Prankster's Trick Leads To Night Club Holocaust Claiming 479 Lives

Investigation Launched In Disaster

BOSTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—A tiny match flame in the hands of a 16-year-old busboy touched off a lightning-like fire that snuffed out the lives of a total of 479 Coconut Grove night club merry-makers and injured more than 200—many seriously—in one of the nation's worst holocausts.

Deputy Police Superintendent James R. Claffin quoted the youth, Stanley F. Tomaszewski, as saying that he accidentally ignited a paper palm tree that caused the terrific blaze which threw about 1,000 persons into a fighting, clawing panic in efforts to reach safety.

The boy related, Claffin said, that he was trying to replace an electric light bulb which had been unscrewed by a prankster in the recently opened melody room of the club when the match flame brushed the flimsy palm and set off the devastating blaze.

The flames swept through the highly inflammable decorations as the orchestra leader raised his baton to signal for the National Anthem as a prelude to the Saturday night floor show. Within seconds the crowded night club was a bedlam as screaming women and horror-struck men dashed for exits, tumbling over each other on the jam-packed stairways.

District Fire Chief William J. Mahoney said that tangled and frightfully burned bodies were found four and five deep and that tables and chairs were scattered and tipped in a shambles among the dead.

Long lines of relatives and friends stood two abreast outside the city's morgues throughout the cold night waiting for a chance to identify bodies, many of them charred beyond recognition.

A board of inquiry, including fire officials, U. S. Navy representatives—there were servicemen among the dead—and two representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which began its probe yesterday, reconvened today.

The death toll ranked only behind the steamship General Slocum fire of 1904 in New York's East river in which 1,201 died, Chicago Iroquois Theatre fire of 1903, which claimed 603 lives, and the San Francisco earthquake fire of 1906 in which 506 died.

Deputy Fire Chief John F. McDonough told investigating officials that he found a number of bodies, some within ten feet of a door equipped with a panic lock designed to open under pressure, but it was out of order and had been secured by another lock.

The death of many of the victims was ascribed by medical examiner Timothy Leary to monoxide poisoning and smoke inhalation. He said that number were "terribly burned" after death.

The stampede for the exits began, fire officials said, when a girl, detecting a thin wisp of smoke curling along the walls, shouted "fire," and within seconds the crowd broke for the doorways.

The wrecked stucco building resembled a huge brick oven after the flames had been extinguished. See FATAL FIRE, Page 5, Col. 2.

Police Court Fines For Weekend At $200

City police had a busier than usual weekend, and $200 in fines were assessed in corporate court this morning against 11 culprits. Six drunks and four vagrants drew fines of $15 each, and Serapio Ornelas drew a fine of $50 for drunkenness. Fines as heavy as that imposed in the latter case are usually levied when the defendant is found in an automobile.

Tomorrow Is The DAY!

Scenes of Holocaust—Smoke pours from the Coconut Grove night club (above) at Boston during a fire that suddenly swept the premises and burned to death nearly 500 persons who were trapped inside. Below, bodies of some of the score of victims of the fire jam the North Grove Street Mortuary at Boston awaiting identification. The blaze claimed the fourth highest toll of any disaster in American history and resulted when a match, lighted when a prankster unscrewed a light bulb, touched a flimsy palm tree decoration.

Italy Pounded By Churchill Warning To Get Out Of War

Leaves Choice To Italians

LONDON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's warning to the Italian people—to get out of the war or expect a "prolonged, scientific and shattering air attack"—was pounded home again and again to the Italians today by the British Broadcasting corporation.

The BBC preceded Churchill's victory speech Sunday with broadcast appeals to the Italians to make a separate peace and followed up by broadcasting at intervals the full text of the prime minister's 30-minute speech, addressing Germany and France as well as Italy.

Churchill promised that the war would be carried to Italy "in a manner not hitherto dreamed of by its guilty leaders" and added:

"It is for the Italian people to say whether they want this terrible thing to happen to them or not."

He reviewed Allied strategy on the African and Russian fronts, discussed what he called a "reunion" with France and its "resurrection," and spoke solemnly of the portents of 1943 as boding new tests "in the face of victory."

"I promise nothing, I predict nothing," Churchill said. "I cannot even guarantee that more successes are now on the way."

"The dawn of 1943 will soon loom red before us and we must brace ourselves to cope with the trials and problems of what must be a stern and terrible year."

But he emphasized that "now at this moment the first British army is striking hard at the last remaining footholds of the Germans. It is not a seat but a springboard."

Japs Seek To Secure Firmer Hold On Attu

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Their Kiiska base under almost constant pounding by American bombers, the Japanese are attempting to secure a new foothold on the bleak little island of Attu, westernmost of the Aleutian chain.

The navy disclosed yesterday that the enemy had reappeared on Attu by announcing army "flying fortresses" had attacked a small Japanese cargo vessel off the island, setting it afire with three bomb hits on Thanksgiving Day.

When last seen, the vessel appeared to be sinking.

The communiqué said fighters accompanying the "fortresses" also had strafed enemy anti-aircraft installations on the island, indicating that the Japanese would attempt a show of resistance against attacks such as those that have made their Kiiska base, 160 miles to the east, virtually useless. Attu lies about three-fourths of the way from Alaska to the Kurile islands of Japan, and the enemy might well regard it as being more valuable from a defensive than from an offensive standpoint.

First indication that they were attempting to regain Attu came on Nov. 11, when it was announced that army planes had destroyed seven float type enemy Zeros at Attu two days earlier.

Since they moved into the Aleutian area last June, the Japanese have lost 13 ships definitely sunk, five probably sunk, and 29 damaged, including the one reported yesterday.

McNitt has been under fire for his handling of manpower problems as chairman of the war manpower commission, and Secretary of Labor Perkins often has been criticized in congress for not taking forceful measures to end strikes and other industrial disturbances.

Cabinet Juggle May Loose Barbs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—President Roosevelt may find a large part of his cabinet subjected to some lively congressional criticism if he goes through with a plan for a three-way shift making Harold L. Ickes secretary of labor with control over manpower.

Ickes already has been offered the post and if he accepts, the president would be expected to seek senate confirmation for this nomination as well as those of Paul V. McNitt to be secretary of the interior and Frances Perkins to be federal security administrator.

Republicans, and some democrats, already are tuning up their vocal chords for this prospective opportunity of discussing the part the Roosevelt cabinet has played in the war.

Ickes, a master at rough and tumble repartee, has left plenty of political scars in his nine years in the cabinet.

McNitt has been under fire for his handling of manpower problems as chairman of the war manpower commission, and Secretary of Labor Perkins often has been criticized in congress for not taking forceful measures to end strikes and other industrial disturbances.

Allies Slash Jap Coastal Lines In Gona

By The Associated Press Allied troops today were reported to have captured a beach 900 yards east of the beleaguered Japanese stronghold at Gona, New Guinea, and apparently cut the enemy's 10-mile coastal defense strip after U. S. Flying Fortresses smashed a new Japanese seaborne attempt to land reinforcements.

Front-line dispatches said Australian jungle fighters, supported by planes and artillery, had overrun the enemy's beach defenses near Gona and were pushing on toward Savananda farther up the coast.

Several hundred Japanese were believed cut off in a pocket at Gona.

American fortress aircraft were officially credited with setting fire to two Japanese destroyers and forcing two others to sea in breaking up the enemy's latest attempt to land reinforcements.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said the big fortress planes scored direct hits with 500-pound bombs on two of the enemy warships and both were believed to have sunk later.

American and Australian troops were reported maintaining steady pressure on Japanese forces hemmed on three sides along a 10-mile coastal strip between Buna and Gona, but there was little change in the general situation.

Gen. MacArthur also reported that allied naval forces had intercepted an 8,000-ton German auxiliary west of Australia, blasted the vessel with gunfire and captured 75 of the crew after the Nazis scuttled their ship.

It was the first official mention of German shipping in the western Pacific for many months.

On Guadalcanal Island, in the Solomons, the navy reported only minor patrol activity.

Standard Head Death Victim

MILBROOK, N. Y., Nov. 30. (AP)—W. S. Farish, Standard Oil company of New Jersey president who pioneered in developing Texas' first oil pool of importance, is dead.

A heart attack yesterday claimed the 61-year-old native of Myersville, Miss., who taught school to pay his way through college and became one of America's leading petroleum men.

Farish, who helped organize and was president of the American Petroleum Institute, formed and led the national petroleum war service committee which during the last war handled all oil supplies for the Allies.

Farish drew public attention this year when a senate committee held hearings on Standard Oil's patent contracts with I. G. Farbenindustrie. Farish detailed a story of the firm's beginning in the oil chemical industry which made possible the oil industry's ability to turn out synthetic rubber and other essential products of war.

