Denison Takes Centennial Reins

Billy Wayne Denison became the point man for the Centennial Celebration drive as twenty top hands met at the Sr. Citizens Building on February 18 to discuss strategy.

Opening the meeting and taking reins in hand, Denison said, "I consider this an opportunity to get to know more people in Motley County. My wife and I love living here. I may not be as familiar with all the old settlers as many of you are, so ask for help from everybody."

The young sparkplug who serves the Matador Lions Club as president and is employed at the ASCS office, was named "Outstanding Young Man in America" in 1989. His wife Debbie works at the clinic and they have a baby, Cagen, four months old.

Cutting and penning details on the time schedule on May 25 was the first order of business at the roundup of ideas.

The parade will start at 10 a.m. Rocky Vinson represented the 4-H clubs which will coordinate the parade and register participants. Beverly Vinson will contact the Shriners Go-Kart. Marisue Potts will contact the 4th Cavalry and Model A Club.

Lee Peacock reported that since this is Old Settlers Day at Floydada she is unable to get Square Dancers for the parade and entertainment.

At 11:00 a.m. a patriotic program with an inspiring speech (perhaps by Karen Elliott House, if she can rearrange a trip to China and South Korea) and music (Richard Campbell and his daughter were suggested).

The Lions Club will serve barbeque and all the trimmings between 12 and 2 p.m. Charley Johnson has served as spokesman for the Lions.

Local, home grown talent is being sought for the Entertainment slot, beginning at 12:30 or 1:00 p.m. A Master of Ceremonies is needed. Anyone with ideas should contact Barbara Bird Jameson who will be contacting other area newspapers. Dennis Gaines will try to get some Cowboy Poets.

Classic Car Show awards will take place around 2:30. Glenn Woodruff will steer this committee.

Fiddling Contest is expected to take place around 3:00 p.m. Judge Boyce Hart, Morris Stephens, and Rocky Vinson are sawing on details and will be advertising for fiddlers.

Zany games for Senior Citizens including the broom stick race, ugly face, bubble blowing contest are scheduled with Nora Belle Dunning as coordinator.

The Matador Volunteer Fire Department will challenge other fire departments in Water Polo at 5 p.m. according to Fire Chief Rodney Williams.

At 6:00 p.m. the Senior Citizens building will open for games of dominoes and 42.

Buckslinger activities which will run throughout the day will culminate in an award ceremony at 8 p.m. Spencer Dixon and Wilda Dixon are planning the Buckslinger Rendezvous.

The Fire Boys are hosting a dance at 9 p.m. and invite everyone to attend their fund raiser.

Jeff Thacker reported on the price of collector coins. A great deal of discussion ensued about perhaps using the coins as awards instead of trophies. Janie Campbell and Wilda Dixon join Jeff on that committee.

Prices of T-shirts and caps with Foothill Country logo were discussed. Loys Campbell and Barbara Jameson will check further on prices.

The possibility of a Ranch Rodeo at Parks Arena on the weekend before or after May 25 was discussed with enthusiasm. Workers will be needed for this activity.

A branding party for those donating to the beef fund for the barbeque was discussed. Suggestions for the required donation were $100, $50, or $10. Nova Dell Turner will head this committee to decide where and when and how much.

The queen contest committee reported that potential candidates are not interested in participating so this idea will be scuttled.

The next meeting will be on March 11 at 6 p.m. at the Senior Citizens center. Everyone is invited to attend to share ideas and help implement them to make a sizzling centennial celebration. February 4th Meeting

On February 4th seventeen people met in the District Courtroom as Mrs. L.B. Cretia Campbell shared information on the 1986 Sesquicentennial Celebration. The sesquicentennial committee handled about $17,000 and made a profit of $5,000 which was donated to the library building fund.

Very successful money makers included booth rentals, the sale of pins, a volleyball tournament, and T-shirts. The art show, drink concessions, and donations from merchants also did well. Banners, portapotties, and the queen's jewelry are among the larger expenses.

Loys Campbell displayed a mockup of a county centennial highway sign which will be made by the Texas Highway Department in Childress. The red, white, and blue signs will be placed at the courthouse square and eight locations entering the county.

J.B. Cooper related that the Masonic Lodge will also be celebrating its 100th birthday and wants to have a float in the parade.

Activities, contests, and fun games for small children was discussed. A great deal of help will be needed by those without small children. If interested in sponsoring some of these or helping with them, contact Judy Cooper.

Other discussion included finding a photographer with costumes to take Old Timey Photos as a concession, the possibilities of a queen's contest, lighting up Bob's Oil Well, and a Singing Convention on May 26.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Billy Wayne Denison, the Matador Lions Club president, was prevailed upon to take the chairmanship of the centennial celebration. The rest is history.

Keltz Joins Caprock Hospital As Administrator

TERRY KELTZ

NOTE: The following article is from the Floyd County Hesperian. Keltz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Keltz of Matador.

Caprock Hospital enthusiastically welcomed Terry Keltz as their new administrator last week. Keltz officially began his work as administrator, Monday, February 11.

Keltz is well known in the county as a past administrator of Lockney General Hospital. He lived in Lockney for six years, from 1984 to 1990, where he served as administrator of the hospital district and also for a time as vice president of the First National Bank in Lockney.

assume the position as vice president of administration at the First National Bank of Plainview. It is this position that Keltz resigned from to accept the challenge at Caprock Hospital.

