Santa Day Planned For December 5th

Preparations for Santa Day, Saturday, December 5 are already in the works.

The Eternas Study Club has worked hard in planning a fun, exciting and successful day. To begin the day, the Christmas Parade will be at 10:00 a.m. on the downtown street of Main in Matador. The parade route will be from the bank up main, across highway 70, turn at the clinic, and around Eubank Street, across highway 70 again, and end at the east side of the Courthouse. There are a lot of surprises in the parade this year. If you are not in the parade please contact Terree Donaldson and she will help you find a place. Everyone who would like to be a part of the parade is urged to participate. Individuals, clubs, businesses, or groups are welcome to participate.

Again this year, the Eternas Study Club will give prizes to floats, organizations and individuals who show outstanding creativity and enthusiasm toward the project. Parade participants should be at the vacant lot behind the courthouse at 9:15 that morning. Instructions will be given as to how to line up. As usual the end of the parade will hold one of the biggest surprises of all!

After the parade Santa will be available from 11:30-2:00 p.m. for those who want to visit and whisper sweet wishes in his ear. Santa will be located on his float over by the Gazebo on the Courthouse lawn.

If you're feeling a little light-headed or hungry from all the excitement of the parade and Santa, the club will serve lunch from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the Senior Citizens Building. The menu consists of Spaghetti with meat sauce, green salad, bread sticks and assorted cakes. To quench the enormous thirst after a fun-filled morning, ice tea will be served. The cost is a mere $4.00 for adults and $2.50 for children. The money will be used to finish purchasing the Christmas lights in our community.

A Kiddie Store will be open from 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. in the public library for children Kindergarten through Sixth grade and ages 3 and 4, to make special purchases for their Christmas shopping. Prices for items will range from 25¢ to $1.00. To make a donation to the Kiddie Store please contact Denise Gastineau. Any donation will be greatly appreciated.

The Arts & Crafts Club will sponsor a Crafts Bazaar in the Ford building, beginning at 9:00 a.m. They will have a variety of unique handmade gift items.

Make plans now to attend Santa Day and get in the Christmas spirit!

DPS Urges Caution For Thanksgiving Driving

"As we approach Thanksgiving Day weekend, all of us are making plans for observance of this traditional season of the year", stated Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety Region 5. Many Department of Public Safety Officers will be making plans of a different kind, they will be on duty to stimulate safety consciousness throughout this festive holiday.

Major Cawthon also said, "the Department of Public Safety wants you to have a safe and pleasant holiday. If you are planning a trip out of town check your car, the road conditions, the weather conditions, and your driving habits."

Remember, that the early darkness and heavy traffic calls for more caution and less speed. If we think safety first and drive defensively, then a safe and pleasant Thanksgiving is almost certain. The Major urges Texas motorists to use safety belts on all occasions when operating a motor vehicle.

Remember, no matter how good a driver we may be, we cannot control the driver that we are meeting. We have no guarantee that that driver is not tanked up on booze or hopped up on pills. Let's drive as if each driver will always do the unexpected and in this manner we can enjoy another holiday.

Happy Thanksgiving

GIVING THANKS — Paige and Christy, daughters of Pat and Vickie Smith of Matador, are kneeling in thanks in observance of Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26. The girls are pictured in the Methodist Church in Matador. As we ready ourselves for a big turkey dinner on Thursday, let us take time to remember all the things we have to be thankful for.

Churches Come Together For Thanksgiving Services

Community Thanksgiving services were held in Roaring Springs and Matador Sunday, November 22. Those in attendance were reminded to be thankful each day of the year, not only on Thanksgiving.

Rev. Mary Helen Cross of the First United Methodist Churches of Roaring Springs and Matador spoke of remembering to be thankful everyday. Using Psalm 95, which was read by Mary Meason in the Matador service.

Matador First Baptist pastor, Gaylon Cox, welcomed everyone and introduced the 3M Company who sang the special music before the sermon. Billy Donaldson led the congregational songs with Elaine Risser at the organ.

In the service in Roaring Springs, Charlie Long, welcomed the crowd, Don Baxter led the singing, and Devonne Dillard played the piano. Don Baxter read the Proclamation of the United States. Special music was by the group of Mandi Farley, Christie Pierce, Rebecca Long and Sheila Lefevre. Janice Brown sang a solo.

The services were concluded with prayer.

I hope each of us take time to remember the homeless and those alone while the rest of us are in our warm homes and overeating.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Barbara's Bylines

First, I want to thank all the readers' who are 'writers' this week.

