Lions Hear Heatly On Taxes in Texas

"It is better for the taxpayer when the Legislature is not in session," State Representative Bill Heatly of Paducah said Tuesday as principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Matador Lions Club, held in the basement of the Methodist Church. "As long as the Legislature is not in session, nothing can happen," Heatly said. Now serving his 14th year in the Legislature, Heatly is a probable candidate for re-election. He is serving his fourth term as chairman of the powerful appropriations committee. Introduced by Lion County Judge Forrest Campbell, Heatly explained the sources of revenue used in the operation of the vital and growing state of Texas. He said almost half of the tax dollar goes into the institutions of learning in Texas. He explained the cost of providing training for the college, junior college, and common school students. He said 47 per cent of each Texan's tax dollar goes into education. Welfare needs 17 1/2 per cent, 22 1/2 per cent is needed to expand and maintain Texas' excellent highway system and 4 1/2 per cent must go into hospitals. Heatly said the state is going to increase old age assistance. He touched on Medicare and said it is "growing like Baptists and Johnsongrass." He explained that millions were needed for Texas' mental and disabled welfare. "We must keep up our commitments," he declared, "since the federal government pays four for one in this instance." He said the helpless people of Texas "have no active alumni" to lobby for better care. He told of the millions needed to maintain Texas' penal institutions, and said the state prison is going into industrialization. "Our cost is only $2 per man per day at Huntsville," Heatly declared, "because of the excellent management which makes it possible to produce products almost equal to maintenance cost."

Break in Pipeline Delays County Oil

Delivery of production from Motley County's two Roaring Springs oil fields was delayed 36 hours last week when a bulldozer struck the huge 60-inch Service Pipeline, east of Northfield, across Pease River. Roy Hankins, who operates the Whiteflat pumping station and pumps of the Scurlock Oil Company, said he was shut down approximately 36 hours. Oil is pumped from the two Roaring Springs fields into the Service Pipeline, at Whiteflat. A huge flame erupted from the ruptured pipeline late Wednesday (last week) when it was struck by a bulldozer. The bulldozer, driven by C. C. Grossman, scraped against the big pipe and broke a hole in it. The rushing gas caught fire and flames shot 100 feet in the air. The gas was shut off and the flames began to diminish. The huge columns of black smoke could be seen from great distances as thousands of barrels of oil were consumed. The bulldozer was heavily damaged and other equipment nearby was damaged by the heat. Grossman suffered only slight burns in leaping from the bulldozer before flames engulfed it. The line runs from near Monahans to Indianapolis.

Break in Pipeline Delays County Oil

Delivery of production from Motley County's two Roaring Springs oil fields was delayed 36 hours last week when a bulldozer struck the huge 60-inch Service Pipeline, east of Northfield, across Pease River. Roy Hankins, who operates the Whiteflat pumping station and pumps of the Scurlock Oil Company, said he was shut down approximately 36 hours. Oil is pumped from the two Roaring Springs fields into the Service Pipeline, at Whiteflat. A huge flame erupted from the ruptured pipeline late Wednesday (last week) when it was struck by a bulldozer. The bulldozer, driven by C. C. Grossman, scraped against the big pipe and broke a hole in it. The rushing gas caught fire and flames shot 100 feet in the air. The gas was shut off and the flames began to diminish. The huge columns of black smoke could be seen from great distances as thousands of barrels of oil were consumed. The bulldozer was heavily damaged and other equipment nearby was damaged by the heat. Grossman suffered only slight burns in leaping from the bulldozer before flames engulfed it. The line runs from near Monahans to Indianapolis.

County 4-H Dress Revue Winners Announced; Sisters Again at Top

Misses Judy and Peggy Marrs were named winners of the 4-H county dress revue held July 28 in the Matador school auditorium. The sisters will represent Motley county at the district dress revue in Vernon, August 4. This is the second year the girls have won the local competition. Jeanette Day placed second in senior division and Frances Reed of Flomont won second in junior division.

Judy, a five year veteran in the 4-H programs, will make her third trip to district, having won the local competition each time she entered. Two years ago she was junior division winner here and won the senior competition this year and last. At district she will compete for a trip to the state dress revue this fall at the State Fair in Dallas.

Her winning A-line dress of aqua blue and black plaid cotton blend, was fashioned with long sleeves and featured a bias panel in front trimmed with eight black buttons and a black velvet bow. The mode chose black accessories.

Junior division winner, Peggy will model at Vernon but the contestants will not be judged. Her A-line navy and white dotted swiss dress featured a bib decorated with white lace and buttons. A circular ruffle edged in white lace trimmed the three quarter-length sleeves.

Missionary Family To Live in Abilene

Minister Bob Harp, his wife, Jackie and children, Scotty, Eric and Vicki, have returned to the states from Pago Pago, American Samoa, where they have spent three years in missionary work for the Church of Christ.

