Vote of Public To Elect Queen

A DEMOCRATIC monarchy will be established in Matador next week when the public elects a Matador Lions Club queen. The election will be held at intermission during the annual Revue program, in the school auditorium Friday night, April 3rd.

Ticket-buying members of the audience will each receive a ballot. The ballot will list the names of 28 girls who are queen candidates. Balloting will be secret. The properly marked ballots will be collected and the show resumed.

At the conclusion of the program, judges (who have been counting the ballots) will announce the winner. A sample ballot is printed in this issue of the Tribune. Readers are asked to study the ballot and become familiar with it so that the balloting at the revue may be made as rapidly as possible. A ballot will be given each ticket-purchaser in the lobby of the school building (exception will be students under high school age).

Final Rehearsal Set. The entire cast is urged to attend final rehearsal which has been changed from Sunday afternoon, to Tuesday night (March 31) at 7:30. Although Sunday afternoon rehearsals have been encouraging, attendance has not been complete, according to Lions Club. Bill Seale and Forrest Campbell, co-directors of the production, it is very important that everyone in the show be present Tuesday night, they stressed.

The public, which has acclaimed the Lions Revue as "the greatest show on earth", is scheduled for some outstanding surprises at next week's performance.

Variety and originality has been the aim of the script writers so that the public will continue to receive more than it's money's worth of entertainment. Lions leaders feel that this year's production may prove the most successful in the club's history.

FFA Boys Honor Parents

Farm Training Is Cited In Address

Commissioner Aton Brazell

"FARMING offers a good future to the properly trained farmer, and 96% of the boys who are members of FFA have expressed intentions of going into farm management."

The statement was made Thursday night by Aton Brazell, Commissioner of Precinct 4, Lubbock County, principal speaker at the annual FFA banquet held in the Roaring Springs school gymnasium.

Approximately 60 members and guests attended the banquet which honored parents of FFA members, teacher, and agricultural leaders.

The high school girls served the delicious meal of tomato juice cocktail, baked ham, green beans, creamed potatoes, tossed salad, hot rolls, butter, cherry pie, coffee, and iced tea, which was prepared by Mrs. Hazel Bridges and Mrs. Charles Owens in the school cafeteria.

Blue and gold, FFA colors were used in the table decorations with napkins, plates, cups and place mats bearing the FFA insignia.

The young Lubbock County commissioner is an outstanding farm leader. He was the first President of the Texas Young Farmers' Association and a member of the Lubbock FFA chapter. He had been an exchange student in England, where he studied their methods of farming.

"FFA members are not afraid of responsibilities," Brazell said, "and their accomplishments prove that they are going to continue to accept responsibilities. They are finest fruits of America."

"The future of farming is certain to see many changes. The successful and efficient farmers will remain — they will keep up with a changing world in a rapidly changing world —" (Continued on back page)

THEY REMEMBER—Ennis Moss, left, drove by Red Lake Camp when he was a boy, back in 1914. Now, he, in partnership with his sons, owns the land. C. C. (Con) Davis, right, was born in the house in the background, when it was the homestead of his grandparents, Mr. and J. C. Davis. The lumber was hauled by freight wagon from Quanah.

Two Men Return to Purchase Land Associated with Memories of Boyhood

DESTINY has woven an interesting pattern into the fabric of the lives of two men who are among the new owners of the 4,000 acre block of Red Lake Pasture. The land, located in Dickens and Motley counties was until eight years ago a part of the Matador Land & Cattle Co. empire.

C. C. (Con) Davis, insurance man of Spur and R. H. Simmons, a prominent Dickens County rancher began about a year ago to negotiate for the big block of land. They needed a great amount of money, reputed to be in the neighborhood of a million dollars. They staked their entire possessions and credits to make the deal which was recently consummated.

The block of ranch land now has 12 new owners and only a small amount remains to be sold. A land-hungry country absorbed the tracts in about 30 days.

Largest purchaser was E. E. Moss & Sons of Lubbock, who acquired 19,000 acres, which they plan to operate as a stock ranch. Moss & Sons own the old Red Lake line camp on Sanders Hollow Lumber for part of the house was freighted by wagon from Quanah in 1888.

