UNLOADING WHEAT IS VERY SIMPLE, AS THE COMBINE FILLS THE TRUCK IN A MINUTE OR TWO.

HERE FOR THE HARVEST—
In 1907, Otto Gross came to Hansford County, and purchased a half section of land (320 acres). He had 4 children and he gave each of them 80 acres. This week, two of these children are in Hansford County to see some of the beautiful wheat that this 320 acres has produced. The land is located 12 miles North of Gruver, and is being custom farmed by Joel Stavio of the Oslo area. Pictured above, left to right, LaVerne Gross and Lois Gross of Davenport, Iowa; Meta Miller and Walter Miller of Kankakee, Illinois. LaVerne Gross is the son of Otto Gross, and Meta Gross Miller was a daughter. Editors note: we met these people in Gruver the other evening, and they spent their harvest weekend in the new Nursanickel Motel, in Spearman. We felt extremely fortunate to meet such fine people, and are amazed that Otto Gross could see, some 60 years ago, the potential of owning land in Hansford County, near the Gruver-Spearman area!

Faye's Daze

First off I want to apologize to John and Sammie Bishop for the black blob where there picture should have been in Thursday's paper. We are re-running it in this issue, and would like to extend our congratulations to them on their 50th wedding anniversary, and hope that they have many more years together.

Evidently the gasoline shortage is keeping vacationers away from the mountain resort areas this summer. I heard an advertisement from Denver and Colorado Springs today, saying that they had no shortage and giving a toll free number to call for gasoline information. I hear that the Cimarron Canyon and Red River area is not as crowded this year as usual.

Speaking of the gasoline situation, my son, Art, was in Dallas this past week and he said he had to wait in line an hour and forty-five minutes on day to get gas.

It seems to me that a country that could put men and machines on the moon (I never could understand why we needed to go to the moon unless it was to spend money) could find a way to run our automobiles, trucks, etc. on some kind of gasoline substitute.

I was glancing through the Ford Times issue this month and came across some recipes for "Cooking With Flowers". There are recipes for rose water, rose syrup, pickled rosebuds rose petal conserve, nasturtium vinegar, nasturtium soup, fried squash blossoms, marigold scrambled eggs, candied flowers, etc. It also says that you can use tulip petals instead of lettuce for a fruit salad, and in the autumn, substitute bright maple leaves.

I guess I shouldn't have had all my rosebuds, etc. trimmed this past week.

I know that everyone has lots of time for these recipes, here in the middle of harvest. Anyway here is the one for pickled rosebuds. Trim and wash about 40 tiny rosebuds and place in glass jar. Dissolve 1/2 cup sugar in 2 cups white wine vinegar and pour over rosebuds. Seal and store in warm place about 1 month. Use in salads or as a garnish for salads.

Personally I'd rather have some meat and potatoes.

Bishops To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop will be honored with a reception on their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, July 1 in the fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church, Spearman, from 2 to 5 p.m. by their families.

A sophomore pre-vet major at Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Tex., Miss McLain received her crown at the final performance of the College National Finals Rodeo. She was also chosen Miss Congeniality by a vote of the queen candidates and judges.

Twenty-one girls representing 12 states from California to Wisconsin, participated in the week-long pageant. Judging was based on 3 categories: horsemanship and rodeo knowledge, appearance, and poise and personality. Two impressive names among the horsemanship judges were well-known country-Western singer and expert horsewoman, Lynn Anderson. Also, former World Champion Cowgirl, Cutting Horse Champion, horse trainer and horsemanship judge for the past 35 years (including Miss Rodeo America), Cowgirl Hall of Fame Member Fern Sayer of Nogale, N.M.

Leslyn was awarded a $500 scholarship from the Copenhagen/Skoal Rodeo Scholarship Award Program, presented by U.S. Tobacco Co. U.S. Tobacco awarded $125,000.00 worth of scholarships on a regional and national level. NIRA Regional winners from the 10 regions throughout the U.S. were presented $93,000.00, and National NIRA winners received $32,000.00 in scholarships. Over the past 5 years, $472,000.00 has been donated to National Intercollegiate Rodeo Assoc. members. Miller Brewing has joined in the scholarship program and this next year will be giving an additional $40,000.00 in awards.

A gold, silver and pewter traveling crown, given by Vogt Silver of California valued at $1500, will be worn by Leslyn during the coming year. The Levies Award Gary Gist buckle, Billy Cook saddle given by the Jaycee Jaynes of Lake Charles, a pair Bailey hat and pair of Nocona boots (the Official NIRA hat and boots) were among numerous other gifts and awards she received.

