MR. AND MRS. W. R. HOLT

Golden Wedding Anniversary Observed At Whiteflat Recently By W. R. Holts

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Holt of Whiteflat, were honored with an open house recently in observance of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The reception was held on Sunday, November 25, from 2 to 5 p. m. at the Whiteflat Club Room, with sons and daughters as hosts for the occasion.

Daughters, daughters-in-law and granddaughters alternated with the serving and registering of guests. Also present to assist with hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Walding and three of their daughters, who are special friends of the family. Cake squares decorated especially for the occasion, were served with coffee and punch.

Miss Ethel Brown and W. R. Holt were united in marriage, November 19, 1906 at Athens, (Henderson county) Texas. They lived in Anderson county for 41 years before moving to Motley County in 1947, to make their home in the Whiteflat community.

The Holts have three sons and six daughters, all of whom were present with the exception of one son, Joe Holt, and a daughter, Mrs. Helen Marrs, of Palestine, Texas. They have 23 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Their children and families who were present for the celebration, were, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thomas and children and Mrs. Ellis Miles of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Woods and son of Weatherford; Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Duncan and children; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Allen and children; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Holt, W. L. "Trigger" Holt and children; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Gwinn and children, all of Matador; also Howard Adams, brother of Mrs. R. R. Holt.

Roaring Springs Couple Exchange Vows In Twin Ring Ceremony Read At McAdoo

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Norma Jean Redd and J. N. Fletcher, Jr., Saturday, December 1, at McAdoo in the home of Minister Leonard Dennis, who officiated with a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Redd, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Newton Fletcher, both families of Roaring Springs.

Mrs. Gary Laughlin of Hobbs, N. M. and William B. Watson of Roaring Springs, were the couple's attendants. Others present included the parents of the couple, Diane Redd, Mrs. William Watson and children, and Gary Laughlin.

The bride was attired in a dress of white brocaded cotton, fashioned with sculptured neckline and fitted bodice, with long sleeved jacket. Her white accessories included a hat of tufted nylon trimmed with rhinestones. The bridal corsage was of white carnations with orchid trim.

The couple are graduates of Roaring Springs High School, and were reared in that community. The bride returned recently from Riverside, Calif., where she has been employed in the purchasing department at March AF Base. Mr. Fletcher served four years in the U. S. Navy, in the South Pacific. He is now employed in Lubbock by the Moss-Gordin Lint Cleaners.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher are at home at 2312 Tenth Street, Lubbock, following a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Ray Manning accompanied her daughters, Linda and Chris, to Miami, Wednesday of last week, where they visited with friends until Sunday when they met their parents in Clarendon, to return home.

BRIDE-ELECT OF RONALD HOBBS HONORED AT TEA

A gift tea and reception Friday evening from 7:30 until 9:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Pat Sheridan, was a courtesy for Miss Charlotte Washer of Austin bride-elect of Ronald Hobbs.

Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Sheridan, were Misses Margaret Springer, W. F. Jacobs Ward Rattan, L. H. Dirickson, Eddie Russell, Colquet Warren, Tommie Edwards, Herman Ellithorpe and Marvin Vaughn.

Miss Judy Hobbs, sister of the prospective bridegroom, registered the guests.

Decor of the refreshment table featured the honoree's chosen colors of blue and white. A white linen cutwork cloth was underlaid with blue, and touches of blue decorated an unusual centerpiece fashioned by Mrs. Bernice Keltz. The arrangement was a miniature bridal couple beneath an altar arch decorated with tiny blue lace-covered wedding bells, and a pair of blue lovebirds. White net and lace was attached to the styrofoam base, with a heading of narrow blue ribbon, tied in rosettes.

Spiced hot tea and cookies were served, with the hostesses alternating at the silver service. Wedding Christmas Eve.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Washer of Austin, and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hobbs, Matador.

The wedding is announced for 8 p. m. December 24, in the Presbyterian Seminary Chapel in Austin, with a reception following at the family home, 5903 Carry Drive.

Mrs. Clay is a graduate of Flomot High School and attended West Texas State College, Canyon, this fall. Her husband is also a graduate of Flomot High School.

Baptist W. M. U. Has Lottie Moon Prayer Program

Annual Lottie Moon Prayer Program for foreign missions was given by women of the Baptist W.M.U. at the church Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Edgar Lee leading.

Following a brief business meeting conducted by Mrs. J. L. Woodruff, president, Mrs. Lee presented a devotional and introduction to the program. Talks on "Latin American Countries" were given by members of the Dorcas Circle: Mmes. T. E. Cammack, Nolan Barmore, J. R. Berryman, Paul Patton and D. P. Keith.

"Europe and Near Eastern Countries" was the subject of talks by members of the Burleson Circle: Mmes. Ben Keltz, R. E. Campbell, Sr., Velma Fulfer and T. E. Long; and "The Orient" was discussed by Mmes. John Barnhill, Bill Dunning, Joe Higgins and Ray Manning, of the Henrietta Shuck Circle.

At the conclusion of the program, the Lottie Moon Christmas offering was made. Announcement was made by Mrs. Woodruff that all circles would meet at the church next Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. for Bible study and business, and that the regular monthly meeting and covered-dish supper with the Brotherhood would be omitted this month.

Recent guests in the F. B. Henderson and E. A. Day homes were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fulkerson of Floydada and their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Don Finkner of Petersburg, Missa Bette Fran Montgomery, Texas Tech student at Lubbock, spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery.