Con Davis was born in the house. It was the homestead of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis, who filed on 3 1/2 sections and built the house in 1888. He lived with his grandparents and rode to school horseback to Darden Canyon school in Motley County (consolidated into the Roaring Springs school district a number of years ago) a distance of about five miles.

Mr. Davis' grandparents left in about 1916 and sold the land to the Matador Land & Cattle Company.

Davis later went to school at the Oklahoma University. Stillwater and in 1923 became superintendent of the Prague, Oklahoma school. He quit in 1925 and went to California where he attended the University of California and received his Masters Degree. During the time he was serving as district superintendent of Glenn County, California. He retired in 1957 and returned to Spur where he purchased an insurance agency.

"My roots have always been here," he said, "and I am happy and contented."

A Boy in a Wagon

In 1914 a boy drove a wagon and team across the sandy shinnery road from the Sneedville community in Cottle County, to Roaring Springs. The distance was roughly 40 miles. The winding road passed the Red Lake Camp in Sanders Hollow. The boy still remembers the friendly, green cottonwoods and the waving grass.

The boy was Ennis Moss. His family was moving to Roaring Springs, where he was to attend school. Later he was associated in gin work and became owner of a gin in Roaring Springs. The people of the community elected him mayor and he served the office without pay for a number of years.

Of a mechanical mind, he sought to improve the cleaning equipment of his gin. After many trials and heartbreaking disappointments that would have discouraged a man of lesser determination, Ennis Moss perfected the Moss Lint Cleaner.

The rest is history. The manufacturing plant is among Lubbock's major industries. Gins throughout the nation have installed the equipment and many have been shipped to South America.

The 19,000 acres of Red Lake Pasture will be operated as a joint partnership as E. E. Moss & Sons Ranch. The three sons are Ennis, Jr., Hoyle and James. All live in Lubbock.

"Texas" came from "Tejas," an Indian word meaning friends or allies. The name was applied to Indian tribes living around Spanish missions in eastern Tex

Program Expanded For Farm Housing

Under new provisions, the Farmers Home Administration farm housing program is designed to help more farmers with their farm building needs, according to information released from the Floydada office of Jack Kassahn, local county supervisor.

Now an owner of a farm in agricultural production and on which the operator plans to produce at least $400 worth of farm commodities for sale or home use may qualify for the 4 percent long-term housing loan provided he meets other standard eligibility requirements.

Formerly an eligible applicant had to own a farm that produced a more substantial part of the operator's annual cash income.

Loans may be made to build, improve, or repair farm houses or other essential farm buildings, and to provide water for farmstead and household use. Kassahn said that in addition, financing major construction, many other needs for farm and farm home modernization such as adding bathrooms, utility rooms, better kitchens, and many other improvements to the home as well as to farm service buildings.

The loans are made to farm owners who need credit to finance building improvements or repairs, but find that adequate credit is not available through banks or other regular credit channels. The interest rate is 4 percent and loans may be amortized over periods up to 33 years.

Eligibility for loan assistance is determined by the three-member county Farm Home Administration committee, and applications are now being accepted in FHA county offices.

Plain talk to the man who thinks "all cars are built alike today"

J. EMMET JUDGE

"The one thing we know car buyers want above all in an automobile is quality. Yet many people assume that all cars today are pretty much the same in this respect.

This is far from being the case. I can name at least 30 basic differences in the design of our '59 Mercury. Naturally, we feel these differences make Mercury a better car. For example:

EXTRA STRENGTH STARTS WITH THE FRAME
The backbone of every Mercury is the frame. We use a heavy box-type construction—the heaviest in the industry. Competitors use frames that are up to 125 pounds lighter.

WE BUILD QUALITY YOU CAN SEE
Compare the way Mercury builds engine hoods. Most competitive cars use what is known as a single-panel construction.

This type of hood can be twisted and turned with the slightest pressure—often flutters and vibrates when the car is in motion. At Mercury, on the other hand, we use a double-panel construction—two layers of steel with the insulation sandwiched in between. Not only is Mercury's hood more rigid, but it looks better.

