Legislator to Be Naval Flier

State Representative Elwyn Paul Eubank, 27, of Matador, Texas, expects to be ordered to the Grand Prairie naval base for training as a naval aviation cadet about the middle of January, following his enlistment at the selective board in Dallas. Here, Representative Eubank is being sworn in by Lieut. Com. Barry Holton at the offices of the board.

Year's Summary Shows Scope Of Farm Benefits

In summarizing work performed by the Motley County Agricultural office from Jan. 1 to Nov. 1, 1941, reports show that 818 farm visits were made on 320 farms of this county. Sixty-nine meetings were held with a total of over 1100 persons attending, according to County Agent J. Rufus Emmons.

Forty 4-H Club boys enrolled with 33 complete records; 176 days were devoted to field work; 101 days to office and meetings; 78 days devoted to 4-H Club work; and livestock work included 109 days.

Club youths fed local calves on home-grown feed, with 34 animals amounting to 33,400 pounds of beef. The meat, selling at an average of $11.35 per 100 pounds, totaled $3,790.90. Eleven pigs produced 2500 pounds of pork, sold at $230.00.

Most valuable work performed by the Motley County Game Management Association was its influence in securing a federal trapper for the county. The Matador Land & Cattle Co. is paying $40 per month, and the association provides remainder of the salary, which is collected from dues and $1.00 per head bounty on coyotes.

Many Coyotes Captured
Employment of a trapper was one of the most pressing problems of the Land Use Planning Committee as several young calves, many sheep and poultry were lost due to coyotes. Over 350 coyotes have been caught in the county since May, including several half-breed dogs captured by Federal Trapper H. W. Fite.

Most outstanding work done by the Extension Service for ranchers was introduction of the screw worm smear No. 62, perfected by the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, and now handled by local drug stores. This has been a drastic year for screw worms, and due to an abundance of mesquites and tall weeds, ranchers have had difficulty in locating cattle.

A. B. SIMPSON IS CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

The Tribune is authorized to announce the name of A. B. Simpson of Northfield, as candidate for re-election to the office of county commissioner, precinct three, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, July 25, 1942.

Mr. Simpson needs no introduction to the voters of his precinct, having lived in the county during his entire lifetime and serving as commissioner where he has been active in rendering distinctive service to his county and his precinct.

With regard to his announcement, Mr. Simpson said, "I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the voters of my precinct for their confidence in electing me to this office. In event of re-election I promise to continue the same policy which I have followed in the past and attempt to render as much service to my precinct and my country, as possible. "I will appreciate the vote and support of everyone during this campaign."

All members are urged to attend the first meeting in the new year and establish a criterion. Much important business will be brought before the club and an interesting program is assured.

Matador is assured of being represented at the Zone meeting to be held at Canyon on January 5, when International President George Jordan will be the featured speaker.

Approval has been announced of an order for a white cane to be presented to J. C. (Lum) Collett, pioneer resident of Roaring Springs.

Youths In Pacific Are Reported Safe

The most appreciated Christmas message received by Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Reinhardt arrived on December 26 in the form of a radiogram. It was the first communication received from their son, Pvt. Malcolm T. Reinhardt, Jr., stationed at Fort Mills, Philippine Islands, since the war began.

The radiogram read as follows: "I wish I might be with you to wish you in person a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Attention of the world is focused toward Fort Mills, located on the island fortress of Corregidor, which guards the only sea-lane to Manila. Corregidor will probably be the center of activity in the decisive battle for the Philippines.

Also, word has been received from Pvt. Audie Alsup for the first time since the attack on Pearl Harbor, where Alsup is stationed. The "All's well" message was received by Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Alsup on Tuesday.

MILFORD COOPER INJURED BY SAW

Milford Cooper is recovering from a cut on the right foot which occurred Tuesday of last week when his foot became entangled in an automatic ice saw at Leon Ice Company, where he is employed. Five stitches were required for the injury.

Mr. Cooper is at work now and did not lose any time because of the accident. He was injured by the identical saw and in the same manner in which Rudolph Renfro lost his foot some time ago.

Mr. Eggleston has been operating a filling station at Quanah for the past three years and offers the motoring public experienced service with assurance of satisfaction in all departments. In addition to a full line of gasolines and lubricating oils, the service will also include tire repair and washing and greasing.

Mr. and Mrs. Eggleston have returned to Matador to make this their future home.