While in Lockney, Keltz was president of the Lockney Chamber of Commerce and a director of the Lockney Rotary Club.

He served on the Floyd County Fair board and worked with Floyd County Crime Line. He is a member of Lockney Lodge No. 867. In 1987, he was named Lockney's Outstanding Man of the Year.

Keltz was born and raised in Matador. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Wayland Baptist University in 1974 and a Master of Science degree in management in 1984. Prior to receiving his graduate degree, Terry spent approximately 12 years in Plainview as a medical technologist.

A veteran of the Vietnam war, Keltz served with the 720th Military Police Battalion in Can Tho, South Vietnam. He received an honorable discharge from the U.S. Army in 1971.

Terry and his wife, Donetta, have been married 13 years. Donetta is a former Miss Wayland Baptist University and teaches 4th grade at Edgemere Elementary in Plainview. They have two children, Kaci, who is 11, and Kyle, who is 9.

Though currently living in Plainview, the Keltz's do have plans to relocate to Floydada as soon as their house has sold.

Terry said that he also plans to stay active in the Floydada Rotary Club.

After the resignation of former administrator, Leroy Schaffner, and with his management reputation preceding him, Keltz was actively recruited for his new position by Methodist Hospital, Caprock Hospital and many Floydada residents.

"Methodist recommended to the board of directors that I be named as administrator of the hospital, to serve at the will of the board of directors," said Keltz.

"My contract is with Methodist Hospital, who pays my salary which is then partially reimbursed by Caprock Hospital."

Keltz feels that his first priorities at Caprock are in the areas of financial management and recruiting more doctors to Floydada.

"My goal," said Terry, "is to develop strategies aimed at restoring financial health to the institution while maintaining quality health care."

"Also, with the resignation of Dr. Lopez from the medical staff an immediate need that is facing us is the recruitment of another physician."

"It is hard to get young physicians to come to rural areas but it has been done in the past. There is a physician out there who wants to practice family medicine and experience the diversity of practice that rural areas offer."

"I'm excited about the challenges that are facing us at Caprock Hospital District, and I'm happy to be a part of Methodist Hospital's regional services system."

Matador City Council Members Meet

The Matador City Council met Thursday, February 14 at 7:30 a.m. with all Council members present, Mayor Gary Lancaster, City Utilities Manager, Bill Jameson and City Secretary, Nell Berryman. Judge Boyce Hart also attended.

Berryman read the minutes and bills, which were approved.

James Gillespie explained that the four Winds RC&D Program is coming together. The Coordinator will meet in Motley County with the different entities in the near future to discuss projects.

Gillespie also related that the 911 update will be effective around September 1. After a dramatic decrease in cost to the system, the Floyd and Motley County System will be a fully enhanced system with full name and address at the dispatch station.

Council passed two resolutions concerning the Wastewater Grant awarded the city of Matador for 1991; to establish a policy for the retention of records for Texas Community Development Program for the Texas Department of Commerce; to establish an affirmative action plan for Texas Department of Commerce.

A letter/report from Texas Department of Health was read regarding the City Landfill inspection.

The City was asked to take measures to install fences around the City Well and water tower property.

Museum Cataloging Workshop Planned

Texas Historical Commission consultant Dennis Chapman will conduct a workshop at the Motley County Library on Thursday, February 21 at 9:30 a.m. The purpose of the workshop is to instruct volunteers on the fine art of accessioning and cataloging items received by a museum.

County Historical Commission members and anyone with an interest in helping at the museum are invited to attend.

Mayor Lancaster asked the Council to replace one new name and one return for the Matador Water District Board, new member, Billy Donaldson and return Kenny Barton.

Bill Jameson explained the cost of maintaining the City Landfill was mounting due to rule to cover it after each day's dumping. Jameson also explained the amount of trash had grown due to farmers and ranchers now dumping.

John M. Russell was present for landfill discussion and council asked for the county to help with solving the existing problem. Russell suggested to the council the 2 entities meet together to discuss the solution.

Meeting adjourned.

GTE Closes Local Service Agency

Much to our regret, GTE will be closing the Local Service Agency located at 1124 Main Street in Matador on March 22, 1991.

Deregulation of the telephone industry has caused many changes to occur, one of which is that on January 1, 1991 the ownership of regulated telephone instruments was transferred from GTE to the customer by order of the Federal Communication Commission. As a result of this, the need for telephone repair will not be as great as in the past, therefore, eliminating the presence of a local office.

Those individuals who have made their telephone bill payments in person will now have to pay by mail, bank draft or at the Paducah Local Service Agency at the Paducah Florist located at 818 9th in Paducah.

The telephone number for any information regarding residential customers is 1-800-255-2498, business customers 1-800-323-7498, and the repair service number is 1-800-843-4345.

Alejandro gave a brief history on the Congressman's life. As a young boy he went to live at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch where he graduated and went on to get his Masters Degree in Agriculture and went back to Boys Ranch to teach Ag for five years.

Sarpalius won his seat in the State Senate with no name recognition and $25.00 in his pocket.

Days of Our Lives

I've just finished stocking this year's supply of calendars for the household.

Some people feel better when their shelves are stocked with food, or they've hauled in a good supply of firewood for the winter. I feel secure when I know what day it is.

Counting freebies that came in the mail, we have something like 10 calendars scattered around the house. Each has its own special purpose.

