General In Plane Wreck At Flomot

Pilot Loses Six Teeth In Forced Landing When Oil Line Is Fouled

BRIGADIER GENERAL H. H. Richardson, Adjutant for the State of Colorado, and Lieut. M. E. Cowser, pilot, enroute from Denver to Abilene, made a forced landing in a plane at Flomot about 6 P. M. yesterday when the engine oil line became clogged.

Lieut. Cowser lost six front teeth and suffered minor injuries in bringing the plane to earth, but General Richardson received only a minor cut on his head.

Army officials sent an automobile for General Richardson who left Matador about 2 A. M. to continue his journey. Lieut. Cowser remained for medical attention and for inspection of his ship which will be made today. Reports declare extensive damages to the plane including wreckage of the landing gear and propeller.

After discovering the trouble in his ship, Lieut. Cowser attempting to land on a road at the C. W. Webb farm northwest of Flomot, however, his engine "froze" before he reached the roadway and caused him to crash. General Richardson and Lieutenant Cowser received first aid treatment and were later brought to Matador.

Navy Relief Quota $210

Motley county's quota is $210 for the nation-wide Navy Relief drive, according to information received yesterday by County Judge W. R. Cammack, county chairman. The state organization has been assigned a quota of $210,000.

The Navy relief fund is in no way supported by the government but must depend upon public subscription. Money contributed goes direct to the aid of widows, dependent parents and other relatives of sailors who lose their lives in the line of duty.

At present the national goal is $5,000,000. Contributions may be made direct to Judge Cammack or other authorized member of the county organization.

SCHOOL CARNIVAL NETS $132 FOR ATHLETIC FUND

With a record-breaking attendance, the carnival held in the high school building Friday evening was acclaimed the most successful event of its kind ever presented here. Given by the school with the aid of patrons of the community, the entertainment included many attractive features.

Net proceeds of the carnival after all expenses were paid, amounted to $132.73, which amount will be used to augment the athletic fund in defraying various expenditures.

Fun and hilarity reigned from the moment the doors opened until the final feature was presented. Supper was served in the Homecoming department under the supervision of Miss Zona Beth Faulkner, and the delicious menu, served at such a low price, was an attraction that few could resist.

Auditorium shows included an "Amateur Contest" and a negro minstrel, directed by Vernon Doss, presenting a skit entitled, "Our Gang."

Two new features of the carnival this year were the antique and old-time picture display booths. Concessions included the doll rack, penny-pitching, tossing balls into buckets; bingo, and two fortune-telling booths with Miss Thessia Godfrey and Mrs. W. F. Jacobs as the Gypsy fortune-tellers.

Mrs. Elmer Stearns, who has been in Abilene the past several weeks at the bedside of her father, returned home Sunday. Mr. Stearns drove there to accompany her home.

ADVANCED FIRST AID COURSE WILL BEGIN TONIGHT

Announcement is made that an Advanced First Aid course will start tonight, (April 16) to continue through the next three weeks until 10 hours of instruction are completed. Classes will be held for three hours each Thursday night with the additional hour to be made up during the course.

Much interest has been shown in the Standard course which has been conducted by David Guest, Lay Instructor, assisted by Hugh Gray. This course was completed last week with twenty hours of class instruction to the credit of those who attended. All who were enrolled passed the course and are in receipt of Red Cross certificates.

In addition to several who will be classified in the Advanced course, those completing the Standard course included: Mesdames H. H. Courtney, Lewis Eudy, David Guest, Curtis King, Bernice Knight, M. J. Reilly, H. H. Schweitzer, John C. Russell, B. F. Tunnell, Harry Willett and A. J. Daffern; Misses Virginia Estes, Mary Keith, Rachel Patton and Mary Ola Tipton and Messrs. J. P. True Value Sale Starts Here Today

"True Value" week, annual sale conducted by the Matador Hardware and Furniture Company, will open this morning and continue through Saturday, April 25. L. C. Harp, manager of the firm, declared, "Despite the shortages in many lines of merchandise, we are glad to continue our policy of the annual 'True Value' sale. Because of our affiliation with the largest wholesale hardware firm in the world, we are able to offer our customers savings in many items which are in restricted production because of the war emergency. We urge everyone to visit our store as early as possible and purchase items which are needed now or which a need is anticipated, since we will be unable to secure new stocks on many items."

