Baptists Announce Attendance Drive For Sunday School

Beginning June 29 a Sunday School campaign to "get the jump on the slump" will get underway at the First Baptist Church, Matador. Credits will be given for attendance and contacts. Credits in the interme-diate and young people depart-ments will determine who will attend the Baptist encampment at Glorieta, New Mexico in August.

In addition to the Sunday School campaign, young people of the church will be challenged to attend prayer meetings and training union services.

Plans are also underway for a once-a-week youth service. Rev. Gene Hawkins, pastor of the church, asks that all young people and intermediates remain af-ter the coming Sunday night church service to help organize a permanent weekly Teen-Time.

Teen-Time was a special program for teenagers during the Vacation Bible School week, June 16-20.

Firemen Use Flame To Destroy Weeds

Flame-throwers fired with butane gas were used Monday night by the Matador Volunteer Fire Department to destroy weeds and grass that present an increasing fire hazard in Matador business area.

A drum of gas was hauled on a pickup and the long-handled burners were attached by flexible hose. Instant and intense heat is generated by the gas in the burner.

While weeds, grass and trash were destroyed in dangerous areas, a manned fire truck stood by to prevent spreading in dry grass beyond the area being cleared.

Fire Chief Freddie Welling said the method was being used to prevent the possibility of grass fires driven by high wind menacing sections of the business area.

In addition to destroying dan-gerous grass and weeds, the hot flames also burns weed seeds and kills insects.

Extensive rains earlier in the season produced the largest growth of vegetation in the city's history. Subsequent hot, dry weather has produced an ex-treme fire hazard. Residents are warned by Chief Welling to use extreme care in destroying pa-per and trash.

Trash should be destroyed at a time when there is no wind and a garden hose with water flowing should be at hand to keep the fire under control. Af-ter trash is burned the site should receive a good soaking.

Roy Smith and James Whit-visited in Lubbock Sunday will Bonner Nelson, who is recuper-ating at West Texas Hospi-tal from recent surgery.

CHARMING AND PHOTOGENIC — Jan Barton, above, as she looked at A&M College two weeks ago after she had won top state honors in the 4-H public speaking contest. The photogra-pher captured her charm and spontaneous personality which makes her the kind of subject "most likely to succeed" every time a camera is pointed her way. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barton of Matador.

First 'Norther' Causes Mercury to Nosedive

HISTORY IS OBLIGED to record the first "Norther" of the summer of 1958 struck when the season was only four days old. Citizens here yesterday clad in summer apparel shivered under cloudy skies and a strong north wind.

The shift of the wind early yesterday morning brought a record mercury drop of more than 40 degrees. Amarillo reported 52 degrees Wednesday morning.

The previous afternoon the temperature had been in the neighborhood of 100 degrees.

The first cool weather arrived Saturday when a "cool front" set off a series of thunder showers in West Texas, with more than four inches recorded in Amarillo. No rain fell here.

Another series of storms early Monday brought damaging hail to a large area of farming country on the Plains along the Cap-rock. Flomot received rain in the same storm but no hail, accord-ing to a report.

Heat returned Tuesday after-noon with high hot winds out of the south and southwest. The strong hot winds continued through most of the night when the shift was to the north with the sudden drop in temperature.

R. E. Campbell, Sr. said yesterday: "I am going to kill hills if this kind of weather con-tinues."

Tools Lost In Oil Test

Testing tools were lost last week in the E. E. Moss & son No. 1 Omar Parks wildcat test one mile west of Roaring Springs, according to reports in an attempt to recover the tools, some of the "fishing" equipment was also lost. The well had reached a depth of more than 5,000 feet.

Attempts were continuing late Monday to recover the tools from the well. No showing of gas or oil has been announced.

The wildcat located on Mrs. Carl Bird's land in the southeast part of the county was down more than 1,000 feet Tuesday.

VISITORS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Meador of Calpella, Calif., were visiting here this week with relatives, including his cousins, Jim Meador and Mrs. W. D. Long. Another cousin and local resident, Joe Meador is presently on a trip to Calif., and missed seeing his kinsman. The visitors were over-night guests in the home of another cousin, Mrs. Jerry Birch-ield.

Visiting Mrs. C. C. Renfro this week is her brother, I. L. Barne of Kaufman County.

Area Lions Hold School Here For New Presidents, Secretaries

LIONS officials from about 12 clubs went to "school" here Tuesday evening. In most instances they were newly elected presidents and secretaries of area clubs. Purpose of the school or seminar was to acquaint the new officials with their duties and responsibilities. Deputy Dist. Governor Tut Tawwater of Plainview served as chairman.

