

Molotov Hits Bevin Defense Of Dictators

MOSCOW, April 3. (AP)—Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov accused British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin tonight of defending dictators and what Molotov called the kind of democracy they have in Greece.

Bevin said he opposed any system which tended to put a one-party system into effect.

The exchange, in the council of foreign ministers, finally ended with smiles all around. The argument came during a discussion of the kind of election system which should be set up in Germany whether it should include, as Molotov argued, a proportional representation system.

Secretary of State Marshall earlier circulated a paper among his colleagues saying the United States would be willing to consider limited German reparations from current production, but only if the Allied powers agreed to leave in Germany a number of plants now earmarked for export as capital reparations.

"It must be recognized that the further increase in the level of industry will reduce the number of plants available for removal on reparations accounts," Marshall's paper said.

"If the proposals for reparations from current output are to be considered, these proposals must, in our view, be limited to compensation from the plants which were destroyed for removal but which are no longer available by reason of an increase in the level of industry to aid the European economy."

"If reparations from current output is conceived in his way, the United States delegation is willing, without commitment, to have its experts study this question."

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, declared on his arrival today from Moscow that "all hope has been given up of reaching a settlement on reparations at this conference."

The American military governor for Germany, who was secretary of State Marshall's chief advisor on German affairs in Moscow, said the conference in the Russian capital was "not proving a failure, but also is not proving a success."

He told a news conference at Tempelhof airfield that he had hoped to be back in Berlin two weeks ago, before the deadlock arose in Moscow.

Although describing the reparations issue as in "deadlock," Clay said he believed the conference was bringing out and developing the basic issues, which he said were "clear cut."

Bill Restricting Public Utility Picketing Passes

Second Piece Of Labor Legislation Gets House Okay

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—The House today finally passed 117 to 3, a bill restricting picketing of public utilities.

Already passed by the Senate, the measure now goes to the governor.

It is the second piece of labor legislation adopted by the legislature this session.

By Sen. Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, the bill establishes as state policy that continuous service of public utilities—water, gas and light—is essential to the life, health and safety of the public.

Picketing of such utilities is permitted so long as it does not prevent or threaten to prevent continuous service.

The bill makes it a felony for any person to willfully damage or destroy equipment so as to interfere with service, and fixes a penalty of two to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Rep. Sidney McClain of Sherman sought to amend the bill to include telephone companies, but the House killed his motion, 112 to 7.

Rep. Claud Gilmer of Rocksprings, author of a companion House bill, described Ramsey's measure as "a bill we can truly characterize as being for the public interest."

Grocer Is Killed In Speeding Car

SAN ANGELO, April 3. (AP)—Ralph Rose, Sheffield grocer, died from a bullet wound as his automobile sped 80 miles an hour through the night and as the driverless car overturned. Mrs. Rose was killed. Sheriff Charlie Baker of Pecos county said today. Their six-year-old son escaped without injury.

Baker told the San Angelo Standard-Times by telephone that the Roses, formerly of San Angelo, had been having domestic difficulties in recent years and that they had quarreled on the outskirts of Sheffield before entering the car to go toward Ozona.

Baker said Rose had gotten the car up to about 75 or 80 miles an hour at the time of the shooting and accident which occurred about 1 o'clock this morning.

Justice of the Peace P. A. Campbell said at Sheffield his investigation had not been completed and that he had not yet returned an inquest verdict.

50 Million Gallons Of Water Consumed

Big Spring's water consumption in March totaled 50,787,000 gallons, H. W. Whitney, acting city manager, announced.

"Most production" during the month came from the city lakes. Whitney said. A total of 39,045,000 gallons was pumped from the surface reservoirs.

Other March production included 7,485,000 gallons from Sec. 17; 2,325,000 gallons from City park wells; 1,787,000 gallons from the O'Barr field.

Ruhr Coal Industry Almost At Standstill

ESSEN, April 3. (AP)—The Ruhr's giant coal industry came to an almost complete standstill today as most of the area's 300,000 miners ignored British appeals to remain on the job and walked out in a demand for more food for their families.

