Pre-Nuptial Shower In Martin Home Honors H. D. Agent Miss Mary Deeb

A surprise pre-nuptial shower in the home of Mrs. Bob Martin, Thursday afternoon, June 29, complimented Miss Mary Deeb, bride-elect of Ray Allen Brown of Crowell, Texas.

Hostesses were members of the Home Demonstration Council, composed of representatives of the seven H. D. clubs in the county.

Guests, who called between 4 and 6 o'clock, were registered by Mrs. Fred Simpson, member of the Roaring Springs club, in a white satin bride's book made by Mrs. W. A. Lewis of the same organization.

Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. John Green of the Roaring Springs club and Mrs. Harrison George of the Flomot club, both of whom presided. Others assisting with hospitalities included Mrs. W. T. McGann of the Folley club, Mrs. Fred Bourland and Mrs. Wilson Barton of the Whiteflat club and Mrs. Elden Reedy of the Toreador club.

The lace covered table was centered with a wedding scene composed of a miniature bride and groom before a background of musical wedding bells which played during the afternoon. Encircling the arrangement which was on a mirror reflector, was a wreath of pink and white rosebuds entwined with fern. The couple's names were stamped in gold on white napkins. Cookies and frosted lime punch were served. Peach and white gladioli decorated the receiving rooms.

Miss Deeb was presented with a white carnation corsage and an electric toaster by the council, and in addition to individual gifts which she received, each of the seven clubs presented her with a club gift.

Miss Deeb has resigned her position as Motley County Home Demonstration agent and left Friday for her home at Graham, Texas where her marriage is scheduled to take place today.

Bowen Family Given Shower By Church

An ice cream supper and shower was given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Bowen and their children, Joy and Wayne, Monday night of last week at the city park, by the congregation of the Assembly of God Church, and other neighbors and friends.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Holt and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chambliss and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matney and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McBride, Rev. and Mrs. N. L. Locke and son, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Allen and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bohner and children, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Carmen and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Wimpy, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gwinn and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Matney and granddaughters, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Martin and children, Mrs. Cecil Shelton and daughter, Mrs. Clinton Hobbs and son, Mesdames W. N. Clifton, Lillian Steen and Hosea Phillips, Alice Faye and Peggy Gene Locke, Bonnie and Junior Keeling and Hattie Harrod.

The Bowens have moved to Levelland and will be greatly missed by the church and their many friends in this community. Rev. Bowen preached his farewell sermon Sunday night.

VISITORS AT FLOMOT

Visitors in the J. E. Monk home at Flomot Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Finch and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Ova Seals, Nick and Nyvia Lou, of Cee Vee, Texas; Henry Pope, Shirley and Jean Pope, Calvin and Ava Nell Monk of Matador and Wesley Cagle of Flomot.

RECENT BRIDE IS SHOWER HONOREE

Among bridal showers given for recent brides, was that complimenting Mrs. Jack Bloodworth, the former Charlotte Purdy, Tuesday night, June 27, at the home of Mrs. Frank Stafford.

Assisting with hospitalities were the following co-hostesses: Mesdames Clarence Kifer, Bill Waybourn, A. B. Simpson, Velma Fulfer and Colquet Warren, and Misses Altha Lambert and Helen Hill.

Miss Hill registered the guests in the bride's book. Approximately fifty persons called from 7 until 9 o'clock, and many others sent gifts.

A crystal basket containing summer flowers in pastel shades centered the lace-covered table, and pastel napkins, stamped with the names of the couple, were used. Cookies were served with frosted lime punch. Miss Lambert and Mrs. Warren poured.

War Friends Visit In Campbell Home

Among countless friendships that were formed during World War II between boys in service, was that of R. E. Campbell, Jr. of Matador and Bob Rumbarger. Their wives also became close friends when Mrs. Campbell and daughters, Carlotta and Carroll Lynn (then barely walking) went to Richmond, Va., to be near their husband and father who was in Sea-Bees training.

Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Rumbarger and small daughter, Carroll Lynn (named after their friends' daughter) arrived here from their home at Columbus, Ohio, to visit this week in the Campbell home.

The visitors were entertained Monday at the Campbell ranch, with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell as hosts, and Tuesday the R. E. Campbells accompanied their guests to Carlsbad, N. M., for a trip through the famous caverns. Other courtesies are also being planned for the Rumbargers this week.

CARD OF THANKS

To our friends—We should like to tell you how deeply we appreciate your understanding sympathy, your tender thoughtfulness, your many expressions of love that have lightened the burden of our grief, but words cannot half express what they have meant to us. Our sincerest wish for you is that in your dark hour of need, there may be those who will be as tender, kind, and faithful to you, as you have been to us.