It is good to see people stand up (or write) for a cause. To me it means every one hasn't gone to sleep and let low moral people totally have their way in America!

Be sure to read the letter to the editor this week. The federal addresses are listed, which are the addresses you need to write regarding the homosexual rights bill.

I hope everyone is making plans for a fun filled Thanksgiving.

We are planning a big time. My cousin and her family are flying down from Washington, D.C. and my aunt is coming from Paris, Texas.

I'm glad we finally have some moisture, but do hope the traveling weather isn't bad for everyone.

I've noticed Christmas decorations are going up already. Looks like this will be a festive Christmas season.

Just remember to be thankful for each moment of your day and be joyful. One of the greatest gifts is a thankful heart to those around you.

The following are excerpts from other area papers I found interesting, hope you do too. From Wendell Faught -- Haskell Free Press:

Kids Write to God was published in 1967 and re-published in 1967. More than 1.2 million copies were sold. Here are some excerpts:

"In Sunday School they told us what you do. Who does it when you're on vacation?" - Jane.

"I wish you would not make it so easy for people to come apart. I had three stitches and a shot." - Janet.

"Maybe Cain and Abel would not kill each other if they had their own rooms. It works with my brother." - Larry.

Reader's Column

What Is This World Coming Too?

by Mary Hamilton Meason

Elections are a necessary evil I know, but isn't it peaceful and quiet since the presidential election is over! Wouldn't it be a relief if politicians were given a limited time (a very short time!) to make all their promises, to slander one another, to tell their lies and to deny all the changes of immorality, infidelity and all the other faults that each have, but so little about how all the government ills can or will be solved.

It is ridiculous the amount of money that is spent in political campaigns. Wouldn't it be great if the millions of dollars the three candidates spent in their race for office could have been spent on feeding and housing the needy in our own country. Why couldn't the amount spent for political races be regulated. We are regulated in so many ways, why not regulate the amount of money spent on political races?

All the presidential candidates spoke of family values, which is a very important thing. But values need to start at home and in our churches. Discipline for children has been neglected to the point that children know they can do anything they want and know that they won't be punished. Spanking has been banned and has now become child abuse. There is a lot of difference between a beating and a spanking. A child is seldom to blame for his behavior, and that is where family values come into play. Those values, honesty, behavior, respect for others, morals and love must start in the home, long before the child starts to school. The teachers should not have the responsibility of teaching those values. They uphold and stress those values, but the parents are responsible for instilling those values long before the child starts to school.

And sex! When did our country become so obsessed with sex? The attitude about sex seems to be that it is a natural thing and just anywhere, any time with anyone is alright. An article in Time Magazine written by a man gave a very good example of how far our society has gone downhill.

On a news reports a short time ago it was reported that smoking was shown to be increasing and the smoking on TV shows was encouraging young people to smoke. True, smoking is harmful, especially to the one who smokes. But what about the drinking of alcoholic beverages on T.V.? About the only thing we hear on T.V. about drinking is, "If you drink don't drive, if you drive don't drink," or if you are drinking, have a designated driver." We hear all the time about cancer caused by smoking, but how often do we hear about the number of drinkers who died from liver disease or a damaged brain. Smoking very seldom causes the break-up of homes, nor the abuse caused from alcohol, nor the murders and rapes because of alcohol.

He wrote, "We have been led to believe that prayer in school is bad, but handing out condoms to high school students is good." This is just another example of how far we have gone in destroying family values.

A short time back every commercial on T.V. was given by a girl - or woman - wearing very few clothes and acting very sexy. It was enough to make you wonder what was really being sold.

Eternas Study Club Holds October and November Meetings

by Terree Donaldson

OCTOBER MEETING

Eternas Study Club met October 27th at the Motley County Library for their regular meeting.

The program for the evening was club member, Kay Graves, who demonstrated tee-shirt design. Each member of the club decorated her own tee-shirt. The shirts will be worn by club members in conjunction with any club project. The 1st project being the Fall Carnival. Kay is a very creative person and we appreciate her sharing her talents with us.

While everyone worked on their tee-shirts, president Wilda Dixon called the meeting to order. With a lot of business at hand we discussed the final plans for the carnival. Denise Gastineau handed out work schedules for carnival booths. Judy Cooper informed everyone what was being served at the concession stand, as well as the cost of each item. Each club member will be responsible for 1 dozen decorated cup cakes.

