Homecoming Festivities Set Friday

A few changes have been made in the usual routine for the annual Homecoming activities at Spearman High School this Friday.

The Homecoming Queen will be crowned this year at the halftime of the football game instead of preceding the game as it has been done in previous years.

In the same ceremony the Lynx Peppers, the pep squad, will present their beau.

Members of the football team will select the Homecoming Queen from four candidates, one nominee from each class.

The Kon Tiki will have the after game dance. There will be no school sponsored Homecoming Dance.

The Spearman Lynx will meet Stratford in the homecoming game. The Lynx will be seeking to even their record at 2-2. They have lost to Sunray and Gruver and beaten Booker.

This will be the final non-district game. The Lynx will be idle next weekend and then plunge into the district race.

The Rev. Leon Hill

Sales Clinic Scheduled Tonight at Cafeteria

"You Can't Sell Peanuts at the End of the Parade" will be the topic of the Rev. Leon Hill's sales clinic talk tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the grade school cafeteria.

This employer-employee sales clinic will be a part of the pre-Krazy Day meeting tonight sponsored by the Spearman Chamber of Commerce.

Hill, a fast talking humorist, is also a specialist in these clinics designed to help sales people increase their sales ability.

This clinic is not just for the Krazy Day promotion, but the information Hill will give to retailers will be valuable in promoting sales everyday of the year.

Besides the clinic, some costumes for Krazy Day will be modeled by cooperating merchants and sales people.

Ideas for decorating stores and advertising promotions will be shown to all attending. The Chamber of Commerce and its Retail Merchants committee is working to gather ideas to help in this first promotion.

Chamber Manager Don Floyd said this first attempt at Krazy Day is going to be important. "We are expecting some 200 planes in here that day for the fly-in breakfast and air show. "These people will be here all day and the way the town cooperates in this project will be reflected into communities all over the country by the visitors."

Krazy Day will open at 7 a.m. with the fly-in breakfast in the B&B hanger at the airport. All merchants and employees are urged to attend this free breakfast in costume, to greet the visitors and be judged.

All costumes will be judged at 7:30 a.m. at the breakfast.

At 8 a.m. all the stores will open and the Krazy Day Sale will begin. At 10:30 a.m. there will be a watermelon eating contest on Main Street and on the parking lot at Plains Shopping Center.

By radio, the competition will be coordinated and a winner selected.

At noon the craziest decorated store will be named and a banner placed on the store.

The air show will begin at 2 p.m. at the airport and admission will be $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Besides the daredevil aerial stunts, there will be displays of new Cessna, Piper, Beechcraft Mooney planes for the public to see.

Jury Selection Goes Slow In Trial of John Grissiam

KRAZY BABY - It is nice that Krazy Day is approaching since "Baby John" wants to enter the Farm Bureau Baby Contest. If the age limit catches him, he still has a good costume for the Krazy Day Sale.

PLAINSMAN PHOTO

Ten jurors for the murder trial of John Lincoln Grissiam had been selected at 3 p.m. Wednesday and the court was preparing to impanel the second group of 50 prospective jurors.

Lawyers for the prosecution and defense exhausted the Special Venire of 150 persons shortly after lunch Wednesday. They selected 10 jurors. The lawyers had questioned approximately 125 members since the selection started Monday. Approximately 25 members of the venire were excused by the court Monday before the attorneys began their individual examination.

Jurors selected from the Special Venire were: Mrs. Russell Townsend, E.J. Callaway Jr., J.R. Luttrell, D.D. Stalder, Lee Keys, Mrs. K.E. Shufeldt, Mrs. D.W. Miller, Everett Vanderburg, Bobby Archer and Mrs. Robert V. Skinner.

Wednesday morning the defense attorneys Charles Ballman and Dick Reavis filed a motion for a change of venue because of the large number of prospective jurors who had been excused on the grounds of having an opinion in the case made it impossible to get a jury here.

The court overruled this motion.

Another recess was called when the first group of jurors were exhausted. It was believed that another motion was to be entered by the defense attorneys after this recess.

Judge Max Boyer had a night session Tuesday night in an attempt to complete the jury. With the delays experienced Wednesday, no one expected testimony in the trial to begin before Thursday, should the jury be completed Wednesday.

Grissiam is charged with the murder of P.H. (Mickey) Westerfield, a Gruver dry goods store owner.

Westerfield was shot in his store about 9 p.m. Feb. 26. He had gone to the store to check his books, after being out of town that afternoon.

