Pitchfork Kid Star of Roping Contest Seymour Before Days of the Rodeo

THE PITCHFORK KID continues to disclose factual details that were woven into a cowboy's life around the turn of century. By a criterion of fiction, movies and television, the Pitchfork Kid did not ride the range with 45's strapped to his hips, nor did he play a guitar in the moonlight. No nation is available that he ever had a love affair.

RAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

One man who knew him well said he liked a few drinks of whiskey on special occasions, but he did not drink to excess.

Pitchfork Kid was a cowboy and drew a cowboy's wage. For that he worked from daylight until dark seven days a week as did other cowboys. It was hard work that required strength and endurance. Jobs were scarce and a man had to work to keep his name on the payroll. There were intervals when the range wagon was in that he stayed in line camps or at headquarters, and performed whatever tasks assigned him.

Mrs. J. M. Jackson of Matador remembers that Pitchfork Kid owned a graphophone and that each summer when he was with the wagon he would leave the instrument with her.

Two $5 contributions to the Pitchfork Kid Memorial Fund have been received by the Tribune since last week. One was from Lewis Newman of Amarillo and the other from Mrs. Verne Chalk Allen of Dallas. A recent $2.00 contribution from D. L. Swift of Dallas, is also acknowledged.

Mrs. Allen writes "I am also sending a copy of an old newspaper clipping which I found among the possessions of my mother, Mrs. John W. Chalk."

"There was no date on the article but I am sure it was written before the turn of the century."

Scattered Showers Bring Slight Relief

Scattered rainfall in this area Saturday left only 36 of an inch of moisture in Matador, as recorded by Bob Stanley's rain gauge.

Elbert Reeves reported 40 of an inch on his farm northeast of Matador.

Heavier precipitation fell in surrounding communities with Maurice Goodwin reporting more than an inch of moisture on his farm in Afton. Flomot also recorded more than an inch of rain in that area.

Rainfall in Matador for the month of August has been recorded at 39 of an inch. Three-hundredths of an inch was received August 1. Charted rainfall for the year of 1958 in Matador stands at 16.23 inches.

Don Davis Appears On Ed Sullivan Show

Matador TV viewers were especially watchful early Sunday evening when Navy Lt. Don C. Davis, son of former residents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis, performed on the "Ed Sullivan Show."

Handsome young Davis added many admirers to his list in an "un-Prezley" vocal rendition plus some expert guitar strumming. He appeared as a winner in the 1958 All-Navy Talent Contest.

Davis, who has been stationed in Hawaii for the past two years, was flown with his family, to San Francisco, California from Hawaii. From there his wife and two children, Don, 3 years, and Melanie, 1 year, flew to Albuquerque, N. M. for a visit with Lt. Davis' parents. Davis was flown to New York.

FORMER RESIDENT PATROLMAN KING DIES IN ACCIDENT

Funeral services for William F. King, 29, of Amarillo, state highway patrolman fatally injured early Friday in a highway accident near Roswell, N. M., were conducted at 10:30 a. m. Monday at the Plainview Methodist Church.

Patrolman King and his family formerly lived in Matador and were well known here. The Rev. Russell McAnally of Olton and the Rev. Roy Patterson of Kress, both Methodist ministers officiated in the services.

Mr. King was killed when the pickup truck he was driving on his day off work, struck a culvert and overturned.

He was a graduate of the Kress High School and joined the Texas Highway Patrol in 1956 and was transferred from Matador to Amarillo last February. He was married to Madylou Blackerby in August, 1956.

Survivors besides his wife are one daughter, Debbie; three sons, Larry, Tommy and Mike; one brother, Harold of Kress; one sister, Mrs. David Griffith of Panhandle; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. King of Kress.

Two New Wells in R. Springs Field

OIL DEVELOPMENT in Motley County is continuing to advance with the spotting of another well by Pan American Oil Corporation in the Roaring Springs field, the second in two weeks. The new well is No. 1 C. B. (Brooks) Callaway in the proven production area about four miles east of Roaring Springs.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of Section 5, Block O-2, G. F. Haywood survey. It will be drilled to 4,900 feet by rotary.