The next order of business was discussion of Santa Day. The club voted to do Santa Day on Saturday, December 5th with the parade starting off the day. Times for each phase of the day will be discussed at a later day. With no further business at hand a motion was made to adjourn.

Club members present were Allison Gwinn, Sherri Prather, Deirdre Clapp, Kim Woolsey, Kay Bingham, Kay Graves, Tina Brooks, Tammy Simpson, Cassie Francis, Terree Donaldson, Renee Atkinson, Denise Gastineau, Jeannie Moore, Wilda Dixon, Debbie Denison, Judy Cooper and Colleen Baxter.

NOVEMBER MEETING

On November 17th at 7:00 p.m. in the public library club members assembled for our monthly meeting. The program was on cake decorating. Beth Turner was the instructor for the mini-course. Beth is a very talented and accomplished cake decorator. She has been creating cakes for a number of years. Each club member brought a piece of styrofoam to use as a cake, to get the feel of the actual art. Everyone had a good time using the different techniques involved with the decorating. Beth was very informative and helpful as we each created our own masterpiece. At the end of the program Beth graciously let us eat the cake she used to demonstrate on. Beth is also a good baker! The cake was absolutely delicious. Thanks Beth!

After feeding on the lucious cake, Wilda Dixon called the meeting to order. The first order of business being the devotion and door prize. The devotion was presented by Terree Donaldson which was on "Thankfulness". The door prize was won by Kay Bingham. Moving on to the next order of business was the fall carnival. The club did very well this year and we want to say 'thanks' to all of those that were involved weather it be as a patron or club member. It took everyone doing their part to make it a success!

The Santa Day was discussed at length. Wilda called for committee reports to be given on each phase of the Santa Day. Everything seems to be in order. The parade will be at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 5th. Lunch will be served in the Senior Citizens building from 11:30 - 1:30 p.m. Santa will be available from 11:30 - 2:00 for children wanting to visit him. The Kiddie Store will be in the Library from 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. for ages 4-5, and grades K-6. Prices of items will be 25¢ - $1.00. Please support your hometown that day, bring the family and enjoy a day of fun and surprises!

The Christmas party is scheduled for Dec. 17 at 7:00 p.m. in the home of Joe and Renee Atkinson. The food committee will contact each club member on what they are to bring. With no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Club members present were Kim, Kay B., Kay G., Cassie, Renee, Terree, Denise, Wilda, Debbie, Judy and Deirdre.

Roses, Old and New, Surveyed In Matador Garden Club Program

Old-fashioned roses - formerly passed over in favor of hybrids with long buds and striking colors - once again are growing in choice garden spots, members of Matador Garden Club were informed at regular meeting last week.

The meeting was held Monday, Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. W.N. Pipkin for a program on "Through a Garden Gate; to my garden," with Mrs. George Scigler as leader. The subject featured both the District I, Texas Garden Clubs' theme for the year, "Gang is Therapy" and that of the local club, "Through a Garden Gate," as Mrs. Pipkin reviewed a newspaper article featuring Virginia Hodges of Lubbock, who is recognized as a rose aficionado.

"Old roses are defined by the American Rose Society as varieties introduced before 1867; however, others consider varieties that have been in cultivation for 75 years or more to be old," Mrs. Pipkin quoted. Old roses are favored by gardeners because of their hardy nature, she said, pointing out that the plants thrive with little or no care "Unlike the hybrids that fall victim to insects and diseases and must be pruned for optimum performance."

"Old roses also are prized for their intense fragrance, while the hybrids offer a diluted version of the scent," Mrs. Pipkin cited among the reasons for their popularity among growers. Mrs. Hodges grows several types of old roses among the 300 bushes around her home, but finds one fault in their character - they blossom only in the Spring. Many of the old roses are pink, and they also differ from hybrids in their blooms and growing habits. The single varieties produce flowers with five petals that resemble dogwood blooms.

"As for their growing habits, old rose have the advantage over hybrids. The older varieties can be trained into hedges, allowed to climb from 10 to 20 feet or pruned into bushy clusters," Mrs. Pipkin said.

The program continued with Mrs. Douglas Meador announcing the winner of the 1992 All-American Rose Selection (AARS) award. He is Jerry Twomey of Leucadia, Calif., who developed his prize-winning flower, "All That Jazz" for hardiness and disease resistance and which promises to free the rose gardener from fungicides and poisons.

Mrs. Meador read from a magazine article by Jeanne Muraco Hurney, highlighting accomplishments of retirees, which revealed that Twomey, a horticulturist before retirement, began breeding roses at 65.