The "good" calendar hangs in the hallway near the kitchen. I select this one with great care, much as I would a piece of fine art. Frankly, it's about the only art we have. We've gone from "Great Masters of Impressionism" to "Giants of the Renaissance" to this year's selection — "Great Reptiles of the World." The calendar has big blocks for each day, but no one is allowed to write on it — for aesthetic reasons, of course.

Above the kitchen phone is our all-purpose calendar. It is supplied by the school system and includes the school schedule. We use it to mark special upcoming events.

Another calendar hangs above my desk, where I can see the year ahead at a glance. My eyes keep searching for spring.

My most important calendar I carry with me at all times. It contains my daily appointments and a composite of everything on all the other calendars in the house. Without it I could not function.

Then there is the calendar on the back of my checkbook, which has a purpose all its own: I circle the dates when money is expected to arrive, and I blot them out when it doesn't.

Emily, our 3-year-old, got her first calendar this year from Sesame Street. It contains stickers to mark special days. It says that Big Bird and I have the same birthday. My husband's birthday falls on "Wave to the Garbage Man Day."

Julie, 10, has at least two calendars, one for her room, another to carry in her school notebook. She dreaded giving up her 1990 calendar, which had pictures of puppies, but finally settled on a new one with jungle animals.

When I was growing up, we had only one calendar in the house. It came from the insurance company.

Now, selecting the right one is really tough. Do you want humor? Cartoons? Art? Flowers? Bikinis? Male surfers? Antique lard cans? Somewhere there probably is a calendar featuring pictures of classic old calendars.

But I feel much better now that all our new calendars are in place. I may not know what I'm doing most of the time, but at least I know when I'm doing it. li

There was a minister who had a boat named CALL. When someone asked for him on his day off, when he needed rest, his wife would say, "He's out on CALL."

There are two dangers in life. There's the danger of too much activity. No one can work without rest, and no one can live the Christian life without getting alone with the Lord. He said, "Come ye apart and rest a while." If you don't rest a while, you'll come apart.

There's the danger of too much withdrawal. There must be motion as well as devotion, work as well as worship.

The rhythm of the Christian life is talking with God in the secret place and talking for man in the market place.

Local FFA & 4-H Members To Exhibit Prize Livestock At 1991 Houston Livestock Show

Six FFA members and three 4-H members from Motley County will be joining other 4-H and FFA members from throughout the state for showing competition at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show, Feb. 16 through March 3 at the Astrodome.

These FFA and 4-H exhibitors compete in one of two divisions of the Houston Livestock Show - the junior show division. The other division, the open show, attracts its exhibitors from the world's agricultural industry, primarily professional breeders and ranchers.

Entries in both the open and junior shows combine with horse show entries to make the Houston Livestock Show the world's largest.

Motley County FFA members participating are Dustin Davis, Lambs; Kyle Mars, Steers; Penny Mars, Steers; Andy Renfro, Lambs; Tye Stephens, Steers.

Motley County 4-H members participating are Jeremy Davis, Heifers; Billy LeFevre, Heifers; Trent Willmon, Heifers.

Representing 862 Texas 4-H clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show is expected to exceed 13,000 entries this year. A variety of animals are shown in the junior show division: market steers, market swine, market sheep, market poultry, beef and dairy heifers, breeding sheep, goats, commercial steers and breeding rabbits.

The four market animal categories represent animals raised by the exhibitor as food sources. Top animals in each of these categories are eligible for their individual market auctions. Total money paid in 1990 at the four junior show auctions exceeded $2.7 million.

"The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is committed to benefiting youth and supporting education. We feel we accomplish these goals through the active role we take in supporting the second week of livestock competition, our junior show. This second week features the livestock projects of youngsters from all over the state and we're proud of the dedication and hard work they give to each of their animals," said Steve Woodley, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo assistant manager.

In addition to the upcoming livestock show competition, a series of lectures, seminars and live animal demonstrations again will be on the calendar for the month of February - the International Stockmen's School. Held Feb. 14-16, 1991, at the Sheraton Astrodome Hotel, this school focuses on lectures and seminars delivered by agricultural experts from throughout the world.

New cattle shows scheduled for the open show division of the 1991 Houston Livestock Show are the Texas Longhorn, Piedmontese and Pinzgauer shows.

Horse show activities officially kick off the upcoming Houston Livestock

Show and Rodeo beginning Thursday, Feb. 14 with cutting horse competition. The National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals is scheduled for Thursday-Sunday, Feb. 14-17.

The 1991 Horse Show also will feature competition from six different breeds.

Barbecue cooking fans can enjoy the World's Championship Barbecue Contest beginning Friday, Feb. 15 at 4 p.m. in the northwest corner of the Astrodome parking lot. Judging for the contest begins on Saturday, Feb. 16 at 7 p.m.

Many more activities are planned with all net proceeds from the annual Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo providing funds for scholarships and research projects throughout the State. Currently, more than 1,000 students receive some form of Show-sponsored financial assistance, with 30 research projects funded. More than 9,000 volunteers ensure the success of each year's event.

Amy's Anecdotes

by Amy Woolsey

AIDS is a very serious disease. Sometimes people never understand the reason. Some people just don't care. There are many ways to get this dreadful illness. The rate of people getting AIDS is growing day by day!