Workmen at the mines in Dortmund and Hamborn, who struck earlier in the week, entered the pits as usual, however, apparently satisfied with the fact they had already taken to the streets.

Miners in the Cologne area technically not part of the Ruhr remained on the job. But reports from throughout the Ruhr indicated that most of its 170 mines were idle in a strike expected to cause a loss in production of half a million tons of badly needed coal.

In almost every mining town, drab today in drizzling rain—workmen failed to show up on the job despite an "urgent request" made by authorities in a radio broadcast in German last night. The walk-out order was issued by mine union leaders yesterday at Bochum.

Some officials described the demonstration as a "petite strike." They said the miners' with the highest rations in Germany, had no reason to strike on their own behalf but must have listened to wives' complaints that they and their children lacked food.

One responsible official said that both union and political agitators had played upon this idea.

Lewis Asks Congress To Oust Secretary Krug

Truman Aid Approved By Solons

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved by a 13-0 vote legislation to carry out President Truman's program of extending $400,000,000 financial and limited military aid to Greece and Turkey.

Brushing aside proposals to eliminate Turkey as a beneficiary and to strip out the military aid provisions, the committee unanimously sent an amended bill to the Senate for expected action there next week.

Before acting, it revised an amendment by Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) to give the United Nations authority to call a halt on American assistance only when the international organization finds that assistance being provided by itself makes the continuance of American aid unnecessary.

Rep. Eaton (R-N.J.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee bluntly blamed Russia today for inability of the United Nations to act in the Greek-Turkish situation.

"I know something about the United Nations," declared Eaton, speaking into testimony by Rev. Alston J. Smith, who urged the committee to rely upon U.N. rather than independent American action to aid the two countries in warding off communist domination. Smith represents the Methodist Federation for Social Action.

Eaton has served as a consultant to American delegations at U.N. conferences.

Cotton Futures Speculation Cut

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—The government today ordered a sharp reduction in the permissible amount of speculative holdings of cotton in the nation's cotton futures markets.

This action, which becomes effective May 10, is designed, Agriculture Department officials said, to "avoid speculative excesses and price disturbances" in the markets.

Under an order issued by the Commodity Exchange Commission, the maximum amount of cotton futures that any person may hold for speculative purposes at the close of any trading day will be 30,000 bales, in all futures combined, on any one market.

At present, the maximum is 30,000 bales in any one future month. Trading now is being conducted in seven futures. Thus, under present regulations, a trader may hold as much as 210,000 bales on any one market.

Board Elects Coaching Staff

A staff of five to assist Head Coach Pat Murphy in directing the athletic program for Big Spring schools was elected by the local school board Wednesday evening.

All the men were engaged on Murphy's recommendation, and on the basis of one year.

They include Herschel Stockton, first assistant, at $3,600; Conn Isaacs and J. B. Neeley, B team coaches, at $3,200; John Malaise, basketball, intramural and tennis, $3,200; and Jim McWhirter, Junior high, $2,700.

All of the men, with the exception of Neeley, are currently on the Steer athletic setup. Neeley, now employed by the Veterans Administration at Amarillo, worked with Murphy in Abilene. The board instructed Supt. W. C. Blankenship to engage him immediately for the remainder of this school term, so that he might fill a teaching vacancy and also aid Murphy in spring grid training.

Trustees Wednesday night also authorized the purchase of a 32-passenger bus for the athletic department, to fill a long-standing need of transportation of Steer teams. Order was issued for purchase of a Dodge chassis from the Jones Motor company, and Murphy was instructed to make investigations for placing order for a body. Cost of the vehicle will be borne by athletic funds.

Planning Funds For School Plant Okayed

Planning work for expansion of the city school plant has been made possible through a Federal Works Agency allocation, trustees of the school district were informed Wednesday night.

Supt. W. C. Blankenship received a telegram from Rep. George Mahon advising that FWA had approved advanced planning funds for eight Big Spring school projects, totaling $28,800.

This means that architectural and engineering work may proceed on units which include:

Construction of a new high school building, new gymnasium, new elementary school building, and an industrial arts building, and additions to the College Heights and South ward schools, the Americanization school and the Lakeview school.

