Flu Hits Hard

Although not considered in epidemic proportions, flu, both types, Asian and "old fashioned" has hit Matador, among other South Plains communities.

Absenteeism in the local schools is attributed to several causes, including flu. A number of cases of chicken pox and mumps have been reported.

Schools Superintendent Charlie Johnson said earlier in the week that classes would continue through Thursday, since Friday has already been designated as Teacher's Work Day, with a school recess.

TRAIL DUST

I have been trying a heating pad against an arthritic shoulder. I am not certain of its benefit, but I am positive of one thing. It is as uncomfortable as sleeping with a blind bride.

Some of the greatest mistakes in the world are made by people who are afraid to make a move.

A television comic says $1000 will buy all kinds of luxuries. It will make so many down payments!

Show me a man's compassion, and allow me to figure out his character, his religion, and whether or not I will seek his friendship.

Several years ago I was grieved at the death of Albert Einstein. I equally grieved to read that he was an atheist. I am relieved to know that I was mistaken about his lack of religion. He believed that ideas came from God, although he felt no need for religious ritual and did not belong to a church. He was deeply religious.

Sometimes when I look at my face, it is possible to understand how it could achieve its condition, with just tiny seconds, no matter how many millions of them.

Some love is like charcoal. It is dormant for years, until again ignited, then it burns low and with greater heat than when it was flame and smoke.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Sally Huey during the recent holidays included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huey, Jill and Lon, of Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lovett and children of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Seigler and sons, Mark and Max of Odessa, Miss Linda Seigler of Dallas and Don Seigler of Mexico.

Rites Held For Former Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. George Leach, 46, of Salinas, Calif., were held here at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church, with the pastor, Rev. Larry Heard officiating.

The former Gay Wolfe, Mrs. Leach was reared here and graduated from Matador High School in 1940. She was a niece of local residents Mrs. E. D. Lawrence and Givens Crump.

Funeral arrangements were directed by Seigler Funeral home, with burial in East Mound Cemetery.

Born Elmore Gay Wolfe, March 16, 1921 at Farmersville, Texas, Mrs. Leach came to Matador in 1927 as a child with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wolfe, and made her home here until about 1943 when she moved to California. She was married to George Leach in Reno, Nevada. They had made their home in Salinas the past several years and she died in a hospital there, January 3, at the age of 46 years, 9 months and 17 days.

Survivors include her husband, a sister, Mrs. Estelle Barrett of Graham; a nephew, Wendell Barrett of Snyder and a niece, Mrs. Wynona Watkins of Porterville, Calif.

Pallbearers were Pete Williams, Pete Knight, E. A. Day, Leon Smallwood, John Briscoe and Alfred Cooper.

Relatives who attended the funeral from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrett of Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lee Barrett and family of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Harrison, Floydada and Jewel Lawrence of Euless.

Reece Timmons To Seek Re Election

The Tribune is authorized to announce the candidacy of Reece Timmons for re-election to the office of County Commissioner, Precinct No. 3, (Northfield), subject to the action of the Democratic primary, May 4th, 1968.

In making his announcement, Mr. Timmons said: "First I want to thank the citizens of my precinct for the wonderful cooperation I have received since assuming this office. "Also I wish to thank everyone who supported me in the

DAYTON GRAHAM AWARD was received by Larry Bostick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bostick, at the annual Matador Matadors Football and Pep Club banquet last month. Coach David Verner, left, is making the presentation of the plaque on which the name of the outstanding athlete of the year, selected by teammates, is engraved. The plaque is a memorial to the late Dayton Graham, former Matador star athlete, presented by his parents following his death. (Tribune Photo)

Book Store Says Trail Dust is A Best Seller

David B. Brown, owner of Brown's House of Books, Amarillo, penned this note to Douglas Meador, author and publisher of Trail Dust (2nd publishing) which was released in mid-November:

"Congratulations on a best seller -- we even have customers waiting for some of this order."

The note was on an order for 10 more copies.

Boyd's Book Store in Plainview penned the following note on a remittance for 24 books: "Congratulations on your very interesting book! We have on only two copies left -- could use at least six more copies. M. M. B."

One of the many volunteer testimonial letters received by Meador, the following is from Glenn Haden, Haden's Business Service, Graham: "I enclose my check in the amount of $3.93 for another copy of TRAIL DUST. I hope that your second printing is not exhausted. I received my first copy a few days ago and I am building a good-natured grudge against you. I have plenty of work to do and this is a busy time of the year for me, but I made the mistake of opening your book.

