TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

It has always seemed to me that the thick, brown blankets of Pullman cars were softer and warmer than those found elsewhere. Possibly there is something in the adventure of travel that intensifies the sense of luxury they symbolize to one who has often slept upon the ground between two tattered 'suggans.' With mild interest I have wondered about the lean, leather-cheeked cowboy, who, at a round-up many years ago, pulled a worn Pullman blanket with his saddle, from the back of a fagged horse. The strange saga of journey between the deep-carpeted coaches and the lunging back of a Texas cowpony must remain unwritten but I would like to know how he got out of the car with it.

A home is constructed much as an object of inlaid wood. A small article, a rug, a picture or a book is added and then pressed into its place to be polished smooth by living. Through the years it becomes more a part of the whole and glimmers under the wax of happy evenings spent in the glow of hearth fires. New things are the raw wood that must be dressed and polished through intimacy to attain their true beauty.

The creaking old wagon rumbles on a venerable beneath the same bewildering stars that I used to watch as a child on the homeward journey from revival meetings. Lying on my back and looking at the heavens, it was easy to remember the words spoken by the preacher but difficult to understand the unspoken sermon above my head. I have long forgotten most of the preaching but I shall never look upon the night sky and not be reminded of a more dynamic lesson than any mortal man can shape with words. Man's voice becomes a whisper in the darkness lost under the weight of echoing notes from a mighty harp whose silver strings are stretched across the stars.

My own falts have always supplied ample material to delight my contemporaries and even my friends have found me trying at times. While their burden is heavy now the future can hardly be expected to bring any relief but instead, tie on the accessories to offer any criticism nor do I wish to give advice since any guidance I might have to offer would be of questionable value because I have not been able to use it successfully myself, yet this would be a much happier world if the sourced future of a few older persons could be changed.

It does not matter about the younger ones who complain and find fault with the general scheme of things for their mouthing is a part of their nature and rarely affects anyone besides themselves. It is those who are slow of step, with silvered hair and fading eyes that are the criteria. Fortunately those who see the vengeance of fate as a sinister motive behind every thought and deed, do not have the power of control. It is those laughing old people who have found their way through the jungle of years between, scarred by the barbs of bitterness and heartache but never losing that glint of hope from their eyes, that I should like to follow.

The highway was a long black river of bubbling asphalt under the summer sun and fantastic pools stood briefly at the edge of the dancing mirage. The travelers, a man, a woman and baby hesitated in their journey. A bulging pastboard suitcase was turned on end. The tired looking woman placed the baby in the arms of her companion while she rolled a cigarette.

There is a natural tendency to ask a country newspaper editor what he knows when a little reflection on the question makes it as once superfluous, especially when the calling is taken into

Small Boy Struck By Car Instantly Killed Wednesday

Grandson Mrs. John Smith Is Victim Of Fatal Accident Near Glenn

Mix Smith, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith of Roaring Springs and grandson of county treasurer, Mrs. John Smith of Matador, was instantly killed when he was struck by an automobile on Highway 18 about one mile south of Glenn in Dickens county late Wednesday morning. The child, accompanied by his brother was walking along the Highway on his way to a field where he was to chop cotton when the accident occurred. The car, approaching from the rear at a rate of speed declared to be about 50 miles per hour sounded the horn when almost even with the boys. The child is believed to have stepped in front of the machine.

Instantly Killed
The boy is believed to have been instantly killed by the impact which badly mangled the body. Reports received in Matador yesterday afternoon declared that the driver of the car is in a Spur sanitarium in a serious nervous condition as result of the accident.

OLD SETTLERS TO MEET AT ROARING SPRINGS SCHOOL

Old Cowboys Home-Coming May Constitute Part Of Two Day Program At Meeting This Year

Old cowboys who have drifted from the familiar range of the Matador, Spur, Swenson, Pitchfork and other ranches during the last two decades may meet for a special home-coming day on August 21, if plans outlined at a meeting of officers and directors of the Motley-Dickens Counties' Old Settlers Association, held in the dining room of the Travelers Hotel at Roaring Springs, Friday afternoon, are carried out.