Leslyn will be traveling throughout the nation as an NIRA spokeswoman and ambassador of the Copenhagen/Skoal College Rodeo Scholarship Program and Miller Brewing Scholarship Program. Plans are underway for attending the National High School Rodeo Finals in Fargo, N.D. later this summer, the Houston Fat Stock Show and Rodeo, and the National Finals Rodeo at Okla. City. She will be speaking before various groups promoting college rodeo and its scholastic awards.

First runner up to Miss College Rodeo was Ginger Wigner, former Miss Rodeo Arizona, representing Cochise College, Douglas, Arizona. Alice Reed, Boise State Univ. Boise, Idaho was named second runner-up, and third runner-up was Glenda Glae Chapman, former Miss Rodeo Texas, from Texas A & M, College Station.

Leslyn wishes to extend a great big THANK-YOU to her many supporters and well-wishers in the community and is proud to be from Gruver, Hansford County, Texas!

Julie Farr Attends Washington 4-H Meet

Julie Farr from Spearman returned home Tuesday, June 26, from Washington, D.C., after completing Citizenship-Washington Focus-A week long experience in citizenship at the National 4-H center. Julie was one of 76 4-H members from Texas and 9 other states participating in the 4-H program designed to help young people understand the structure and function of our system of government, the heritage of our country's development and prepare plans for active citizen involvement when they return home.

Using the nation's capitol as a "classroom," the program included a day on Capitol Hill to meet with members of Congress and see government in action. We toured the United States Capitol, the Supreme Court, and the Library of Congress. Each district met with their representative for a personal visit. Field trips to historical and cultural sights as well as to Federal agencies and community organizations were among the most informative and exciting parts of the week. The first night in Washington, D.C. we took a night view tour of Washington and stopped at the Lincoln Memorial. The next day, Monday, we went to the Kennedy Center and the Washington Cathedral. One night we enjoyed a play, Home and Beauty, at the Kennedy Center in the Eisenhower Theatre. Other places we enjoyed were the Smithsonian Institution, Washington Monument, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the homes of George Washington, and Thomas Jefferson, Arlington Cemetery, and a program by the United States Navy. All of the field trips were very educational and we enjoyed them.

In workshop sessions at the National 4-H Center, young people discussed contemporary issues and concerns, and ways in which skills and knowledge gained during the week could be applied to the 4-H program in Spearman and throughout Hansford County. All the sessions and workshops dealt with citizenship but also leadership and health. We learned how to speak up and express our thoughts and opinions without being afraid. We learned how to vote and how important it is to vote. The week we spent at Washington was health week so we tied health into Citizenship. Some attended an eye care workshop which was very interesting. I plan to use the skills and all the knowledge I have learned by giving workshops, getting some citizenship projects started with groups of 4-H'ers, and also working hard to be a good leader not just in 4-H but as a citizen in my community. One of the best parts of the experience was being able to share ideas with 4-H members across the United States. We shared our ideas on plan of action when we returned home and also gained ideas on

Salmonella

One of the illnesses, which has afflicted millions mysteriously in recent years and which is still attacking unexpectedly in many families, is salmonella food poisoning.
In warm climates much pork is suspect and one should eat pork only well done as a precaution. In recent years, however, poultry has been identified as the source of even more salmonella food poisoning than pork.
Eggs are now known to be a carrier of the germ which causes the illness and cracked eggs should be avoided. The latest advice for those using uncooked eggs is to wash the outside of eggs.
Also, one should wash one's hands after handling uncooked eggs or poultry and avoid putting any food to be eaten on a plate or cutting board on which uncooked poultry has been cut or trimmed.
All this visible world is but an imperceptible point in the ample bosom of nature.