There are little babies dying all over the world from this morbidity. They are the innocent ones. They didn't start it, but they're the ones that have to pay. They are the people of the future and because of our stupidity they have to suffer.

This is a poem a friend of mine wrote about the disease AIDS. Read it, it touched my heart, and I'm sure it will touch yours!

Helpless Cries

by Lisa Jones

breezes on a summer night,
green grasses near a lake,
beautiful things that make it right,
turn into a big mistake;

a beautiful baby is born today,
no words of happiness said,
this baby girl was born with AIDS,
and her mommy is now dead;

tears are shed throughout the night,
but we hear no loud cries,
'cause this little girl is too weak to fight,
so in the darkness she dies;

does anyone really care anymore,
did you not see the tears in her eyes,
most babies have something to live for,
but some have early goodbyes;

so open your eyes America,
this illness takes peoples lives,
and if you really cared enough, you'd go running to the cries.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

El Progreso Hears Interesting Program

The El Progreso Club met January 24 at the Senior Citizens Building. Nell Clem was leader for the day including Mrs. Harold Campbell, who brought two delightful articles on two well-known men, of our times, who have brought much to American life - Tea and Popcorn.

The title of the first is "The Funny Looking Farmer With The Funny Sounding Name" by Orville Redenbacher. Mrs. Campbell quoted from the article, "The man behind the desk listened to my sales pitch with that look people get when they think you're trying to sell them stock in a phony gold mine. Pushing my sample jar of Red Bea popcorn back at me, he smiled politely, I don't care how good you say this is, Orville, popcorn is popcorn. Folks aren't going to pay more for yours." Mr. Redenbacher went on to say he had always been interested in popcorn, having had it as a 4-H project when a boy. He grew up on a farm, peddling vegetables, chickens to help out at home, but always trying to improve the variety of popcorn he grew on his one acre. He and his partner had both gone to Purdue University, where Orville had majored in Agronomy, played the saxophone in the marching band and was a letter in track. After ten long years, Orville went to good marketing company in Chicago. They advised him to call it Orville Redenbacher's Gourmet Popping Corn. He approached Marshall Field's in Chicago, largest retailer in the area, needless to say it became a great selling product of which people all over the world enjoy today. Mr. Redenbacher is now 82 years old. He's still running out in front with the best selling popcorn in the world.

"A Nice Cup of Tea or Tea Now Without a Cup" by Sir Thoms Johnston Lipton, the tea tycoon, was the son of Irish parents, who fleeing the great potato famine had settled in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1849. Lipton loved the United States, where he got his start in business. Arriving in New York at age 15, with less than eight dollars in his pocket, he immediately conducted his first business venture in the New World by rounding up a dozen fellow passengers for a boardinghouse owner; he received a week's free rent. For three years, young Tom worked as fireman, a streetcar motorman, and a harvester in Virginia tobacco fields, and South Carolina rice paddies. At age 19, back in New York, he found his true calling, he became an assistant in a prosperous grocery store. He began to make a comfortable wage, enough to mail a portion of his earnings to his parents in Glasgow. In 1869 he returned to Glasgow and began work at his father's grocery store. When a steamer from America, behind schedule and making a quick turn around, unloaded a cargo of groceries on a Glasgow dock, Lipton offered to buy parts of the cargo at a bargain price, reselling it at a hefty profit.

On his 21st birthday he opened his own grocery. He waited on customers in a crisp white apron, closed the shop temporarily to make deliveries or to do his own purchasing and often slept under the counter at night. At a time when advertising was in its infancy in Britain, Lipton's "stunts" soon caught the eye of everyone in the city. Soon nearly everyone was going to Lipton's and within a decade he had more than twenty shops.

He continued to live with his parents until they died. He did not smoke or drink.

After his father's death in 1890, Lipton took a trip to Australia. His ship pulled into Coylan for refueling, Lipton went ashore, went into the mountain country, buying tea plantations everywhere at depressed prices.

He returned home and plastered every billboard with "Lipton Tea". He offered tea at bargain prices, and within a few years, England became a nation of tea drinkers. Before Lipton, only the very rich drank tea, the poor, beer. Sir Frances put it within everyone's reach and almost overnight gave Great Britain the habit.

Lipton outgrew Glasgow and relocated in London. The millionaire grocer had become a tycoon or a tea merchant. He became famous, bought a 700 year old estate, Osidge Park. He had servants, became friends with rich and famous, a personal friend to the Prince of Wales, he was to kneel to Queen Victoria and be dubbed Sir Thomas. Many honors and fame came to him as founder of Lipton Tea Company as Yachtman, sportsman. He made Lipton Tea available to all, rich and poor.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Harold Campbell, Mrs. J.E. Edwards and Mrs. Ted Elliott. The theme was continued by serving "Lipton Tea" of your choice, sausage balls, chips, mints, nuts, cake and Orville Redenbacher popcorn.

Mrs. Clem's Inspirational thought was a poem, "Homemade Happiness."

Rocky Vinson Guest Speaker At Do Gooders Club Meeting

The Do Gooders' Club of Flomot met at the Community Center in Flomot, Tuesday afternoon, February 12 with Rocky Vinson, Motley County Agent, as guest speaker. He gave an informative and interesting talk when showing slides on the care of trees and shrubbery. He stressed the importance and method of pruning trees and the type of chemicals needed to control insect damage to plants and trees. He distributed brochures on the subject.

