THE PATH FINDER

TRIES ROUTE

The Plainview News representative who made the trip from that city to San Angelo with the Path Finder and party, gives outline of the route that the race will cover:

"Do you want to go with the Path Finder," asked Mayor De-Lay of the News man last Saturday afternoon. "Certainly," he replied. "Then get ready," said the Mayor, and inside of half an hour we were equipped for the trip.

A little explanation might be in place here, so we will state for the benefit of the News readers that the "Path Finder" is the car which is looking out the route for the International Auto race which begins at Denver, Colo., on October 16 and ends in the City of Mexico presumably inside of forty days, the entire distance to be covered being about 2,400 miles.
The racing autos will enter Texas at Texline thence to Dalhart, Dumas, Amarillo, Canyon City, Happy, Tulia, Kress, Plainview, Lubbock, Tahoka, Lamesa, Soash, Big Springs, Sterling City, Water Valley, Cerrisbad, San Angelo, thence to Menardville, Kerrville, San Antonio, and from thence west to Eagle Pass, where it will cross the border and via Torren to the City of Mexico. There will be from forty to one hundred cars and from one hundred to three hundred people in the race. It is an insurance test, and will be the biggest advertisement for the sections through which it passes of any of the many attractions of the year, as when the race begins the eyes of the motorists of the world will be on it and its route all during the continuance.—Plainview News.

You cannot beat our prices at the Railroad. 8lbs. good coffee $1.00 8lbs. better coffee $1.00 at Jack Alley Co's West Side the Square.

Judge Henry, of Floydada, accompanied by Ott Gamble, of the same place, spent the week end with Mrs. Bartley, Judge Henry's daughter.

We are going to have a railroad certain, but that don't prevent Jack Alley Co. on West Side the Square from selling every thing at bedrock prices.

SIGNIFICANT.

The other day a merchant in a nearby town saw a farmer receiving goods from a Chicago mail order house, says the Muscotah (Kan) Record. The goods were in his line and the same had been carried in his store for years. He approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you every article you have there for less money than you paid the Chicago house, and saved you the freight, besides."

"Then why on earth didn't you say so?" answered the farmer. "I have taken the Muscotah Record for years, and have never seen a line about your selling these goods.
The Chicago house sent advertising matter to me asking for my trade, and they got it."—Western

THE NATIONAL GAME, Some Professionals.

As Base Ball is the National Game, and as the season is now at its height, perhaps The News readers would like to know a little about some of the most prominent players.

The writer of this article never saw a professional game, and does not know personally any of the men of whom she writes. But she does read some of the newspapers and a few of the magazines, and does know something about some of them, other than what she has gained from the columns of any of these publications.

Time was when Base Ball was considered a rough and tumble game, unworthy of notice by decent people. If a young man who was an expert player at college, wished, after graduation to join a Professional Ball Team, his parents, his brothers, "his sisters and his cousins and his aunts," and most of his friends all set their faces like a flint against it, and if he persisted in his determination, they were offended and disgusted.

Times have changed, and now if he is successful as a player (in one of the big Leagues, at least) they are proud of him. Many of those on professional teams today are College and University graduates. It is they who have renovated Base Ball, and made it over from the "rough and tumble game, played by a gang of rowdies for the pleasure of a crowd of hoodlums," as one New York merchant defined it a few years ago.

Base Ball now is an intellectual, athletic game, played by educated, polished men—it requires brains as well as muscle now-a-days.
Take a few of the best players, men who are welcome and popular in any society they might seek—Three at least of the New York Giants are College men. One, a graduate of Brown University—lecturer, writer, settlement-worker, literary, musical, dramatic and art critic—and an artist himself of no mean talent. He is married, and has a family of children, whom he is doing his best to bring up in the right way, and by all accounts is meeting with good success. When out on the road with his team he has frequent calls to lecture, and never refuses.
Boston Boys idolize him and long before the season opens the east side boys New York begin to ask, "When is he coming again?" Boston claims him, though his home is at Winthrop Beach.
That is Fred Tenney, Second Baseman.

Another is a Pennsylvanian by birth, but a resident of Manhattan for many years. He is a graduate of Pucknell University, a Church man, a model citizen, with no bad habits, an honest business man, who, when not out with the team, is an Insurance Broker and can be found at his office every day during business hours. Is married and devoted to his family. That is Christie Mathewson, pitcher for the Giants, said to be one of the two best pitchers in the field to-day, the other being Brown of the Cubs.

The third is a Washington, D.
C., man—graduate of Georgetown University. He married the daughter of a wealthy Chicago Trust Magnate and has a beautiful home at Washington, which is a musical and literary center, and to which his talent as a musician contributes much pleasure. He is fond of society and loves his home, but when the Diamond calls him he is always ready to answer "here." That is Arthur Devlin, their third Baseman.