New Property Tax Code Will Establish Central Appraisals

The session of the Texas Legislature just adjourned, passed a property tax code, known as Senate Bill 621. This new property tax code establishes a State Property Tax Board, and for the first time local tax offices will have a state agency prescribing office administration and operation minimum standards. This Board will prepare and issue general and special appraisal manuals, standards procedures for determining market value indexes for tax purposes, prescribe the content of all forms and record systems for local tax offices, and provide for education and training of tax office personnel.
The new tax code also establishes an appraisal district in each county in the State. This office will be responsible for the appraisal value of all property within the district. All taxing jurisdictions except counties must use the values established by this office. This includes Schools, Cities, Hospital Districts, Water Districts, and state taxes. Values for county tax purposes are excluded, unless the county elects to belong to the appraisal district. A taxing unit's boundaries extends into more than one county, the governing body of that unit may elect to belong to which every appraisal district they choose, or may belong to more than one district. Once this decision is made, it cannot be changed. All costs of operating this appraised district will be shared by the taxing units in proportion to the total taxes collected by each unit.
A board of directors to govern the appraisal district office will be elected by the governing bodies of the taxing units that make up the district. Each taxing unit will be allotted votes in proportion to the total dollars collected, and will cast those votes for the members they wish to elect. The board of directors will be made up of five persons serving two-year terms. These members may not receive compensation for service, but can be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties.
An appraisal review board consisting of three members is established. These members are appointed by the districts board of directors to serve two years terms. They will review the appraisals and determine final tax values for the appraisal

WHY SOME POLICIES COST MORE

With life insurance, as with everything else, you get what you pay for. Different policies have different objectives, and the premiums reflect these differences.

For instance, term insurance bought at a young age has a low premium. Risk of death is slight, and no money is set aside to build up cash value. At older ages, when risk of death is much greater, term insurance premiums are, of course, much higher.

With permanent insurance, on the other hand, premiums are averaged out over the years so that when a permanent policy is issued, premiums are higher than for a term policy in the same amount, but considerably less later on. You overpay in the early years, which builds up your cash value, and you underpay in your later years, taking advantage of the accumulated cash value and its earning power as part of the insurance company's assets.

Two Girls Attended Bluebonnet Girls State

Kelly Shaver, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Shaver, and Valerie Hagerman, daughter of Mrs. Lucille Hagerman, both of Spearman High School attended Bluebonnet Girls State, at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin. They were sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary Unit 254 of Perryton and Spearman High School.

Kelly was elected Nationalist Party Chairman of Giant County, and Valerie was elected Precinct 2 Federalist Party Chairman, Pecan County at the session which ran from June 19 through June 29.

Girls State was organized as a national Americanism activity in 1937 by the American Legion Auxiliary. Non-partisan and non-political, the purpose of the Girls State program is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults. They learn the problems of government by assuming the duties of city, county and state officials as stipulated by the Texas Legislature. Each year citizens are selected at local levels from students who have just completed their junior year in high school. The selection is based principally on leadership, character, and scholarship.

The 1979 session of the American Legion Auxiliary Texas Bluebonnet Girls State has grown from an experimental conference of ninety-four girls, held at Baylor University in 1941, to become the largest single extracurricular educational program for high school girls in Texas. This year 560 girls are in attendance, making a total of more than 14,000 girls in Texas who have participated in this top-level citizenship program.

Former citizens of Girls State and members of the Texas American Legion Auxiliary comprise the seventy members of the staff and counselors who volunteer their services to direct and lead this program. The chairman of the Girls State Committee is Mrs. James Lee Sweetwater, and the Director is Miss Frances Goff of Houston, assistant to the Vice President for Administration of The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute at Houston. The Associate Director of Education is Miss Mary Ellen Trahan, Chairman of the Department of Social Studies at Clear Lake High School in Clear Lake City. The Associate Director of Administration is Dr. Peggy O'Neil of The University of Texas Dental School at Houston.

Chief Justice Joe Greenhill of the Texas Supreme Court administered the oath of office to the elected state officials of Bluebonnet Girls State, Monday, June 25, in the Rotunda of the State Capitol. Mr. Allen B. Clark, Jr., Special Assistant to Governor Bill Clements was guest speaker at the inauguration.

One of the highlights of the session, which began June 19 and ends June 29, will be the selection of two outstanding citizens of 1979 who will be sent to Girls Nation in Washington, D.C. This program which is also sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary will give the two young representatives the opportunity to continue their study in responsibilities of the Republic.

During the session the citizens were privileged to hear the following guest speakers: Ms. Marjorie Wilhelm, a former Governor of Girls State; Mayor of Austin Carole McClellan; Ms. Ann Richards, Travis County Commissioner of Austin; and Dr. Sharon Bintliff of Honolulu, Hawaii. All of these women are former citizens of Texas Girls State. Mrs. Jane Blumberg of Seguin also appeared on the program. Mrs. Blumberg is a member of the Board of Regents of both the University of Texas and Texas Lutheran College.

