MAIL DUST

A man loses interest in his wife must suffer a defeat of pride in his appearance at the same time she is relieved of any worry which chase anything more than a golf ball.

Shadows of silvery clouds rested on the countenance of night, had frozen creation in a state of supreme splendor and of time raced back to the had splashed it recklessly on the infinite shore. Each sage old mesquite branch arose as images engraved in stone. The prairie was hunting with a fierce beauty. Somewhere in the distance a mockingbird singing with the melodious tenderness of a soul banished to paradise and finding it.

Firemen To Conduct Water Hazard Game

If you have a grudge against any member of the Matador Volunteer Fire Department, you may pay for the privilege of revenge here Saturday on the corner of the courthouse square. A modern "ducking stool" and galvanized tank has been arranged for the affair, designed to raise funds for the organization.

Each member of the department will be required to set on the "ducking stool" for 20 minutes. Customers will pay for the privilege "chanking" or throwing base balls at the trigger arranged target. When the target is hit the fireman is dumped into the tank of water.

Firemen who do not "set-out" the 20 minutes will be forced to pay the organization a $2.00 penalty. Funds will be used for convention expenses.

The department desires to express appreciation for the complete cooperation of the citizenship in support of the benefit dance held in the Lucket building Thursday night. Approximately $108 was netted after all tax and other expense had been paid. Especial appreciation is tendered Mrs. Leonora Luckett for the gratis use of the building.

PUBLIC WELFARE AIDS IN CROWELL AFTER TORNADO

When a tornado struck Crowell on the night of April 28, demolishing 200 houses and damaging 80 percent of all buildings, at least eleven persons were killed and more than 125 persons injured. Some 1600 persons were rendered homeless. Joe B. Owen, Wichita Falls, Area Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Welfare, went immediately to the scene and assisted in arranging for emergency care of the storm's victims. Surplus commodities, being held in warehouses in Fort Worth, Dallas, Lubbock and San Angelo for the School Lunch programs, were quickly diverted to the disaster. Trucks were dispatched with wheat flour prunes, dried beans, dehydrated soup, camped pork and beans, frozen egg yolks, and apples. An emergency feeding program was set up to serve 1000 of the storm's victims at a central feeding station, to continue for two weeks, in cooperation with other federal and community agencies and supervised by representatives of the Army, Red Cross and Rotary Club.

Farmers Wage War On Hoppers

Motley county farmers have opened up an extended attack on grasshoppers as the season for the crop-destroyers gets under way.
County Agent J. Rufus Emmons said yesterday that over 4,000 pounds of poison bran had already been distributed and that more requests are expected.
Reports indicate the hoppers are being found in greater numbers in the Flomot and Whiteflat communities than elsewhere in the county.

Poison is being distributed by H. C. Duncan at the Farmers Coop gin. Those planning to secure poison are requested to bring sacks since the available supply is almost exhausted.
Mr. Emmons said that A&M experts declare the hoppers would eat saw dust as well as cottonseed hulls and that in the future it may be necessary to substitute. He said that since syrup has been restricted it has been determined that hoppers will eat the poison almost equally as well without it.
Many young grasshoppers have been reported in some sections and farmers are advised to place poison along fence rows, shelter belts and in small grain fields.
Lubbock has installed a mixer station capable of delivering 40,000 pounds of poison mixture per hour to help plants farmers stop the advance of pests, according to a dispatch to yesterday's newspaper.