The Manager of the Chicago Cubs is a Californian—a graduate of the University of Washington.
When a boy he was one of the best players on the Fresno High School team and must have been a born base ball player, for he has managed the Cubs better than any other manager has done by his team, and only one other has done anywhere near so well. He has two homes—one in Chicago, open during the Ball Season, but another in California, to which he goes to spend the winter in planning the next season's campaign for his club. That is Frank Leroy Chance.

Another of the Cubs is, when the season is through, a Shoe dealer and the idol of his home city, Troy, New York. When he goes home the whole town turns out to meet him. Not long ago Governor Hughes, of New York, was on the same train with him, and on reaching Troy, beheld a brass band, a lot of decorated carriages and a big crowd of people assembled. Of course he thought it was all for him, and turning to one of his party remarked, "This is indeed an honor." His astonishment may be imagined when instead of hurrahing for him, the crowd gathered about a slender young fellow, and rushed him off to the best carriage amid the cheers of the crowd and the music by the band. The Governor "wasn't in it a minute" with Sohrny Ivers, Second baseman of the Cubs.

Concluded Next Week

According to the Herald, W. J.
Bryan will be in Big Springs September 16 and 20 and will deliver two lectures there on that date.

Crockery at the Tahoka Hardware Company to fill every want of the housewife and dairy maid.

Miss Margrette Whipp entertained her young friend at a birthday party August 16 it being her sixth birthday. A birthday spread was provided by which her little friends did ample justice. All report a very pleasant time and wish their charming little hostess many happy returns of this pleasant occasion.

An enterprising citizen of Lubbock recently sent an ad to the daily papers announcing that there was a splendid opening for another newspaper in Lubbock. People living in other towns have always considered the Avalanche a good newspaper; doing all it could for its town and community—doing as much as its patronage would justi-fy. If the editor should ever discover the writer of that ad, he will no doubt find that he is a mail order fiend, and has been borrowing a neighbor's Avalanche every week to see what is going on, and incidentally, save that subscription dollar to pay postage on the small order of stationery he gets about once a year from some mailorder print shop.—Western Light.

More likely it is a case of sour grapes. In its work of building up Lubbock, the Avalanche has likely induced a competitor of the ad writer to settle in Lubbock, and he by advertising in the Avalanche is getting all the business, so the poor disgruntled fellow wrote the ad, not for the purpose of building up Lubbock or patronizing the new paper, but just to get even. He did not stop to think that if a new paper came the Avalanche might live through it, but as his competitor would advertise in both papers he himself would be ruined. But, what will not a man do for spite?

HON. JOE BAILEY TO SPEAK.

The Hon. Joe Bailey will speak at Plainview Friday, Aug. 27th at 2 o'clock p. m. Everyone, who can make it convenient to do so, should take advantage of this opportunity to hear the Hon.
Joseph. He is a great man and should receive the homage of his many admirers. We hope all our Tahoka men, who believe in Mr. Bailey as one of the great men of the day, will embrace this opportunity to see and hear this great man.

FRISCO BUILDING

THIS WAY.

Messrs. E. Dowden and A. E. Harp, of Plainview, accompanied by their mechanics, passed through here last Thursday for home after making a run to Paducah to meet Chief Allison Mayfield, of the State Railway Commission and Senator D. E. Decker, of Quanah, and the advance corps of officials of the Frisco railway system, who are prospecting this country preparatory to extending the Frisco line from Paducah to connect with the Santa Fe at Plainview.

This line would give the South Plains country a direct fast route to Kansas City and Saint Louis, cut down freight rates and open up the possibilities of this part of the Plains for a quicker and more substantial development, which will make Floydada the distributing point for Crosby, Motley, Dickens, Garza, Kent, and King counties, all of whose trade has heretofore gone to Plainview. Stop and think for a moment what this will mean for little old Floydada.
Great wholesale industries, manufactories, colleges, and population will swell the town to incomprehensible proportions.

Of course this is merely the advance guard of the Frisco people, but they evidently have their eyes on the proposition seriously else they would not waste their time investigating.

"Bonuses and brains build cities," now is the time to approach them with a proposition to build through here. Plainview heard a very faint rumbling sound far in the south that savored of railroad building, and immediately dispatched a representative to ferret out the chances of her getting the road. Now it behooves Floydada to emulate her example—and do not wait for some one else to lead—get in the lead and do something that will rebound to her upbuild and make of her an example to be followed by those behind her in enterprise.

The Frisco is now laying steel out of Quanah as far as Paducah, and the officials do not mean for Paducah to be their stopping point. They will traverse the Great Plains country connecting with some line on the Plains or in New Mexico. It remains to be seen just what portion of the Plains their line will traverse, but the indications point strongly toward Plainview being their terminal, passing thru Floydada.—Hesperian.

Now on our map Tahoka is right in line with Quanah and Paducah, and it looks to us as though this would be worth look into.

