TWELVE YEAR OLD BOY MAKES FINE CROP

For several weeks past the Herald has been telling its readers about the fine crops produced by first one then another, which has indeed made good reading matter, and has attracted so much attention that extra copies of the Herald have been hard to supply, as prospectors wanted them to carry back home with them, not to say anything about the demand for them by local people who wanted to send them to their friends in the east.

This week we are going to tell you about the crop—a sod crop too—produced by just an average Brownfield school boy, and his production can be duplicated by any other school boy with the same amount of nerve and get-up-and-go ability.

O. J. Daniell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Daniell, of this city was 12 years old when he began breaking sod on the 9th day of March, 1923. He was 28 days in breaking and preparing his 111 acres of land, and he then planted and worked it himself at the proper time. When the harvest was finished, the value of this boys crop stood as follows:

12,000 binds of feed.....$750.00
15 bales of cotton.....$2,250.00

Total $3,020.00

Now we want some more statements from farmers, both boys and men, but we hope this statement will not discourage any of you grown-ups from making statements.

This lone boy worked more land and produced more wealth than lots of whole families in east and central Texas.

Come to Terry.

NO CHANGES TO BE MADE IN STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHWAYS

The Highway Commission at its February meeting decided that no future changes or new designations would be made in the designated system of State highways. The present system as now designated has been approved by the Federal Government and the construction of many of the various highways now designated as State highways is well under way, so as to make it impractical and unsatisfactory to change the designations from their present locations. The Commission advises citizens of this State not to go to the expense of coming to Austin to urge changes in the present designations or to have new designations made. Every effort will be made to complete the present system of highways as rapidly as possible and to keep this system in serviceable condition for the traveling public.

O'DONNELL SOON TO HAVE ELECTRIC LIGHTS

L. J. Greer, manager of the West Texas Electric Company at Sweetwater, and Mr. Blair, representing the same company, were here Friday and made a pleasant call the News office. Mr. Greer stated that the Company was preparing to extend an electric line from Lamesa to O'Donnell to furnish the citizens of that town with light and power. Mr. Greer intimated that his company might like to buy the plant here and install an ice factory in connection therewith. The city owns and operates the plant here most satisfactorily, however, and we understand that it is not for sale.

The editor has been ill all the week from an attack of the grip, but has been confined to his home only one day, Wednesday

LOTS IN ZAPPE HEIGHTS BEING SOLD

C. E. Brown of the C. E. Brown Land Company last week effected a sale of two blocks of land, comprising nine and one-third acres, in the Zappe Heights Addition to Paul Miller. Mr. Miller announces that he will build a stucco residence on one of the lots into which he has cut the tract. The entire tract, it is understood, has been cut into 100 lots and these lots are being sold for a small cash payment and on long time to persons desirous of acquiring beautiful building sites. It is understood that a great number of the lots have already been sold by Mr. Brown to residents of Tahoka.

REPTILE SHIPPED IN STALK OF BANANAS EXCITES CURIOSITY

Ye shades of John Barleycorn! Some of Littlefield's lovers of wet woods were trembling in their boots Monday when a live snake was discovered neatly coiled up in a bunch of bananas in the Lamb County Mercantile store.

It was a study of human nature for about five minutes to see some of the ex-toppers look at each other in questionable mein, wondering whether they were really seeing things or not.

They certainly were, for once; it was no hallucination! A beautiful buff colored tropical snake, about 30 inches long, and distinctly mottled with bright red spots was slowly uncoiling from around the banana stem, making ready for an exit, but owing to its benumbed condition in a climate unaccustomed, it did not succeed in extricating itself from behind the golden fruit until the stalk had been carried out of doors and preparations made to capture it and put it in a large glass jar.

All kinds of speculation ran rife as to its species. Some declared it was only a common house snake which the natives of Central America keep around for congenial company, others insisted it looked like a young boa constrictor, but it remained for Littlefield's leading educator to settle the discussion by calmly informing the curious crowd that the reptile was nothing more or other than the ubiquitous snake suborder and type ovoviviparus.

A. L. NETTLES ANNOUNCES FOR SHERIFF

A. L. Nettles has politely tossed his Stetson right over in the middle of the ring and smilingly announced that he is ready for the big but friendly battle to begin. He wants to be sheriff and tax collector of this fine county and to serve these good people.

Mr. Nettles first discovered America down in McCannan county, near the Bosque county line. When he was yet a little fellow his parents removed to Jones county. There the family resided a number of years but soon decided that the plains were the best part of Texas and came on to Lynn county. Mr. Nettles has been a resident of this county about seventeen years. He has never held political office but his father has served as commissioner of the county. He is a farmer by occupation and resides in the Lakeview community, seven miles west of New Home in the northwest portion of the county.

The writer has been personally acquainted with Mr. Nettles only a short time, but he has heard nothing but expressions of commendation concerning his character. Quite and unassuming, he impresses one as a man of cool courage and great reserve power. While he has no experience as a peace officer, his friends believe that he possesses those fine qualities that would make of him an ideal sheriff. He has a business-like, gentlemanly manner that readily makes him friends and admirers.