ADDITIONAL FUNDS CONTRIBUTED FOR GRATIS TRIBUNES

Aiding the Tribune's policy of sending free subscriptions to men in all branches of the armed service, unsolicited contributions received last week included $5 from John Mackenzie, Denver, manager of the Matador Land & Cattle Company; $1 from Mrs. G. W. Ratcliff and $5 from J. C. "Doc" Burleson. Sincere appreciation is hereby extended the three contributors.
Each week from five to 15 more boys request the home paper and their names are added to the Tribune's circulation list. Free subscriptions are not sent unless requested either by the men in service, relatives or friends. Strict censorship makes it impossible to reveal the number of men receiving weekly copies of the Tribune but no request has been refused, nor will any be refused so long as the Tribune is able to buy paper and printing costs. Men entering service are asked to delay request for their subscription until they have been assigned places, thus avoiding the expense of making extra mailing stencils. Friends or relatives may receive free copies during the induction period and mail them for only 1c each. Regular changes in address are made as soon as notification is received from friends or relatives or the postoffice department.
The Tribune sincerely desires every man in any branch of the armed service from Motley county to receive a weekly copy of his home newspaper without charge. There is no obligation other than to request it.

County Registers 4,288 For Sugar Ration Books

Approximately 700 of Motley county's 1940 census population of 4,994 failed to register for War Ration Book No. 1, according to figures released yesterday by D. I. W. Birnie, chairman of the Motley County Rationing Board.
A total of 4,288 applications were received during the four days of registration, May 4th through May 7th. Of this number 45 applications were received for books not issued because applicants were in possession of excess sugar.
Sugar consumers are warned that stamps in their War Ration books are good only for a certain period of time. Stamp No. 1 is valid only up to and including May 16. Stamps No. 1 which are not used by that date will not be accepted for the purchase of sugar. Stamp No. 2 is valid only up to and including May 30. Stamp No. 3 is valid only up to and including June 13 and Stamp No. 4 is valid only up to and including June 27. Other stamps in the book have a similar designated period of value.
Warning On Stamp Card Use
Merchants retailing sugar through the use of Ration stamps which are pasted to the War Ration Stamp Card, are instructed to paste only stamps of one number on each card, which holds 100 stamps. For instance, stamps No. 1 may be pasted on one card until it is full then another card started, but when No. 2 stamps come into use they must be started on a separate card and not placed on the unfilled card containing Stamp No. 1.
Observance of this rule will avoid confusion and reduce loss of time when cards are turned in to replenish supplies.

Drive For China Relief Funds Is Scheduled Here
A drive to secure China relief funds will be started here next week, according to Henry F. Pipkin, chairman. Other members of the Matador Lions Club on the committee include Randall Whitworth, treasurer, Elmer Stearns co-chairman and Douglas Meador in charge of publicity.
China, now America's active ally, is at present carrying the blunt of our struggle with Japan. The current issue of Collier's magazine, in an editorial, in part, says:
"The sufferings, the sacrifices, the needs, the valor of the Chinese have been great almost beyond belief. The Chinese have almost nothing except courage, a stubborn determination to be independent and inadequate small arms with which to defend themselves. Their losses in lives and in material have been almost beyond understanding by other peoples. No nation has made greater sacrifices to win its independence. No people have endured heavier punishment or offered greater sacrifices."
"If any people ever earned the good will of Americans, the Chinese have done so. Consider the appeals being made by the organized groups asking for contributions for Chinese. They are fighting and valiantly fighting, our war."

Two Cars Damaged In Collision Here

Farmers, Ranchers Reducing Debts With Loan Bank

Farmers and ranchmen generally are cutting down debts at a more rapid rate than at any time in the history of the land bank system, reported J. L. Woodruff, president of the Matador National Farm Loan Association upon his return from a conference of representative directors of 19 associations held at Lubbock on April 30, 1942.
This group of directors, meeting with officers of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, reported that farmers' cash is flowing into debt retirement and that the land bank's loans are in the best condition in 10 years. In addition, they said, a reserve fund of approximately $850,000 already has been stored up by land bank borrowers as a cushion against future conditions. The land bank pays interest on funds placed in the "future payment fund" equal to the rate paid by borrowers on their loans.
The directors urged that land values should be appraised on the normal agricultural value rather than according to market trends. This policy helped to prevent wholesale foreclosures during the depression and is equally important now in times of rising prices, they said. It was explained that a farm or ranch family must go through periods of both high and low prices and good and bad yields during the years it spends in paying off long-term mortgage; this makes the normal production value of the land based on average income a safe guide.
Total land bank and land bank commissioner loans outstanding through these 19 associations represented at this meeting amount to 14,876 for $30,910,851.10.

