Scrap Rubber Drive Hits Stride

Filling Stations Lead Campaign That May Avert Threatened Gas Rationing

WAR-CRAZED AXIS LEADERS have no way of measuring the American public. That unity is this nation's secret weapon was demonstrated in this West Texas city Monday morning as the county-wide appeal to salvage scrap rubber received response.

Filling stations of the major oil companies took the lead in sifting ashes of our past era of ease and plenty, to gird a nation stampeded to war. Attics and closets were sifted for rubber-soled shoes, girdles, discarded hot-water bottles. Rubber garden hose was uncovered from store-rooms; rubber dolls, old inter-tubes and the precious material used in a thousand ways to cushion our lives were salvaged. Old automobile tires, regardless of age and condition are the greatest source of scrap rubber. The drive has only started. By the week-end local representatives of the major oil companies believe the collections of the past three days may be doubled. It is believed the greatest source of rubber may exist in and about rural homes. Old tires about flower-beds, around trees, cut-in-two and used for chicken-troughs, in barns and smokehouses may hasten victory of the Allied nations.

Mercury Rockets To New High Mark

Heat fanned by a scorching, dry wind out of the southwest sent the mercury rocketing to 110 degrees here yesterday to establish a record for the year.

Gardens and lawns wilted under the blazing sun, however farmers declared the weather ideal for growing cotton. Cotton planting is practically completed over the county and rainfall would be to the advantage of crop prospects and also improve general range conditions.

Singers To Observe Golden Anniversary

A little band of pioneers met at Whiteflat community in 1892 and organized the Motley County Singing Convention. Today it is the county's oldest active organization and plans are being made for a golden anniversary observance at the Whiteflat Baptist church on Sunday, June 28.

F. M. Casey, president, declared that attempts are being made to have as many charter members present as possible. He said that W. J. Whitworth of Flomot was the only member he knew who had retained continuous affiliation with the group for its half-century of existence.

Program features will include the singing of old songs, dinner on the grounds, charter-member and homecoming tributes.

New Selectee Induction Plan Effective July 10

MEN entering the army through Selective Service after July 10, will be assured a two-week furlough at government expense, to begin immediately after acceptance for army service, according to a statement released last week by General J. Watt Page, state director of Selective Service.

"The new arrangement," General Page, said, "replaces the present system of granting inductees ten-day furloughs upon request and is expected to eliminate any injustice which might occur to men inducted immediately following physical examination by the army."

"Although every attempt has been made to grant 10-day furloughs upon request, there have been instances when such requests were denied and in other cases inductees were unable to pay their transportation to return home. As the new system calls for immediate release of all men who wish to return home and payment of travel expense by the army, there can be no discrimination against any inductee."

Traveling At Army Expense
"The army will furnish transportation, meals and lodging of such reservist en route to the city in which the local board is located and from that point to the reception center."

"In the case of inducted men who do desire to return to their homes the following procedure will be followed at the induction station:

"1. The inducted men will be transferred immediately to the enlisted reserve corps and will be given an order to proceed to the city in which his local board is located.

"2. At the same time an order will be issued recalling him to active service on a certain date and ordering him to proceed on that date from the city which the local board is located to designated reception center for duty. The normal period between transfer to the enlisted reserve corps and recall to active service will be 14 days. The period may be extended (See NEW PLAN Back Page)

Crops Are Damaged By Hail

The full fury of a hail storm fell on an area south of the river and east of the highway at Roaring Springs last Sunday night, June 14. Very little rain fell with this hail that followed two days of colder-than-usual weather.

Some of the farmers in this area whose young crops were entirely beaten down were: Guy Thacker, Albert Rushing, P. H. McDorman, Owen Williams, J. D. Green, and O. L. Bearden. H. H. Campbell, of Matador, also stated that part of his crops would have to be replanted.

Lesser damage was inflicted on adjacent farms; and in other sections of the county no damage of consequence was apparent.

No crop insurance can be realized, since there is yet time to plant more cotton and feed-stuffs.

Registration For Youths Set June 30

Austin, June 12.—General J. Watt Page, state selective service director announced today that approximately 220,000 Texans between the ages 18 and 20 inclusive will be registered June 30.

"This fifth registration will complete the inventory of the nation's potential manpower, although, under current policy, men under 20 are not subject to induction for combat duty," Gen. Page said.