"It is one of the hardest books that I have ever found to lay down and leave alone. I should be working. I want this second copy as a gift for my son. He will love it, I know.

"The things you have written about stir echoes in my heart. I could have written many of them if I had your rare ability. It is part of my nature to give thanks. I give thanks now for the clean pleasure of mind and heart that your book has given me."

MANY BUY QUANTITIES In addition to book stores selling Trail Dust, many newspapers have re-ordered, some several times. Other stores and newspapers selling the book include Almy's Gift Shop and Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada; Barber's Book Store, and the Book Oasis, Fort Worth; Boyd's Lovelace Book Store, Wichita Falls; Cokesbury, Dallas; Canadian Record, Canadiana; The Gift Box, Pampa; Hemphill-Wells and Varsity Book Store, Lubbock; Post Dispatch, Post, Texas; Panhandle Plains Historical Society, and West Texas State University Book Store, Canyon; Quannah Tribune-Chief, Quanah; Tulla

Herald, Tulla; The Book Shop and University Co-operative Society, Inc., Austin, and the Wellington Leader, Wellington.

FHA Borrowers Hear Mahon

A dinner meeting held recently by the Farmers Home Administration Borrowers, at Levelland, was attended by several young Motley County FHA borrowers. Attending the meeting were 1,123 persons from approximately 14 counties in the Lubbock area. Congressman George Mahon was principal speaker. Also present were Howard Bertsch, National FHA Director from Temple, who addressed the group.

The Motley County delegation included Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long, Mr. and Mrs. Louise Edwards, Billy W. Shannon, Doyle W. Shannon, Donald L. Rogers, Danny A. Green, Ronald L. Clay and Mrs. Attie Lou Fagan.

FRIENDS IN NEED

"Friends in need and friends indeed." After last week's issue of the Tribune publisher Douglas Meador "took the count" with the flu. He was not able to leave his bed for three days, and is still unable to work.

Despite its critics, the printing profession is an exacting one, and requires years of apprenticeship. The best of friends can only extend their sympathy to an ailing printer, unless they are printers.

Printing friends have come to the aid of the Tribune. Learning of the publisher's condition, Joyce Stewart, owner of Stewart's Printing, Floydada, drove to Matador and worked Sunday afternoon until dark. Neighbor publisher Wendell Tooley of the Floyd County included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long, Mr. and Mrs. Louise Edwards, Billy W. Shannon, Doyle W. Shannon, Donald L. Rogers, Danny A. Green, Ronald L. Clay and Mrs. Attie Lou Fagan.

Joe Moss returned to Fort Collins, Colo., last week after spending the holidays here with his parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moss and Glenn. He is a student at Colorado State University. He flew to Amarillo, where his family met him, and returned the same route.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rattan and daughter, Suzanne of Midland, spent Christmas Eve with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rattan.

Rep. Healy Attends Demo Meeting

Representative W. S. Healy of Paducah, long time Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee of the Texas Legislature, Sunday and Monday attended the meeting of the Democratic National Committee in Chicago as proxy for Frank C. Erwin, Jr. Austin Attorney and Democratic National Committeeman from Texas.

Mr. Erwin was unable to attend and asked Mr. Healy to serve in his stead. As Mr. Erwin's proxy, Mr. Healy served as a member

Wayne Cartwright Cited for Action

Staff Sergeant (Herman) Wayne Cartwright recently was commended for action in the performance of duty at Da Nang and other air strips in that area of Viet Nam.

Latest word from Sgt. Cartwright to his wife, the former Jane Searf, described a narrow escape from death during a recent enemy attack. He is an ordnance man for F4B phantom jets. He is the son of Mrs. M. E. Simpson, Matador.

The following remarks were made after a meritorious award was conducted by the Commanding Officer, Marine Fighter/Attack Squadron 122, Marine Aircraft Group II, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing:

"Staff Sergeant Cartwright, as NCOIC of the ordnance night crew, you have constantly met and conquered all challenges presented to you in the performance of your duties.

"You have supervised and at times instructed the new moon your crew in preparation, handling, and safety of new ordnance items. You have been responsible for all night maintenance, trouble shooting, and supply.

"On several occasions it was necessary to down load and reload at night for air to air missions in a minimum time. The feat was accomplished solely due to your efficiency, technical knowledge, professional skill, and supervision.

"Under this supervision the night crew operated in all facets of ordnance with the utmost efficiency, producing maximum results. Your dedication to duty and outstanding professionalism in work has contributed immensely to the success of the squadron."

