RICHARD STAFFORD SETS DISCUS MARK

Richard Stafford, Matador senior, set a record Saturday at Lubbock in Interscholastic League meet, when he tossed the discus 170 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

It was the state's second best throw this season and the best throw by a Class B athlete in West Texas history, according to the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. Stafford's heave of the disc broke the old record of 169-6 1/2 set by Joe Irvin of Amarillo in 1954 and bettered the Conference B state record by 12 feet, 2 1/2 inches. Only other man in the state to better Stafford's throw is Walter Myers of Odessa who tossed the discus 171 feet, 8 inches in the Brady Relays. Mr. Sweett arrived on the scene shortly following the accident, and rushed his son to Stanley Hospital, Matador. An Eudy Seale ambulance brought Don Carl to the hospital. Neither of the boys was seriously injured, but received bruises and lacerations about their legs and ribs.

Mike Barton Shows Grand Champ Steer

City "Under Siege" While Boys Chase Two Escaped Fat Stock Show Exhibits

TOP HONOR in Motley County's Annual Junior Fat Stock Show went to a 985-pound Hereford steer raised by Mike Barton, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. France Barton, when T. L. Leach of Texas Tech vocational Agriculture department judged the animal for the Grand Championship award. Second place in beef steer division went to Guy Campbell, 15-year-old-son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell, when his 990-pound Hereford was judged Reserve Champion.

Old Bridge Moved To New Location

The old bridge across Middle Pease River north of Matador, has been moved to a new location across Tongue River on the Dumont road and is now in service. The bridge, built about 35 years ago, served Whiteflat, Flomot and Northfield communities south until the State Highway 70 bridge was built about two miles west. Since that time it had very limited use and was in bad repair. The Commissioners Court decided to ask bids for moving the steel to the location on the Dumont road. Jameson Machinery Company was low bidder. The old steel was set on H beam piling driven into the clay and a new floor was installed. State Highway officials told the county that the ten spans would have cost $50,000 under present market values. The crossing on the Dumont road has in the past been a constant problem to the county. Enough of the old bridge is left to bridge Ballard Creek east of the old golf course, and will be used for that purpose, it was declared.

The show got off to a whirlwind start Saturday morning when two steers escaped from the high school agriculture building and were the objects of a wild chase through the south residential and business district of Matador. One steer was captured in the back yard of Dr. A. C. Trawee, Sr.'s home and another on US Highway 70 near the Drive-In Cafe. Vocational Agriculture Teacher Bill Moss, who served as announcer, said the season had been unfavorable to fattening of livestock. Only 12 calves were shown. The two top awards went to steers in the "heavy" (over 800 pounds class). Four other entries in this class were as follows: Dixie Barton (925 lbs.); Bert Green (Roaring Springs, 880 lbs.); Ros Bearden (855 lbs.) and Dink Wilson (Angus, 815 lbs.).

Barton Jr. Mrs. Burleson and Mr. Barton are cousins.

Expect Funds For Dougherty FM Road

With $78,000 already allocated for the Roaring Springs to Dougherty FM road, additional allocation is expected in the early fall, it was announced yesterday. The present allocation is for five miles of paved construction west of Roaring Springs. The total distance to be improved is 12 miles with 1 1/2 miles in Floyd County. The improved road will follow the present route in Motley County since the right of way is already owned and part of it is fenced, which will save the county that expense. Cost of fencing right of way now is about $1,000 per mile.

County Agent Now Has 2-Way Radio

County Agent Bill Pallmeyer is available. His car is now equipped with two-way radio on the sheriff department's frequency. The radio was purchased by the county for a Highway Patrol car through the Civil Defense program and later became surplus when the highway patrolman was moved from Matador. The radio was in a used Highway Patrol car at Childress. The county secured permission from Civil Defense authorities, and installed the equipment in Mr. Pallmeyer's car. He may be "paged" over the sheriff's office two-way radio. The equipment will frequently save extra driving when Mr. Pallmeyer is needed in an area where he is already engaged in his work. It will also enlarge the county's Civil Defense scope, it was declared.