Tumble Weed Is Cause Of Wreck

Damage estimated at $87 occurred to the automobile of Raymond Barber, when he escaped injury Wednesday night near Paducah as the machine hit a concrete bridge bannister.

Barber, en route to his brother's wedding at Crowell, applied brakes on the car to avoid hitting a tumbleweed which he thought was an animal in his path. The machine slid on the wet pavement and hit the bridge.

Births, Deaths, Nuptials Decline

The Stork's visit to Motley County are definitely on the decline, according to vital statistics records of County Clerk R. A. Seay. During the year which closed last night, 82 births, including 49 boys and 33 girls, occurred. In 1939 a total of 110 births were reported, as compared to 107 in 1940.

There is also a marked decrease in deaths in the county, there having been only 23 during 1941, as compared to 45 in 1940.

Marriage licenses issued here also fell from 60 in 1940 to 53 during the past year.

Farm Pay Is $140,584.50 During Year

Motley county farmers received a total of $140,584.50 in federal payments during the year of 1941, according to figures supplied by J. Rufus Emmons, county agent.

Mr. Emmons said that the greater part of the money, $104,164.94 was paid as parity, while the balance of $36,419.56 was the total conservation payments for the year.

Mr. Emmons said that all payments were now in and delivered with the exception of a shipment of conservation checks amounting to $2,018.39, that were received early this week.

POST OFFICE ENDS CHRISTMAS RUSH

Approximately 12,000 stamps were sold here during the Christmas rush, Postmaster E. F. Springer stated. Also the volume of business was virtually the same as last year's, more Christmas cards and less packages went thru the office.

December 22 was the peak rush day, whereas the 1940 climax was reached on December 19.

Mr. Springer calls attention to a reduction in air-mail rates, which are now six cents for one-half ounce for mail sent to enlisted persons in any United States army or navy unit, both in this country and abroad. Formerly, rates on letters to Puerto Rico, Alaska, or the Philippines ranged from ten to forty cents per half ounce.

Sale of defense and postal saving stamps and bonds has increased almost 400% since the war emergency, said Mr. Springer.

Matador's basketball team will meet another test of its undefeated conference season when it battles the Spur team at the school gymnasium of that city at 8 o'clock Friday night.

The Matadors will play the Floydada squad at the local gymnasium at 7:30 Tuesday night. This game will perhaps be a decisive factor in determining the district basketball winner. Matador and Floydada both had the top football teams in this district and indications are that the basketball squads will be rated highly.

ARE RECOVERING

Miss Dorothy Rattan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Rattan, is recovering from a tonsillectomy performed Wednesday.

Mrs. R. F. Kell of Flomot underwent a major surgical operation at Richard's Memorial Hospital, Paducah, Saturday.

Appointments Are Made In Organized State-Wide Setup

Initial steps toward Motley County's all-out home defense preparations are being taken this week with appointment of officials by County Judge W. R. Cammack for participation in various phases of the state-wide program.

The aircraft warning service, which is being organized for the U. S. Army, is an information source thru which the Army will receive reports of approaching planes. Four observation posts will be located thruout the county with the following chief observers at each post: John Bourland, Flomot; Ed Jameson, Jr., Whiteflat; L. B. (Bob) Robertson, Matador; and Antone Freeman, Jr., Roaring Springs.

Two post organizers to oversee the stations have been appointed. M. S. Patton will be in charge of Matador and Roaring Springs posts, with Ernest McWilliams organizer of the Whiteflat and Flomot stations.

If a threat of enemy air raids becomes eminent in the Southwestern United States, the government will proclaim a state of emergency and order observers to a 24-hour duty. A corps of 15 to 20 volunteers are needed for each post.

In event an unknown plane is sighted in the county, the War Department at Austin would immediately be notified by wire.

Will Keep Records

C. A. Pitts has been appointed Chief of Voluntary Participation, whose duty is to keep a record of all volunteer registration for various phases of the defense system. Persons volunteering for service will fill out registration cards, giving names, addresses, age, and an indication of the type of service they might render.

The air raid warning system is a police function, created for the purpose of transmitting to the civilian populace the "alerts" and orders issued by the Army.

This system is being organized here thru Sheriff H. H. Courtney, under direction of Judge Cammack, county coordinator, and Mayor George Edwards, municipal defense coordinator. Technical

Shelterbelts To Be Planted In County

Shelterbelt plantings for the Childress District will include 206,000 trees during 1942 and will be used to plant approximately 30 miles of new shelterbelts.