Mr. Nettles will probably be around to see you before many moons and talk the matter over personally. We bespeak for him the earnest consideration of the voters of Lynn county.

Dr. Charles F. Shook has installed a new therapeutic ray in his office, which he will use in the practice of his profession as a chiropractic.

TAHOKA TO HAVE REAL PARK

John Donaldson and city secretary J. S. Weatherford, last week headed a movement to have trees planted on the plot of ground owned by the city and designated as the City Park. A park without trees is a misnomer, and these gentlemen conceived the idea of converting this plot of ground into a real park. Accordingly they canvassed the business section of the city of Arbor Day, February 22, and raised a neat sum of money from merchants and other citizens with which to purchase trees. With the funds collected they purchased from the Plainview Nursery through Mr. Robinson, the local agent, 108 trees of the following varieties: 21 cottonwood, 39 elms, 38 ash, and 10 black walnuts. All these varieties of trees are said to do well on the plains. The ground is already being prepared and the trees will arrive perhaps by the end of the week. In the course of a very few years, Tahoka ought to have one of the most attractive little parks to be found anywhere.

STORK VISITS LYNN COUNTY THIRTY-EIGHT TIMES IN SEVEN WEEKS

On two trips he brought twins, once a couple of boys and once a couple of girls, making a total increase of forty in the population of the county.

The records further reveal that 10 of these were boys and 17 were girls but what the girls lack in number they no doubt make up in quality.

LOFTON LANDS PRACTICALLY ALL SOLD

The South Plains Realty Company announces the sales of lands during the last two weeks aggregating $51,000 in value. Sales made by them are as follows: William D. Green to Jake Leedy, 160 acres out of Lofton Ranch; William D. Green to C. T. Johnson, 160 acres out of Lofton Ranch; William D. Green to Guy LeMond, 80 acres, out of Lofton Ranch; William D. All the lands lying in the Lofton Ranch, with the exception of one tract of 160 acres, have now been sold. Some of these lands have been already improved. The remainder will be improved this year.

Purchasers will either build homes on the tracts purchased or will build tenant houses and have their lands placed in cultivation and planted to crops during the present year. This will add materially to the agricultural wealth of the county and will mean much for Tahoka.

W. M. THOMPSON ENTERS SHERIFF'S RACE

W. M. Thompson, better known as Bill Thompson, appears on the political race track and announces that he is in the race to the finish for sheriff and tax collector of Lynn county. His announcement appears in our announcement column this week.

Mr. Thompson was in the race for sheriff and tax collector two years ago. In the first primary, it was a sweepstake race, there being several candidates. S. W. Sanford and Bill Thompson were the two high men and they were opposing candidates in the second primary. Mr. Thompson was defeated by only two votes. He came so near winning that his friends have persuaded him that he ought to try again; so he appears on the track well groomed, with lots of friends to back him up.

Mr. Thompson has never held a political office. He has been a resident of the county for the past eight years. He was born in the good old state of Alabama and came to Hill county, Texas, with his parents when a small boy. He was virtually reared in Hill county and resided there until the lure of the plains brought him to Lynn county in 1915. His father died when he was ten years of age, and being the oldest of several children heavy responsibilities fell upon him when a mere boy. His friends say that he has met the responsibilities of life bravely, and they believe that he will measure up to the full stature as a peace officer and as collector of the coin for the use and benefit of the state and county.

By occupation, Mr. Thompson is a farmer, the best of farmer that lives and makes his living on the farm. He has been on the farm all his life. His present home is six miles east of Tahoka, where he owns a splendid farm and residence. He is well and favorably known throughout the county, and his many friends are going to "whip 'em up" for Bill Thompson until the last vote is counted. He will be around to see you before the summer is ended and all that he asks is that you leave his name on the ticket on July 26.

Mrs. G. M. Stewart was a visitor in Abilene and Roscoe from Saturday to Tuesday inclusive, attending the Padeweski concert while at Abilene.

METHODIST PREACHER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bones, who formerly lived here but who removed to Clarendon about four years ago, were here this week, having been called to Post Sunday to attend the funeral of their son-in-law, the Rev. J. E. Oden. The Reverend Oden was pastor of the Methodist Church at Roaring Springs, but upon becoming sick he was brought to a sanitarium at Lubbock, where he died. His remains were carried to Post, his former home, for interment. He was a young man, only 33 years of age, and had been in the active ministry only a few years. He seemed to have a very bright future, but the hand of Providence intervened and led him up higher. He leaves a wife and two sweet little children, and the many friends throughout this section will deeply sympathize with in their irreparable loss.

THREE LAKES THROBS

Rev. J. B. Vinson filled his regular appointment here Sunday, and preached a very interesting sermon, as usual.