He went to Beaumont, Tex., when oil was found there in 1901, and established an oil company. He was an executive of other oil firms and became chairman of the board of Jersey Standard in New York in 1933. In 1937, he became president and chief executive officer.

Soviet Army Advances On Two Fronts

MOSCOW, Nov. 30. (AP)—Soviet shock troops have wrested another Don river stronghold from the Germans under clearing skies on the Stalingrad front and are pressing westward through a blizzard in the parallel offensive west of Moscow, the Russians said today.

Germans were declared to be dying at the rate of 10,000 daily as Red army divisions pushed across the snow, utilizing tactics perfected in the 1941-42 winter drive.

While clouds vanished, cold prevailed on the central front. Moscow observers said the joint operations were the greatest undertaken by the Russians in their 17 months of war.

(London commentators said that if the Germans sought to organize a counteroffensive they would have to pull in forces from relatively quiet sectors, thinning out and weakening the lines stretching from the White sea to the mid-Caucasus.)

Red army scouts wearing white hoods and armed with automatic rifles patrolled snow-covered pine forests and the open lands west of Moscow to locate enemy positions for the artillery batteries blasting paths for the general advance.

Russian fliers warmed up frosty motors and roamed the skies on the Stalingrad front in support of cavalry and tanks smashing at the enemy lines. Fifty loaded trucks and 12 Nazi planes were reported destroyed by soviet squadrons in that area yesterday.

Hundreds of thousands of pamphlets in the German language were dropped on enemy positions, informing Nazi soldiers of the new situation along the eastern front and the climactic allied drives in North Africa.

New German lines on the east bank of the Don were broken by the soviet troops and 1,000 more Germans were reported to have paid with their lives for the luckless stage of Stalingrad.

Southwest of Stalingrad the Russian offensive also moved forward successfully, the mid-day communique reported, and another town and large stores of axes food and medical supplies were captured.

A special communique last night told how the Russians had driven from the Stalingrad-Krasnodar railroad line to capture the town of Ohlinsk, 70 miles southeast of Kotelnikovsk.

Within the long-besieged city of Stalingrad fighting continued and the Russians said their artillery destroyed 38 German dugouts and blockhouses and wiped out a battalion of enemy infantry.

Ten Men Killed In Army Plane Crash

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 30. (AP)—Ten men were killed today in the crash of an army plane half mile southwest of the Sioux City air base, the post public relations office announced.

Capt. Fred Shick, post public relations officer, said all 10 men were dead when help reached the plane, which he said was on a routine flight.

Capt. Shick said the names and ranks of those killed in the crash would not be released until their next of kin had been notified.

"Fill 'Er Up" Order Is Common As Ration Deadline Nears

Dealers Given Instructions On Inventory

All gasoline dealers in Howard county were advised today by B. F. Robbins, chairman of the Howard county ration board that at the close of business today they must take an actual inventory of gasoline on hand.

Dealers must come to the ration office on either December 1st or 2nd to fill out an application for dealer registration. Upon approval of the application, each dealer will be given a copy of the application and inventory coupons to equal the difference between gasoline on hand and the dealer's storage capacity.

Before any dealer can buy gasoline after 12:01 a. m. on December 1st, Mr. Robbins said, he must have either ration book coupons from customers or inventory coupons or both, equal to the amount of gasoline to be delivered to the dealer.

The dealer must furnish these coupons to his supplier in exchange for the gasoline he receives. Dealers were cautioned to ask for the rationer's ration book, check the description on the front cover of the book with the vehicle for which the gasoline is being purchased, to observe the expiration date on the cover of the book to make certain coupons are still valid, be sure there are enough coupons in the book for the current period to cover a customer's purchase.

Motorists Ready To Face It With A Full Tank

Knowing that today's run on gasoline is the real thing and not the product of rumor-mongers and alarmists, service station operators filled every available tank and barrel and opened this morning prepared to care for the rush.

Requests to "fill 'er up" were practically unanimous... motorists prepared to meet rationing with a full tank. Although a few filled their gas tanks Saturday and Sunday, the majority waited to take advantage of every possible hour.

Some stations were swamped with telephone calls from customers wanting to know the deadline hour, whether they would be able to get all the gas they wanted until midnight. All were reassured by operators, who were still waiting at noon today for the real rush to start.

Several service station attendants made it a point to remind their customers by telephone "be sure and fill up your tank today," but the gesture was hardly necessary.

BIZERTE IS ISOLATED BY WEDGE TO COAST

By The Associated Press LONDON, Nov. 30.—British and American forces, supported by a rising tide of aerial blows at the enemy on both sides of the Mediterranean, have stormed forward to within less than 12 miles of Tunis in a drive which has all but isolated that city and Bizerte, main axis-held strong point in Tunisia.

The allied advance was disclosed today by a headquarters communique which said fighting now was progressing east of Ojedeida, which is 12 miles northwest of Tunis on the Tunis-Bizerte railroad. This indicated the allies were driving a wedge straight toward the coast to separate the axis strongholds.

Bizerte was the target of an attack by allied planes which scored hits on the naval base, the communique said, and allied fighters were credited with destruction of four enemy planes in operations over forward areas.

Simultaneously with the allied assault on the hastily contrived axis defenses in Tunisia, German and Italian communiqués reported that the 8th army tanks struck the first blow at Marshal Rommel's El Aghela line in Libya. The axis claimed these attacks repulsed; the British kept silent.

A storm of allied aerial bombs burst upon the axis in North Africa and Italy last night and yesterday, underscoring Prime Minister Churchill's declaration that the enemy soon would be cast from his African toeholds and that the Italians must get out of the war or be bombed out.

Tunis, Bizerte and Tripoli were targets of new punishing attacks over the weekend in a prelude to impending assaults by American and British land forces in Africa, and the great Italian industrial city of Turin shuddered to the impact of RAF bombs last night for the second time in 24 hours.

Shipping and harbors were blasted at three axis-held African ports and traffic along Marshal Rommel's road of escape towards Tripoli was strangled, while in Tunisia the fighting grew on intensity as the zero hour for the all-out land attack neared.

From Vichy came a broadcast that British troops on the Tunisian-Algerian border "had been reinforced by armored units, indicating that the all-out allied attack upon the naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the capital of Tunisia, might soon be forthcoming.

This account from the axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim.

Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the axis has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the RAF.

In Tunisia British air men pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Secretary of State Hull indicated today the government was expecting explosive developments in Italy's internal situation soon.

Hull was asked at his press conference about reports of serious unrest in various parts of that war-weary country, including mutinous behavior in the army. He replied that he still was assembling reports coming in on that situation and might have some comment to make later. Meanwhile, he added, one should not be surprised to hear of just such developments in Italy.

Honor Roll For County Planned

County commissioners in session Monday morning voted to erect a Roll of Honor for Howard county men now in the armed services.

The roll, which will be erected on the east courthouse lawn will be arranged alphabetically with space reserved for others who will enter the service from time to time. Special designation will also be made for those who have died in the defense of their country. County Judge J. T. Brooks said.

The roll will carry no rank of the individual but only the names of the men. Since an estimated 1600 men in the county are now in the armed services and since the court is anxious to obtain every name, a coupon will appear in tomorrow's Herald which can be clipped and sent in to the county judge's office.

Names can also be submitted by calling or writing to the judge's office.

Stanford Goes To Head Of Line As Choice For Rose Bowl Game

H-SU Invited To Play In Sun Bowl

ABILENE, Nov. 30. — Hardin-Simmons University, champion of the Border conference, has been invited to play in the Sun Bowl game at El Paso and will make a decision late today on whether to accept.

Dr. R. E. Homan, Jr., of El Paso, director of the Sun Bowl, sent the invitation last night.

Dr. Homan said he had extended an invitation to the second Army Air Force at Fort George Wright, Spokane, Wash., to oppose a college team in the Sun Bowl Jan. 1.

The Air Force team is undefeated for the year and battled Washington State, a prominent contender for the Rose Bowl, to a 6-6 tie.

It was believed here that Hardin-Simmons would accept the Sun Bowl game although it was known that the Cowboys had received a feeler from Miami to play in the Orange Bowl.

Golf Events Are Scarce

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 30 (AP)—The purse for the Miami Open has been cut in half—to $5,000—but it'll look twice as big as ever before to golfers who will compete here this week.

It's a bread and meat tournament, the only one scheduled before next spring for professionals who are finding increasing difficulties in earning a living on the fairways in these days of war.

When the Professional Golfers' association decided it could not guarantee the appearance of at least 15 name players almost every tournament on the resort circuit was cancelled.

Instead of the usual swing to California and return, next stop after the Open here is the North-South event at Pinehurst in April.

Meanwhile, top-notch players are being dropped for the duration from the payrolls of sporting goods companies, the sale of clubs and balls is reported off 50 per cent, and winter teaching jobs are scarcer than holes in one.