YOU FEEL THE QUALITY WITH EVERY STOP...
Mercury brakes are the largest in the field—with up to 22% more brake lining than competitive cars. And only Mercury in its field has brakes that adjust themselves mechanically. You save money by eliminating periodic adjustments. And you are safer because Mercury brakes stay properly adjusted for the life of the linings.

...AND EVERY TIME YOU TAKE THE WHEEL
All 1959 Mercurys have a flexible coupling installed in the steering system.

This acts as an insulator—absorbs road shocks that would otherwise travel up to the steering wheel. Mercury, unlike some cars, gives you this with either manual or power steering.

WE HAVE PLENTY OF PROOF THAT THIS IS THE BEST-BUILT CAR IN AMERICA TODAY

We know it is the greatest Mercury ever designed and built. Never in Mercury's 20-year history have we had so much value in the product itself. Mercury has advantages everywhere over competition. The four described on this page are only typical. In future messages I'll tell you about dozens more—in styling, comfort, in everything you want in a car."

THE time of Easter is here. It is a time of new hope... the hope brought by the risen Christ. It is the resurrection hope of victory over death. As servants of those in bereavement, we daily witness the meaning and comfort which the resurrection message brings. It is the one hope left to those standing for the last time by a loved one who has been taken away. For that reason we urge you to think about Easter and its meaning, and to go to the church of your choice during the week, ... next Sunday.

Fifty Quilts Made By Quilting Club

An estimated 50 quilts have been made this spring by the Roaring Springs Quilting Club in meetings held each Tuesday. The group of women start to work in February and meet each week until school is out.

St. Patrick's day found the women meeting in the home of Mrs. Alfred Dye, 3 miles east of the air port. Twenty women brought a covered dish and thimble and enjoyed the day of fellowship. Three quilts were completed, and another, for Grandmother Dye, was half finished.

The women are making "Friendship quilts" by exchanging blocks with their names stitched on them.

Mrs. Walter Gwinn was hostess Tuesday, March 24 in the vacant Carrol Pierce house beyond the Baptist Church in Roaring Springs. Each woman brought her own plate, fork and glass, as well as a chair. Use of the Pierce house was appreciated by the women, since some homes do not have sufficient room to put up three quilts at one time.

Anyone who enjoys quilting and fellowship, is welcome to meet with the women.

WE EXTEND OUR BEST WISHES

To All Our Young Friends Who Will Have a Part In The Annual Junior Fat Stock Show
Saturday, April 4th