Following dinner at Way-bourn's Cafe the group met in the American Legion building. After a general discussion by Tawwater, the officials were divided into separate groups of secretaries and presidents.

Tawwater stressed the need for monthly reports to be made promptly and he told the presi-dents and secretaries to survey the financial condition of their clubs upon taking office. He urged that all outstanding bills be paid and outstanding dues be collected.

He advised that the board of directors be called as soon as possible and advised of the club's condition and how it stands financially. He said sec-retaries and presidents should plan their meeting procedure in advance.

Editor Named on A&M Journalism Advisory Council

Tribune editor Douglas Meador Friday night attended the first meeting of the A&M College Journalism Advisory Committee for Journalism at College Station.

Approximately 20 newspaper-men were appointed by Presi-dent M. T. Harrington to serve on the committee. The group was set up to serve in a purely advisory position to aid the college's department of journalism.

Gene Robbins, manager of the agriculture department of the Houston Chamber of Commerce served as chairman.

President Harrington said the committee is in line with a college policy of appointing com-mittee composed of profession-ally-engaged persons interested in a certain profession to keep in the department up to date as to what the industry wants.

Meador was accompanied by Bryan and Meador and niece Susan Tipton, daughter of for-mer residents, Mr. and Mrs. Bur-rell Tipton of Dayton. She had been a guest in the Meador home for the past week. Her father met her at College Station and accompanied her home Fri-day night.

Former resident L. M. (Rip) Griffin of Lubbock enclosed a check for $5, saying: "I feel that he and I had quite a bit in com-mon for I was raised from a dog man for I hope enough people feel like I do and that enough funds will be raised to erect a suitable monument to his memory."

With $5 received after the last deposit to the "Pitchfork Kid Memorial Fund" (from John Jackson of Hale Center) $15 was credited Tuesday to the account for a total of $42.

Church and Society

Mrs. Gregory Ronald Smauley

Miss Ann Williams and Gregory Smauley Repeat Vows in Evening Nuptial Service

An evening nuptial service at the Methodist Church Sunday, June 22 at 8 o'clock united in marriage Miss Beverly Ann Williams, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. Woodrow Williams of Miami, Texas, and Gregory Ronald Smauley, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Smauley, Matador.

The Rev. Williams officiated at the double ring ceremony and gave his daughter in marriage. She was escorted to the altar by Judge Vance H. Gilbreath.

Double candelabra holding cathedral tapers lighted the altar. Completing the setting were basket arrangements of white stock and daisies. Soft candlelight illuminated windows on the east and west aisles.

Miss Roberta Jameson, organist, played traditional wedding music and marches. Preceding the ceremony Rev. Williams sang "Because," Miss Charlotte Campbell, "I Love You Truly," and Miss Kay Norman, "Always." "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Miss Campbell while the bride and groom knelt at the altar.

Miss Jeannie Williams was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Paula Dean Forman of Spur served as bridesmaid. They wore dresses of blue net and taffeta, and matching head bands of fluted nylon.

Laura Jacobs, flower girl, wore a pink frock and floral head band. She carried a pink satin and net petal basket.

Best man was Morris Adams, and Johnny Williams, brother of the bride served as usher and groomsmen. Also serving as ushers were Tom Smauley, brother of the bridegroom and twin brothers of the bride, Don and Bob Williams. Robin Smauley, the bridegroom's younger brother was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were Don and Bob Williams and their younger brother, David.

Bride Wears Lace
The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned by her mother. The bodice featured a V neckline and long tapered sleeves trimmed with covered buttons. The bouffant skirt was draped at front to reveal rows of net ruffles, and extended into a chapel train which was outlined with ruffles. Her tulle veil was attached to a pearl tiara, and she carried a white orchid atop a lace covered white Bible, with a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother. Her ensemble included, also, the traditional "something old, new and blue."

Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue silk suit with navy and white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Smauley wore a turquoise faille dress with white accessories. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Following a reception and shower in the fellowship hall of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico. On their return they will be at home at 908 Avenue M in Lubbock. The bridegroom will be employed there by McLain Oil Company.

For travel, the bride wore a dress of blue crystaletta with white accessories and her orchid corsage.

The bride moved recently with her parents to Miami, Texas from Matador. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smauley are graduates of Matador High School in the class of 1958, and took an active part in scholastic events during their school days.