Civilian defense costs are now a major item in the budgets of most American cities.

Indians Wind Up Season In A Strong Way

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30 (AP)—As the climax to one of the most remarkable finishes recorded in western football in years, the Stanford Indians have elbowed their way into the Rose Bowl picture.

They may not make it but there wasn't the slightest doubt today coast conference heads would give the Indians consideration in the voting Dec. 12 to name the League's opponent for University of Georgia in the New Year's day post season classic at Pasadena.

While the three top conference candidates, University of California at Los Angeles, Southern California and Washington State have faltered in the stretch run, Stanford finished like a champion with four lopsided victories.

The Indians ran out their ten-game schedule Saturday with a rousing 23 to 13 win over the powerful and previously undefeated St. Mary's Navy Pre-Flight eleven.

On preceding week ends they knocked over such worthies as California, 26-7; Oregon State, 48-10 and Washington, 20-7.

Coaches, officials and others who watched Stanford in the closing games described it as the outstanding team in the far west.

L. T. "Buck" Shaw, whose Santa Clara eleven defeated Stanford 14-6 in the first week of October, said: "The Stanford team I saw defeat California was the best team I've seen this season."

The early season Indians couldn't defend against passes and in succession lost to Washington State, 6-0, Santa Clara, 14-6, and to Notre Dame, 27-0.

They found themselves to polish off Idaho, 54-7, then pulled their first upset, a 14-6 win over Southern California. The latter lost to Notre Dame, Saturday, 13-0, in a slambang battle.

Stanford dropped its next one, 20 to 7, to U.C.L.A., then got its T-formation plays clicking to put together the sensational four game winning wind-up.

The three main Rose Bowl aspirants in conference wins and defeats, are U.C.L.A., W.S.C. and U.S.C. all defeated once and the latter two with a tie game in the records.

Washington State has finished its conference schedule but meets Texas A. & M. next Saturday at San Antonio. U.C.L.A. and U.S.C. play Idaho and Montana respectively, in a double header this week end in Los Angeles then meet each other in a conference wind-up, Dec. 12. The Rose Bowl voting will take place after the game.

The games of all Southwest conference football seasons ends Saturday.

Late-starting Rice, believed by some to be the equal of any team in the south today, plays Southern Methodist in Houston and Texas A. & M. has an intersectional clash with Washington State in San Antonio.

Rice all but cinched second place Saturday with a 20-0 win over Baylor. Texas Christian ended its season with a 14-6 victory over S.M.U.

Champions Finally Emerge From A Screwy Season

NEW YORK, Nov. 30 (AP)—The dullest football season of them all, complicated by the uncertainty of war, had all but run its course today, leaving coaches, players and fans convinced that the definition of armed conflict by a fellow named Sherman was a masterpiece of understatement.

In spite of an unprecedented quota of form reversal, all sections of the country have succeeded in crowning champions except the Pacific Coast, where they may need another two weeks and the help of a bloodhound to find a conference titlist and a host team for the Rose Bowl game.

Although there still are a few odds and ends to be picked up elsewhere the remainder of the country saw the screwy campaign stagger to what amounted to a finish Saturday and unload what surprises it had left on an unsuspecting public.

Holy Cross, a 4-to-1 underdog, crushed Boston College's previous unbeaten Eagles, 55-12. Navy planned a 14-0 defeat on an Army team that was favored at 8-to-1. And Georgia, humbled by Auburn the week before, bounced back to ruin Georgia Tech's spotless record, 34-0.

All told, the day's activities added to the lineup of conference champions until now it looks like this:

Western—Ohio State
Ivy League—Pennsylvania
Southeastern—Georgia
Big Three—Yale
Southwest—Texas
Big Six—Missouri
Southern—William and Mary
Missouri Valley—Tulsa.
Big Seven—Utah and Colorado (tie).
Pacific Coast—Still undecided.
Washington State lost a chance to tie for the Pacific Coast crown by playing a scoreless deadlock with Washington Saturday, leaving U.C.L.A. on the inside track with four victories and one defeat.

M'Kay Unanimous Choice For Place On All-Southwest Conference Team

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Nov. 30 (AP)—Roy Dale M'Kay, heart of the championship Texas team, is the man of the year in Southwest conference football.

The 190-pound running, kicking and passing star of the first Longhorn team to win a title in a dozen years, led the Associated Press' all-conference selections as the only unanimous choice of coaches and sports writers throughout the circuit.

Giving M'Kay a merry chase down the all-star trail was Bruce Alford, mighty wingman of Texas Christian University. Alford lacked only two votes of being on everybody's selection.

Close behind Alford were his teammate, Derrell Palmer, and Stan Mauldin of Texas, who were easy choices for the tackle posts.

Top guard was Roy Bucek of the Texas Aggies and the exhibition he gave in closing his gridiron career with A. and M. on Thanksgiving day against Texas showed why he was such a popular selection.

Lester Boyd (Buddy) Gatewood of Baylor was the center but close behind was Bill Blackburn of Rice. Teaming with Alford was Bill Henderson, pass-catching star of Texas A. and M. who nosed out his teammate, Elvis (Boots) Simmons, and Kelly Simpson of Southern Methodist.

The other guard was Weldon Humble, hard-hitting standout in Rice's very capable line, while Ray Rasor of Southern Methodist failed to make the first team by only one vote.

With M'Kay in the backfield were Cullen Rogers of Texas A. and M., the nation's leading passer; which was invited soon after its Saturday victory, clinching the Southeastern conference title.

Tennessee closed its season with a 19-7 triumph over Vanderbilt and was named to play in the Sugar Bowl against Tulsa, Missouri Valley champion and only major team with an all-victorious record.

With the Southwest conference tucked away, Texas has qualified for the Cotton Bowl and Georgia Tech has been invited as the other team.

In Saturday's Southwest conference games, Rice blanked Baylor, 20-0, and Texas Christian whipped Southern Methodist, 14-6. The hoop will close its season with S.M.U. playing Rice Saturday, although Texas A. and M. has an intersectional date with Washington State the same day.

Ohio State, the Big Ten champion, finished with a convincing 41-12 victory over Iowa Pre-Flight, which still has a game with Missouri this week. Michigan closed the Big Ten campaign by stopping Iowa, 28-14. Notre Dame blanked Southern California, 13-0, and steered into Great Lakes Naval this week.

Other games Saturday send William and Mary's Southern conference champions to Oklahoma, which finished second in the Big Six when Nebraska was upset by Kansas State, 19-0, and San Francisco to Mississippi State. St. Mary's Pre-Flight, whipped by Stanford, 28-13, tackles California Sunday.

The picture for the Jan. 1 bowl games looked like this today (won-lost-tied records in parentheses):
Rose Bowl at Pasadena—Georgia (10-1-0) vs. Pacific Coast champion.
Sugar Bowl at New Orleans—Tulsa (10-0-0) vs. Tennessee (8-1-1).

Cotton Bowl at Dallas—Texas (8-2-0) vs. Georgia Tech (9-1-0).
Orange Bowl at Miami—Boston College (8-1-0) vs. Alabama (7-3-0).
Corn Bowl at Chicago—Holy Cross (5-4-1) vs. unnamed opponent.
Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.—No teams selected.
Boston College, headed for the Sugar Bowl until the Holy Cross thing happened, was reported invited to the Orange Bowl along with Alabama, but there was nothing official about either bid.

Wichita Falls Rated High In State Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Wichita Falls vs. the winner of the Lufkin-Austin game for the state schoolboy football championship.

That's going a little far down the line but the wise boys are thinking in those terms as a field of sixteen teams moves into the opening round of the title battle.

Wichita Falls, they argue, is a leadpipe cinch (as if there ever was a leadpipe cinch in football, especially schoolboy football).

They figure the Coyotes will meet their strongest opposition this week when they play Amarillo's Golden Sandles.

The lower bracket finalist, however, is more difficult to forecast. Lufkin has a fine eleven but Austin, playing one of the hardest schedules in the state with great success, looks like the team to beat.

Lufkin and Austin will meet in the semi-finals if they clash at all because this week the Panthers play Longview and the winnet will meet the winner of the Breckenridge-Waco tilt in the quarter-finals.

Austin tackles unbeaten but ousted Ben Benito and the winner will meet the surviving team of the John Reagan-Goose Creek clash.

The critics can't afford to overlook Breckenridge. Here is a team that played a schedule equally as strong as Austin's and came out as the top scoring eleven of the season. The Buckaroos, with a great fullback—Jack Ray—leading the way, have rolled up 290 points in winning eight games, losing one and tying one. The defeat was to Wichita Falls and Breckenridge made quite a game out of it.

Then there is Highland Park of Dallas, an outfit with speed to burn and coached by that master of state play—Rusty Russell.

Highland Park is being picked as the team Wichita Falls will play in the semi-finals.