Pan American's No. 2 H. L. Egger started two weeks ago in the Roaring Springs field has experienced some difficulty with surface casing slipping according to a report. Problems have apparently been overcome and drilling resumed, the unofficial source said.

Rumors of still more locations continue to be circulated but are without verification. One report circulated here last week was that 10 to 12 more wells are "in the hopper" for Motley County. It was impossible to trace the source of the report.

One encouraging fact is apparent to the average citizen. The major companies are still interested in further development in this area and despite the present condition of the oil industry, they continue to spend more money in an attempt to find more oil.

Despite some "gaps," development now extends from the Roaring Springs field almost all the way to Snyder southwest and with the new production in Dickens County it connects south and southeast with Jayton and Aspermont.

Many believe that when the oil business "gets back to normal" this area will see more extensive exploration and with the percentage of "hits" so far recorded, more development may be expected.

men informality was their god by day and night. The only comfortable place for their feet seemed to be the backs of the seats immediately in front. The two lady occupants objected but both fell asleep soon after midnight and up went two pairs of feet without benefit of the aroma-confining loafers.

The freckle-faced seventeen year old who had confided quite openly that he was being sent on a visit to an aunt and uncle in Washington because he had run amuck of the cops at home, had no problem grabbing a pillow from a porter, he cradled his head on it, draped his legs over the armrest with lower extremities dangling in the aisle and slept the miles away.

Not all passengers slept at the same time, however, and had I not been so engrossed with the scenes spread before me I might have been spared a wave of embarrassment.

About 2 p. m. Roger was twisting and squirming in an effort to find a comfortable way to sleep doubled up. I stood him on his feet and told him to go to the men's room. He is one of those children who remain a sleep through on their feet.

R. W. had long before occupied a chair in the men's lounge. He vowed there was not enough leg room between train seats for the likes of him, and though the lounge chairs were not made for sleeping, he could at least stretch his legs and smoke.

When he saw Roger staggering around, he guessed why I had sent him and began to supervise the operation. Trying to shake him awake and giving detailed instructions for performing would have been O. K. in the privacy of a bathroom but the whole car was quiet and I heard a few sniggers as the exasperated monologue was plained piped through a vent to the entire car.

Upon our arrival two things immediately stood forth and did not cease to amaze me during our entire stay and for many days after. First, and so heart-warming, was the joyous welcome accorded us at every turn. What big, friendly hearts these people have, I thought and felt such a flood of happiness that cubicles of my heart which I had thought forever closed were feeling again.

Secondly, each face looked so like I remembered it. Two years in the Arctic linked with the drastic rehashing my life's values had undergone had so altered me that unconsciously I had expected physical alteration to show in the faces of my friends. Needless to say, this great surprise at myself took many hours of "mulling" over to bring it into its true perspective.

Farmers Eligible For Refund Taxes

Farmers may submit claims for federal gasoline tax refunds on fuel used for farming purposes.

Here are the main points to keep in mind.

1. Refund claims must be only for gasoline used in producing or harvesting farm or ranch products.

2. The amount used between July 1, 1957 and June 30, 1958 should be included.

3. Use Form 2240, obtainable from county agent's office for requesting the refund — only one claim per farm operator.

4. Refund claims must be submitted on or before Sept. 30, 1958. Mail them to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Dallas 1, Texas.

5. Keep proper records for verifying the refund claim submitted.

PAVED BARNLOTS PAY

In muddy lots cattle use up energy that could have gone into extra weight gains. A concrete paved strip along side the feed bunk means more feed from each pound of food, Purdue University agricultural researchers report.

Beef cattle kept out of the mud will gain extra pounds. When the cattle have a firm footing they put on more weight than when they have to wade around in muddy yards, say animal husbandry research men at Purdue University.