Misses Roberts and Ona Jameson visited in Slaton during the recent holidays with their sister and husband, Mrs. Jim Ratcliff.

Tim Sturdivant, student at the University of Texas in Austin, and his older brother, James, who is employed in Austin, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sturdivant.

The 50 wedding anniversary celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Nipp of Roaring Springs was also the occasion for a reunion of their children for the first time since the oldest son entered the service in 1941.

The celebration was held Saturday afternoon, December 23 at the V.F.W. building with the eight children and their wives and husbands as hosts. The couple have 25 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Host couples and others in the group included Wayne Nipp of Salisaw, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. William Nipp of Fort Smith, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Daston and J. T. Nipp of Matador, Mrs. Jarone Duncan of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Luciene Lee of Hayesville, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Nipp of Ralls and Vernon Nipp of Roaring Springs.

Wheelock-Cammack Vows Pledged In Recent Ceremony

Miss Shirley Anne Cammack of Houston and Robert Lloyd Wheelock III of Atlanta, Ga., pledged marriage vows in a recent ceremony in the chapel of the Polk Street Methodist Church in Amarillo. The Rev. Dr. Harry Vanderpool officiated, assisted by the Rev. Robert Q. Kennaugh of Taos, N.M., uncle of the bridegroom.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Geneva McCarty Cammack of Amarillo and the late Bryan Cammack of Matador, and is the granddaughter of Mrs. T. E. Cammack of Matador. She attended Amarillo College and the University of Texas and was graduated from the University of Houston. She is a member of Kappa Epsilon.

Mr. Wheelock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wheelock Jr. of Corsicana. He is a graduate of Shattuck Preparatory School, Faribault, Minn., and Washington & Lee University, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma.

Miss Janet Beth Cammack, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Clara Dana Wheelock, the bridegroom's sister, was bridesmaid. The bridegroom's father was best man and Frank Sansom Wheelock, brother of the bridegroom, was groomsmen.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock are at home in Atlanta, where he is a graduate student at Emory University.

Attending the wedding from Matador were Mrs. T. E. Cammack and her daughter, Mrs. Grace McDowell, and joining them from Lubbock, Mrs. Cammack's other daughter, Mrs. Jack Barton and Beverly, and Tommy and Linda Cammack.

Couple Announce Date for Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Martin of Matador are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Loy Ogden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ogden of Floydada.

The couple has set Friday, January 19, as the date for their marriage.

The bride-elect is a sophomore student in Matador High School. Her fiancé is a 1967 graduate of Floydada High School.

IN LUBBOCK HOSPITAL

Mrs. Chas. Brooks is a patient in Highland Hospital, Lubbock where she had surgery Wednesday morning. Her daughter, Mrs. James Price, Matador, joined Rev. Brooks and other members of the family, at the hospital early Wednesday.

Santo Domingo Described By Former Corps Member

Who is the girl from SDPC? You could have found out at the first meeting of Whiteflat Home Demonstration Club of the year, held in the home of Mrs. Fred Bourland on January 5.

A very interesting program was given with slides and narration by Mrs. Helena Reed, Home Demonstration Agent, pertaining to her work in the Peace Corps at Santo Domingo. She lived with a native family part of the time and learned much about their habits and customs.

"The countryside was beautiful in so many places; a good place to spend a different kind of vacation," she said.

As the members had received new yearbooks at the Christmas party, plans were made for the new year's work as recommended on the state level. Committee chairmen were appointed and a tentative date was set for the second meeting in the series to be given by the Social Security representative.

Members were reminded that this is election year and that in order to vote, everybody must register, regardless of age, January 31 being the deadline, and no poll tax will be paid. Snapshots taken at meetings in previous years were shown and humor was prevalent at the changes in appearance.

A new member, Mrs. Elbert Seigler, attended in addition to Mesdames Tom Edwards, W. E. Smith, Wilson Barton, Bob Martin and little granddaughter, Stephanie Martin, Mrs. Reed and the hostess.

The next meeting will be on January 19 at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. E. Smith. Mrs. Tom Edwards will present the program on "The art of making friends."

An invitation is extended to all women who are interested in home demonstration work, to attend and to become club members.

VISITING RELATIVES

Walter Renfro and his sister, Mrs. Breeb Hurst of Roswell, N.M., arrived Sunday and are visiting their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Renfro, and sisters, Mrs. A. A. Harp and Mrs. A. B. McCaghen and Mr. McCaghen, of Matador, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tardy of Roaring Springs.