Following the program, a business meeting was held and President, Mrs. Doyle (Mary Jo) Calvert announced Mrs. Beverly Thomas of Vernon, Home Extension Agent, would be the featured guest at the club, Tuesday, March 12. Several committee reports were given including final plans for the Mexican Supper. The club voted to send packages to local boys serving in Saudi Arabia.

Valentine's Day was observed in a jubilant atmosphere when valentines were exchanged and Mrs. Calvert presented those attending red and white crocheted heart lapel pins entwined with red ribbon.

A valentine decorated pot plant and cake were given to Mr. Vinson and his wife, Lavelle.

Mesdames James (Lucille) Monk, Junior (Barbara) Payne and Bill (Judy) Poulson, hostesses, presided at the table laid with a white cloth adorned by a string of miniature hearts draped around the edge. The centerpiece was a beautiful floral arrangement of red and white carnations. Refreshments of a heart shaped stacked cake, decorative heart cookies and candies, crackers and dip were served with red fruit punch.

Guests were Mrs. E.G. (Barbara) Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Vinson.

Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Garrison were Annie B. (Mrs. W.L.) Holt, Decima (Mrs. Jack) Green, Greta (Mrs. Leon) Smallwood, Betty (Mrs. Carter) Luckett, Bunny (Mrs. Dudley) Speed, Jean (Mrs. J.B.) Cooper, Phyllis (Mrs. Alton) Marshall, Elaine (Mrs. Boyce) Hart, Cora (Mrs. Mark) Hall, Gertrude (Mrs. Roy) Smith, and Lucretia (Mrs. R.E.) Campbell. Their gift was a set of Farberware utensils.

Refreshments also complimented the color theme, with peach tinted frosted punch, and wedding bell mints. A white, linen-weave polyester cloth covered the table, which held orange cookies, chocolate chip bars, peanut butter cookies, rum balls, sand tarts, sausage balls and nuts. Coffee also was served.

Hostesses alternated in registering the guests, who called from 10 until 11:30 o'clock. Special guests were Mrs. Meador's mother and sister, Mrs. C.O. Woody and Zora Woody of Floydada, and Mr. Meador's mother, Mrs. Dena Meador of Matador.

ployed in the sheriff's department in Floydada, she as dispatcher and her husband as a deputy sheriff.

USE HOMEMADE CLEANERS TO REDUCE WASTE

Scrub your floors, shine your sinks, disinfect your toilets. Clean, clean, clean. Did you ever stop to think how much these cleaners are costing you? Or what they are costing the environment? The energy required to produce and package chemical cleaners, and the money you pay for these products, can be greatly reduced by using homemade cleaners.

To give you some idea of the amount of money you can save by making your own cleaners, compare the two lists below:

|---------------------|---------|
| Furniture polish | $3.05 |
| Toilet cleaner | $1.49 |
| Window cleaner | $1.65 |
| All purpose cleaner | $2.09 |
| Cleaner | $.96 |
| Carpet deodorizer | $ 1.87 |
| Drain cleaner | $3.75 |
| Bathroom cleaner | $3.85 |
| Disinfectant | $3.39 |

TOTAL COST $22.19

HOMEMADE-CLEANER INGREDIENTS

|-----------------------|--------|
| Borax, 5 lbs. | $2.69 |
| White vinegar, 1 gal. | $1.65 |
| Olive oil, 16 oz. | $3.60 |
| Baking soda, 16 oz. | $.53 |
| Salt, 26 oz. | $.35 |
| Small lemons, 8 | $1.00 |

TOTAL COST $9.82

Take time this weekend to whip up a few batches of old-fashioned home-cleaning products. Items in the second list of ingredients can be combined in the following "recipes" to make household cleaners.

* Carpet deodorizer To eliminate carpet odors, put some baking soda or a mixture of 1 cup Borax and 2 cups cornstarch in a sifter and sprinkle on rugs.

* Drain cleaner To clear a clogged drain, pour a handful of baking soda and 1/2 cup of white vinegar down the drain. Cover the drain tightly for a few minutes and then flush with water.

* Window cleaner Mix equal parts of white vinegar and water. The first time you use your homemade cleaner you may need to wipe down the glass with rubbing alcohol first to remove residues from previous cleaners.

* Furniture polish For a beautiful shine, 3 parts olive oil and one part vinegar make a good polish. Plain, old-fashioned mayonnaise works well, too.

* Toilet bowl cleaner Pour a little vinegar in the toilet bowl and then scrub with a brush. To clean stains, sprinkle with baking soda, moisten with vinegar and then scrub with a brush. For tough stains, wet the area with water then rub in a paste made of Borax and lemon juice. Let it stand for two hours, then scrub.

* All-purpose cleaner Mix vinegar and water in a spray bottle. For something more abrasive, mix vinegar and salt or baking soda. Another option is to dissolve 1/2 cup Borax into 1 gallon of hot water.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Five Most Common Mistakes

These are typical of questions asked by taxpayers and are presented as a public service of this publication and the IRS.

Q. What are the worst mistakes I can make on my income tax return?

A. Although there are no "worst mistakes," the following list describes some of the more common errors that can cause your return to be delayed in processing and explains how to avoid making those mistakes:

1. Math errors, including figuring total income, balance due or refund amount, and taxable income. It helps to round off cents to the nearest dollar and double check your math.

2. Omitting necessary information and schedules, such as a spouse's social security number, or checking the dependency status box. Double check these areas of your return before sending it to IRS.

