Continuing Growth Demands More Local School Funds

Continued growth of the school, a pending teacher pay raise and less money from the state were given this week as the reasons for the 30 percent increase in valuations for school tax purposes.

Last week the Spearman School Board increased the percentage of actual property value used for school tax purposes. The increase was from the 30 percent figure used this year to 40 percent for next year.

School Business Manager Orville Latham did have one bright spot in the increasing tax situation, the increased valuations did allow the tax rate for the bond debts to be reduced three cents.

The reason being, the school has two tax rates, one for school operation and it is at the highest legal limit of $1.50 per $100 valuation; the second rate is the bond tax rate and this money can only be used for repaying bonds.

Raising property valuations is the only way to increase the revenue for operating the school. However, the increased valuations increased the bond income, allowing for a tax rate cut there.

Operating cost in the 1965-66 school budget has increased $61,000. This does not include increased bond costs.

In these increased operating costs are four additional fulltime and two part-time teachers, the regular salary increment and $23,000 for the teacher pay raise bill now pending in the legislature.

There is an increase in the amount of teaching supplies, student activity costs and insurance needed by the growing school.

Among all the rising costs, the estimated cost of plant maintenance has been reduced $10,000.

Since about 1960 the school has been receiving less and less state assistance for the operation of the school. This is because of the rising economic index of the area (the area's ability to support its own school).

In 1965-66 budget year the school will receive $30,000 less from the state than this year.

The increase in funds needed to meet the payments of bonds principal and interest is

Morse School Hires Teachers and Others

Seven teachers have been re-employed by the Morse School Board and three teachers had asked not to be considered for the next year.

The school cafeteria personnel, custodian and bus drivers were also re-elected.

Teachers given new contracts for next year are Mrs. Jack Gillispie, Mrs. Myra Bollen, Mr. and Mrs. J.K. Feeny, Mrs. Vera Anderson, Miss Elaine Behrens and C. Whitaker.

Whitaker was hired as a fulltime teacher for next year. He has been teaching music on a part-time basis this year. He will teach social studies and music.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Graves and Mrs. Herman Langley asked not to be considered for a teaching position next year.

Mrs. Frank Karr and Mrs. Joe Reisinger were rehired in the cafeteria. L.L. Cooke will be the school custodian and all the present bus drivers were rehired.

Superintendent Johnny Brumley and principal Frank Lewis were re-elected earlier.

Officers of the Morse Board were elected. R.C. Womble was named President, Robin Giblin, Vice President and Lynn Davis, Secretary.

Winners Named In Spelling Bee

Junior Bee speller making the trip will be Miss Pat Schnell of the fifth grade. She recently won the junior competition.

Winner of the Senior Bee and the contestant in the Panhandle contest will be Darrell Tope, a seventh grader.

Three Men Sentenced After Pleading Guilty

Three men were sentenced to prison Wednesday afternoon after entering pleas of guilty to charges brought against them in 84th District Court.

The longest term was given Pedro Garcia. He entered pleas of guilty before Judge Max Boyer on two separate charges. He received a 10 year sentence on a charge of indecent exposure to a minor. He was sentenced to 20 years for assault with intent to rape.

Judge Boyer set the sentences to run concurrent.

Garcia pleaded guilty to exposing himself and attempting to rape a six-year old girl, his wife's sister. The offense took place Feb. 13.

Claude Cahill was given three years after entering a guilty plea to a forgery charge.

Evidence showed that Cahill and a woman companion, who received probation earlier, forged four checks on Donald Powell of Spearman. One check was for $10 and three for $5.

These checks were cashed in local grocery stores.

J.C. McClendon, had his probation revoked and was remanded to prison to serve a three year sentence.

McClendon was placed on probation Sept. 20, 1963 for driving while intoxicated. He was arrested again about March 29 and entered a guilty plea to a misdemeanor charge of driving while intoxicated.

The more popular columnist for this paper has been extolling the great pleasures to be found in returning to the old home town for a high school reunion.