President C. C. Haile as chairman of twenty members present first made plans for the regular annual meeting of the association which is held the fourth Thursday in August, before the discussion of the proposed Cowboy Home-Coming was submitted for consideration.

School Grounds Selected
With invitations offered by Matador, Dickens and Patton Springs as sites for the meeting, it was unanimously decided to hold the meeting at the Roaring Springs School grounds and to use the school gymnasium as in the highly successful meeting of last year. The large building will provide ample shade and the athletic field will afford a place for baseball games and horse races. Concession rights will be sold by the Roaring Springs school board and the proceeds will be divided equally between the school and the association. Basket lunches will be provided by the visitors and barbecue will be sold on the grounds. The school grounds not only afford ample parking space but also allow easy access to automobiles. It was pointed out that many of the young people will take advantage of the short distance to the splendid bathing pool at the springs during the meeting.

Program Is Outlined
The program will include: Welcome address by Judge C. L. Glenn of Matador and response by county judge Jim Cloud of Dickens county. Memorial services will be held at 11 o'clock with Rev. A. P. Stokes of Dickens in charge. Election of county officers will follow after which a round-table talk of the past. An old time dance Thursday night will conclude the program. Committees appointed were as follows: Baseball committee: John Godfrey, Roaring Springs; Com- Lee, Matador; Race Track Committee: B. M. Nelson, Roaring Springs; Fred King, Roaring Springs; John Herrington, Spur and Demp Sims, Afton.

To Decide Home-Coming
The plan outlined for the cowboy home-coming would include special entertainment for the old-timers on Wednesday, August 21, preceding the regular Old Settlers meeting.

Word was received yesterday afternoon of the death of Hugh L. White pioneer resident of Matador and former Tax Assessor of Motley county, at his home in Wichita Falls at 11:30 Wednesday. Mr. White was in business here for a number of years, being in Motley county at the time it was organized. He moved to Wichita Falls in 1917 where he was deputy sheriff for a number of years.

Interment At East Mound
Interment will be held at East Mound Cemetery here this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at the cemetery.

PLENTY LABOR IS AVAILABLE FOR FARM WORK

Local Government Employment Office Now Placing Many Men To Work In Cotton Fields

There is no farm labor shortage in Motley county according to H. A. Harrison in charge of the local Government employment office, while a number of requests have been received in the past week for help in the fields for cotton chipping.

Mr. Harrison, with office located in the lobby of the old post office, wishes farmers, stockmen and all users of labor in any quantity and for any length of time, to know that prompt supply of any demand will be made.

Workers For Every Need
The service of the Federal Employment office here, which has been open for some thirty days, is proving highly satisfactory to labor users and has relieved them of much loss of time and worry in securing help. It is believed that by cotton-picking time the office will be relied on entirely to supply cotton-pickers.

Church Of Christ To Start Revival

Minister Elton Sanders, evangelist of Quanaev, Texas will begin a meeting at the Matador Church of Christ tomorrow, Friday, July 19th. Minister Sanders is a good speaker and a plain gospel preacher. The general public is invited to attend the meeting and hear him.

CAR WRECKED AT BALLARD BRIDGE

Deputy Sheriff And Wife Narrowly Escape Injury In Accident Sunday Afternoon

The Chrysler coup occupied by Deputy Sheriff M. C. (Mac) Green and Mrs. Green was badly damaged when the machine careened after a tire had blown out and struck the supports at the approach to Ballard Creek bridge on Highway 28 about one and one half miles east of Matador. Neither of the occupants was injured in the accident.

Three of the large support posts were sheared in the impact. Mrs. Green was driving at the time. Fatal Accident Scene
The accident occurred at exactly the same spot and in the same manner and about the same time of day in which Jet Lewis was killed on Armistice day some two and half years ago, when the car in which he was riding struck the east end of the bridge.