Grissiam was arrested the following day and charged with the murder.

He was later indicted by the grand jury. He has been held in the Hansford County jail, since being charged, without bond.

He had been employed near Gruver as a farm laborer.

First Cold Front Arrives

Hansford County got its first taste of winter last weekend when a cold front dropped temperatures and set off rains over the area.

Some hail damage in very spotted areas have been reported, but no major damage has been reported. Some hail damage was reported on the J.B. Cooke farm southwest of Spearman, near the gasoline plants.

The lowest temperature of the week was Tuesday morning when Mrs. Pat Cates reported a low of 38 degrees. Last Saturday morning the temperature was down to 39.

A total of .86 of an inch of rain fell in four days. The largest amount in Spearman fell Friday, .75 of an inch. Other measurements were .05, .03 and .03.

Seymour Changes Defensive Platoon; Stratford Looms as Tough Opponent

A completely revamped Spearman Lynx defensive unit will try and stop a tough, hard hitting Stratford team here Friday night at the annual Homecoming game. Game time is 8 p.m.

Coach Don Seymour has changed his entire defensive unit and made a couple of changes in the offensive lineup for Friday.

On defense Clayton Cochran and Randy Moore will be at tackles, the spots they played last year. Skipper Robinson and sophomore Hal Shufeldt will be at guards, linebackers will be Dave Clements, Charles Shieldknight and Lynn Buzzard. In the secondary Gary Cates will be at safety and Ken Shufeldt and Larry Butts will be the linebackers. Mike Babbs or Jerry Holton will be the rover.

On offense Holton will replace James Schnell at end and Ronnie Gilbert will start at one tackle in place of Harold Adkison. Mart Brillhart will be back at full speed after being hobbled last week with a bad ankle.

Seymour said he had looked at films of three Stratford games, and they are tough on defense. They held Stinnett to 35 yards rushing in the first half and 65 yards the second half.

Stinnett scored on a blocked punt, a punt return and an intercepted pass. Stinnett won 22-0.

Seymour called the Stratford quarterback one of the best passers in the area. He completed 12 of 17 against Stinnett.

Dalhart coaches said Stratford is the hardest hitting team they have faced this season.

Lynx scouts report that Stratford likes to throw the ball. However, Seymour said, they will probably come out running after scouting us against Gruver.

A Homecoming Queen and Pep Squad Beau will be crowned at halftime ceremonies Friday night.

Contest Opens Oct. 2 For Best Salesmen

Do you have a favorite salesperson in a Spearman store?

You can help this person become Spearman's employee of the week in a contest to begin here Saturday Oct. 2.

This Chamber of Commerce sponsored contest will select an employee of the week. A large traveling plaque bearing the winners name will be put in the store where the person works each week. It will remain until another winner is selected.

The first winner will be selected on Saturday, Oct. 9.

Customers select the winner by making their recommendations to the two newspapers, radio station or the Chamber of Commerce office.

An employee is to be selected on the basis of greetings, courtesy, salesmanship and loyalty to their business.

Farm Vandalism Being Investigated

Hansford Sheriff's officers are investigating vandalism to crops, a pick-up and a tractor on two farms near the Ochiltree County line, east and north of Spearman.

Unidentified persons drove a tractor and plow through the maize and wheat fields of Deacon Clements Tuesday night, then drove the pick-up into the tractor.

Sheriff's officers said the pick-up was damaged and a butane tank was thrown out of the

Saturday Night Club Opens Year

The Saturday Night Dinner Bridge Club met Sept. 18 for the first fall meeting of the year. Hosts for the meeting were Messrs. and Mmes. Edward Dear and Pat Cates.

up by the applicator, with polishing wax, you never have to wash the floor, never have to remove the old wax.

Polishing waxes may be used on every type floor EXCEPT asphalt tile. Asphalt tile can be damaged by the naphtha (or other cleaning agent in polishing wax), as well as by grease, oil, strong cleaners, scouring powder, nail polish remover, etc.

If you aren't sure whether the floor is asphalt tile, test a small inconspicuous spot with lighter fluid, spot remover or turpentine. If asphalt, the tile will soften or the color will be loosened.

(2) Self-polishing waxes (liquid only) dry shiny. These are easy to apply and don't need buffing. For best result, self-polishing waxes should be applied to a clean floor and should be completely removed two or three times a year with a wax remover. These often accumulate in areas that get little traffic, or when floors are not thoroughly scrubbed before a new application.