Dr. W. M. Beeson and Dr. T. W. Perry found out that even a small strip of concrete alongside a feed bunk will more than pay for itself in increased beef gains. In a research trial (using two lots of 14 steers confined for 112 days) the average gain per steer in the lot with a 16-ft. concrete strip on one side of the feed bunk was 95 pounds compared to only 62 pounds for each steer confined to the unpaved lot. Each steer on concrete gained 33 additional pounds. The steers in the unpaved lot ate less total feed, but each steer required 35 pounds more feed to make a pound of gain.

Income from this extra beef means that paved strips are profitable. And by paving a small section of the yard each year, you will soon have a complete paved holding area which will lessen chortime and reduce labor. Also, valuable manure can be saved—and more easily handled on a paved yard. This and other valuable research information was made available to farmers, stockmen and agricultural editors attending Purdue's 1958 CATTLE FEEDERS' DAY. A copy of the full research report on the paved versus unpaved strips is available on request to the Portland Cement Association, 110 East Eighth St., Austin 1, Texas.

Visitors this week in the Douglas Meador home are her sister and children, Mrs. Jack Crider, Donna, Dale and David of Odessa, and another niece, Miss Nola Fulkerson of Lubbock. Mrs. Crider's mother, Mrs. A. A. Tipton, who had spent the week end in their home, accompanied the group to return to her home here.

Thomas Sanders of Albuquerque, N. M., formerly of Matador, visited here this week in the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Springer.

Col. and Mrs. O. G. Pitz of Yorktown, Virginia are visiting for several weeks with her mother Mrs. Margaret Newman and with her brother and family Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newman and Mary.

It can be done NOW - a REFRIGERATOR-FREEZER that needs NO DEFROSTING

MADE BY FRIGIDAIRE

FROST-PROOF FOOD KEEPING - WHERE YOU NEVER DEFROST AGAIN

In the Flowing - Cold Refrigerator...

Flowing Cold means super-fast, more uniform chilling for all your fresh foods no matter where you store them—in the refrigerator section or on the door—regardless of outside temperatures.

And Flowing Cold means no more frost! Here's how it works:

Fresh warm air enters the refrigerator section every time you open the door—and is drawn by a fan up and over the hidden Refrig-o-Plate that cools it and removes the excess moisture after which it comes back in at the top as Flowing Cold.

Best of all, the moisture removed is evaporated automatically—there's nothing you have to do!

In the Frost-Proof Freezer...

Completely new and revolutionary—completely different from so-called "automatic" defrosting systems. Frigidaire patented Frost-Proof Freezing actually whisks away heat and moisture before frost can form!

Frost-Proof Cold enters at the top, rear, cooling and removing moisture from the entire freezer. Then this warmer, moist air is drawn out of the freezer across sub-zero freezing plate underneath and completely separate from the freezer, where the air is rechilled, changing warm air into dry, sub-zero Frost-Proof Cold!

And the moisture, of course, evaporates automatically. Frost never accumulates on freezer walls or on food. No more chipping, scraping at a subzero ice crust. No more melting frost, no more pans to spill!

Not this

This

FROSTED-UP! Ordinary freezer chest after 30 days. Everything has liberal coating of frost! Same types demand do-it-yourself defrosting. Others apply electric heat to freezer to melt frost. Sometimes frost water drips down on food—refreezes on packages. Foods may thaw, then refreeze—lose flavor and vitamins!

Baptist W. M. U. in general meeting at the church Monday night, heard a review of "The Long Bridge" by Phyllis Sapp, given by Mrs. J. E. Edwards.

Mrs. Edwards' presentation of the book was highly comprehensive and given intelligently and without prejudice. Although not of a controversial nature, the book had been released last year at a time when racial prejudices were widespread in the south. Since it was thought that many would misunderstand its concepts, it had been withdrawn as a home missions study course.

From her study of the subject, Mrs. Edwards presented seven basic principles concerning a Christian spirit in race relations: 1. God created man in His own image; 2. Christ died for all men; 3. God is no respecter of persons; 4. Christ said, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself"; 5. Christian love, as exemplified by Christ, is the supreme law for all human relations; 6. All true Christians are brothers in Christ and children of God; 7. Every person is accountable to God.

