Simple cotton dresses, blouses and skirts will be modeled by first year students. Second year students have made unlined suits which they will model, while third year students will model lined wool suits.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Former Matador Girl Now Lieutenant In Air Force Stationed at Lackland

U. S. Air Force Second Lieutenant Margaret E. Sanders, a former Matador resident is attending personnel school at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

A 1954 graduate of Lubbock's Texas Technological College with a bachelor's degree in business administration, she was recipient of an Air Force direct commission in October, 1958.

While attending college she was employed at Lubbock National Bank.

Prior to entering the Air Force she was employed for five years as a secretary at Westinghouse Appliance Sales in Dallas.

Her mother, Mrs. Edith Sanders resides at 3114 27th Street, Lubbock, and she is the niece of Postmaster and Mrs. E. F. Springer and Walker Williams of Matador.

Icy Hand Of Winter On Panhandle's Brow

WINTER, a poor loser, returned to the Texas Panhandle late Sunday and caused residents to hunt more covering, turn on electric blankets and re-light fires.

Mercury was in neighborhood of 37 degrees Tuesday and snow was reported on the ground at Dalhart.

The spring weather outburst brought one of the worst April snow storms in half a century to the Middle West, while a tornado was reported at Wade, Miss.

The long cold front stretching from the mid-Atlantic coast to Texas had a 55-degree range of temperatures over Texas.

On one side of the line temperatures got into the 80's while on the other, wintery rains and snow brought chilling temperatures and a large number of deaths, mostly on highways.

Revival Results Reflect Success

Full impact of the effect of the revival services held last week at the First Baptist Church may never be known. There were ten conversions and in numbers the church gained 15 additions, nine by baptism and six by letter.

Untold rededications on the part of the membership were manifest in various ways—in faithful attendance at all services, in making personal contacts, and successful efforts in increasing the attendance in Sunday School and Training Union, as well as the worship services.

Both Rev. Weldon Franks of Dallas, who served as evangelist, and Rev. Harold Scarbrough of Sierra Blanca, who led the singing expressed appreciation for every courtesy extended them and voiced praise for the cooperation and unity of this church body.

In turn, the membership joins in the membership joins.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS: CLUB STOCK SALE

Twenty-one steers and six lambs were sold at the Ft. Worth Stockyards on April 6, with 14 of the steers bringing a top price of 29c per lb.

Another steer, shown by Cherril Barton, was sold to Bill Andrews, 4-H Club member of Childress, for the same price. He will feed and exhibit the animal at the Dallas State Fair in October.

The Grand Champion steer, a 910-lb. Hereford exhibited by Ronnie Cox of Matador was purchased by Billy's Grocery for a top price of 30c per lb., making the first time in 6 years that the champion animal had been purchased locally. Total of the 23 calves shown and sold was $5,237.57.

Dink Wilson of Matador sold 6 lambs on the Ft. Worth market, of which two were shown here for a total of $121.84. Twenty-one hogs were sold to Wright Packing Co., of Vernon for a total of $698.17, with top animals bringing 16 1/2c per lb. Grand total for all animals sold was $6,157.58.

J. C. Cross hauled the calves and sheep to Ft. Worth, and Lewis Blevis carried the hogs to Vernon for the exhibitors.

Twenty-five boys and girls who were eligible for the trip to Ft. Worth for the sale, made the trip under the supervision of Bill Moss, Bill Peacock, Carl Bird, Alfred Cooper and County Agent Bill Pallmeyer. Also making the trip were Mrs. Carl Bird, Charley Bird, Mrs. Alfred Cooper, and Harry Campbell, Matador.

In addition to visiting the stockyards, the group went through Swift's Packing Co., and the Fort Worth Star Telegram.

PLAN SUMMER PASTURES. The need for summer temporary pastures is greater than usual because winter pastures give so little grazing following the dry spring.

Summer temporary pastures are our most dependable source of summer grazing. They permit resting permanent pastures and give better quality grazing than permanent pastures. For your summer temporary pastures, try sudan, perennial sweet sorghum (perennial sudan) or sorghum alnum.