MANY HERE VIEW ECLIPSE OF MOON

Local residents watched the astronomical event of the moon in total eclipse Monday night as the great white satellite entered the shadow of the earth. Exceptional visibility was afforded this section during the phenomena. Spectators expressed surprise at the great beauty of the eclipse, many of whom watched it from beginning to end. Glowing a dull red from light refracted by the earth's atmosphere, the moon entered the outer shadows of the earth and passed slowly through the dark inner shadow and then the outer shadow again until it was entirely clear.

REV. COCHRAN LAUDS LIONS MEETING TUES.

Evangelist Declares Banquet Best In Country; Key Members Receive Awards

"I have attended Lions Club banquets throughout the United States in cities and I have enjoyed myself in Matador more today than at any club I have ever visited." Such was the praise of Rev. H. L. Cochran, Methodist evangelist who started a meeting here Monday, in an address following the regular meeting of the Matador Lions Club held at the Baptist Church Tuesday, at which Rev. Cochran was a guest.

After the enjoyable luncheon served by the Baptist ladies, Rev. Frank Beauchamp of Hart, Texas, who is conducting the singing in connection with the meeting, also a guest, expressed his pleasure at attending the meeting and luncheon.

'Stand By The Church' Is Advice
"I promised God", Rev. Cochran declared in his address, "several years ago that I would never stand at a meeting such as this without mentioning his name. You men are business men must stand by the church for without the church there would be no business. Move your churches from Matador and business would also soon move away. Few people would want to live in a town where there are no churches because the church is the foundation. Stick to your churches, your schools and your homes. Carry out the spiritual life in your city through your churches."

Members Are Awarded
Key memberships to the club were awarded to Henry Ford, Elmer Stearns and D. E. Pitts for exceptional service rendered in securing new members. Ben Meador, past secretary, was awarded a beautiful yellow and white gold past-secretary emblem for services rendered during his term of office just concluded.

Local Man Secures Lease On Oil Well Spudded In Dickens

Joe Gaines Promotes Drilling Of Location In Neighboring County Wednesday

Joe M. Gaines, manager of the West Texas Gin here for a number of years, who is an experienced geologist, has completed leases on a location in Dickens county and the well was spudded in last Wednesday.

Mr. Gaines is at present working on structures in Motley and Cottle counties and will probably turn leases over to drilling firms some time in the future for exploration. The following news story is from the Dickens County Times last week:

12 Miles West Of Spur
"The first well on the lease 12 miles west of town which includes the Bird Ranch, the White Moore ranch, the Geo. M. Williams Ranch and other tracts, was spudded in yesterday afternoon. The lease was secured by Joe Gaines who secured the assistance of a Dallas firm to do the drilling. A well for water was drilled last week and all the rigging for the big well was completed yesterday. The contract calls for 4000 feet. The field work is being supervised by A. M. Patton and the drilling is being done by Wilson and Killough of Dallas. It is thought about sixty days will be required to complete the well to the contracted depth.

Headquarters At Spur
The field, should it prove a producer, will be located close to Spur and will mean much toward the business interests of the community. The drillers and operators are making Spur headquarters and are moving their families here where homes have been secured. Just what development may appear is not known, but the geology of the field is excellent and much is expected of the test."

Operating Beauty Shop In Knox City

Mrs. J. S. Lea and Miss Dora Jameson, joint owners of the Sanitary Beauty Shop, here recently completed a deal in which they purchased a beauty shop at Knox City, which is being conducted by Miss Jameson, who took charge several weeks ago.

Mrs. Lea is assisted in the shop here by Miss Sylvia Day, and also Mrs. Jim Cooper.

County's Crop Prospects Enhanced By Showers

Conoco To Aid In Directing Tourists Through West Texas

Proposed Historical Markers Through Panhandle Sponsored By Famous Travel Bureau

The plans and efforts of L. F. Sheffy of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum at Canyon to mark historical spots in the Panhandle in advance to the many visitors who are expected to be in Texas for the Centennial next year, will receive full cooperation of the famous travel bureau conducted by the Continental Oil Company according to a letter received by the company's local representative, L. B. (Bob) Robertson.

Mr. Sheffy's plan to mark historical locations in the Panhandle would include two or three markers for Motley county, embracing old Tee Pee City, the Texan-Santa Fe Expedition crossing on Tongue River east of Matador and perhaps Roaring Springs.