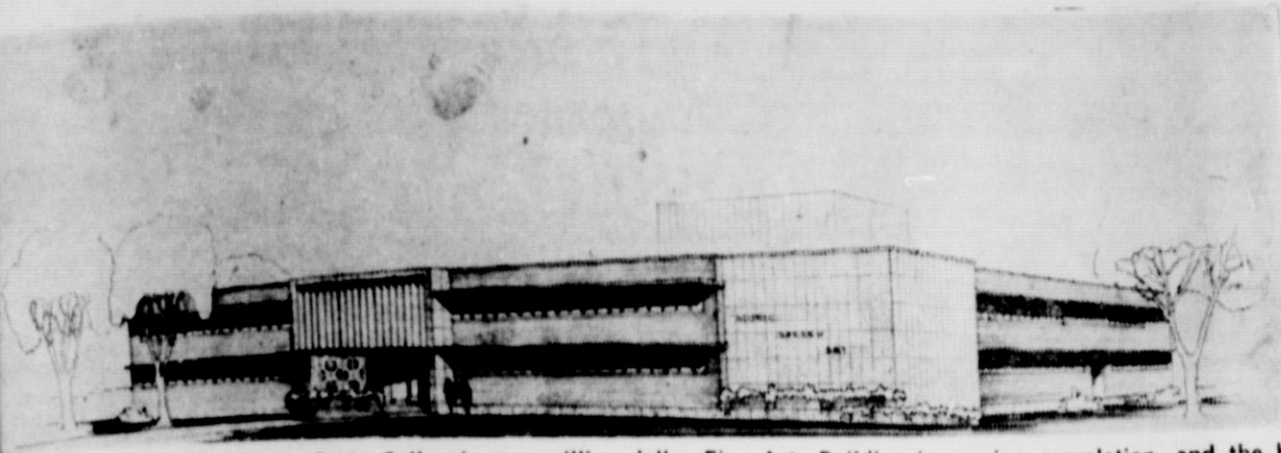

AS an organization and as individuals, we are fully aware that you boys and girls will become the leaders of our communities, our state and nation during the years ahead.

As a sound banking institution that you, your fathers and grandfathers have relied on for the constructive assistance essential in making this a great and successful livestock area, we have seen at first hand the far-sightedness, diligence and downright hard work required to produce high quality, profitable livestock.

We congratulate each of you, and wish for you the best of luck. Remember, that to us, all of you are winners and that we are proud of your achievements.

THE FIRST STATE BANK of Matador

The structure of West Texas State College's new million dollar Fine Arts Building is nearing completion, and the building which will house the art, music and speech departments, is expected to be ready for use when the fall semester opens in September, 1959. The building will feature such equipment as a hydraulic lift for the orchestra pit in the auditorium, a completely isolated hearing clinic, and air conditioning throughout the building.

Former Resident, Roscoe Lee, Head of Bike Riders Nation-Wide Organization

IF YOU ride a bike, chances are you will soon be a member of the American Bicycle Club, with headquarters in Albuquerque, N. M., 303 Washington SE. One of the principal objects of the organization is to teach safety to bicycle riders.

Roscoe Lee, formerly of Matador, is president of the organization which is receiving the assistance of safety leaders, traffic engineers, civic-minded business parents and youngsters who ride bicycles.

Lee was in Matador Saturday, and said the idea for the ABC was fostered in Ralls, Texas. He is his boyhood friend, Joe B. Wyman, now manager of the Chamber of Commerce, responsible for the idea, although others had a part in the early stages.

Lee explained there is a twofold purpose to the club. "It teaches and stresses safety where the bike is used. Then it teaches a youngster how to appraise and take care of his equipment."

He said in filling out a membership card an enrollee is required to state the condition of his bicycle.

"This," Lee pointed out, "is because when a member loses or has his bike stolen, we replace it."

He said, "it is not a matter of insurance, but rather a matter of assurance."

Unlimited Potentialities

Richard Hamilton, also of Matador, has become affiliated with the organization in the public relations department is Stan Wyman, formerly a traveling reporter for the Brooklyn Dodgers, who last week accepted a place with the club.

Lee is enthused with the potentialities of the organization, which he feels are almost unlimited. The Albuquerque Journal has given the club wide publicity in feature articles.

Plans call for area groups to hold annual jamborees. Prizes will be offered in recreation and writing contests. In communities like Albuquerque the top prize will be a $1000 college scholarship for the best essay submitted on safety.

Major factor behind the new organization will be safety. Each month a mailing piece will be sent to each member, stressing good, safe bike practices.

In addition will be safety instruction with police department safety division leaders explaining the proper use of bikes on streets and highways.

Mechanical Instruction

Another feature of the ABC is mechanical safety instruction, or lessons on how to keep a bike in the best mechanical condition for easier and safer riding.

ABC members will be guests of the organization at theatre parties and will be able to participate in vacation jamborees, featuring entertainment, races and sporting events. Membership is $5 per year.

The wider the track...
the better the ride!

Slide in behind the controls of this gorgeous automobile, pull away and feel what happens—or doesn't happen—at the first curve or corner. Less lean. Less sway. Wide-Track Wheel design is the reason. No other car, only Pontiac, has it. The wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens the stance but not the car. You're steadier, balanced, more secure. Narrow track cars can't match it. This is a big year for Pontiac—with many more to come. It can be your big year, too. Get a bright new Wide-Track Pontiac from a dealer and take it out for a drive today.

