TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

The influence of imagination is seldom more exaggerated than the sensation after a barber allows a few hairs to fall inside a man's collar during a haircut. It is almost like a pad of prickly pear seeking lodgement in order to take root.

Many of our worries are ghosts looking for a place to be acceptable. I have noticed the unusual crop of the loco weed along the highways this season. My worry is that someone will discover a method by which it can be used as "pot," thus throwing open the gates of control. The weed that can drive a horse crazy may have some properties that would appease dope addicts.

Modern automobile accessories may not be for everyone, especially if they are controlled from an instrument panel that looks something like the cockpit of a jet airliner. A friend who has reached the age where he is not worried about being drafted, was having trouble with the performance of his car. A mechanic pointed out that he was operating the heater and air conditioner at the same time.

Music can be the voice of a mortal's spirit and a communication between the heart and the vale of impossible dreams flouncing in the dust of forgotten years. When attuned to old memories, music becomes a fleeting force that blazes like a falling star and drops into the endless space of reality.

Hours of trouble are spaced in our lives to establish the need for friends and to give them an opportunity to be identified.

An excuse for a mistake is the admission that the power to prevent it was not exercised.

The eloquence of a man's deeds is not dependent on the performance of a microphone.

Voter Apathy Is Indicated

APATHY of the voter is indicated for Saturday's primary elections in Motley County, according to observers. Over 1,250 residents are qualified to vote, but some have predicted that in the neighborhood of half will go to the polls. Some are more optimistic in view of the fact that more people are aware of the importance of casting their ballots. No "hot" county races are on the voters' menu, with the exception being here in Matador where Fred C. Bourland opposes incumbent W. W. Clements for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1.

Recent Accident Victim was Son of Former Resident

James Weiby (Jim) Wyman, 32, a Dalhart construction firm owner, who died about noon Thursday after a 90 foot-fall from a scaffold at Producers Grain Corp. in Amarillo, was the son of a former resident. His mother will be remembered here as the former Ruth Carpenter.

Mr. Wyman, owner of Superior Construction Co., died in Northwest Texas Hospital following the accident shortly after 9 a.m. He was ascending the side of the grain elevator to paint a sign, when a rope broke on the scaffold pulley. He landed on his back on a patch of asphalt pavement.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in Lakeview Methodist Church with burial in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Born in Tahoka, November 19, 1937, Mr. Wyman moved to Dalhart in 1959. He was a Navy veteran. He is survived by his parents, J. C. and Ruth Wyman of Dalhart; two brothers, Jerry L. Wyman of Dalhart, who was with him in Amarillo at the time of the accident, and Johnny W. Wyman of Denver, Colo.; and a sister, Lila Ruth Wyman of Dalhart.

IN METHODIST HOSPITAL

Rev. John Fitzgerald is a patient in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock. He is pastor of the First United Methodist Church, Matador.

the contest between Senator Ralph Yarborough and Lloyd Benson. The daily papers say the two candidates have spent more than a million dollars on the race.

Several state offices have three candidates, but there is a possibility that they will be narrowed so as to eliminate the need for a second primary, according to County Democratic Chairman Furman Vinson.

Voters are warned that regulations make "write-ins" void in the primaries, with the exception of party offices (county and precinct chairmen.) Voters may write in candidates in the November general election.

County Chairman Vinson said that precinct conventions will be held at each voting box Saturday (May 2) starting at 2 p.m. The county Democratic convention will be held here Saturday, May 9, in the District Court room at 11 a.m.

Democratic voting places are courthouse, Matador; school building, Northfield; school building, Flomot; school building, Whiteflat; and school building, Roaring Springs.

Republican balloting for the entire county will be the Commissioners Court room here (all five voting precincts) according to Chairman Luther Green.

At closing time Tuesday, final day for absentee voting, 13 votes had been cast and 16 applications received, according to County and District Clerk Pat Sheridan.

HOSPITAL OPENING DELAYED

Opening of the Motley General Hospital, planned for May first, has been delayed, according to an announcement made yesterday by Administrator Fred Wallace.

Delay in the delivery of freight needed in several departments, is the principal cause of the delay in opening, Mr. Wallace declared.

"We regret to announce that circumstances beyond our control, have caused a delay in the scheduled opening of May 1," Mr. Wallace said.

Mr. and Mrs. Witt Springer of Amarillo visited here Friday with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Springer.

COUNTY WINNERS in the 4-H elimination contests held here last week, are slated to go to the District Contests in Wichita Falls, May 2. To the Voters of Precinct No. 1

It is impossible for me personally to solicit the support of every voter in Precinct No. 1, in my race for re-election to the office of Justice of the Peace, before the election, May 2.