Highland Park meets unbeaten, untied Denison this week. Denison's record is not particularly impressive from the scoring angle but the Yellow Jackets have played some very strong teams.

Here's how they line up this week in the opening round of the state play-off:
Friday—Denison vs. Highland Park at Dallas, Waco at Breckenridge, Longview at Lufkin, San Benito at Austin (night).
Saturday—Amarillo at Wichita Falls, San Angelo vs. Bowie at El Paso, Amon Carter Riverside vs. Sunset at Dallas, John Reagan (Houston) at Goose Creek.
It appears the general choices will be: Highland Park, Breckenridge, Lufkin, Austin, Wichita Falls, San Angelo, Sunset and John Reagan.

That would pit Wichita Falls against San Angelo, Highland Park against Sunset, Breckenridge against Lufkin and John Reagan against Austin in next week's quarter-finals.

Steer Cage Team Looms As A District Standout

Unless the war constricts the game, the Big Spring high school Steers may come up with a basketball team that will make fans forget all about a lackadaisical football season.

When Coach John Dibrrell calls his hopefuls for the initial practice session this afternoon he can muster a team of boys towering six feet or better. Moreover, he has three lettermen returning from last year's team which finished second only to Abilene in the district chase, and there are four other veteran red hot prospects whose average height is better than six feet.

Kingpin of the team will be Peppy Blount, rangy ace of last year's team and whose six feet and four and a half inches are every one seasoned in basketball. Ernest Bostick, guard, stands at

BIG SPRING BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL REVIEW

PRESENTING EACH WEEK NEWS ABOUT LIVE PROGRESSIVE FIRMS AND INDIVIDUALS OF BIG SPRING

Local Market Is A Factor In Boosting L'stock Production

Key to increasing livestock production is a good, accessible market—and Big Spring Livestock Commission Co. has provided this very thing for this area at a time the nation is crying for more food production.

Never has the company's market been stronger for all classes, and never has there been such a volume of stock moving through its ring at the company barns and lots near the stockyards area just east of the city.

In the first 45 weeks of 1942, sales totals have aggregated in excess of a cool million dollars, and it is possible that in the remaining five Wednesdays that the total for the year will be boosted past the million and a quarter mark.

The smallest total volume in the sale each week has been 400 head, and the number runs as high as 1,200 head, the highest one day for the company since it started operation here two years ago. That day's run brought in $44,000.

Prices commanded at the Wednesday sales have remained remarkably uniform and high all year along. Bulls have brought up to $10.00 and have seldom sagged below $8.00. Right now they are drawing down around $9.50.

Fat cows have gained strength all year and bring up to $20.00 and 10.00. Lowest offering was $7.75 at one stage early in the year, but this was quickly built up. Good butchers have found an eager market all season and get bids quickly up around 9.00 and 11.00. Ordinary butchers find a strong market and even canners and cutters vary from 4.00 to 8.00.

It all adds up to one thing—that farmers and ranchers have a good place to bring their cattle when they want buyers and good prices—and that buyers know that they can find a large stock of cattle on any Wednesday that the sale is in progress.

Combined—Adjustments to render better service in the face of war restrictions have resulted in all stocks now being handled from the Exchange location (picture above), at 111 Nolan street. Repair facilities and the used furniture stock are being expanded, President Lewis Rix of the company points out, to meet conditions while are bringing increased scarcity of new household items. (Kelsey Photo).

Rix Furniture Co. Making Adjustments To Meet Times

One firm whose executives are far sighted enough to see growing limitations on the business and to offset them by inaugurating new services or expanding others with unlimited opportunities is Rix Furniture Co., now in its new location at 111 Nolan, former location of the exchange service only.

The demand for new furniture is great, Lewis Rix, president of the company says, but the supply is becoming more and more of a problem, and, looking toward a day when it may be impossible to secure new stock, Rix is expanding both his repair and used furniture departments.

Even now manufacturing has stopped on new bed springs, inner-spring mattresses, stoves, metal beds and upholstered pieces using springs in cushions. There is no more unfinished furniture because plywood and fibboard used in its manufacture has gone to war. New chairs and divans will have "posture" seats of padded cotton to replace cushions with springs.

Metal drawer pulls have been eliminated in favor of wood pulls or notches carved into the drawer itself, and styles are becoming more standardized and streamlined. The new trend, Rix believes, will be a modification and combination of modern and colonial.

Rix also operates a limited upholstery service, handled by L. A. Pickle, who devotes his full time to this department.

Rix is the third generation of the family to engage in the retail furniture business, started by his grandfather in 1892. His father first established a store dealing in furniture exclusively in 1903.

Just as times have changed, and likewise the demand, since his grandfather first entered business, Rix expects great changes to take place within the next year, but he is prepared—as nearly as anyone can be—to meet these changes and to adjust his business policies to render the most efficient service possible under inevitable hardships.

Gift Photos Must Be Made Right Away

Borum Cites New Demands Because Of War Program

E. T. Borum, local photographer, really takes a "busman's holiday" for his favorite pastime, avocation and weakness is photography, action pictures and difficult shots.

In sixteen years he has learned a good many tricks of the trade, tricks which started with little more than black hooded cameras and "smile at the birds" shots, working into photos with action, which definitely have marked the greatest improvement in modern photography.

Mr. and Mrs. Borum have operated the Borum Studio in the Lester building for the past four years, specializing in children's portraits and photo-tinting.

Taking it in the stride of present conditions, Borum states that business is twice as good as last year, and suggests you have that Christmas picture made early to avoid the rush. An extra feature of the studio at this time is photo-Christmas cards.

Pictures of bombing missions and war activities in general have completely stopped production of flash bulbs for commercial use, and films have been rationed to druggists, sealers and photographers everywhere. Chemicals formerly used, are now used in making explosives and photography in general has felt the effects.

At the same time, the nation has become picture conscious with defense workers away from home and boys in the service.

For Farmers—This is the recently-built home of the Lamesa highway—George Oldham Implement company, on the Lamesa highway, which is playing its part in keeping up war production from the farms by helping farm producers maintain equipment in good repair. Oldham now only has the equipment to do extensive car and tractor work, but this large building houses one of the largest parts departments in this section. Vital implement parts are available, and Oldham maintains a staff of trained men to take care of any farm machinery repair job. Oldham is agent for McCormick-Deering implements and International Harvester tractors. (Kelsey Photo).

Borum recently installed a "White-U-Wait" photo shop next to the Lyric theatre, replacing his usual film developing service.

Miss Macomber And Cpl. Carrol Married In Ceremony Read At The Home Of Bride's Parents

Couple Married In Methodist Parsonage

Dean Lovin of Winnewood, Okla., and H. M. LeMay, Jr., were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the parsonage of the First Methodist church.

The Rev. H. Clyde Smith, pastor, read the ceremony.

The couple was attended by the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. LeMay.

The bride wore a brown dress with brown accessories and the bridesmaid wore black with black accessories.

Mrs. LeMay is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle LeMay of Oklahoma, and LeMay is the son of W. B. LeMay of Abilene.

The couple will be at home in Big Spring where LeMay is employed at the Big Spring State Hospital.

Country Club To Meet Semi-Monthly For Open House

Around forty-five couples attended the open house dance at the Country Club Saturday evening. Members have voted to meet semi-monthly due to gas rationing.

The next open house will be held Saturday evening Dec. 12, at 8:30 o'clock.

Couple To Live In Lawton, Okla.

Phyllis Macomber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Macomber, and Cpl. Maxie Carrol of Ft. Sill, Okla., were married Saturday evening in the home of the bride's parents at 10:30 o'clock.

The Rev. H. Clyde Smith read the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue velvet dress with white lace trim and white accessories. Her corsage was of white astors.

She was attended by Patsy Rossion who wore a grey and blue suit.

Cpl. Carrol was attended by Lieut. G. P. Bishop of Hondo Field, Texas.

Mrs. Carrol was graduated from Big Spring High school in 1938, and attended the Big Spring Business College.

She has been employed by Bell Telephone Co.

Cpl. Carrol, former Big Spring resident, was employed by Carnett Radio Shop before enlisting in the army.

The couple will make their home in Lawton, Okla., after a trip to Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston.

Those attending the wedding were James Craig, Mary Lou Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Carnett, Deward Carnett, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Macomber.

More Future Bombardiers—New York Leads In Number Of Cadets In New Class

(First of a series on the new cadet class at BSAAFBS.)

The Empire state leads all the rest in the number of cadets in the new bombardier class at the Big Spring Bombardier School, closely following is Texas, Illinois, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Ohio, California and New Jersey.

