funny to watch, but I don't think it would be so funny to experience. I have been lucky so far and haven't fallen, but my fingers are crossed for I might be the next guy to fall.

I want to say thanks again for the paper and also Hello to my buddies in the service and my friends at home.

Best of Luck to you,

PLAINVIEW, May 15—It's now Private Marshall Formby of the U. S. Army. In this district he's still Senator Formby, however.

Private Formby was inducted May 11 at Lubbock and went from there to Fort Sill, Okla. He did not know Saturday (15th) where he would be stationed.

Private Formby, 31, single, did not apply for a commission, but waived the exemption allowed legislators and took the 21-month job.

Private Formby enlisted at Dickens where he registered in the draft. He is a graduate of Texas Technological College and has engaged in newspaper work at Aspermont, Lubbock, Miami, Fla., and at Plainview, coming here a year ago from Dickens county.

The senator-soldier said before leaving here that he had made arrangements for his constituents to contact his Austin office by communicating with Miss Fay Davis who will attend to duties concerning this senatorial district. Miss Davis who is employed in the lieutenant governor's office will be kept informed of Formby's address.

Private Formby's term (in the legislature) does not expire until January of 1945.

"As to my term with Uncle Sam," Formby said, "it will terminate when we have walloped a bunch of gangsters who are trying to strangle the world to death on a lot of 'new orders' we Americans can't stomach."

Pvt. G. W. Fuller visited here Saturday night and Sunday with his wife, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fuller. He was enroute to Miami, Fla., where he is being transferred from Scott Field, Belleville, Illinois.

Pvt. Deward Knight of Fort Bliss, El Paso, is visiting here this week with his mother, Mrs. Bernice Knight.

Pvts. Tom Newman and Ray Sims, both of Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, spent the week-end here visiting friends and relatives.

Pvt. G. B. Thacker of San Antonio, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thacker at Roaring Springs, over the week-end.

A press release from Las Vegas, Nevada, advises that Johnnie D. Davidson of Flomot, has been promoted from the rank of private 1st class, to that of corporal at the Air Corps Gunnery school there. He is a member of the 50th school squadron and is assigned to duty as an airplane mechanic. He is the son of Mrs. J. M. Davidson, Flomot, Corp. Davidson enlisted in the army August 22, 1941 at Lubbock.

Fred G. Simpson Jr., who has been stationed in San Antonio, was recently transferred to a field near Sikeston, Missouri.

Relatives at Roaring Springs have been advised that Turner Hunter has been transferred from Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, to Fort Knox, Kentucky, and that Garlin Murphy is now stationed at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls. Also transferred from Ft. Sill, to Sheppard Field were Charlie Meador and Harvey Campbell, both of Matador.

POWER

... after 10 YEARS of Competition between Two Theories

WE CHEERED, too, when Uncle Sam called on industry to work 24 hours a day, seven days a week, until the war is won.

Continuous production, you see, is nothing new to us. We've always worked that way. It's one big reason why we were prepared to serve the army training camps, the flying schools, and the new war plants in West Texas—all in addition to serving your home and business.

We are proud that our service to you has not suffered despite the unforeseen problems created by the war. We believe that it is a credit to the American way of doing things... a tribute to the American system of free initiative and free enterprise.

The electric industry throughout the nation is providing power where it's needed, when it's needed... more than the combined total of all the enemy nations!

This is in contrast to claims by proponents of socialization who, many months ago, predicted an immediate and disastrous shortage of electric power—and calling for political management rather than business management.

Hundreds of millions of tax dollars were diverted from useful production to subsidize political projects in competition with electric systems already owned by the public (through millions of small stockholders) and regulated by the government.

Countless thousands of tons of strategic materials were wasted in building unnecessary socialized plants and transmission lines that duplicated existing systems adequately serving the public.