Sudan gives the best quality grazing of all. Perennial sweet sorghum has a sweet stalk, but is coarser than sudan. It gives more midsummer to fall grazing than sudan. Sorghum alnum has a larger stalk than sudan and is non-sweet. It gives more grazing in mid-summer to fall.

than sudan, but may give trouble from prussic acid. Both sorghum alnum and sweet sorghum may act as annuals when grazed heavily.

Planting rates are 7 to 10 pounds for sudan, 4 to 5 pounds for perennial sweet sorghum and 3 to 5 pounds of sorghum alnum to obtain best grazing results. Stagger plantings from two to four weeks to prevent all from being ready for grazing at the same time. If you have the moisture, fertilization will pay.

Homemaker's Hints

By Ruth Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent. 4-H club meetings in Matador were conducted by Mrs. C. M. Barton and Mrs. Ward Rattan Tuesday, April 14 while the agent attended a meeting in Vernon.

Mrs. Ward Rattan conducted the two grade school girls 4-H club meetings in which she presented a demonstration on Vegetable Salads for the two groups.

Mrs. C. M. Barton did a demonstration on dips made with cheese for the girls High School Club.

The following women attended the THDA District Meeting in Graham April 7: Mrs. Sam Ross, Mrs. Bob Martin, Mrs. C. M. Barton, Mrs. John Harland, Mrs. John Shirley, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Joe Degan, Mrs. Christene Gilbert and Jan Barton.

Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Harland, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Ross, and Mrs. Degan conducted an excellent workshop on 4-H club work in the county. This workshop consisted of ways and ideas in which home demonstration women could help 4-H club girls in their club work.

Jan Barton's part on the program was to give her speech which won her first honors in the State Public Speaking contest.

About Your Health. A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. Henry A. Holle, M. D., Commissioner.

Since 1954, when there were 3,037 cases of polio, Texas has seen a gradual decline in the number of polio cases. Credit for the decline is generally attributed to the advent of the Salk vaccine.

Last year there were only 610 cases of paralytic and non-paralytic polio reported to the Com-

TERMITE & PEST CONTROL SPRAY JOBS. Free Inspections and Estimates. H. O. STANFIELD. Phone 210-J. P. O. Box 4. Matador, Texas.

municable Disease Control Division of the Texas State Department of Health.

The sad fact of the matter is that 76 percent of the paralytic polio cases occurred in persons who had not received any of the Salk inoculations.

Equally shocking is the fact that almost nine out of ten of the paralytic polio cases had not completed the basic series of three prescribed shots of the anti-polio vaccine.

A large segment of the school age children and young adults have taken advantage of the protection afforded by three-shot series.

However, many older people have been lax. But worse still is the number of families who have neglected to have their pre-school age children inoculated.

Last year, 65 percent of the cases of paralytic polio struck at small children in the birth-to-four age group.

These victims couldn't do anything about receiving the Salk shots themselves.

The burden of responsibility falls on those parents with pre-school age children who either don't care, don't know or don't believe that paralytic polio is still striking down victims - mostly tiny children.

A steady decline in all forms of polio has been the reward received from the thousands of dollars spent for research to develop the Salk vaccine.

So much so has been the success of the vaccine that the principal private foundation which sponsored its development has shifted its activities of research to other diseases. There could be no better commentary than that.

But even more important are the thousands of victims who have been spared the pain, heartache and crippling after effects of paralytic polio.

Summer is coming with its usual rise in the number of polio cases. See your physician immediately so that he may start the series of three shots as soon as possible.

And by all means have your pre-school age children protected. (This is a weekly feature of the Public Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our friends for the cards, gifts and help with my work while my foot was broken. We appreciate everything anyone did for us.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk Cooper.

The Roaring Springs Class honored the senior faculty with the annual Senior banquet in the school banquet room 7:30 p. m.

The featured theme "South of the Border" for class colors of red and white were used in decorations. The central menu was printed in the school colors.

Streamers extended from side of the room at ceiling to the light in the center room where red and white balloons were suspended. A mirror and the door of the buffet was an arrangement of cacti and candles.

The white-covered table streamers of red and white tending to red candles illuminated the room, and table was decorated with a young girl and matador, the senior colors.