HAS SURGERY

Mrs. A. B. McCaghen returned to Quanah Tuesday and underwent major surgery Wednesday. Rev. Larry Heard accompanied Mr. and Mrs. McCaghen to Quanah, where they were joined later by family members.

IN THE ROUGH by hazel

ANOTHER ERRATUM... Judine McCaghen was present at Hazel's golf coffee. Sorry her name was left off!

FUNNY THING happened... one of our gals received a set of clubs from Santa... a wonderful present! ONLY thing wrong... they were left-handed clubs. A quick exchange made things right... and this gal is looking forward to using them!

NEW JACKETS

Two of our gals... Laverna Price and Louise Barton... are sporting their new P.G.A. jackets. They are a beautiful pink color... and real classy looking. The golfers were winners in the Floydada Invitational Tournament last fall and won merchandise certificates... decided on these jackets and they had to be ordered and have just recently arrived... making GRAND Christmas presents I'd say... CONGRATULATIONS again gals...

Residents Return From Holiday Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Patton returned home Friday from a trip which took them to Neptune Beach, Florida, where they spent Christmas holidays through New Year's with her sister, Mrs. Eric Steenfort. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Moyer of Babylon, New York, joined them there for the holidays.

The group made several tours, including a visit to St. Augustine. The Pattons were guests of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Stephenson of Beauford, S.C., at Daytona Beach for several days. En route home they visited several places of interest in Georgia, and enjoyed a stopover in New Orleans.

CORRECTION

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson recently observed their 50th wedding anniversary instead of their 50th, as erroneously reported last week. They were married Dec. 22, 1907.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Rattan spent Christmas holidays at Boys Ranch with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Rattan and sons, David and Chris, who returned here with them on Tuesday and visited until Friday.

Soil Erosion can and must be stopped. Four to five inch rains within 4 to 5 hours in late summer of 1966 left the above field of Frank Price in near ruin. Note the breaks in the ridge of old standard terraces. Also terrace channels were filled with silt. These old terraces have been leveled and replaced with a set of parallel terraces. The washes were filled and leveling of silt areas was necessary as part of the complete job. This place is an example of how a problem was recognized and solved by cooperation. Assistance was made through the Great Plains Program and Soil Conservation Service personnel.

older leaves, slow growth, and weak plants that lodge easily. Seed or fruit that is small and shriveled also indicate the need of potash, and even though soil tests show a high level of potash present, the addition of small amounts has been profitable in many cases. This may be due to the difference in the type of phosphorus supplied in fertilizers, or it may be that the small amount makes more of the potash in the soils available. We hope to try to find the answer to this question by tests to be conducted the next few years.

Farmers who are using 20-20-5 to supply the fertilizer needed for a 30-30-0 recommendation in place of using 21-20-0 can help us with this problem.

Unlike phosphorus, potash can be lost by leaching, as it moves in the soil, but not as rapidly as nitrogen. Crops also remove potash from the soil, taking up amounts in excess of plant needs. This "luxury consumption" does not contribute to increased yields however.

The next group of elements are the "secondary plant nutrients". These are calcium, magnesium and sulfur, and will be covered later. I might ask at this time, are you getting anything from this presentation? or are these facts confusing you? I am only trying to cover the highlights, and not go into detail if you have a particular question, stop by and let's see if I have some information that will be of value to you.

Don't let evergreen plants dry out during the winter months. Many will lose their evergreens this winter unless they continue to water them through the winter, as you know our normal rainfall during this period is very limited. Don't stop watering because the grass has turned brown, but continue to water periodically.

Christmas Program Given by Seniors

by Vickie Holt

The Matador student body, faculty, and friends were entertained on Thursday, December 21, with the annual Christmas Program presented by the seniors.

The program was opened with a Christmas carol by the class and the reading of "Betsy's Christmas" by Kathy Lawrence. Several more carols and songs were sung by the class including "Silent Night," "Joy to the World," "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town," and "Here Comes Santa Claus." The class was accompanied by Carol Martin.

Terry Keltz then portrayed a "Texas Cowboy Santa" who was working on the L.B.J. Ranch in order to buy a new reindeer. Each senior sat on Santa's knee and gave his or her request for a special gift for a teacher or other faculty member.

As a "special" Larry Bostick sang "All I Want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth." In conclusion the program the seniors distributed Christmas gifts to each student and the high school faculty.