For the past three years, I have attempted to serve the office of Justice of the Peace in an efficient manner, being available at all times, day and night and on Sundays, so out of state offenders can settle their cases and be on their way.

I have tried to be fair in assessing fines, both to the county and to the individual. According to my docket, I have had to make decisions in two thousand, six hundred and forty nine (2,649) cases, and I have had very few complaints as to the fines I have imposed on violators of the law.

I sincerely ask your support and influence in this race. The knowledge I have gained during my tenure in office and the way I have executed my duties, I feel is deserving of another term. Regardless of the way you vote, I hope we may remain friends. Your vote will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
W. W. CLEMENTS

Guest Speaker at School Banquet Is Former Roaring Springs Coach

Royce Cox of Big Spring, former coach in Roaring Springs High School, made the principal address Saturday night, April 25 at an all-school banquet, given by the Roaring Springs Booster Club members in the Roaring Springs gym.

One must love and respect himself first, to qualify himself to love others and to live up to his goals, he said. He encouraged the students to set a high goal for themselves and to be faithful first to self, and it will be easier to be faithful to others and to overcome obstacles in life.

The gym was beautifully decorated in the school colors of black and gold and featured the school emblem with styrofoam "yellowjackets" on the tables and on a "nest" behind the speaker's stand.

Mrs. Clyde Clifton, President of the Booster Club was Mistress of Ceremonies. Mr. Clifton gave the invocation.

Beware of Last Minute Insinuations!

After employing all kinds of tactics to discredit me before the voters of the 80th Legislative District, I am informed that the opposition is making last minute insinuations in a final effort to mislead the voters.

I hope no one will be deceived by such tactics.

If anything had been wrong with my official record, it would have come to light long before now, in the kind of campaign waged this year by my critics.

My record of service to this district and the state of Texas is well known. I hope my friends will give me their accustomed support in repudiation of this eleventh hour smear attempt.

Chapter Observes National FHA Week

By Mary Ann Woosley
 The week of April 12-18 was observed by the Matador FHA Chapter as National FHA Week. During the week the girls participated in various activities.

On Sunday the girls attended church as a group at the Methodist Church. Monday was observed as Red-White Day with everyone dressed in the appropriate colors.

The high point on Kiddie Day, Tuesday, was the election of Linda Cammack and Donnie Jackson as the cutest dressed "kids."

At the regular monthly meeting held on Wednesday, Mrs. Ida Mae Fair, sponsor, was presented a dozen red roses and a charm bracelet from the Matador FHA Chapter in recognition of her State Honorary membership. Mrs. Eddie Tipton, president of the Young Homemakers of Texas, presented the YHT Little Sister, Jeanette Day, with a charm. The Young Homemakers then served cake and punch to the FHA girls.

The Annual Senior Dinner was also held on Wednesday at which the senior girls were served dinner.

Then Matador High turned "hippie" on Thursday. After a contest to try to find the best hippie, Marion Peak, Mr. John Fitzgerald and Don James were declared winners by means of the applause meter in study hall. The teachers were served refreshments at the Teacher's Tea Thursday afternoon in the home economics room.

To conclude the week, everyone showed their true self and dressed western style on Friday.

Minister Guss Eoff, evangelist for the Church of Christ Gospel meeting, came to MHS April 22, to show slides he had taken during his stay in Hong Kong.

Minister Eoff has been on a world tour and spent two years as a missionary in Hong Kong. His slides showed the students the advantage of being offered a free education and of the great abundance of America. His theme was "Thank God I'm an American." After seeing the slides and hearing Mr. Eoff's commentary, the students held the same sentiments.

Who Killed Aunt Caroline?

Once again the senior class takes to the stage in order to pay for the expenses of graduating. This year the class is producing a three act mystery entitled, appointments taking place. April 20th, the future 1971 pep club met and elected officers.

Debra Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Garrison was elected president. As president, Debra will have the job of seeing that the goal posts are decorated for home games, seeing that all other officers are doing their jobs, and checking the roll at football games.

Vice-president, in charge of decorations and arrangements for the annual football banquet, will be Jeanette Day. In charge of money and records next year will be Secretary-treasurer Olive Curlee.

The very important concession stand will be run by Bonita Hand and assistant, Ann Brandon. These girls will have charge of getting the stand ready for the games, and making sure they have enough refreshments to sell.

The play will be presented May 8, under the direction of Mr. Glendell Smith, class sponsor.

FFA President Visits Matador

"Success comes in cans, failure comes in can'ts." These were the words of Murray Edwards, State FFA President, in a talk he gave to Matador Future Farmers, April 20.

Murray also discussed the fact that girls are now members of the Texas Association of Future Farmers. At first, he did not like the idea, but he is beginning to like it more every day.
