Invitation To Hunters

The Wolf Island, Mo., man who is striving to satisfy a life-long ambition by freeing two menagerie lions in the jungles of the Mississippi river island that he may enjoy the sport of lion hunting at home, is going to much needless trouble and expense.

If he will move his expedition to this section of the country we will show him an animal that makes the stalking of lions seem like pastime for children. We refer to the wolf that has lived and raised a family on our back step during the past three years. It might be fair to warn him, however, that nearly everyone is up a tree and this dispatch is handed to a carrier-bill-collector.

Boy Scouts

Enterprising young T. A. McDonald's movement to organize a Boy Scout troop in Roaring Springs deserves the consideration of every citizen in the community. Nothing in this country's long list of achievements has done more to further honest, clean and healthy manhood than this great organization. Roaring Springs has natural facilities that are unsurpassed for camping, swimming and hiking. It has many boys whose young lives deserve the unmatched training and pleasure that can be supplied only in Boy Scout work.

Charting The Future

Education becomes more important in this modern world of ours every time we hang up a new calendar. No longer is its value questioned for every day we see too many who are handicapped because they lack training.

To the young man or woman contemplating the future with more than idle thought, the value of a commercial education is at once apparent. Its low initial cost in time and money and the greater field of opportunities it offers causes other schools and colleges to suffer by comparison. Those of moderate means who must look beyond graduation when they can apply themselves toward a career are impressed by the demand for graduates of commercial colleges that is unequalled in other lines of training.

Besides the burden of expense connected with the regular college, there is the sacrifice of four or more years of time that could be applied profitably, with commercial training, toward future success.

The courses offered by a recognized college, as the Tyler Commercial College warrants those who invest their time and money in education, a training that will enable them to competently fill positions that pay real money from the start. Positions of dignity and great opportunity.

Bible Study Organized

Last Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock a meeting was held at the Church of Christ, for the purpose of organizing a Bible study class, for all the ladies, in all the churches. It was decided that the meeting place would be at the different churches, each church having the meeting time about. A very nice interest was shown, there was 56 present. A President was elected for each group. Next meeting will be at the Baptist church, Wednesday, Feb. 1.

Pavement of Highway Soon To Link Matador With Eastern Cities

COUNTY SEAT TOWN IS PRESENT TERMINAL OF NEW PROJECT

It will soon be possible to drive on pavement from the intersection of Highways 18 and 28 in Matador and have continuous hard surfaced roads to almost any point in eastern United States.

Work was started last week on Motley county's first paving by R. W. McKinney, general Contractors of Nacogdoches, Texas, who was awarded the contract of hard-surfacing Highway 28 from Matador to the Cottle county line.

Plans and work are under way for the completion of paving from Crosbyton west to Lubbock, which, when the Motley county job is completed, will leave only about twelve miles, from the Dickens county line north through Roaring Springs to Matador, without hard surface.

Miss Ina Mae Long Is Baylor Honor Student

Belton, Jan. Spl.—The name of Miss Ina Mae Long of Roaring Springs appeared on the honor roll for the fall term at Baylor College for Women. Only those students making an average of "B" or above are eligible for the honor roll.

Miss Long is active in class and social activities. She is a member of Gamma, one of the Greek letter societies for freshmen at Baylor, and also of Players Guild, an organization for those interested in dramatics.

"Raspberry Red" To Be Presented At High School Auditorium Saturday Eve

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Seeing Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn in person? To be sure, every red blooded boy and girl would be gloriously happy to meet these two widely known and loved characters made famous by Mark Twain.

We know it is impossible to see these boys, but it is possible to accurately portray them. In "Raspberry Red" you will find all the characters lovable, adorable and likened to "Tom" and "Huck". We feel certain you will go home refreshed and feeling much better for having seen this show.

"Raspberry Red" has a supporting cast composed of the following: L. J. Hurst, Billy Keahy, Rosalind Mitchell, Jimmie Joe Freeman, Carleen Dobkins, Lorena Zachary, Ted Weatherall, J. T. Swim, Lois Ragland, Mary Elizabeth Love, Gay

T. A. McDonald of the Roaring Springs school faculty is endeavoring to interest civic-minded business and professional men this week in the organization of a Boy Scout troop in Roaring Springs.