92 Degrees Ushers in Summer; Chilling "Norther" is Forecast

SUMMER was here. It arrived yesterday with 92 degrees temperature, swept on a sandstorm out of the west which cut visibility to some extent and reminded citizens that this is the "high wind" season in West Texas. While residents were sweltering here weather forecasters were issuing "live-stock warnings" for the upper plains states. A chilling "norther" is scheduled here before this issue of the Tribune reaches its readers. So West Texas weather continues its old formula, "if you don't like it, wait a little while and it will change." Bob Stanley said yesterday afternoon that his thermometer showed 92 degrees at 3 p. m., which is the hottest day of 1958. Monday registered 82 degrees and Tuesday 77 degrees. Rainfall since last week totaled 77-inch, to bring the year's total to 7.05 inches, and 3.06 inches for the month of April. Weather reports yesterday afternoon said a snowstorm was sweeping Denver and that the mercury stood at 32 degrees. The upper Panhandle was bracing for a low of 36 degrees. Rainy weather continued over the week end with some areas of West Texas receiving much more than Motley County. A report Monday said the Swenson Lake

Mardi Gras was the theme of the annual Junior-Senior banquet held recently at the American Legion Hall. Favors were masks and horns.

Junior class president, James Beardon served as Master of ceremony and presided over the appropriate jokes.

A surprise feature of the banquet was the crowning of a Mardi Gras king and queen. They were Richard Stafford and Karlene Smith.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

By Kay Rattan
Two lucky Sophomore girls went to San Antonio last Wednesday to the F. F. A. State Meeting. They were Daphne Lynn and Linda Seigler. I know they had loads of fun!

I glanced at the calendar on the board, kept by a loyal comrade, and found that there are only 23 more school days, thank goodness! I believe each day drops by a little slower. I'm sure the rest of the "Soph's" will agree with me! Everyone is looking forward to the day (if it ever comes), when school will be out! Let's hope it'll be soon, because we're all getting lazier by the minute!

We are going to take our extra half-day holiday as soon as the pool opens. Everyone, including our class sponsor, Coach Bradshaw, will certainly be glad when we go. I think we're all in drastic need of a holiday!

I know this story sounds pretty gruesome but then, it could be worse! (I'd hate to live through anything worse)!!!!
Goodbye!!

Gamma Eta Chapter Studies Research On Criticisms of Public Education

Gamma Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in Lorenzo at the homemaking cottage on Saturday, April 12. A luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Bernice Drake, Mrs. Stella Bowman, and Mrs. Ileana Stobaugh.

Two accordion numbers were played by Miss Linda Swetman of Lorenzo. Following the regular business meeting, the program was given by Mrs. Norma Barkley of Ralls. The program, "Are Your Vistas Clear and Unhindered," pertained to criticisms of public education and research in regard to these criticisms. The following high points are taken from the Research Bulletin which is compiled by the National Education Association.

1. Public education is founded on the principle of public control with professional administration of the schools.
2. Broadly progressive education means educational progress thru continuous experimentation based on valid and reliable research.
3. Life adjustment education emphasized individualized education to meet the needs of all American youth, without minimizing intellectual training.
4. Promotion practices vary from school to school, few schools practice automatic promotion.

5. Although the number of cases in juvenile courts has increased since World War II, teachers report that classroom delinquents total, at the most, less than 1 percent.
6. Larger numbers and larger percents of American youth are now studying both modern and classical foreign languages than in 1900.
7. Larger numbers and larger percents of American youth are now taking courses in mathematics and science than in 1900.
8. State-level plans for gifted children are almost nonexistent. Many school systems, however, provide informal classroom programs for the instruction of gifted children. There are practically no programs for educating and certifying teachers of gifted children.

9. Although the public schools may not provide religious programs, they do make moral and spiritual values an integral part of regular classroom procedures and out-of-class experiences.
10. Professional courses in teacher-education programs, on the average, are not excessive, and state certification requirements do not overemphasize professional education courses.

Other members present for the meeting were Mrs. Dewey Wells, Sr., Ralls; Mrs. Mary Rattan and Mrs. Clark Forbis, Afton; Miss Margaret Elliot, Spur; Mrs. M. H. Galbreath, Girard; Mrs. W. C. King and Mrs. W. H. Marshall, Roaring Springs; Mrs. Clifford Graves and Mrs. C. E. Whitlock, Paducah; and Mrs. John Belaska, Afton.

