Baptist Church Plans Expansion

A long-range program of expansion in Sunday School and church attendance, this week announced by Rev. Gene Skins, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will include the organization of new classes in the department of Sunday school to provide a place for prospective members. A class of young married couples under the age of 30 years, with J. E. W. R. Moore as teacher, has been organized and all in that age group invited to attend. Older "adult" couples are in a class taught by Forrest Campbell, but the new arrangement will not affect this group. Also under consideration is an additional class for men not yet enrolled in the "Repeats" class taught by R. E. Campbell Sr.

Outstanding evangelists two outstanding evangelists will preach in forthcoming revival meetings, Rev. Hawkins also announced.

Rev. C. T. Aly, pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Wichita Falls will be doing the preaching at the meeting scheduled for summer, while Rev. Doug Carver of Pampa, pastor of the First Baptist Church will be doing the preaching next week.

Rev. Carver is well-known locally, having held a revival meeting for the church several years ago.

WE ARE DEEPLY GRATEFUL

To those who shared our days and nights of anxiety during the illness of our loved one, and for every kindness extended us in our hours of sorrow. May we take this method of thanking each of you who remembered us in your prayers; those who brought us food; and for flowers, cards, letters and other expressions of your sympathy. May God's richest blessings be with you.

PIED PINIONS

By Mrs. M.

A quickie survey would indicate that more men than women doze in church services. More sleeping bodies than beauties, so to speak.

A recent telephone call which I made to our residence to contact Mr. M., was answered by a female voice. The conclusion I reached after pondering the matter, was that I had merely been given a wrong number by the operator (I hope).

"We hope to be (over) (up) or (down) whichever is correct — to see our many friends in Matador soon," writes Lorene Denney, spokesman for the Earnest Denney, M. D. tribe out (?) at Kermit. "Here in Kermit we are known as the people who used to live in Matador," she continues. "We never miss an opportunity to tell everyone about Matador . . . sometime when you are in Odessa, drop on over to see us. We would love to have you and get an opportunity to show off our latest member of the family — a female dog."

The Albert Rattan family has established residence in Midland at 1115A East Nobles. Mary K. and the children, Tom, Ed, Suzzan and Richard finished the school term out at Morse, where M. K. was teaching, after Albert was transferred to Midland. This fall she will teach in the Odessa public schools, and has been attending Odessa College this summer. "We see Ethel and Rufus Emmons quite frequently — they are fine," she writes.

And this note from Mrs. G. B. (Slim) Durham (the former Mary Norman) now of Bristow, Okla., along with her subscription renewal: "Hi! They had a Trail Dust quote in the Bristow paper . . . enjoy it more all the time."

The marriage of Slim and Mary was one of the most unusual ever performed here. They and their attendants were all horseback when they repeated their vows at Old Settlers, back in 1952 Dorothy Trawek (now Mrs. Bruce Gibson of Kansas City) was maid of honor and best man was Sheriff John Stotts. The late Rev. Marvin Brotherton officiated, and H. C. Norman of Crowell gave his daughter in marriage.

CARD OF THANKS

When God made friends and loved ones He made one of the wonders of the world, but when he came to the people of Motley County he made the best. We wish that we could thank each and every one of you personally for the lovely flowers and all of the wonderful food that was brought in, in remembrance of our mother. We will always be grateful to all of you. The Family of Mrs. R. P. Moore

Dickens Jail Breakers Lead 50 Officers on Long Chase

THREE prisoners fled the hospitality of the Dickens County jail last Tuesday and led approximately 50 law enforcement officers from the Foothills area on a long chase that finally put the trio back behind the bars. The following account of the break is written by Jerry Hall of the Lubbock Avalanche, as told to him by Dickens County Sheriff Cleo Rogers.

The story began when a Spur Negro, J. W. Brantley, 19 who was in jail on a forgery charge, was released during the day as a trusty to do some yard work around the courthouse.

"Sometime during the day, Brantley wandered across the street to a hardware store and bought a couple of hacksaw blades," the sheriff said.

"I was locked up at 6:30 p. m. in the 'tank' with three other Negroes on the second floor of the jail, the blades immediately were put into operation, Rogers theorized.

"I was returning from Lubbock when I passed through Crosbyton and heard the radio operator there ask Dickens if they needed any help," Rogers said. "That's how I found out about the break."

