NEW RAILROAD TALK

New Surveys and Extensions Being Made
All Over West Texas---Time to Work for Tahoka Road.

THE STANTON-LAMESA ROAD.

The following extracts from the Stanton Reporter of last week leads one to believe that the railroad proposition that Stanton and Lamesa have been laboring with for the past eighteen months, may yet terminate in a railroad. The Reporter says:

"E. G. Salsler, owner of Brownlee, has just placed in the First National Bank a note for $30,000 payable to T. J. O'Donnell, the promoter of the road from here to Lamesa. This note calls for a railroad within a specified time over the grade now almost completed from Stanton, through Brownlee to Lamesa.

"We also understand a move is on foot upon the part of some Stanton capitalists by which the sum of $50,000 is to be placed in the bank at once calling for the same road.

There are Hereford, Colorado and Gulf surveyors west of town playing around on several surveys. These surveys may spell something for Stanton and they may not, but the Stanton-Brownlee-Lamesa proposition is now an assured fact and our people should not be disturbed over the H. C. & G. passing by on the other side, as this line as yet is only a preliminary one and in due time we suppose Stanton is not antagonistic and when the time comes she will show how she is capable of digging up on any reasonable bonus proposition she may be asked for.

Citizens of Stanton, every man to your gun! Get busy, Lamesa, we're coming."

PATIENTLY WAITING.

The people of West Texas are really anxious for the legislature to adjourn for fear that they will pass some kind of a bill that will retard the building of railroads through this sparsely settled section of the state. A dispatch from Brownwood says: "It is confidently believed here that if the thirty-first quits business without passing legislation mimical to the interests of the railroads of the state that Brownwood will see the Texico cut-off built this year by the Santa Fe. In fact it is rumored that work on this link in a transcontinental line is being held up until it is ascertained just what will be done with Governor Campbell's demand for two cent fares."

If the above be true and we do not doubt that it is, it is no wonder that the people of the west are anxious for the adjournment of that "August Body." The people of Lubbock are also greatly interested in the completion of this line of road, as it is a trunk line through our city, and a very important one too. It is the general opinion of the people of this section of the state that work will begin on this connecting link of the Santa Fe this year.

We are of the opinion that they need not fear that a two cent fare bill will pass this session of the legislature. The present body of representatives seem to be able to do nothing more than quarrel among themselves, and draw their "five-a-day."—Lubbock Avalanche.

SURVEYORS HERE AGAIN.

The surveying crew of the Southwestern Construction Company arrived in Lubbock the latter part of last week, and have been surveying the town, since their arrival here. They have not made any new surveys, but have re-run the former lines through the Overton addition, and it is the general belief that this will be the route which they will finally decide to build on. We will no doubt know for sure "where we are at" in another week which will place us all in position to act with more intelligence. Nothing has been given out as yet to derive anything definite from, in regard to the location of the right-of-way through town.—Lubbock Avalanche

DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

The Plainview District Conference of the M. E. Church South, will convene in Tulia, Texas, May 25th, 1909.

W. S. Swan and T. M. Bartley are ex-officio members of that Conference. The delegates elected are Lee A. Womack, H. C. Crie, W. E. Porterfield, and S. C. McCarty, with C. G. Alford and Jno. A. Coughran alternates.

The individual personal benefits accruing to each delegate from attendance upon this Conference will be manifold, besides evidencing to outsiders that the interests of the Church in Tahoka are not ignored. Last year Tahoka had no representation at this annual gathering, and, being one who was in a position to know, I can assure you the impression was not complimentary to Tahoka Methodism.

Let each delegate begin now to make preparation to go, so that when the roll is called, excuses will not have to be made for Tahoka.

J. T. HOWELL, PASTOR.

Good Money in Raising Millet.

O. C. Axtel, of Spring Lake neighborhood, and whose farm is near the line in Castro county, was in Dimmitt Monday to market his millet, which brought $1.50 per bushel. Off of 80 acres he thrashed 1100 bushels that netted at the market $1,650.00.

