A War Map Showing Scene of Europe's Troubles

VERYBODY seems to be fighting somebody these days in Europe. No one can tell where the terrible complications between the nations will stop. The long threatened campaign of England and France against Germany has finally burst forth in all the fury of deadly war, and Russia and Austria-Hungary are vitally interested parties. The accompanying map shows the vast stage where the tragic drama is being enacted.

A NEWS WANT AD WILL GET I'.

How And When To Fill A Silo

Many men will fill silos for the hrst time this year, and some information as to when and how to fill a silo may not be out of place.

The greater part of the silage this year, in the Panhandle, will be made from kafir, milo, feterita and sweet sorghum. The proper time to cut this feed for silage is when the seed are in the stiff dough stage and the bottom leaves begin to turn brown, for at this stage the plant will have its maximum nutritive value and yet be green enough to keep well in the

The feed should be cut with a best year to have a fair we have row binder, as this is the most economical method when one has products with any body and we a large amount to cut

In hauling the feed from the field to the silo, a wagon with a low-down bed is much better than start something at once for the one with a regular hay frame, as the green bundles are rather heavy

Enough wagons should be used Sunday "Long sermons cause men to keep the feed hauled out of the field as fast as it is cut. Do not leave the teed in the field to wilt

Does Prohibition Fulfill Its Promises?

Thinking people of every religious creed and political belief should give earnest heed to the expressions of opinion from eminent divines, educators, editors, governors, judges, legislators, and others prominent in every walk of life, who have publicly voiced their sentiments concerning prohibition in words similar to

"Prohibition drives underground the mischief which it seeks to cure, making it more difficult to deal w the evil and impossible to regulate the trade." Bishop Hall, Vermont.

"Prohibition has been disastrous to the cause of temperance." Bishop Clark, Rhode Island.

These men are sincere and conscientious. They deplore drunkenness and cry against it as a great evil. Who, indeed, does not? Yet they know from observation and experience, that prohibition does not put a check upon intemperance but that, on the contrary, it gives rise to evils even greater than intemperance itself.

TO RENT ADVERTIS and become partly cured before boodes putting into the silo, as a part of the nutritive value may be lost, & and if dry it will not keep as well, It is especially advisable to take as large a load as possible each trip, for as the feed is green loads of large bulk can not be handled, and if a wagon is only partly loaded each time the expense of filling the silo will be greatly increased. If one has strong wagons and good drivers, four-horse teams may be used to advantage.

Silage should be eut into onehalf inch lengths, as it packs in much closer than when left longer, thus crowding out the air, and the silage keeps bet'er. The capacity of the silo is also increased and there is less waste in feeding. as all will be eaten.

The power required to run the silage cutter, with blower attached ! is ordinarily figured at one horsepower for each inch of cutterthat is, a fifteen inch cutter will require a fifteen horse-power gasoline engine, but in filling a pit | silo where no blower is required, only about half this power is needed.

important part in filling a silo is the packing of the silaga. The silage must be packed well if it is to keep, for this packing forces out the air and the essential thing in making silage is the exclusion of air. If air spaces are left in the silo, large amounts of silage will be lost. In a silo 12 feet in diameter and with a small cutter, use two or more men. In large silos and filling with large cutters, keep three or more men in the silo and see that they tramp all the time. Pack the edges next to the wall; he middle will take care of itself.

When the feed is green no water need be added in making silage, but if the feed has begun to dry or cure in the field some water should be run into the silo with the cut teed. This is done to bring the moisture content of the feed nearer to its natural state, to make the Let Shed Weathers do your feed pack down better, and help exclude the air. One safe rule in this matter would be; if in doubt run in some water. Water will not hurt the silage if there is no excess, and every silo should have either a dirt floor or a drain, which will let any excess of water escape. The best place to add the water is to run it into the blomer while cutting.

As six or more inches of silage at the top will spoil, it is some-, mes advisable to cover the top with some cheap or worthless feed. A layer of cut oat straw is sometimes run in for a covering for the silage and wet down and weil tramped. This forms a seal and preserves all the feed. When feed-PAPER REPRESENTED FOR FOREIGN ing is begun, all this top layer of sported stuff should be turown

It is advisable to tramp the top of the silage every day for ten days or two weeks after the silo is filled, as this helps to force out the air and tends to prevent the Star Mills and pl I silage from settling away from the

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTIONS. [S. J. R. No. 26]

Re it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That at the next general election of the State of Texas for the election of State officers, or at a previous general election, in case a general election for the State shall be sooner ordered by the Governor for other purposes, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Texas, for their adoption or rejection, the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, as provided for in Section 1. Article 17, of said Constitution, relating to proposed amendments thereto, it being intended to amend Section 24, Article 3, of said Constitution, relating to the pay of members of the Legislature, and extension of term of regular sessions, so that the said Section shall read as follows:

Section 24. The members of the Legislature shall each receive from the public treasury as compensation for their services twelve hundred ($1200.00) dollars for the year in which each regular session of the Legislature is held, payable in equal installments on the twentieth days of January, April, July and October of the year in which the regular session is held, and five dollars per day for each day of every special session held in the year next succeeding that in which any regular session is held. In addition to said compensation the members of each house shall be entitled to miteage going to and returning from the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed five cents per mile, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel by land, regardless of railways or water routes; and the comptroller of the State shall prepare and preserve a table of distances to each county seat now or hereafter to be established, and by said table the mileage of each member shall be paid. Each regular session shall continue until the business of such session is disposed of.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to disposed of.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the recessary proclamation submitting this amendment to be voted upon by the qualified electors for members of the Legislature, at the first general election to be held in this State. Those favoring the amendment shall have written or printed on their bailots the words: ."For amendment to Section 24 of Article 3 of the Constitution increasing compensation of the Legislature, and extending the length of the regular session of the Legislature." Those opposing said amendment shall written or printed on their ballot the words: "Against amendment to Section 24, of Article 3, of the Constitution increasing compensation of the members of the Legislature, and extending the term of regular sessions of the Legislature."

Sec. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much

Sec. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses of such proclamation, publication and election.

(Note.—8. J. R. No. 26 passed the Senate by a two-thirds vote, yeas 26, nays 0, and Senate concurred in House amendments by a two-thirds vote, yeas 23, nays 1; and was passed by the House of Representatives with amendments by a two-thirds vote, yeas 101, nays 22.)