Additional Funds For Gratis Papers

Appreciative readers have again made unsolicited contributions to the Tribune's policy of sending gratis copies to Motley county boys in various branches of the armed service. Recent donations include A. B. Groves $1, H. M. Murphy $2, and L. J. Barkley $3 for which sincere appreciation is tendered.

Lions Meeting Is Scheduled Tuesday

Regular meeting of the Matador Lions Club is scheduled for Tuesday, April 20, at the First Baptist Church basement. Lion Henry F. Pipkin, chairman of the program committee has made arrangements for an interesting program and all members are urged to attend. It was emphasized here yesterday that a greater need for regular attendance is stressed because of the war emergency. It was pointed out that unity of the complete civic club is made stronger with full attendance and that the scope of urgent war-time projects is broadened with complete cooperation.

Lions directors will hold their regular meeting at the Magnolia Cafe at 6:30 Monday morning, where a number of important matters will be discussed.

New Grocery At Roaring Springs

Located in the former First State Bank building at Roaring Springs, the Corner Grocery made its bid for patronage two weeks ago, and is now completely stocked with staple and fancy groceries.

A surprisingly large stock of food is displayed in the well-lighted and ventilated building. The new enterprise is owned and operated by S. M. Newberry of Roaring Springs who formerly operated a grocery store at Afton.

Mr. Newberry has installed a modern electric-refrigeration meat case and will soon offer his customers a complete line of fresh and cured meats. He said that he would also stock a complete line of vegetables in the near future. A cordial invitation is extended the public to visit the new store.

Chevrolet Agency Here Is Closed For The Duration

War struck into Matador's business district last week and closed one of the city's most enterprising firms. The Campbell Chevrolet Company has closed for the duration, however, R. E. Campbell, manager has moved his large and complete stock of Chevrolet parts to the rear of Campbell's Food Market where owners may procure them.

"I feel a deep obligation to my customers," Mr. Campbell, declared "and I sincerely regret the necessity of closing the regular agency. It is, of course, needless to explain the futility of operating an automobile agency when no automobiles are being made.

"I have moved my complete stock of genuine Chevrolet parts to my grocery store and owners will find it convenient to make purchases through this arrangement. Because it is impossible for me to employ a bookkeeper as would be required by the General Motors Corporation, all parts must be for cash. I would advise any Chevrolet owner who anticipates purchase of parts, to do so at once, because we are finding it increasingly difficult to replace our stock. We will replace our stock as long as parts can be secured."

"Closing the agency and moving the parts department to my grocery store was done with the approval of the Chevrolet organization and I have retained my dealership."

"Ceel Shelton at the Mission Gas & Oil Company station is an approved Chevrolet mechanic and offers owners the type of service that meets the high standards of the Chevrolet organization. I recommend Mr. Shelton's work. To all owners I wish to emphasize the need to keep their cars in the very best of repair because transportation is vital to the success of our war effort."

Books Sought For Men In Service

Nationwide "Victory Book" campaign seeks books for Motley county homes to provide reading for men in all branches of the armed services. Mrs. M. J. Reilly, acting chairman for Mrs. Leonora Luckett of the county organization appeals to residents to bring books to Judge W. R. Cammack's office. "However," Mrs. Reilly, stated, "in instances where it is impossible for donors to deliver the books, I will personally collect them when notified."

Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and men in other branches of the service want all kinds of fiction, travel, biography, poetry, recent science and mathematics and up-to-date technical books. Types desired include: History (particularly North and South America, since 1900); Applied psychology; Current affairs; Military publications; Crime and the F. B. I.; Police system and finger printing; English grammars; Arithmetic; Algebra; Geometry; Trigonometry; Circulars and table of logarithms (Mathematical books are needed in the study of ballistics and for Navy promotional examinations); Accounting; Shorthand; Business and salesmanship; Lettering and mechanical drawing; Photography; Cartoons; Well-illustrated books of all types; Books about music; Sports; Play-writing; Poetry and individual plays; Geography; Travel (of the last ten years).