The Choir is composed of 36 students who gave concerts in nine states, beginning with Mangum, Okla., on Friday Little Rock, Ark., was the second stop, and other concerts on the way to Washington, D. C., the turning back point, included Harrodsburg, Ky., Huntington, West Va., and Alexandria, Va.

In Washington, the Choir sang at Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist Church on April 15. Senator Lyndon Johnson and Rep. George Mahon arranged special courtesies and sight-seeing for the two days spent there.

From Washington, other stops for concerts en route home, included Richmond, Va., Elberton, Ga., Columbus, Miss., Birmingham, Ala., and final concerts in Dallas and Vernon.

PIED PINIONS

By Mrs. M.

The fact that Joy Martin Archer once worked at the Tribune has nothing to do with her daughter's being born on Thursday, or "press" day, of course. We certainly hope it has no special significance or bearing on her future. According to the old saying, "Thursday's child has far to go."

The rhyme in its entirety, is: Monday's child is fair of face, Tuesday's child is full of grace, Wednesday's child is full of woe, Thursday's child has far to go, Friday's child is loving and giving, Saturday's child works hard for his living, And a child that is born on the Sabbath day is fair and wise and good and gay.

It might be wise for prospective brides to study the old superstitions regarding marriage.

Marry Monday, marry for wealth; Marry Tuesday, marry for health; Marry Wednesday, the best day of all; Marry Thursday, marry for crosses; Marry Friday, marry for losses; Marry Saturday, no luck at all.

We should have heeded. Our wedding day was a Saturday!

Then there's the matter of sneezing:

Sneeze on a Monday, you sneeze for danger; Sneeze on a Tuesday, you'll kiss a stranger; Sneeze on a Wednesday, you sneeze for a letter; Sneeze on a Thursday, for something better; Sneeze on a Friday, you sneeze for sorrow; Sneeze on a Saturday, your sweetheart tomorrow; Sneeze on a Sunday, your safety seek. For you will have trouble the whole of the week.

Chinese Proverb: A hundred men may make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home.

THANKS, FRIENDS

I want to thank all the nice people who have sent cards and made telephone calls with concern for my health, since the last issue of the Tribune.

As this is written, I still have the flu, but I am improved and I am convinced the response of friends is, in a large measure, the reason I am recovering.

I want to apologize to all those friends whom I neglected when they were ill. I promise now to remember that you remembered me.

Blight Resistant Cotton Available

College Station.— Texas cotton growers looking for a blight-resistant, open boll cotton may obtain Austin variety commercial seed in 1958, according to Plant Pathologist Luther Bird. It is recommended for areas of the state where an inch staple is desired.

Telephone Company Offers Wage Hike

General Telephone Company of the Southwest has offered the Union a wage increase taking into consideration all economic factors. It was announced today, Monday, April 14, by Mark F. Cooper at the close of the meeting between the Company, the CWA-CIO and Walter C. White of Dallas, Commission of the Federal Mediator and Conciliation Service.

It was the first meeting attended by White who was called into negotiations by the Union after the Company and the Union reached a stalemate over the Union vacation demand. The major point of difference concerns the Union demand for a three-week paid vacation for employees after ten years service with the Company and the four-week paid vacation for employees with fifteen years or more service. The present vacation program provides paid vacation for one week after one year service, two weeks after two years

Austin is highly resistant to Texas' most damaging race of bacterial blight and tolerant to the number two race. Resistance is highest where adequate soil moisture and available nitrogen are present. Under blight-free conditions, Austin will yield as much as other open boll varieties grown in Texas. It will prevent 5 to 100 percent of yield losses under blight conditions depending on the degree of infection.

Tests conducted under Fusarium wilt-nematode conditions showed Austin with a 10 percent yield reduction while susceptible strains suffered a 50 percent reduction.

The new variety has performed exceptionally well under irrigated and normal rainfall conditions. Although it yields satisfactorily under drought conditions, the open boll is extremely loose. Its fiber is suitable for yarn production and staple length is 30-32 to 33-32 inch. The boll is larger than Deltapine types but is smaller than Empire. Austin seed are satisfactory for cottonseed products and variety's normal lint percent is 36 to 40.

The plains Cotton Extension Service Station has drafted a guide for the extension station and farmers have met to plan a cotton educational and program for the area.

The guide will be used in a program aimed at helping farmers grow quality cotton and process it for greater profit.

