TRAIL DUST

Hasty decisions may not be the part of prudence, but on the other hand careful deliberation of a situation may allow the situation to escape forever.

This nation becomes a little stronger after each election; a little more independent of any other form of government.

I sincerely pity the man who has never known the happiness that work alone can produce.

A television station announces nightly, "It is 11 o'clock; where are your children?" Children watching the program may wonder where their parents are.

For a poor man to marry wealth is like tilting a pin ball machine.

Flattery may not get you any place, but it won't add to your roster of enemies.

Ignorance provides a special immunity to many of the world's problems, but by the same qualification serenity and stupidity would be closely related.

Love never needs an excuse for its presence; it is its departure that is never fully explained.

The only time you ever hear spurs jingle now is when the pick-up hits some rough ground and they bounce on the metal floor.

Auto Licenses Expire April 1

You can't put it off much longer. That 1967 tag on your automobile, truck or pickup has got to go. Monday is the last day you can use your 1967 license plates.

All motor vehicles must have 1968 plates Tuesday morning. (April 1 midnight is the deadline).

While registration is going at a fast clip, a large number of Motley County vehicles must have new tags by Monday midnight.

Also, in event you have not had your vehicles inspected, it is best you do it now. Expiration date is April 15 for the safety sticker, and you might as well have old license plates as an old safety sticker after that date.

Smith Picture Fund Complete

The Tribune's campaign to raise $25 for the purchase of a painting by Ft. Worth artist Rogers Melton has been completed.

Tuesday afternoon the newspaper delivered to the pioneer cowboy $17 in cash. The fund was over-subscribed and a total of $50 was received. After the price of the picture was received, it was decided to purchase a suitable frame. Mrs. W. F. Jacobs, manager of Matador Variety secured the frame at cost, amounting to $8.

The following contributions were received in addition to those already published: Clyde Gilbert $1, Jack Luckett $1, Jinks Wilson $1, and Mrs. H. E. Allen of Seattle, Washington (former Flora Belle Willis) $1. Several persons made personal contributions to Mr. Smith.

The Tribune wishes to thank everyone who contributed to the fund. Mr. Smith was pleased with the response of friends and with his picture which he now has at his home; and the $17 "birthday present."

FIRST DAY OF SPRING—Above photo was made a week ago Wednesday on the first day of spring. It is a view of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith's home and is typical of many other homes in Matador, when ice and snow bowed trees to the breaking point. Sudden warm weather changed the landscape quickly, and temperatures of 70 degrees and higher have prevailed this week. The snow, however, did not vanish suddenly. It was still present on the south side of the courthouse square at noon Sunday, and snow was still in evidence on the north side of Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. building at 2 p.m. Monday. —Tribune photo

Woman "Bitten" By Dead Snake

Nemesis of a dead rattlesnake Tuesday caused Mrs. Jim Stockton to be treated with snake-bite serum, the result of a freak accident at the Matador Ranch Larkey line camp about two miles west of Matador.

Mr. Stockton is a ranch employee and was away when his wife heard their dog baying some intruder. She found a rattlesnake in the front yard. Mrs. Stockton shot the snake and the dog immediately attacked the reptile, shaking it violently.

The snake's head was shaken loose from its body and struck Mrs. Stockton over the left temple. After she had disposed of the snake she noticed two places where the head had struck her face and believed the fangs had broken the skin.

She had no transportation from the line camp and walked to Matador. Dr. Albert Traweek administered rattlesnake serum test and then administered the serum.

Mrs. Bill Slover drove Mrs. Stockton back home, apparently none the worse from her experience.

Mr. Wilson and their daughter, Nella, were both away from the house at the time and missed the call.

"I was so excited I couldn't think of anything to say," Mrs. Wilson said later. "He asked me what time it was here (it was 2:30 p.m.) but I didn't think to ask him what time it was there."

Sp/5 Wilson was recently transferred to Da Nang from Qui Nhon. While stationed at Qui Nhon, he and another Matador serviceman, Larry Burkes who was also stationed there, were together several times.

Lions Annual Show Slated Next Week

VETERAN Members of the Matador Lions Club displayed no apprehension yesterday that the organization's annual show, "The Gay Nineties" would be staged on schedule Tuesday night, April 2, as announced.

Younger Lions wondered. General show chairman, Glen Brotherton was in Oklahoma Tuesday night, and acting chairman Lion Ben Edwards was trying to collect the various segments of the annual production. He said it would be the best show the Lions had ever produced. He said some groups were rehearsing and others were collecting materials, costumes and props for the show.

Lion Edwards declared that 1,000 boxes of candy had been received but that the committee to collect prizes had not reported. Tradition of the club is to collect several hundred dollars worth of prizes from local business firms. A number is attached to the prize and a corresponding number is placed in a box of candy. The buyers of the candy may recover his prize by bringing it to the stage.

In a moment of confidence,

Lion Edwards said the quality of the candy is not improved, and that personally he would not recommend it to denture-wearers.

Mrs. Glenn Woodruff said she is rehearsing a combo as a part of the program. Edwards said the 1st place winners in the school's amateur hour, will appear on the Lions Show.

Lion Ralph Stapleton will be Master of Ceremonies. The show will start at 8:15 Tuesday night in order not to conflict with the Baptist Church revival in progress on that date.

The entire show will consist of individual acts, or "skits" by groups rehearsing for Tuesday night, so veteran Lions are not worried. They know that the show will have a packed house and that the audience will have a good time, as will the Lions.

The following is the list of high school girls who will participate in the Queen's contest: Deborah Tilson, Kathy Lawrence, Seven Smith, Judy Marrs, Barbara Slover, Laura Jacobs, Brenda Wason and Patty Edwards.