Attending the wedding from out of the county were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moon and children, Burt and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Moon and son, Danny Earl and Mrs. Barbara Everest all of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gardenhire and daughter Sandra of Dumas, Mrs. Ruth Glascock and grandson Johnny Moore of Valley Mills, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNelly and Jack Douglas of Lubbock and Misses Gerry Estep and Mary Lena Williams of Spur.

Shower Honors Bridal Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Smauley were honored with a shower Sunday night in the fellowship hall of the Methodist Church, following their marriage and the wedding reception.

Hostesses for the affair were Meses W. L. McWilliams, Fred Bourland, C. P. Waybourn, W. F. Jacobs, Curtis King, Pat Sheridan, Ben Edwards, Tom Tilson, V. H. Gilbreath, W. D. Lipscomb, G. E. Hamilton, Ada Ford, Jinks Wilson, Bill Palmmeier, Grady Lane and R. E. Donovan, and Miss Roberta Jameson.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over blue, featuring her chosen colors. White candles in crystal holders complimented the three tiered wedding cake and punch service. Mrs. Lane poured the punch and Mrs. Lipscomb and Mrs. Edwards served the cake.

Guests were registered by Miss Annie Mae Jackson.

Enhancing the display of gifts was a large bowl arrangement of shasta daisies.

VBS ATTENDANCE RECORD IS SET

Vacation Bible School commencement exercises, Sunday night, June 22, at the First Baptist Church, Matador, marked the end of the week of summer school.

Pupils assembled and went through the school's opening exercises. Departments shared songs and scriptures with the evening congregation, and teen-timers filled the choir and sang some of their favorite songs. Pupils and workers received certificates for attendance.

A display in the church basement gave everyone an opportunity to view the handwork of the pupils. Junior boys exhibited shoe racks and book ends they had fashioned in wood crafts. Junior girls displayed hot pads and pictures they had made. Wicker baskets, sprinkler cans, and hanging mobiles were contributed by the primaries. Proud parents also viewed the beginner's handwork.

There was a record attendance reported for the school. Daytime attendance averaged 88 and Teen-Time attendance averaged 31, making a total of 119 as daily average for the school.

Pastor of the church and principal of the school, Rev. Gene Hawkins, extended a word of appreciation to all who helped make the school successful. He also thanks Porter Ice Co. for contributing ice for punch and kool aid refreshments, and Higginbotham-Bartlett Co. for donating materials for wood crafts. All other donations of handwork materials were appreciated.

PIED PINIONS By Mrs. M.

Vignettes for retrospection are the sidelights of a wedding which are forgotten with the passing years and remembered only in whimsy. Ann and Greg Smauley will no doubt include in their "do you remember" years hence, the fact that the current failed when floodlights were turned on for wedding movies, delaying the ceremony momentarily.

Since their wedding date was the same as the anniversary of our own, I was doing some remembering of a Saturday morning a score and nine years ago. The Rev. Keller had pronounced the nervous couple man and wife when Mr. M. produced the wedding band, whereupon the kindly minister expressed his surprise and offered to repeat the ceremony, using the ring service. The offer, naturally, was declined.

Ann named 8-year-old Jeannie her maid of honor and not a junior bridesmaid, because as she said, "she is the only sister I have." The two girls had been hopeful that the recent addition to the family would be a sister, instead of a fifth brother.

Baby Terry Gregory, not quite two months old, was a perfect guest at his sister's wedding. He slept through all the proceedings, including the reception and shower, sublimely unaware of all the attention he was receiving from the other guests.

Jeannie's tears and visible unhappiness at being separated from her big sister, bore a slight similarity to our own experience when my young brother hid behind the door and refused to greet his new brother-in-law, or to bid us farewell when we left on our journey. I learned later that he was hurt because "Sister" hadn't consulted him regarding her marriage!

The sudden northern Wednesday came as an unhappy reminder that there are only 153 more shopping days until Christmas.

Turn Terry Makes Report of Vacation to Salvation Army's Camp for Boys

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a report of a trip last week to the Salvation Army's camp for boys in Midlothian, Texas. Matador boys were transported to the camp by Tom Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry.

for the night. We left the recreation hall and gathered around the flag pole. We stood at attention and saluted as the "Star Spangled Banner" was played and while they took down the flags.

Then a bugle sounded for supper. We went to the dining room. A prize was given for the neatest stack of dishes. We then went to our cabins.

