide gun-toting punks with a handy target for plinking.

Yet, a major share of the $450 thousand vandalism to Texas highway signs annually is caused by gunfire, according to D.C. Greer, State Highway Engineer.

Bullet-riddled roadside markers accounted for 85 per cent of all signs which had to be replaced in one Texas Highway Department District in West Texas in one year.

Even a small highway sign costs about $10 to replace. Larger, more elaborate signs costing hundreds of dollars have been targets for wanton vandalism too, Greer said.

If apprehended, vandals can be made to pay for the destruction they cause. But the person who operates a motor vehicle in Texas foots the greater portion of the bill for replacement through his motor fuel taxes and licensing fees, Greer said.

More important, destruction of signs causes inconvenience--and many times deadly peril--to motorists using the highways.

"So be a good sport during this hunting season," Greer said. "Point your gun only at game, not our highway signs."

The early Mayas of southern Mexico considered cross eyes a mark of beauty. Mothers tied beads or feathered balls to the front locks of their children's hair, hoping they would develop a beguiling squint.

"EXPECTATION"

He is coming soon... He is coming soon... The Lord who came as Bethlehem's child is the Lord who will one day come again in glory and great display. Like the shepherds on the Judean hillsides, we watch for His coming. Nor are we without clues.

He who came and is coming, He also comes. "...Where meek souls will receive Him still, the dear Lord enters in." He comes to the little child in Holy Baptism; He comes to the distressed in the hour of prayer; He steals into our hearts as we hear His Word and feast at His Supper. He is a living Presence. He knocks at the door of our hearts, and whoever allows the Holy Spirit to open will know the strange companionship of this Royal Guest.

Because the Lord comes wherever two or three are gathered in His name, His Church lives in the expectation of continuous wonder. If the Lord is abroad, anything can happen! There are no limits to the power for good, either to the individual believer or in the fellowship of believers. The Church can never be measured or predicted, as other institutions. For the Church is peculiarly the bridgehead on earth for the unbounded operations of Heaven.

We enter this holy Advent season. Advent is a season of preparation, not celebration. Too many "jump the gun" and have pre-Christmas parties which tend to dim the brilliance of the holy Festival of Christmas and rather identify it with "the world."

So in the 4 weeks ahead prepare our hearts for His Coming. If He be with us, what boldness ought we not have as we push on into the years to do the things He requested! He will neither forsake nor leave us on earth until He comes to usher us into His final glory.

Prepare your hearts now with prayer and meditation and worship as you again think of how the Lord came into this earth as Savior, and who will one day return in final glory to take all believers in Christ into heaven. Make this a real Christmas preparation--advent to Christmas now.

County Agent's Report

By Robert Adamson

Christmas season is here so for this week's column I have some tips on Christmas tree care and colored fireplace "logs".

CHRISTMAS TREE CARE

Christmas trees can be kept green and fresh throughout the Yuletide Season if cared for properly.

The tree base should be placed in water and the tree stored in a cool, shady location as soon as possible after cutting or purchase. Tree needles continue to lose water after the tree is cut. The higher the temperature surrounding the needles, the greater is the water loss and needle drop.

Water is still the best fire retardant for Christmas trees. Research by the U. S. Forest Service's Forest Products Laboratory revealed that the use of fire retardant chemicals on trees often did more harm than good.

Here are some suggestions for keeping the Christmas tree fresh and green. Make a fresh, angular cut at least an inch above the original cut just before the tree is put up in the home. Then place the tree in a stand that will hold water and keep the water level in the container above the fresh cut.

Other safety suggestions include making sure the tree is supported so it will not fall; place the tree at least 10 feet away from fireplaces, heat vents, TV sets, or other sources of heat; lighted candles or other open flames should be kept well away from the tree; and finally, electrical cords should be free from frayed portions or exposed wires and of adequate size to avoid overloading.

COLORED FIREPLACE "LOGS"

You can add something special, colored flame; in your fireplace, for more Christmas cheer provided you start now. The "sparkling joy logs" which can add the color are easy to make.

To make the "logs", roll newspapers or absorbent paper into "logs" about 16 inches long. Don't use too many newspapers in a "log" because they swell when soaked in the chemical solution. The "logs" should be tied loosely with heavy twine.

To make the chemical solution which gives the color, dissolve four pounds of blue-stone, blue vitriol or sulphate of copper and three pounds of rock salt in one gallon of water.

Then soak the "logs" for three or four weeks in the solution, turning them end for end frequently. Let them dry thoroughly before trying to burn them.

Burn only one "log" at a time in an open fireplace. It will burn for several hours and give off rainbow colors.

And a final suggestion, these "logs" make unusual Christmas gifts for family or friends.

Lyon Rites Are Held In Denton

Funeral services for Harvey Reynolds (Ray) Lyon were held Nov. 26 in Denton.

Mr. Lyon was the brother of P. A. Lyon and the late Mrs. A. F. Barkley of Spearman, and had visited in Spearman many times.

He was born in Denton County August 23, 1891 and had lived in Denton County all his life. He was a retired wholesale oil and gas distributor.

He died of a heart attack Nov. 24.

Funeral services were held at the Schmitz Funeral Chapel and burial was in the Denton cemetery.

He is survived by two brothers, F. M. Lyon of Portland, Ore. and P. A. Lyon of Spearman and many nieces and nephews.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lyon, P. A. Lyon, Jr., Mrs. Gertrude Archer, and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Barkley attended the services.

Barbara Wilde opened strong for the Lynxettes and trailed Gibson only one point. She hit 18 points on seven field goals and four free shots.

Susan Hutchison put in 11 points on four field goals and three free shots for 11 points.

Marcia Shieldknight scored 7 points in the last quarter. The freshman hit three field goals and one gratis point.

Guards Robbie Ownbey, Kathi Pattison and Bethany Donnell held the previously unbeaten Elkettes without too much foul trouble.

The three only collected four fouls between them. Spearman had 23 field goals, nine free shots and 55

Lynx Lose Close One To Elks

In a rough and tumble basketball affair, the Spearman Lynx were nosed out 46-44 by the Stratford Elks Tuesday in Stratford.

Spearman jumped into a first quarter lead, lost it in the second quarter and then could not pull the game out in the second half.

The Lynx missed several good shots in the late minutes as the game turned into a slam-bang affair.

Stratford ran a full-court press against the Lynx for the last three quarters.

Larry Butts led the Lynx in scoring as he hit eight field goals for 16 points. Mike Hendricks was seven points behind with nine on four field goals and a free shot.

Spearman was leading 17-11 at the end of the first quarter, then were tied 28-28 at the half. Stratford led 41-38 at the end of three quarters.
