For Tax Assessor.

We are authorized to announce in this weeks paper Mr A. S. Coughran as candidate for re-election to the office of Tax Assessor of Lynn County Texas. Mr. Coughran came here from Coleman county and was elected to the office of Tax Assessor in April 1903. Mr Coughran has tried to make a faithful servant of the people in this office and if re-elected will of course continue to perform the duties of the office to the best of his abilities. Mr. Coughran is well known all over the county and it would be useless for us to do more than call attention to the fact that he has announced for re-election and asks the consideration of ever voter.

SCRAPPING OVER

"BUSTER BROWN."

The New York Herald and the New York American are scrapping in the courts over the copyright of "Buster Brown" which Outcault the artist made famous. The Herald has temporarily won title to the copyright to the phrase "Buster Brown" but the American has Outcault. He can't be copyrighted. He is still drawing the only and inimitable Buster. The Fort Worth Record has the feature exclusively in north Texas. It appears regularly in Sunday edition of the Record which is about the best all round Sunday newspaper in these parts.

See our swell line of gents clothing—Ray & Axson.

Mr. G. W. Wells, of Colorado City, Texas, has bought lots here and with Mr. J. E. Stokes our Hotel man will build a sheet iron building in Tahoka and go into the hardware business. Mr. Wells shows that he is a good business man by subscribing for the Lynn County News for a year. A hardware business ought to and will do well here and we are glad to see two such genial men as Messers. Stokes and wells take hold of it.

A full line of extra values in boys clothing at Wells & Welcher's. Sizes from 4 years up to 14. This is a good chance to fix your boy up right.

Messers. W. G Howard of Millford Ellis county and P. B. Bookman of Navasota are here this week prospecting.