3. Earned income credit. There are several areas where mistakes are made, including claiming the credit when not appropriate, as well as not claiming the credit when entitled and incorrectly computing the amount of the credit.

Generally, if you have earned income of less than $20,264 for tax year 1990 and have one or more qualifying children, you may be eligible to claim the earned income credit. To be certain, check the rules in your tax package or request Publication 596, Earned Income Credit.

4. Age/blindness box. If you are eligible to claim an additional standard deduction for age or blindness, you must check the box on Form 1040.

5. Incorrect standard deduction amount. If you are uncertain of your correct standard deduction, check the instructions in your tax package.

Q. I will be unable to get all of my information to complete my return by April 15th. What can I do?

A. File for an extension. Use Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. Mail it to the IRS service center processing returns for your area before April 15th. You will have an automatic extension of time to file until August 15th. If you expect to owe taxes, enclose your payment. An extension of time to file is not an extension to pay. You cannot get an extension of time to file if you file a Form 1040EZ or ask the IRS to figure part of your tax.

Q. We moved since filing our return last year. Do we send our return to the same place as last year?

A. If you move to another state, consult the "Where to File" section of your tax package for the correct IRS Service Center in your area. If you are unsure, call 1-800-829-1040 and ask.

Sharp Says February Sales Tax Rebates Break State Records

AUSTIN, Tex. -- "Texas cities and counties will enjoy a tidy post-Christmas bonus, because this month's total local tax rebates are the largest in the state's history," State Comptroller John Sharp said.

The Comptroller's office today mailed checks totaling $177.4 million to cities and counties across Texas that collect the local sales tax.

"February's total rebates are always large because they include sales taxes collected by annual, quarterly and monthly taxpayers, but these broke by $19.5 million the old record set in February of 1989," Sharp said. "That's an increase of 12.4 percent."

Reports filed by monthly taxpayers reflect sales made in December.

"Christmas retail sales may not have been as bright as some folks had hoped, but the state's economy still looks good when compared to the nation as a whole," Sharp said.

Local sales tax rebate checks to cities increased 11.5 percent over last February's payments of almost $144 million for a total of $160.5 million.

"A good portion of that increase is due to Texas' stronger economy last year, but part of the rise is because 65 cities in Texas increased their local sales tax rates last year. There are also more cities collecting sales tax now," Sharp said.

Totals for Motley County are as follows:

Matador: net payment this period, $3,363.96; comparable payment prior year, $3,401.38; % change, -1.10%; 1991 payments to date, $4,486.57; 1990 payments to date, $4,731.84; % change, -5.18%.

Roaring Springs: net payment this period, $2,407.17; comparable payment prior year, $3,237.05; % change, -25.64%; 1991 payments to date, $3,281.30; 1990 payments to date, $4,153.22; % change, -20.99%.

County Total: net payment this period, $5,771.13; comparable payments prior year, $6,638.43; % change, -13.06%; 1991 payments to date, $7,767.87; 1990 payments to date, $8,885.06; % change, -12.57%.

The Changing Expression Of The Soldier

by Seritha Helms Hamilton

The proud old man stood at the window to watch him walk away. The fearlessness of youth was in the soldier's step that day.

"Yes, victory will soon be ours," his saunter seemed to say, "My country bids me: Make men free, so I must not be late."

The old man sat by the window and stared into the quiet, And wished that he were there instead to bear the fiercesome plight.

For the images he'd witnessed, as he turned a ghostly white Were of his son, a prisoner now, he hardly recognized.

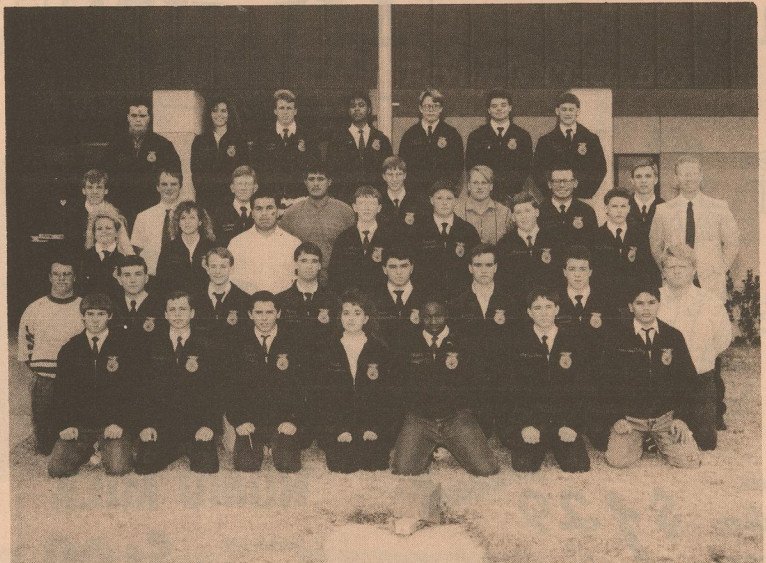

His eyes a lonesome brown that yet portrayed belief: My country will not let me down

The rest of it is ours to write whatever way we will Be it right or wrong, good or bad, our children are still there.

So as we ponder and search our hearts, however we may feel, We must not forget the young man's face. His father never will.

Both wait to hear from us today a pledge of unity, That in this world peace will yet reign and all men will be free.