MOVEMENTS OF THE FRISCO.

There is something a little mysterious in regard to the movements of the Frisco. They have a corps of surveyors in the field working out from Brady. Just where their destination is, is uncertain.
Some think they intend moving south to San Antonio. Others, with equally as good reason, think they intend to go to Del Rio. This opinion is supported by the fact that Mr. Yoakum, president of the road has recently purchased a large tract of land, near McKavett, directly on the route to Del Rio, besides this is the original route the Fort Worth & Rio Grande road intended to take. It will not be long before the intentions of this road will be revealed.—Coleman County News.

Tell me not in mournful numbers that the town is full of gloom, for a man's a crank that slumbers in these bustling days of boom. Life is real life is earnest and the grave is not its goal, every dollar that thou turnest helps to make the old town roll. But enjoyment and not sorrow is our destined end or way; if you have no money borrow—buy a corner lot each day.

Lives of great men all remind us, we can win immortal fame.

Let us leave the chumps behind us and we'll get there just the same.—Ex.

METHODISTS TAKE NOTICE.

After several weeks in co-operation meetings let us now remember that services will be held regularly every Sunday morning and night at the Methodist Church. I have some special themes which I wish to present, and which I wish all the Church to hear.

All are invited to attend Sunday School. We need you and you need the benefits of the School.

J. T. HOWELL, Pastor.

Miss Mattie Montgomer accompanied her sister, Mrs. Grace Henderson, to her home last Saturday. Sunday afternoon Will Montgomery, Rube Lewis, Jim Mackfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams arrived and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.
Mr. and Mrs. Henderson treated their guests to ice cream, and later in the afternoon several nice melons were cut.

Baby Dies

Wesley Dyer Hawthorne, aged 2 months and 12 days, died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dyer, of east of Tahoka, Aug. 25th 1909.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne came from Jones county to attend the family reunion at Mr. Dyer's, all the children being at home for the first time in several years.
It is very sad, indeed, that so joyous an occasion should be clouded by so much sorrow.
The loving Savior says, "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." This blessed assurance gives to us comfort in the darkest hour, and bids us strive to meet the loved ones gone before.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Howell at the Tahoka cemetery Aug.
25 at 5 o'clock. The many friends of the family join in sympathy for them in their bereavement.

TRAINS AT ADRAIN.

The Rock Island steel gang drove the first spike in the blooming young city of Adrain last Tuesday morning and the steel was laid to the junction of the C. H. & G. grade by noon, when the screaming whistle of the engine awoke the natives and scared the antelopes from Adrain Heights, where they were accustomed to graze peacefully during the day.

A number of new business houses are being erected and several new merchants are going in. One from Clovis is moving his entire stock of goods to Arain.—Hereford Brand.

ness. Almost new. A bargain.—J.

CURIOUS HURTS

An exchange in glancing over its has discovered a number of cases where people have been injured in various parts of the anatomy.
Here are a few cases cited:

While Miss Pearl Kinsmore of East Wind, Ind., was coming down stairs Tuesday she slipped and bruised herself on the landing.

Amos Mittleby, of Woolpost, Kas., while harnessing a fractious horse was kicked just south of the corn crib. He is able to be out again.

While Harold Green, of Benlah, was escorting Miss Violet Goof home from a church social Saturday night a savage dog set upon them and bit Miss Goof four times on the public square.

Joseph Tutt, of Grimelsburg, Iowa, climbed on the roof of his house last week to find a leak and fell, striking on his back porch, causing serious injuries.

Isiah Trimmer, of Dolbery, Neb., was playing with a cat Friday when the animal scratched him on the veranda.

FRIDAY, AUG. 20, 1909.

The man who advertises is the man who gets the trade.

We would like to see a county with less rain and finer crops than has been our portion this year.

The man who owns a little strip of Lynn county dirt is strictly in the swim, and the man who owns a big strip is fortunate indeed.

Tahoka is fulfilling the promise of her earlier days. Steady growth of a substantial nature has always been the keynote of all improvements within her limits.

Times have been dry and hard for Lynn county this year, but we steadily improve. New buildings are going up and new business enterprises are being established.

We should begin to agitate a better and larger school building. Something which will be a credit to the town and furnish adequate accommodation to our ever growing school population.

The man who has done nothing toward helping with the bonus, can well afford to do so now, at the advanced price of land. A very small slice of land will make a liberal donation toward the bonus.

The trees which were planted along sidewalks last year have done nicely, no loss having resulted from the drouth. They greatly improve the looks of the streets and enhance the value of adjacent property.

Tahoka raised and guaranteed the bonus for the railroad last week. This week the real estate dealers are employed in raising real estate, which has been changing hands at a rapid rate; also a rapid advance in price.

