Plans Start Shaping Up For July 4 Celebration

Plans are beginning to take shape for the big three-day events are beginning to fall into place. Mostly we lack only the date, the location, and the event will kick off with a breakfast scheduled by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This is to be followed by the old-timers reunion, and then will come judging in the Jaycee-sponsored beard growing contest which opens Tuesday. At noon will come the unveiling of "Old Pete", Muleshoe's statue to a mule.

That evening, the annual talent show will be staged at the stadium, followed by fireworks to be presented by the fire department. The entire program is being planned by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce.

Monday's program, as tentatively scheduled, opens with a dedication of a plaque at the old Muleshoe Ranch cookhouse, three miles west of Muleshoe.

The first day's events will wind up with fireworks. Sunday events include an old-fashioned camp meeting type of service, a sunrise event.

Only other event scheduled for Sunday to date is a Sunday evening choir program at the First Baptist Church, a musical program of American Heritage songs.

Reds Note Our Mule

Russia has taken note of the Muleshoe statue to the mule. Molodaya Gvardiya (Young Guard), a monthly literary-art novelty-political magazine published in Moscow by the Central Committee of the Soviet Union's Leninist Young Communist League, carried an article in April headed, "Rehabilitation of the Mule."

The article, translated by the Slavic Scientific and Technical Library in Boulder, reads: "Insulted by generations of muleteers and reproached for its renowned stubbornness, the mule is finally receiving recognition for its virtues."

Barry said the group reached this conclusion for five reasons:

1. Because more time is necessary to develop other items;

3. Because the area is already available and is called a city park;
4. Because it could more readily begin to meet community needs;

Spray new Caparol after cotton is 6 inches high to control weeds.

Control most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in cotton with new Caparol* herbicide. Simply apply as a directed spray to the base of your cotton when it is six inches or higher.

You'll get good knockdown of weeds and grasses that are less than two inches high... plus some killing action through the roots of later-germinating weeds.

The cost of this treatment, when Caparol is applied in a 10 inch band, can be as little as 85 cents per acre. Compare this with the $2-3 per acre it would cost you for hoe hands.

Later on in the season, you can go in and make a layby application of new Caparol to control weeds until the cotton is high enough to shade them out. With new Caparol, you'll have no reason to worry about soil residue carryover to harm next year's spring-seeded crops.

Ask your supplier for new Caparol. *CAPAROL is a trademark of the Geigy Chemical Corporation for its brand of PROMETRYNE® herbicide. Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Ardsley, New York.

Today's Meditation

By the Rev. Clifton T. Corcoran, pastor Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. Twentieth century communists, atheists and materialists, believe they will deal a death blow to all religions. According to Marx, scientific materialism proves that God does not exist and that doctrine or dogma is in disagreement with reason. This big atheist program should not be underestimated. It has one fifth of humanity under its heel.

Is the clock striking 12 for Christianity? Russia closed one more Seminary - colleges in Moscow a few weeks ago — the Amarillo News reported. For the believer, the answer is no. The gates of hell will never prevail, Christ said so. But the true way to be a Christian at the present time, said Cardinal Gerlier in France, is to put yourself in the unbeliever's place, to look with intelligent sympathy at his difficulties, his objections, his indifference, and even his hostility.

First, there is a definite awakening of religious thought. In all areas of research (history, philosophy, theology, Biblical exegesis, sociology) and of action (liturgy, the church's official worship, methods of apostolate, politics) Christians are giving a good account of themselves.

There is not separation of intelligence from reason. Atheism itself is studied with understanding and sympathy by ardent believers. The churches have always held to the rights of reason. It teaches that the existence of God is not of faith alone, for reason can demonstrate it.

The vatican council condemned a sed fideism according to which man could not attain to any truth without the assistance of God's revelation. It disputes the last word rests with reason. The churches were forced to abandon naive beliefs which had turned out to be untenable; cosmogony of the Bible, the direct creation of man's body by God, the supernatural explanation of all stigmata, More beliefs extraneous to the faith will be swept away with the advances of scientific Biblical exegesis and depth psychology.

The church holds that faith and intelligence are both gifts of God, and cannot contradict one another. It is hard to see how a religion so ready to submit to the demands of reason could disappear. The great mysteries of Christianity are outside the scope of reason, but not contrary to it. Were it otherwise, religion would have no excuse except as vague system of ethics and no benefit to humanity thirsting for the absolute.