Social Security Tips

DIFFERENCES IN MEDICARE ALLOWABLES
The Health Care Financing Administration is the agency that administers Medicare benefits. Each year they review the cost of medical expenses to determine allowable and reasonable charges.

Area doctors have just received these new guidelines. This means that some of the allowable charges were changed. Even though the doctors have just received this information, it is retroactive to January 1, 1991. Doctors that accept assignment from Medicare may have a difference in the money amount that the patient pays.

If you have gone to the doctor early in January, and your doctor accepts assignment, be sure and carefully read over your Explanation of Medicare Benefits (EOMB) when you receive it. If there is a difference, you need to visit with the doctor's office so they can resolve the issue.

I believe that doctors that accept assignment of Medicare payments do so to help their patients. Unfortunately they had no way of knowing the new amounts that Medicare would approve.

For more information about Social Security or Medicare call or visit the Plainview Social Security office located at 1401 B West 5th Street. Our local telephone number is 293-9599.

Thank You

My family and I want to thank each and everyone for the prayers, cards, phone calls, visits and for the food that was brought to our home while I was in the hospital and since coming home. My God bless you all.

MICROWAVES are for COOKING

STUFFED POTATOES A SNAP

By Donovan Fandre

Baked potato entrees have become very popular one-dish entrees and it is easy to see why. Not only are they fun to eat, but with a variety of toppings, everyone can add up their potato to their own liking. And, the microwave oven had made this even easier. It takes just minutes to prepare a potato in the microwave. Quite a time savings from the conventional baking time of 50 minutes.

Add a marinated salad made in minutes in the microwave with frozen Oriental-style vegetables and a favorite bottled vinaigrette dressing. And for dessert try a mixed fruit compote.

ENTREE POTATOES WITH BARBECUED MEAT

- (Microwave Method*)
- 4 (about 8 oz. each) Washington Russet potatoes
 - 1/4 cup frozen chopped onion
 - 1/2 teaspoon vegetable oil
 - 1/2 cup catsup
 - 1/4 cup water
 - 1 tablespoon packed brown sugar
 - 1 tablespoon vinegar
 - 1 teaspoon each Worcestershire sauce and dry mustard
 - 1/4 teaspoon each salt and chili powder
 - 1 Dash each pepper and bottled hot pepper sauce
 - 2 cups (8 oz.) very thinly sliced cooked beef or pork

Scrub potatoes; pierce several times with fork. Arrange on paper towel in microwave oven. Microcook at HIGH (100%) 10 to 13 minutes or until tender; turn potatoes over after six minutes. Combine all the remaining ingredients except meat in 2-cup microwave-safe container; microcook, covered, at HIGH 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in meat and microcook, covered, at MEDIUM (50%) 3 to 5 minutes or until thoroughly heated. Cut or pierce tops of potatoes lengthwise; squeeze ends and push toward center to open. Spoon 1/2 cup meat mixture onto each potato. Makes 4 servings.

* Recipe developed for 600 to 700 watt microwave ovens.

Both producers and importers are wondering what effects the proposed amendment to the Research and Promotion Act of 1966 will have on them. The amendment, attached to the Food, Agriculture, Conservation and Trade Act of 1990 would eliminate the refund provision and allow imported cotton and the cotton equivalent of imported textiles to be assessed. Producers involved with Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. are no exception.

"We all are very curious about the upcoming referendum," explains Donald Johnson, PCG Executive Vice President. "Producer reaction to the proposed changes, especially the portion that makes the assessment non-refundable, will determine whether or not industry efforts to place an assessment on imported cotton have been successful."

The curiosity stems from the fact that neither group is exactly sure what ramifications its passage will bestow on the other. Therefore it is no surprise that questions about this issue abound. To answer some of those questions the Cotton Board has released some preliminary information about the referendum.

Many producers are curious about the effect of making the current assessment non-refundable. They wonder if the supplemental assessment rate will be lowered after the referendum is passed. The Cotton Board says it will still have the authority to set the supplemental assessment at a level between zero and one percent. The Board also notes that the current $1.00 plus 6-tenths of one percent of the value of the bale rate would "be the subject of a thorough analysis" if the referendum passes.

Another question being asked is who will be allowed to vote in the referendum. Eligible voters will include anyone involved in the production of cotton, except cash-rent landlords. In common-law states, like Texas, wives will be eligible to vote. Importers will also be allowed to vote on the referendum since the changes in the legislation will place an assessment on imported upland cotton and the raw cotton equivalent of imported textiles.

It isn't known at this time how many importers will be eligible to vote. The Cotton Board explains that due to the large number of small importers a minimum participation level will be established based on the importers annual volume and categories of products. Importers below this level would not be allowed to vote and would not be required to pay the assessment.

How the referendum will be conducted is another often asked question. Eligible voters should receive a mail ballot and explanation from ASCS in the same manner as previous referendums. The referendum is tentatively scheduled to be held May 20-29, 1991. A simple majority of producers and importers voting in the referendum is needed for it to pass.

The NCC has also announced that they are arranging a number of information meetings designed to answer questions from producers and other interested parties. The dates for these meetings have been tentatively set for the last full week of April and the first week of May. The meetings scheduled for the High Plains will most likely be held during the first week of May.

There will also be changes in the makeup of the Cotton Board and Cotton Incorporated (CI). Among them are a boost in the amount of funds that will be collected, the addition of importers to the Cotton Board and an increase in the number of directors on CI's board.