NEW YORK

Herbert J. Brice, Jr., was a farmer at Walker, N. Y., before he decided to learn how to drop bombs on Berlin. William J. Brown hails from Brooklyn and once was a sales clerk at Macy's. Interested in radio drama is Arthur D. Trotterberg of Rochester. He was a credit manager at a specialty company in Rochester when he wasn't practicing his avocation of radio acting. A New Yorker who came to Texas for an education is William Rose of Concourse. He was once a student at Southern Methodist. His civilian interest was writing and before coming to bombardier school he was stationed at Dutch Guiana in South America.

Albert L. Carter was the manager of a surety corporation in his home city of Brooklyn. He lists marital success as one of his ambitions. Max A. Glasser, Kings Highway, was a clothes designer. He is the fourth of his family to enter the service. Frederick B. Gatens was a mail clerk on the Eagle back in Brooklyn. Martin L. Wofford, Neponsit, graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and was a public accountant in civilian life. Robert A. Brienza was an executive of an oil company back in his home city, Brooklyn.

A bombardier from the Bronx is Louis Bergman who attended City College and was an advertising copy writer. Thomas J. Brown, Staten Island, was a bank clerk on Wall Street. Walter H. J.

Brown, Buffalo, was a salesman for an optical company. Harry E. Seraphine, another man from Bronx borough, was stock manager of a publishing house. Emil Randazzo, Brooklyn, was a checker at a packing house.

John G. Welch, Flushing, graduated from Fordham where he won letters as a varsity as a basketball player. He was an insurance clerk. William C. Montgomery, Forestville, N. Y., attended Jamestown Business College and was a surveyor in civilian life. John R. Campbell, Albany, was a salesman in civilian life. Alexander D. Allen, Pittsford, graduated from the University of Rochester. He was a football player in college. His father is a lieutenant colonel in the Medical Corps. Melvin L. Miles, Falconer, graduated from Alfred University.

TEXAS

William H. Murphy, Jr., Austin, attended the University of Texas. He is the fourth member of his family in the service. Andrew J. Blount, Mason, was a carpenter in civilian life and as for his ambition he quite simply declares he wants to be a success. James W. Summers, Dallas, has a brother in the merchant marine. O'Connor Bailey, Jr., Corsicana, was a telephone man at Fort Worth. Charles H. Krelling, Austin, attended the University of Texas where he was a champion wrestler and weight lifter.

Wilburn T. Salmon, Stamford, attended John Tarleton in Stephenville. He is interested in short story writing and journalism. After the war he hopes to become a clergyman in the Baptist church. Clyde Wade Apple, Dallas, was a service station man. Clifford R. Sutherland, Houston, attended the University of Houston. Joe S.

Randals, Lamesa, was a lumber yard manager and part owner.

ILLINOIS

Raymond Douglas Buckles, who attended the University of Illinois, comes from the town Jack Benny made famous, Waukegan. Two brothers are officers in the army. Lawrence W. Bowen, Chicago studied at Northwestern. He owned a service station in civilian life. A brother is with the Air Corps in England. Hubert J. Sullivan, who attended Wright Junior College in his home city of Chicago and later studied at Northwestern, was an advertising man. Jack A. Smith, Tuscola, attended Eastern Illinois State Teachers. Wayne J. Aberle, Elgin, took a degree from Sioux Falls College and received his masters from Northwestern. He was assistant advertising and promotion manager for a publishing house. His ambition, he says, is to die an old man. Richard W. Bauer, Chicago, was employed by a rubber company. Edward R. Luoma, another Waukegan boy, attended the University of Illinois. Maurice L. Hooks, Lawrenceville, is the fifth member of his family in the service. Of his four brothers, two are officers, one is a midshipman and another is a cavalry master sergeant. He was a worker at a J. C. Penney store in Indiana.

(Other new cadets will be introduced in next issues of The Herald.)

Even Revival Plans Changed By Ration

Gas rationing has reached into the affairs of a local church to force change in plans for a revival meeting.

The Rev. C. C. Mansfield, Oklahoma City evangelist, notified the Church of God here he would be unable to fill a two-weeks engagement today due to denial of an application for adequate gasoline to make his return trip.

Yesterday the church voted to go ahead with plans for the meeting with the pastor, the Rev. R. E. Bowden, preaching daily at 7:45 p. m. J. Fred Whitaker will direct the music.

The Auxiliary extends a cordial invitation to all enlisted men and their wives to attend the dance which begins at 8 o'clock.

Revival Opened At New Church

"The sin against the Holy Ghost is the persistent refusal to listen to its pleadings," stated Evangelist R. E. Delafield last night as he opened a 3-week revival in the newly-dedicated Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 12th and Rannels.

Tonight Delafield will speak on "The Movement Preparing the Way for Jesus' Return."

Randals, Lamesa, was a lumber yard manager and part owner.

ILLINOIS

Raymond Douglas Buckles, who attended the University of Illinois, comes from the town Jack Benny made famous, Waukegan. Two brothers are officers in the army. Lawrence W. Bowen, Chicago studied at Northwestern. He owned a service station in civilian life. A brother is with the Air Corps in England. Hubert J. Sullivan, who attended Wright Junior College in his home city of Chicago and later studied at Northwestern, was an advertising man. Jack A. Smith, Tuscola, attended Eastern Illinois State Teachers. Wayne J. Aberle, Elgin, took a degree from Sioux Falls College and received his masters from Northwestern. He was assistant advertising and promotion manager for a publishing house. His ambition, he says, is to die an old man. Richard W. Bauer, Chicago, was employed by a rubber company. Edward R. Luoma, another Waukegan boy, attended the University of Illinois. Maurice L. Hooks, Lawrenceville, is the fifth member of his family in the service. Of his four brothers, two are officers, one is a midshipman and another is a cavalry master sergeant. He was a worker at a J. C. Penney store in Indiana.

Even Revival Plans Changed By Ration

Gas rationing has reached into the affairs of a local church to force change in plans for a revival meeting.

The Rev. C. C. Mansfield, Oklahoma City evangelist, notified the Church of God here he would be unable to fill a two-weeks engagement today due to denial of an application for adequate gasoline to make his return trip.

Yesterday the church voted to go ahead with plans for the meeting with the pastor, the Rev. R. E. Bowden, preaching daily at 7:45 p. m. J. Fred Whitaker will direct the music.

Gestapo Chief Is Reported At Tulo

LONDON, Nov. 30. (AP)—Roundabout dispatches reported today that Heinrich Himmler, chief of the German Gestapo, had arrived in Tulo to deal with the aftermath of the destruction of the French home fleet by its own officers and men.

The Moscow radio broadcast a Tass dispatch date-lined Geneva which said Himmler was at the French Mediterranean naval base where the Nazis were carrying on a campaign to arrest and punish all Frenchmen in the former unoccupied zones accused of opposing the German authorities or belonging to illegal organizations.

Downtown Stroller

Had all kinds of visitors yesterday. LEE ANTILLET, who used to teach school here and is now working in Abilene at Camp Barkeley dropped in for a spell with Mr. and Mrs. PETER PETERS, of Merkal. Mrs. PETERS, you know, is the former ROSEMARY LABSTER.

Had a belated Thanksgiving Day dinner with NANCY PHILIPS, LEAH WOOD, and BETSY ROSS, also of Abilene who were here as guests of NANCY'S folks, Mr. and Mrs. SHINE PHILIPS. All these visits were being made "before gas rationing" and everybody seemed pretty morose about ever getting over again.

Pvt. GRADY REDDING, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. REDDING, wrote his parents the other day that he is now "sporting a sharpshooters medal" and that really makes his feel good.

Met Mrs. T. W. FRANKLIN, who spent several days here last week with her husband, who is new supervisor for the Liquor Control Board. The FRANKLINS formerly lived in Dallas and Mrs. FRANKLIN plans to become a Big Springer when and if they can find a place to live here.

BENNY COMPTON had his fifth birthday celebration the other day and his mother, Mrs. ESCOL COMPTON, claims she is still recuperating but the youngsters really had a wonderful time popping balloons, playing football, and eating mounds of cake and ice cream.

VISITS AND VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Underwood and James Lee spent the weekend in Odessa and Midland.

Lieut. G. P. Bishop, who is stationed at Hondo Field, near San Antonio, was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Carnett. Lieut. Bishop is Mrs. Carnett's brother.

Mrs. Wayne Gound and Mrs. W. L. Norman had as weekend guests, W. O. Norman, F. E. Norman and son Eugene of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson spent the weekend in Odessa visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Covin Shultz, former residents.

Mrs. J. B. Hodges returned Sunday evening from a trip to Texas, Kansas, and Greenwood, Miss. over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dorman Kinard have returned to Abilene after spending a furlough with Kinard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinard.

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moreland have returned from Cleburne where they visited with Mrs. J. L. Moreland and children.

Mrs. Cornell Smith and Margaret McDonald are business visitors in Abilene.

Grady Redding has been sent with a signal battalion to Tullahoma, Tenn. He formerly was at Camp Upton, N. Y.