This was on sod land and the land cost $15 per acre; breaking of land $2 an acre; cutting $1 an acre and a whole cost of about $1,528 on the 80 acres.

After paying for the land and all costs of planting, harvesting, thrashing, etc., he cleared $122, and the straw, which is not figured with the above will bring $8 a ton on the ground.

This is one of the many hundred of proofs that the first crop will pay for land and all expenses besides making a good profit on the first sod crop.—Dimmitt Plainsman.

Mrs. Cowan and daughter, Miss Annie, went to Big Springs Tuesday to visit Mrs. Will Humphries, Mrs. Cowan's daughter. Mrs. Cowan will go to Colorado and visit her son, Troy Cowan, before her return.

Queen High Patent Flour gives satisfaction to dozens of regular users. $3.35 a hundred at Jack Alley's, west side square, Tahoka.

Dr. Ballinger, of Lubbock has bought the building from Dr. Wincham formerly occupied by the Tahoka Drug Co. The building will be occupied by another business firm in the near future.

The Call of Opportunity—How Will You Answer It?

The rapid increase in the population of the North American continent during the past quarter century has made the question of homes for all the people one of the most important of present-day problems. And it seems more than likely that this increase will continue at the same rate for years to come until every acre of unoccupied land is in cultivation. Scientific farming, railway extension, drainage and irrigation have turned vast areas of waste land into human habitations. The demand for land for home-making increases daily and the question of some place where those of moderate means may become independent homeowners, is everywhere a favorite topic of conversation.

To those seeking such an opportunity, Lynn County on the South plains of West Texas, is the proper place to come. Here a half-million acres of proven agricultural land is offered for sale to actual settlers at an average price of about $10 per acre on four to ten years' time. This land, while cheap in price, is producing in large quantities per acre, all kinds of farm, garden and orchard crops common to the middle and northern United States, and that without any irrigation or special cultural methods. Many men have cleared enough from their first two years' crops to finish paying for their new homes. All kinds of poultry and domestic animals thrive here as there is plenty of natural food and shelter and very few diseases. The land is easily put in cultivation and the farmer gets better returns for labor expended than anywhere in America. The rainfall is ample but not excessive, while the nature of the soil and the contour of the country provide perfect drainage and make floods and tornadoes impossible.

Nowhere in the world are life and property safer than in Lynn County. Our people are of the best type of native-born Americans with a small per cent of the better class of foreigners. There are no negroes, vagrants, paupers or professional criminals here. By their ballots, Lynn County's citizens have outlawed the dramshop and thereby the evils which accompany it. In Lynn County no death has ever been caused by suicide or assassination, none of its citizens ever been convicted of felony and misdemeanor cases are rare. Our climate is conducive to healthfulness and the death rate is remarkably low. A noticeable feature of this country is the general good health of its women and children. There are no dangerous wild animals and the few poisonous reptiles and insects are disappearing rapidly as the country settles up. Storms, floods, forest fires, droughts, ice-packs, snow-slides, earthquakes and epidemics are unknown in Lynn County.

Every individual and every business enterprise which will contribute to the general welfare and assist in the upbuilding of the community will receive a royal welcome in Lynn County. Now is the time to come and see for yourself if conditions will warrant you in making your home with us. Already we have over 2,000 settled citizens and their number is constantly increasing. People all over the world are finding out about West Texas and new railroads are building everywhere. One will soon build through Lynn County and Tahoka, our county seat will become a modern city and values will treble. Come now, so as to avoid the rush and get in on the ground floor. You will not in the future regret having done so.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

Austin, Feb. 24th—The announcement of Speaker Kennedy of the House to the effect that the party platform demands will in the future have the right of way over other legislation, the re-incarnation of the Thomas lobbying sensation, with the appointment of a committee to investigate these charges, and a mild discussion of the lobbying question in the House, were the most interesting features of the week in legislative circles.

Speaker Kennedy flatly told the solons that they must pay more attention to the Democratic Platform demands and party pledges and the Speaker is in a position to make his words bring forth deeds. So far not one of the platform demands has been enacted into law. Though not strictly a platform demand, the bank deposit guaranty bill is a party pledge. There will be a fight on the floor of the House on this measure, since it is to be reported adversely by the majority of the committee and favorably by a minority.