Most of the wax will come up when scrubbed with the special floor cleaners now on the market. However, use of a wax remover 2-3 times a year is still recommended for best results. Self-polishing waxes may be used on any type of floor except wood and cork floor which are worn or in poor condition. Let me advise that reading the label on the wax container for instructions is your best bet before you buy any wax for any floor.

One new brand of wax on the market will not come off the floor, except with a strong ammonia cleaner or wax remover, to help you cut down on the number of wax jobs you must do. It is well worth trying.

Daily care saves wear and tear-dry mop daily to keep sandy grime from grinding into the floor (never, though use an oiled mop as it softens wax and dulls the shine). Pick up spills promptly and gently to save the wax shine-particularly on kitchen floors where spills may come frequently.

Don't combine partially used cans of self-polishing wax, even of the same brand, as formulas may differ or improvements made from one can to the next.

Don't pour left-over wax back in the container. This contaminates the rest of the contents, so that next time results aren't so good.

For more interesting details on wax and waxing, ask for "How To Take Care of Floors" from the Extension office.

THE LAST NOTE: There's really nothing so burdensome about a housewife's daily toil, except that it's daily.

Fall certainly arrived here overnight last week. One day we were uncomfortable without air-conditioning and the next, bundled in coats and blankets watching the football game. (No comment.)

With cooler weather now, you and your family will probably enjoy this one-dish meal. The recipe is another of Margarette Evans' and it's very good.

QUICKIE DINNER

- 5 pork chops
2 tbsps. cooking oil
303 size can tomato sauce
1/2 can of water
1/2 cup Minute rice
seasoning to taste

In electric skillet, at 350 degrees, brown chops on both sides in oil. Lower heat to 250 degrees and add other ingredients. Simmer about 20 minutes or until rice is tender. Makes a complete meal served with green beans and a tossed salad.

The recipe works equally well with steak or liver. Well, if you like liver, that is. I personally don't even like to think about it, but that's what Margarette told me.

I tried the recipe with pork chops and it's my kind of cooking-quick and easy. You can't go wrong.

If I had started writing my column like I nearly did last Saturday afternoon, I might have had something interesting to say about Mickey Mantle Day. It was touching to me because Dizzy Dean is one of my favorites and in my opinion, Mickey Mantle is the Babe Ruth of our generation. But, I didn't write down a word of what I felt.

Then after the Buffaloes surprised me by winning over Ohio University, I started again to write my column and I think I had a few real clever rah-rah remarks to make, but I didn't.

I didn't write a thing until Tuesday, the day I was summoned as a prospective juror. Now I'm too scared to say anything.

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT

The Hansford County Bake Queen, Rebecca Hutchison, has entered baked products, angel food cake, and sweet milk biscuits, this week in the District 4-H Bake Show at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

The products of each of the 19 contestants in the District Bake Show contest will be on display all this week in the Women's Building at the Tri-State Fair.

Winners for this District contest will be announced Saturday, Sept. 25 at the Rural Youth Day Program which begins at 9:30 a.m. The program will be telecast over KGNC on "Cotton John's Farm and Home Show", Sept. 25. Becky will be introduced among the Bake Show contestants on the program, so do watch for her.

Mothers, attention please! To this next note-especially those of you who have teenage or near-teen daughters.

A girl's appearance has quite an effect on the grades she brings home from high school. These are the years, of course, when complexion troubles often occur. Anxieties about facial blemishes can actually destroy self-confidence, which in turn affects ability to concentrate on studies.

The best thing a mother can do it to add the subject of beauty care to daughters schedule. It need not be a sophisticated routine, but a simple soap and water program that medical authorities recommend for difficult skin. Teach daughter to apply dense, warm suds to the face like a mask. Let this mask dry, then rinse it off and apply a second coating of suds, next rinse the skin thoroughly.

Such a simple treatment helps draw oil from the skin and flush out dirt that otherwise would cause blemishes. This treatment is better than hard scrubbing which can injure youthful skin, some beauty experts say.

Last week, I began on the subject of simplifying house cleaning chores. I promised some information about floor waxes, which is quite a large area to cover in such a short space.

Other people do look at your floors, and what they see is an important part of their impression of your home. Regardless of the flooring materials, if treated right, they will stay lovely year after year.

Waxed floors look better and stay clean longer. Wax keeps grit from grinding into the surface and protects from wear.