Under provisions of federal allocation, the FWA makes a no-interest loan to the school district for surveys, planning and engineering. If none of the projects is carried through to completion, the district is not liable for repayment of the federal funds; if work is carried on to the construction stage and any contracts are let, the planning cost on each unit is put into the total and FWA is repaid.

The school board some weeks ago engaged the firm of Packett & French to make the surveys and handle architectural and engineering planning.

Through the FWA assistance, the district is enabled to proceed with unit planning, and trustees have made it plain that eventual construction will be undertaken on an "as-needed" basis. In other words, economic conditions, the city's growth, construction costs, and similar factors would all be considered in gradual development of the whole construction picture.

The program will be maintained as a flexible and progressive one, trustees have said. The FWA allocation was hailed as an important step toward making possible whatever future expansion can be carried on by the district over a period of future years.

All labor and equipment for the pick-up work will be furnished by the city, Whitney said. However, residents must gather trash and rubbish and place them in boxes or sacks on street or alley lines.

Whitney again urged that as much preliminary work as possible be completed this week by individuals. In order for the drive to be effective, all trash must be accumulated in the designated areas where the trucks make their rounds.

518 Mines Closed As Safety Measure

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—John L. Lewis today denounced Secretary of Interior Krug as a "dishonorable" politician and demanded congressional action to oust him from office.

The United Mine Workers chief made his plea to a House Labor Sub-Committee shortly after Krug ordered the closing of 518 government-operated mines for safety reasons. His action involves about 40,000 miners who produce daily 350,000 tons of soft coal.

Lewis called Krug's order belated. He said "may God in heaven forgive him" for not closing the pits before 111 miner died in a Centralia, Ill., mine explosion last week. Then, he waded into Krug with this:

"He has dishonored his office. He has brutalized the mine workers and brought confusion and economic loss to the American people."

Further, Lewis roared, Krug is a "scheming designing politician faithless to his trust."

Lewis proposed that Congress adopt a resolution calling on President Truman to remove Krug from office. In addition, he recommended that Congress:

1. Enact promptly legislation making it mandatory for federal mine inspectors to close pits found to be violating laws for federal safety standards.

2. Authorize the United States Treasury to return to the United Mine Workers the $750,000 in fines imposed on the union by the Supreme Court for contempt of a court order in a recent miners' strike.

Lewis suggested putting the money in a trust to care for widows and children of the Centralia disaster and those in a mine tragedy two years ago at Straight Creek, Ky.

The mine leader went out before the committee to discuss mine safety. He was in midst of his testimony when Krug's mine closing order was announced.

"I point out," the United Mine Workers chief said, "the Secretary Krug is doing now what he should have done ever since the safety code became effective. He's starting to enforce his own code—but after 111 men died at Centralia."

"Now on this particular day of our Lord, Mr. Krug found 518 mines not safe."

"May God in heaven forgive him for not finding those mines before and not closing them down before those men died."

Lewis then demanded: What should the United Mine Workers do now? He continued:

"If we must grind up human flesh and bones in the industrial machine that we call modern America then before God I assert that those who consume the coal and are made comfortable by it owe protection to those men first, and owe security to their widows and children."

"I say it, I voice it, I proclaim it. And I care not who in heaven or hell opposes it."

Coast Guard Fund Slash Is Rapped

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—Admiral J. F. Farley declared today a $36,000,000 slash in Coast Guard funds for the next fiscal year may lead to ship losses which would far exceed that saving by Congress.

"I am not being an alarmist when I prophesy that failure of crucial aids to navigation and other facilities can be anticipated," the Coast Guard commandant told a Senate Appropriations subcommittee. The Senators are reviewing House cuts of nearly $900,000,000 in operating funds of the Treasury and Post Office Departments.

Farley said the "property value represented in one large vessel of our Merchant Marine if a victim of disaster can in a large measure offset the saving" while the "value of lives involved would, of course be incalculable."