The charges of Senator Thomas that there had been one thousand specific violations of the anti-lobby law, came in the foreground again when the investigation committee reported. Senator Thomas reiterated his charges so the Senate decided that a regular investigation with witnesses and all other adjuncts, should be made. A committee and official stenographers to take testimony were appointed and the hearings began Tuesday night. Senator Thomas has employed Monta J. Moore of Cameron as counsel to represent him at the investigation. Whether or not Senator Thomas will be able to make good his charges remains to be seen. Interest in this matter is overshadowed by other more important affairs of legislation.

Before the adjournment of the session, which is set for March 13, the Commercial Secretaries had hoped to show the members of the Capitol grounds made beautiful by planting every variety of tree that Texas produces in the grounds. Arrangements had been made to carry out this plan on Feb. 25th, but owing to complications, not altogether clear, the plan has been abandoned. The offer to furnish the trees, free of cost, was at first accepted and later declined. A request to allow former president Eliot of Harvard, who will be here on Feb. 25th to plant a walnut or pecan tree in honor to the memory of Governor Hogg was also declined. The Commercial Secretaries therefore called off the program.

The legislative week has been one of the busiest and most important of the session. At least 60 bills have been passed, some of them important but the majority of a local nature. Feeling that they had earned a rest the members Friday night betook themselves to Galveston for a two days outing. During the busy session, the House took a little time to discuss lobbying, though not in a very serious vein. The upshot of the matter was the passage of a resolution calling upon the Speaker to enforce the rules strictly. The rules bar all persons except members, clerks and newspaper men from the floor during the sessions.

Alley on West Side of the Square intends giving a premium with every 50 lbs. of flour sold. Look out for it and take advantage of the offer when it appears in the Lynn County News.

We have not had so much wind the past week as formerly.

A POULTRY SHOW

Would Help to Advertise Our Resources---
Ladies Want Poultry Show—A Nice Letter About It.

There appears below in this issue a letter from Mrs. J. S. Wells stating her views on the subject of a poultry show for Lynn county. Mrs. Wells is an enthusiastic poultry raiser and appreciates the advantages to be derived from friendly rivalry in any kind of pursuit. In no other business is competition such an incentive to excellence as in the breeding and raising of fine poultry.

We know of several others who have fine fowls and we expect to hear from them all. To be successful with chickens we have heard that you must think chick-

DON'T FORGET IT.

The Lynn County News is published for the purpose of letting the general public know what is happening in Lynn county and Tahoka. Therefore, we request all our friends to ring up Phone 35 and tell us anything you know that might make a good news item.

Remember that many people who once lived here read the News in order to keep up with their old friends; while many who expect to live here read it to get acquainted. If they frequently see your name in the paper they naturally infer that you are a person of considerable influence and standing in the community. When you turn in any kind of a news item help both the paper and yourself. We certainly will appreciate your help in this work. Try and form the Thirty-five habit and keep it up.

E. E. Fagg and Clarence Doflemeyer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Moore for dinner last Sunday. They report a most enjoyable occasion and declare Mrs. Moore to be an adept in the culinary art and knows exactly how to prepare a dinner fit for a prince.—San Saba County News.

Death of Mrs. C. O. Edwards.

The sad intelligence reached here the first of the week, of the death of Mrs. C. O. Edwards, of Fort Worth, familiarly known to her friends here as Aunt Sallie.

Her death came as a grievous shock to quite a number of people in our county who had known and loved her. Mr. Edwards owns the T-Bar Ranch which has been so long under the management of W. T. Petty. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have visited Mr. and Mrs. Petty frequently and have endeared themselves to a great many people in our county and town. Mr. Petty spent most of his boyhood in the home of Mr. Edwards, Aunt Sallie having been a foster mother to him for a good many years and to him her loss is more than the loss of a friend.