Understanding what products are available and where to use them is a long step toward good floor care.

There are two basic kinds of floor care, products: (1) Polishing waxes (paste or liquid) that must be buffed to a shine. These waxes clean the floors as they are applied, for the naphtha dissolves the old polishing wax on the floorground in dirt is loosened and picked

The 31st Senatorial District was honored with the presence of many State Officials including many senators and representatives from all over the State. Also present for the noon luncheon Saturday was Congressman Walter Rogers. This particular meeting of the SDEC became more important when Governor Connelly announced that he would make known his political plans for the future by the middle of September. This announcement came at the noon luncheon Saturday when he spoke to an overflow crowd at the Holiday Inn West. Governor and Mrs. Connelly arrived Friday evening by way of Childress, because the weather would not permit their plane to land in Amarillo.

Many anxious moments were spent by those in attendance prior to Governor Connelly announcing that he would seek reelection. Lt. Governor and Mrs. Preston Smith and Attorney General and Mrs. Waggoner Carr were also present and both announced their future political plans. Lt. Governor Smith announced immediately that he would seek reelection and Attorney General Carr arrived shortly thereafter and held a press conference and announced that he would be a candidate for the United State Senate seeking the seat now held by Senator Tower.

IN PRAYER THERE IS POWER

Too many of us hold to the idea that prayer is a practice only for children and in so thinking pass up some of the greatest aids and benefits of life.

Prayer produces power, power that will change one's entire outlook on life, that will make one happier and healthier in body and mind. The fact numerous persons, to whom God is a constant companion, including business and professional people, use prayer to help solve their daily problems is testimony enough of its value.

How then, may we learn to use prayer in such a way as to derive these benefits? It's simple enough. By attending church and using one of the many services offered by the Church—the service of a counsel. From the pastor or some of the church fellowship a counselor may be found who can and will teach us how to pray, how to enrich our lives.

Eighth Birthday Is Celebrated

Mrs. Kenneth Evans honored her son Terrel with a party on his eighth birthday Friday.

The group rode the school bus to the Evans country home, and due to the bad weather played indoor games.

The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a chocolate birthday cake. Behind the cake was a large world globe with red and green streamers attached which led to small boats filled with gum and candy. The boats were given as favors to guests.

Attending were Brad Beedy, James DeArmond, Mark Fox, Bobby Snyder, Dennis DeArmond, Scott Janzen, Sheryl Evans, Mary Lou DeArmond and the honoree.

Ice cream, cake and punch were served by Mrs. Evans after which she took all the children to their homes.

Three Install Irrigation Lines

George Buzzard, Wesley Garnett and L. S. McLain are just three of the Hansford Soil Conservation District Cooperators who have recently planned and installed irrigation pipeline on their farms.

Hansford County has developed into the leading irrigated county on the North Plains in the past three years. There are 696 wells completed in Hansford County at present. Seventy permits are still out. This brings the total completed wells and permits to 766.

With this rapid development of irrigation; there has been increased interest in underground irrigation pipeline. Many Hansford County farmers are now replacing their open ditches with irrigation pipeline. For example, 63,308 feet of irrigation pipeline were installed by Hansford County farmers in 1963; 84,151 feet in 1964 and 156,000 feet installed in 1965. The trend in installation of irrigation pipeline is on the upswing and 1966 should show an increase over 1965 in the installation of pipeline.

Most pipeline being installed is either rubber gasket concrete or plastic. Only 2,553 feet of mortar joint concrete pipeline were installed in 1965.

Hansford County farmers planning to install irrigation pipeline should plan the size of their pipe very carefully and keep future needs in mind. Some farmers are all ready realizing their mistakes in not planning ahead. The most common error is installing pipe of insufficient size to allow for the increase in the amount of water the pipeline might possibly need to carry if another irrigation well were to be drilled and tied onto the initial underground line. This is one example of the need for good planning on the part of the farmer before he installs his irrigation pipeline.

The Soil Conservation Service technicians serving the Hansford Soil Conservation District will be glad to assist the farmers in planning the irrigation pipeline that will best fit your individual needs. Contact your local Soil Conservation Service Office if you need help with this problem.

NOTICE IRRIGATION WELL OWNERS

The Dowell Division of The Dow Chemical Company has recently performed eight experimental well treatments from Stratford, Texas to Perryton, Texas in the North Plains Water District.