A man beating a drum passed each cabin while we stood at attention and then followed. We went across a creek to the woods where there was a clearing. Benches and logs were placed in a circle with a camp fire in the center. This was called "The Magic Circle." Captain Capp explained what we would do through the week.

We then went back to our cabins, made our beds and taps sounded. The second taps meant for all of us to be asleep.

The bugle sounded at 7 a. m. in the morning and everyone got up. We were dressed at 7:20. Again a bugle sounded and we went to the flag pole, stood at attention and saluted while the flags were raised. We did this every morning.

We then went back to our cabins, made our beds and swept the floor. This was followed by inspection. A cabin found in perfect condition could fly a flag all day. We then had our Sunday School class. After Sunday School the beginners in swimming reported at the pool. Boys who know how to swim would either go archery or craft. Following this the other group of boys would go to the swimming pool. This I enjoyed for one and one-half hours. We would then go back to our cabins and dress.

A bugle would sound for dinner. We had excellent meals. The next two hours we rested and wrote letters home. Then we had an hour of free time with our counselor. My counselor's name was Pat Collins.

We walked to a waterfall about three-fourths of a mile from camp. We took bows and arrows to kill fish. Just as soon as we got back everyone went to the pool for two hours of swimming. It was a large, modern pool with pretty trees around it. There were three diving boards and the deepest part of the pool was 10 feet. I learned more about how to dive and swim. We had lots of fun at the pool.

On Saturday we went boat riding with Captain Nelson. It was a large lake and deep, too. We had two shows during the week. Saturday night before packing to return home, we had a water carnival. Prizes were given for the best swimmers and divers and under water swimmers. Balloons with tickets made were tossed into the pool. The tickets were for free ice cream at the canteen. Then a meeting was held for those who were leaving Sunday.

Sunday morning Mr. Hamilton arrived at camp 12 minutes until 9 o'clock, just before inspection. We went up to the office, checked out and left for Matador. On the way we bought some souvenirs.

We ate dinner in Bowie and later had a big, juicy malt in Vernon. We arrived in Matador at 5:30 p. m. I enjoyed the trip very much and Mr. Hamilton is a wonderful companion.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

Final Check Made on Grain Demonstration

A final check of the small grain demonstration planted on the J. D. Craven place in Matador, as recommended by the Program Building Committee was made on May 28th, and the following results were obtained:

Grazing Ratings

Barley: Rodgers, Harbine, Cordova. Very little difference was noted in the grazing provided, and this was the same order of grazing rating of the 1957 test, except Rodgers was not included in the 1957 test. Barley provided more grazing than wheat, but did not give the grazing that the oats provided.

Oats: Alamo, New Nortex, Mustang, Bronco, Alamo was the leading grazing grain of the entire test, and was considerably ahead of New Nortex and Mustang, which were close for 2nd place. Bronco provided the least grazing, but stayed green longer than any grain in the test. Oat ratings were practically the same as the 1957 test, as Mustang which dropped in rating, was very close to the grain that moved ahead of it for 2nd place.

Wheat: Wichita, Comanche, Quannah, Crockett, Triumph, Westar, Concho, Wichita and Comanche were the top two wheats of the test, with only a slight difference in grazing values. Quannah was an easy third, but Crockett advanced to 4th in final ratings due to a lot of growth late in the year, after grading 8th in the earlier ratings. Triumph was 5th in all ratings, and Westar dropped to 6th, after having been placed higher in previous ratings. Concho was always bottom in grazing ratings. Several differences in grazing ratings were noted in the wheat test, but Comanche and Quannah both held high ratings in both years' grazing results. Main difference was the advance of Wichita in grazing value and drop of Concho.

Grain Yield

Barley: Rodgers, Harbine, Cordova, which was the same rating as for grazing. All three gave top yields, with very little difference noted, as was the case in the grazing test.

Oats: Mustang, Bronco, Alamo, New Nortex. The bottom two grazing oats were the top producers, with very little difference in the two, but with these two yielding about half as much again as the bottom yielder which was New Nortex. Alamo produced approximately 25% more grain than New Nortex, while the other two lead Nortex by 50%. As in the barley test, the oat test was the same as the 1957 test.

Wheat: Wichita, Comanche, Quannah, Crockett, Concho, Westar, Triumph, Wichita and Comanche were about the same for first place in grain production, with good yields produced by both. Following in third place with about 10% less production was Quannah. Crockett edged Concho for 4th place, with these producing about 20% less grain than the top two. Westar topped Triumph for 6th place, and again these two were definitely behind the previous placing pair, producing about 30% less grain than the top pair. Comanche and Quannah repeated as high producers in the 1958 test, as compared to the 1957 test, but Concho which placed 2nd in 1957, dropped to 5th, and Wichita advanced from 8th to 1st.