We clip from the Fort Worth papers the following notices which give all the particulars we have been able to gain:

Mrs. Sallie Edwards, aged 62 years, and wife of C. O. (Cas) Edwards, died Thursday night at the family residence, four miles west of town, on the Stove Foundry road. She had been ill with an attack of grip for several days, and it was thought that she would soon be well, but early in the night she was seized with a violent coughing spell and passed away in less than half an hour.

Mrs. Edwards was one of the oldest settlers of Tarrant county, and she and her husband were widely known in this section. She is survived by her husband and en, talk chicken, read chicken and dream chicken, and we should like to add if we do all of these things then we may eat chicken: Now who will be the next to write chicken; don't be bashful; most of those who are interested in poultry are most too grown up to be affected that way. We won't mind if everybody speaks at once, we're pretty nimble when it comes to listening, if we are nearly forty. We don't show our age in our ears. We used to be a chicken raiser ourself and could hear a hen cackle as far as far off as any one and in our young days we could beat every "suck-egg pup" on the place to the nest and get the egg too. Now let's make war on pup, coyotes, and polcats and have a chicken show next fall that will be such a good one that we will be surprised at our own success. Let every one strive for purity of breed and excellence in individual fowls. Who will write the next letter?

Kind Editor:

I think you have suggested a good topic when you hit on a poultry show this fall. Now let's hear from all who are concerned in this. I, for one, am in favor of it and will enter two different breeds, White Wyandotte and Rhode Island Red. Would be glad if someone who understands this matter to give us some information, and all get together and see if we can't have a Show that Lynn County will be proud of this Fall.

MRS. M. E. WELLS.

two sons, John Weddington, a son by a former marriage, and Crawford Edwards, both of whom live here.—Record.

Mrs. Sallie Edwards, wife of C. O. Edwards, died Thursday at their home four miles west of Fort Worth. Mrs. Edwards was 62 years old and is survived by two sons, John Weddington and Crawford Edwards. The funeral will be held from the house at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with services at the Brooklyn Heights Baptist church at 11 o'clock. Interment will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery.—Telegram.

18, 24 and 30 inch poultry netting at The Hardware for good prices.

The Tahoka Restaurant changed hands last week. Mr. Wilson, who has been proprietor for several months, sold out to Walter Gaddy. We wish Mr. Gaddy all success in his new business.

Keep your chickens at home with some 24 inch poultry netting from The Hardware at good prices.

Coarley Smith, a brother-in-law of Mr. Lee Womack east of town, came in Saturday from N. M., where he went to take up land. Through some technicality he lost his land and has come to Lynn County to make his home for the year.

Why not keep your neighbor's chickens out with some of the 30 inch poultry netting for sale at The Hardware at good prices.

Mrs. H. E. Baldrige was in Tahoka Wednesday doing some shopping.

American Beauty flour has no equal. Alley has it at the poor man's price, West Side Square.

PANHANDLE WORKS LOOSE

Amarillo perhaps leads all other cities in the state of Texas, or more correctly speaking with reference to counties as compared with Potter county, in at least one point, and that is the rate of interest paid upon her daily balances. During the present meeting of the county commissioners it became incumbent upon the board to designate a county depository, according to the terms of the law authorizing such action. The depository is always determined by the highest bidder, and the contract went to the First National bank this time upon a bid of 7 per cent.

It is not probable that another county in this state is doing so well, and Potter county is to be congratulated in this matter. This is another illustration of the enterprise of Amarillo and Panhandle concerns. The First National showed determination to land the county's money and did it with a sweep.—Amarillo Herald.

It is not only probable that several counties in the great state of Texas are doing as well as Potter county with the county funds but it is a fact that two counties are doing considerably better. If Potter county is to be congratulated for securing 7 per cent, how about Lynn county at 8 and Garza at 8 1/2? According to the Herald, 7 per cent shows great enterprise in the Amarillo concern; yet, the Lynn County Bank, of Tahoka, pays Lynn county 8 per cent, and the bank at Gail gives Garza 8 1/2 per cent, and these counties are not even in the Panhandle.

LYNN COUNTY ALL RIGHT.