The purpose of these treatments was to remove plant growth (such as algae and brown mold,) bacteria, iron scale, and clay or silt from the gravel pack, slotted casing and pump column. All of these things are known to be causing a loss of water production.

Most old wells which have declined over the years have been helped tremendously by these treatments.

Dowell is seeking at least a dozen more wells on which to further develop the process. Reasonable charges will be made for the treatment if good production increases are obtained. No charge will be made if increase is not substantial.

Wells are wanted with the following conditions:

- 1) Over two years old
- 2) Gravel packed
- 3) 16-inch or larger casing
- 4) 8-inch or smaller pump column
- 5) Production off by 200 gpm or more

The development program will be started again on September 22nd. Wells which meet the requirements will be considered in the order that they are received until the program is closed.

For further details and scheduling of treatments please call R.E. Hurst, Manager of Technical Services, Dowell, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Office phone: Area Code 918-Luthur 2-0101. Home phone: Area Code 918-NAtional 7-2319.

THAN A BODY

In Psalm 8 David looks at the millions of stars in heaven and asks "Who are we?" God must have had fun making the heavens, but to think He still cares about us!

How are we different from animals? Man can reason. But also we were made in the image of God. We are like God...but how? No one has seen God. But we find we are like God in Spirit or soul. In body we resemble animals but in soul or spirit we are different. Man can think, reason, talk, move and has an immortal soul which does not die. We are different from cows or dogs or horses. We are the crowning part of God's creation.

God gave no animal a soul. Psalm 8 says "Man was made just a little less than God."

So it is body and spirit that makes us a person and not just another animal. Body and spirit belong together.

Hitler years ago thought man just a superior animal at the top of the heap. So he killed cripples & Jews, epileptics etc. and salvaged gold from their teeth and used their bodies for fertilizer. He looked at man as a scientific view. There was no God. Man just most valuable animal.

Kinsey also used scientific view. Man just a higher form of animal so why doesn't man act like an animal in sex.

Abandon any moral rules. So people like Marilyn Monroe called "the body"---and ignored or no one told her of her spirit. So she killed herself. This was tragic for she was made just a little lower than God.

High schoolers are interested in bodies and sex. But we are more? Playboy magazine pictures a girl as a plaything. They miss out on fact God has made us a person with a soul. We are married not to a body but to a person. When youth date do they get interested in someone who is interested in you as a person---not just a body?

Who is man that God is mindful of us? Just bodies and playthings? Or creatures created by Him with body and soul to praise and serve Him? Correct! We are more than bodies we are persons with souls... made just a little lower than God.

WED 102 YEARS

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet medical gazette reported that the Adamovs of Azerbaijan, Armenia and his wife Manna, recently celebrated their 102nd wedding anniversary. It said she was a 26-year-old bride and he a 24-year-old groom in 1863.

To get maximum attention, it's hard to beat a good, big mistake.

Report On Ag Bill

Last week the Senate passed the Agriculture Bill, which contains important provisions for the major Texas crops of cotton, wheat, rice, dairy products and wool production. This bill is very important, not only to the 227,000 Texas farmers, but also to every Texan who lives in a city. Without a healthy farm community, the cities would wither on the vine. Economic opportunities are necessary in rural areas if our cities are to continue to prosper.

Under the cotton provision of the Farm Bill, a program is included which would provide a support price of 21¢ per pound, plus a direct cash payment of at least 9¢ a pound to farmers who reduce their acreage of cotton by 35%. In the case of farms less than 10 acres, the crop does not have to be reduced to get the additional cash payment, as the farmer needs all of his production to live on.

Cotton would be available to the mills at the best price since World War II and the United States would be better able to compete in the world markets. This is of next importance to the 152,000 Texas farm families who raise cotton.

The wheat provision in the bill would bring a farmer about $1.90 per bushel, 9¢ higher than in the House bill. The wheat program will be voluntary, with a farmer receiving direct payments if he converts part of his wheat-producing land into land conservation.

The National Wool Act of 1954 is also extended for four more years under the Senate bill. The support price for wool is set at 62¢ a pound, with a support price up to 5¢ higher for the small producer who does not market more than 1,000 pounds of wool. This is to assist the small family farmer in maintaining his living income.

As the most productive agricultural nation in the world, we must plan our resources so that farmers of this nation and of Texas are given reasonable incomes. Texas is one of the three greatest agricultural states, and I think this bill will assist the farmers in having a decent income.