They were sponsored in the work by the Northeast Church of Christ in Indianapolis, Indiana, with partial support from the Culver-Palms Church of Christ of Los Angeles, Calif., where Harp was serving as minister at the time they left for Samoa. He was born and reared in Matador.

The boys, Scotty and Eric left Samoa by Pan Am jet, July 1st, and visited Harp's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Don Remington in Lomita, Calif., and were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Harp and daughter, Vickie, who arrived on Monday, July 17.

The following Sunday, Minister Harp preached from the pulpit of the Culver-Palms Church of Christ, and a fellowship dinner was held by the congregation at the noon hour.

They left Los Angeles Friday, and visited in Santa Fe, N.M. until Sunday, with Bob's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harp, and left from Amarillo for Indianapolis.

Excerpts from their last newsletter from Pago Pago, outline their itinerary during their stay in the states for the coming year.

"Since we are so pressed for time we will probably fly to Indianapolis with perhaps two overnight stops in Santa Fe and Amarillo before continuing on to Indianapolis. We hope to arrive around August 1, and spend as much time as the Northeast elders and brethren desire; visiting, reporting and promoting the South Pacific mission.

"Upon completion of this visit we will then travel (possibly by car) to visit friends and Jackie's relatives in New Jersey, then on to Miami, Florida, to visit Jackie's mother, and to Orlando, Fla., to visit with Dick and Beverly Darsey and family, who are considering returning to the South Pacific with us.

To Live in Abilene
"From Orlando, then to Gurley, Ala., to visit the James Ashworth's congregation (James and Margaret arrived in American Samoa before we left, to carry on the work while we are away) and with the Eddie Cantrells. THEN on to Texas to visit friends and relatives.

"All of this must be done before school opens in September. We plan to live in Abilene where I can take some courses at ACC the fall semester and promote the work. After January, I will be completely free to travel to raise funds.

"Our plan is to return to the South Pacific after one year, depending on Eric's health. He has been hospitalized here recently, and his case diagnosed as rheumatic fever. The doctor says that he cannot detect any heart damage at this time. For this we are thankful.

"As most of you know, I was hospitalized in March with infectious hepatitis . . . things went well and I was able to escape after 10 days. However, I had to stay in bed over a month at home. As usual, Jackie came through, taking care of me, and although not fully orphaned, she served as bus driver, 'elder deacon', teacher, native preacher-encourager and general holder-of-things-together. By May 1st, I felt that I had fully recovered."

New Methods in Teaching English To be Employed in Local Schools

The use of the Matador school as a "pilot" school to employ a new method of teaching English was announced earlier in the summer, when several local teachers were attending conferences held in Amarillo and Canyon.

At the request of Supt. Charles Benson, Mrs. J. E. Edwards has prepared a series of articles, explaining the new system. Introduction to the series is presented here:

When innovations are made in subject matter area of our educational system, period of trial revision are used alternately several years. A program is used in a pilot school, revised and again, etc. The best of many programs is put into one, adopted by the state, and submitted to the dependent school districts in the form of textbooks.

Texas Highway Fatalities on Sharp Increase

Death is rampant on the highways of Texas according to a new release by C. A. Demsey of Lubbock, Safety Patrolman for the Texas Department of Public Safety, who visited the Tribune Monday. The following is his news release:

Texas 1966 traffic cost soars to an all-time high. There were 524,972 traffic accidents, an increase of 53,984 over 1965. There was a record of 3,406 human lives lost in traffic accidents, an increase of 378 over 1965. Another 208,310 were sent to doctors and hospitals, an increase of 22,248 over 1965, some of these injured being maimed for life. Some 890,000 automobiles were damaged or demolished. The economic loss came to an astounding figure of $57,414,900, an increase of $39,327,000 over 1965.

Motley County's contribution to the 1966 Texas traffic cost was one killed, 21 injured, and an estimated property damage of $14,115.00.

If the 3,406 dead traffic victims were stacked in a pile, the dimensions would be about 3.7 miles in length, or 11 miles in width, or 5 of a mile in height. The dimensions of the some 890,000 damaged or demolished vehicles would be about 2,907 miles in length, or 1,113 miles in width, or 852 miles in height. The dimensions for the 208,310 injured would be about 227 miles in length or 66 miles in width, or 33 miles in height.

Scotty spent last week on a vacation trip in Colorado.

Mrs. Harold Flora returned home Friday from a visit in Austin with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Martin and family.

Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. Ernest Fisher were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher, Armand, Larry and Ivan, of Lubbock; and two nieces, Mrs. Irene Brown of Adrian and Mrs. Frank Watson of Hereford.

Kay Russell Has Junior Membership In Hereford Assn.

Sixty-eight junior Hereford breeders were placed on the association's official roster during June.

Highlights and Sidelight FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

BY Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, TEXAS — Newspaper readers throughout Texas soon will be seeing long columns of type about important issues as Secretary of State John Hill begins to advertise the six proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on November 11.