July 4th

Richard Henry Lee of Virginia offered a resolution in the Continental Congress in 1776, which was to have worldwide repercussions for centuries thereafter, the resolution stating that, "these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent." This resolution was adopted by The Congress on July 2nd, 1776.

Interestingly, Congress adopted another resolution on the 4th explaining its reasons for declaring independence, and justifying the action, and this is the resolution which we now celebrate on the 4th. This resolution was drafted by Thomas Jefferson, chairman of the committee, and Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert Livingston.

A mass meeting in Philadelphia in Independence Square celebrated the declarations of July 8th, 1776--and heard them read by John Nixon. General George Washington, on the 9th, included the declaration in general orders to the army, stating:

"The several brigades are to be drawn up this evening on their respective parades at six o'clock, when the declaration of Congress, showing the grounds and reasons for this measure, is to be read in an audible voice. The general hopes this important event will serve as fresh incentive to every officer and soldier to act with fidelity and courage, as knowing now that the peace and safety of his country depends, under God, solely on the success of our arm..."

The declaration of the 4th is now recognized by scholars as one of the humanitarian documents for all time.

Jacobs Family Reunion Held

Descendants of the late Albert and Viola Adams Jacobs met for a reunion at the Home Demonstration Building in Spearman, Texas, on June 24, 1979. Games of Rook and dominoes were played and snacks of homemade cookies, coffee, tea, and hot chocolate were served. After looking at old pictures, lots of new pictures were taken. Thelma Jacobs Modrick showed a quilt she had made for one of her grandchildren. She gave each family a piece of homemade soap with the following poem:

Our Childhood Days

Just to recall a remembrance of the days of yore,
When we never thought of rushing to the store,
For dish detergent, laundry detergent for shampoo,
We were never out, it was right there for you.

With cracklings, pork scraps and the like,
Mom put them in an iron kettle, they looked a sight!
Then water was measured and poured in,
Last was cans of lye and the soap began.

For a bath we'd jump in a no. 3 tub.
With the good lye soap we'd take a rub.
Then would be time for number 2,
But plenty of soap left for you.

They say those were the good old days.
We cherish memories we'll never forget.
But, I'm thankful lye soap days are o'er,
And when we need shampoo or detergent, can go to the store!

Those attending were the children and spouses: Art and Irene Jacobs of Carthage, Missouri, Elmon and Tena Jacobs of Spearman, Texas, Jerry and Wilma Jean Jacobs of Raymondville, Texas, Ledru Jacobs of Wilson, Texas, Mitchell and Thelma Jacobs Modrick of Enid, Okla., Frank and Fern Jacobs Hogsett of Pampa, Texas, Claude and Lena Jacobs

Schell of Perryton, Texas. Grand and great grandchildren were: Eddie and Mary Jacobs of Amarillo, Texas, Dick and Vickie Jacobs Taylor, Brooke and Megan, Derrel and Jean Hogsett and Steven II, Christine, and Katherine Price, and Joan Hunt of Pampa, Texas, Don and Nona Schell, Rondal and Judy Schell and Rodney, Brian, and Jacklyn all of Spearman, Texas.

Summer Insects

The venom from honey bees, wasps, yellow jackets and hornets is, drop for drop, just as potent for some susceptible persons as the deadly venom of rattlesnakes.

Spray repellents are almost a must for the highly allergic. Rough-finished clothing should be avoided, so some believe. Staying away from areas, where concentrations of bees or other stingers are likely to be encountered, is of vital importance for the allergic, since multiple stings cause most fatalities.

Stings, for those allergic to insect venom, should be taken very seriously. Perhaps injections of cortisone--only what one's doctor suggests--should be near at hand. For multiple stings, especially on the head, instant attention, and injections, may be necessary.

Summer each year unfortunately brings with it grim stories of death from stings--many of which might have been avoided by the proper precautions.

Individuals may set off their own fireworks, but caution is asked when doing so. A county fire unit will be on hand, along with members of REACT to assist in case emergencies arise.

The fireworks are being financed through contributions from the county, Interstate Savings and Loan, The First National Bank of Perryton and The Perryton National Bank.

and stationers to help them adapt to the new standards. Most of them long ago stopped production of the undersized items.

But, consumers should be wary of "bargain" prices offered by stores that might still have stocks of the non-mailable items.

Little cards and envelopes may be mailed after July 15 only if they are placed in larger, standard envelopes before mailing, the Postal Service says.