In regard to the move Mr. McDonald said: "Boy Scout work fills a tremendous place in the boys life. It comes to him at a time when he is most susceptible to association, and the training he receives tends to greatly influence his future life. Clean, healthful sports, respect, obedience, helpfulness to fellow man and clean habits are only a few of the strict laws written in the Scout code."

Roaring Springs' proximity to west Texas' finest play grounds offers great advantage to a local Boy Scout organization.

6 New Numbers For Air Stars In New Film

Six new musical numbers, written especially for the picture, will be presented by the 14 radio stars featured with Stuart Erwin, Bing Crosby, and Leila Hyams in "The Big Broadcast," romantic comedy of radioland, which comes to the Palace Theatre, Spur, soon.

They were written by Ralph Rainger. "Please" and "Here Lies Love" will be sung and played by Crosby, Erwin, Vincent Lopez and his Orchestra, and Arthur Tracy, The Street Singer. "Soliloquy" will be sung by Erwin.

"Okay, Colonel" was written for the Boswell Sisters, and "Calloway Calling" and "Stop the Traffic" for Cab Calloway and his Orchestra.

Other radio artists in the picture, who will be heard in other numbers, are Kate Smith, the Mills Brothers, and Burns & Allen.

Not a single loss by fire during the past twelve months is Roaring Springs' enviable fire record according to Lourena Ferguson, local fire insurance agent. Although a number of calls have been answered, the fire department has been able in each instance to prevent any damage.

The possible exception to the perfect record is the West Texas Gin Co.'s loss of several bales of cotton in November. This, however, does not affect the business house and residence fire insurance rate, which Mrs. Ferguson believes will be substantially lowered for this year.

W. M. S. Meeting

The ladies of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at the church in their Monthly Leaflet Program with Mrs. Campbell as leader.

After singing "Have Thine Own Way", the devotional was conducted by the Leader using appropriate Scripture readings from Psalms, Matt. and John. At this time a prayer was worded by Mrs. McBrayer.

The Leaflet, "A Missionary Class Meeting," was well given by eleven of the members present.

Today being the time for signing pledge cards for the years work, a very impressive service was conducted by the Leader in which each one present took an active part.

The President took charge and conducted a short business session in which it was decided that Monday, Jan. 30, being a 5th Monday, we would meet and do some quilting we have received to do. All that are interested in the work of church and Women's Missionary Society, come and meet with us. Your presence means much, whether you feel capable of doing anything. We want the people to feel their task too big for them, they always make the best workers.

We were dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Vaughn, each going to their home saying in their hearts, "It was good to have been in His House to Worship."

Methodist Church

"Bless the Lord, o my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, o my soul, and so get not all His benefits.

This should be the heartfelt cry of each one of us when we think back upon the past Sunday and its blessings. Attendance and interest in Sunday school, church services, young peoples and juniors meetings were good. The evening service was unusually good and the Lord was with us in saving power. "To God be all the glory.

The choir is doing fine work under the leadership of Mr. A. J. Hodges. There is a very decided improvement in the singing. We invite you to the choir if you can and like to sing. The morning congregation enjoyed a quartette by Messrs. A. J. Hodges and Guy Brasilton and Mesdames A. J. Hodges and E. S. Faver.

The entire work of the church is moving along smoothly and enthusiastically. You may have had disappointments and reverses, both financially and spiritually, but what does that matter? Buckle up a bit, take a new holt on life, make the following poem your own.

I have failed in a thousand cases,
 But still I have the nerve to try;
 I am scarred in a hundred places
 No darling of luck am I.
 In many a crucial hour,
 I have hoped and been scorned and kicked,
 But never has fate had power
 To convince me that I am licked.

This church and this pastor are here to help you and to serve you, give us an opportunity to prove it. Several visitors and new faces were seen in services last Sunday. Come again, you are always welcome at this church.

"The Friendly Church."

Texas Wool Industry

By W. E. TALBOT

Editor's Note—This is the stuff of a series of articles dealing with the possibilities of the wool industry in Texas. Colonel Talbot, manager of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau, is an acknowledged authority on the subject of industrialization in Texas.