Turkey Resident Gives Details Of Life In The Army

An illuminating report of life in the Army has been given by a former Turkey resident, Pvt. "Mugs" Johnson, now in a medical replacement training center at Camp Barkeley, in a letter to friends which was recently published in the Turkey Enterprise. For the benefit of our readers, we reprint the letter as follows: "I'm very enthusiastic about army camp life. We just lie around in bed every morning until 5 o'clock! This of course, gives us plenty of time to get washed, shaved, dressed to make our bunks etc., by 5:10 o'clock. "At 5:15 we stand outside and shiver while someone blows the dickens out of a bugle. After we are reasonably chilled, we stumble our way through the darkness to the mess hall. Here we have plenty of breakfast, consisting of an unidentified liquid and a choice of white or rye crust; after gorging ourselves with this delicious repast, we waddle back to the barracks. "We have nothing to do until 7:30 so we just sit around and scrub toilets, mop floors, wash windows and pick up all the cigarette stubs and match stems within a radius of 150 feet of our barracks. "Soon the sergeant comes in and says, "Come on out in the sun, kids," so we get out and bask in the wonderful sunshine. Of course we have to endure the biting sand and dust. To limber up, we do calisthenics, like touching our toes with both feet off the ground and grabbing ourselves by the hair and holding ourselves at arm's length.

"At 8 we put on a light pack and start walking to the hills. The light pack is not to be confused with the heavy pack. The light pack consists of a gun, bayonet, canteen, mess kit, coat, cartridge belt, first aid kit, pup tent, stakes, tent pole, rope, and a few other negligible items.

"The heavy pack has a mattress and one or two heavy blankets in it. Carrying my pack, I weigh 207 pounds. I weighed 130 when I left, so you can see how easy and agreeable it is to romp and play in the mountains.

"An observation car follows us as we climb the mountain and picks up all the fellows who faint. The boys who fall out are treated very well. They get 6 months in the guard house, but they don't have to face court martial.

"At noon those who can, limp to the infirmary. At the infirmary patients are divided into 2 classes; those who have athlete's foot and those who have colds. If you have a cold, you get your throat swabbed with iodine, and if you have athlete's foot, you get your feet swabbed with iodine. Anyone who claims to have some other ailment is sent to the guard house for impersonating an officer.

"I'm very popular at the infirmary. I told them that I have both a cold and athlete's foot. What I really have is gastric ulcers, but I really know when to keep my mouth shut.

"Well, that's all for now. I've got to rush to the mess hall. We're having hominy tonight. Oh boy!! A Gobblerite, "Mugs" J.

"P. S. Seriously, my 2 weeks of the above is over. All I do now is go to school. I'm studying army clerical work for the Medical Corps. In 2 more weeks I shall have graduated and will be in line for an officer's technical rating. Have everyone in Turkey to write me, preferably with packages attached, and containing nutty and cakey contents." "Privately yours, M. J."

CLASS NEWS

The senior English class began a unit in the study of writing business letters. It's very hard to keep those experienced senior's minds (?) on a strictly business basis.

The Junior class has been so busy working and planning on the Jr.-Sr. banquet, which will be presented the eighth of May, that they haven't had much time for anything else.

The Biology class has started its collection of wild flowers and butterflies.

The Economic class is studying about industrial income and what share each person receives.

The American history class is studying life in the latter part of the nineteenth century. They found some very amusing customs; such as the men's "handle-bar" mustache and the women's ten yard dresses.

The first year Homemaking class is working on their school dresses. The second year class has started their remodeling problem. The boys class is working on the markers for the tennis courts.