Baptists to Begin Revival Sunday

Revival services will begin Sunday at the First Baptist Church and continue through next week, with Rev. Wayne Blankenship, pastor of College Heights Baptist Church in Plainview, serving as evangelist. Wayne Logan, Music Director of the local church will be in charge of the song services.

Theme of the revival will be "My Best for Christ," as announced by the pastor, Rev. Larry Heard.

Using the theme as an incentive, a Sunday School attendance campaign has been in progress from the Nursery through the Young People's departments the past two weeks.

"We are anticipating a carryover of attendance interest in the adult department also, as a result of this campaign, which will continue through the revival," the pastor said. Wednesday night prayer services have centered about the revival in spiritual preparation for the meeting.

Morning services will be at 7:30 through Friday, and coffee and doughnuts will be served following Evening services are announced for 7:30.

Services Tuesday evening, however, will begin at 7:00 o'clock in cooperation with the Matador Lions Club, whose annual show has been scheduled on that date.

A cordial invitation is extended everyone, to attend all services of the meeting.

Young Farmers Revamp Chapter

At a meeting held Monday night, March 18, the Motley County Young Farmers voted to change the membership requirements, to include farmers and others interested in agriculture, of all ages.

During the business session, following a program on fertilizers, it was decided that there were not enough young men in the county to carry out an active Young Farmers organization.

It was also generally agreed that some of the older farmers would not participate in this organization, whereas they might do so under a different title.

Following the discussion, the group decided to change the name to Motley County Farm and Ranch Educational organization, and to include everyone, regardless of age. With this concept it is hoped that everyone interested will attend the programs.

A program on the varieties of cotton suitable for dry-land farming will be given at the next meeting of the organization, on the third Monday of April, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Outstanding Entertainment Adds To Enjoyment of "Gypsy" Banquet

Outstanding musical entertainment by the Lin Mar Syx of Wayland College, coupled with a message saturated with humor by Rev. Frank Pollard of Tullia, against a background of colorful Gypsy decorations combined to provide an evening long to be remembered by young people of the community, Thursday.

Occasion was the annual banquet sponsored by the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union for the youth of the church and including all high school students.

The talented musical group, composed of Wayne Logan, Music and Youth Director of the local church, guitarist George Gagliardi, Roger Posey, Bill Phillie and Misses Linda Allen and Mary Carpenter presented a program of approximately 45 minutes of fast-paced, catchy vocal selections.

Rev. Pollard, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tullia, after several minutes of hilarious monologue, switched abruptly to the current weather pattern and spoke on "Ruts," citing muddy ruts left last week in the wake of the snow storm.

Quoting a sign on a road in Canada, "Choose your rut carefully; you'll be in it for the next 20 miles," he warned the audience of young people to choose carefully the path of life they are now considering, because, "You will probably be in it for the rest of your lives."

He urged them to choose the good rut of a "mission" in life; to attain something worthwhile

A "JOLLY" GRADUATION TO TOTAL ELECTRIC LIVING

"Electric heating is healthier—we never have colds any more... we just love it."
—Mrs. Grady Jolly

Built at the turn of the century—converted to total-electric operation 1963. No structural changes—a few partitions added plus insulation and wiring. "Decorating was the big job!"

Take a happy, lively family like Dr. and Mrs. Grady B. Jolly, Randy, David, Don and Joy, put them slap-dab in the middle of a 40-acre suburban estate, surround them with horses, pets, vines, trees and old walls and they will make it into a lovely, livable home where friends meet and enjoy the livin'!

The big country kitchen with its total-electric convenience is the heart of the home. Mrs. Jolly's eye for antiques, knack with a paint brush and skill at her electric sewing machine has re-created the look of early America that loses none of its traditional charm amid the ultra modern electrical conveniences.

- Total-electric Gold Medallion • 11 rooms—3 baths—6 in family • 40 acres electrified fence
- 2 water pumps—power tools • ALL FOR $52.80 PER MONTH AVERAGE OPERATING COST • It's easy to convert to Total-Electric Living...See WTU or your building contractor

Superb Talent Displayed In One-Act Play

THE INGREDIENTS for a great performance were present here Sunday afternoon in the high school auditorium for one of the finest high school one-act plays ever presented on any stage.

It was a free admission preview of "Mr. Flannery's Ocean," directed by Mrs. Reece (Grace) Timmons, and will be presented at Jayton April 1 in contest for honors in Interscholastic League competition.

Terry Keltz is an actor. His ability was expertly fitted to a vehicle that might have been written for him.

It is true that the supporting cast was of the first magnitude and the entire group might well be proud of their performances. Professionals would be unable to improve on the show and any college would be proud to have its name attached to its billing.

But the show rests on Keltz, a mixed up and irascible retired Irish sea captain who believes he owns the ocean. Kathy Lawrence as Mrs. Pringle, an American widow, gives a sympathetic and convincing performance.

Seven Smith is the attractive maid, Maug, who stays beyond the reach of Flannery's shillalah but banter his unrestrained remarks. Patty Edwards is Mrs. Klappington, the housekeeper, proper, emaculate and convincing.

Larry Jameson and Barbara Slover are children granted the right to swim in Mr. Flannery's ocean. They handle the parts skillfully.

Larry Bostick as Mr. Morrison and Jeanette Day as his wife of a few hours reach a reconciliation, with convincing aplomb following some secret advice to Morrison from the never-wed Irish seaman.

The play is great, the casting and direction superb and the acting is that of seasoned professionals. Also outstanding are the authentic costumes of the early 1900's, made locally by Mrs. Ben Keltz.