Copy Of Letter
Below is a carbon copy of a letter written to Mr. Sheffy by the Continental Company and received this week by Mr. Robertson:

Mr. L. F. Sheffy, President The West Texas Historical Museum Canyon, Texas
Dear Mr. Sheffy:
Our representative, Mr. L. B. Robertson of Matador, Texas, informs us that you have made application to the Government for the erection of thirty-eight historical markers in the Panhandle of Texas.

Any information you can give us regarding the outcome of this project will be greatly appreciated. Many of the inquiries we receive come from motorists planning to visit in your section, and most of them ask about the points of interest. In fact, of the 276,853 motor trips planned by the Bureau last year, 68,420 included Texas in the itineraries. However, these figures will undoubtedly be greatly surpassed by the end of this year; in the first six months 234,000 motor travel inquiries were handled, a good percentage coming from prospective visitors of your section.

If at any time you are free trip-planning facilities can be of service to you or any of your friends who contemplate motor trips, please do not hesitate to call on us.

Very truly yours,
CONOCO TRAVEL BUREAU

BLACK WIDOW IS PROLIFIC MOTHER

Housing Becomes Problem After 700 Babies Hatch From One Nest; Two More Nests

When Mrs. Ernest McWilliams of the Whiteflat community captured a Black Widow spider last week and raked three sacks or nests of eggs into the fruit jar with the self-willed widow, she gave little thought to housing the baby spiders when they hatched. Yet within a day or two when the first nest of eggs hatched she found the jar crowded with tiny black mites running in every direction. Estimates place the increase at from 700 to 1000. Two more of the nests remain to hatch.

Tarantula And Scorpion Die
Before the eggs were hatched a tarantula and scorpion were placed in the fruit jar with the black widow. Carefully weaving a web about the two enemies until they were securely tied, the black spider bit each soundly and they expired within a few minutes. It required about two hours to weave the web and dispose of the intruders.

At Whiteflat Store
The fruit jar with its deadly spiders has been moved to the George Sims store in Whiteflat where they continue to be the center of attraction. A serious problem, however, has arisen since the small spiders were hatched. Holes had been punched in the lid of the fruit jar to permit air to enter but now the small spiders are able to secure freedom through the holes and if a new lid is placed on the jar they may all die for lack of ventilation.

Death Claims Aged Pioneer

Mrs. J. R. Burrus Dies Wednesday Afternoon At Home Of Daughter Near Matador

Mrs. J. R. Burrus, 81, South Plains pioneer, died Wednesday afternoon at the residence of her daughter Mrs. L. A. Stearns of near Matador. She was the mother of Claud Burrus, former Lubbock county commissioner.

Mrs. Burrus came to the South Plains 44 years ago with the late Mr. Burrus, who died three years ago, and their family. Since the death of her husband she has lived with a daughter, Mrs. E. Kuykendall, at Big Springs. She had been visiting Mrs. Stearns about seven weeks, and her death was unexpected.

Interment At Lubbock
Services were read by Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Lubbock, assisted by Rev. G. I. Brittain of Plainview at 4 p. m. Thursday at the Rix Funeral home, Lubbock, where interment was made.

Survivors are four sons and four daughters, E. N. Burrus of Oilton, H. C. Burrus of Abilene and Claud C. H. Burrus of Lubbock, Mrs. L. A. Stearns of Matador, Mrs. J. C. Bass, Faulkner of Post, Mrs. J. C. Bass of Medford, Ore., and Mrs. Kuykendall of Big Spring. Also, there are 24 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Sam Henry, W. E. Ballew, R. B. Smith, J. P. Nelson, John Spikes, G. W. Foster, A. N. Gamble and C. E. Hunt.

Misses Sally Rattan and Ruth Simpson, who have been attending summer session at North Texas State Teacher's College in Denton, returned home Saturday evening where they will remain until their respective schools open this fall. Miss Rattan is a teacher in the Afton school and Miss Simpson in the Fairview school.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Williams, together with Mrs. J. S. Solomon and her daughter, Miss Lillie Solomon, all of Floydada, visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Solomon here last Friday.