Farming is the order of the day. G. W. Hickerson has moved back to his beautiful country home and has lined up with the other farmers by uniforming himself with a two-row buster.

Prof. L. G. Haynes and family went to Lubbock Saturday and returned Sunday.

Judge Elliott was in our midst the first of the week.

The Hon. Hall Robinson and Judge McIver were with us the first of the week on business.

Calvin Edwards from Crawford, Texas, is here making some improvements on his fine lands. J. Wright Edwards is seeing after the property.

T. J. Tabor and family of Lynn spent the week-end with Wash W. Johnson and family.

Our school, under the able management of prof. Haynes and Miss Viola Ellis, is getting along as fine as Klondike dust.

If the waste basket doesn't get me, I will come again.

LYNN ITEMS

Well, we are having some cold weather. Old mother Earth is covered with a snowy white this Monday morning.

The singing convention was a success in spite of the cold weather. Singers from several places were here. While they made Ernest Patterson do most of the leading, he surely can get singing out of folks, if they have any singing qualities at all. If a boy can call hogs, Patterson can make a good singing master. He surely is some singer. After singing some time, the President Mr. Richey announced dinner. A nice prepared lunch was spread and everybody enjoyed the good things they had to eat. We thank the good ladies of Lynn for their good dinner. We hope to have another soon.

After dinner while everybody was enjoying conversation, a young man came around to W. P. Bussell, the Baptist preacher, and asked him to go home, that there was a young couple that wanted to get married. It scared the preacher so badly that he started out bare-headed. The young man told him he had better get his hat. So they went to the preacher's home and he united the young couple in the holy wedlock and sent them on rejoicing. The young man was A. D. Lagrone, and the young lady was Miss Dollie Mabe. We wish them a long life. The preacher told them the way to keep a happy home was for just one of them to get mad at a time, and the other to stay in a good humor and cheerful. Good advice.

Well, Uncle Jim Eastridge has bought him a new two-row planter. He is going to work. He will have a time trying to watch two plows at once.

Mr. Claude Dieke is on the sick list this week; also Mr. W. P. Bussell, the preacher. The preacher said he thought he had his horse disease and some one prescribed stock powders for him, but he refused to follow the advice of his doctor.

Uncle Bill Bartley thinks we are going to have some awful bad weather now for a few days. We don't know whether he is a prophet or not.

We understand that there are lots of folks that want J. I. Bartley to run for road commissioner. Get in, Shorty, there is room for one more.

Say, if you folks want to know who is running for office in Lynn county, subscribe for the Lynn county News. She gives you all the news in your neighborhood. It don't cost but little. Uncle Tom would be glad to take your subscription in for you.

Well, news is sort of scarce, and we will ring off. Good luck to everybody. Read the News and keep up with everything going on.

This was the quickest action we have ever known even a want ad to get so quick that we paid Bryant his money back and he went on out a happy man. The patrons of the New Home School met last Friday to see about getting up a subscription school to run two months after the school money runs out. They raised almost enough money Friday night to run one month, and a committee was appointed to see the patrons of the school who were not present. Those present voted unanimously in favor of petitioning the legislature for an independent school district, and a large majority were in favor of a new brick school building. School is progressing nicely to be so badly crowded. About 115 have been enrolled, which is about all the present building will accommodate.

Lorena Fulton, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Kitchen visited our school Friday afternoon, Feb. 17. Ottis Terry, a ninth grade student who has been sick ever since Jan. 1 is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Guy Roberson and sister Wilma Scott motored to Tahoka Saturday morning on business.

Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Fulton, Gladys and Lorena Fulton went to Slaton and Wilson Saturday on business. Jodie and Wilma Scott spent Sunday afternoon with Pauline and Hattie Harper.

New Home has recently installed new school equipment, see-saws, swings, and basket ball goals.

A crowd of young people took dinner with Mrs. Horton Sunday, Feb. 17, and then went to Mrs. Fultons to spend the afternoon and hear the Victrola play. All reported an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley and children spent the week end at Floyada with some of their relatives.

Miss Jewel and Eddie Wright, Maurine Fulton, Mabel Wilhoit spent Saturday night and Sunday with Lorena and Maurine Fulton.

Severe Pains in Side
 "I HAD had quite a bad spell and sickness," writes Mrs. Emma Patrick, of Caney, Ky., "and it was an effort for me to go about my home. I had a very severe pain in my left side that almost took my breath at times. I lost my appetite. I grew thin, pale and lifeless. I fell off till I only weighed about 115 pounds. Cardui was recommended to me and by the time I had taken one bottle I saw it was what I needed. I ate more and rested better. I kept taking it and my skin and flesh took on a more healthy color. I felt stronger and, as the nervousness left me, the pain in my side was less severe. After taking nine bottles, I eat anything, go anywhere and feel fine. I weigh 160 pounds and am well. I feel that I owe it all to having used Cardui." Pain, in certain parts of the body, is a sure indication of female complications. The treatment needed is not the use of narcotic drugs, but—

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to the attention of the editor.