Matadors Win Title For District Events

Leading Wellington by the close margin of 1 1/2 points, the Matador Matadors won first place Saturday at Childress' Fair Park stadium in district four annual interscholastic league track and field meet. The Matadors, defending champions, and a wide favorite to hold their title, wound up the afternoon's activity with 35 1/2 points while the Wellington Rockets claimed second place with 34 points.

Childress' host team was never a threat to the two leaders but managed to pile up 27 1/2 points for third place and outdistance the remainder of the field by a wide margin.

The other dozens teams trailed with Dodson and Tell tying for fourth with nine points each; Flomot taking fifth with 7 1/2 points; Quannah coming sixth with six points and the others trailing in the following order: Community Center, 5 1/2 points; Lelia Lake, Sam Norwood and Kirkland knotted with five points each; Quail with four points and Carey with one point.

Rainfall Is 4.37 Inches For April

April rainfall last night had reached a total of 4.37 inches for the first half of the month, resulting in better than usual crop prospects and causing ranchers to smile with extreme satisfaction.

Rainfall last week has been followed by bright, summer sunshine and range conditions are declared excellent. While wheat acreage in the county is not large as compared with neighboring counties, farmers say that prospects are as favorable as possible.

Farm work has progressed rapidly in all sections of the county since last week's rains and seed merchants say demands for all types of garden seeds far exceed former years.

April rainfall as recorded by the U. S. rain gauge maintained by George Springer, is as follows: April 5th 20 inch; April 7th .97 inch and April 8th-9th 3.20 inches.

MOTHER OF RESIDENT DIES

Word was received here last week by relatives, advising of the death of Mrs. J. W. Ford's aged mother at her ranch home near Moriarity, New Mexico.

Mrs. Ford, whose home is Matador, had been with her mother the past year, due to her failing health. Survivors include two other daughters, one of whom resides in England, having remained there when the family came to America to make their home; and three sons, two of Moriarity, and one residing in California.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Broadus and daughter Jean, also Mrs. Frank Cook and son Charles from Canadian, Texas, visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Alsop the first of the week. They are Mr. and Mrs. Alsop's daughters.

Edgar Lee made a business trip to Lubbock Wednesday.

yard dash; three second places, three third places and one fourth place.

Wellington won three first places and Childress took two blue ribbons.

No new district records were established and in most cases the existing marks were not even threatened.

For the first time in several years ideal weather prevailed and approximately 300 fans attended the meet. Joe Gibson, Childress high school principal and "Cotton" Weidman, Childress coach, supervised the meet. Joe Forrester of Quannah served as official starter.

Physicians And Nurses Offered
New Places

Supplying the need for medical personnel for the Health and Medical Service, Dr. Cox, State Health Officer, announced that the Public Health Service is offering reserve commissions to physicians and dentists who may be used in the event of war.

Reserve commissions will be largely from those groups, from those of physical disability, making them eligible for military service. Dr. Cox, who serves as State Health Officer, announced on Health Emergency Service, pointed out that staffs for operating hospitals in safe areas are being planned to go into effect, in event of disaster for the sick and injured in the event of enemy action.

Dr. Cox said that application commissions will be issued by his office and that while the commission covers a reserve, inaction so that the physician reserve service in his commission will be subject to immediate service in case of actual war.

FAMILIES NEED ADJUSTMENT TO WAR CONDITIONS

COLLEGE STATION, April 16.—Keeping families healthy and happy so they can do their share of work which must be done by civilians is one way to help win the war.

Dosca Hale, Extension Service specialist in parent education and child development, says keeping up family spirits is a part of the war-time pledge thousands of Victory Demonstrators in Texas are signing. "Plan for good times for the family," she advises. "Don't make life stern and drab, but try to find ways of having fun without spending much money or using up precious automobile tires."

Even though transportation must be drastically reduced, families should not give up all community gatherings. Meetings or organizations of farm men, women, and children have meant so much in broadening horizons, in providing recreation, and in promoting better family living they should not be discontinued, the specialist believes.