"Twomey, now 76, is one of only two amateur breeders in 50 years to win the world's most prestigious honor given for roses, the AARS award. Even more remarkable, he has won the award two years in a row: in 1991 with 'Sheer Elegance' and 1992 with 'All That Jazz,' Womey's secret? Luck aside, he's persistent, optimistic - and scientific. 'I've been able to work with my hobby all my life and lucky enough to make a living at it, he says."

Mrs. Pipkin, president, called the meeting to order before the program for reading of minutes, reports and other business, including discussion of plans for decorating Pioneer Memorial Park and planters for the Christmas Holidays. Saturday morning, Dec. 5, was set for this annual project.

In introducing the program, Mrs. Scigler read an article about bats from the Lone Star Gardener. In a roll call, members responded with "What I am most thankful for." In concluding the program, she read the Thought for the day from the yearbook: "Give thanks for each fond hopes fruition."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pipkin (Opal) of chocolate cake with the title, "Better than U-m-m" coffee and tea, to the other seven members present: Bailey Elliott, Bertha Stearns, Sue Seigler, Opal Craven, Lila Meador, Winifred Lee and Winifred Darsey.

Home Economically Speaking

GROWING OLDER CAN PLACE YOU AT NUTRITIONAL RISK

In less than 20 years from now the first of the baby boomers will officially reach the "senior citizen" mark, swelling the ranks of those 65 and over 39 million. By the year 2000, when the youngest of the baby-boom set have celebrated their 65th birthdays, that number will have reached 66 million -- more than one out of five people in the United States.

Older adults are in fact the fastest growing segment of the population. Even today, people 69 and older number 30 million, accounting for more than one in nine of us. Thus, chances are if you're not an older American, you know someone who is. Unfortunately, chances are also relatively high that the nutritional well-being of many of those who have reached their "golden years" has been compromised; the elderly are the single largest demographic group at risk of malnutrition. One reason is that the body's ability to correct itself for nutritional imbalances declines with age. Consider that when a young adult takes in too little of a particular vitamin or mineral over time, absorption of that nutrient may increase in the gastrointestinal tract to make up the deficit or the body tissues may be able to adapt by using the nutrient more efficiently. An older person's body may not have as good a balancing mechanism so that a decrease in nutrient intake won't necessarily be made up for by a concomitant increase in absorption or efficiency of use.

Another concern for older Americans is that an estimated 45 percent take multiple prescription drugs, which can also adversely affect the body's absorption and use of various nutrients as well as suppress appetite. The decline in the number of taste buds on the tongue that occurs with age can diminish appetite as well by taking away from food's appeal. It's the same with the sense of smell. That too, diminishes over the years, increasing still more the possibility of decreased satisfaction with food and a decrease in appetite and eating.

Making things worse is that if malnutrition does occur in an older person, or in any adult for that matter, it may occur gradually, so that by the time it's recognized it is often a full-blown medical problem rather than merely a lifestyle issue that can be corrected with some simple steps.

Processed Meat

An Expensive Source of Protein

Frankfurters and bologna are often more expensive sources of protein than beef roasts and steaks. That's because while they are cheaper on a pound-for-pound basis, their protein concentration is lower. It takes about four 1.5 ounce frankfurters, in fact, to supply as much protein as you would get in a 3-ounce serving of cooked, lean beef.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are for people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap, or national origin.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: You can't have everything! Where would you put it?

Patton's Becca Bridge Places 5th In State Cross Country Meet

Becca Bridge

Patton Spring's Becca Bridge placed 5th in the State Cross Country Meet in Georgetown, Texas on Saturday, November 14. Bridge, only a Freshman, arrived in Austin late Thursday night and Friday toured the Capitol building, the Governor's Mansion and LBJ Library before walking the Cross Country course that afternoon. On Saturday her race was at 10:00 a.m. Becca got a fair start and was in about 20th position (out of 108 class A girls) after the first quarter mile. When she reached the mile point she had worked her way up to about 15th. Becca continued to pass girls until she was in 7th place with 200 yards to go in the race. Miss Bridge started her kick and passed two girls near the finishline for a 5th place finish. Coach McClelleny says that Becca has a tremendous amount of heart; and will, Lord willing, win state before she graduates from High school.

Becca is the daughter of Gary and Jane Bridge of Afton, and the granddaughter of Dumont Bridge and Delores Fox, Afton, and Virgie Powell, Spur.