House Ponders Bill To Ban Communists

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—State Senators departed from the capitol today for Easter vacations, most of them satisfied they had done a full measure of work in this week's three-day session, but the House of Representatives stayed on the job.

With bills passed by both House and Senate to establish a minimum pay schedule of $2,000 per year for school teachers through the increase of per capita school apportionments to $55, legislators turned to committee action on other bills.

The House elections committee sent to subcommittee a bill which would in effect ban the Communist Party from Texas.

Rep. James Spencer of Athens explained that his measure would prohibit the name of anyone advocating the overthrow of the state or federal government from appearing on official ballots in Texas.

The Communist Party is not mentioned by name in the bill, but Spencer said its passage was necessary to validate another of his measures which would make it criminal to call anyone a Communist or Fascist.

For the second day in a row, charges were heard that the state is tearing down the principle of local self-government. The accusation was made during hearing by the committee on municipal and private corporations of a bill to establish minimum wage schedules for firemen and policemen.

R. E. Rouer, Fort Worth city attorney, declared the bill would create a tax burden in cities of Texas without consideration of where the needed money was coming from. A similar opinion was voiced during House debate the prior day on establishment of a civil service system for policemen and firemen.

The bill, already passed by the Senate, was reported favorably to the House by unanimous voice vote. Pay schedules would be $150 per month in cities of 10-40,000; $180 cities of 40-100,000; $190, cities of 100-175,000; and $200, cities of 175-400,000.

A $5 per month increase for each five years of service up to 25 years would be authorized in cities of 10,000 to 40,000 and a $10 increase on the same basis in cities from 140,000 to 400,000.

CONGRESSMEN FRET OVER BIRD ROOST

Don't be surprised if your congressman looks worried. He may be fretting over such tough problems as:

Should people be allowed to shoot starlings?

All right, laugh. But it's no laughing matter to (A) Washington residents, or (B) Congress.

For one of Congress' chores is to play city council for Washington. And so the House district committee held a hearing yesterday on a major Washington problem, the starling.

This busybody, medium sized bird spends the day in the city.

But at night he and several million of his pals flock into the middle of town to roost, and so on. Especially so on. Right on the busiest sidewalks, too.

"Starlings are a definite nuisance," said William A. Xanten, delicately.

Speaking for the district commissioners, Xanten said they had tried to gas and poison starlings. They also had tried to scare them away with balloons and roman candles.

The starlings thrived on it. And so the commissioners decided to ask Congress to allow them to shoot the rascals. Here the problem begins.

Up jumped Fred Packard, field executive of the National parks association.

Packard said he is no starling lover. But he thinks people lugging guns would be a definite threat to other people and to other birds.

Two Brothers Are Sentenced For Shooting

BROWNSVILLE, April 3. (AP)—Nicolas Garza pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of murder without malice in the fatal shooting of Lupe Balderas at Rio Hondo Sept. 19, 1944, and was sentenced by a jury to two years in the state penitentiary.

Garza was charged with murder with malice in the indictment but was allowed to plead guilty to the lesser charge after the state presented its evidence.

His brother, Pedro Garza, was convicted of a charge of murder with malice in the same case last year. The State Supreme Court denied his appeal from the conviction. Cameron County officials have been looking for Pedro, who is at Liberty on $7,500 bond.

Two others charged in the indictment with complicity in the slaying have been dismissed.

TEACHER PAY BILL OPPONENTS SAY MEASURE FULL OF KINGS

AUSTIN, April 3. (AP)—Texas school teachers read newspaper headlines yesterday and today announcing Senate passage of bills setting up minimum pay schedules of $2,000 per year for teachers and increasing per capita school apportionments to $65.

Slightly amended by the Senate, the bills by Rep. Dallas Blankenship of Dallas now return to the House for concurrence before they can be sent to the governor.

When taken at face value, the headlines are good for the teachers.

Legislators who opposed Blankenship's plan to pay some teachers will not be so happy when—and if—the bills go into effect. They say the $55 per capita plan will not bring all salaries to the proposed $2,000 minimum.

What are the provisions of the two bills?