In an effort to present the "other side" we would like to tell about it from the viewpoint of a husband who went to school across the state and was "dragged" along to the wife's school reunion.

If one took the thing serious it would really be a bore. However, if you will back-up against the wall, open both ears and eyes, it is a show to match all shows.

Just watching and listening to all the big dealers trying to top the last success story, and they are good stories if you do not look too close at the too tight suit coats, the shiny pants and the polished, but worn shoes.

After an hour or two there is one consolation. Most everyone has the same problems, too much outgo for the amount of income, and age racing up too fast.

Hay Is High From Court

A Gruber man with some hungry livestock found out that hay can cost $5 per bale when you "buy" it without the owners permission.

The 43-year-old man took four bales of hay last week and was arrested by Sheriff's officers.

He was fined $1 and court cost in Justice of Peace Court and the total cost was $20.50.

The man said he got the hay to feed his horses.

Ladylike Look Showing In New Handbags

Soft handbags and the soft "ladylike look" are ready to stroll arm in arm through this stylish spring. In the most elegant leather textures and prettiest colors, the new handbags are fashioned with great flair and a new-found femininity.

Bag shapes are rounder, detailing is more delicate, and leathers are more distinctive than ever. Among the interesting leather textures this season, are grained, smooth, patent, embossed, waxy and suede, reports Leather Industries of America.

With fashion in a feminine mood, daytime bags — from the pouch and box bag to the envelope — display a variety of charming touches. Cut-outs, with contrasting or printed underlays, are used effectively.

Scalloping, dainty brushed gold hardware, and self-leather trim are other style notes designed to point up the textures.

Back for another season is the soft quilted leather Chanel-look bag with its brightly shining gold chains, sometimes braided with matching leather.

For the gal who likes to be casual, the unadorned satchel or tote in grained, waxy or smooth leather is the perfect answer. Simple — but smart enough to pass any fashion test — these bags for the tailored taste are trim, yet proportioned to hold all the essentials and more.

Many versions of the returned-to-favor shoulder-strap bags fall within this casual category

Mrs. Ed Wilbanks and her granddaughter, Vickie Crawford and Opal Compton spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ed Wilbanks in Oklahoma City. They accompanied Mrs. Ott Crawford and Johnny to Oklahoma City where Johnny had a check up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Lawrence Ray and Jimmy returned Monday from Cleveland where they spent the weekend visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellzey Vandenberg visited in Pampa Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Vandenberg.

INSTRUCTIONS—Burton Schubert, owner of Burton's TV tells his "girl Friday", Donna Boyd which parts to replace in the electrical circuits of a television set. Donna has proved to be very adept at assisting with repair work and checking tubes.

TV Store Office Girl Becomes Proficient at Repair Work

In the nation's large television factories, women fill most of the places along the assembly line. A local TV repairman has found that girls are good helpers in his repair shop.

Donna Boyd, the "girl Friday" at Burton's TV store was hired as an office girl. In the two years she has worked after school, on holidays and in the summer she has become an efficient repair helper.

"I don't know a thing about repairing radios or TV's. I just check tubes and do what Burton tells me to do," the high school senior proclaims.

Burton Schubert, owner of the business, tells a different story. She is quick to understand circuit diagrams, and she can repair lots of radios.

Much of the radio repair is done by just replacing a tube, so her tube checking handles many of the repairs.

"You don't have to be smart or know anything to check tubes," Donna says. "It is either good or it isn't and you put it back or replace it."

Schubert says the girl is good with a soldering gun and can do an excellent job replacing the many parts in a TV or radio.

Again the young woman disclaims special knowledge needed to put in the parts. Burton tells her to replace.

"You just draw a diagram and mark the color wire you take loose and make sure you put it back the same way you take it off."

Although Donna had developed understanding of the mystery of television, the book-keeping side of her job has more interest for her. She plans to study business at West Texas State.

Donna wants no misunderstanding about who fixes and supervises the repair work. She says Burton is the repair man and she is the "flunky".

"I did fix the TV at home one night, though, and cheated Burton out of a service call."