Here are some other tips: Keep the radio and phonograph in repair. Don't buy new models unless it is absolutely necessary. Encourage children to mend their toys and sports equipment. Do not sacrifice the education of children, for the post-war world will need trained people, able to adapt to new conditions.

Provide newspapers and periodicals for the family and save time for reading and news broadcasts. "Remember, well-informed citizens are the bulwark of a democracy," Miss Hale explains.

have to be processed in pressure cookers, it is possible to repackage tin containers for this purpose. In fact, it is safer to put lard in used tin than fruits, vegetables, meats and other products which must be processed to keep well, Miss Neely says.

Families who have on hand large quantities of oil or beer cans may use these as lard containers if they are of a size which can be sealed with their home-owned equipment. Their salvage can be valuable to the family since oil or beer cans cannot be used for preserving foods which must be processed.

4th Registration
To Be Held April 27

MEN FROM 45-64 YEARS OLD
WILL BE SIGNED UP FOR SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

The fourth registration of men for military service will be held Monday, April 27, at the Court house and will include men in the 45-64 age bracket.

Although it is unlikely that many men between the ages of 45-64 will be called to active duty, it is possible that many will be placed in some phase of government service eventually.

Boys 18 and 19 years of age were not called to register but it is expected that a day will be set soon for the registration of this group.

It is intimated that in the coming registration, men will be sought for defense jobs rather than for military purposes. This bracket includes practically all of the veterans who went through World War I.

No information has been received by the Selective Service Board regarding the fourth registration but it is almost certain that the same plan will be followed as in the last registration.

Definite hours for the registration will be announced at a later date.

That reminds me of the lady who was looking at a coat made of skunk and she asked the salesman, "Will this be injured by the rain?" He replied, "Madam, I have never seen a skunk carrying an umbrella."

"In all likelihood, Governor Coke Stevenson will not have an opponent," remarks the Clarendon News, editorially, "or if he does, the opponent will be some chap running for publicity with a scant chance of getting warm, since the Governor has made so many friends by his quiet, kindly efficiency. The Governor should be returned to office and Texas voters will see that he is returned by a landslide."

To Keep Lard

COLLEGE STATION, April 16.—Texas farm families have quantities of sweet, high lard on hand, and with a little work and ingenuity can save it for use during the summer.

Weather causes lard stored in containers, such as five or ten gallon buckets, to become rancid, Neely, Extension Service specialist in food preservation, says. The solution is to pack the lard in small containers so they will be air-tight when example, lard may be stored in tin buckets, and the friction may be completely sealed with paraffin or sealing wax. No more than gallon buckets are recommended, and No. 3 cans or jars are even better, the specialist says. Lard packed in tin should be kept in a dark

Outstanding Entertainment Is Featured At Annual School Carnival

Awards Given For Antique Display And Contest Skill

Many outstanding performances in the various contests and games of skill, combined with the unique and interesting display of early-day pictures and antiques contributed much toward the success of the annual school carnival held here Friday evening, according to Supt. B. F. Tunnell and others in charge of the entertainment.

Awards were given for the most interesting antiques exhibited, and in an identification contest in the picture booth. In the auditorium show prizes were also given in an amateur contest.

First place in the amateur contest went to a girl's trio, "The Hill Billy Girls" comprised of Dorothy Wason, Junella Jackson and Wanda Nelson, accompanied at the piano by Johnnie Belle Willis; second-place winners were Herbert Garth and James Price in a "live banjo" act, in which Herbert sang and James accompanied with vocal imitation banjo music; third place was won by Dorothy Tra-week for a solo, with Miss Mable Jameson as accompanist. Honorable mention was given John Ketchersid for an animal imitations act.

Exhibits Are Popular

Much interest was evidenced in the antique display and the old time picture exhibits, both being new features of the carnival this year.

More than a hundred early-day pictures were on display, with twenty-five being used in a contest for identification purposes. Winners were: Mrs. E. F. Springer, who made 22 1/2 points out of the possible 25; Mrs. John Hamilton, a close runner-up for second place with 21 1/2 points, and Dr. Albert Tra-week Jr. winning third place with 20 1/2 points. Miss Mary Keith, chairman of the exhibit was assisted in gathering of material by Mesdames James Neblett and Ben Meador, and Mrs. U. L. Willie, who so ably conducted the booth.