Christmas Seals Continue Tradition Of Fighting Lung Disease

Austin -- A lot has changed about Christmas since 1904. Christmas trees are as apt to come from a factory as a forest; nutcrackers have given way to Nintendo games in children's stockings. One thing that hasn't changed is Christmas Seals.

The colorful seals can still be found on millions of cards and packages each year. And they're still the country's leading source of funds for fighting lung disease.

The American Lung Association has just mailed the 1992 Christmas Seals to some 35 million homes in U.S., including 600,000 homes here in Texas. This year's campaign aims to raise $35 million nationwide and $3 million locally for programs to combat asthma, emphysema, lung cancer, and other forms of lung disease, which together represent the third leading cause of death in America.

The 1992 seal was actually chosen a year ago by Americans participating in a series of test campaigns. Designed by artist Lynn McKernan of the Franklin Mint, the seal reflects a continuing fondness for traditional Christmas images. It depicts a pair of cardinals in a holly tree with a stone, snow-covered farmhouse in the background.

But there's a part of the Christmas Seal tradition the Lung Association would just as soon end. Funds from the first campaign were used to fight tuberculosis, which was then the leading killer in America. That fight which once seemed all but won continues, as outbreaks of drug-resistant TB have raised the specter of deadly epidemics.

"It's not too late to end the threat from TB in America," says Dr. Lee Reichman, the president of the American Lung Association and a leading authority on tuberculosis. "However, we need a lot of help to eradicate the disease. If people support Christmas Seals today, there's less chance they'll have to worry about tuberculosis tomorrow."

Dr. Reichman says the next few years could bring significant gains in lung disease research: "New therapies are saving an increasing number of babies born with respiratory problems. We're also close to unraveling the genetic causes of asthma. With success in these areas and continued progress against air pollution and smoking, tens of thousands of lives could be saved each year."

However, more resources are desperately needed. In recent years, the death rate from lung disease has been rising faster than that of any other leading killer. Dr. Reichman says that, "With more resources, we can not only stop the alarming rise in deaths from lung disease, we can reserve it. That's what Christmas Seals are all about."

If you don't receive your Christmas Seals in the mail by the end of October, call the ALA of Texas at 1-800-252-LUNG.

Valley FFA Member Receives FFA's Highest Honor

Rodney Hughes of Flomot is congratulated by Lee Thurber (right), national FFA president, on his achievement of the American FFA Degree. The degree was awarded in a ceremony Nov. 13 at the 65th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

Rodney "Bengie" Hughes of Flomot joined an elite group of FFA achievers recently.

Hughes received the highest degree of membership awarded by the National FFA Organization, the American FFA Degree. Along with 1,208 other degree recipients, the Valley FFA chapter member was honored at the 65th National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 12-14.

One of the highlights of the convention, the American FFA Degree ceremony, included the presentation of a certificate and gold key to Hughes as he walked across the convention stage with thousands of FFA members in the audience.

The American FFA Degree is presented annually at the national convention to the top FFA Achievers. Awarding of the degree is based upon a member's Supervised Agricultural Experience program in agribusiness or production agriculture and on his/her leadership ability as demonstrated through involvement in FFA, school and community activities.

The American FFA Degree program is a special project of the National FFA Foundation, co-sponsored by American Cyanamid Company, Agricultural Division, of Wayne, N.J.; Case IH of Racine, Wis.; the FarmCredit System of Washington, D.C.; Na-Churs Plant Food Company of Marion, Ohio; and Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., of Des Moines, Iowa.

FFA is a national organization of 401,574 members in 7,456 local chapters throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam and the Virgin Islands preparing for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture. Local, state and national activities and award programs provide opportunities for students to apply knowledge and skills acquired through agricultural education. FFA members strive to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

LET'S THANK THE LORD FOR THE FACT THAT WE'RE ALIVE

We're gathered here to celebrate,
For what it may be worth,
The simple fact that on this date
We're living here on earth
Let's count the good times we have known,
And evils we've been spared,
Plus friends and loved ones who have shown
The ways in which they cared.
Though fame and fortune pass us by,
No matter how we strive,
The love of God, we can't deny,
Is keeping us alive.
And so, before we start the feast,
Let's all with one accord,
For blessings which have never ceased,
Give thanks unto the Lord.