Wall Murals 'Travel' Far

When springtime fancies turn to thoughts of travel — but springtime duties make it necessary to stay home and spruce up the house — there's an easy way to put "travel at home" into spring decorating plans.

Scenic wallpapers can bring to mind a favorite area of the world that the family has either visited or hopes to see one day.

A wallpaper mural is an ideal background for a small area, like a dinette or dining alcove, as it will give an illusion of additional space and vista. The murals are available with matching ground papers, so it is possible to use the scenic on one wall with the matching textured ground on the adjacent walls.

One "travel" scenic is called "Tropic Sands" and shows palms, exotic blooms and a sparkling bay. This is a type of mural that can easily create pleasant memories — or dreams — of a trip to Bermuda, Hawaii or Nassau.

Other types of scenic papers with Spanish lace motifs are reminiscent of Spain, Mexico or New Orleans. A Riviera theme features a colonnade overlooking the vista of a quiet bay-side village. Take a "trip" to the Far East, with a scenic paper showing an Oriental garden and pine trees.

A lake with charming chalets nestled among mountains, on still another scenic paper, recalls Switzerland.

These scenic come pre-pasted and pre-trimmed, for easy do-it-yourself installation. All are appropriate backgrounds for indoor-outdoor year-round furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. James King had as guests Sunday, his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hoehn of Dumas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller spent the weekend at Keyes, Okla. visiting Mr. and Mrs. Horace Wiggins.

Shower For Mrs. Jarvis

Held April 17

Mrs. Britt Jarvis, nee Linda Holt, was honored with a post nuptial shower at the home of Mrs. Deta Blodgett Saturday afternoon April 17.

A blue and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. The serving table was laid with an imported white linen cut-work cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white daisies and stock highlighted with a frilly white lace umbrella. Silver appointments completed the setting. Mrs. Mike Holt and Miss Ann Garnett presided at the table and served white cake squares decorated with blue wedding bells, coffee and tea, nuts and mints to approximately 60 guests.

Miss Kathy Jenkins, cousin of the bride, registered the guests. A miniature bouquet of daisies and stock was noted on the registration table as were fresh spring flowers throughout the entertaining rooms.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mmes. Guy Fuller, Phil Jenkins, M.P. Harbour, Don Hackley, J.R. Stump, David Lewter, Carl Archer, Fred Jackson, Medlin Patterson, Ellis Pittman, Stanley Garnett, M.D. McLaughlin, Everett Tracy, Joe Traylor and Deta Blodgett.

Mac and Kathy Crawford have been spending their Easter vacation with their parents, the Cecil Crawfords. Mac is a student at WTSU and Kathy is attending Texas Tech.

On Sunday the Crawfords and Pat Bennett of Amarillo went to McLean where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Crawford and son Shaun had arrived Saturday from Ft. Eustis, Va. where Mike is stationed with the Army. The Mike Crawfords came to Spearman Wednesday to visit his parents, the Cecil Crawfords.

Day by Day

You don't know what you're missing if you don't go back to high school reunions every now and then. There's just nothing like watching your old classmates' gradual aging process and wondering if you look that different to them.

Last weekend at our reunion there were a few whom I didn't recognize at all, still more who had changed just a little in added weight or thinning hair and the phenomenal few who hadn't changed at all since graduation.

I couldn't help but wonder if everyone took as long to get ready that evening as I did. I guess everyone must want to look his or her youngest, most successful self at a class reunion, more than any other time.

At any rate, last weekend it was quite evident that most of us had spent many anxious moments, using every wrinkle-remover trick in the books and only our hairdressers knew for sure (but I suspected about one or two.)

The reunion was enjoyable but I believe the best part of the weekend was being able to show off my new twin nieces for the first time.

At one time Sunday afternoon we had eleven guests in to see them while we all sat proudly by, listening to the compliments. Now that was really fun.

If you tried my pineapple-sour cream cake last week (and didn't call me) I offer my apologies. I try to proofread the recipes in my column closest of all but everytime I leave an ingredient out, it's something important like in last week's recipe, the sugar. I hope I didn't ruin someone's special dessert for the weekend.