The students received their report cards last week, and they haven't let up yet. Some were greatly relieved, some satisfied, and others just plain disappointed.

Sport's Ramblings

By Curly Joe
La-Da-De La-Da-dum in spring a young man's fancy turns to, of all things, spring training in football. At M. H. S. spring training was scheduled to begin Monday, the 20th; but due to inclement weather conditions (rain to be exact) it has not been started yet. Spring training is had so the team that is to carry the colors next year can get a chance to work together. Usually it is the last year's substitutes that make up the next year's team. They get the added experience and training necessary to make a good team for the next year. These boys that go out and play spring football do not get anything but the work for what they do. I think that any boy who works at spring football should receive plenty of praise, because it really isn't as easy as you might think. —M.H.S.—

And there was the guy who took three grains of aspirin and a pinch of insect powder because he had such a lousy headache. —M.H.S.—

OUR CAR How to Get the MOST out of It

STOPPING IS AN ART TOO
Use of your car brakes can add many miles to your car and brake drums. Here are some stopping hints to help you:
1. Avoid sudden stops. Collect your "bonus" on the gas you use by starting; don't burn that extra momentum up on the gas you use.
2. Learn to anticipate your stops. Shift your foot off the clutch pedal until you're ready to stop. "Riding" the clutch when the car is moving, especially on a hill, causes rapid wear of the clutch lining.
3. Avoid continuous heavy braking on the brake pedal. Hot brakes wear rapidly. On long trips, shift to second gear.
4. Your motor help stop your car for you. Don't disengage the clutch as soon as you begin braking for a stop. Wait until the car decelerates to 15, or even 10, miles an hour.
5. Don't scrape the curb when stopping. The weight of the car on those tires' side walls and they must not be weakened. 6. Avoid hot weather or after driving in mountainous country. 7. Motor idle a few minutes before turning off the ignition.
Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles based on the Automobile User's Guide, published by the Customer Service Staff of General Motors. Next article: Stretching Tire Mileage.

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

RUMMAGING through my desk the other day, I came across some snapshots of friends of mine made back in 1933.
If you don't think time flies . . . if you don't think this world ever changes . . . you ought to look at the women's hats and dresses in those pictures taken 9 years ago! Wow!
It gave me quite a start . . . and then it set me to thinking . . . and rememberin'! Lots of things sure happened in 1933. A new administration in Washington . . . the turning point of the depression . . . and the coming of Repeal.
I remember the re-legalization of beer. It came before Repeal, when Congress amended the old Volstead Act to allow legal sale of "3.2" beer.
What talk and arguments they had in those days! One argument I remember well . . . was that beer would do a lot to help bring back prosperity. I wondered at the time whether that argument could be proved.
I thought about that again, the other day. I decided to check up and find out.
Well, I found out plenty. I found out that legal beer has paid more than 3 billion dollars in taxes since 1933. It has made more than a million new jobs.
According to one of the reports I've seen, beer has put more than 15 billion dollars into general business circulation. Goodness me, that's a lot of money.
Beer is sold today in every state in the Union. Every state benefits from beer's jobs and taxes. And I guess there's no denying that beer did its share in bringing back better times.
I'm glad it did, too, because beer is such a pleasant, appetizing beverage. And it stands for moderation and moderate people . . . it's not likely to get you in trouble.

BAPTIST BASEMENT IS GYPSY JUNGLE AS JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIOR CLASS

The basement of the Baptist church was converted into a Gypsy jungle Friday evening, when the junior class of Matador High school entertained the graduating seniors of '42, with the annual junior-senior banquet.

Guests were served at card tables laid with bright crepe paper covers and centered with white candles in holders made of cedar limbs, and encircled with ivy and roses. Hand-made mint cups which had been hollowed from cedar logs, and the place cards containing individual fortunes, accentuated the Gypsy motif. An abundance of mesquite and cedar branches and trees, together with roses and larkspur, formed the background for the entertainment.