CLOSED THANKSGIVING DAY

Letter to the Editor

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for printing the Christian Coalition Voter Guide in the October 29, 1992 issue of the Tribune. I only wish this could have been printed in every newspaper in the country. It seems the morals of the people in this country are at an all time low, which is very frightening with two children to bring up in this world. I did feel extremely proud to live in Motley County after seeing our county elections results. As a whole, Motley County supported the only candidate for president who supported or opposed the stands on the moral issues that I feel every Christian man and woman should have.

I would also like to thank Janie Campbell for taking the time to write her letter that enlightened me on the bill pending in both the House and the Senate to amend the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to include homosexuals. What a scary thought, the President Elect of the United States is going to sign this bill into law if it is submitted to him. I wonder if he has ever read of Sodom and Gomorrah. God destroyed those cities because of the riotous living taking place there, which included homosexual activity. I think since the God Almighty thought this was bad enough to destroy two cities over, we shouldn't be concerned with any kind of rights for homosexuals!

I can only pray to God to help us through the next four years and hope all Christians will endeavor to stand up for what is right in the sight of God. Our PRESIDENT ELECT supports abortion Demand, Condom Distribution in Schools, Tax-Funded Abortions, OPPOSES Voluntary School Prayer and as I have already mentioned, supports homosexual rights. Sounds to me like we need to pray without ceasing for the next four years!

You can rest assured I have sent a letter to our State Senator and our U.S. Representative and I hope the rest of our county has too.

I also appreciated the article written by George Blanch entitled "The State's Education Plan From A Local Point of View." It was very informative and made me think we may need to write letters to our Governor, Lt. Governor and Speaker!

Thanks,
Deidra Clifton

P.S. I have already received a reply from both Congressman Sarpalus and State Senator Carriker. I have enclosed State Senator Carriker's letter with the list of people he encouraged me to write concerning this matter. It really does help to write and express your concerns. I hope you are all writing letters!

Dear Ms. Clifton,

I appreciate your taking the time to write me regarding your opposition to SB 574. However, this is federal legislation and as a state senator, I have no influence on this issue.

I strongly suggest that you write your federal representatives to express your concerns regarding this matter. I have included a copy of their names and addresses in case you do not already have them.

Sincerely,
Steve A. Carriker

Social Security Tips

by Mary Jane Shanes

"GROWING UP" ILLUSTRATES THE NEED FOR SOCIAL SECURITY

Recently, I read a book about a family's life during the "Great Depression". The book, "Growing Up" by Russell Baker, describes hard-luck stories and events most people read in history books or are told by grandparents. Russell Baker lived one of those stories.

Baker's book brings the depression era into focus for people whose vision of history is blurred by the good life. For me, it also illustrates one of the reasons why we have a Social Security system in this country.

Many young people question the need for Social Security and often assume that they will be able to take care of their own financial needs without any help from the government. As one young man recently told me, "If people could make it on their own before we had Social Security, they ought to be able to make it on their own now without the government's help." Baker's book shows that many people weren't "making it" before Social Security.

Following his father's death, Baker's mother, left with three small children - including an 18 month-old baby girl - had many tough decisions to make. Among the toughest was deciding to give up the little baby, Audrey.

Baker writes: "The giving up of Audrey was done in a time of shock and depression for my mother. After my father's funeral, when the undertaker was paid, my mother was left with a few dollars of insurance money, a worthless model T, several chairs, a table to eat from, a couple of mail-order beds, a crib, three small children, no way to earn a living, and no prospects for the future." A few days later, Baker's aunt arrived to pick up his little sister. "My mother helped them carry out the crib and boxes packed with baby clothes. When the car was loaded, my mother bundled Audrey into blankets, carried her outside, handed her to Aunt Goldie, and kissed her goodbye."

That scene struck a nerve with me because every week, recently-widowed young to middle-aged men and women with small children in two visit the Plainview Social Security office to file for survivors benefits. Each one, of course, is grieving because of the loss of a loved one, but each one is also very grateful for the Social Security benefits he or she will receive. Unlike Baker's family, they have bright prospects for the future because Social Security is there for them.

Survivors benefits are paid to widows and widowers at any age if they're caring for children under the age of 16. Children can continue to receive benefits until 18, or up to age 19 if they're still in high school. Widows and widowers with no young children can receive benefits at 60, or as early as 50 if they have a disability.

When young people criticize the value of Social Security, they often fail to take these benefits into account. Social Security survivors benefits help ensure that stories like Baker's and that of his little sister Audrey remain the stuff of history.