Mr. J. N. Lewis returned Wednesday from a trip to Ballinger. He tells us that business conditions are not so good there as here, the panic having left a more depressing condition than business has experienced here.

Mr. Lewis informs us that the R. R. grade is finished from Winter to Ballinger, and most of the way on to Abilene. All the lower parts of the State are just as dry as we are on the Plains and to make conditions more depressing the land has not the drought resisting qualities the land on the Plains and also the seasons are very much earlier.

The dry weather is not hurting Lynn county yet. Grass is good and our well water never gives out. Practically all the old land is plowed and we only need a rain to start the sod plows. We could do without rain for another month without any serious inconvenience. Lynn county farmers frequently raise fifty bushels of corn, a bale of cotton and all kinds of feed and garden crops per acre without putting a seed in the ground until the first of May. Lynn county is good as the best and better than a great many of the old and well-settled counties when it comes to all-around farming.

H E Ford and Otto Stolley, of Austin, arrived in Tahoka Sunday night having covered the distance from Austin in three days, they made the trip in an auto. They report a very pleasant time and having had good roads all the way. Mr. Stolley was once a resident of Plainview and proceeded on to his old home town leaving Mr. Ford in Tahoka. At this rate of travel the automobile is a formidable rival to the railroad, permitting the travelers to stop at night for rest and refreshment at convenient hotels. The trip on train to be made in the same length of time would necessitate the traveler to be on the move day and night.

The Soash people have built a hotel on their holdings recently purchased from Mr. Slaughter and will use it for the accommodation of the home seekers they expect to import from all portions of the country. The first train load will arrive March 4th. They expect to build a town about twenty miles North of Big Springs in what is known as the Kattie Snake pasture. Mrs. H. G. Jackson, of Happy, Mamie Hudgins, Nellie Stanger, Eva Jackson, Mrs. Elliott and son, A. Redner, K. K. Simpson, Alford Jackson, Gus Burchard, Frank Moss, and S. J. Burdick passed through Tahoka Thursday en route for the new town to take charge of the Hotel and other enterprises.

Jack Alley has just returned from a trip to Waco, Hillsboro and other points. Mr. Alley tells us that those localities are just as dry and windy as the Plains. The only difference is that the winds here are straight and do not have the destructive force that the winds of the hilly countries have.

Miss Eva Samford left Wednesday for Indian Creek, Brown county, where she is teaching. Miss Eva has been in attendance at the bedside of her father G. W. Samford of this place who has just recovered from a severe illness.

ADVANTAGES OF A BANK ACCOUNT

The depositor finds many advantages and conveniences in having a bank account.

When he opens an active account, he has the privilege of checking out part or all of it at any time.

It is very useful if a payment is disputed as the check with which the payment was made is a receipt and the best evidence of payment.

Your banker may be a source of useful information — if you have money to collect or remit, he will aid you and tell the best way of proceeding.

If an individual deposits all the money he receives and pays it out with checks, his check book contains the complete story of his income and expenditures.

There are seasons when the depositors may not have sufficient funds to properly conduct their affairs; at such times they can borrow from the bank with which they deposit, such funds as they may need.

Last but not least, the bank affords a safe and convenient place to store your funds, which relieves you of the trouble, anxiety, and worry of keeping money about the person or home.

Let us serve you.

A Notable Month.

While February is the shortest month of the year, it has, perhaps, the greatest per cent of memorable days than any other month of the year.

First comes Ground Hog day on the 2nd, which is supposed to decide the weather for the next six weeks; then Lincoln's birthday on the 12th, Valentine day on the 14th and Washington's Birthday on the 22nd. Then there are other anniversaries not so well known. February is called the month of love and the weather of its last day is thought to indicate what the next month's weather will be.

Fire at Meadow.

Early Friday morning, the 26th, the store of T. S. Jackson at Meadow, 25 miles northwest of here in Terry county, was found to be on fire. The building, which contained the post office, and all its contents were totally destroyed. The fire, which is of unknown origin, seems to have started some time in the night. Mr. Jackson was away in Plainview at the time and the amount of insurance was not stated. The loss was heavy.