The menu, prepared by junior girls, assisted by mothers and Mrs. Mary Jones, consisted of chicken, baked potatoes, salad, nuts and mints, ice cream and butter, cake and cream, and tea.

The program included a play by Allen Smith and come address by Bert Smith. Both of the junior class sponsor by Mary Watson. The senior class president, "Class Will" read by Judy Swin, junior, and a poem by Novella McGee, junior. W. A. Lewis, senior, said the benediction.

So exciting! Planning a future with a Lane Sweetheart Chest!

What a wonderful graduation gift!

Great day! The whole future's before her, and Mom and Dad have made it look even rosier by giving her a Lane Sweetheart Chest. Pure genius of them, too. Because a Lane Sweetheart Chest is more than a gift, it's a home. The first home of her own before marriage that she and her love can share! A home to hang dreams in. A home to cook up plans in. A home she can start with a tablecloth, a place setting, an heirloom... and add to her heart's content! If you're a parent with the power to make dreams come true, give her the gift she yearns for. And—see us for the best selection. We have all the newest Lane cedar chests—in traditional, provincial, colonial, transitional or Scandinavian designs. From $49.95.

Jan Barton Attends 4-H Executive Meet

Miss Jan Barton, vice chairman of the Texas 4-H Council, attended the organization's annual executive committee meeting in Dallas, April 17 through 19. Other members of the executive committee are Denver Ford, Tahoka, chairman; Mackey, Fairfield, vice chairman; Jane Ellis of Lancaster, secretary-treasurer; Selwyn Holcomb, secretary; and Jack Robinson, chairman.

The officers, elected each August at the annual Texas 4-H Council Workshop, lead the council for one year and act as advisors the following year. The council is composed of a man and a girl from each of the 14 agricultural extension districts in Texas in addition to the state and to coordinate statewide 4-H Club activities. Plans for the year's 4-H Council activities were laid at the executive committee meeting. Included in the business was the selection of time and place for the 1959 Council Workshop. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barton Jr. drove to Lubbock Sunday, to meet their daughter's plane and accompany her home on her return from the meeting.

The executive committee meeting and the Council Workshop are among the 4-H Junior Leadership activities sponsored by United Gas in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Matador HD Club Hears 4-H Members

The 4-H Club was represented by Cherri Barton and Melanie Brown when members of the Matador Home Demonstration club met in the home of Miss Margaret Wilkerson on Thursday, April 16.

An informal discussion on the safety of fire-arms was given by the girls, which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the group of members present.

"How I have helped 4-H Clubs" was the roll call. After the business session, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, announcements were made of further activities of the club, among which is a drapery workshop to be held in the home of Mrs. F. B. Henderson on May 7. This will be an all-day affair with each person bringing a covered dish for the noon meal.

Attending the recent meeting in addition to those mentioned above were Mesdames Ward Rattan, F. B. Henderson, R. A. Day, W. M. Graham and W. B. Vaughn.

KITCHEN TIME-SAVER

During busy times of cooking in the kitchen, any labor-saving idea is a good one. A meal easy to prepare and as easy to serve is doubly appreciated since it saves scouring those extra pots and pans. Such a meal is this frankfurter "barbecue," cooked and served in a new Corning Ware skillet. This skillet looks and feels like fine china yet can easily go from freezer to range-top to table. It saves so much time and energy when you can, cook, freeze, reheat and serve in the same dish.

The skillet (and matching saucepans, too) can save as many as four extra cooking pans and serving dishes to wash during a single meal.

BARBECUED FRANKFURTERS
To serve six, prepare the barbecue sauce by adding the following to 2 tablespoons of melted fat in skillet: 1/4 cup chopped onion; 1 cup tomato catsup; 1/2 cup water; 2 tablespoons brown sugar; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/4 teaspoon black pepper; 1/4 teaspoon cayenne; 2 tablespoons vinegar; 1/4 cup lemon juice; 3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce; 1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard. Cover dish and simmer over very low direct heat for 20 minutes. Slash 12 frankfurters at one-inch intervals, arrange in sauce in skillet, simmer 15 more minutes, covered.