It is the hopes of the committee that the test can be carried out again this fall, as tests have covered season of extreme dryness and wetness.

Color is Vitamin Clue For Best Vegetables

Color is important in the selection of vegetables—that is, if you are depending on vegetables to supply the vitamin A you need. Extension foods and nutrition specialists say best vegetable sources of this vitamin are the dark green leafy vegetables—Spinach and other cooking "greens", broccoli, green cabbage, snap beans, green cabbage, lettuce and peas. Red and yellow colors also are clues. Tomatoes supply vitamin A as well as a considerable amount of vitamin C. Sweet potatoes and yellow squash are excellent sources of vitamin A, and small amounts are found in wax beans.

Vitamin A is particularly important for the building and repair of your body. It helps maintain health of the skin and of the lining of the mouth, nose and other cavities. Vitamin A makes a contribution to vision, and a deficiency may lead to night blindness.

Vegetables which give the most for the money are those with the most color and those that are fresh or fresh-frozen. It is never an economy to buy wilted, half spoiled, vegetables no matter how low the price. Preparation waste is too high and most of the vitamin C is lost.

About Your Health

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

Henry A. Hollis, M. D., Commissioner

With the blanks unfilled, Form Number 68-8373 is nothing but rows of cold and impersonal lines of type on a printed page. It is only when a doctor enters a boy or girl's name, or a man or woman's age, an address—a telephone number—that Form Number 68-8373 relates its story of personal tragedy and human error.

Form Number 68-8373 is impressively titled "Poliovirus Surveillance Case Record." More simply it is the State Health Department's way of keeping checks on victims of the disease which by all right of reason should be practically a thing of the past.

Seventy-two times so far this year the form has just its impersonal character and become grimly personal. At first blush you may think 72 cases of polio among some eight million Texans is an insignificant number. But is it really? Can even a single case be "insignificant" when it costs an active youngster the use of arms or legs, or an adult the ability to support a family?

The thing that heightens the tragedy is that it might have been avoided. That's where the human error, or "apathy," or "ignorance" comes in.

Like a 37-year-old North Texas man who firmly insisted that all four of his children be properly vaccinated, while at the same time complacently considering himself too old to be in danger. Now his name, age, address, and telephone number fill blanks on Form Number 68-8373. There is also a check mark in the "bulbar" square on the form.

Or like the 13-year-old Little League infielder and his 3-year-old sister, neither of whom had had a single shot of vaccine. It would have added hurt to injury to ask their parents why. This human error—and that is the charitable name for it—has caused one major manufacturer of Salk vaccine to discontinue production of the vital fluid for which parents all over the nation were piously praying just a few short years ago. The reason: vaccine stocks simply are not being used. By the literal gallons, vaccine is growing old and impotent on drug store shelves.

It is a sad thing to see the polio surveillance forms come in each week. It is sadder still to reduce people to numbers for publication and mailing each Thursday to city and county health officers of Texas and to the Federal government.

Somehow it makes you think of those famous lines by Whit-tier: "Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: 'It might have been.'"

FOR ANDY ROGERS

Rogers Makes Statement In Announcement

Behind this is a long one, and touches on many things that have happened in Texas politics. Some of them are covered below—others I will discuss later. I made my first race for the Texas Senate in 1952. There was a great hue and cry to "clean up the mess in Washington." I was an oddity among candidates THEN. I charged then that "Austin is as rotten as Washington" and that "moral integrity is needed most." I demanded a law requiring state officials and legislators to file for public record, a statement showing their income and its source. I was quite unpopular in some circles.

In 1954 I, and a few others, urged investigations into several state matters including the Insurance Commission certain land transactions in which the State was involved, and State contracts. For my efforts I was slandered. A few months later the lid blew off.

NOW, no candidate would dare run for high office without a pledge "that honesty and integrity must be restored to our State government."

Andy Rogers is the only candidate in this race who has supported and voted for lobbyist control, lobbyist registration, and a code of ethics for legislators; for anti-loan shark legislation and compulsory financial statements of State officials' incomes.

Andy Rogers has authored more strict laws on the sale and distribution of narcotics and filthy literature and bootleggers than any other candidate in this race.