STORY No. 6.

Copyright, 1927, Southland Life Insurance Co.
 The figures on scouring and the profits to accrue have been based upon the wool and mohair production of Texas alone.

Let us now consider the possibility of wool alone from tributary states, where it would be cheaper to ship to Texas points for scouring than to ship to New England, through the saving that could be effected by the actual shipping of the finished wool rather than the dirt and grease.

Based on recent figures, these States produce a total of approximately 22,000,000 pounds of wool that could be shipped to Texas cheaper than to Boston. Tributary to Boston, where this same advantage exists, there is raised only around 2,000,000 pounds. Yet, here we are creating wealth far removed from the source of production for other people who have had the brains and the initiative to take advantage of our lack of business acumen.

The opportunities for profit should be apparent to you. The resulting industries would give employment to thousands of our people. They would bring in new money that would remain with us in purchasing power and credit. Of course, it is realized that it would be necessary to have freight rates that permit of scouring in transit, which would, I believe, be easily arranged should the volume justify it.

Another advantage that would accrue to our own people would be that the price would be fixed on wool in the Southwest and West, instead of the way it is now done, by Boston and on an English market to which we neither export nor import. So much for the advantages that could accrue to our own people when we wake up from the scouring of wool alone.

—From The Dallas Journal.

"Not for ease or worldly pleasure, Not for fame my prayer shall be, Gladly will I toil and suffer, Only let me walk with thee."

Sermon talks next Sunday: "Saul Rejects the Word of God and Himself is Rejected as King of Israel," Samuel 15:23.

7:30 p. m. "The Power of the Word"—Hebrews 4:12.

Attendance and interest grow in the church. Every member is urged to participate in the church program. Even the children and young people are having interesting programs at 7 p. m., delivering their parts before the preaching audience at 7 p. m.

Last Friday at 3 p. m. the ladies had a get acquainted meeting at the church honoring three new members: Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Benson and her mother, Mrs. Ross. This Friday afternoon meeting is to be a regular Bible study and service class. They are to study the Bible, not about the Bible. All women of the community are welcome.

A SUPPER TO SING FOR!

If the sugar-plum tree should come to life!

And honey-dew come from the magic pitcher—wouldn't supper times be jolly for five and seven years olds!

A supper that has all the charm of the sugar-plums and the honey-dew has for dessert a cup of crushed canned pineapple, cool and sweet. Never was anything so good to eat nor so good for growing boys and girls. For nutritional research has recently found canned pineapple to be a valuable source of five minerals, essential to health, as well as a valuable source of vitamins A, B, and C, and a source that makes the task much simpler. The delicate color of pineapple is appealing to children. Pineapple which rightly belongs in our own world of magic goodness is served simply—a generous amount of crushed pineapple—just what young Mary and John suited to their most epicurean. Two slices a day or a cup of fruit is the amount recommended in the maintenance of growth.

C. H. Morris of the Afton community was looking after business here Tuesday.

Earl Daniels from the Baker Children Ranch was in Roaring Springs Wednesday to purchase stock salt for the ranch.

D. 1933, the same being the 27th day of February, A. D. 1933, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 24th day of January, A. D. 1933, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 861, wherein

Ruby Miller is Plaintiff, and Asa Miller is Defendant, and said petition alleging

That on the 26th day of May, 1924, Plaintiff was duly and legally married to Defendant at Seigler, Oklahoma and continued to live with him as his wife until about the 23rd day of December, 1931; Plaintiff has been an actual bona-fide inhabitant of the State of Texas for a period of twelve months and has resided in Motley County where this petition is filed for a period of six months next preceding the filing thereof. That on or about the 1st day of December, 1931, Plaintiff and Defendant were living at Seminole, Oklahoma, and that Plaintiff came home to visit her parents and Defendant remained in Oklahoma and came to Plaintiff at Matador, Texas, on or about the 23rd day of December, 1931 and Plaintiff discovered that Defendant had been untrue to her and had a serious venereal disease and had to be treated for same; that the infidelity on the part of Defendant toward this Plaintiff caused their further living together insupportable, premises considered. That during the marriage of said Plaintiff and Defendant they had born to them as issue of said marriage, one child, a girl, whose name is Viola May, age 7; that Plaintiff has had the care of said child for the past year and is the proper person to have care and custody of said child; that Plaintiff has not heard from Defendant for more than a year and that he has failed and refused to help support Plaintiff and child. Wherefore Plaintiff prays that Defendant be cited to answer this petition and that on final hearing Plaintiff have Judgment of Divorce, dissolving said marriage between Plaintiff and Defendant, that Plaintiff have the care and custody of the minor child, Viola May, and for such other and further relief as the Court shall deem proper to grant, with cost of suit. Herein Fail Not, and have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the

SENIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

Wednesday night, January 18, our senior girls contested the White Flat Senior girls. The game started off with a bang and proved to be one of the fastest games the local girls have encountered.

The White Flat girls drew first blood and continued to lead in the scoring at the end of the first quarter. However, the half saw our girls leading, but with only two points. They stayed in the lead throughout the last half and won by a margin of five points. Nida Basham was high scorer with eight points.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL FLASHES

The first grade has started an interesting project called the health train. This past week, Dr. Long and Nurse Hickman have gone around each morning to see if the children have obeyed the health rules. Those who obey the health rules get their names in the health train and ride on it. Those who have not obeyed the health rules go to an imaginary hospital. This game has proven both interesting and instructive to the children.

The State of Texas

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Motley County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Alva M. Combs by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Motley County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Matador, on the 4th Monday in Feb., A. D., 1933, the same being the 27th day of Feb., A. D. 1933; then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 15th day of Oct., A. D., 1932, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 849, wherein Dora Combs is Plaintiff, and Alva M. Combs is Defendant, and said petition alleging that Plaintiff was legally married to Defendant on or about the 26th day of November, 1924 and continued to live with him as his wife until about the 25th day of December, 1931. Plaintiff has been an actual bona-fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, for 12 months and resided in Motley County where this suit is filed, for a period of six months, next preceding the filing thereof. That on or about the 25th day of September, 1931, Defendant left this Plaintiff and three small children in New Mexico, penniless and among strangers and she was forced to go to her father for a home at Roaring Springs, Texas; that Plaintiff has not since the 25th day of September, 1931, provided food or clothing for this Plaintiff or their three children, until this date; that on or about the 1st day of July, 1932, Defendant came to Roaring Springs, Texas, where this Plaintiff was living with her father, cursed and abused Plaintiff, got a pistol and threatened the life of this Plaintiff and did beat and abuse this Plaintiff; that he rendered one of her arms useless for several days; that said cruel treatment on part of Defendant toward this Plaintiff has rendered their further living together as man and wife insupportable, premises considered. During said marriage there were born to Plaintiff and Defendant three children, Grace Viola, a girl, age 7, Alva Eugene, a boy, age 5, and Bonnie Joyce, a girl, age 2, who are still living; Plaintiff is able to bring up and educate said children and is the proper person to have care and custody of said children; that Defendant is not able to educate and care for said children, in that, he is not educated, is without a profession or even a job, or a home to take said children and care for them; Wherefore Plaintiff prays that Defendant be cited to answer this Petition and that on final hearing, Plaintiff have judgment of divorce dissolving the marriage between Plaintiff and Defendant that Plaintiff have the care and custody of said children of said marriage and for such other and further relief as the court shall deem proper to grant, with costs of suit.

Herein Fail Not, and have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Business Training Vs. College Training

"United States Government statistics show that seven out of ten young men and women who enter upon four-year college courses never graduate," comments Mr. W. M. Roberts, President of the Tyler Commercial College and School of Business Administration, at Tyler, Texas. "Of course, that is not a criticism of the colleges. It is a reminder to young people not to spend their time trying to do something that they really do not want to do, or are not prepared to do."

Those who investigate business training find that Tyler Commercial College and School of Business Administration offers more complete training and a wider choice of courses than most schools. They find that Tyler graduates are preferred by business firms everywhere. And they also find that they can finish their training course at Tyler in less time and at less expense.

An interesting catalog is offered free by the school, and all those who must decide the great question of education are urged to write for a copy. Address Tyler Commercial College and School of Business Administration, Tyler, Texas, and a catalogue will be mailed promptly.