All men who were born on or after Jan. 1, 1922, and on or before June 30, 1924, must register between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. on Tuesday, June 30, he stated, cautioning all who register to list their correct addresses where official communications will reach them without delay.

"Local boards will officially designate places of registration in their particular areas," the director explained.

New Federal Car Tax Stamps Are Now On Sale

New $5 federal automobile tax stamps went on sale throughout the nation last week. Postmaster E. F. Springer said that sale here was slow but that he expected a "boom" during the next two weeks since the stamps must be on all automobiles by June 30.

Sale of the "good for a year" stamps are expected to reach an approximate 700 to 800, or slightly less than the $2.09 variety.

Federal car stamps now on sale in Matador and other postoffices of the county have the adhesive on the face, which is expected to eliminate some difficulty car owners experienced with the $2.09 stamp. The new stamps also bear serial numbers.

Representatives of the federal government indicate this new federal levy on cars will be made for the duration.

A ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Mavinee Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Russell of Matador, and Earnest Cullison of Houston, was performed Saturday evening at sunset, in the First Baptist Church here.

Vows were exchanged before Rev. W. B. Vaughn, pastor of the First Methodist Church here, who officiated in the single-ring ceremony, the bride's family and a few close friends. Mrs. G. E. Hamilton played the traditional wedding marches and also soft music during the ceremony.

The church altar was decorated with flowers and fern as a background for the first wedding to be performed in the new Baptist Church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a navy blue crepe suit, with blue and white accessories. For "something old" she carried a handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother who had carried it at her own wedding forty-seven years ago. For "something borrowed," she wore a brooch belonging to Mrs. A. D. (Mother) Burleson. She carried a white satin prayer book covered with a bouquet of white carnations, with white satin ribbon streamers tied with tiny chrysanthemums.

Miss Bennie Wayne Marshall, maid of honor, wore a red, white and blue dress with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of sweetpeas. Guy Kimbell Jr. of Whiteflat, was best man.

Guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Tunnell, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ezzell, Judge G. E. Hamilton and Mesdames Roy Bishop, R. E. Campbell Sr., and Charlie Parks all of Matador and Mrs. Morris Parks of Dumont.

Pied Pinions

BY MR. J. M.

Aviation Cadet, Rep. Paul Eubank, now stationed at Pensacola, Florida, sends home to friends, a little mimeographed sheet called "Propwash," which contains the following Japanese Parable:

"My son," said the properly indoctrinated Japanese father, "we know how many things are not true. They tell us untruths who say that Americans can fly over Nippon. It is untrue that when they do fly over, they can drop bombs. It is false when we hear that these bombs can start fires. We know this, do we not?"

"But, my son when you hear those planes that are not there; when you see the bombs that cannot fall; when you feel the flames that cannot start—then forget all truths and untruths. Fetch the water pails and the sand buckets, otherwise we shall be living in a house that is not here. Do you understand?"

The Tactless Texas—Gene Howe of the Amarillo Daily News, picks up very interesting stories in his travels. Having been in the east for the past two weeks and visited in Washington, D. C., going on to New York, he writes about the country's No. 1 Best Sport who is said to live in New York.

According to Mr. Howe, this man paid $500.00 to the navy relief fund so that his wife, a middle-aged mother, could kiss Cary Grant. It was one of the stunts of the caravan of Hollywood movie stars who stopped briefly in Amarillo. It seems that she later stated that she had never imagined that a single kiss could be so "exquisite, so enthralling, so ennobling, so wholly satisfying to her romantic urges of a lifetime." She said she would willingly pay $5,000 for another—$5,000 of her husband's money.

"Another New Yorker," Mr. Howe relates further, "a bachelor, paid $1,000 for the privilege of kissing Claudette Colbert. He merely gave her a peck. But when the women kissed Cary Grant, for so much per kiss, they received their money's worth. The women insisted on really movie kisses."

Now as never before, it behooves the people of this country to take expert care of all clothing, and we are warned on every hand to take proper precautions to store all woollens away from moths. Now, we learn of a rayon vampire.

Being more or less plagued by bugs and insects of various descriptions, we were especially interested in a paragraph which appeared recently in a national magazine, warning of the destructive habits of "silver fish"—those slender, wingless insects, which glide in and out of places. It seems that they eat rayon like moths eat wool, and since a large percentage of our clothing today either contain rayon, or are made entirely of it, the information is timely.