Schools On A Full-Time Basis

President Homer P. Rainey of the University of Texas revives an old argument, with considerable cogency than hitherto existing, about the desirability of putting a round-the-calendar high school year into effect. He ties it in with the war effort, with the dejection that the country can't trade in the field of education a time like this.

This issue has been agitated for many years, without getting anywhere in particular; but maybe the exigencies of war will speed the process of agitation and reform.

A twelve-month high school term makes some sense in quite another direction besides the need for speed-up because of the war. In cities where overcrowding has been a headache it would go a long way toward solving that particular problem. If the schools operated straight through the summer and each individual pupil were given his customary three months' vacation, it would mean one-fourth the student body on vacation all the time, with a consequent lessening of the demand for space. There is no particular reason why school in summer should be any more difficult than school in winter. Or if all pupils went to school without the customary summer vacation the four-year course could be finished in three, which would also lessen the demand for space in the buildings.

Obviously the problem has many angles, and as many opinions as angles; but to say that the year-round term for high schools is undesirable even as a wartime emergency measure would be to confess that tradition and not invention dominates our educational economy. Most high schools operate in summer anyhow, on a limited schedule. They could go to full-scale without too much of a rearrangement of plans. Chief obstacle would be expanding and rearranging the teaching staffs.

2 GIRLS and a MAN

Chapter 51
SPIED ON

"My timing's too fast, isn't it?" Clark said quietly. "Makes me sound corny. I'm sorry. But when you meet one person who makes you feel like you've found a ballast..."

"That's a sack of sand, isn't it?" Rita murmured flippantly. Her skirt was pounding violently, but she covered her confusion by sneezing at her watch. "Half our year is gone. You'll be late if you show up that winter when I'm married."

He beamed joyously at her as she summoned the waiter. "I know I'd be the kind to watch over you," he said.

The evening swept on without a word. Rita sat entranced through Clark's play, her heart swelling with pride and happiness each time he appeared on the stage. A hardly followed the plot, she was so intent on him—listening to the warm tones of his voice, catching his tricks of stage technique, sensing his hold on the audience.

Afterwards, Duffy took her back to his dressing room to meet the director, and then she and Clark escaped through a horde of admirers pressing night club invitations. Out through the stage door through another horde of photographers and finally to Clark's car and a swift drive across the dim-lit city to the Waldorf Club.

As they danced, Clark continued to be warmly attentive, but Rita felt as determinedly refused to let him seriously.

"I don't dare," she assured him lightly. "You're giving the country girl a big thrill, and don't think I don't love it. But the famous, handsome stage actor, Clark Pasquin, interested in plain Rita Wilson from Blossom Ranch, California? Oh, no."

"What a woman," Clark mourned humorously. "Not one decent word of vanity I can work on."

Rita had almost forgotten the thrill of dancing to the strains of good orchestra in a dusky, intimate room—of lingering over delicious food and delicate wines though they had time without abruptly. She gasped. "You!" she cried.

Clark was startled. "You know Miss Ralston?"

Gloria's sullen eyes lighted with purpose, even as she turned back to face Clark. "But of course!" she cried gaily. "Our fathers went to school together! I've been dying to show Rita the town. That settles it. Now you must join us!"

But Clark affably excused himself and Rita on ground of weariness. They said their goodbyes, but as they turned toward the door, Rita caught Gloria's black eyes on her in a glance so vibrant with hatred she felt as if she'd been struck.

Completely exhausted and puzzled, Rita relaxed against the leather seat of Clark's car, while he drove once around the park. A white moon gleamed frostily through misty clouds. The tires made a singing noise on the macadam of the drive.

"Is that important business of yours going to keep you all day tomorrow?" he asked quietly.

"I want to work out what I'm going to say in the morning and see Mr. Cunningham in the afternoon," she answered dreamily.

"All right. But I'm picking you up for lunch." He smiled down at her slowly. "You still don't believe I'm serious, do you?"

She laughed and shook her head.

Siege To Come

He pulled the car to the curb before her hotel. His voice was low. "You're facing a siege, little country girl," he said. "I haven't wanted a lot of things in my life—but I always knew what they were, and they always haunted me till I got them. Just a warning."

"Thanks," Rita whispered, smiling above a thudding heart.

He pulled her slowly into his arms, kissing her once, slowly, gently and released her.

The world swung away from them. They were alone, in a place of quiet wonder, utterly unaware of the doorman at the curb, the cars whirling by the street beside them—or of a limousine that passed very slowly, on the back seat of which Gloria watched them with hard, flashing eyes.

"She lives at Hotel Cheltenham," she said thoughtfully. Her voice was a vindictive whisper.

Readjustments Ahead For The Oil Industry

AUSTIN, Nov. 30. (AP)—The Texas oil industry moves into a month of stepped up production tomorrow with operators emphasizing major readjustments they consider essential to prepare the industry for full war production.

Apprehensive of the long-range petroleum outlook, producers today expressed concern over injunction proceedings against the railroad for East Texas and the state's ability to fill the crude requirements of expanding military operations on a long term basis.

An injunction restraining the commission from enforcing the water-oil order was asked in 98th district court here Saturday by a group of operators from the west side of the field who contended that the order was confiscatory and a violation of the due process clauses of the constitution.

The application claimed the ratio violated the marginal well statute and would result in a ten per cent loss of reserve due to the west-east migration of oil in the field.

That the commission's plan to stabilize conditions in East Texas would be challenged was predicted by Commissioner Olin Culberson and other oil experts when the water-oil order was issued.

There is more unreserved public opinion in Alaska than in all the states combined.

New York Demonstrating That It Has A Heart

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — War, which is changing just about everything, has gone to work on New York's famed reputation as a place where strangers had better never venture unless they're willing to pay fancy prices for every favor.

Missionary work on this new "New York's really got a heart" theme is coming from the fighting men of the United Nations. There are good reasons for small town American soldiers and sailors to carry this amazing news back home. Good reasons, too, for malnourished Britons, Australians, New Zealanders, Canadians and the others to tell the home folks that Manhattan's greed just isn't so—at least for service men, and at least for the duration.

One reason is New York City's Defense Recreation Center at Park Avenue and 40th Street. It's this center's job to keep some 5,000 visiting service men a day happy while they're in the city.

plays, movies and concerts are on the board—as well as sports shows, guided tours through Rockefeller Center, free swimming, dancing, lectures, lunches and dinners, radio broadcasts, table tennis and checkers.

It's amusing to watch reactions when an out-of-town boy realizes for the first time that he can do free many of the things he's always dreamed of doing—when he had the price. Like a child at a candy counter, he usually can't make up his mind. It's also amusing to a New Yorker accustomed to waiting in line and dropping $3.30 in the till for a seat six weeks later at a Broadway stage hit to see the selling job that must be done to persuade some of the men that a free visit to a hit show would really be worth while.

Free shows are only one facet of New York's war-time hospitality. There are about 25 lounges and club houses throughout the city, where United Nations men can read, write letters, and play games. There's the Stage Door Canteen, with free refreshments and dancing with stage and night club stars. There are good hotels where they can get a room for fifty cents a night. There's even a place run by the American Women's Voluntary Services where they can get uniforms repaired free.

Washington Daybook Post-War Policies Shaping Up

By JACK STENNETT

WASHINGTON—Gradually the capital is assembling a number of little clues that may build up into a picture of how the United Nations intend to establish real freedom in those parts of the world which have suffered despotism and slavery.

The story starts with the signing of the Atlantic Charter and a little later, the signing of the joint statement of aims by leaders of the United Nations. It continues down through speeches and statements by President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull. It takes in Wendell Willkie's speech after his globe-girdling flight and the president's comments on Willkie's speech.

The latest clue, and perhaps the most definite to date, was the president's speech on the seventh anniversary of the Philippine Commonwealth. The Atlantic Charter spoke of "respect for the rights of all people to choose their forms of government." The matter rested there for some time—until Willkie returned with word that the Far East, particularly China, was bewildered as to Anglo-American war aims. Many Orientals, Willkie said, had read the Atlantic Charter. "Rightly or wrongly," he continued, "they ask: what about a Pacific charter? what about a world charter?"

The president answered that one by stating that "the Atlantic Charter applies to all humanity," and was so called simply because it was signed at sea in the Atlantic.

Still unanswered, however, was the question which Willkie reported was causing the most uneasiness in China: "What about India?" The Chinese, he said, were particularly alarmed not at the British attitude, but at the fact that the U. S. failed to step in and mediate the Indian dispute.

Now comes Mr. Roosevelt's Philippine speech. It gives a strong suggestion of the way his thinking is running.

"I like to think," the president said, "that the history of the Philippine Islands in the last 44 years provides in a very real sense a pattern for the future of small nations and peoples of the world."

It is a pattern of what men of good will look forward to in the future.