Midwestern Choir From Wichita Falls Presents Program for Matador School

Delayed from last week

An outstanding program of music was brought to Matador Monday by Midwestern University Choir, Wichita Falls.

The choir, on a three-day spring tour, visited Matador High School and presented their program during chapel assembly to high school students and upper elementary classes.

Directed by William V. Boland, the choir opened with "Sing and Rejoice," (James), and followed with "What Can Life Be But a Shadow?" (Bach); "Deep River" (Arr. Burleigh), and "Beautiful Savior" (Christiansen).

James Greger directed the Girls Chorus for "The Child Asleep" (Korngold), while Betsy McCauley directed the group in singing "The Straw Guy" (Kodaly, from Guys and Dolls), and Tissa Roberts was director as they sang "A Bushel and a Peck" by Loesser. Pianists were Tissa Roberts and Gwen Goodrich.

With Don Lewis directing and Don Owens as pianist, the Mens Chorus presented "Red Rosy Bush" (Arr. Sheppard-Jones); "If I Got My Ticket, Can I Ride?" (Arr. Shaw); and "Seventy-Six Trombones" (Wilson, from The Music Man).

Concluding numbers by Midwestern Choir, comprising both choruses, were, "It Was a Lover and His Lass" (Morley); "Poor Man Lazarus" (Arr. Hairston); "Oh, Dear! What can the Matter Be?" (Kubik); and Director Boland's own arrangement of "The Eyes of Texas."

The women's section of the choir is composed of 41 members, while 32 men comprise the Mens Chorus. Majority of the combined choir are Texans. Other states represented are Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Arizona, Mass., Missouri and Pennsylvania, while two members of the Girls Chorus are from Hungary.

FRESHMEN NEWS

by Johnny Ezzell

The freshmen are wistfully thinking of summertime these days. It seems that summertime is a time far away from tests and themes. Everybody will be glad to get away from these things and be able to fool around all day. At least they're hoping so.

But things aren't so rosy now. Everyone has to write his term theme, study lessons, and take tests. It is beginning to look like school work is never over.

LIBRARY LAPSE

by Mike Groves

The Allabout Books are very interesting and not too difficult to read and understand. All About Strange Beasts of the Past is just what the name implies. The author's travels and experiences in finding prehistoric monsters and tiny ancient animals are related in this book.

Among the animals described in this book is the Beast of Baluchistan. The Beast was a great, hornless rhinoceros, that, when stretching out his nose, was 25 feet high and the biggest mammal that ever walked the earth.

This book is found in the MHS library and is 146 pages long.

SENIOR NEWS

by Ray Davis

Be sure and attend the senior play, "Grandpa's Twin Sister," tomorrow night at 8:00 p. m. Advance tickets are being sold by the sixth and seventh grades, also by the senior class. You may also buy your ticket at the door that night.

We are glad to have Sherril Rigby back in school after being snake-bitten. Friday, 13th.

Most of the senior class members have turned in their term themes, but there are still a few who did not receive their information in time.

The 1959 Senior group picture has been received and is now hanging in the study hall.

CAMPUS CUES

by Carolyn Pohl

M. H. S. extends a "get well" wish to Mrs. Timmons, who has been absent from school recently. Mrs. Charles Payne has been substituting for her.

Sights seen around school these days are girls with their hair blowing all over their heads, seniors mumbering to themselves trying to learn their play parts, tennis and baseball players, the one-act play cast practicing, and shining medals which were won by some of the students at the Choral Interscholastic League Meet.

The students really enjoyed the concert given by Midwestern University Choir on Monday, March 16. The program opened with a selection of hymns, sung in four parts, by both men and women.

Highlights of the program were two numbers, "A Bushel and A Peck" by the women's choir, and "76 Trombones" sung by the men's choir. This section of the program was under the direction of the student directors.

In closing the entire choir was combined to sing "The Eyes of Texas." They had the honor of singing this for Governor Price Daniel.

Joe Stockwell, Dean of the Evening School at Midwestern, gave a brief summary of Midwestern University.