Rogers said Brantley, Willie Woods, 23, and James Hernandez, 31, both of Fort Worth and both being held on charges of burglary, sawed through three narrow "strip bars" of the tank on the second floor and gained access to the stairs.

"Then they sawed through two round bars on the second floor near the main door," Rogers said. As they were sawing on the ground floor, the trio helped themselves to some confiscated beer, vodka and wine stored near the stairway.

Just Off Highway
The window where they finally gained freedom is only a few steps from U. S. Highway 82, and Rogers theorized they finally broke through about 9 p. m.

"The reason we know the time is because the fourth prisoner, Henry Coleman who was doing 20 days for drunk and disorderly, waited until about 9:15 and then came across the street to the courthouse and told the nightwatchman about the break," said Rogers. Coleman, incidentally, was given his freedom Wednesday as a reward.

Rogers directed erection of roadblocks in all directions from Dickens within a matter of minutes, and the trio almost was snared in one of them in a stolen car shortly after midnight Tuesday.

Car Is Abandoned
"They must have seen it just in time, because they abandoned a car stolen from J. P. Koonsman as they approached a roadblock about 9 miles south of town," Rogers said.

The search was concentrated in that area with units from Dickens, Kent, Crosby, Motley, Cottle, King, Haskell, Knox, Stonewall and Wilbarger counties taking part along with Texas Rangers and highway patrolmen from Lubbock and Memphis.

"Sheriff Dave Reves, Anson, brought his two bloodhounds over, and we turned them loose at the car," said Rogers. "They did pretty well for 4 or 5 miles until they turned up a skunk," he grinned.

Rogers said the Spur man, Brantley, split with the other two men when they abandoned the car.

"He went to his home in Spur, and his father, whom we had been in contact with, bundled him up and brought him right back to Dickens," Rogers said.

Wednesday's dawn was breaking by then, and the search continued centering on several empty farm houses and barns in the area about 10 miles east of Spur which Brantley pointed out to officers.

Windmill Tips Officers
The pair finally wound up where it started back in the Dickens jailhouse later Wednesday night, where new charges against them are pending. It marked the first breakout at the historic old jailhouse since 1924 when a sheriff was slain.

Rogers said the jail was built about 1900. "It's been a long 48 hours," he added, "and I'm glad it's over."

From Out of Town For Cammack Rites

Relatives from out of town who attended funeral services here for T. E. (Ed) Cammack Wednesday of last week included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton and Beverly, of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. John Cammack, and Mrs. W. R. Cammack of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt of Canyon; Mrs. Vashti Teal, Dallas; Mrs. Vera Rhodes, and Mrs. Frank Cole, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cammack and children, Hobbs, N. M.; Mrs. Lloyd Zellner of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Addison Cammack, Nara Vasa, N. M.; Mrs. Joe Baird, Clayton, N. M.; Mrs. Alfred D. Smith, Hereford; and Mrs. R. L. Patton of Amarillo.

Among friends at the funeral were Mrs. No. n a Starcher of Spur; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clark of Phillips, W. W. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thornberry and Miss Inez Blankenship all of Goodnight, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Davis, Mrs. Jim Hooker, Mrs. Spence Matlock and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patching all of Claude; J. E. Sparks, Spur; Mrs. Allie Barton, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Haney of Afton; and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Tomlinson of Lubbock.

RECENT VISITORS
Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Craven were their daughter and husband, Pfc. and Mrs. Billy Harrison of El Paso, and Mr. Harrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harrison of Jayton. On Sunday Mrs. Craven and daughter, Mrs. Pat Green accompanied their daughter and sister to Jayton, to join her husband in returning to El Paso.

They had been there since about 1 p. m., Rogers said. The sheriff said the two men gave up without any trouble. He said one of them told him the seachers had come "within 20 yards of us last night" but the rugged terrain had hidden them successfully.

National Magazine Uses Lockney Family For Subject on "How America Lives"

The Raymond Wisdom family of Lockney will be the subject of a feature story in Ladies Home Journal, to be published probably in the summer of 1960, says the Lockney Beacon. A representative of the magazine, Miss Ruth Matthews of New York City, recently spent several days visiting the Wisdom family, interviewing them and making pictures. Continuing the Lockney Newspaper says:

The Journal carries a feature titled "How America Lives" and the family's story of how they make the wheat harvest every year, doing custom combining all the way from Paducah area to an area near the Canadian border in Montana, will be the subject of the article.