The trees are being heeled-in for planting crews at Matador, Paducah, Childress, and Memphis, and five miles of shelterbelts will be planted in this county.

Unprecedented rains during the past year have made conditions ideal for planting, and plans are underway to plant the trees as soon as possible while moisture conditions are so favorable.

Shelterbelts will be planted under a simple agreement between the Forest Service and landowners, according to the county agricultural office. The landowner must consent to prepare land for plantings; protect trees from rodents, cattle, fire, and other destructive agencies; and to cultivate trees in early stages of growth.

The Forest Service agrees to furnish and plant the trees without cost to the landowner; furnish poison baits for controlling rodents; and provide technical assistance and advice as desired and needed.

Corn Meal, America's Cereal, Declared Good Energy Food, On 'Blue Stamp' List

Definite progress is being made in the county and the nation to improve the diets of everyone according to Carl Minor, Chairman of the Floyd Food Industry committee.

The Surplus Marketing administration and other federal agencies he said, in cooperation with farmers, food industry and private business are conducting an educational campaign stressing the value of proper diets. He pointed out that the "Blue Stamp" food list of the Surplus Marketing Administration provided many health-building foods. Corn meal is one of the "blue stamp" foods and the use of it not only helps bring prosperity to agriculture but add nutritive food to the daily diet.

According to studies made by the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, corn meal is good energy food. Like other meals and flours made from cereal grains, it supplies energy and adds something to the protein, vitamin and mineral diet. Whole ground corn meal, because it contains the bran and the germ is richer in iron and vitamin B1 than refined corn meal. Yellow corn meal in addition, has some vitamin A value.

Mr. Minor urges local homemakers to serve more corn meal and if it is a favorite in the family a hot corn meal mush as a breakfast cereal would be more than welcome. Top it as a cereal prepared so the consistency is very smooth and add salt during the long cooking. Other tested recipes recommended by the Bureau of Home Economics using corn meal are:

Molasses Corn Cake
2 cups yellow corn meal,
1/2 cup molasses,
1/2 cup sugar,
2 tablespoons butter,
1 teaspoon salt,
1 cup sour milk,
1 1/2 cups sweet milk,
1 cup flour,
1/4 teaspoon soda,
1 teaspoon baking powder,
1 egg;
Mix the first seven ingredients in a double boiler and cook over hot water. Cook for about 25 minutes after the mixture has become hot. Cool, add the flour and soda sifted together, and the egg well beaten. Bake in a shallow tin.

Corn Meal Pudding
1 cup corn meal,
1 cup cold water or milk,
2 teaspoons salt,
2 cups hot water or milk,
1 cup raisins or chopped prunes,
1/2 cup sugar,
Nutmeg;
Stir the corn meal into the cold liquid slowly, then add the hot liquid and salt. Wash and cut the dried fruit into small pieces and add to the first mixture with the sugar. Put in a double boiler and

Techsans Prepare For World War II

By Kara Hunsucker

"Knit one, purl two" ... that's the slogan of the average war-minded coed.

Or maybe it's a friendly salutation: "Hi, fellows; have you seen that man who was looking for 'ya'?"

"Yeah, Uncle Sam, you mean?" comes the joking, yet ominous retort.

Many of this county's college students attend Texas Tech at Lubbock, and for this reason the institution might be called representative of all younger generation students from here in various universities thruout the state.

So, parents of college students, perhaps you're wondering about reaction to America's swift entrance into war.

On that Sunday, which began just like any other Sunday, the coeds in Dormitory No. 2 had just filed from the dining-hall at 2 o'clock, and were making their way to some 325 rooms thruout the building. They were laughing; they had been singing Christmas carols during dinner, and everyone was in a gay, happy mood.

Someone turned on a radio. Then it came ... that stunning announcement, the prelude to so many heart-breaking events. "My brother has been in Hawaii for three months," said one girl. "Robert receives his air corps commission next month," remarked another, as she gazed sadly at a diamond ring.

Yes, at first there was a spirit of defeatism; it takes anyone a little while to get used to war; it'll take a little more time before we become accustomed to its horrors, the death reports, the battle upsets.

Pre-holiday hour quizzes were forgotten, as students turned from books to their radios. They almost forgot to eat, as they directed American battle strategy from the dinner-table.

But it wasn't many days, before both feet returned firmly to the Plains tableland. Grimly, they accepted the Nipponese, Nazi, and Fascist challenges.