UNCLAIMED GOLD

CHARLESTON, SC -- The 118 bars of gold bullion discovered aboard a cargo jet at Charleston Air Force Base 3 1/2 years ago have almost doubled in value. When found on the Overseas National Airways DC-8, the value was $550,000. Now it's $973,000.

NEW WATERMELON

TOKYO -- The latest in technological advances from Japan is not in the field of electronics, but in the field of edibles--square watermelons. Horticulturist Tomoyuki Ono says the new breed of watermelon is much easier to transport in large quantities because of its shape is easy to stow. The cost of the new melon is $19.50 compared to the oval shaped melon at $9.00. Tokyo prices.

Gerald Heinrich, President of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce presented silver Hansford County Medallions to Dr. Herbert Grubb, Chief Planner, Texas Department of Water Resources, Austin, Texas and Jim McDaniel, Corps of Engineers, Tulsa, Oklahoma at a recent luncheon. Dr. Grubb and Mr. McDaniel talked to City, County, Water Authority, Chamber of Commerce and officials about the progress of the Palo Duro Dam Project.

New Mailing Rules

In Effect July 15

What's socially acceptable today may not be well received in the future. It may be oh, so proper, but is it mailable?

That's what consumers should determine before purchasing those tiny little invitations, RSVP's, birth announcements, thank you notes and similar items which may not be mailable after July 15.

As of that date, the Postal Service will begin enforcing letter mail size standards, to reduce mail handling costs and eliminate one of the main causes of damaged or delayed mail.

Under the new regulation, letters and cards less than 3 1/4 by 5 inches will not be accepted for mailing.

Extra large envelopes -- more than 6 1/8 by 11 1/4 inches -- will incur a 7 cent surcharge, if they weigh one ounce or less.

Those tiny envelopes create jams in mail processing machinery, damaging not only the small piece, but often other mail as well.

And the larger envelopes -- those subject to the surcharge -- cannot be processed by machine, but must be handled manually, at considerably higher cost.

For about three years the Postal Service has been working with envelope manufacturers

WHO TO REGULATE THE REGULATORS???

Have you ever stopped to consider that runaway regulations threaten much more than your pocketbook—that they could also wipe out America's technological leadership, lower your standard of living and actually lead to a loss of life? Sound exaggerated?? Believe me, it's not; it's already happening.

To get a clearer picture of just why this is true, consider how excessive regulations have restricted our ability to compete in international trade. Last year, the United States—the country we like to believe is the leader of the free world—experienced: The lowest rate of productivity increase in the industrialized west; the second lowest rate of investment (through the second quarter); the lowest number of patents issued in any year since 1964; a currency whose value was rapidly climbing. And all that, I might venture, was more than a coincidence.

What we've been witnessing is no less than an attack on the very essence of progress. As the magazine, Nation's Business, recently noted: "If innovation had stopped ten years ago, we'd be without small computers, home smoke detectors, wide-body jets, and synthetic heart valves.

"Even with those developments and others more esoteric, U.S. innovation during the past decade has lagged." Indeed it has.

The sad, but undeniable fact is this: Each year, we are transferring more and more of our national wealth and best intellectual talent from the pursuit of progress to the satisfaction of regulatory requirement that it is lower in real dollars than it was 10 years ago. And now, this sustained smothering of invention is bearing a bitter fruit.

The problem of runaway regulations now affects our lives in almost every imaginable way. It is much too serious a problem to be left to the regulators alone. In fact, the real question now is, who is going to regulate the regulators???

How important is it to keep these visitors in our city a little longer? Well, the 1977 survey of the Texas Visitor Industry reveals that during that year, there were 23,215,000 out-of-state visitors to Texas. Of these, 19,076,000 came by automobile and the other 4,139,000 came by air, bus and rail.

The auto visitors spent $3,520,017,000 (that's billions!) and the others spent $768,478,000.... a total of $4,288,495,000.

It is estimated that short-term visitors (those staying less than 30 days) spent $20.10 per day. So, if we can keep them here another half-day, that's another $10 apiece added to the economy of our community.

Newest Car

The newest idea in automobiles is the aluminum, water and air powered car. An official at the Lockheed Missile and Space Company in California said recently such a car is being developed.

One would change aluminum plates every 900 miles, rather than fill up with gasoline. That would be an estimated 50 pounds of plates. The plates react with water and air to create electricity.

There would be no emission or pollution problems. And no problem in finding fuel, presumably, since sufficient aluminum electrodes and water are likely to be available.

And there's still plenty of air. It's still free.