Tea Compliments Mrs. J. L. Meason

Complimenting Mrs. John Lesly Meason, a gift tea was held Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. G. W. Green, in Roaring Springs.

Receiving the guests at the door, was Mrs. Green. In the receiving line were Mrs. John Meason and Mrs. J. R. Meason, mother and grandmother of the bridegroom, and the guest of honor.

A Christmas motif of silver and red centered the tea table which was laid with an imported white linen cloth. Presiding at the silver coffee service were Mrs. W. H. Marshall and Mrs. Annel Long.

Arrangements of fall foliage were used throughout the entertaining rooms. Mrs. M. D. Freeman presided at the bride's book, where approximately forty guests were registered.

Hostesses with Mrs. Green, were Mmes. Marshall, Long, Freeman, Lealy Smith, Billy Tate, Clark Fortis, Lem Miller, J. C. Smiley and John Belaska. The hostess gift was a set of Ballerina pottery, service for eight.

Among guests who registered were Mrs. Sam Lesly and Mrs. Ruby Lee Vaughn of Hereford; Mrs. C. T. Jenkins, Matador, and Mrs. A. J. Hawkins, Afton.

LONG-TIME MEMBERS of the First Baptist Church, Miss Maggie Bryan, left, and her sister, Mrs. Ed Cammack were among those to whom tribute was paid in recent "Appreciation Day" services. Miss Bryan has been a member for 36 years, and Mrs. Cammack for 54 years. Mrs. Margaret Newman was recognized as a daughter of two of the charter members of the church, and also for being one of the early members of the church 63 years ago. She has lived elsewhere in the intervening years, however, and her membership was not continuous. Her sister, Mrs. J. R. Moore, who was not present at the service, has held continuous membership in the church for over 80 years. Their parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burleson, together with Mrs. Lee Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Cammack and Miss Rosa Cammack, all deceased, organized the church in 1893.

Burnam Rites Held At Spur

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 28, at Spur for Mrs. Norma Pruet Burnam, 71-year-old pioneer resident. She and her late husband, the Rev. H. L. Burnam were also former residents of the Whiteflat community.

Mrs. Burnam died on Monday of last week in a Big Spring hospital following a lengthy illness. She had been a resident of this area since 1916.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Roy Mitchell of Hale Center, formerly of Whiteflat, and Mrs. J. M. Mansfield, Bagalusa, La.; four sons, Cecil, San Diego, Calif.; Travis, Turlock, Calif.; J. S., Bakersfield, Calif.; and Hoyt, of Tulsa; four brothers; two sisters; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Victor Crabtree, the Rev. J. L. Lee and O. L. DeWees officiating. Burial was in the Spur Cemetery under direction of Campbell Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Marion Jordan, Dewey Ijames, George Gabriel, Tang Smith, Rev. H. T. Harris of Whiteflat, and Henry Gruhen.

Mail Carriers To Aid Cattle Census

Nearly 40,000 cards will be left at random in rural mail boxes throughout the state this week.

When filled out by farmers and ranchers and returned, these cards will help V. C. Childs, Texas State Game, Agricultural Marketing Service, determine how many livestock are on Texas farms and ranches.

Childs lauded the U. S. Post Office and rural mail carriers for their cooperation in making this annual survey.

"With this help, we're able to get an accurate picture of our state livestock holdings," he said. Every farmer or rancher who gets a card is urged to fill it out as accurately as possible and return it promptly.

Rites Held For Marvin S. Webb

Funeral services were held Thursday, Nov. 29 at 2 p. m. in the Roaring Springs First Baptist Church for Marvin S. Webb, 63, resident of the Teepee Flat community since 1916. He died on Tuesday night in Stanley Hospital here.

Rev. Arnold Bickel, pastor of the church and Rev. J. B. Vickery, pastor of Flag Springs Baptist Church, officiated in the services. Burial was in Roaring Springs cemetery, with Eudys Seale Funeral Home in charge.

Pallbearers were nephews Jack Prather, Corby Lee Marshall, Curtis Marshall, Buck Marshall, Olan Osborn and Nolan Osborn. Marvin Stacy Webb was born Sept. 6, 1893 in Grayson county, and died November 27, 1956, at the age of 63 years, 2 months, 21 days. He was married Dec. 10, 1916, to Miss Annie Marshall, at Teepee Flat, and they had made that their home since. He had been a member of the Baptist Church since early in life.

He is survived by his wife, 2 daughters; 2 sons; 8 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; 3 sisters and one brother.

Student Recital Dates Announced

Mrs. J. R. Whitworth and Mrs. L. D. Wilkerson will present their students in public recitals on Dec. 10th and Dec. 18th in the high school auditorium, at 7:00 o'clock.

The recital on next Monday, the 10th, will be given by students from the upper grades, while the one on Tuesday, the 18th will be given by those from the lower grades.

These promise to be interesting programs and it is hoped there will be a large gathering of friends and the public in general, to give these students the encouragement they need to make their work more interesting.

Social Security Representative To Be Here Tues.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security office will be in Matador on Dec. 11th at 9:30 AM. at the First State Bank according to an announcement to the Tribune.

He will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security. Because of recent changes in the social security law, payments for claims are being re-scheduled and affect women aged 62, disabled workers who have reached age 50, and children who were disabled before age 18.