Here are the results of this long conflict between two theories—free enterprise as against tax-free competition built with tax dollars:

- Today, in time of America's greatest need, the country's electric operating companies are supplying over 90 per cent of all the power commercially generated;
- Last year they paid $510,000,000 in taxes, enough money to equip 2,400,000 soldiers or build 9,273 fighting planes;
- The average home now gets over twice as much electricity for its money as it did 15 years ago.

It represents American genius at its best. In little more than two generations, an "experiment," at which wisecracks scoffed, has become indispensable in American homes and in America's war effort.

It has been possible simply because America's electric companies have been built and operated the American way—by good business management.

Life Of Composer Studied By Club

The life of Carrie Jacobs Bond, and dramatization of songs written by her were included in an interesting program given before El Progreso Study Club members in the home of Mrs. L. C. Harp Thursday afternoon of last week.

Program quotation was: "Personality is to a man what perfume is to a flower."

Following a paper on the life of the composer by Mrs. Harp program leader, a dramatization of the song, "I Love You Truly" was given by little Miss Lucretia Edwards as the bride, and Master Thomas Hamilton as the bridegroom, as Mesdames G. E. Hamilton and Freeman Thacker sang the number.

A reading, "That Was a Long Time Ago," by Mrs. J. R. Whitworth, was followed by dramatization of "The End of a Perfect Day," with Mesdames G. C. Springer and Whitworth as the vocalists, and little Miss Nancy Lou Vaughn and Master Danny Solomon portraying a little old gray-headed couple. A paper, "Making the most of yourself," by Mrs. Joe Bloodworth, concluded the program.

Other members present were: Mesdames A. J. Daffern, Mae McKenzie, J. L. Moore, A. C. Tra-week Jr., John Hamilton, and Henry Solomon, and Miss Mary Keith.

O. E. S. Delegates Attend School Of Instruction Friday

A school of instruction, Grand Chapter of Texas, O. E. S. held at Memphis, Texas Friday, was attended by a delegation of members from Matador chapter No. 66.

Mrs. Thelma Dirickson, Worthy Matron, and Mrs. G. E. Hamilton, attended the opening session of the school Friday morning, returning home in the early afternoon. Mrs. Dirickson as "Adah" was on the morning program.

The Matador Chapter was represented in the initiation officers for the night session by Mrs. Margaret Whitworth as "Esther," and Mrs. Lucy Ford as "Martha." Also in attendance at this session were Henry Ford, Mrs. Allie Cox, Mrs. Jewel Harp and Mrs. Dirickson.

Eight grand officers of Texas were honored guests for the occasion.

Mrs. Dirickson received a A certificate in an examination of the work. Another local member who recently received a certificate, is Mrs. Corine Drace, who received a B certificate at a similar school held in San Angelo.

Club Entertainment Pays For War Bond

Proceeds of a War Bond Program, given by the Stitch and Chatter Sewing Club of Flomot, Tuesday evening of last week, were used to purchase a war bond, and plans are being made by the club, to present another entertainment in the near future.

The program Tuesday evening consisted of four short plays, all comedies including several "darky" acts. Highlight of the performance was a "Style Show," in which women's styles in hats, street, evening and night clothing were modeled by men, volunteering in the roles.

Contributions amounted to $47.15, it was disclosed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee visited relatives in McLean Friday and Saturday.

Jim Van Dyke and daughter, Helen, left Sunday for Phoenix, Arizona, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Ernest Shearer and small son of Amarillo, visited here this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell.

Melvin Meason, J. D. Craven, Alvin Stearns and Cecil Shelton made a fishing trip to Lake Kemp over the week-end.

Campbells Receive Gift From Church

In appreciation of their loyalty and service to the Baptist Church, the local membership recently tendered a silver coffee and tea service to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Campbell.

Presentation of the gift was made by Mrs. A. D. (Mother) Burleson, at the close of special Mother's Day services last Sunday and she expressed the sentiments of the entire congregation when she declared, "We feel we never would have had this lovely new building, had it not been for Mr. Campbell's untiring efforts."