The delicious banquet was served by sophomore members of the Homemaking class, under the supervision of Miss Zona Beth Faulkner, teacher of the course. The girls wore colorful Gypsy costumes for the occasion. ## Pied Pinions BY MRS. M.

"The Emancipator," a small magazine published monthly at San Antonio, explained its purpose on the flyleaf as being: "An independent, forward-looking journal, dedicated to the liberation of busy men and women from chronic misconceptions which tend to enslave them to conditions over which they can be masters."

Although devoted to articles of serious vein, we found, scattered through the pages of the current issue, several good laughs, which we quote herewith:

The Colonel roared, "Confound you, why don't you be more careful?" Meekly the Army Clerk asked: "What do you mean, sir?" Colonel: "Instead of addressing this letter to the Intelligence Office, you have addressed it to the Intelligent Officer. Don't you know that there's no such person in the Army?"

"Do you think you could live on my salary of $20 a week?" asked Tom. "Certainly," she replied, "but what would you do?"

The distinguished visitor from Boston said to the little Mormon girl in Salt Lake City: "I'm from Boston. I suppose you don't know where that is."

"Yes, I do," she replied eagerly. "Our Sunday School has missionaries there."

We don't know who started it—all this hullabaloo about women taking to trousers and slacks, and in short, wearing the pants in the family, altho it's been going on for a number of years. What about the men who like to putter about in the kitchen, cluttering up the cabinets with plain and fancy masterpieces of culinary endeavors.

In summing up the odds, Mr. Huie expresses the secret conviction of possibly every one on the home-front: "The fellows in the Army want to fight the war now and finish it, so they can get back to carving a place for themselves in a free America and a free world... they are going to defeat America's enemies, and in the process of winning the war, they shall need to find some new faith in God and some new faith in mankind... I believe they are going to find it."

While we don't propose to go into the cost of feeding the men in the armed forces — which at any price would be cheap enough

We're supposed to think it's cute in them, and cool over their efforts, no doubt; and maybe exchange recipes with them.

It appears that most insecticides are for the extermination of critters of the crawling or flying species only; the four-or-more-legged ones, for instance.

William Bradford Huie, an associate editor of the American Mercury, has written an enlightening article in a recent issue, titled, "The New Army Hates Parades," in which he sets forth his belief, "... that this war generation of Americans can destroy the brute in the world without allowing themselves to become hate-maddened brutes ...

"I think the picture of an intelligent young American coolly dropping bombs on Tokyo for the reason that he wants to create a better world for Japs and Americans alike, is a much more hopeful picture than if he were dropping the bombs for the purpose of avenging Pearl Harbor. No American slogan ever fell so flat with its fighting men as "Remember Pearl Harbor."

The New American Army, Mr. Huie declares, doesn't want slogans; it wants weapons ... "It doesn't want to parade; it wants to fight; it doesn't want the folks back home to work themselves into a patriotic lather; it wants the folks back home to work like fury at a lathe. It wants to get on with the war, and do with less speeches."

Mrs. U. S. Hartwell of ... visited here from Friday Wednesday in the home of daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bishop. Her son and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Home Memphis, visited here Wednesday and accompanied her home.

Miss Maggie Bryan, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. W. T. Dowell, visited in Amarillo relatives this week.

L. R. Bishop made a trip to Plainview Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl The Roaring Springs visited here day with her parents, Mr. Mrs. C. C. Renfro.

A Clean City Is Alert!
IN THESE TIMES of war and stress cleanliness measures the alertness of a city and its people. A clean city is an alert city, its people are patriotic and progressive.
Cleanliness is important to health and welfare, now more vital than ever to the success of our nation's titanic struggle. Do your share in Matador's Clean-up campaign. Burn trash and rubbish, cut weeds and clean-up your property for your own and your neighbor's health. Place cans and junk which cannot be burned in barrels, boxes or sacks where the city disposal truck can reach them.
