Baptist Leader In Texas Work

From the war of "Minnieballs' to rockets-to-themoon, the Clarke family has been preaching and working in the Baptist Churches of Texas.

When the Rev. Bill Clarke organist for the Christ for All Crusade, sold his wholesale grocery business in Cleburne and began studying for the ministry, he was following a family tradition.

Clarke's great-great-grand-father came to Northeast Texas from Georgia before the Civil War. He was a Baptist preacher and church builder. He founded several Baptist Churches in Northeast Texas and was pastor of the Baptist Church in Tyler during the Civil War.

After the war, he founded the First Baptist Church in Cleburne and his family has been in the church since it was founded 100 years ago.

Baptist church work and the grocery business are a part of the Clarke family. Before World War II, the five largest independent grocery stores in Cleburne were owned by Clarkes.

"Some people thought the Clarke cousins worked together in the grocery business, but they were big business re-vals, "Clark said. Young Bill Clark followed his family into the church and grocery business. He began studying music when he was five. He studied piano until he was 13, then added organ to his studies. When he was 13 he became organist for the church and continued until he graduated from high school ind joined the navy in World War II. After the war he returned to the church organ and joined his father in the grocery business

Things followed a family pattern. He married, his gro cery business was successful and he expanded into the wholesale grocery business. He was also a Sunday School officer and was ordained as a Deacon in the church. In 1956 he came home from

Lynx Close Football Season By Beating Shamrock 24-7

Second and fourth quarter scoring sprees carried the Spearman Lynx to a 24-7 season finale over the Shamrock Irish on Lynx Field Friday night. The win put Spearman in third place in the final standings of the district behind Dalhart and Stinnett. Shamrock finished the season with a 2-8 record.

It was a rough and tumble game with the officials hav-ing to use the red flag heavily to try and keep things going according to the rules. Spearman was penalized 100 yards and Shamrock, 70 yards. Both teams had a player ejec-ted on separate offenses. Seniors Ken Shufeldt and Seniors Ken Shufeldt and Clayton Cochran ripped the Shamrock defenses as the offensive line opened doors for them. Shufeldt gained 165 yards on 27 carries. Cochran gained 101 on 20 carries.

Shufeldt scored the two touchdowns in the second quarter, the first on a run of five yards after shaking off a shoulder tackle. He picked up the second one on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Charles Shieldknight.

In the fourth quarter, Cochran got his first one on a two yard dive after setting it up with a dive after setting it up with a 32-yard run. Leading the Lynx defense into the Irish backfield on numerous occasions were Skipper Robinson, Jerry Holton, Mike Babbs and Lynn Buzzard. Rennie Berry, Gary Cates, Shufeldt and Babbs were tough on pass defense. Robinson and Holton were very discourteous to Irish Quar terback Ike Shipman. They harrassed him all night and on numerous occasions put him on his back with driving tackles.

Shamrock made the first first quarter when they drove from the Spearman 41 to the nine before a flag and an incompleted pass stopped them. Larry Flowers and Shipman lugged the ball downfield and with a third and three at the with a third and three at the nine. Shipman went to the three. Berry Has Knee Surgery

One of Spearman's 11 sen-iors ended his football career Friday night and was injured for the first time after six years of junior high and high school competition.

Rennie Berry received a knee injury in the third quarter of the Shamrock game. The lit-tle end and defensive halfback was injured in the middle of a pile-up as he was block-ed when he tackled the Irish ball-carrier. Berry was taken to Oklahoma

Four plays later, Shufeldt shook off an Irishman who Shufeldt tried to horse-collar him be-hind the line of scrimmage and went the last five for the score. Cochran was stopped short on the try for extra points and the score was 6-0. Spearman was quickly hand-ed another chance for a touch-down but almost muffed it. Lynx Hopefuls Start BEFORE YOU SHOOT Basketball Monday

Spearman Lynx basketball hopefuls drew equipment Sat-urday and will begin Monday preparing for their first game Friday night here with Sunray. Coach Dean Weese will be-gin building his yarsity around gin building his varsity around five returning lettermen. Re-turning are Dave Clement, Larry Butts, Ken Shufeldt, Carl Close and Harrell Adkin-SOD.