Mrs. Lawrence Bryan and children of Childress, visited friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Rainfall Friday Night And Monday Helps Outlook

Improved prospects for a bumper cotton and feed crop in Motley county have resulted from the showers ranging from one fourth to two inches falling Friday night and Monday afternoon.

A rainfall of 83 inch was registered in Matador Friday night with reports of one to one and one half inches north of town and two inches in the Teepee Flat community. A definite report on the showers falling Monday afternoon has not been received but a rain of decided importance was reported as falling in the Whiteflat community.

Relieves Heat Wave
The showers, while scattered, have greatly relieved the severe heat wave which had sent the mercury well past the 100 mark each day for more than a week. The rain was also beneficial to flowers, vegetable gardens and lawns in this section.

No damage has been reported of hail, wind or lightning anywhere in Motley county.

Prospect Greatly Improved
Conservative farmers and stockmen declare that the outlook for a good crop is exceedingly favorable for this time of the year, which is usually considered the dry season. It was declared, however, that a few more showers in the manner of rainfall received Friday and Monday would almost insure an abundant crop except for possible disaster in the form of unusual and prolonged hot winds or hail storms.

Cotton, while late in many instances, is declared to be growing rapidly.

Compliance Work Cotton Reduction Now In Progress

The compliance work on the 1935 cotton acreage reduction contracts is now in progress. Both the acres planted to cotton and the acres rented to the government will be measured this year. The rented acres are to be staked off by the producers in order to facilitate the measuring of those acres. Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the importance of utmost cooperation on the part of the farmer as it is necessary that he complete these papers before his second rental check can be approved. Failure to cooperate may mean quite a delay in issuance of producers check so it is very much to his interest to be at home when the compliance supervisor calls. A notice will be mailed to each contractor signor showing the date his land will be measured.

More Tourist Travel Than in Past Several Years, Is Noted Here
According to local service station operators, tourist travel through this city now is far ahead of what it has been at the same period the past few years, which may be another indication that the famous corner, around which normalcy is said to be lurking, is near at hand.

Practically every station in the city, located on the main highways, report increased tourist business. Cafes, as well, are receiving a nice business from this source, as are the soda fountains.

Another feature reported by the service station operators is the fact that more tourists this summer are taking long trips. The past few years, the average tourist was enroute to points near home, but this summer they are going to California, Colorado and other resort centers at a distance. The percentage of new cars is also much greater this year, it is reported.

RETURN FROM OKLAHOMA

Misses Mable and Roberta Jameson returned home last week from Oklahoma City, where the former was enrolled at the University of Oklahoma for an advance course in music, and the latter attended Hills Business College.

Secretary Of State
Releases Outline
For Voters

The first proposition to be found on the ballot in the August 24th Special Election on Constitutional Amendments is the so-called Old-Age Pension Amendment. This year, for the first time, the amendments will be numbered, according to Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann.
The Old Age Pension Amendment proposes to give the Legislature the authority to pay these pensions to persons over the age of 65, who are not habitual drunkards nor habitual criminals, nor inmates of any State supported institution. Those who are eligible must have lived in Texas at least 5 years, during the nine immediately preceding application and in the State continuously for one year.
All other restrictions and limitations would have to be set up by the Legislature.
The Amendment authorizes the Legislature to accept money from the Federal Government for the same purpose. It is presumed that Federal funds would match State funds. The maximum amount to be paid by the State would be $15 per month per person. It is presumed that the Federal government would match State Funds.
The total pension per person per month in this case it is presumed would be $30. The amounts might be smaller, however; but not larger.
It is estimated that the cost of this pension to the State would run between forty and fifty million dollars annually. No provision is made for the income. It would be up to the Legislature to determine where the money would come from. The Legislature would have to enact such laws as it deemed proper to utilize the right granted by the amendment. The Legislature might do this at once, or some time later—or for that matter not at all. The amendment is permissive and not madatory, though few doubt that some form of old age pensions would be enacted if the amendment is adopted in August.