The Floyd County Hesperian has the following in the issue of last week: "Returning from Afion the cars made the trip in one hour and twenty-five minutes, a distance of some ninety-five miles."

And we believe every word of it?

We are glad to welcome to our exchange table this week, the Hale Center Live-Wire, under the management of Black and Jenkins as editors and proprietors. (Vol. I, No. 1, is any criterion of what the paper is to be in the future, we are sure they have chosen the right name and will prove to be a "live wire" indeed, giving to their town light on all subjects, and power to push the car of progress along the road to success.

We wish the Live-Wire a long and prosperous career and the hearty support of the town in which it has cast its lot.

We wish Bros., Black & Jenkins all success in their chosen field and extend to them the hand of fraternal fellowship and hope the "Live-Wire" they have so deftly launched on the sea of journalism may never give them any of the shocks which are the common lot of printers, and also that it may electrify their town into a growth exceeding their wildest dreams.

HUTTO & FLETCHER

Wholesale and Retail Dealers In GRAIN AND COAL
 We will handle all kinds of feed and country produce and pay highest market prices
 Come In And See Us
 Side Square, Tahoka, Texas

A clean town is a live town. A pleasant place to visit and a healthy place to live.

It is bad taste for a paper to throw mud at the non-advertisers. Our mothers taught us we should never make unkind remarks about the dead.

Look for the business man who is dissatisfied and wishes to sell. Then look in the home paper and you will fail to find him represented in the advertising columns.

"Cleanliness is next to Codliness." Keep the body and surroundings clean and neat and there is very little hope for vice of any kind to thrive. A clean town materially is usually a clean town morally.

Get in the band wagon and boost our town all it will stand. The railroad is a sure thing and we must make the most of present and future opportunities.

Tahoka is feeling the new life the surety of a railroad gives to any town. Those who have stayed by the town during its infancy will now reap the reward they so richly deserve.

We have a feed store in Tahoka the proprietor of which proposes to handle all the grain raised in the county. Men of this type keep a town going some. He is a credit to his town as well as a comfort to the man with produce to sell. A ready market and a sure one brings trade to a town.

The waste paper nuisance which once annoyed the householder and was an eye sore to every one is a thing of the past.

Our merchants and business men make it their care to gather and burn every thing that is unsightly.

The ever present tin can no longer reposes in the middle of the streets, but is relegated to the dumping ground outside of town. This is what united effort will do.

We are told there is a marked fatality among the hogs in town, the only ones so afflicted being the ones running loose. The trouble seems to be epidemic though not contagious. Some people say it is caused by eating the neighbors chickens and others say too close proximity to a shot gun.

However, the hogs seem to be in trouble, so are the chickens. The only cure for this trouble is a good stout pen applied all around the hogs so affected. Try this remedy for a sure cure for the trouble.

CAN'T BE VERY SCARCE.

Who says cash is scarce and hard to get? A prospector wanted to buy a lot on Porterfield street north of the square this week, and although he had the cash and the disposition to part with it, he could not find any one interested enough to exchange a lot on that street for some of his cash.

WHY THE DIFFERENCE?

Poor, old Cresson. We came through Cresson, which by the way, is a railroad crossing in Johnson county, eight years ago and again last week and so far as we could see there was not a new house there except the bank building. The entire place had an air of delapidation that almost gave one the blues to go through on the train. Just think about it; a town in a good country too, that has both a north and south and east and west railroad and has only grown seedy in eight years. Out on the Plains it only takes railroad prospects for the towns to grow by leaps and bounds.

HAULING WATER FROM STANTON
 The supply tank of the T. & P. railroad company at Big Springs has been exhausted and now all water for machinery and engines used in that town is being hauled in cars from the inexhaustible supply at the stand pipe in Stanton. While you hear a great deal from time to time about the great resources and advantages of towns, the real proof comes during a dry season when a town's water supply is deficient. No such calamity ever happened to our town nor is it likely to occur here with hundreds of wells in every part of town at a shallow depth from which the supply cannot be pumped with the largest machinery. We have no desire to crow over the misfortunes of a sister city and only use this instance to show what Stanton has in the way of a water supply.—Reporter.
 The above ought to have some weight when it comes to deciding where the Santa Fe shall cross the T. & P.

NEW BUTCHER

John McLeod has sold the Butcher Shop and City Meat Market to R. R. Dick and Dee Gilmore. We are glad to welcome the new firm, while we are sorry to lose John from his old place.

The new management expect to improve the business, and the town will have a market which will be a credit to a much larger place.

It has been in the market long enough to know the trade and will give satisfaction to everyone.

The aim of the new firm will be to have fresh meat on hand at all times, and nice barbecue every other day.

The new firm will appreciate the continued custom and goodwill of the people.

Patronize home industry and help your town to grow. Tahoka has one of the best markets on the Plains and has always been fortunate in having the best barbecued meat to be had anywhere.
