BACHELORS.

"Bachelors can be found roaming at large in all parts of the world. They inhabit apartments, clubs, open fields, bodies of water and music halls. They are also found behind the scenes. They hover at times near front gates, and have been found in back parlors with the aid of a searchlight.

"Bachelors are nomadic by nature and variable in their tastes never going with one girl long enough to be dangerous.

"Bachelors make love easily, but rarely keep it. Rich bachelors are haunted openly and shamelessly, and are always in great danger.

Those who finally escape are, as a rule, useless ever afterwards"—

Ousley & McCormick; Tahoka, Texas.

Last week while returning from a visit to Donelson's to see little Lola, who was very ill, Dr. McCoy had a runaway scrape. The Dr. said he had a long strap fastened to his lines so he could grab if they started to run at a gate, but he failed to grab in time, and after a few flying leaps trying to get hold of that elusive strap, he gave up and watched his brand new buggy go tearing down the lane after the runaway team. They ran into the fence once, breaking one of the bows to the top. Mr. Luttrell caught the team after they had run four miles. The Dr. says he prefers his walking in homeopathic doses, four miles through slush and snow not being to his taste.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

"A Man's Life."

A mans life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes in to this life with out his consent and goes out against his will the trip between the two is exceeding rocky. The rule of contraries is one of the features of the trip. When he is little the big girls will kiss him but when he is grown the little girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is a chump but if he raises a small check he is a thief. If he is poor he is a bad manager if he is rich he is dishonest.

If he is in politics its for pie; if he's out of politics you cant place him and his no good for his county. If his doesnt give to charity he is a stingy cuss if he does it is for show. If he dies young there was a great future ahead of him if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling. The road is rocky but man loves to travel it. All mens lives can be made much easier if they will go to the Tahoka Drug Co. for their drugs and drug sanaries, Dr. S. H. Windham proprietor North side of the square.

We welcome the "Lubbock Leader" to the circle of plains news papers who exchange With us. We are glad to know that Lubbock is in the swim with two news papers. Now don't everyone go fishing and leave the editors to do all the swimming. It is pretty hard work for a paper to keep its head above the water in a small town, but when a town is blessed with two as fine papers as Lubbock has, the citizens should get up and hustle like the man who has twin babies has to do, and those papers will turn in more good work for that town than any pair of twins could possibly do.

BRING IN YOUR CASH.

I have sold my stock of drugs to H. J. Coughran and am out of the business for keeps. All those who know themselves indebted to me must come in and pay up immediately, I have been accommodating to you and except you to returned the favor. Now be prompt about this matter, but dont run over each othr in your wish to pay up. One at a time, you know gentlemen is the best way to do these things, but be sure to keep right on coming.

Miss Veida Ray has returned from an extended trip. She visited friends in Dallas, and while there enjoyed the State Fair. She attended the fair at San Antonio and from there went to Calvert to see friends, and finished her holiday by spending several days at San Saba, her old home. Miss Veida was absent about a month.

Did you see those tables and chairs at Ouslev & McCormick's? If not you had better go to day.