Prospects for a good crop thus far are as fine as could be desired. There is a good deep "season" in the ground and the snow the first of the winter moistened the top of the soil. There will yet be much sod turned this spring, and with a greatly increased acreage and with only an average yield per acre, Tahoka will make some of those cotton towns of central and north Texas ashamed of themselves next fall. Whistle up the hounds and come on to Lynn county, you black waxey folks.

The News believes in education. It believes in our educational system, from the little red school house on the hill to the great University at Austin. All our educational institutions should be amply supported, the rural schools the city schools, and the higher institutions of learning. Of course, the most rigid economy should be practiced in the expenditure of all public funds. But economy does not mean parsimony. As a rule, teachers receive the most meager salaries of almost any class of laborers. They should be better paid than they are, many of them. This is true of the teachers in the higher institutions of learning as well as rural teachers. The candidate for state office who tries to create a prejudice against our institutions of learning is either very short-sighted or he is a demagogue. Without our higher institutions of learning, the little public school at the forks of the road would not be as efficient as it is. The more thorough and efficient our colleges and universities and the larger the attendance upon them, the better will our whole school system be. We are for our public school system from top to bottom, we need more education, not less education.

Just now there is a great hue and cry for the reduction of taxes, state and national. The News believes that there are many departments and bureaus that could be merged and a considerable saving made. The services of many employees could probably be dispensed with and those remaining required to do a greater amount of work. By all means this should be done when and where it can be done, both in federal and the state service. But the News believes that the really important question is not "How much taxes are being expended?" but "How are they being expended?" For what are they being expended? Are they being wisely and economically expended? Do we get proper returns for the money expended. If so, then we can have no just complaint. If the money collected from the people with which to build roads is being properly and economically used, then who can complain? For we must have roads and good roads are beneficial to all the people. If the money collected from the people for educational purposes is being properly and economically used, then who can complain? For we must have schools, and public education is a boom to all the people. If the money collected for the maintenance of the courts is being properly and economically expended, then who can complain? For among us human beings we must yet have courts, which protect all the people in their persons and their property. So, the amount of taxes required is a secondary consideration. Are they being properly expended, is the primary question. Let us bear this in mind when we begin to consider this or that candidate for governor or other office.

It is a pathetic story, that of ex-secretary Fall. His home people trusted him and honored him with high office. The President of our great Republic trusted him and honored him with a place in the cabinet. He is a man of fine intellect and commanding personality. He had great powers of leadership. He had splendid opportunities to serve his fellow-men. Then, when the honors were thick upon him, when he stood at the very pinnacle of his fame, came the tempter. This Devil showed him not the kingdoms of this world for gold and entrancing ranch lands that gold might buy. Fall turned a listening ear to the tempter's alluring promises. He consented, and the gold and the ranch lands became his. But did he become a happy man? What if the accursed act should become known? No doubt this question haunted him in his musings by day and in his dreams at night. And then one day, suddenly the rude hand of Fate tore away the curtain that had screened him and the light of publicity in all its dazzling strength was thrown full upon him, and he sank under its withering rays a ruined and miserable man. Sick of body, sick of soul, decrepit, discredited, and despised, we see him returning to his palatial home at El Paso, to his home in which disease has even stricken down his faithful wife. No brass band meets him as his train pulls in to the station. No school children are there to shout his acclaim. None of his fellow citizens there to do him honor. A sneer from some of the lingers that inhabit the vicinity was the only greeting that fell upon his ears? Punished? It may be that the law will never place Fall behind prison bars. It may be that he will keep his ill-gotten gain until death ends the tragedy. But Fall is now suffering the penalty for his crime. He will continue to suffer it every day that he lives. "Be sure your sin will find you out" and "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap" are two Biblical truths that every man, everywhere, at all times would do well to remember and to heed. For at some time, somewhere, in some way God's law of retributive justice will bring the wicked to judgment.

IS EDITOR SMITH ENVIIOUS?

Sunday evening we ran up to O'Donnell to look over that thriving little city and now if you think that town is not growing you need to look it over now. They will have a thousand people there in twelve months more the way they are growing. They try to go to fast sometimes for us of Tahoka, the county site now. It is only a matter of time till O'Donnell will reach Tahoka's population. Tahoka is a little like lots of towns. They try to go to fast sometimes for their means and results are always disappointing. You can take a town to death. You can over bond a little town and kill it. Wild eyed speculation is not progress. Make haste slowly is the plan upon which many a city build a new town. Hold what you get is the plan upon which many a city has been built.

If O'Donnell does not get too fast she has a destiny that will make her one of the best towns of the west.

—Lamesa Reporter.

Brother Smith, the editor of the Lamesa Reporter, sent us a marked copy of his paper containing the above item. Evidently he did not want us to overlook it. We have reproduced it above, word for word and letter for letter, as it appeared in the Reporter, for the delectation and spiritual uplift of our readers.