THANKS TO FRIENDS

May I take this method of thanking those who remembered me during my recent hospitalization and since my return home. I am deeply grateful for every kind thought and the prayers offered in my behalf, as well as for cards, letters, flowers and other gifts which I received. May each of you receive a special blessing for your thoughtfulness.
Mrs. Raymond Kingery, Roaring Springs

Why Gamble?

Yes, why gamble . . . when there's no chance of winning? That's the kind of gambling you're involved in when you drive your car beyond the recommended period without having the oil changed. Although you may use the very best motor oil, such as Phillips 66 Trop-Artic*, there comes a time when the accumulation of impurities in the oil reduces its efficiency. That's why lubrication experts say: the best motor protection is to use the best motor oil, and change it every 1,000 miles under average around-town driving conditions. Be sure to let your Phillips 66 Dealer change oil for you on schedule. *A trademark

CAMPUS CUES
by Carolyn Pohl

This year just does not seem to be the "good luck" year for Sherril Rigby. Last Thursday while running track during P. E., Sherril fell and was skinned up a bit. He only had to have three stitches in his nose. We hope this will be the last of Sherril's accidents.

MHS was glad to see Mrs. Timmons back at school again. When the other teachers were substituting for her, the kids just could not remember when Mrs. Timmons had said to turn in certain assignments, such as book reports. Things are back in order now, the kids have been reminded of the assignments.

School is nearing its end and MHS students are ready for it to be over so they can go swimming and relax. Some of the kids will be working, but it will be change not to have to come to school everyday.

JUNIOR NEWS
by Kay Rattan

The junior's play, "The Skeleton Walks", was a success or at least the audience seemed to think so. The play cast thought they messed it up a bit, but maybe nobody noticed it.

Members of the play cast and the other class members wish to thank everyone who attended. The proceeds will help the juniors to give the Junior and Senior Banquet and it will help them to go on their senior trip next year.

Faye Bell Head, an ex-member of the junior class visited with the class last week.

The junior boys who attended the Track Meet were Bundy Campbell, Billy Crenshaw, Clem Edwards, and Andy Fish. Three of these boys will help represent MHS at the Regional Track Meet at Lubbock on April 25. They are Bundy Campbell, Billy Crenshaw, and Andy Fish.

Daphene Lynn and Jan Barton were the juniors who entered the tennis event in the district interscholastic league meet. The Mellodettes, junior singing group, were part of the group that went to Paducah last week for the exchange program.

LIBRARY LAPSE

by Sherril Rigby

The name of the book this week is THE 27th DAY, written by John Mantley.

The time is not too distant tomorrow. But for the five people concerned, ordinary citizens of the world which we live in, the problem is an overwhelming one. Each of the five has to accept responsibility for a weapon which could mean the end of all human existence. They are each given a box containing golden capsules of awful potency. The owners alone can open the boxes, but once they do anyone can loose the destructive forces of the capsules. They are to guard the capsules for twenty-seven days or risk the end of the human race.

Each person involved was taken from a different country. They were from England, Germany, Russia, China, and the United States. Which one will expose this terrible secret? What will become of the human race? All is told in 248 pages, and may be found in the Matador High School Library.

Students Enter Literary Events

Many students from MHS entered the literary district interscholastic league meet at Quitaque, Friday, April 10. Matador made enough points to be placed second in the district.

Those entering the speech events were Geney Spray, extemporaneous speech; Jan Barton and Carolyn Pohl, senior declamation; Cheri Barton and Dixie Barton, junior declamation; Vella Ree Edwards and Donna Williams, poetry reading; and Mike Groves, poetry reading.

Those winning places in the speech events were Geney Spray, first place; Jan Barton, second place; Cheri Barton, third place; Dixie Barton, third place; and Vella Ree Edwards, third place.

Bobby Cross and Tommy Scaff entered the slide rule event and won first place as a team.

Mike Groves and Johnny Ezzell entered the spelling contest and won first place as a team. Johnny and Mike also entered the number sense event, but did not place.

The ready writing event was entered by Carolyn Pohl and Mike Groves. Mike won second place in this event.

The typing team, Bobby Williams and Ronald Bailey, placed second in the typing contest.