Melton Rites In Guymon

Funeral services for James B. Melton, 72, of Guymon were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in the First Christian Church of Guymon. He was a former resident of Hitchland.

Mr. Melton is the father of Mrs. Bonita Sue Mason and Mrs. Anita Lue Dean of Gruver.

He had lived in Guymon for 10 years, moving there from Hitchland when he retired from farming in 1955. He moved to Hitchland community in 1921.

Mr. Melton was born in Woodbury, Tenn., and lived there until he moved to Hitchland. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the Christian Church.

He and Miss Lelia Quesenbury were married in Guymon in 1932.

The retired farmer died in Guymon Memorial Hospital Sunday night.

Services were conducted by the Rev. L.G. Lee, pastor of the First Christian Church in Guymon and the Rev. J.W. Duke, a former pastor. Burial was in Elmhurst Cemetery with Henson Funeral Home of Guymon in charge of arrangements.

TOWER SAYS

Senate Is Working on Farm Bill

During the past week the Senate has been busily engaged in perfecting and passing a four-year Farm Bill. This is one of the most complex and difficult tasks that confronts Congress, and the final solution necessarily is a compromise.

The reason it is so difficult to perfect a Farm bill is that over past decades the Federal government has inserted itself into the farm economy in a massive way. In virtually every crop there now operates a federal program of subsidy, direction and control.

I have said many times that most of the farm problem is the farm program. For too long farmers have been subjected to the whims of bureaucratic control while the free market has been progressively subverted.

The Farm Bill passed this week was no exception to the rule of confusion. It dealt with six major crops. The Senate's final solution on some of these crops was wise, on others it was unwise. Because I felt that, in total, this was the most realistic Farm Bill we have achieved in many years, I voted for the bill. However, this does not mean that I agree with all of the provisions of its every section.

As you know, I have offered in the Senate a resolution calling for a complete restudy of the farm programs. It is my feeling that politics must be removed from the farm program if we are to reverse the trend toward higher prices for consumers, massive surpluses in storage and lower returns for farmers.

I was most pleased to have assurance from members of both parties that the President soon will announce a National Commission on Agriculture, such as I have proposed.

This will, I believe, go a long way toward a nonpartisan, dispassionate review of our agriculture laws. I hope it will lead toward a return to the free market and a reduction of federal controls.

The cotton section of the Farm Bill passed this week is of particular significance for Texans. The Senate adopted an amendment which I supported. That amendment will assure that a one-price system is maintained for cotton.

The Senate Agriculture Committee had reported a cotton section that would have restored the old two-price system under which the cotton industry was plunging toward disaster.

Our state is the leading cotton state, and it is most important to Texans that the cotton industry be rescued from its decline. It has been my continuing goal to achieve legislation under which cotton can move into the market—not into surplus storage—and under which cotton can move toward a competitive position with synthetic fibers.

I do not regard this year's cotton section as by any means a final solution, but I do think it will get cotton on the right track.

Texans, both as consumers and producers, are concerned also with the wheat, rice, feed grains, dairy and wool sections of this new bill.

The wool provisions were acceptable to me and received wide support from wool experts in our state. I am pleased that this section was noncontroversial.

The Administration had originally presented rice proposals that were strongly opposed by Texas rice producers, and we were successful in removing those proposals in the House of Representatives and in preventing their re-insertion in the Senate bill. I believe the rice industry will be benefited by the Senate bill.

Dairy provisions of the Senate committee's bill were not acceptable to many Texas dairymen. On the Senate floor, I supported an amendment by Senator Proxmire of Wisconsin which will provide greater stability and better prices for Texas dairymen.

The wheat and feed-grains sections of this Omnibus Farm Bill did not satisfy me. I felt that too much federal regulation was continued in these sections, and I supported a number of unsuccessful amendments that would have restored some freedom to wheat and feed-grain farmers. I am sorry we were not able to make the progress for wheat that we did for cotton, dairying, wool and rice.

With the Farm Bill action completed, the Senate now turns to a number of other important measures. We will be considering the Immigration Bill and the bill to appropriate money for Foreign Aid.

Although final versions of these bills may be changed, I can say that I do not favor any changes in Immigration laws which would result in a sizable increase in the number of immigrants accepted into our country. I will support selective changes which would allow us to admit skilled personnel and to rejoin families that now are split by national boundaries.

Foreign Aid continues to be a controversial subject, and I will continue my long efforts to assure that absolutely no American aid of any kind goes to Communist dictator Sukarno of Indonesia.