Anyway, here is the corrected recipe:

PINEAPPLE SOUR CREAM CAKE

1 (1 lb. 4 1/2 oz. can crushed pineapple) 1 tsp. soda
2 tbsp. sliced almonds 1 tsp. salt
3 oz. pkg. cream cheese 1/2 cup sour cream
2 tps. vanilla pineapple glaze
1 cup sugar

1 egg
2 cups flour, sifted
Drain pineapple well; reserve 1/2 pineapple for glaze. Grease 9" tube pan; sprinkle with almonds. Soften cream cheese; beat in sugar and vanilla; blend in egg. Add flour re-sifted with soda and salt, alternately with sour cream. Stir in remaining drained pineapple. Turn batter into pan. Bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees of until cake tests done. Remove to wire rack and let stand 10 minutes. Turn out; while still warm spread with pineapple glaze.

PINEAPPLE GLAZE

Beat together 1/2 cup reserved drained pineapple, 1 tablespoon soft butter and 1 cup sifted powdered sugar. (Add another 1/2 cup sugar for a thicker glaze.)

Meeting Plans Are Cancelled

The planned meeting Monday of the Wagon Train and the officials of the Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City has been cancelled because of conflicting engagements. Officials of the Hall of Fame who were to be here have to be in Fort Worth that day. This change in plans does not effect the Train's trip to Guymon. The wagons will leave here Wednesday morning, April 28 and be on the road three days and two night camps on the Guymon trip for Pioneer Days.

Jury Studies Road Closing

A Jury of View will make the final decision on the closing of two miles of dirt road in the southeast corner of the county. The two miles of road is on the section line between land owned by Merle Beck on the east and C.P. Carruth and C. P. Jackson on the west side. This road begins on the farm-to-market road going to the gasoline plants 11 miles southwest of Spearman. The road extends two miles south to the Hutchinson County line. It stops there. The road was to be closed because it does not connect to another road and property owners on each side have access to their property from other directions. Members of the County Commissioners Court appointed the Jury of View to rule on the matter.

New Collar Styles Are on the Scene

While the button-down collar is still king, it is getting a lot of competition from some of its would-be usurpers this spring. There are, for instance, the "pin-or-not" collars. These, varying in length and spread, can be worn "as is," or secured with a pin, and look great either way. Among the pin-or-nots are the "buttonless button-downs," actually button-downs without the buttons—a growing favorite with college men and old grads, too.

There is nothing official, yet, but it looks like the search for both a Superintendent of Schools and a new Administrator for the Hansford Hospital are drawing near to a finish.

School board members have found the man they think will fill the position. Now, comes the job of seeing if the salary and other contract items can be worked out to satisfaction.

There have been 12 or 14 men interviewed for the job and the board has been working almost every night.

One board member says the prospect looks like just what they are looking for and in checking on him the investigators find nothing but good things.

The hospital board is interviewing and they are supposed to have a group of men here next Thursday night.

This job has also attracted a large number of applicants.

Both jobs are going to require very capable men. Both operations are some of the biggest businesses in town and not just everyone can handle the positions.

Homemaking Notes

by Linda Webb
 Home Demonstration Agent

Keep your eyes and ears open to catch news in the near future about the Driver Improvement Course to be held in Spearman sometime in May.

Everyone needs a refresher course on their driving techniques, believe it or not. Bet you couldn't begin to pass a drivers examination right now if you had to! No, I'm not feeling superior, because right off the bat I'm sure I couldn't either.

This "refresher" course for adult drivers will be open to the public. No definite dates are yet available, but will be coming up in May. Begin planning now to attend.

I will be out of the office April 21-22, 28-29 attending a class in "Counseling and Guidance of Rural Youth" being offered in Pampa to Extension Agents in this area by Texas A&M University.

Sewing on some of the new knit fabrics? I hope so. Knits are fashion news now, and are

There are 2 types of knits—single knits which drape softly, and double knits, made with 2 sets of yarns in a double stitch, which are firmer, yet flexible. The double knits tailor beautifully and usually do not need underlining.