Many flooded local draft offices, while the click of knitting needles was heard from every dorm room, class-room, and dining-room. Texas Techsans had responded to Democracy's call for help.

During ensuing days, deans of various college divisions called student convocations to discuss the matter. They explained that not only does America need men on the battle-front, but that she needs college-trained men behind the men being the guns.

"The flow of college graduates must not be halted. American industry is calling for engineers. There's a need for agriculturists and home economists with scientific training to keep America's vast millions at home and on the battlefield well-fed and healthy.

"Chemistry students, America needs your well-trained minds to discover new uses for domestic products and substitutes for those materials now unobtainable.

"Girls, you can bolster morale by remaining calm and serving in any capacity for which you are called. You can take an extra-curricular Red Cross first aid course which starts next semester, and learn to care for the sick and wounded at home in case of bombings, because doctors and nurses will be scarce.

"Students of business administration, America needs you, too. There's a cry from Washington for office workers to help in the great war-time rush.

"Education majors, devote yourself more fully to your college work. Even in war, thousands of children will reach school-age, and must learn to read and write.

"Then when Armistice finally sounds, there will be a peace conference, where America will need government experts, analysts, and economists to dictate terms of the treaty, provided she is victorious in her fight to write those terms."

Those were the words they told 4,000 Techsans. Each student will choose his course of action, whether it be enlistment or continuation of education. But wherever they are, American college students will not be sitting idly by. They have a war to fight and a victory to win.

Is Veterans Chairman

Henry Ford has been appointed chairman to organize veterans of the county, who are already trained in discipline and action under fire. These men can no doubt be of great assistance as observers, air raid wardens, or auxiliary firemen.

Another phase not yet organized will include a health and medical division, headed by a designated official, and composed of volunteers who will take first-aid courses and training for nurses aid, home hygiene, etc.

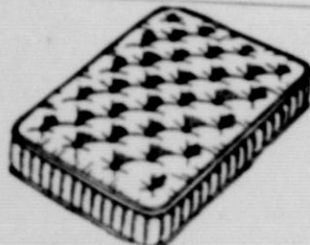

A fire fighting division will be part of the air raid system and will include auxiliary firemen and fire watchers.

Sheriff Courtney will also be in charge of registration of all trucks, busses, and trailers in the county which may be used by the government for transportation of troops or other defense measures in event of an emergency here.

It was pointed out by Judge Cammack that immediate plans call for a temporary list of volunteers to be prepared under direction of Mr. Pitts F. A. Wells, district supervisor for the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission at Amarillo, will then come here to conduct a school of instruction for the volunteers, such as detection of enemy planes, air raid signals, etc.

In Service

GENE WORLEY, Panhandle representative in Congress, yesterday joined the U. S. Navy. Mr. Worley carried out a pledge made during his campaign that if he voted for war he would join the armed forces. The day following his vote for declaration of war Mr. Worley sought enlistment in the army and in the air force, but was refused by both services. In enlisting in the navy he asked for assignment in action. He will be granted a leave of absence by Congress, holding his seat in the House open. His office staff will remain on duty.

Worley Ordered To Navy Post

WASHINGTON.—Carrying out a promise made during his campaign last year, Congressman Eugene Worley, 18th District of Texas, enlisted and was sworn in as a voluntary member of the United States Naval Reserve Corps and was ordered immediately into active duty.

The day Worley voted to declare war on Germany and Italy he sent identical letters to President Roosevelt, as commander-in-chief, to Henry L. Stimson, secretary of war, and to Frank Knox, secretary of the navy, in which he said:

"I respectfully urge you to accept my services in any capacity at any time and in any place in our military or naval forces." The past two weeks have seen Worley turned down by the army, where he attempted to enlist as a buck private, and also rejected by the air corps. In making application to the navy, Worley stated his preference for active service and, in accordance with naval regulations, was commissioned a lieutenant commander in the volunteer branch of the naval reserve.

Worley's predecessor in Congress, Judge Marvin Jones, now sitting on the United States Court of Claims, volunteered his services when he voted to declare war against Germany in 1917, and was elected to a second term, while still serving in the armed forces.

Senator Tom Connally of Texas then a member of the House of Representatives, likewise served in the last war. Several of Worley's colleagues in the present Congress have also entered the military services. Worley said his office would be kept open and that he would remain in as close touch as possible during his service. After a brief period of intensive training in Washington it is anticipated he will be ordered to the West Coast for active duty. Rep. Lyndon Johnson left Washington this week for the Pacific