It appears further that these are scholarly little creatures, as they also eat books and book-bindings. They are usually found in warm, damp basements, store rooms and attics.

The easiest way to get rid of silver fish is to exterminate them

Children's visitors Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas, A. B. Simpson and Edd Thompson.

Mrs. O. B. Kincanon, who has been visiting her husband, who is in the Navy at Little Creek, Va., returned here Friday. She was accompanied by her sister-in-law and baby, Mrs. Marvin Thompson from Fort Worth. They will return home the latter part of the week where Mrs. Kincanon is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bethany and son Gene, and Mrs. Allan Thomas and children are visiting with relatives in New Mexico over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Loter and Mr. and Mrs. Delno Payne and children of Wellington visited relatives here Wednesday night.

By using a poison bait consisting of 1 1/2 cups of oatmeal ground to flour; 1/4 teaspoon of arsenic; 1/2 teaspoon of sugar and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. In storing clothes, moth crystals will be effective in discouraging silver fish, even though they will not kill them.

A further admonition with reference to the care of clothing to receive the maximum amount of wear, was handed out recently by a local tailor who advised, when pressing garments at home, always have it turned wrong-side out, even though pressing with a cloth or paper. This eliminates any chance of a shiny surface, besides affording protection to the fabric.

It isn't enough that my poor old joints and muscles have ached and protested at the least movement ever since I went through the motions of ridding my sweet peas of a surplus of morning-glory sprouts; not to mention the excruciating urge to succumb to a thorough cuffing of chigger hills all over my anatomy, but to have new morning-glories spring up by the thousands over-night is just too much.

Agriculturalists possibly would have me believe that the new enemy crop was the result of the thorough cultivation which the weeding-out process afforded, but it has all the appearance of sabotage to me, pure and simple.

NOONDAY MEALS SERVED TEXAS SCHOOL CHILDREN TOTAL 28,000,000 FOR YEAR

Twenty-eight million hot, nutritious noon meals were served to Texas children by WPA school lunch workers during the academic year just closed, it was reported today by Mrs. M. K. Taylor, state director of WPA service activities.

Included in this number, were school children from Motley county, as lunch rooms were placed in WPA units in the Roaring Springs, Flomot and Matador schools, early in the year last fall.

Practical experience in large-scale food preservation and mass feeding was gained by 7,000 WPA workers, Mrs. Taylor pointed out, emphasizing the importance of this training in the event of wartime emergency.

Evidence of the ability of school lunch program workers to perform under disaster conditions was offered in April when WPA workers and volunteers served meals to as many as 1,500 persons following the catastrophic Crowell tornado. Food was utilized in preparing meals which were served to storm victims from the court house lawn and the Crowell school lunch room.

During March, peak month of operations, 2,528 Texas schools participated in the school lunch program. A quarter of a million Texas school children were served during the year, virtually doubling the participation figure for the previous year.

Summer stress is placed on the cultivation of 2,500 acres of WPA gardens in 126 counties, Mrs. Taylor stated, and on the operation of canneries where more than 8 million pounds of vegetables will be conserved for use in school lunch rooms next year.

This locally-grown produce, food supplied by the Agricultural Marketing Administration from surplus crops, and items supplied by interested local organizations are used in the preparation of balanced meals for students.

Rubber Drive

tailment of automobile and truck use in Texas would cause an economic crisis, according to many observers. Here in Matador the oil and gasoline business considered directly and indirectly has provided almost the only payroll source in the past seven years.

Lions Start Rubber Pool Lions directors meeting at the Magnolia Cafe Monday morning, immediately sponsored the rubber salvage program and started a Lions Club rubber pool at the rear of the Matador Auto Ford agency. Money received from this scrap collection will be used by the club's general fund. Tail Twister Henry Ford announced to the membership Tuesday that "every one of you had better make a contribution to that pool, or I will fine you enough to make up the difference."

"Find about a million tons of scrap rubber or face nationwide gasoline rationing." This is the alternative oil men see in President Roosevelt's announcement of a nationwide scrap rubber collecting campaign.

Largest collection of scrap rubber in Matador is at Bob's Oil Well filling station operating under the Continental Oil Company banner. Phillips Petroleum Company-operated station, Magnolia Service Station and Mission Gas and Oil Company (Texaco) are all buying large quantities.