We are glad that Brother Smith has at last discovered that O'Donnell is a thriving little city. We found that out some time ago. It is situated in Lynn county, and we are proud of it. We are delighted that Brother Smith has found something good outside of Dawson. But why this fling at Tahoka? He must have been out of humor when he wrote that item. Perhaps he had his eyes full of sand, and that is calculated to make one mad. But if brother Smith has the idea that Tahoka is dead, that merely shows that he that will compel her to grow, and she has not been here lately. It shows the spirit that will permit her to grow, in the future as in the past without knocking her neighbor. Come up and see us, Brother Smith.

HEPINSTALL-DEMIS

Mr. W. B. Hepinstall and Miss Effie Demis of Slaton drove down to Tahoka through the snow Monday, procured a marriage license, and engaged the services of our accommodating Justice of the Peace, I. P. Metcalf, to pronounce the words which made them husband and wife. They will reside in the of Slaton.

Miss Inez Weatherford is now assisting in the county clerk's office and will continue to do so through the approaching term of the district court.

LOCATION OF BOXES OF PATRONS OF RURAL ROUTES ALONG PUBLIC ROADS

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C., February 8, 1924. In order that there may be a proper understanding by postmasters, rural carriers, road officials, and the general public of the regulation of the department regarding the location of rural mail boxes and of its desire to cooperate with State and local authorities as to the use of roads by rural carriers, the following is published. The Post Office department has jurisdiction over public highways not have rural carriers any special privilege in the use of the roads. Carriers shall observe the traffic regulations in the same manner as required of other persons travelling the roads. The department does, however, exercise jurisdiction over mail boxes furnished and maintained by patron of rural routes. It requires that such boxes shall be so located as to be easily and safely accessible to the carriers at all times and without leaving their conveyances. It is suggested that for the protection and safety of the lives of the carriers and when the convenience of the traveling public is not disturbed or exposed to peril the boxes shall be placed on the right hand side of the road in the direction of travel of the carrier. It is our desire to cooperate as far as possible with the local authorities in observing state and local traffic ordinances and to inconvenience patrons to the least possible extent in so doing. In cases where special effort is made for the improvement of the appearance of the entire right-of-way or where for any reason it is necessary or desirable that explicit instructions be given as to the proper location of boxes, road officials may properly suggest to patrons the appropriate places for their boxes after consulting with postmasters and rural carriers as to the suitability of the places determined upon. It is thought that there is no warrant for the arbitrary removal of boxes from the roadside unless they are a menace to the traffic, at least until patrons have had an opportunity to conform with the requirements or to state their reasons for declining to do so. Should boxes be taken down temporarily by road officials or others in connection with road improvements or repairs care must be exercised that neither boxes nor their contents are damaged.

LITTLE AH SID Little Ah Sid was a Chinese kid, And a cute little boy, I declare, With eyes full of fun and a nose that begun Right up in the roots of his hair. He braided his quene like his father used to In China Land, far, far away, One day on the lawn that Ah Sid played upon A bumblebee flew in the Spring, "Ah! Mellican butterfly", he said with winking eye, "Me catch him and pull off his wing"; So then with his cap he gave it a rap, This innocent bumblebee, And he put the remains in the seat of his jeans, For a pocket had the little Chinese, So down on the green sat the little sardine In a style that was strangely demure; Yi! Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

MARY GRAHAM BONNER
TOYS AND DOLLS

"One story has reminded me of another," commenced Daddy. "The other day in a big museum where all sorts of old and quaint things are to be seen there was a special exhibition of dolls and toys."

"With Her Dear Little Mother."

"An exhibition, as you know, is something put on view for us to see. An exhibition of pigs at a county fair means that there are pigs being exhibited or being shown. "Or there may be an exhibition of drawings from the drawing class in school. "But this exhibition was of old, old toys and dolls. "About four thousand years ago there lived an important and noble gentleman who thought it would be interesting to have everything he owned copied into a toy. "So the boat that he went forth a-sailing in was copied. The animals he owned were all copied into little toys, too; so were his children and all the things that were a part of his life, too. "Every day he would watch his cattle go by and he had a toy made showing himself sitting and gazing upon the cattle as they went by—just such a toy as you will see today of a whole circus, only more interesting. "And these toys seemed more amazing and were so beautifully made. "When I say that he had his children copied into toys I mean that instead of having their pictures taken as people would do these days he had little toys made which looked just like his children. "Just as though I had some toy maker come and make a little figure to look exactly like Nick or exactly like Nancy—and yet it would be a toy doll! "And then he had a toy copy made of the kitchen boat that used to go alongside the boat he was in and at mealtime it would come up closer and the kitchen workers would pass over the meals. All of this was copied in toys. "There were toy copies made of both boats, you see, when close together and of the figures in the boats. "Oh, wonderful toys these were of so many, many, many years ago, and for a great, great many years these treasures were hidden in the ground. "When I saw these toys I thought at once of taking you both to see them soon, and we'll go, just as soon as eyes we can. "Both the children were delighted for they wanted to see just how these old, old toys were made. "And as I said, Daddy continued "the story I had to tell you of the dolls and toys reminded me of the little girl who was sick. "She had been sick for quite a long time. And her dolly felt so badly that she too had been sick. She had been in the bed with her dear little mother and she had been very quiet and very still as she did not want to disturb her mother. "And then, of course, she did not feel well herself. Oh, no, she didn't feel well when her darling little mother wasn't well. "But one day her mother began to feel much better and the doctor said: "She is so much better she can sit out in the sun today. "So they took her out in the sunshine and she sat in a little chair, feeling quite weak, but oh, ever and ever so much better. "And beside her sat her dolly, enjoying the sunshine, too. For just as soon as her mother had felt better she had felt suddenly so much better, too. "So together they had been sick and together they got well, and Mr. Sun did his work, never fear, both for the little girl and for her beloved dolly. "And he smiled more brightly each day than ever as he saw the strength come back to his nice little friend whom he had missed sadly when she had been ill. "For she had always been very fond of Mr. Sun, and he knew it, too!"