Are we more interested in the morality of the ten commandments than in the Beatitudes as mentioned in Christ's sermon on the mount? Aren't we still frightened by Christ's ex-

WHY FUSS WITH WOOD?

NEW Panl-Frame GIVES YOU MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

NO BULKY FRAMES NO TRUSSES The Panel is the Building

If you're in the market for a low-cost, "do-it-yourself" farm building structure... You can draw up some plans, go down to the lumber yard, fiddle around with siding, rafters, poles — round up a crew — and then paint until you're blue in the face. And still wind up with just an ordinary wooden building.

You can buy a factory-made Butler Panl-Frame from us. An all-metal building that goes up fast and easy, because all the components are pre-cut and pre-joined to exact dimensions. For about the same total cost.

Panl-Frame is a brand new kind of metal building, with only a bare minimum of inside supports. How come? Because the panel is the building — big, strong wall and roof panels that function as both cover and frame. Panl-Frame suits almost any farm need. And you get a lifetime, weather-resistant, practically maintenance-free building to boot — one that won't sag or rot.

If you can put a nut on a bolt, you can build a Panl-Frame. We can build it for you, at a low turn-key price. Or we can do it together. Why not come in for some free Panl-Frame building plans now? Low-cost financing available.

Exotic Rice Sparks Fish Fare

Knife and fork travelers who bring foods of far away lands to their table rate Tibetan Rice tops. It artfully mingles Far Eastern staples—rice spiced with curry powder—and Western surprises—homogenized milk and sour cream. When milk's homogenized, every drop contains the same kinds and amounts of nutrients, all with a smooth, rich taste. Like sour cream, it imparts those proteins so important to meatless meals. Dark seedless raisins and flavored almonds pique Tibetan Rice's creamy, nut-like flavor. The Borden Kitchen coupled it with shrimp in the photo above, but it's equally good with any fish.

Tibetan Rice (Makes 4-5 servings)
 1-1/2 cups homogenized milk 2 teaspoons curry powder
 1/2 cup dark seedless raisins 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons flavored almonds 1-1/2 cups precooked packaged rice
 2 teaspoons sugar 1 cup sour cream

In medium-size saucepan combine milk, raisins, almonds, sugar, curry powder and salt. Bring to a boil. Remove from heat; stir in rice. Cover and let stand 5 minutes. Blend in sour cream; heat gently. Do not boil. Serve immediately.

 land is actually planted with some other crop.
 "This means that the real size of cotton allotments owned by skip-row growers will be reduced by over 30 percent, unless they plant cotton one row after another. But under this method, the land would deteriorate and the occurrence of soil and wind erosion would increase.
 "It is unjust and unfair to attack skip-row planting to reduce cotton production as it is only one of the reasons for increased production, along with irrigation, fertilizers or pesticides.
 "I have strongly urged that the Secretary of Agriculture think seriously of his responsibilities to these farmers and withdraw the proposed rule changes relating to skip-row planting of cotton."

 or criticism for use in its continuing deliberations.
 Barry said the entire study is for the purpose of "development of a system of public parks to serve the growing population of the Muleshoe area, as well as a program of operation and upkeep to encourage maximum utilization of such facilities."
 In summing up the committee's report, Barry told the Lions:

1. That considerable time will be necessary to achieve such a comprehensive objective and that immediate and long range planning will be required.
2. That an extensive public information and discussion program will be necessary to develop public knowledge and support and transform the people's stated desires into workable plans.
3. That a public park system should be so designed as to serve all the people, without favor to any particular group or geographical area, and
4. That, while volunteer groups and individuals may be involved in certain phases of park development, responsibility for continuing operation and maintenance of parks should be assumed by proper governmental bodies.

Let the committee seem presumptuous in stating these conclusions, it should be pointed out that there is no intention to preempt any authority or prerogative of any group, private or public. The committee only intends to give the most earnest consideration - to community needs, make useful studies, and then suggest, foster, encourage, and enhance.

After considerable exploration, the committee agreed on an initial program to set up groups to study the following areas:
 (1) Utilization and improvement of existing park areas
 (2) A large multi-purpose city or county park for picnics, etc.
 (3) Neighborhood playgrounds to serve an area within walking distance of homes
 (4) Possibilities of city-school cooperative facilities and operations

Library Plans Summer Club For Area Youth

A summer reading program is available for the May 31 - Aug. 1 period. Mrs. Bernis Camp, librarian pointed out Saturday. The High Plains Bookmobile also will have a summer reading program.