County Judge Makes Appeal County Judge W. R. Cammack, who is also chairman of the County Coordinating Committee, makes an appeal to every resident to salvage every article made of rubber and take it to the nearest filling station.

W. I. Rushing, county chairman of the Texas Salvage Committee, received the following telegram from Geo. P. Butler of the state office at Austin:

"President Roosevelt has directed that an all-out nation wide rubber salvage campaign begin at 7:20 A. M. June 15 and continue until midnight June 30. The President asks every American citizen who has reclaimable rubber, to take it to the nearest gasoline filling station where it will be purchased at the uniform price of one penny per pound. The oil industry has agreed to make available all of its personal facilities including its filling stations and bulk plants which will be used as collection depots. All company trucks will pick up rubber from filling stations, paying them at the same

Government May Buy Private Cars

ST. LOUIS:—The federal government may buy automobiles from private owners who voluntarily offer them for sale. It was disclosed last week. The disclosure was made during a discussion of the rubber shortage and the gasoline situation in the "town meeting of the air" over the blue network. Jack Garrett Scott, general counsel of the Office of Defense Transportation, said in answer to a question that his agency was attempting now to make immediate arrangements for sale to the government of automobiles which motorists, for one reason or another, wish to dispose of.

rate of one penny per pound. Will you and your committee work in cooperation with the oil industry's local representatives in this drive. You and your committee will want to do everything in your power to stimulate the flow of reclaimable rubber to the gasoline stations and all bulk plants.

"For your information the oil industry will sell the rubber collected, to the Rubber Reserve Company, a subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The oil industry will turn over to National Headquarters of U. S. O., Army Relief, Navy Relief, and the American Red Cross on an equal basis, any receipts in excess of purchase price. There will be no profit to the oil industry.

"Reclaimable rubber which is acceptable will include all types of rubber except battery boxes and parts thereof and tire beads. Metal, wood and leather should be removed from such articles as leather shoes, baby buggy tires, etc. Gov. Stevenson is requesting the mayors of all Texas cities to issue statements in form of Proclamation supporting this campaign. Please use every possible means of publicity to get this campaign across, and be sure to supply this office with accurate information as to the amount of rubber collected during the drive, which will in turn be sent to the Governor's office and reported by him directly to the President of the United States."

Mrs. Lucille Cooper, who is employed in Amarillo, visited here Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meador.

Plum Twig Is Like Cluster Of Grapes

Unusual production of fine Opta plums was displayed at the Tribune office Tuesday by Mrs. N. E. Davis of the Darden Canyon community. Approximately 100 plums were counted on the twig about 18 inches in length and broken from a tree in the Davis orchard. The large green plums appeared like a cluster of grapes. Plums from the orchard are advertised elsewhere in the Tribune.

Mrs. Davis said the orchard contains about 100 young Opta plum trees.

ACCIDENTS OCCUR AT HOMES

Accidents occurred in two homes in north Matador this week, in the same neighborhood, with minor injuries sustained in each case. Mrs. J. E. Russell is confined to her bed as the result of a fall Monday afternoon as she worked in the back yard. She is being treated for severe back strain.

Janice West, 5 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert West received bruises to the elbow on her left arm when her hand became caught in the wringer of the washing machine Tuesday afternoon as her mother was washing.

NEW PLAN

or shortened by not to exceed two days in an order to meet processing schedules at Reception Centers, or to prevent Sunday travel."

"Discussing the elimination of injustices, General Page said: "Many of the disadvantages of the present system will be eliminated in the new procedure. Every man who wishes to return to his home will be given the opportunity to do so without being required to establish his reasons for returning. Investigation and recommendation by the local board is no longer necessary. Reservists are released from active service at the induction station instead of the reception center. They travel at government expense in local board groups under an appointed leader."

Another feature of the present system which will be eliminated by the new procedure, General Page said, will be possible delay between the time a man is inducted and the time he is granted a furlough. Under the new procedure, the transfer to the Enlisted Reserve Corps will occur on the same day that the man is inducted and there is no likelihood that he will have to wait two to five days before he can return to his home as sometimes happens under the present system.

Local boards will co-operate with the armed forces in every way possible by providing a place of assembly for the departing reservists, by arranging transportation facilities and by taking care of other necessary details such as advising the commanding officer of the reception center of the route and time of departure of reservists and the number of men in contingents, General Page said.