Close is the only letterman returning who can look down on the six foot mark. James Schnell who was on the Bteam last year is over the magic mark and sophomore Hal Shufeldt is on the top side of six feet.

Weese said he was expect-ing help from juniors Monte Black, Schnell and Gary Randy Moore is out a broken ankle and Cates. with Weese did not know when he will be back.

The mentor Thursday said there were several juniors on the B-team last year, but he would not know how many of them were planning to play basketball this year until they drew equipment Saturday. Sophomores Charles Shield-

GSPA Says Milo Crop Is Worth $10 Million

Grain sorghum, the largest cash crop in Hansford County, promises to pour over ten mil-lion dollars into the economy of Hansford County this year, according to the Grain Sor-ghum Producers Association.

This figures value to the County can be multiplied several times because very little of it will remain in the farmers bank account, but will used to defray production cost such as equipment, seed, fertilizer, and irrigation expenses, according to Rudie Tate of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association North

Plains Service Center. Few of those even directly engaged in production or marketing of grain sorghum have stopped long enough to take note of the rapid change in grain sorghum value to Hansford County. Tate pointed out that only two years ago Hansford County boasted a 36,000 acre grain sorghum crop valued at some three million dollars as com-pared to the expected 1965 pared to the expected 1965 ctop of 110,000 acres with the ten million dollar price tag. This has been brought about by improved hybrids adapted to the North Plains area, in-creased fertilizer use, increased irrigation, better water use and conservation practices and improved production methods.

Production is not the only factor involved, Tate pointed out. The increased tonnage out. would have little value without a strong demand through increased local feeding and

East Texas Cattlemen To Upgrade Beef Cattle

Cattlemen over the state are keeping close watch on a beef cattle improvement program launched in Tyler last week. If the plan to upgrade quality of East Texas cattle quality meets with success, it may set precedent for cattlemen in other areas.

The plan was initiated by the East Texas Farm and Ranch Club, Tyler and the Build East Texas (BET) coordinators, BET is an improvement program itself--for all East Texans.

The beef improvement program is aimed, ultimately to-ward the BET goal of 500 pounds of beef calf weaned per acre each year. The beef plan is centered around crossbred cattle producers and specifically 3 groups in the crossbred cattle industry. They are: 1. Pure-bred breeders of re-

The plan asks that the F-1 produc-ers use only high quality re-pictured, or pure-bred parents gistered or pure-bred parents (Probably purchased from num-ber 1 above) to produce the heifers. Then, says Doggett, since it has been established research done at Texas A&M and other universities that F-1 heifers make the best mothers, the F-1 heifers should be sold to ranchers, who make up the third group. 3. Slaughter and stocker calf producers. In the beef improvement program, these are the last link in the chain will use the F-1 heifers and to produce calves with hybrid vigor. "Note how the 3 groups complement each other," said

Doggett. To push the program along. Doggett said there will be an all-breeds bull sale in January in the fall of Then, in the fall of there will be a sale of 1966. 1966. heifers. Heifers from rewill be given a certificate before the sale -- others judged meet rigid standards may also be sold. In a kickoff meeting, Dog-gett noted three problems fac-ed by the producing groups. The main problem is reducing cost of raising cattle; second, producing for a market; and third, increasing efficiency. With an emphasis on record an emphasis on record With keeping, and strict culling for each of the 3 groups, all pro-blems can be lessened, said Doggett. There is some feeling that the beef improvement plan may eventually evolve into a marketing coop, but Doggett is quick to say, "If East Tex-ans will raise good quality crossbred cattle, there will be plenty of demand for them. In the meantime, cattlemen in other areas are watching. and waiting to see what hap pens.