"Out in the Sunshine."

Quite True!
The schoolmaster had been giving his class a lesson in physical geography, and had explained that the world is made up of land and water. Then, in order to see if they had been giving attention, he asked: "Now boys, can you tell me what it is land and water make?" For some time there was silence, but presently a little boy put up his hand and when asked to give the answer, he replied: "Mud, sir!"

Odd Way of Drawing Water.

I took notes while we were at Epa, New Guinea, of a rather curious method of drawing water from the communal spring, half a mile from the village, writes Reginald Pound in the Wide World Magazine. Twice a day the women went down in chattering groups to the spring, carrying bamboo pipes 12 feet long. These pipes were made by forcing out the pith at the joints, and held about five gallons of water apiece. When full, the drinking end was plugged with leaves, the pipe being stood in a shady spot near its owner's house and used when needed. Incidentally, drinking from these weird receptacles was a rather hazardous business, care being necessary lest a too copious supply should gush out when the pipe was held to the mouth.

PURSE FOUND AND RESTORED TO OWNER

A few weeks ago Mrs. C. E. Donaldson lost a purse containing some valuables and much prized jewelry. She had circulars printed and distributed and an ad placed in the want column of the News the next week. Two weeks passed by and she heard nothing of the treasure. Then, one day, came a letter from a man who had found it and found her name among the articles in the purse. The purse was promptly restored to the owner, and Mrs. Donaldson was so delighted that she made a gift of a nice young horse to the finder of the purse. The gentleman who found the purse does not read the Lynn County News. If he were a subscriber, he would have seen the want ad, and would have restored the purse immediately, no doubt, to the owner, and she would have been spared a number of days of anxiety and suffering. W. P. BUSSELL ASKS YOUR SUPPORT

To the Voters of Precinct No. 1:
I come before you for the first time in life and ask you for your vote and influence for public weigher for Precinct No. 1. I feel like I can fill this office or I would not ask the people for it.

I came to Texas in 1900. I first settled near Whitewright, at a little village called Orangeville, in Fannin county. I lived there eleven years, then I moved to Ambrose in Grayson county. The Baptist church there called me as the pastor of the church and I served them four years. While I was pastor, we built a nice little church house and paid it out. Four years ago I moved to Lynn county and I have been here ever since. I have farmed all my life for a living and preached on Sunday. I have preached in Fannin and Grayson and I preach here. I have served the Baptist church at Lynn over a year.

I am serving Joe Bailey church on my second year, while I preach at several other places here. The people know me, or at least they know of me. I have had lots of bad luck, sickness and other things, and if I could be lucky enough to win this office I could pay my debts and get on my feet financially, and I know that no man would appreciate it more than I would. It is the gift of the people and you are going to give it to some one, and why not give it to me? I stand for better morals and a high standard of Christianity. Enforce the laws but no mob laws. I believe in fair and square deal with every man. I have got no rocks to throw at any one who might become a candidate for any office in the county. I am going to make my race clean and when I can't do that I leave the race. I have some nice men as my opponents, who I take to be gentlemen, and if I am defeated I will consider that I have been beaten by a real man. And you voters have this to settle between us and I will be satisfied with your decision. Hoping you will give me consideration, and if you feel that I am worthy of your support I surely will appreciate it.

Freshman Report

We are very glad to have Itylene Richardson back in school this week after recovering from flu.

Corene Brown, our reporter, is out of school this week on account of her mother's being sick.

We are very sorry that Ila Mae Wilson is unable to be in school this week.

Theopa Richards is unable to attend school on account of having measles.

Mildred May is having a hard time recovering from measles.

Our history and Algebra teacher reports that our past month examination papers are much better than usual. Come on Freshies we are not in the background after all.