Proposition No. 2 on the August 24th special election ballot has to do with the temporary commitment of insane persons, preliminary to a trial by jury.
Under the present Constitution whereby everyone is guaranteed a jury trial, it is impossible to commit a mentally ill person to an institution for treatment or observation without the necessity of a jury trial. It has been pointed out that this is often very inconvenient and embarrassing.
The proposal, according to Secretary Mann points out, that there will be an election next year in November to determine whether the State shall sell liquor through a State Monopoly system. If the repeal amendment is adopted in August, it will in effect be submitted again in November, 1936, in the State Monopoly Amendment which says the Courts in institutions, presumably, or under the care of physicians or experts for a period of ninety days prior to a jury trial. It is presumed that the ninety day period of confinement would be for the purpose of observing such person.

The provisions would apply only to persons not charged with a criminal offense.
The Amendment specifically sets out that the right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate, but that in the particular case of insane persons a confinement period of ninety days for observation may be prescribed without the necessity of a jury trial. At the end of that time a jury trial would be had.

Probably chief interest in the August 24th election on the seven proposed Constitutional Amendments will center on Proposition Number 3 on the ballot—the repeal of Prohibition, according to Secretary of State Gerald C.
Mann.

The Constitution, at present, prohibits the sale, manufacture and transportation of alcoholic liquors (except 3.2 beer). This prohibition would be stricken out by adoption of the Repeal Amendment.

The proposed amendment specifically prohibits the return of the open saloon—and it would be up to the Legislature to define the term "open saloon."
No machinery is set up for the sale of liquor. The Legislature would have the authority to determine just who and just how lip-por is to be sold. This could be done by State monopoly or through private channels. The Legislature would have the authority to pass laws regulating local option elections.

If the amendment is adopted all counties, cities and precincts that were dry in 1919 when statewide prohibition was adopted would be dry now—at least until local option elections were held to determine otherwise.

It is well to remember, Secretary Mann points out, that there
will be an election next year in November to determine whether
the State shall sell liquor through
a State Monopoly system. If the
repeal amendment is adopted in August, it will in effect be submitted again in November, 1936, in the State Monopoly Amendment which says the

State SHALL have a liquor monopoly. To retain the present dry status both the August 24th Amendment and the November, 1936 Amendment must be defeated.
Passage of either will repeal the present prohibition section of the Constitution.

(2) Amendment of Article 1, Section 15, of the State Constitu-authorizing the Commissioners, Court to determine whether County Officers and Precinct Officers pensated on a fee or on a Salary basis.

ting the furnishing of Free Text Books to every child of Scholastic Age attending any school within

AS A MAN THINKS

Observance of certain notable days should remind us of the obligations which those dates suggest. Nothing is more important than the focusing of attention on the needs of our world. It is highly important that people think, think seriously, think aright and that their thinking shall prompt their actions and give color to their days.

The popular form of government is that in which people do their own thinking, elect their own officials and crystallize the sentiment that makes the laws.
But we too much and too often emphasize thinking en masse. It is splendid if we can have majorities for the ushering in of every needed reform. But many a reform is obtained through an invincible personality—one person doing and saying what he thinks is right and standing by his guns though the heavens fall.

As a man thinks, so is he; so is his neighborhood; so is his community; so is his nation. One man has often set in operation a train of influences that never spent their force until the desired reform was won.

The wisest man is he who changes his mind and does different thinking today from that of yesterday, if convinced that he was in the wrong yesterday. It is not only important that we have firm convictions, but it is equally important that we have reasons for our convictions. Many a person, to take his word for it, does not know why he belongs to a certain church or votes a certain ticket. He has never thought through to its logical conclusion the philosophy to which he subscribes.

As a man thinketh, so does a nation think. As a nation thinks, so is it. The nations of the world thought for years in terms of militarism, commercial rivalry, secret treaties, jealousy, suspicion, and intrigue. The most destructive war the world has yet known seemed necessary in order to change the thinking of the world.

Now our civic responsibility and humanitarian obligations tell us that we must think in terms of arbitration, love, service, and universal peace.