CULLIN CASTLE

By Charlotte Cullin

It is rumored that every man's castle is his home. But as fate will sometimes have it, man's home is also a doghouse, actual canine kind or otherwise.

Today we deal with canine kind. A doghouse lived in by the animal domain.

As every woman should know, every growing husband needs a pet, or so Mr. C. told me as he deposited before me four floppy feet of animal attached to one lobbed off tail, round body, and fat face.

When such an event occurs, which it undoubtedly will to all new wives, the female must learn to exist and mop. Better yet, she should use her influence as a new bride to trick her spouse into mopping and waxing the floors of their doghouse before the dog becomes accustomed to hardwood floors instead of out doors.

When husband is so tricked he will keep a much more watchful eye on his corner loving pet.

The second step is to name your pet. If it happens to be half Boxer and half Hound, as ours happens to be, you can name it Africa due to its parts unknown. Of course, if you feel that would be carrying cleverness a little too far, you could name your pet Puddles. Or take the middle path and name your dog Beep for no reason at all.

Step three deals with the feeding of Beep. You will find that the young pup has an enormous appetite for people, paper, and shoes. In fact, it is absolutely dangerous to absentmindedly fall asleep with your shoes on. Imagine awakening in the front yard flower bed. To avoid such embarrassment keep plenty of horsemeat handy. It is rather expensive, but so are new shoes.

One of the most trying times in your roll of kennel master is the training period. There is no way to keep your pet from bringing home dead cats, dead rabbits, and other live dogs who bring their own dead things to your yard. The thing to do is teach him to bring home something useful. A flower plant with roots on it, or a newspaper from next door.

Step five: Patience people, patience.

About Your Health

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

Henry A. Holle, M. D., Commissioner

Why should we be concerned about diseases in animals? What relationship does animal disease hold to humans? Often people wonder what veterinary medicine has to do with public health. The answer is, it has much to do with it.

The fact is that animals, birds, chickens, and man plus the goat-between vectors such as mosquitoes, ticks, flies and lice are capable of sharing hundreds of diseases common to one another. Recently World Health Organization officials listed 110 animal diseases transmissible to man.

Take rabies! At the recent conference on Diseases in Nature Transmissible to Man, in Austin, a national public health authority stated that there were about 3,750,000 cases of rabies throughout the Americas.

What about brucellosis? This is the number one problem in some countries. It can cause dire economic consequences because of its effects on goats, hogs and cattle. In humans it is called undulant fever.

At the same meeting mentioned above, it was brought out that so-called shipping fever, a bane to cattle buyers and shippers, has its parallel in the illnesses suffered by students going off to school for the first time or recruits entering the army or navy.

The probable cause for such illnesses is the exposure to new infectious agents the individual has not been exposed to previously. Therefore, he has not built up an immunity and falls prey to the strange infection.

It is known that many diseases of animals have their counterparts in humans. Ringworm, rapidly spread among children, is shared by animals. It is not unusual for Fido to pick up the ringworm parasite during wanderings.

Little Johnny or Susie and plays with Fido and they thing we know, they have contracted the unsightly enteric disease.

These minor illnesses we live with. We can cope with them. But a constant vigil public health authorities are necessary to prevent more serious diseases of domestic and animals from attacking humans.

For instance, a recent study dogs (all house pets) under salmonella organisms in 10 percent of the animals tested. salmonella causes dysentery, they must discover how they got the organisms and treat the cause.

This, in essence, is the problem confronting public health veterinarians, an important growing public health program. (A weekly feature of the Public Health Education Division, as State Department of Health) services were held Tuesday at 3 p. m. in the Northfield school building, with Rev. A. G. Roberts of Lefors, pastor of the Northfield Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was made in the Northfield cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home of Memphis.

Pallbearers were P. A. Simpson, A. B. Simpson, Homer Davis, Charley Lane, Delmont Hays and Nolan Thomas.

Community Is Historic

Early history of West Texas is associated with the Northfield community. The first postoffice was established about 1890 by W. A. Cook, whose former home was Northfield, Minn.

