10TH YEAR—No. 38 MATADOR, MOTLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1964 PRICE SEVEN CENTS

Interest Growing in Problem of Hospital

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

A stranger who insists on making complimentary statements with reference to his listener, will usually be granted the courtesy of an extension in the usual amount of time allotted to a social call.

It has been proven repeatedly that money will not buy happiness, but many people are so convinced that something will not go awry in the original formula.

Marriage may be inspired by music, soft words and perfume, but its security is manifest in work, consideration and well fried bacon.

A man can poison the wells of his dreams with hatred, suspicion and greedy hands.

Poverty is not obscene. The most fragrant flowers may grow beside the pigsty if cleansing sunlight is permitted to shine where the seed is imbedded.

Wishing is like eating popcorn; a preoccupation to be engaged in until something of importance develops.

It is not easy to forgive a breach of friendship, especially if the fault is your own.

It is unfortunate that only a few people have ever known hunger in this bountiful nation, otherwise compassion would be a general attitude instead of a balm to the conscience.

Four Lions Clubs Aid Eye Bank 100%

Zone Chairman Elbert Reeves received a letter of congratulation this week from Lion Joe Tooley of Pampa, for being the first zone in Dist. 2T-1 to reach 100% support of the Lions Hi-Plains Eye Bank, of which Tooley is director.

The four clubs in the zone (three in Motley County) contributed $2 per member as follows: Matador $148, Paducah $82, Roaring Springs $50 and Fiomot $36.

A MEETING set for Monday night (Nov. 30) to discuss the proposed county-wide hospital district, is creating some interest, but apparently without any fixed opinion, either for or against, creating more than average conversation. The meeting will start at 7:30 in the District Courtroom.

Some confusion resulted when a Lubbock television station announced Sunday night that the meeting would be held Monday night, Nov. 23. The item, probably taken from the Tribune misquoted the date. At least half a dozen residents inquired as to the correct date (the date as printed in the Tribune is Nov. 30).

A full explanation of the problem will be made by Joe Smith of Lubbock, who will also explain details of how a hospital district is created, the approximate cost and how it will be operated.

County Judge Elbert Reeves said yesterday that the position of the Commissioners Court is to please the majority of the people. If enough interest is shown, a special bill will be passed through the State Legislature creating the district.

The Court will then be obligated to call an election when the property owners will have an opportunity to vote either for or against the measure. "We will follow the mandate of the people," he said.

The Court is taking no position whatever in the meeting except to see that the problem is explained to interested residents of the county.

Agriculture Census Enumerators Named

Enumerators have been named in Motley County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture. Crew Leader Mrs. Bill Pipkin said today.

They are Mrs. Douglas Pitts Jr., Mrs. Jack Spray and Mrs. Betty Simpson.

A census of Agriculture is taken every five years in years ending in "4" and "9" to gather needed, up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production.

DELAYED ITEMS

Several items of interest are delayed from this week's issue of the Tribune because of an unusual amount of news, and the earlier publication this week.

These include: Roaring Springs FFA Teams Place in District Meeting, Matador Chapter FFA Teams Enter District Contests, and funeral services today for Erthel Johnson, 69, who died Tuesday.

THREE GENERATIONS OF MATADOR GRADUATES—Mrs. Fred Simpson graduated from MHS in the Class of 1911, and her daughter Ruth (now the Rev. Mrs. Arthur Cooper, pastor of the Methodist Church at Maple) was a graduate of the Class of 1932. Her daughter, the former Frances Cooper (now Mrs. Clarence (Buddy) Davis) graduated in 1961, 50 years after her grandmother graduated. Another daughter, Mrs. Ron Corkins (Doris) is a graduate of the Class of 1962. Outstanding painting of a Matador in the background, is the work of talented Ruth Garnett. The Matadors ran through the emblem as a feature of half-time exercises.

Leon Smallwood is New Exes President

Leon Smallwood was named president of the Matador Ex-Student and Teachers Association in a brief business meeting Friday afternoon, following a program presented by Mrs. Howard Traweak.

R. L. Brandon was elected vice-president and Mrs. R. E. Donovan was re-elected secretary.

Mrs. Donovan, the former Hazel Walton, class of '24, was also named Homecoming Queen. New directors include Mrs. James (Butch) Renfro, the former Judy Hart, Mrs. John Stotts (Lottie Carter), James Price, Pat Green, and Algie Groves, outgoing president. Hold-over directors are Pat Seigler, Mrs. Roy Grundy (Lucretia Edwards), and Mrs. Howard Traweak (Eleanor Mitchell).

From California

Two former students came from California to attend Homecoming. O. H. (Bebe) Gates arrived on Thursday from his home in El Centro, Calif., accompanied by his wife and son.

Also arriving from the coast was Mrs. Ron Corkins, the former Doris Cooper, from Hollywood, Calif., and it was decided that she had traveled the farthest.

Other exes coming from a distance were Ivan H. Gates and W. S. Gates, both of Oklahoma City, who joined their brother here for homecoming.

Mrs. Billy Paul Simpson of Northfield, the former Betty Davis was recognized as the ex-student present with the youngest child.