The Family of the late Mrs. Katie Timmons.

TO MACKENZIE PARK

MISS FRANCIS GUICE AND BILLY YORK ARE MARRIED IN CHURCH CEREMONY AT VERNON

Of interest to friends here and at Roaring Springs is the announcement of the recent marriage of Miss Francis Ann Guice of Vernon and Billy John York of Roaring Springs and Lubbock performed in the Calvary Baptist Church at Vernon. Account of the wedding, from the Vernon Record, is as follows:

"The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Noel V. Guice. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. York of Roaring Springs.

"The bride's father, Rev. Guice directed the exchange of wedding bands before an altar in front of which was a wrought iron prayer bench with baskets of gladioli and maroonies and madillions of woodwardia at either side.

"The bride was given in marriage by O. D. Parker of Plainview, a friend of the family. Her ballerina length gown of white organdy was fashioned with lace bodice with a scalloped neckline. Her brief lace mits matched the dress. Her Juliet cap of white lace held a fingertip veil of white illusion.

"The bride's bouquet was of ruburn lilies with nile satin and maline streamers placed on her prayer book. For something old she wore a ring belonging to her grandmother. Mrs. Victor Hill, the something new were her pearls, a gift from the groom; something borrowed was the prayer book belonging to the groom's maternal grandmother.

"Miss Louella Brown of Plainview was maid of honor and Miss Margie Barnett was the bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of nile organdy fashioned with basque bodice and a wide berth collar outlining the neckline. The full skirts were ballerina length. Their bouquets of ruburn lilies were identical to the bride's.

"Connie Sue Riggins, as flower girl, wore a dress and cap of white organdy identical to the dress worn by the bride. She carried a white basket of pink petals with nile streamers.

"Douglas Burrows of Crosbyton was the groom's best man.

"Ushers were Donald Stout of Tulla and Gerald Doyle and Bill Jackson.

"Mrs. Basil Barnett was the pianist and Miss Nida Parker of Plainview was the vocalist.

"Vocal selections before the ceremony were "God Made Three Mine" and "The Lord's Prayer". As the wedding party entered, Mrs. Barnett played the "Bridal Chorus" and as the party retired she played the "Wedding March".

"Mrs. Guice, the bride's mother, wore an aqua suit with a white feathered carnation corsage. Mrs. York, the groom's mother, wore a green sheer dress with a white carnation corsage.

"A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, in the home of the bride's parents.

"The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth with the two tier wedding cake at one end. It was trimmed on either side with white roses and nile leaves. A miniature bride and groom was on the top layer. The swirl decorations on the edges of the tier gave way to the base of the cake. A crystal punch bowl on a reflector was on the opposite end of the table. The centerpiece of white pompon mums and maroonies were arranged with silver hearts.

"After the bride and groom had shared the first piece of the wedding cake, Mrs. Guice served the cake and Miss Nida Parker served the punch, assisted by Mrs. B. F. Ramsey.

"Miss Betty Ramsey registered the guests. Mrs. Doug McKinney was also a member of the house party.

"For their wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., Mrs. York wore a tangerine suit with a white carnation corsage.

"The couple will make their home at 2722 Emory, Lubbock.

"Mrs. York graduated from Vernon High school and attended Wayland College in Plainview. Mr. York graduated from Roaring Springs High school, also attended Wayland College. He is associated with the W. D. Wilkin Furniture Co. in Lubbock.

"Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding was the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. F. York of Roaring Springs.

Announcing SALE OF STORE

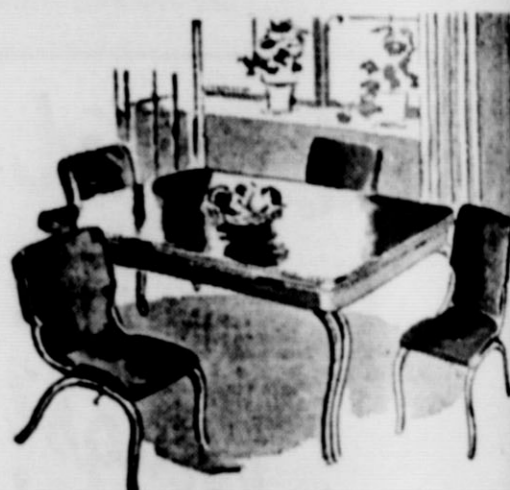

I have recently sold Skaggs Grocery No. 2, at Flomot, to Harold Allen, and I wish to take this means of thanking the citizens of that community for their valued patronage.

Mr. Allen is an experienced grocery merchant and I feel that he will continue to provide the type of service to warrant your patronage. Again let me express my thanks for the many favors extended during the time I owned the store.