Who would Mr. Roosevelt include among his "men of good will?" Winston Churchill certainly. And here is what may be the tip-off on how men of good will plan to restore real popular rule to conquered Germany and her satellites, and perhaps how they plan to handle India and other colonial areas.

"But we must remember," Mr. Roosevelt continued, "that such a pattern is based on two important factors: one through the dissemination of education, the second is that there must be a period of training and ultimate independent sovereignty, through practice of more and more self government."

Hollywood Sights and Sounds—Just How 'Sexy' Is Susan Hayward?

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Miss Susan Hayward from Flatbush is a gal in what you might call a predicament.

She's been told many things about herself since she came to Hollywood nearly five years ago. One of the first things was that she wasn't "sexy" enough. One of the latest things was that she was "too sexy."

Red-haired Miss Hayward gives us the plain facts of the matter: "It's not so," she says.

This is how it started, when Susan finished high school in Brooklyn and went to New York to crash the stage and become a great actress. The stage, as far as Susan was concerned, stayed uncrashed, but she did some modeling and David O. Selznick saw her picture. That was in the days when Selznick saw a Scarlett

O'Hara in every pretty face, and Susan came to Hollywood for $200 a week and a Scarlett test. They soon suggested she use the rest of her round-trip ticket.

"But I was here, and I wanted to do something. I got a job at Warner's, and posed for a lot of stills. They let me out and I went over to Paramount. I went to all the other studios too but they said no. Paramount had said no, but I heard they had a new talent man. Miss Hayward, who is small and shapely, made a sensational debut in "Beau Geste" as the girl the boys left behind—mostly on the cutting room floor. After that she began asking around the lot for parts, but was lost in the shuffle. One day Gregory Ratoff gave her a book called "Adam Had Four Sons." Ratoff and his wife, Eugenie Leontovich, presented her to Robert Sherwood, the producer. "She's not sexy enough," said

Sherwood. Ratoff and Eugenie coached her some more, and sold Sherwood. Susan played the scheming, heartless role and knocked the eyes out of it. So she went back to Paramount.

"I still didn't get anything much to do," she says. "Oh, yes, there was a part in 'Reap the Wild Wind', and then in 'Forest Rangers', but nothing really big for me. I read a lot of parts I'd have liked, but they all went to Paulette Goddard or Veronica. I'm at Republic now, on loan for 'Hit Parade of '43', and I sing, which is something I've never done before. So that's how it stands now—I'm young, and optimistic, and having a lot of fun."

"I keep on reading parts, though. I went to Hunt Stromberg, who's making 'Guest in the House', to ask for the part of the girl. You know what he said? He said I was 'too sexy.' So..."

LEGAL NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO LOUIS ROBERSON, GREETING:

You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 14th day of December, A. D. 1942, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Howard County, Texas, at the Court House in Big Spring, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 9th day of November, 1942. The file number of said suit being No. 4628. The names of the parties in said suit are: FAYE ROBERSON as Plaintiff, and LOUIS ROBERSON as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: That plaintiff is a bona fide inhabitant of Texas and has been for a year, and a resident of Howard County, and has been for six months next prior to the filing of this suit, that they were married Feb. 1, 1939, and separated July 15, 1941 for the reason his course of conduct was of such a nature as to render their living together unbearable and insupportable, that of the said marriage there is one child, Jimmie Ross Roberson, praying for a divorce and for custody of the child.

Issued this 9th day of Nov. 1942. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring, Texas, this 9th day of Nov. A. D., 1942.

HUGH W. DUNAGAN,
Clerk, District Court, Howard County, Texas.
By E. Housewright, Deputy.

Twenty-seven Hurt In MP Derailment

NEW BRAUNFELS, Nov. 30 (AP)—At least 27 persons were injured, one seriously, when two cars of the San Antonio-bound Missouri Pacific Pacific Sunshine Special were derailed half a mile north of here last night.

Witnesses said had the accident occurred 100 feet farther on, the cars would have plunged into the Guadalupe river.

Forceful Message By Dr. Shuler Co-operative Revival Ends With

Dr. Bob Shuler, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church of Los Angeles, Calif., closed a two week city wide revival at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening with a dynamic message on "Mud".

Around 1500 persons heard the most forceful of his sermons in which he demonstrated the imaginary healing of the blind man. Dr. Shuler pointed out the noticeable pomp and ceremony which would today be included in the healing, and that man, not God, would receive recognition.

Pvt. Jake Douglass sang "An Evening Prayer" and Les James, Jr., played as a piano solo "I Will Follow Thee."

Musical direction has been in charge of Dr. I. E. Reynolds, director of music at the Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

The Rev. John English, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, and president of the pastor's association thanked local business firms and church for cooperation in making the revival a success.

Twelve local churches, the Salvation Army, Post Chaplain, and churches of Forsan, Cosboma, and Ackerly took part in the cooperative meeting which dealt more with church members and reconstruction than with admissions and new members.

The Rev. Robert E. Bowden, treasurer of the association, reported donations and offerings sufficient to cover expenses of the meeting.

Several pastors commenting on the meeting stated:

Rev. H. Clyde Smith: "Honestly, it was the strongest series of sermons I have ever heard. I was highly pleased with the fine feeling throughout the cooperative meeting."

The Rev. Elmer Dunham, pastor of E. Fourth Baptist: "It was the most successful co-op revival I have ever heard of for two reasons. First, it unified the forces of Christian people, and secondly, it brought spiritual messages and inspiration to church members."

The Rev. J. E. McCoy, pastor of the First Christian church: "I was gratified at the large crowds and marvelous sermons of Rev. Shuler, and at the fine spirit of cooperation between churches."

70th District Court Faces Light Term

The December term of the 70th District court opened Monday morning at 10 o'clock with the prospects of an extremely light session.

The grand jury panel was called and charged by Judge Cecil Collings to investigate law violations and complaints filed to come to their attention.

George O'Brien was named as foreman and other jurors are Earl Brownrigg, W. L. Meade, Freeman Denton, Dewel Martin, O. D. O'Daniel, Dalton Mitchell, S. T. Johnson, J. W. Briggance, K. S. Beckett, W. C. Russell, Walter Robinson.

Balliffs appointed were J. L. Burns, J. F. Crenshaw and J. A. Adams. Pett jurors for the first week were sworn in. The grand jury went immediately into session and petit jurors were dismissed until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The Rev. J. E. English gave the invocation to open court.

Criminal cases were set for Monday of next week by Judge Collings. Other cases set for the first week are Tuesday, McCann versus McDaniel, suit for damages; Friday, Lipscomb versus Meiver, suit for division of partnership funds.

For the second week: Monday, State versus Lowery, Stone versus Roadway Transport Co., suit for damages; Walker versus Partin, suit for debt; Smith versus Federal Underwriters, suit for damages; Lopes versus Smith, suit for damages.

Third week: Monday, Stafford versus Lawyers Lloyds, suit to set aside award; Couden versus Thomas, suit on note; Washington versus Associated Indemnity Corp., suit to set aside award; D. M. Wodall versus American General Insurance Company, suit for compensation; city of Big Spring versus L. E. Coleman, paving suit; Gregory versus Gregory, suit for support; Williams versus Williams, divorce and injunction order.

The fourth week's cases set were Fletcher versus City of Big Spring, damages; T. P. Alexander versus Pioneer Mutual Insurance company, suit to set aside award; and Witter et al versus Smith-Brand, habeas corpus.

Air Raid Wardens To Be Utilized In Explaining Meat Sharing Plan

All city air raid wardens are urged to attend a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the courthouse when details of the "Share the Meat" campaign will be outlined by E. H. Reagan, community groups program chairman, and Miss Fontilla Johnson, home demonstration agent.

Civilian Defense Commander Carl Elomsheld said it was absolutely necessary that all wardens, including sector wardens, attend and receive instruction for disseminating information to every family in the city.

Victory Councils are cooperating with civilian defense workers in carrying plans for the meat-sharing campaign into rural homes.

Under the voluntary plan, the weekly share of meat for a person over 12 years of age is 2-1/2 pounds. Families who have been using more meat than allowed under the sharing system will be asked to adjust their menus to get the most from every bit of meat, to eliminate waste in all forms and to use meat substitutes wherever possible.

Although civilians are asked to limit their consumption of beef, veal, lamb, mutton and pork, including canned meats and sausage made from these meats, they may use freely poultry, fish and variety meats—such as kidney, liver, brains, sweetbreads, and tongue.

Attack Is Fatal To I. C. Briggs

Rites will be held Tuesday at 3 p. m. for Ila Coleman Briggs, 62, carpenter, who succumbed to an heart attack Sunday evening.

Briggs had served as a carpenter and a rig builder here for the past 30 years. He was a native of Coleman, Texas, and was a Methodist.