The program is divided into production, marketing. It is to be handled by county agents who work with farmers on the high plains of the PCG will be.

The program analyzes the plains production and sets forth the higher quality cotton character and in the of such quality cotton profit.

Over the years the person- Matador Experiment worked on better quality cotton, sometimes these and suggestions are published as they are too many farmers know of their importance.

The educational program to spread this information throughout the county and help our farmers produce better quality cotton. Fortenberry, PCG explained.

The PCG approved educational and promotional program at the last board meeting and appropriated necessary funds to carry out such a program.

Cooperating with the extension personnel and other organizations.

We hope to eliminate duplication of effort and help one another in an overall educational program. George W. Pfeiffenberger, executive vice president of the PCG, said.

W. H. Jones, District Extension Service Agent, Lubbock, pointed out that production practices in general govern quality and yield. Processing procedures are problems of the farmer in harvesting and of the ginner in ginning cotton.

"The cotton farmer has a greater opportunity to improve his production and harvesting practices than to better the ginning and marketing procedures, but an understanding of how cotton is processed and marketed may enable him to realize more net return from his investment and labor," Jones said.

LOCAL NEW CAR DEALER GIVEN SAFETY AWARD

For their efforts in eliminating reckless "hot rods" and helping high schools turn out courteous, capable young men and women drivers, the Campbell Chevrolet Company this week was presented a Highway Safety Award by the Texas Automotive Dealers Association.

The award was for their loaning a car to Matador High School for use in "behind the wheel" instruction under the high school driver training program.

The association is the state-wide organization of factory-authorized new car dealers whose members loan cars, with out charge, to high schools having duly qualified "behind the wheel" instructors.

TADA President Sam H. White, Houston, calls this driver education program one of the most important phases of high school training. Highway safety is dependent upon safe drivers, he said, pointing out that young men who have successfully completed a high school driver training course, both classroom theory and "behind the wheel" training, are given a preferred insurance rate because they have proven to be safer drivers.

Paducah Schedules Public Safety Exams

Texas Highway Patrolman J. A. Young of Paducah has announced that examinations will be given next month for positions with the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Young Texans interested in a career in law enforcement may compete in State wide examinations for the positions of Highway Patrolman, Driver License Patrolman, license and Weight Patrolman and Motor Vehicle Inspection Patrolman. May 10th is the deadline for submitting applications to the Department Headquarters in Austin.

Job security, paid vacation, sick leave and retirement are only few of the benefits you will enjoy as a State Law Enforcement Officer. Any young man between 21 and 35, a high school graduate and in good physical condition can contact us at the Highway Patrol Office in Paducah for an application," the Patrolman said.

An amateur photographic contest will be a new feature of the 1958 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 4-19.

The contest will be sponsored by the Fair's Women's Department and winning entries will be displayed in the Women's Building during the Fair.

The contest will be open only to amateur photographers who are residents of the State of Texas.

Mrs. Leah Jarrett, director of the Women's Department, said the black-and-white print division will have categories for landscape, pictorial, portrait, still life and general subject matter. Color prints will be entered in the landscape, pictorial, portrait and still life classes.

One tri-color ribbon will be awarded for Best of Show in black-and-white print section, and one in color print section.

Rules provide that entries in the black-and-white section must be complete work of the entrant. Prints may be of any size, but must be mounted on 16x20 inch mats.

Deadline for receiving all entries in the contest will be Sept. 2, 1958. Only the prints receiving premium awards and honorable mention will be exhibited during the Fair.

Co-sponsoring the contest with the State Fair will be the Dallas Camera Club which is affiliated with the Photographic Society of America. Mrs. George Henry, president of the Dallas Camera Club, is chairman of the contest committee and members are Otis L. Hendricks and Ben H. Wilson, president of the Oak Cliff Camera Club.

Entry forms and detailed rules for the photographic contest may be obtained from Mrs. Jarrett, State Fair of Texas, Dallas 26.

Charles Cullin and Partner Purchase McLean Newspaper

(Delayed from last week)

Now passed the "point of no return" Charles Cullin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cullin of Matador, has entered the weekly newspaper business.