Housing Opportunity Hotline To Promote Affordable Housing

Temple, TX - Texas Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), one of eight federal agencies and government-sponsored enterprises have united in an effort to help thousands of persons, including very low - to moderate-income families, achieve home ownership.

It is being reported by Neal Sox Johnson, State Director of FmHA, that these eight organizations have established a joint marketing information center in Dallas. Alfred A. DelliBovi, Deputy Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and Chairman of the National Housing Advisory Board serves as the contact person.

By dialing the toll-free Housing Opportunity Hotline number, 1-800-362-2944, a caller will receive information on homes being offered for sale by the organizations anywhere in Texas.

Until now, persons interested in buying homes offered for sale by federal agencies and government-sponsored enterprises have had to contact each individual organization to learn what is available.

"President Bush and HUD Secretary Jack Kemp have established home ownership and affordable housing opportunities as a domestic priority to expand home ownership among very low-to-moderate-income families," said DelliBovi. "This initiative will make it much easier for these Americans to achieve their dream of home ownership."

The Farmers Home Administration assists rural America by guaranteeing private sector loans and by providing temporary, supervised direct loans to farm and housing borrowers who have a reasonable chance for success, and whose current needs cannot be met at reasonable rates and terms by commercial sources.

The Agency is committed to excellence in providing its services.

"With more than 2.5 million square feet of commercially occupied property at Solana, I have to ensure the power will be there"

"When Maguire-Thomas Partners and IBM began planning their 900 acre, mixed-use office complex in Westlake and Southlake, every aspect of the site was studied - from school systems to power supply. The site selected was to be served by an electric cooperative. Although we were familiar with cooperatives, we had to make sure this one could meet the challenge of serving a facility this size.

We are very satisfied with our decision. The cooperative constructed a substation for us that contains state-of-the-art technology to ensure reliability for our residents' computer systems. As for the electric rates, they are the most competitive in the area."

PUBLIC NOTICE

GTE Southwest Incorporated (GTSW) and Contel of Texas Inc. (Contel) have filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to seek approval to provide two new private line services and to change rates for existing services. GTE's intraexchange DS1 Service will be offered pursuant to the rates proposed with this filing and will no longer be available through concurrence with GTE's interLATA access tariff rates which are lower. Contel's intraexchange DS1/DDS Service will be offered pursuant to the rates proposed with this filing and will no longer be available through Contel's current private line tariff rates. Existing customers with DS1/DDS Services will not be affected by these rate changes. DS1 1.544 Megabits per second (Mbps) Service and Digital Data Service (DDS) will normally be used for the transmission of data communications or large volumes of voice communications between two locations. These services are optional and will not affect the existing rates of customers who do not order these services. The estimated annual effect on GTE-SW's revenues in the first year is $1,080,567. The estimated annual effect on Contel's revenues in the first year are $42,383.

DS1 Service

DS1 Service is an intraLATA Private Line Service which provides a dedicated, high capacity channel which may be used for simultaneous two-way transmission of voice data or other digitally encoded customer information signals. DS1 Service provides a transmission speed of 1.544 Mbps and is designed to provide an average performance of at least 95 percent error-free seconds of transmission over a continuous 24-hour period.

DS1 Service is available in and between all exchanges of GTE-SW and Contel where digital facilities exist. DS1 Service is available on a point-to-point intraLATA basis between two Customer Designated Locations (CDL), between a Serving Wire Center (SWC) and a CDL, between a CDL and a point of connection with another service provider or between two SWCs.

IntraLATA DS1 Private Line Service is comprised of three rate elements: DS1 Local Loop, DS1 Transport and DS1 Transport Termination. Each element is described below.

DS1 Local Loop

This rate element is for the cable facilities from the CDL to the SWC. The customer has two payment options for the purchase of DS1 Local Loops. There is a month-to-month plan or term contract Optional Payment Plan (OPP).

The month-to-month payment basis allows the customer to establish and disconnect DS1 Services, without penalty, other than to meet the minimum service interval of one month's service, as needed. Under the month-to-month service, the additional DS1 Local Loop rate applies only when the additional DS1 Local Loop (s) is (are) ordered at the same time and between the same two CDLs as the first DS1 Local Loop.

The OPP plan allows the customer to select a term of service (1 YR, 3 YR and 5 YR) with lower monthly rates associated with longer term contracts. If the customer selects an OPP, additional DS1 Local Loops may be ordered and installed at the Additional DS1 Local Loop rate between any SWC and CDL covered by the OPP, at any time during the term of that OPP.