Services will be held at the Nally chapel and interment made in the city cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. I. C. Briggs; three sons, C. C. and J. D. of Big Spring, and B. L. Briggs, Dallas; Mrs. Evelyn Brimberry and Mildred Briggs, Big Spring; and three brothers, Elias and Aaron Briggs, Coleman, and Adam Briggs, San Antonio.

Palbearers will be W. M. Shephard, Alvin Burnett, E. G. Russell, T. E. Shipley, Johnnie Carwell, C. N. Wilkerson, Troy Piers, and W. S. Barnhill, Stanton.

Syndicate Buys Okla. City Club

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 30. (AP)—The Oklahoma City Indians of the Texas League have been purchased by a $250,000 syndicate headed by H. O. Pope and C. R. Virtue, and the Holland family—which had guided the precarious fortunes of the club for 24 years—thus stepped quietly from the picture.

Sold were the franchise, Holland Field, the $85,000 home park of the team, and the contracts of 16 players, six of whom are in the armed forces.

Pope and Virtue both said they were going ahead with plans for the operation of the team in the Texas League in the 1943 season and would continue to operate independently of major league clubs, except for optioned players. They reported promises of players had been obtained from three major league clubs.

Plans are going ahead for the liquidation of the club's debts and $50,000 in stock in the team will be sold to the public to provide working capital.

The late John Holland, Sr., was president of Oklahoma City teams in the Western League and Texas League from 1918 until his death in 1937. Thereafter the club was in the hands of his son, John Holland, Jr., who announced the sale yesterday.

Fatal Fire

with hardly a scorched spot on the outside walls and roof, but with the interior a mass of debris.

Among notables who escaped from the inferno were Charles (Buck) Jones, Van Nuys, Calif., cowboy star of the motion pictures who was critically burned, and Scott Dunlap, also of Van Nuys, motion picture producer, who was injured and among those hospitalized.

Other widely known persons who either perished or were injured include Edward Ansin, Brookline, Mass., president of the Interstate Theatre Corporation and treasurer of a Boston textile firm, dead; Joseph A. Boratyn, star fullback of the Holy Cross football team a year ago, dead.

Helen Welch, daughter of Vincent S. Welch of Fort Washington, N. Y., vice president of the Equitable Life Insurance Society, dead; Mary Ellen McCormack, niece of U. S. Representative John W. McCormack, missing.

BOSTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—If they had carried out their original plan of drinking a final nuptial toast at 10 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil, a bridal couple of only three hours, would be alive today instead of being victims of the Coconut Grove fire.

When they were married late Saturday, the two Cambridge couples were planning a wedding party for themselves and their nuptial attendants at the nightclub, and the bride, the former Claudia Nadeau, said:

"Supper at 8, and at 10, we will have our last toast and leave for our new apartment in Cambridge."

But they tarried over that last toast. All in the party were victims.

Post Spanish Class To Start Tuesday

First class in a course in conversational Spanish offered free to enlisted men and their wives will be conducted Tuesday at 7 p. m. at the post clerical school by Pvt. Elio Carasco, former professor at New Mexico A. & M. College, the Big Spring Bombarrier School public relations office announced today.

The course for officers and wives will begin with the first class Friday night at 7:45 o'clock at the Settles hotel.

The special services section at the bomberrier school offers the course for enlisted men in cooperation with the Army Institute, which also offers for a small fee instruction through correspondence courses.

Army men may also receive college credit for university extension courses offered by 75 participating schools in the nation. Half of the tuition fee in such courses is paid by the government.

Board Instructs Use Of Emergency Forms

To relieve a bottleneck in issuance of gasoline ration books in time for the start of mileage rationing Tuesday, the local boards are advised that if the board can not process all applications for transport, fleet and official rations by December 1st, that such applicants may obtain necessary gasoline by signing OPA form 4-855 at any filling station.

The announcement came from Texas OPA Director Mark McGee who also instructed the board to advise all filling stations that where the proper OPA form is not available, needy truck operators and operators of fleets of passenger cars can obtain gasoline by signing their names to any sheet on which is stated the license number of motor vehicle and amount of gasoline obtained for it.

Italy

We shall use Africa to come to closer grips.

"Our operations in French North Africa should enable us to bring the weight of the war home to the Italian fascist state in a manner not hitherto dreamed of by its guilty leaders, or still less, by the unfortunate people Mussolini has led, exploited and disgraced."

Churchill pointed to the series and Italians in Tunisia.

"But Africa is no halting place. of punishing raids the RAF has inflicted on Italian industrial and shipping centers, the most recent Saturday night when heavy bombs were dropped again on Turin.

The Russian battles are "moving forward to a climax" and weakened German divisions must prepare themselves, he said, "for a second dose of what they got last year."

But England's war leader also warned his audience: "I know of nothing that has happened yet which justifies the hope that the war will not be long or that bitter, bloody years do not lie ahead. It may be that the war in Europe will come to an end before the war in Asia."

Then, he added, in that event "we should of course bring all our forces to the aid of the United States and our kith and kin in Australia and New Zealand in the struggle against the aggressions of Japan."

Water 'Branch' Taste Due To Change At Lake And Plant

The unusual (branch) taste of city water for the past several weeks may be attributed to the annual "turning" of the lake and change in content of chemicals used in the purification process, City Manager Boyd McDaniel said today.

No cause for alarm exists, however, as bacteriological tests, taken every day at the plant, show absolutely no contamination.

The "turning" is a phenomenon of nature resulting in the change of seasons. With the arrival of cold weather, surface water becomes colder than water at the bottom of the lake, causing it to fall and the other to rise.

Aggravating the situation this year is the fact that specifications on the contents of the alum mixture have been changed by the War Production Board and the product contains more insoluble substance, which is harmless if not tasteless.

There are about 26,000,000 trade union members in the U.S.S.R.

Weather Forecast

WEST TEXAS—Mild temperatures this afternoon; colder in Panhandle and South Plains tonight. Quite windy.

EAST TEXAS—Warmer this afternoon and tonight except slightly colder late tonight over extreme northwest portion. Fresh to strong winds over north portion this afternoon and tonight and winds increasing over south portion tonight.

M'Govern Still Is Leading Scorer

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (AP)—Although both Bob Steuber of Missouri and Gene Fekete of Ohio State, increased their scoring totals in last week's games neither did it enough fervor to threaten the leadership of Eddie McGovern of Rose Poly, whose team completed its schedule two weeks ago.

Steuber remains in third place with 114 points to 165 for McGovern and has another chance this Saturday. With the Iowa pre-flight team furnishing the opposition, however, it is unlikely that the Missouri halfback will wipe out the 51-point difference.

James Secret of Rochester, Rochester halfback who also has been idle the past two weeks, retains second place with 133 rallies and Frank Sinkwich of Georgia is fourth with 96. A touchdown and five conversions against the Iowa Seahawks Saturday, lifted Fekete to an aggregate of 92.

Firemen Need Old Toys Immediately

An empty Christmas stocking may be in store for some child if the appeal for broken and discarded toys issued by the fire department is disregarded.

Following an annual custom, members of the department collect the toys and spend several weeks painting, repairing and otherwise putting the toys in shape to delight some child who otherwise would be forgotten at Christmas. The toys are distributed in Christmas baskets packed by the Salvation Army for needy families.

At this time, when supplies used in the repair of such toys are difficult to secure, it is more than ever necessary that unwanted toys be sent in early. Only a few have been received so far, Chief Ollie Cordill said today in renewing his appeal.

French Island Of Reunion Surrenders

LONDON, Nov. 30. (AP)—The French island of Reunion was surrendered to allied forces today following a two-hour ultimatum to Governor Aubert by a Fighting French commander, the Vichy radio announced today.

Governor Aubert gave the order to cease resistance because of a "threat to destroy buildings of economic importance and of the situation in which the population was placed," the announcement said.

A French possession since 1643, Reunion was the last island of the French Empire to remain under Vichy's control. It would be a logical expansion of footholds taken by the allies in the Indian ocean area to combat axis submarine and espionage activities.

Floor Under Farm Labor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—James F. Byrnes, economic stabilization director, today removed all restrictions from increasing farm labor pay up to $2,400 a year, and prohibited farm wage cuts below the highest rate between Jan. 1, 1942, and Sept. 15, 1942, except upon consent of secretary of agriculture Wickard.

Drug Store Damaged By Sunday Blaze

Considerable damage was done by smoke from a fire at the J. & L. Drug store in the Douglas hotel building, about 6:20 a. m. Sunday before the blaze was extinguished by the fire department.

Painters and drug store employees worked throughout Sunday repainting the walls and cleaning smoke-damaged merchandise and fixtures.

The store had just been opened for the day when grease on the grill caught fire and sent flames shooting almost to the ceiling of the kitchen.

Skunks and screech owls, as well as cats and dogs, will destroy field mice.