Interesting Antiques

The aspect of the antique room was that of a museum on a small scale, with over a hundred old, interesting and priceless treasures of a past era on display. Adding charm to the atmosphere were Mesdames Ray Patton and John Hamilton attired in wedding gowns of pioneer brides, and Mrs. Mae McKenzie who wore an old-fashioned riding habit, complete with boots, divided skirt, and shirt-waist, and carrying a hand-made quilt.

Mrs. Hamilton modeled the dress worn by Mrs. D. C. Kieth at her wedding over half a century ago, while Mrs. Patton wore the wedding dress of her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Moore. Both gowns were of light wool material and were almost identical in style and size. Mrs. Kieth's being gray and Mrs. Moore's ivory.

Mrs. W. R. Tilson won first place in the display with a coverlet which was brought by an ancestor, to this country on the Mayflower.

Second place went to Mrs. M. L. Patton for a spinning wheel owned by Mr. Patton's mother. Great interest centered about the antique as Mrs. Patton, assisted by Mrs. W. T. Patton, Mrs. D. C. Kieth and Mrs. A. D. Burleson, corded a roll of cotton and spun it into thread for the benefit of the spectators.

A copy of the New York Herald dated April 15, 1865, containing the report of Lincoln's assassination, was awarded third prize. It was owned by Mrs. I. N. Plumlee.

Mrs. Marvin Patton, chairman of the antique committee, was assisted by Mesdames M. J. Reilly, Mae McKenzie and Charlotte Hunsucker.

Pied Pinions

BY MRS. J. M.

Possibly no greater sermon has been enacted since the crucifixion of Christ, than the great sacrifice of human lives on Bataan Peninsula. One could not help but be deeply stirred by the program over the radio Sunday in which a reporter, who had just returned home after a miraculous escape from the doomed fortress, was interviewed. In almost reverent tones he recounted several experiences during his stay on the island. In one instance he related that during an unusually heavy bombardment by the enemy, he found himself praying; and at the same time became aware that an officer with whom he was sharing shelter, was praying even louder than himself.

"There are no atheists in the foxholes of Bataan" the reporter stated simply in conclusion.

Highlight of the program of the Panhandle Press Association which met in Amarillo Friday and Saturday, was the program Friday afternoon prepared and presided over by ladies of the association; and hit of the program was Mrs. W. A. Salter, publisher of the Kerville Mountain Sun, who traveled the greatest distance of any attendant at the convention.

Mrs. Salter was left a widow with a young son to rear, while still a young woman, and, as she pointed out, with such a charge there was nothing to do but continue with the business which was her husband's chosen profession.

Mrs. Salter's talk consisted principally of "tips" to other young women who might someday become publishers of newspapers, some of which were: "Don't put yourself in a man's shoes... don't try to be one of the boys; leave that to the girls who can hide behind their husband's good name." She admitted that a great many men "wouldn't like to work for a woman," but said the "score is even, because there are a lot of men I wouldn't want working for me."

She pointed out that being a woman publisher has its drawbacks because women can't engage in much conviviality so attractive to men, "but," she added, "we have our moments — the aid societies are left for us."

Mrs. Salter said women editors find it difficult to advise girl journalism students on what to attain, particularly since most of them "want to be Dorothy Thompson's or some of these other female Winchells."

Dear Ben,
 I hope you are well and getting along fine. I want to thank you again for the paper. I sure enjoy it every time it comes. I am pretty busy but there is lots going on here. I still find more and more Texans. It certainly does help to be among so many from our own state. I am glad that most everyone is doing his or her part back on the home front. I feel that those buying defense stamps and bonds and those working in the Red Cross are doing a great part in carrying on the war. I thank God everyday for the great country we are fighting for and I look forward with a great deal of hope for the final winning of the war by the Allies. There is really not much I can write that would interest you. I wish you and yours a happy Easter and a pleasant summer.

Sincerely yours,
 Knox Jameson