Of her work, the author says, "The book's title, 'The Long Bridge,' seeped into my conscious thinking as I worked on the book. In my travels I crossed several rivers. Frequently the river reflected a subtle difference in the thinking of the people on either side. How thankful I was for bridges! At last the bridges came to represent to me the long bridges of understanding which must eventually connect Christian people of all races."

Mrs. Colquet Warren, W. M. U. president, conducted a business session preceding the review, and Mrs. George Cullin presented a devotional in keeping with the theme of the program subject.

Former resident Hope Clements (Mrs. William Conroe of Lubbock) was elected treasurer of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs Inc. for 1958-59 at a state meeting in Dallas. Mrs. Conroe, treasurer of the Lubbock BAPW Club, is an accountant with the firm of Bolinger and Segars. She is the daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Archer, Lubbock.

PIED PINIONS

By Mrs. M.

We have become car-air-conditioned-conscious ever since our trip to Dallas in June to attend TPA, thanks to Glen Brotherton (bless him). Glen twisted Mr. M's arm until he agreed to use his (Glen's) auto, which is air-conditioned. As a result, the 600-mile drive was most pleasant and we arrived there and back home in a rested, amiable attitude.

Now, whenever we're on the road, though it's just the short run to Lubbock and back, we fairly glare at those window-closed vehicles which glide by so lordly. Smug plutocrats!

Vacations are nice events if one could arrive at one's destination, and return home without the discomforts of traveling, especially if driving sans A.C.

It's frustrating to take a trip to the mountains to escape the heat, only to return home and find that cool weather has prevailed there during your absence.

Mary Meason came up with a new malapropism this week when she was sympathizing with Mr. M. about his inability now to eat certain foods which he formerly enjoyed. She was reminded of a colored woman who described her ailments as being something wrong with her "system."

And Charlotte contributed one as stated by a certain local girl describing a friend who had something wrong with his "intestaments" when he suffered "infernal" injuries.

But we still get a chuckle from the statement of a local citizen shortly following WW II, who made a trip to Amarillo, where he was deeply impressed by the "sympathetic" rubber they were making out of "profane" gas.

Two Queen Entries Represent Matador

Matador was once again well represented when two of its loveliest young ladies, Misses Kay Norman and Kay Stanley, arrived in Childress, Tuesday, as candidates for queen of the Greenbelt Bowl. They were nominated as candidates by two representatives of this city's athletic prowess, Dayton Graham and Franklin Thrasher, who will perform in the Greenbelt Bowl game.

Scene of the contest was the Childress Country Club, Tuesday evening. One early count was of twenty-three entries in the contest where each Greenbelt football player nominated the girl of his choice as candidate for queen.

A garden party and reception were held at 6:00 p. m. August 12, in the home of Mrs. Ray Green, preceding the crowning. Queen of the Greenbelt will reign as the East and West teams meet in a grid clash tomorrow night in the Greenbelt Bowl classic in Childress.

M. Y. F. Entertains Sub-District Group

Methodist Youth Fellowship, Matador, was host to a Cap Rock Sub-district youth meeting of the Plainview District, August 5.

MYF members from Floydada, Silverton, Turkey, and Lockney were entertained with an outing at Roaring Springs pool. Approximately 125 youth and their leaders attended.

Floydada was in charge of the afternoon program. Following the program and evening meal everyone enjoyed swimming and playing baseball.

Matador members who were present were: Larry Hoyle, Ida, Lewis, and Joe Fair, Carolyn Pohl, Gerald Pipkin, Mike and Pat Groves, Karmen Jenkins, Pat and Linda Seigler, Wayne Tucker, Edna Williamson, Sandra Jenkins, Mary Jane Hamilton, Barbara Bird, Kay Rattan, and Rob Renfro of Plainview attended as a guest of the Groves. Glenn Brotherton, sponsor, accompanied the group.

FAMILY VISITS

Mrs. Bert Estes of Colorado Springs, Colorado was a recent visitor in the homes of her daughters, Mmes. W. F. Jacobs, W. N. Pipkin, Robert Darsey, and R. E. Campbell Jr.