In purchasing knits, remember a length-wise rib is "straight-of-grain", check to be sure the rib is not severely twisted out of line.

Lining slim skirts and completely underlining the loose knits helps them keep their shape.

All knit fabrics, except those that are bonded, should be pre-shrunk before cutting. To open tubular knit, don't cut on the fold but cut along one rib close to the fold line.

Press out folds of tubular knits, if possible. Many folds will not press out completely. Place the pattern so the creases will not be prominent.

Before pinning on the pattern and cutting, lay the fabric flat without any tension—avoid stretching the fabric.

In sewing, use a medium to light tension, and stitches 12-15 per inch, or a small zig-zag.

To prevent stretching, stay stitch shoulders, neckline and armholes, and reinforce shoulder and waistline with straight seam tape.

Hem knit garments with a tailor's hem: that is, pink, machine stitch or zig-zag raw edge of hem; catch loosely to garment.

Always press with the length-wise rib. Lift and lower the iron; don't stretch or pull fabric, do not steam-press.

Especially for Nylon Jersey: Use fine pins, and place them in the seam allowance.

Check the tension on a scrap of material. Short stitches should be used, about 14-15 per inch. The needle should be sharp and fine-size II, and change it when you see it be-

If you've been sitting tight waiting for just your kind of car, with just your kind of power, at just your kind of price—wait no longer!

Chevrolet. It's a bigger, more beautiful car this year. Which is why that handsome silhouette could be mistaken for cars costing a thousand—even two thousand—dollars more.

Chevelle. This one's got lively looks, spirited power, a softer ride—and remarkable room atop a highly maneuverable wheelbase. No wonder it's today's favorite mid-size car.

Chevy II. No car so trim has a right to be so thrifty. But thrifty it is, with money-savers like brakes that adjust themselves and a long-lived exhaust system.

Corvair. Ask any '65 Corvair owner how it feels to drive a car with such easy steering, tenacious traction and responsive rear-engine power. And be ready to do lots of listening.

COMMUNICATIONS Your Tool for Progress

Imagine a telephone becoming a teacher!

In a case we know of, an automobile dealer uses our SPEAKERPHONE as a valuable and effective teaching instrument to train his salesmen. A salesman calls a customer and delivers a sales talk, with other salesmen listening to both voices via our SPEAKERPHONE. Afterward, sales talk and customer response are reviewed and discussed for the benefit of all. Here is still more evidence that in this modern age Communications can be your Tool for Progress. For full information about our many communications services, please call our Business Office.

BUTTERMILK MAKES IT BETTER.

...AND FAIRMONT FRESH BUTTERMILK MAKES IT BEST

Fairmont Fresh Buttermilk gives home-baked bread a special melting tenderness... a real old-fashioned kind of goodness. Try our fragrant, moist Date-Nut loaf... you'll see.

BUTTERMILK DATE-NUT LOAF

- 2 eggs, beaten
- 2 cups brown sugar
- 2 cups buttermilk
- 3 cups flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup oatmeal
- 1 cup chopped dates
- 1/2 cup crushed nuts
- 1/4 cup melted butter

Beat eggs and sugar thoroughly. Add buttermilk and beat well. Sift together flour, salt, baking powder, soda, and spices. Stir into egg mixture and mix thoroughly. Fold in the oatmeal, dates, and nuts, stirring only enough to combine. Gradually blend in the melted butter. Pour into two oiled waxpaper-lined 9" x 5" loaf pans and bake 40 to 50 minutes in a moderate oven (350°). Cool. Bread slices best if held for 24 hours. Makes two loaves.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Robert Cordes, Pastor
Oslo Lutheran Church
Faith Lutheran Church

At Calvary our Lord was ready to die. He spoke His emphatic YES to death... He said He was ready to endure the cross and proved it by six agonizing hours on the cross. He never flinched nor did He turn in hatred at those driving nails into His flesh.

How could He possibly do it? With every natural instinct we rebel against death. With our whole being we shout NO! NO! We cling to life. We pour millions of dollars into research to gain a few more days, to cry NO to death. We long to live!