The Cotton Board estimates that if the referendum is passed it will generate 80-percent more revenue than the current program. The additional funds will be applied directly to CI's program budget where the largest percentage will be invested in their national advertising program.

Changes to the Cotton Board itself should the amendment pass probably will come in the form of an addition of two to three importer members to the current 22-member board. Cotton Board points out that no importers will serve on the CI board.

Texas would gain four producer directors on the CI board since each state representation is determined by its support rate and production level.

Plains Cotton Growers is on record in favor of this amendment notes Johnson. He explains that passage of the amendment will provide a mechanism for imported cotton and cotton products to pay its share of the marketing efforts designed to enhance cotton's share of the textile market.

There also will be a change in the way the State Support Program is administered. Under the new program five percent of CI's overall budget would be divided among the states, according to each state's percentage of total collections. Depending on a number of factors, Texas would most likely receive $400,000 to $800,000 annually in state support funds. These funds can be spent on textile or agricultural research within the state or be designated for promotion within existing CI projects.

To oversee the distribution of these funds Texas has begun the process of organizing the Texas State Support Committee. Newly elected officers of the committee are: Joe Pennington, Chairman; Larry Nelson (current PCG President), Vice-Chairman; and William R. Bickley, Secretary.

Every five years the Secretary will conduct a review to determine support for the continuation of the amendment. Producers and importers may request a referendum at any time if 10-percent of producers and importers voting in the initial referendum request one.

Plum Delicious!

Do you love eating desserts, love baking them—but hate all the cholesterol that's found in so many baked treats? Happily, there are easy ways to bake delicious desserts, without all the cholesterol that comes from using dairy products such as butter.

According to an ad in Reader's Digest, you can get the buttery taste you love without cholesterol when you use a product called "I Can't Believe It's Not Butter!" It's a butter alternative that's flavored with sweet cream buttermilk to give it a fresh butter taste. Unlike butter,

You can bake apple plum crisp without butter—and it'll still be plum delicious!

however, it's naturally cholesterol-free. It's considered ideal as a table spread as well as for cooking and baking. You'll find it in your store's dairy section in stick quarters (regular and unsalted), soft tubs and squeezable form.

Delicious "I Can't Believe It's Not Butter!" makes an unbelievably good apple plum crisp:

- Apple Plum Crisp
- 4 cups pared, cored, sliced, tart apples
 - 2 cups sliced, pitted plums*
 - 1/2 cup "I Can't Believe It's Not Butter!" melted, divided
 - 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar, divided
 - 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 - 1 tablespoon flour
 - 3/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon, divided
 - 1 cup rolled oats
 - 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
 - 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger

Preheat oven to 375°F. In large bowl combine 1/4 cup melted "I Can't Believe It's Not Butter!," 1/4 cup brown sugar, lemon juice, flour and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Add apples and plums; toss to coat well. Place in an 8 x 8 x 2 inch baking pan. In small bowl combine oats, remaining 1/4 cup "I Can't Believe It's Not Butter!," remaining 1/4 cup brown sugar, walnuts, remaining 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon and ginger until well blended. Sprinkle over fruit. Bake 30 minutes or until fruit is tender and topping crisp and browned. Makes six servings.

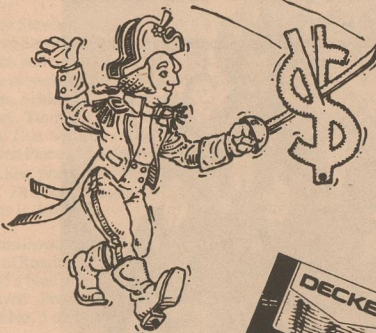

* Or if preferred, use 2 cups pitted, sliced peaches or nectarines.

Booklet available for making a will

The Salvation Army is offering a free booklet to assist the seven-out-of-eight people who have not prepared a will.

With this booklet, the Salvation Army is offering information to help control the distribution of an estate to family, friends and charitable organizations. With an up-to-date will, an estate is distributed by one's own wishes rather than legal formulas.

Some think only wealthy people need a will, or that drawing a will is too expensive or complicated. The Salvation Army wants people to know that, without a will, the state will determine the disposition of assets, the welfare of one's spouse, and the guardianship of one's children.

For this free booklet write: The Salvation Army, Planned Giving, P.O. Box 2785, Lubbock, Tx. 79408.

Light.....It Is Good

Light is so natural for most of us that we almost always take its presence for granted. Can you remember the last time you were awakened from sleep by a noise that wasn't familiar? Your reaction? Right to the light switch and the reassuring light, am I not right?

We are told by our Law Enforcement people that the best we can do to safeguard and protect ourselves and property at night is good lighting. Light is comforting and it reassures us. Light has the quality of warmth about it.

The wise man Solomon, wrote in Ecc. 11:7, "The light is pleasant, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun." In the longest chapter of the Bible, Psalm 119, our God continually speaks of the light of His Word. In verse 105 of Psalm 119, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

Perhaps the reason our faith is fatigued; the world is so enticing; church work so uninviting and the worship service so boring is that we may not be carrying the lamp. And without the lamp of God's Word we lose sight of Jesus. Oh, how many of us need to find the Lamp which illuminates Jesus Christ and capture that lingering loyalty to the Word of God which was once our coat of arms! Pray for second chances.