Mrs. Wisdom read the Journal feature concerning another family. She wrote to the magazine, telling of her family's experiences on their trips and the magazine quickly responded expressing an interest. After several long distance telephone calls from New York, Miss Matthews arrived here on May 13 staying until May 16.

The magazine will send a representative to meet the family while they are away this summer, possibly at Albine, Wyoming, to get more pictures of the family life in their trailer house and of the combines at work in the field. The Journal works eight and nine months ahead of their feature articles, Mrs. Wisdom was told, and this type story must be published in the summer-time, thus the delay in publishing the feature until next summer.

While away in the harvest, Mrs. Wisdom usually cooks for 10 men and her family. Not only that but two of the meals must be carried to the fields where the men are working so that they may eat with a minimum loss of time.

The Wisdoms follow a certain route each year and know where they are going and what farms they will work on before they leave, Mrs. Wisdom explains. They usually are gone all summer into the fall but last summer Mrs. Wisdom and the children returned home in late August so that the oldest boy, Steven, age 7, could start to school.

TO RUIDOSO
Mr. and Mrs. Bundy Campbell and children, Bundy and Olivia, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price and children, Linda Kay and David, spent the week end in Ruidoso, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hoyle left Friday for Ruidoso accompanied by her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Edmondson of Phillips. The latter's daughter, Gay Lynn, remained here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edmondson.

UNDERGOES SURGERY
Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCaghen returned Wednesday of last week from Stephenville where their son-in-law, Rev. Darwin Ray Scott, had undergone surgery Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. They brought their young grandson, Ray, home with them.

Their other children are Paul, age 4, and Judy, almost 2. They always take the children with them.

The 10-man crew this year will include two Lockney boys, Wayne Cooper and Jake Wofford. Mrs. Wisdom's brother has been a member of the crew for three years and will be with them again this year.

Mrs. Wisdom has received a letter from Nelle Keys Bell, associate editor of the Journal, asking for information about living accommodations in some of the places they are to stop and suggesting that she meet them at Two Buttes, Colo., to secure the remainder of the material for the article.

The custom harvesting crew is called "Wisdom Brothers" and is composed of Raymond and Bill Wisdom, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wisdom. They have been doing this type work for several years. Raymond has been the wheat harvesting operator while his family handles work on the farm operated jointly by the two brothers in this community.

They will have three combines and four trucks in operation this summer in wheat harvest. Mrs. Wisdom pointed out that they always take a little time when they get up in the northern states and visit tourist attractions and points of interest. They have visited Glacier House, Estes Park and other places.

Up a steep mud-choked wash—Positraction pays off!

Through a mountain stream—deep in Avintaquin Canyon.

NO MOUNTAIN CAT, MISTER...

That's a Chevy with Positraction!

That 3134 Fleetside has the sure-footed ways of a big western bobcat. Rooms through high brush country that would buck the life out of most trucks. Crosses streams without benefit of a bridge. Climbs talus grades where pifion won't even grow. But that's all routine for this Chevy, equipped with Positraction* rear axle. It's hard at it every day for the Utah Fish and Game commission. Figure about 60,000 miles of mountaineering before this Chevy is traded. And yet the district officer who drives it would bet his badge the tire rods won't even need replacing! Out in that wild, climbing Utah country, Chevy's suspension and frame and brakes, its Positraction rear axle and Thriftmaster 6 power are proving themselves under rougher conditions than most test engineers could dream up. They're proving that Chevrolet's advanced engineering and design ideas pay off—in spades—when the going gets especially mean and dirty.

Positraction, of course, is a big plus on this job, providing the sure grip needed to dig through mud, snow, loose sand, whatever comes along. Could be that a Positraction-equipped 1/2-ton pickup is the answer for your area of operation. Or maybe a 4-wheel drive Chevy. We've got trucks that specialize in getting in and out of any kind of country. Talk to your dealer about your needs. He'll show you what tough trucks are made of.

She was a charter member of the Missionary Society, to which she was given a life membership. She was also a charter member of the Matador Rebecca Lodge and active in the order for thirty years.

Her late husband was publisher of one of the earliest newspapers published here, the Matador Maverick from 1895 until 1899, during which time he changed the name of the paper to Motley County Journal. Mr. Moore died June 1, 1954, also at the age of 79. A son of the couple, Ray Peyton, also preceded his parents in death.