But we know we all must die. It is not how we die--under an oxygen tent, or quickly, but death will come. Original guilt of man brought death to all who sin. And we are all marked as sinners. This virus of guilt of the soul, this killer of mankind, will never lie stained and visible under a microscope. No medical research team will ever isolate it.

However our Lord knew the remedy for sin. For that reason He spoke His eternal YES to His own death on the cross. His blood was shed that our guilt may be covered, declared forgiven.

They lay His body in a grave. But the grave could not contain Him. He proved to the world that we too shall live after the grave. As He arose from death, on His return we shall all be raised in glorified form. Our bodies will be reunited with our souls for eternity.

This is what Jesus meant when He said, "He who believes in Me, though he die, yet he shall live; and whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die." This is the Easter message--the message that stops death and gives us eternal hope. This is why we worship Jesus as our Savior from death to eternal life.

In Jesus we are ready for the coffin and that last soft click, hardly audible to the mourners, when the funeral director closes your casket for the last time. We live in joyous anticipation of leaving this earth and being with our Lord. He gave us this promise of Life in His Name!

Beef Cattle Futures Trading Has Surprising Momentum

Futures trading in beef cattle is rocking along with surprising momentum after only four months of operation.

The system, regarded by many members of the beef industry as a new marketing tool, started with more trade volume than any other new futures commodity in history. Activity has gone way beyond anticipated levels and is still increasing.

Trades are currently being negotiated at a rate of 30 to 190 per day, averaging more than 100 contracts each day.

These observations come from Texas A&M University, where economists and livestock specialists are studying futures developments. Their opinions range from a cautious "sounds good" to the biggest thing that has happened to the cattle business in 150 years.

In the complex world of marketing, a futures market or futures trading is a system of buying and selling contracts for deferred delivery of a product. A futures contract calls for delivery of a commodity in a stated future month. It is an agreement to deliver or receive a specified amount and quality of the commodity at a price agreed upon by buyer and seller.

While deliveries are provided for in the contract, very few will actually be made. The bulk of the contracts will be liquidated by purchases or sale of another contract. So the actual cattle need not be delivered or received, but the protection against price fluctuations remains. A contract to deliver can be offset by buying. A contract to receive can be offset by selling.

Ed Uvacek, market specialist at Texas A&M, believes that the price protection device is an especially valuable tool, since it has a market stabilizing effect.

He said the speculator is an essential part of successful futures trading--the man who puts up his money and hopes to make a profit. The hedger is simply trying to cut price risk. Call it "price insurance."

Many ranchers are "looking at cattle futures trading mightily carefully: but with great interest," says the specialist. At present, feeders are the most frequent users of futures.

Over in the A&M Animal Science Department, opinion is generally favorable.

"It sounds good to me," F.I. Dahlberg, animal husbandry professor, said. "If handled right, futures trading is an opportunity to hedge on feeding operations, which can fit in with grain futures."

Agricultural economists at A&M view futures trading as progressive. They believe it will lessen price risks, level fluctuations, and benefit the overall market structure.

Uvacek said some economists and private operators, however, are having orientation troubles with beef futures. Very often, if these individuals know a lot about futures in other fields, they don't know much about livestock. Or if they know livestock, they don't know the mechanics of futures.

"Believe me, there is a lot of studying going on," the specialist said.

What's the future of futures in beef?

In addition to opening new doors to the whole beef industry, it fits into the modern specification buying techniques that are becoming common practice in today's industry, Uvacek believes. He looks for cattle contracts to become one of the most important futures trading commodities.

More feeders will use the tool as they learn more about it. Financial institutions will encourage futures participation because of price risk protection. Feeders will remain more interested in the system than cow-calf operators who produce and grow feeders, because hedging opportunities are more apparent to the feeder.

A recent development is carcass trading in futures, although action is slow so far. Delivery months are different than for live cattle so that price protection can be obtained all year long.

Uvacek says feeders may gradually move into carcass trading. Action also will probably increase when more packers enter the market.