She was met in Colorado Springs and accompanied here by another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob York and son Barry of Oxford, California. The Yorks were in Colorado where their small daughter, Sharon, underwent recent surgery in Children's Hospital, Denver.

To make the family of sisters complete, Mrs. Homer Shankle of Big Spring joined her mother and sisters for the week end.

Surprised Lady...

A housewife-motolist recently paid her first visit to a Phillips 66 Station, and reported as follows . . .

"All I expected from my Phillips 66 Dealer was ten gallons of gasoline and maybe the windshield wiped. But the first thing I knew they had cleaned the windows all around . . .

"Was I surprised when the attendant suggested he check the tires, including the spare! Then the battery and radiator. I figured he must have me mixed up with someone important. Wife of the mayor, maybe?"

"You could have knocked me over with a feather when he started brushing out inside the car. 'You do this for everybody?' I asked.

That's what he said . . . everybody!

"About the gasoline . . . I got that, too. And that Phillips 66 Five-Fuel makes my car run swell!"

CHARLOTTE RUSSE

by charlotte campbell

Before I depart entirely from a column title more dignified than "School Dazed" it has been suggested that I cease the endless chatter and work on something with a definite point. . . . Something like "Advice to the Love-lorn," or "Advice to the Child-worn," or "Advice."

When a person can't even give advice it is a safe bet that the inspiration constitution is completely exhausted. To prove the point further I might add that I don't have the slightest idea what an inspiration constitution is either.

The only reason I thought that I could write in the first place was that I could misspell names when I was three years old. At that time I carved my own name into the top of my grandmother's dining room table. Maybe I should change my goal and become a chisler.

I also had the necessary curiosity that it takes to become a paper people when I was four. That was when I decided to find out what was on the other side of grandmother Campbell's living room wall. After I had bashed a hole in the wall with the rear end of my stick horse I was disappointed to see that Pappy Campbell's bedroom was on the other side. I immediately covered the gap with gummed mailing labels.

In spite of my curiosity in those younger years, I was often misled by my own presumptions. It seemed only natural that barnyard flies were beautiful, tiny green birds, and that it hurt flower stems to break them. For years I thought that the ladder on top of the Motley County courthouse led into a swimming pool. I still wonder about that one. Let it not be said what I thought that a privy council was.

Filler don't need to be written with inspiration anyway. This is my last in a series of four. I am going to take some vacation and reappear in the Matador High School Brand section in a few short weeks.

Ein mal, kein mal.

Bible and Agriculture

College Station, — The Bible is filled with references, laws and advice concerning agriculture. Prophets of the Old Testament taught and recorded many basic agricultural principles and Christ used agriculture as a basis for many of His parables. New Testament writers also exhibited a keen interest in agriculture.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service has released a leaflet entitled "The Bible and Agriculture". The author is Reagan Brown, extension rural sociologist.

The leaflet states that today farmers talk and practice many of the principles found in the Bible. The laws of nature are the laws of God and success in agriculture may well depend on how thoroughly these laws are understood and applied, it adds.

This publication points out a few Biblical references to agriculture and discusses them. It may be obtained from local county agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for L-146.

About Your Health

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

Henry A. Hollie, M. D., Commissioner

It all started with Sir Walter Raleigh and a Y-shaped pipe. The pipe was a gift to Raleigh from Sir Francis Drake — a souvenir from the West Indies, where natives put the pipe prongs in their nostrils and inhaled the smoke of a smoldering substance they called "tobacco."

Raleigh apparently set the style of his day, for when he took up smoking the practice soon became fashionable. All this happened nearly 400 years ago — in 1586. Since then smoking has become the most deeply ingrained habit of humanity.

alone, more than half the men and a fourth of the women smoke cigarettes daily, and additional millions smoke pipes and cigars. Altogether it adds up to almost 40,000,000 smokers — 26,000,000 men and 14,000,000 women — out of an adult population of approximately 50,000,000.