Let us continue to change our thinking. It is time our thoughts leaped from armaments to the personal needs of man. The unemployed, the tired, the hungry, the illiterate must be helped and saved. Crime must be overpowered. Children must be given the right to live the best of lives.

The contagion of sound thinking, of sincerity, integrity, and moral courage can give our civilization—Muskeon Heights (Mich) Record.

RELIEF CLIENTS TO WORK ON WPA MUST REGISTER

Austin, July 15.—Relief roll clients in order to receive benefits of work under the Works Progress Administration must be certified as to eligibility for work and be registered with the U. S. Employment Service, according to instructions received by Texas Relief Commission officials from the Federal Emergency Relief Administration in Washington this week. The social service department of the Texas Relief Commission will handle certification of employables to the Works Progress Administration.

that priority of workers within families shall be suggested by the social service department, based upon such considerations as health disabilities, preservation of skills, and morale. It was further provided that enrollment of a member of a family in the Civilian Conservation Corps shall not preclude the employment of another member of the same family on work projects financed in whole or in part under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1933. Certification of a client for eligibility to employment under the new program will not mean that the client will be dropped from the relief rolls, but as soon as the first paycheck for such employment is received, the case will be closed and relief stopped.

Same Rule To Transients
The same regulation will apply to non-resident relief cases, or transients, provided the transient has been registered with a transient center or camp for two weeks or more, and with the exception that no certification may be made for transients registering after July 15.

A & M Short Course Program Outlined

Every phase of Agricultural operations from house to field is included in the program for the 26th annual Farmer's Short Course, to be held at A. and M. College, July 28-August 2nd. What's more, every subject is tied up definitely with the theme: The Changing Country Life. The AAA, through its adjustment programs; The Federal Housing Administration, through its encouragement of building and improvement; the work in soil erosion control—all are represented. Several programs are arranged around the subject of housing. There will probably be one showing some of the details of building and repairing, a program on house planning from the artistic standpoint, and something on storage for the whole farm home. For making the home more attractive, plans have been made for special programs on home beautifications. Special Demonstrations Special demonstration courses in syrup, fruit juice, cheese making, the potting of plants, and the making of purses and moccasins have been planned in which individuals take an active part. In addition to the regular Short Course programs, special conferences are being planned by the Texas Home Demonstration Association; The Rural Pastors' and Laymen's Conference; the Registered Certified Seed Breeders' Association of Texas; The Agricultural Worker's Association, and superintendents of rural schools.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS
Mrs. A. C. Traweck was hostess to the Irene Eldridge Missionary Society on July 9, in a Missionary program with the "Little Sister Society", the Whiteflat auxiliary, as their guests. Mrs. D. D. Denison led in an inspirational program on Missionary Evangelism as applied to our schools in Korea. The devotional was given by the leader, followed by prayers led by Mesdames J. R. Whitworth, A. J. Daffern, A. D. Payne, F. G. Simpson and D. D. Denison. A short business session followed in which the president, Mrs. F. O. Bond, called for reports from each of the officers of the society. The date of the revival was called to mind, and a committee was appointed to look after the entertainment of the visiting preachers. Following the business, a playlet was given by several of the members. Mrs. Bishop was welcomed as a new member. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her two daughters, Miss Allie Traweck and Mrs. Arville Wells of Houston, to the following: Mesdames M. A. Merrill, Robert Mayfield, Chas. Harris, Joe Bloodworth, W. R. Tilson and A. C. Jones all of Whiteflat, and Mesdames D. D. Denison, F. O. Bond, George Springer, U. L. Willie, H. K. Ford, G. C. Legett, F. A. Buckley, J. R. Whitworth, Bishop, Jim Ford, Clarence Jinkins, A. J. Daffern, Ethel Payne, Fred Simpson, and Mrs. John Moore of Swathmore, Penn., who visited here last week.

This part of the county received a rain Friday, which helped the growing crops very much.

Roberts and Miss Gizzard of Mobile, Alabama. After several day's stay here, they left for Yellowstone National Park, Salt Lake City, and the west coast.

Rudolph Hunsacker, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hunsacker of Amarillo, is spending several weeks with his uncle, C. D. Willingham.