The marketing specialist figures that futures trading in beef cattle will help maintain a free market in the beef industry.

"Whether we agree with the concept of futures trading or not, it seems ironic that the first real attempt for the industry to help themselves is regarded by some as a gimmick for government control," Uvacek said. "Futures are not necessarily the answer to all the problems in the beef business, nor do they claim to be. But they will provide opportunity for hedging against severe price fluctuations common in the industry."

He added that he does not believe that futures are a fore-runner of price supports. Besides, contracts have been available for a long time on pork bellies, shrimp, frozen turkeys, hides and eggs without supports. Fact is, cotton futures are in trouble because of supports.

"In my opinion, futures trading is the hottest thing that has happened to the cattle business in 150 years," Uvacek said.

News From The

County Agent

By Robert Adamson

Some battle their way to the top—other bottle their way to the bottom.

WEED CONTROL MEETING

You missed a good meeting if you didn't attend the weed control meeting that featured Dr. Allen Wiese of the Bushland Experiment Station as the speaker. Dr. Wiese is one of the leading authorities on chemicals for weed control.

COTTON

He told the group that it was not too late to apply Treflan as a pre-plant chemical for weed control in cotton and soybeans. This chemical should be applied on flat ground and incorporated into the soil 2 to 4 inches with a tandem disc. Sorghum cannot be planted the year following application.

There are several cotton fields in the county that has had a severe weed problem. I would suggest that you consider using Treflan to control weeds. If weeds have not been a problem, then it is doubtful if Treflan would be economical.

SORGHUM

Propazine 80W is an 80 percent wettable powder formulation of propazine. Propazine has been labeled for pre-emergence weed control in sorghum for grain and forage. It will be most useful on irrigated field where annual broadleaf and grass weeds have been difficult to control by mechanical means. The herbicide will not control perennial weeds such as field bindweed and Johnson grass.

Because propazine must be absorbed by weed roots to be effective, application must be made to the soil immediately after planting. Rain leaches it into the root zone. If rainfall occurs before chemical application, weeds may germinate and grow through the propazine on the soil surface. Propazine will not control weeds that germinate when sorghum is watered up with flood irrigation, because weed roots are below the herbicide on the soil surface.

Propazine does not decompose easily and will work well even if rain does not follow soon after application. Chemical drift that may occur during application is not toxic to cotton.

Because propazine persists in the soil for long periods, the only summer crops which can be grown the year following application are corn and sorghum. Winter wheat may be planted the second fall following application. Because of the long residual period, propazine use is not advised on dryland fields in west and northwest Texas. Rates of propazine application for the High Plains area are two pounds per acre on the silty clay loam soils for control of both grasses and broadleaf weeds. If careless weed or pigweed are the only weeds present, one pound per acre broadcast is sufficient for season-long control. (Goat heads and devils claw will not be controlled with one pound per acre).

Atrazine 80W is an 80 percent wettable powder formulation of atrazine. Atrazine at 1 pound per treated acre plus surfactant can be used to control annual broadleaf weeds less than 2 inches tall in emerged sorghum. Attempts to control larger broadleaf weeds and small grasses will probably fail unless it rains within a few days after application. Atrazine must be applied in 20 to 40 gallons of water containing 1/2 percent surfactant in 50 gallons of water. Band or broadcast treatments, either directed at the soil or over the crop, are satisfactory. Sorghum forage must not be fed to livestock. Only sorghum, corn or winter wheat should be planted the year following atrazine application. Drift at the time of atrazine application is not toxic to cotton.

2,4-D is available as amine, oil soluble amine, acid, low volatile ester and high volatile ester formulations. All formulations may be used at 1/2 pound per acre to control broadleaf weeds once the sorghum is 6 inches tall but before flowering. Hybrids containing Wheatland parentage should not be treated with 2,4-D because serious yield reductions

RESEARCH STATION

The North Plains Research Station at Etter recently released information of some of the work conducted last year. Following is some information you may be interested in. The water stress trials on soybeans shows that the soybean plant is most sensitive to water stress during the early fruiting stages, especially during early maturation.