In a partnership with Joel Combs, former managing editor of the Pampa Daily News, young Cullin purchased the McLean (Gray County) News, and assumed management April 1. Cullin began his newspaper work on the Memphis Democrat and later was employed by the Abilene Reporter-News where he also attended Hardin-Simmons University. After serving two years in the armed forces he joined the staff of the Pampa Daily News where he served as sports editor until resigning to assume the place as editor of the McLean News.

Citizens and business firms of McLean purchased a full page advertisement in The News welcoming the two young newspapermen to the community.

Former editor and owner Bill Perkins devoted his final page one column of the April 3 issue to his young successors.

The McLean News was established 54 years ago and is considered one of the more desirable small newspaper properties in West Texas. McLean, on the fringe of the great Panhandle oil field, is a progressive town.

Recently the town leaders acquired a manufacturing plant and accompanying payroll and El Paso Natural Gas Company has a new compressor plant located at the outskirts of the town. McLean is located on Highway 66, approximately 93 miles east of Amarillo.

Cullin is listed as editor and Combs as general manager in the newspaper masthead. It is probable their duties will vary from those designated as they grapple with the problems associated with the publishing of a weekly newspaper. The Tribune welcomes them into the fraternity and wishes for them the best of luck.

Bill Slover Finds Snakehunting Hit By Freak Weather

(delayed)

Things are bad all over. If you have been rattlesnake hunting you have probably found the reptiles uncooperative. That is the experience of "Rattlesnake" Bill Slover who feels like he is wasting his time if he does not capture a tow-sackful in a day.

Spring is late. Rain, snow, cold wind and sand storms cause the snakes to be sluggish. They don't have enough "zip" to come out and be caught.

Last week Slover, accompanied by his wife, found a little favorable weather. They caught about 200 rattlesnakes in slightly over two days working time. Some of the snakes were large (one between 5 1/2 and 6 feet).

But rattlesnakes are scarce. Slover laments. He is forced to travel farther and farther from Matador to find dens, a condition which appears to be perfectly satisfactory with most of the residents of this community.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

LIMITATIONS ON KILLING WILDRIE

People who have been trying to kill wildrye in their lawns by spraying it with ammonium nitrate may find that results are very erratic, and according to information received from the Pasture Specialist of Texas A & M College, Mr. E. M. Trew, time of application may be the reason for these results.

Ammonium nitrate solution is successful on young seedling wildrye, but when the plant gets some growth, and hair begins to appear on the surfaces of the leaves, the grass is much harder to kill, and only the burning back of the tips may be accomplished. If the ammonium nitrate is applied soon enough, plants will be killed within 3 days.

The above test was made by County Agent Bill Pallmeyer and results were as indicated in the latest information given above. Young grass that was sprayed was killed, but the larger, older clumps were only burned on the tips, thereby indicating that the time to spray for the control of wildrye using the ammonium nitrate solution is when the grass first begins to appear.

Another chemical, Endothal, has given satisfactory results in some areas for large wildrye, but at present this is not sold in small containers but plans are to test this material to determine if it is a satisfactory killer of the wildrye.

SOIL TESTS AID IN SOIL BUILDING

Crops trying to grow on mineral deficient soils are like people on a strict diet—they get hungry.

Now, it may be practical for an overweight person to go on a diet to reduce, but no one wants to reduce his crop production. Yet, that is exactly what happens to crops that are grown on soil that is lacking in minerals, warns County Agent Pallmeyer.

But the crops are not the only things that suffer from this condition. These sick crops cause mineral hunger in livestock. This produces poor livestock, giving poor gains and poor stock products — it even tends to promote livestock disease.

Mineral hunger crops and livestock produce food that may cause a deficiency in our own body.

The average man, has about three pounds of calcium (limestone) in his body. Children need lime for strong bones and good teeth. These strength-providing minerals are important to the human body.

It is best to fertilize more for better crops that will produce more and better livestock. A soil test should be made to determine the exact needs. Soil that is well supplied with minerals—especially calcium and phosphorous—is essential for maximum productivity of top quality crops, and without a balance of nitrogen, phosphorous and potash, this cannot be obtained.

Where irrigation water is available, the chance of realizing the full benefit of the fertilizer is eliminated, and on dryland, fertilizer has paid over 90% of the time on sandy soils. To date, 24 soil samples from Motley County have been submitted to the Soils Lab., Seymour, Tex.