To Meet Annually

Principal item of business was the decision voted to hold Homecoming each year rather than in alternate years.

The month and day set for Homecoming will be decided by the directors, and will depend on whatever football game is to be designated as homecoming game. It was suggested that plans be made early enough to permit the exes time to make arrangements to attend, especially those who live in distant cities, or have jobs which require advance requests for absence.

Mrs. G. S. Craven returned home Thursday from a visit with her son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Craven of Midland, Mr. Craven accompanied his mother home.

HOMECOMING QUEEN, Hazel Walton Donovan, Class of 1924.

Seven Matador seniors played their final home game here on Burleson Field Friday night. The first score came midway in the first quarter when Tim Green scampered 69 yards. Richard Campbell drove in for the extra points.

In the second period Richard Campbell intercepted a Turk pass to put the ball deep in Turk territory. Tim Green scored the TD on an end sweep covering 10 yds. Kenneth Pitts easily went in for the extra points. Halftime score was 16-0.

Dickie Garrison torpedeed in to the Turk backfield in the third quarter when he intercepted a pitchout and raced 50 yards for a touchdown. Richard Campbell capped the sensational defense effort by driving over for the extra points to give Matador a 24-0 lead.

About two minutes later Turk quarterback Jacky Young was trapped in his own end zone by Richard Campbell and Tommie Green, after the snap on a punt sailed over his head, to make the score 26-0.

Matador led in 1st downs 13-10, total yards rushing 251-106, but trailed in passing yardage 50-7. The Matadors fumbled five times.

On defense Richard Campbell had 15 tackles, Ronnie Cox 10, Charles Ezzell and Larry Bynum 9, Dickie Garrison and Tom Green 8, Tim Green and John Thomas 7 and Danny Davis 6. Football Queen is Also Sweetheart

by Karen Elliott
 The 1963 Football Queen, Ruthie Lynn, was crowned 1964 Football Sweetheart Friday night.

The crowning of the sweetheart was the highlight of the halftime activities at the homecoming game between the Matador Matadors and the Turkey Turks.

The Drum and Bugle Corps, concluding the regular halftime activities with "Nothing like a Dame," was joined by the Pep Club in forming a heart on the football field. Filled with anticipation, the spectators watched eagerly as the four captains, Richard Campbell, Kenneth Pitts, Tim Green and Tommie Green, drove on the field in a new Chevrolet, decorated with red and black streamers.

After circling the heart formation, the captains crowned Ruthie Lynn their sweetheart and placed in her arms a bouquet of roses.

Ruthie, a senior and head cheerleader at Matador High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonzio Lynn.

Sponsor Mrs. Fair (Jane), and composed of Pep Club girls (Glenda, Darlene, Roseanne and Karol) as they prepared for Friday night's game. Bits of conversation proved that the football boys, sponsored by Mr. Johnson, had taken over the positions of cheerleader and drum majorette, in addition to being members of the Pep Club.

Several musical numbers completed the Rally, the first was a pom pom routine, "Be True to Your School" by the Cheerleaders, Ruthie Lynn, Jana Jones, and Shariene Berryman. The twirlers, Shelley Stevens, Olivia Campbell, and Pat Day, followed with a routine to "Rock Around the Clock."

The Teen Tones, Janie Killingsworth, Judy Gwinn, and Patsy Hankins, accompanied by Nancy Bond on the Banjo, sang a paraphrased version of Denver.

"Limelight Lassie"

by Nancy Bond

Johnnie Judine Cook was born in Matador on July 12, 1947. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Cook.

Judy is a girl with many varied interests. She likes to type, to read, to paint with oils, and too, she loves to cook! The only things Judy really does not care about are dances and concert pieces. Ask her what her prized possessions are, how- ever, and she will quickly say, "My letters and my Dog."

Although she does not plan to go to college, her high school life has been full. She has been a part of the annual staff for three years. This year she is serving very capably in the capacity of business manager. She also has been a member of the Choral Club for two years, a member of the Drum and Bugle Corps for five years, and a member of the Pep Club for six years.

Bonfire Excites Winning Spirit

by Stella Martin

Students, faculty, and fans get together for the night before Homecoming for a bonfire and pep rally at which the opposing team's symbol is exploded in the fire.

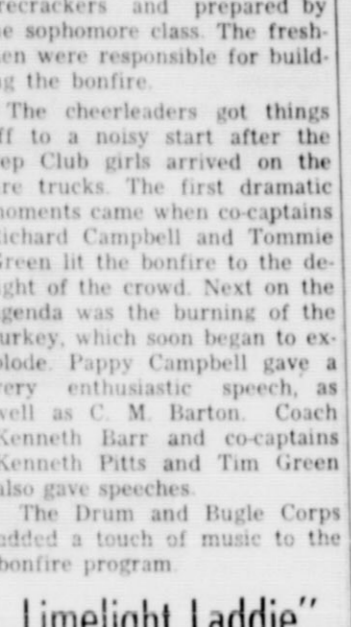

This year the symbol was a turkey gobbler stuffed with firecrackers and prepared by the sophomore class. The freshmen were responsible for building the bonfire.