SOYBEAN VARIETY TEST

Variety	Maturity	Yield (bu.)
Hill	Medium late	26.1
Lee	Full Season	24.4
Hinn	Full Season	22.6

The above varieties were planted on May 21, 1964. The water stress trial plots were planted June 2 and all plots were killed by frost before fully maturing. This is an indication that soybeans should be planted as early in May as possible, especially the full season varieties.

News for Spring — The Silk Look

The 'Contour' Look Is in Men's Suits

Silk and the look of silk is one of the hot fashions in cool spring suits for 1965. Present in luxury grade clothing for the past several years, silks and fabrics that look enough like silk to fool a silk worm have burgeoned into widely sought after fashions.

Shown in the style-alert contemporary models, the relatively conservative classic models and even in the natural-shoulder traditional styles, silk and the look of silk varies from iridescent versions in high shades to some with a dull finish and modified slub effects. Brightest of all are the rayon blends, which have an almost metallic look. There are silks from India, Siam, Italy, Japan and, of course, from American mills, too.

Lustrous Look Is Here

The lustrous look is also evident in the many blends of silk and worsted as well as in the cloths combining mohair and worsted. Still tops among the many suiting blends engineered for warm weather wear are the polyester-worsted. The versatility of that blend is demonstrated not only in the silk look but also in plain colors, mixtures of many colors, plaids and stripes.

While the basic suit models remain the same for the most part, there continues to be growing acceptance of the fitted contour model. That style, derived from the best of the British with its slightly accented waistline and moderately traced back, is now available in both tailored-shoulder contemporaries and natural-shoulder traditional. Two-button styles are on the upswing, too. Look for many novel lapel treatments in the contemporaries, and slightly wider lapels on the others.

Washwear for Coming Summer

As the season progresses, washwear suits will again meet the needs of travellers, vacationers and businessmen who enjoy the press-retaining, wrinkle-resistant properties of those easy-care garments. In addition to the standard poplins there will be a big upsurge in seersuckers and linen-look washwears.

As usual, there will be many pure worsted tropicals for those men who prefer the fine all-wool fabrics and some of these, too, have a new plus due to the permanent-press process that has been applied to give them added press-retention.

This system is returning more tailwater, which otherwise would be lost, than some irrigation wells in the county are pumping. ## Deputy Brown Resigns Position Effective May 1

Hansford County Deputy Sheriff John Brown has resigned his position effective May 1, Sheriff J.B. Cooke announced this week.

Cooke said Brown will devote fulltime to operating an irrigated farm. Brown has been farming on a small scale in past years.

Brown came to Spearman as a Deputy Sheriff in October, 1958. He and his wife and son lived in the apartment in the courthouse until recently when he gave up the jailer's position and moved to where he is farming.

Before moving to Spearman

Brown served as a Deputy Sheriff in Potter County. He started his law enforcement career as an Air Policeman while stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Today's fashions have an openly feminine feeling, yet are fluid and unrestricting for easy movement, observes Leather Industries of America.

This softness, so important to the style picture this spring, is inherent in the natural beauty of leather.

Silk and the look of silk in men's suits and sportswear is featured in many of the newest styles for spring and summer 1965, reports the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear. There will also be a great many more shaped "contour" suits and sport coats in both traditional and contemporary models.

Look for the many new stripings in shirts; the brighter, more colorful neckwear; the updated sport shirts in both woven and knitted fabrics and the finely detailed cuff links and tie holders.

There is a new active look in both topcoats and rainwear, and trench coats are making a strong comeback. Finally, there are three new groups of spring and summer hats — feather-weight felts, flexible straws and colorful cloth casuals.

Smart but casual, this spring's topcoats are made for wear in the city or out. Colors this spring will feature natural shades and black. This water repellent coat by Alligator.

Tropical weave with the ease of stretch synthetic fabrics makes this natural shoulder suit just right. It's in Celanese Fortrel polyester and worsted.

You can say this for children — they never pull out pictures of their grandparents.