I have made many good friends among those who work for the interests of our district. I have made good enemies of those minority blocs whose interests conflict with the interests of our district. Some of these minority blocs have done well for themselves in Austin. But their position is now threatened. They are desperate to continue feasting their nests at your expense, to protect their "darlings," and to gain new ones.

I am on their list for extermination. They will stop at nothing and stoop to anything. Their methods of political slander, deceit and legislative control have been perfected to an art. And, as has been said, "the perfection of art is to conceal art." It is well known in Austin and Dallas that the Top brass of the loan-sharks, electric utility monopolies, gas pipelines, the liquor lobby and others are licking their chops over the slick tricks and schemes they have cooked up to deceive you about your Senator.

Actually, there is an old tune with a few new verses — only a little face lifting to bring their show up to date. I have suffered economically, socially and politically at their hands. But I have not run from them in the past, and I will not do so now or in the future.

TAXES AND ECONOMY

There is no need for either a sales or income tax for Texas. No other state has ever abused its citizens on tax matters as has Texas. A few examples: Nearly 55% of present taxes collected in Texas are consumer or "hidden" sales taxes. The consumer gasoline tax take is more than that paid on all crude oil. The consumer cigarette tax is larger than the total natural gas tax. Other states, even communists, can buy our gasoline tax free, but you pay 3¢ per gallon. Other states tax OUR natural gas up to ten times as much as we do. Roughly, 70% of both these Texas products are consumed outside of Texas. Few of the really big industries in Texas pay more than a proportional share of taxes, compared with the average businessman, farmer and worker.

Last year two (2) groups had their taxes reduced — natural gas producers and part of the Texas electric utility monopoly. Two (2) groups had their taxes raised — 10% increase on YOUR car and truck licenses and a doubling of tuition on students of State Colleges.

CONCLUSION Stating such facts is often political suicide in Texas but we merely need legislators who will see that these out-of-state corporations pay their share of the load while exploiting our resources. I have fought for this.

LABOR

I will continue to fight to maintain a strong and workable RIGHT-TO-WORK law in Texas. This should be supplemented by a little Taft-Hartley law for Texas, as our present labor laws are a hodge-podge and leave loopholes unfair to business, labor and the public.

APPOINTMENTS AND MORE REPRESENTATION

I was one of a dedicated group that forced legislative redistricting West Texas gained NINE new Representatives and THREE new Senators thereby. For the first time in history, since I have been your Senator, our immediate area (District) has had a Chairman and member of the Highway Commission, Chairman of Water Engineers, The State Water Planning Board, the State Dental Board, the State Optometric Board, the Public Safety Commission, two of seven members of the State Board of Colleges and others.

These appointments are made with the advice and consent of the State Senate. Such things don't "just happen", and have never happened to us before.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

Our young people are our greatest resource. In 1952 stated that we were "destroying our future with a false economy school program." We have made some advances. In these, Andy Rogers has been in the forefront.

One law I authored, which equalized our share of the State's school financial burden, has ALREADY saved our fifteen county Senatorial District nearly TWO (2) MILLION DOLLARS (from your pocket) in only 4½ years.

AGRICULTURE

The economy of our Senatorial District is based, first and last, on agriculture. No present member of our State Legislature has a record to surpass my efforts in this field. This record has been requested and approved by the farmers, ranchers and businessmen of our District. Andy Rogers' record includes accomplishments and efforts regarding underground and surface water, rural roads, seeds, feeds, "gas for irrigation," experimentation work, animal health, the Extension Service and many others.

I STILL believe that in Austin, as elsewhere, "moral integrity is needed most." I will conduct no smear campaign. I will stick to the record and the facts.

YOU, the people of our agricultural 30th Senatorial District, elected Andy Rogers to be your State Senator in 1952 by an overwhelming majority for one-half (½) a term. In 1954 you gave me a full four-year term without an opponent.

It has been a privilege and an honor to be your State Senator. With humility and sincerity, I ask for the opportunity to continue to serve you.

ANDY ROGERS

Cheerleaders Trio To Attend School

Three attractive and popular high school girls, Patti Craven, Karman Jenkins, and Daphne Lynn will leave Sunday for Wichita Falls where they will attend a cheerleader's school at Midwestern University.

The girls were elected by the Matador High School's student body to serve the high school's pep squad and football team as 1958 cheerleaders.

The Pep Club voted this past spring to use club funds to send the girls to the week's training school.

Matador cheerleaders in the past have attended the school and the training they received proved beneficial to the entire student bodies' school spirit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jenkins will accompany the girls to Wichita Falls.