Fourteen additional amendments will be on the 1968 ballot.

Eight of the 20 amendments are of interest mainly to special groups (eg. legislators or state employees). Eight others would provide local governments with new powers or duties. Only four of the group directly affect most Texans.

Amendments to be voted on this year will appear on the ballot in this order:

- No. 1, House Joint Resolution 3, to permit counties to put all tax money in a single general fund rather than dividing income in specified amount among separate funds for earmarked purposes as is now required.
- No. 2, HJR 37, allowing cities and other governmental units within hospital districts to levy taxes for participation in mental health and mental retardation community centers.
- No. 3, HJR 17, reviving the veterans land program and authorizing a total of $400,000,000 in bonds to finance continued purchase of farm and ranch land by veterans, including those who have served in Southeast Asia during present hostilities.
- No. 4, HJR 6 authorizing counties to pay medical, doctor and hospital bills of county law enforcement officers injured in line of duty.
- No. 5, HJR 12, authorizing a $75,000,000 state revenue bond issue for the development of state parks and recreational areas. Bonds are expected to be financed by a small admission fee.
- No. 6, HJR 27, permitting state officers and employees to hold non-elective positions under the state or U.S. governments where there is no conflict of interest and where the state might benefit.

and through which 35,300 veterans have purchased farm and ranch properties at low interest rates spread over a 40-year pay period.

This amendment would raise the amount which could be borrowed under the program from $7,500 to $10,000. The program was initiated in 1949. Additional bonds were approved by voters in 1951 and 1956. Amendments to enlarge the bond authorization were rejected at elections in 1963 and 1965. Opposition came mainly from Dallas and Houston.

Proponents emphasize that, while thousands of veterans have benefited from the program, it has cost the state no money and actually has turned a profit of $2,500,000 a year while providing an expanded land market.

Opposition has adopted the argument that it is not the function of the state government to engage in the loan business and that veterans have had plenty of time to participate. Some also contend that "cheap money" invites purchases of land not needed and will not be put to productive use.

Amendment No. 2 specifies that the legislature, in providing for creation of hospital districts, does not have to require that the districts assume full responsibility for community mental health and retardation centers and services. It would permit cities and counties to levy taxes and issue bonds for such services. Subdivisions within existing districts would be authorized to do so unless statutes creating the districts expressly prohibit.

An attorney general's opinion held that the constitution does not allow political subdivisions within the boundary of a hospital district to levy taxes for medical and hospital service. Under that ruling, cities and counties located in such districts were restricted from participating in establishment of community health centers. Therefore, only hospital districts could establish such centers, a key part of the mental health program.

Amendments No. 3, 4 and 5 are self explanatory and apparently non-controversial.

Amendment No. 6 is aimed primarily at permitting educators, who are paid from state funds, to serve on federal advisory boards.

Gov. John Connally is the principal backer of the parks bond issue. Last December he unveiled a 10-year plan for acquiring and developing 150,960 acres of recreational lands and historical sites. This would more than triple present state park acreage and open a variety of new facilities for outdoor recreation.

Only opposition to the amendment to date has been based on the $1 a car park-entry fee, initially proposed by Connally to finance the vast program; and scattered complaints that facilities included in the governor's master plan do not adequately serve some areas of the state.

He is expected to spearhead an intensive fall campaign supported by parks, recreational and outdoor groups to put over the bond issue.

The veterans land amendment would add another $200,000,000 to state bonds previously authorized

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

Farm drivers should be especially careful when entering a road from a farm driveway or field gate. You should remove weeds, high crops, trees or shrubs at farm entrances and rural intersections to insure good visibility.

Many deaths and serious injuries could be prevented by the installation and use of seat belts in trucks and automobiles used around the farm.

Tractor Accidents Numerous

With the increase in use of heavy equipment on farms the number of accidents resulting from this use has also increased. Over 1,000 people will be killed this year from tractor accidents and the number of injuries from tractor and other equipment accidents may be over 200,000.

Farmers are reminded of the dangers involved in the use of heavy equipment and warned to keep all machinery in safe operating condition with all guards and safety devices in place. Always stop the machines when servicing, unclogging or adjusting and refuel after the motor has cooled.

To avoid tractor upsets or backward flips, operators should slow down when turning or on rough ground; hitch only to the drawbar; set wheels wide; and be cautious when working on slopes, all uneven ground or around ditches.

Remember that the labor saved by good equipment is worthwhile only if the machinery is used safely to avoid injuries to yourself, your family or help.

Everyone should be careful around all bodies of water and teach youngsters how to swim. When boating or fishing, observe all safety regulations and learn the capacity of the boat used.

Agriculturists should follow and teach others to follow all rules for storing and use of firearms.

Finally, include safety in vacation planning for camping, hunting or fishing trips and learn what to do in case of an accident.