The cheerleaders got things off to a noisy start after the Pep Club girls arrived on the fire trucks. The first dramatic moments came when co-captains Richard Campbell and Tommie Green lit the bonfire to the delight of the crowd. Next on the agenda was the burning of the turkey, which soon began to explode. Pappy Campbell gave a very enthusiastic speech, as well as C. M. Barton, Coach Kenneth Barr and co-captains Kenneth Pitts and Tim Green also gave speeches.

The Drum and Bugle Corps added a touch of music to the bonfire program.

Have you priced a tiger lately?

Take the GTO, for instance. Comes with 335 hp. Or 300 at extra cost. Plus bucket seats, Carpeting, Walnut dash, Quick Wide-Track Tigris and Pontiac Le Mans & GTO. And like that. Yet it sells for less than a lot of pussycats with imitation stripes. Then there's the Le Mans. Same kind of pizzazz. Same kind of crackle. Same kind of low price. Slightly smaller teeth. Special Pep Rally For Homecoming

Homecoming was a very special occasion to MHS students, and in honor of it, several very special events took place. In addition to the many extra decorations — lots and lots of signs and crepe paper — MHS Pep Club members held an extra special Pep Rally.

D. E. Pitts, Jr., an Ex-student at MHS, was special speaker. Mr. Pitts compared a bundle of twelve sticks to the eleven men on the team and all of the spectators and showed how hard they are to break as a group, and how easy to destroy individually.

Student speakers were co-captains Tommie Green and Richard Campbell, and Pep Club president Faye Lynn Cook. All three students gave inspiring talks urging the team on to victory and thanking the students, faculty, and townspeople for helping make this year so successful.

Coach Johnson also expressed thanks to everyone concerned with the success of the year, and then introduced each boy individually, including two very hard workers who often receive little recognition — the managers, Sparky Meason and James Jackson.

Decades In Fashion And Song Are Featured In Homecoming Program

A reminiscent note was sounded in the program for Matador exes attending homecoming as Mrs. Howard Tra-week, the former Eleanor Mitchell narrated decades in fashion and song. Events dated back to the first marriage in the county, that of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Keith.

The 1891 bride was the former Miss Ella Cribbs, and her wedding gown, fashioned by a St. Louis dressmaker, was modeled by Cle Beason.

"This dress was so tiny that we had difficulty finding a modern day girl who could wear it," Mrs. Tra-week stated.

Other features of the gay nineties portion of the program included Sharlene Berryman and Kenneth Pitts riding a twin bicycle, to recorded music of "A Bicycle Built for Two," and Terry Keltz impersonating a drunk to the tune of "How Dry I Am." He was carted off the stage by Deputy Sheriff Ed D. Smith (in person). The scene was inspired by the fact that early Matador, typical of other frontier towns, had a saloon.

"In 1896 Motley County had another blushing bride," Mrs. Tra-week narrated, introducing

D. E. Pitts (former Ollie Ann Wason) worn by her granddaughter, Judy Pitts; and the Charleston performed by two flappers, Fay Lynn Cook and Linda Tilson, to the tune of "Five Foot Two."

The stock market crash and depression brought the Tumling Tumble Weeds and "Okie" Terry Keltz.

Progressing to the thirties, Mrs. Tra-week remembered that song hits were, "Happy Days are Here Again," "The Object of My Affection," and the immortal "Star Dust."

"If you were in high school or college in the early 40's you probably danced to Glenn Miller's 'String of Pearls' and 'In The Mood.' You probably did the 'Big Apple' or the jitterbug, and no doubt you wore 'Sloppy Joe sweaters' and dirty saddle shoes."

"Then came Pearl Harbor... the girls were waiting that the boys left at home were either too young or too old... and the service men were begging, 'Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree With Anyone else But Me.'"

To this tune, Larry Keltz as a World War II sailor and Ruthie Lynn crossed the stage.

Enter Elvis Presley. "The 1950's were ushered in with another war — the Korean conflict — and most people couldn't decide which was worse — the war or Elvis Presley." On this cue Tim Timmons entered and pantomimed the noted entertainer.

"I suppose the 60's will be noted for the beginning of space travel, surf boarding, the Beatles, the twist and the revival of folk singing," Mrs. Tra-week observed, and performing the twist were Jane Briscoe, Sandra Sandefer, Tim Timmons and Larry Keltz, to a recording.

She then introduced "The Sourdough Singers," Gary Campbell, Nancy Bond, Janie Killingsworth, Patsy Hankins, Judy Gwinn and Richard Campbell, who entertained with several popular folk songs.

"We have covered more than 70 years of fashion and song in our program today," concluded Mrs. Tra-week. "We hope it has brought back pleasant memories. But we also hope that you can say along with these teenagers, that you believe the best is yet to be."

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Fulker-son of Lubbock visited Sunday with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Meador.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Pitts returned home Thursday from a visit with friends in Oklahoma City, after attending a Scottish Rite Reunion in Guthrie, Okla., on Monday, Nov. 16.

The "Red and Black" are going to have their hands full, but Matador teams have always been famous for their ability to "rise to the occasion."