Another odd thing about the whole business is how they swallow the taxpayers for a billion dollars at a whack and call it relief.

A southern evangelist says the road hog is a sinner. There's something about that, he doesn't have to wait for the hereafter to be pretty thoroughly damned.

The Sage of Three Rivers declares that woman can never claim equality with man until she wears shoes that don't hurt her feet. Never put off until tomorrow what you can get somebody to do for you today.

Old Settlers . . .

Old Settlers meeting, where most of the cowboys would remain to join in the reunion. President Haile suggested a roping contest by cowboys over 60 years of age as a feature of the home-coming day. It was declared that the Swenson Land and Cattle company had offered to lend a chuck-wagon for the home-coming day if one was available at that time.

In order to reach a definite decision and complete plans for the home-coming, a special committee was appointed to meet at the same place, the dining room of the Travelers Hotel, Roaring Springs, on Friday afternoon, July 26. The committee included: Bill Tilson, Mr. Ferguson, Joe Meador, Lem Collett, Frank Spears, Fred Henry and C. C. Haile.

Crop Reduction
Acres May Lease
For Shelterbelt

A cooperative arrangement has recently been made between Chester Davis, A. A. A. Administrator, and F. A. Silcox, Chief of the Forest Service, to use lands included in crop-reduction contracts for strip-planting by the Forest Service, whenever an agreement may be reached with the land-owner for the planting of trees and shrubs under the Shelterbelt Project.

Trees On Contracted Acres

Under the above arrangement and agreement with the land-owner, the trees may be planted on other lands selected in lieu of such acreage, if soil types, location, or for other reasons the selected lands are better suited for Shelterbelt planting than the original contracted areas. The Forest Service will at the same time enter into a separate lease or option agreement with the land-owner, which will provide for immediate occupancy by the Forest Service, and will insure control of the land used for Shelterbelt purposes after the expiration of the crop-reduction contract. This agreement, with the owner, will further provide for purchase or extension of the lease of the selected land at a stipulated price, should the Government later wish to take this course.

No Rental While Under A. A. A.

During the life of the A. A. A. contract, no rental will be paid the farmer by the Forest Service for use of the lands, since he is compensated for that period by the A. A. A. It is believed by local officials in charge of the Shelterbelt Project that all land needed for next year's planting can be secured in this manner, and it is proposed largely to confine acquisition to this method.

Lands for Shelterbelt strip-planting may also be secured under the present procedure; that is, by donations or by leases, with an option for an extension of the lease or to purchase later at an agreed price. Because of the recognized value of Shelterbelt plantings to the individual farmer-owner,

Superfex Refrigeration In Its Most Economical Form

I NEVER DREAMED a refrigerator could save so much," say Superfex users. And no wonder they are delighted! For years many of them had stored foods in cellars, wells and other makeshifts, never cold enough to be really effective. Then, seven years ago, Superfex brought them modern refrigeration . . . in its most economical form.

Superfex saves steps, avoids food spoilage, and also makes it possible to serve a greater variety of more appetizing, wholesome foods, salads, desserts, and cooled drinks. You can keep fresh larger quantities of foods, thus requiring fewer trips to markets. Many users also increase their incomes by keeping dairy products and other foods cold, fresh and marketable.

No outside connection of any kind. No machinery. No moving parts, valves or small orifices to cause trouble—uses ordinary kerosene. Lighting may be arranged for coolest part of day if desired. Cost for kerosene varies with local conditions but averages $10.00 a year, or less than $1.00 a month.

Two exclusive features of SUPERFEX make possible the generation of 24 hours' refrigeration by operating burners only about two hours: (1) Patented burners that go out automatically; (2) Refrigerant passes through porcelain enameled coil in porcelain enameled Condenser Tank, employing well-known efficiency of water in absorbing heat, yet not requiring running water. "Light it and leave it"—trouble-free burners (no valves or small orifices) conveniently mounted on sliding tray. No continuous flame. No continuous heat. No wasted fuel. Ample reserve refrigeration for sudden heavy demands.