Mrs. Campbell has been a loyal worker in the church and has served as general W. M. U. chairman, and assisted in both Sunday School and B. T. U. work. Mr. Campbell has been Sunday School superintendent for the past twelve years, and the church feels that credit for the new edifice is due to his leadership. He acted as architect, supervised the construction and in addition to monetary contributions, assisted in the actual labor, donating his services from the beginning of the work until it was finished.

The exterior of the structure was finished this spring with tile and stucco. The interior has been completed for almost four years.

Pied 'Pinions BY MR.S. M.

A Motley county youth, accustomed to the "wide open spaces" of West Texas, now in the armed forces and stationed in a camp located in the timbered lowlands of Florida, writes home that there one can see in only two directions: straight up, or straight out—through the gate!

Since it has been said if dogs and children like you, that is a favorable index to a commendable character, we feel highly gratified at a little note of thanks received this week from a high school graduate, which reads in part: "...I shall always remember how kind you are to children, and shall always love you dearly."

And now, as if all the worry over sugar rationing, transportation possibilities, and this new ceiling price wrinkle were not enough to faze a body, I have to get all wrought up over a new situation; the housing problem, for instance.

I'm in a quandary as to whether to choose a certain 11-room Italian Renaissance home advertised for sale "In Star-studded Brentwood Heights, hemmed in by homes of Nelson Eddy, Lana Turner, Doris Kenyon, Fred MacMurray, Deanna Durbin and Henry Fonda," or a Mediterranean style shack on a 19-acre estate in Redlands, California, boasting among other things of "3 master bedrooms, 5 baths, 2 servants' rooms, and bath; 15 acres Washington naval oranges; 4 acres surrounding house artistically landscaped with gardens, swimming pool and fountains; 37 varieties of fruit and ornamental trees; over 200 rose bushes and trees; garage, caretaker's house and storage barn."

The S-S home has only 3 bedrooms and sunroom, with 3 1/2 (?) baths upstairs; but downstairs—just listen to this—"Hand-decorated beam ceilings, gorgeous Italian colored tiling, two big fireplaces, communication system, mirrored powder room, unique barbecue-rumpus hut and a photo dark room." This one can be bought for a song—to the tune of $35,000 for a home that cost nearly $90,000! (But wouldn't it be worth it to be hemmed in by MacMurray, Eddy and Fonda.)

Program Given At Meeting Of G. A's

An interesting program with "Traveling World Highways" as the theme, was given at regular meeting of the Girl's Auxiliary, meeting at the church Monday afternoon. In the absence of the group captain, the leader had charge.

Devotional was given by five of the members. Annie Lois Henderson told the story of "How a Doctor Grew and Traveled." Miss Ella Mae Chambliss dismissed the group in prayer.

Members present were: Annie Lois, Ruby Lee and Thelma Ruth Henderson, May Jo and Leatrice Russell, Mary Ann Sain, Blanche Odum, Sybile Jackson, Velma Faye Briggs, Annie Bee Chambliss, Geraldine Waybourn, Allie Burks, Miss Ella Mae Chambliss and Mrs. Vernon Chambliss. Four visitors were also present, J. T. Burks, Charles Roy Henderson, Galyon Odum and Clyde Williams.

Motley county's draft board is composed of three men selected and ushered into a thankless, payless task when the nation was at peace. They are sincere, responsible and substantial citizens representing three of the largest communities in the county.

It is human nature often to suspect that discrimination may exist when we feel the heavy hand of duty on our shoulders. Prejudice may canker our thoughts and words, but in these tense, critical days we must be fair.

Lack of information frequently provides a base for criticism. In fairness to the Local Draft Board and in fairness to your nation as it struggles through its greatest crisis, secure facts to substantiate whatever you may think or say in criticizing the selection of men from this county for defense of their country.