DS1 Transport

This rate element is for the mileage sensitive charges for transporting a DS1 signal between Serving Wire Centers. Transport occurs only when the two CDLs being connected are served by two different SWCs.

DS1 Transport Termination

This rate element is for the equipment to terminate DS1 Transport at the SWCs. This charge applies only when DS1 Transport is required for the service configuration of the customer. One transport termination charge applies at each end of the DS1 Transport.

Proposed Rates and Charges for DS1 Service are as follows:

	Nonrecurring Charge	Monthly Rates
DS1 Local Loop
Month-to-Month First System	$ 1,000.00	$ 298.00
12-month term First System	-0-	$ 283.00
36-month term First System	-0-	$ 255.00
60-month term First System	-0-	$ 226.00
Additional System	$ 130.00	$ 130.00
DS1 Transport
Per airline mile	-0-	$ 16.00
DS1 Transport Termination
Per Termination	-0-	$ 40.00

Digital Data Service

Digital Data Service (DDS) is an intraLATA Private Line service which supports synchronous, full-duplex transmission between the CDL and the SWC or the point of connection with another telephone company at transmission speeds of 2.4, 4.8, 9.6, 19.2 and 56 kilobits per second (Kbps). DDS provides a transmission path for digital data signals within the same LATA.

DDS Service is available in and between all exchanges of GTE-SW and Contel where digital facilities exist. DDS Service is available on a point-to-point intraLATA basis between two CDLs or between a CDL and a point of connection with another service provider.

IntraLATA DDS Private Line Service is comprised of three rate elements: DDS Local Loop, DDS Transport and DDS Transport Termination. Each element is described below.

DDS Local Loop

This rate element is for the cable facilities from the CDL to the SWC. The customer may establish and disconnect DDS Local Loops without penalty other than the minimum service interval of one month's service, as his/her needs demand.

DDS Transport

This rate element is for the mileage sensitive charges for transporting a DDS signal between SWCs. Transport occurs only when the two CDLs being connected are served by two different SWCs.

DDS Transport Termination

This rate element is for the equipment to terminate DDS Transport at the SWCs. This charge applies only when DDS Transport is required for the service configuration of the customer. One transport termination charge applies at each end of the service.

Proposed rates and charges for DDS are as follows:

	Nonrecurring Charge	Monthly Rates
DDS Local Loop
2.4, 4.8, 9.6, & 19.2 Kbps	$ 85.00	$ 85.00
56 Kbps	$ 85.00	$ 95.00
DDS Transport
Per airline mile	-0-	$ 1.60
2.4, 4.8, 9.6 & 19.2 Kbps	-0-	$ 3.20
56 Kbps	-0-	$ 3.20
DDS Transport Termination
2.4, 4.8, 9.6, 19.2 & 56 Kbps	-0-	$ 20.00
Per Termination	-0-	$ 20.00

from page 1 was for sale, the motor or the girl! A homosexual activist announced on T.F. that there is nothing in the Bible that says homosexuality is a sin. That person should invite the members of the Supreme Court to sit down with him and read the Bible together. There is plenty about that subject in the Bible.

publicity crazy freaks have been granted the right, by the Supreme Court, to burn the American flag using the excuse that is their right to freedom of speech. Have the members of that Court forgotten the thousands upon thousands of soldiers who gave their lives fighting for this country and that flag all over the world? Doesn't the Court remember Iwo Jima where Marines risked their lives to plant the American flag on Mount Suribachi during bitter combat.

And why do criminals seem to have more protection and favoritism than law abiding citizens. If an all woman jury could be chosen and allowed to sentence the rapist, the crime of rape might be greatly reduced. But women must help in other ways such as staying away from night clubs, quit accepting rides from a man or men they have never even seen before. Using drugs and alcohol is also an invitation to rape.

The Thing Called Sin

Sin is disobedience to the Lord. "For sin is the transgression of the law." (I John 3:4). Simply put, SIN is wrong. Because of the hedonistic lifestyle in our society, many are losing the ability to determine what is right and what is wrong.

Moral issues that should have been settled by the Word of God are turned into political issues and are sought to be settled by a vote of the majority. Somehow it isn't being comprehended that to advocate "safe sex" sends the signal to our school children that immorality is acceptable so long as there is no harmful physical repercussions.

A standard is emerging for our society which is seen in the acceptance of unmarried couples living together and homosexuals seeking a "legal right" to marry and rear up children. We stand in danger today as a nation because we are no longer able to determine what is right or wrong and have forgotten where to find the answer.