Seventh Grade

We are beginning the seventh month of our work with renewed vim and interest. After six months of warning we have at last awakened to the full realization that school is not a dream, and that for promotion excellent grades from now on will be necessary. The meaning of the daily "hints" from our teacher is just beginning to dawn on us. We were made to realize very forcefully our limited knowledge when, on last week we were grouped for an English test being allowed all the time we wanted and help from members of our group, which resulted in grades ranging from 10 to 50.

But you should watch us work now in Reading we are writing an appreciation of the Stories of Authur, which will complete the last of the three we have written while studying this series of stories, the other two's having been analysis of certain events in the story. Next we shall take up project reading of current happenings.

In history we have been outlining our daily lessons which we have found to be very helpful. Just recently we completed our Note Books which consisted of abrief outline of the most important historical events, character and etc. Our daily work is improving wonderfully, so we have been authentically informed.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of expressing our thanks to our friends and neighbors of Wilson and Tahoka for their kindness and help after the accident and death of our beloved son and brother. With grateful hearts do we thank you for the beautiful floral offering and the loving words of sympathy. We pray this dark hour may never come to you, but if it should our prayer is that God will comfort you in your great hour of need.

aroused much interest among the members of the class, we believe we are really getting some practical values from this work.

Civics is gradually familiarizing us with the workings of our state and federal governments. We enjoy and need such enlightenment.

The odor of fresh varnish was stifling last week when the boys put the finishing touch to the serving tables for the Campfire Club room.

The girls have at last learned to use thimbles, and also that no seamstress can use railroad spikes (large needle) and twine (coarse thread) on dainty articles. They have likewise learned the difference between an embroidery needle and a common sewing needle. Their first "specimens" of art are now ready for exhibition.

These simple instructions in domestic art and manual training, are proving much more interesting and beneficial than the regular outlined art course. Several of the high school girls have been given permission, upon request to join our class in this work. We are glad to welcome them.

The bad weather on last Thursday and Monday has run our attendance record low. Our attendance percentage for the sixth month was 82 1-2 per cent.

Norvell Key missed his first day of school Thursday, since his entrance We hope the weather will soon clear up so that he may be back with us. He is formerly from East Texas and of course is not yet accustomed to such severe weather.

Vesta Cook is again able to be back in school after a slight spell of tonsillitis.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

During the past week the attendance of the fifth and sixth grades was fairly good. We had several absences due to sickness in the homes and other reasons. The pupils of the fifth and sixth grades have shown an improvement in work. Special drawing lessons are going to be given to these grades. Painting lessons will be given in crayola. The pupils are showing interest in this subject.

Fourth Grade

Our class is smaller this week than usual on account of so many students having the measles.

We hope that our classmates are soon well again. Those absent on account of sickness are: Elder Hillan Loyd Roxburgh, Girlie Richards, Dennis Dworaczky, Vernon Bradley, Mart Spencer and Ruth Shackelford.

Third Grade

We are very glad to have Lurline Davidson with us again. She has been out of school several days on account of sickness.

Maxine Jones was a pleasant visitor in our room Monday.

The pupils that are absent from our class this week on account of sickness are: Pansy Richards, Mary Ann Richards, Benjamin Boswell, J. T. Fountain, Inez Watson, Elouise Todd, George Dulin, Earl Cummings and Charlie Bird.

We hope that measles are soon out of style so that all of our folks can be together again.

First and Second Grades

The first and second grades report a very pleasant holiday on last Friday.

We are glad to have Edwin Deaver with us again after an extended visit with his Grandmother Dammonds of Frederick, Oklahoma.

Among our sick folks, who are unable to attend school are: Ruby Lambeth, Lorene Dambirck, Pauline Bradley, Placid Boswell, Thelma and Lee Richards.

T. H. S. WEEKLY ROUNDUP

MARY LINK, Editor

We are all satisfied with our grades made on exams this month, and we are now ready for another siege.

The class welcomed "Miss Muecke" yesterday, also Jess Key Lockhart is with us again. We sincerely hope that they will not leave us again.

The civics teacher has had us to study the Literary Digest on Friday of each week. This is very interesting as we learn all about the Teapot Dome dispute and other interesting facts.

In English we are studying the Southern Literary writers. In this we take up William Gilmore Simms, and Robert E. Lee. Our poem for this month will be "The Loft of Flowers" by Frost.

The Agriculture boys are still judging stock. They visited Dr. Windam's Ranch Tuesday morning and ran several unfortunate cows down to judge their beef qualities.

The sewing class is progressing nicely, as we are each beginning a dress for a child. There are many dainty little garments to be seen in the sewing room after nine o'clock.

We are dense when it comes to painting, plastering, papering and carpeting in arithmetic; but Mr. Cavness is patient, and tries to teach us the meaning of the problems involving these terms.

SOPHOMORES

We regret very much the fact that one of our most popular classmates Ruth Nevels, is leavin us, to go to school in Belton. Although we dislike so much to have to give her up, we are quite sure she will make many new friends in the school she will attend.