No secret operations exist in the Motley County Draft Board office, except personal record files of men called, and their destinations.

citizens in the form of bonds and not with taxes."

Compulsory Buying Hinted

Mr. Hamilton said late advice from the State Saving staff hinted at the possibility of Congress making bond-buying compulsory. He said that it is also intimated that investigations are soon to start by compiling a list of all residents in each county who have not invested in bonds to the extent of their ability.

Mr. Hamilton said, "I am being high-pressured to meet these quotas and request everyone to buy to the very limit of their ability to make the more stringent methods unnecessary."

task. Remember that demands on the board are applied with exactly the same authority as those applied to a selectee... that failure to execute these demands has equal or greater penalty. Remember also that it might have been your place to be a member of the board to serve your country in this unpleasant but most important capacity.

This message is written without the knowledge of the board, and defends no personal friendship or hope of favor. It defends a principle which the Tribune feels is more important in this hour than anything else in the world: the complete unity of a democratic people.

Crowell Expresses Gratitude For Aid

Gratitude from the people of Crowell to those of Matador and Motley county for the cash contribution of $500, clothing and food, following the tornado on April 28th, is expressed in a letter to W. N. Pipkin, treasurer of the Motley County Red Cross chapter.

Crowell is now declared to have ample clothing and food but the housing situation is still critical. The letter is as follows: "Dear Mr. Pipkin:—

"This acknowledges receipt of your check for $500.00 for our storm sufferers.

"Words are inadequate to thank you for this very generous donation, and we certainly do appreciate it, and we assure you that every penny will be spent here in Crowell for our tornado sufferers.

"The magnitude of the tornado is almost beyond comprehension, unless you have seen it. We had 150 homes completely destroyed, 250 seriously damaged, forty or fifty slightly damaged and only fifteen or twenty with no damages at all.

"Our friends and neighbors have been so generous and wonderful to us in money and commodities that it certainly does give us courage and inspiration to rebuild our town, and that is just what we are doing.

"Thanking you again a thousand times for your wonderful donation we are,

Very truly yours, Foard County Chapter American Red Cross (signed) Geo. D. Self, County Chairman"

Heavy Demands In FSA Loan Agency

Heaviest demands in the history of the Farm Security Administration by low-income farm families and small operators, to produce increased war foods, have exhausted the Floyd and Motley counties agency's current funds, according to Arvol D. Hays, supervisor.

Approximately 220 families in the two counties have received loans totaling $91,000 this year, Mr. Hays said. New loans cannot be made until Congressional action has been completed on the new fiscal year, beginning July 1, however applications are being accepted for immediate action after the appropriations are completed.

To devote more time for field visits the FSA office in Matador is now open only on Fridays. The hours are from 9 a. m. to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4:30 p. m.

YOUR CAR How to Get the MOST out of It STRETCHING YOUR TIRE MILEAGE The vital importance of conserving rubber can't be overemphasized. Nor can it be stressed too often that you, as a car owner, can help save rubber by careful use of your tires. Remember, you pay in good rubber for jack-rabbit starting, speeding, curb scraping and slam-bang driving. Learn your correct tire pressures by heart and check your tires at least weekly. Under-inflated tires build up excessive internal heat and create extra road friction. This wears out the tires and wastes gas. Mild over-inflation (2 or 3 pounds) is not harmful, but tires that are too hard bruise more easily, wear at the center and are not as skid-proof. Don't forget that pressures may vary as much as 5 pounds as a result of temperature changes, also that tires lose air by seepage even when there are no leaks. Never drive without valve caps. They keep out dirt and help to keep in air. Keep your tires away from oil and out of the sun as much as possible. Keep your tires. Thefts are on the increase. Don't leave your car out at night. Jot down the tire serial numbers. Note: This is the fifth in a series of articles based on the book, Automobile User's Guide, published by the Customer Research staff of General Motors.