In a letter addressed especially to the young people who probably will use the summer program most, Mrs. Camp wrote:

"No, these aren't dirty words, — they are just spelled back-ward — E.A. — Boys and Girls, you won't be backward if you join the summer reading Club at the Mulshoe Area Public Library — it is sponsored by the Texas State Library, and last year over 40,000 boys and girls joined this vacation reading program to make it the largest in the state. It is called the Texas Reading Club, and is for young people. It is for the 1st grade on up — no age limit. So come one, come all. Register early — next week, if possible, and here is additional information on our club:

"1. The program dates are June 1, to August 31, 1965, this summer reading club, and read twelve (12) books of their choice, and reading level, will receive a certificate from the Texas State Library.

"2. Boys and girls who join this summer reading club, and read twelve (12) books of their choice, and reading level, will receive a certificate from the Texas State Library.

"3. A Reading Log will be furnished by the Texas State Library, on this, boys & girls will list the titles of the books they read. Each reader will fill in his own reading log.

"4. Readers will receive stamps, for each book they read which they will place on an attractive poster. We have 5 different colorful posters to choose from.

"5. During the first week, those registering for the Summer Reading Club Program, may also register for a gift to be given at the close of the first week. Sat. morning. Winners of this drawing need not be present to win.

"6. At the end of the summer reading club program, the librarian will award the certificates at a presentation ceremony, and those having earned a certificate will be placed on an "Honor Roll" in the library.

"This program is for all children who are able to read, but we have many wonderful books for the pre-school age children, and they are welcome to come and get books, if accompanied by their parents, or older person.

"Members of the AAUW club will be on hand one day a week, Wednesday, to assist with this program. This help is greatly appreciated. This club is highly commended for initiating the first summer reading program in 1964, and we hope the one this summer will be even more successful.

"The library welcomes all volunteer help, so if you have some time, an public service to your community — ask what you can do — you may even enjoy it."

Texas Legislature Set New Record For Total Number Of Laws Passed

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — Tabulation of the activities of the Texas Legislature reveals that the current body has produced more new laws than any of its predecessors.

This is a remarkable achievement in view of the pressing time - taking demands of re-districting and increased spending, as well as the controversy on raising the pay of teachers and increasing taxes.

ELECTION CALLED — Governor Connally has called a special election for June 26 in District 78 to elect a successor to Rep. Ed J. Carpenter of Columbia, who died May 11. District is made up of Martin, Howard, Glasscock, Sterling, Coke, Reagan and Irion Counties.

Candidates may file up to 30 days before the election. Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin says applications for ballot must be in his office by May 27.

OIL ALLOWABLE UP — Railroad Commission decided state oil production should be held to 28.1 per cent of potential. That would set the June allowable at 2,900,000 barrels daily. May production, under 27.2 per cent order, was maximum of 2,800,000.

NEW COLLEGES — Texas' 23rd and 24th state senior colleges are about to be designated, subject to approval of the higher education coordinating board.

Both houses approved a senior college at Odessa. Texarkana college bill was passed by Senate and promptly approved by House Committee.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Connally named R. W. Wolford Cain of Dallas to the board of Texas A & M University.

amendment to remove restriction on soldier voting has legislative approval and will be submitted to voters. House members voted to remove requirement that jurors in capital cases not be opposed to death penalty. Firearms control bill sponsored by National Rifle Association, which already has Senate approval, advanced to House floor with committee blessing. House state affairs committee recommended passage of resolution calling on congress not to repeal state right to work laws. Senate committee gave its o.k. to House - passed proposed constitutional amendment to allow Texas to match federal medicare program funds. Governor approved new Neighborhood Youth Corps job programs in Tarrant County, San Antonio and Beaumont. Senate approved a compromise bill on "equal rights" regardless of sex. Both houses approved repeal of the law which prohibits roping contests for money or prizes. A try to get a five-year moratorium on executions adopted on the Code of Criminal Procedure revision failed, but Rep. Charles Whitfield's bill to abolish capital punishment still is on the House calendar. Also on the House calendar is a bill by Rep. John Alaniz of San Antonio to let Texas participate in the federal food - stamp program which lets needy families get food at their local grocery stores with coupons, furnished by the federal government through the state. A proposed amendment to create a Nebraska - type unicameral legislature was voted down by the Texas House of Representatives.

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1 1/2 inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broad-leaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs. And you can now graze or feed forage to livestock from treated sorghum fields 60 days after Atrazine application.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide.