The seriousness of the smoking habit has been clear in a recently finished study by the National Institutes of Health. Results of the study, already widely publicized, indicates a strong and undeniable relationship between cigarette smoking and increased death rates from lung cancer and heart disease.

The studies reveal a death rate among cigarette smokers 58 percent greater than the rate for non-smokers. Moreover, it shows that heavy smokers die off quicker than light smokers.

In addition to lung cancer and heart diseases, smokers run a much greater risk of dying from such diseases as bronchitis, pleurisy, ulcers, and cirrhosis of the liver.

The connection between cigarette smoking and high death rates has been so definitely proved that cigarettes would probably be banned for public sale if introduced as a new product on today's market.

The British Ministry of Health for some time has been warning about the hazards of smoking. Now the U. S. Public Health Service has begun a similar campaign.

The Texas State Department of Health will support such a drive to the fullest.

The late Dr. William Mayo used to say that cigarettes, cigars and pipes were nothing more nor less than "adult pacifiers," something for idle hands to play with. If true, breaking the smoking habit probably isn't as hard as it is supposed to be.

Should you, personally, make the effort? That's your decision. But while you're making it, keep in mind that the best research talent in the world is convinced that heavy smoking shortens life.

gramme for this day was the roping and riding contests.

"After anxiously waiting, for the crowd was impatient to see a cowboy thrown, a 'bronk' was brought out to saddle. The cowboy that was going to ride him pulled off his coat, threw off his suspenders and jumped on him and slapped him across the face. That undoubtedly made the horse mad, for he pitched as hard as he could for a few minutes. The cowboy 'stayed with him' though.

"The next horse pitched all the time the saddle was being put on, and for some little time afterward.

"The next rider was 'our cowboy' Emaline Gardenhire who is noted all over the country for being such a good rider. The bronk he rode was named 'Montana Blizzard' and was an outlaw. By an outlaw we mean an animal that can not be handled. They are generally 'set free'. You couldn't tell which was Emaline and which was Blizzard for a few minutes, but the committee found out before they awarded the prize, for Em got the $25 suit of clothes.

"One horse was brought out and the cowboy mounted him without any trouble. The bronk started off in a long lope. 'Why,' said I, 'I see worse than that nearly every day in Dundee.' But suddenly the horse flew up in the air and I believe the rider did, too. Anyway, when they came down again they were not together. The boy was up in the saddle again almost in a moment's time.

"Next was the steer roping. The steers weighed from 1400 to 1700 pounds and were outlaws. Eleven cowboys entered the contest. Emaline had first choice because he won the other prize. His steer got away from him two times, the third time he brought him down and tied him in 3 minutes and 37 seconds.

"One cowboy had quite a time 'downing' his steer and at last the steer pulled the horn of his saddle off, but he got his steer tied in 4:10.

"This was all hard work and the rule was that the steer must get 30 yards from the stock pen. Then the word 'go' was given and the cowboy, swinging his lariat, would start. Until he roped his steer the crowd would sit breathless, then cheer after cheer would be given.

"The best time made was 1:29½, by Billy Parks or 'Pitchfork Kid' as he is called by the cowboys.

"John Chalk's steer weighed about 3000 pounds but he had splendid little pony which was trained so well that when the steer was thrown it turned and braced itself to keep the steer from rising. But it happened that rope broke, which threw the steer and the pony down. I was afraid the cowboy was hurt but if he was he didn't act like it, for he caught the trailing rope and threw his steer, finishing the job up nicely in 2:05.

"Billy Parks, the one who roped his steer in the quickest time, came loping up to the stand, waving his hat. People rushed out to shake hands with him. The band played 'Dixie' and the contest was over. — Dundee Texas."

An Expression Of Gratitude . . .

IN the July Democratic primary election the voters of my precinct gave me a splendid majority in my bid for the office of county commissioner. In this expression of gratitude I hope each person who aided my campaign in any manner will accept my sincere thanks.

Since it is impossible for me to go to each of you personally and express my appreciation, this must be a public message with a personal duty to thank my friends for their support and votes.