About ten years later, W. H. Denny and his family assumed the postmastership and moved the office to their dugout when they handled the mail for 19 years. Following her husband's death Mrs. Denny continued to serve and later turned the duties over to her daughter, Mrs. Lillie Knipe. She was succeeded by Mr. Tipton.

Present postmaster, Charles M. Lane assumed the duties on Mr. Tipton's retirement, and purchased the store which he operated in connection with the postoffice.

Northfield's first postoffice was located four miles south of its present site. At that time the mail was carried from Childress to Floydada on a 2-wheel cart, via Northfield and Whiteflat.

As the country settled, the mail increased until it was necessary to use a large hack. The line was then shortened to run from Matador to Childress, and later from Childress to Northfield, as the community is served today.

they are not afraid to accept the responsibilities.

Credit To Parents

"These young leaders are a credit to their parents, to their teachers and to the communities," Brazell said, in comments on the awards and citations presented during the program. He said vocational agriculture training is important to the future of the country and to the boys who want to continue in the profession of farming.

Commissioner Brazell was introduced by B. L. Peacock, vocational agriculture teacher in the Roaring Springs schools. The men are former classmates, having attended Lubbock High School together.

Invocation was by Allen Smith, opening ceremony was by FFA officers, introduction of guests was by Lewis Carpenter and address of welcome was by Bert Green.

Accomplishments of the Roaring Springs FFA chapter were read by Gary Grizzle. Dinner music was by Shirley Stafford. Musical feature of the program was by the "Pep Tones", accompanied by Mrs. L. D. Wilkerson at the piano. The group includes Beth Watson, Melba Hall, Sandra Braselton and Jeanie Watson.

Star Farmer Award

Coveted Star Farmer award was presented to Allen Smith, who also received the Dekalb Award. Bert Green received the award and trophy on Soil and Water. Rodney Long received the award for rural electrification. Gary Grizzle received the farm safety award and Sammy Swimm (who was not able to attend) will receive the farm mechanics award. Bert Green served as master of ceremonies. Presentation of awards was by B. L. Peacock.

S. J. Braselton, Jr. was honored by the Roaring Springs FFA chapter for his contribution to farming. The award, however, did not arrive in time for the banquet and will be presented later.

Judge Elbert Reeves of Matador was a special guest of the boys and Mr. Peacock.

Adult Shop Class Showing Increase

More people are becoming interested in doing things for themselves. The adult shop class, sponsored by the vocational agriculture department of Matador schools has had an average attendance of 14 for the past seven weeks. Monday night 18 attended, Bill Moss, vocational agriculture instructor, reported.

Films on leather tooling, aluminum designing, copper tooling and reed and wrought iron working, have been shown.

It is strictly a "working" class as there has been no classroom instruction, and a bare minimum of shop supervision. Individual instruction is given on the operation of tools and machinery.

Projects worked to the present time include leather work, furniture repair and refinishing, various woodworking projects, machinery repair and arc welding.

Mr. Moss said the class will be continued as long as interest is sufficient to justify it. There is no enrollment fee and anyone residing in the Matador Independent School district is welcome to attend. Classes are held at the school agriculture building on Monday nights.

Judge and Mrs. Elbert Reeves made a business trip to Austin last week.

RESIDENTS ILL

Several residents have been reported ill at their homes here. Turner Campbell is on the list, and "taking it easy" at his home after recent attacks ascribed to a heart ailment. A. L. Curry was reported ill at his home, Tuesday.

TO CALIFORNIA

C. T. Heller left Tuesday for Novata, Calif., where he will spend several months in the home of his daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Lott Vickers. He will visit with his son, R. V. Heller of Richmond.

AT CATTLE CONVENTION

Mrs. U. L. Willie was in Dallas this week where she attended 82nd annual convention of Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association, with headquarters at the new Sheraton Hotel. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. R. E. Donovan, who visited with friends there.

HALFFS ARE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Half of Richardson, were guests Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Patton, and visiting with them during their short visit were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Keith and David, and Mrs. R. E. Donovan. The visitors were en route to their home from a trip to Twenty-nine Palms, Calif., with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Keith, and baby daughter, Merrie Lynn.