The wail of her classmates here bears this refrain:

"It won't seem like school when Ruth is gone."

Of course, she will come back to us next summer, but how are we going to manage to get along without her so long?

Mrs. Henderson, who has been teaching in Mrs. Tunnell's place is a splendid teacher, and we like her fine; but still we are glad that Mrs. Tunnell is able to be with us again. She must have us spoiled, for it seems that no one can quite fill her place.

Examinations are over for one more month. We hope that we every one will make such splendid grades this term that we shall all "go over the top" when we strike the final exams.

We are beginning to fear that Lillian Curry had left us for good, but no such thing was the case! She was at school again bright nd early Friday morning, just in time to catch some rather "stiff" examinations.

Allene: I'm so mad I could just die!
Margaret: What's the matter now?
Allene: R. E. Broke my doll.
Margaret: What on earth made him do that?
Allene: I hit him over the head with it.

Someone found Temple and Goddard in each others arms, the other day, weeping bitterly. When asked the cause of their grief they replied: "Ruth is going to leave."

EDUCATIONAL SURVEY BEING MADE

Public to be kept informed

FORT WORTH, Texas, Feb. 25—Patrons of the Texas schools will be kept fully informed of the progress of the educational survey now under way, so that they can judge for themselves whether or not they will want to make changes in the system. Dr

George A. Works, director of the survey, has accepted the offer of President G. O. Clouch of the Texas State teachers' Association to let the Association publish the findings as they are arrived at, step by step. Secretary R. T. Ellis of the teachers will furnish newspapers of the State with reviews of the survey.

The survey is being made by a group of experts in the various fields of education. President L. D. Coffman of the University of Minnesota; President C. M. Hill of the State Teachers College, Springfield, Mo., Dr. George F. Zook of the U. S. Bureau of Education, Washington, compose the staff to survey higher education institutions. Dr. Margaret Noonan of New York University, assisted by Dr. O. G. Brim of the Ohio State University, will survey the Courses of Study and Character of Instruction. Dr. P. J. Kruse of Cornell University will lead in the Tests and Measurements work. Dr. A. C. Parsons of Oklahoma City will study the Administrative Problems of City Schools. Dr. George A. Works, who is from Cornell, will direct the Rural School and Financial Support phases of the work.

Special studies will be made by the advisory committee, which has as members Dr. C. H. Judd of Chicago; Dr. Norman Frost of Peabody; Miss Stella Palmer of Little Rock schools; Dr. E. S. Evenden of New York; Dr. Carter Alexander, and Leo M. Favot of New York City. In addition to these, some 200 Texas school men and women will assist in the compilation of data on which the general commission will base its recommendations.

Dr. Works and Mr. Clough have asked the co-operation of civic clubs, county groups, and the groups which educational matters to help in carrying the message of the survey to all the people. Data will be furnished for the speakers, both through the newspapers and special pamphlets. Plans are under way for the organizations of speaking units in every county, and volunteers for that service have been asked to notify the county schools superintendents.

The survey, which was ordered by the Legislature last year, is under the direction of a general Educational Survey Commission, of which Governor Pat M. Neff is chairman. Other members are: Tom Finty, Jr., Dallas; Dr. P. W. Horn, Lubbock; Dr. T. D. Brooks, Waco; Hon. R. M. Chitwood, Sweetwater, Burl Bryant, Wichita Falls; Gus Taylor, Tyler; G. D. Staton, Canton; Sen. A. E. Wood, Granger; Mrs. Chalmers W. Hutchinson, Fort Worth; Mrs. Henry Redmond, Corpus Christi, and B. K. King, Douglas.

T-BAR TOPICS

(Delayed from last week)
Wells and T-Bar played basket ball Feb. 15th. Wells won T-Bar went to Wells Friday night and spelled against Wells. Wells came out winner. Never mind, T-Bar hasn't given up yet. There is plenty of room for improvement.

Muscles are getting plentiful again! here. The meetings of the literary society have been discontinued indefinitely on account of the measles.

T-Bar is making good toward purchasing a place for the community.

Quite a bunch of young people of our community attended church at Wells Sunday night.

Miss Alma Hunter visited her mother at Belton last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Curry visited her aunt, Mrs. Nichols, at T-Bar Monday.

DIXIE DOTS

We are still on the map, it didn't come enough snow to cover us up. Wasn't the snow fine especially what we had, but there wasn't enough to do much good.

Say, after what snow we have had went the farmers do some fine farming now. It was sure fine on what was already put up.

Our school is still getting along fine, there is about 60 in attendance now.

Last Friday evening Miss Roper visited the school, she enjoyed it very much. She is a teacher in the Wilson school.

In spite of the cold wind blowing from the North Sunday evening, Bro. Howell came out and preached.

Some of the other communities talk about their growing so rapidly, say, all of you people come to Dixie, and we will make it a fine community.

But, in spite of the snow Sunday, it has all gone now, but most of the people wish that it would come some more soon.