ABOUT MAUD.

We have heard of Maud on a hot summer day, who raked, barefooted, the row mown hay; we have read of the maid in the early morn, who milked the cow with the crumpled horn; and we have read of the lays that the poet sings of the rustling corn and the flowers in spring; but of all the lays of tongue or pen, there's naught like the lay of the Texas hen. Long before Maud raked her hay the Texas hen began to lay, and ere the milk maid stirs a peg, the hen is up and laid an egg! The corn must rustle, the flowers spring, if they hold their own with the barn yard ring. If Maud is needing a hat or gown, she doesn't hustle her hay to town; she goes to the store and obtains her suit with a basket full of fresh hen fruit. If the milk maid's beau makes a Sunday call, she does not feed him milk at all, but works up eggs in a custard pie; and when the old man wants a horn, does he take the druggist a load of corn? Not much, he simply robs the nest, and to town he goes, you know the rest. He lingers here and talks perchance, while his poor wife stays at home and scowls, but is saved from want by those self same fowls, for while her husband lingers there, she watches the cackling hens with care, and gathers the eggs and these she will hide, till she saves enough to stem the tide. Then hail, all hail, to the Texas hen, the greatest blessing to all men. Throw up your hands and make Rome howl, for the preserving barnyard fowl.

Corn may be king, but its plainly seen that the Texas hen is the Texas queen. —Ex.

The Buick Leads Them All.

As there are so many Buick Automobiles owned in Lynn County, we clip the following extract from the Dallas News of February, 22.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 21.—Robert Burman in his Buick car today broke the world's record for 100 miles on a circular track in the feature event of the second day of the Mardi Gras speed carnival. Burman made the distance after a most remarkable drive in 1:42:39 3/5, this being over eleven minutes faster than the previous record made by Clements at Indianapolis in 1905. There were six other races, all short distances.

The weather was cloudy but the track was in almost perfect condition. Fully 10,000 people were in attendance.

The 100-mile race, open to stock cars, started with three entries, Burman (Buick), Robertson (Simplex), and Strang (Iostta). Robertson started off in the lead, with Burman second and Strang third. At the end of the first mile Burman had attained the lead, which he held until the end of the race, with the exception of one mile.

In the seventy-fourth mile Strang was forced to stop for the second time, his steering gear being out of order. It could not be repaired in time, so he retired permanently.

Burman's driving was the most sensational ever seen in this city. He drove hard from start to finish, cut his turns sharp and never once during the whole race was he forced to stop for anything. Burman drove alone, without the aid of a mechanic, and his stock car was stripped to a skeleton.

Seventh race—Hurdled miles world's championship, open to all stock cars, $75 gold medal and trophy to winner, $25 to second; Burman (Buick) 1:42:39 3/5, first; Robertson (Simplex) second, World's circular track record 1:53:21 4/5

Mr. Samford, of Deaf Smith, Brown county, left Sunday for his home after spending some time at the bedside of his brother G. W. Samford of Tahoka who has been very ill for some time but is now convalescent.

Stand Up For Your Town.

Nothing so inspires confidence in a town to a stranger as does faith in the town by those who reside there. When a stranger goes to a place and finds everybody speaking a good word for their town, singing praises of its past achievements, rejoicing over its present greatness and predicting in emphatic terms the brightness of its future, and everybody co operating in up building the place, he at once puts it down that there is something to that town and becomes imbued with the spirit. On the other hand if he finds doubts in the words of the residents and gloom upon their faces he at once concludes that the town is no place for him. Remember to always speak a good word for your town, and if you can't, move to one that you can. When you work and speak well for your town you are not only helping your neighbors but are laying a good foundation for your own success.—Stamford Tribune.

The big ice box is being installed in the Tahoka Drug Store building, preparatory to moving the cold drink and ice cream parlor to that place.

The two Mrs. Millers from the Draw neighborhood were in town Thursday.

Mrs. Grant, of Lubbock, came through Tahoka Monday enroute for Lamesa where she will attend the bedside of her sister who is very ill at that place.