The per capita bill:

1. Calls for payment to all schools a maximum of $55 for each school child, as determined by the state approved school census each year. This is $14 more than the per capita apportionment this year, including a bonus from surplus school money.
2. Provides that the comptroller must transfer to the available school fund from the clearance fund whatever amount might be needed to insure the $55 per capita if sources of revenue for the available school fund originally set up to take care of public welfare and teachers retirement payments.
3. Gives priority of payment from the clearance fund to public welfare and teachers retirement. (This was a senate amendment to the Blankenship bill.)

The salary-schedule bill:

1. Establishes a minimum salary of $2,000 per year for teachers holding a bachelor's degree, with increases for additional college training, teaching experience and efficiency.
2. Provides that if enough money from all sources is not available, "then the highest salaries possible with the revenue available shall be paid."

Sen. G. C. Morris of Greenville secured a Senate amendment providing that additional pay based on college training and experience shall be paid on a schedule "not less than that provided in the state equalization aid law."

He said the amendment merely seeks to insure more pay for additional training and experience. Senate adoption of both bills was by unanimous vote.

Sen. James Taylor of Kerens, author of a bill which would seek to raise teachers' salaries to a $2,000 minimum through payment of money to schools on a "need" basis, voted for the per capita bill after warning his colleagues:

"The people who want this legislation are going to be the worst disappointed people in the state. It will help the rich districts and hurt the poor districts."

This is the argument which has been most used by opponents of the per capita plan.

They say that a $55 apportionment is more than many schools need to set up a $2,000 minimum pay schedule, while $55 per student will not be enough to insure $2,000 in a number of the poorer school districts.

One other provision of the salary bill has been subject to frequent attack. It requires the presentation of evidence to the committee on affiliation and accreditation that the provisions of the act as to minimum salaries and increments are being "faithfully complied with, or that the salary schedule actually being paid is approved by the State Superintendent and the Board of Education."

Such evidence must be presented before any school of any district is affiliated or accredited or continued on the list of affiliated or accredited schools.

Opponents contend that many schools may be unable to set up schedules which meet the approval of the state superintendent and board of education, and would therefore lose their affiliation or accredited standing.

Passage of the Blankenship bills was contrary to the governor's stand. Gov. Beauford Jester has indicated he favors raising teachers' pay through an equalization bill such as Taylor's.

SEOUL, April 3. (AP)—Col. Gen. I. M. Chistiakov has been succeeded as Soviet commander in North Korea by Lt. Gen. B. P. Korotkov, who fought on the Estonian front during the war, US Military headquarters was advised today by its liaison officer with the Russians.

Chistiakov, commander in the north since the beginning of the occupation in September of 1945, presumably returned to Moscow.

Korotkov commanded the Soviet Tenth Guard or Elite Army on the Estonian front until 1945.

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. Coleman Ranch Pool Well Is Completed

Completion of one well in the Coleman Ranch pool of northwest Mitchell county and the encountering of a high lime formation in a deep wildcat northeast of Ackery stood out today as oil development highlights.

Butram and Associates No. 1-B Lucy Coleman, section 70-97, H&T, projected a potential of 240.47 barrels of 24 gravity oil on a six-hour test run. It had been shot with 800 quarts from 2,657-2,860 feet.

Ray Albaugh No. 1 Graves, section 48-34-4n, T&P, a proposed 6,500-foot exploration in southeast Dawson and in section 48-34-4n, T&P, reportedly topped the brown lime section 3,240 feet, some 285 feet higher than in the Continental No. 1 Douglas duster six miles to the south and 78 feet higher than the Steve S. Owens No. 1 Wright, seven miles southeast. Thursday the test was at 4,680 feet in lime with no shows reported.

Nine miles northwest of Big Spring Duncan Drilling Co. set seven-inch string at 3,060 feet in lime, preparing to shift to cable tools to test anticipated pay horizons which fell short in the Bert Clardy No. 1 O'Brien. Location 48-330 feet out of the southeast corner of section 5-33-2n, T&P.

In southeast Howard county, Cecil Guthrie No. 1 TXL, 2,310 feet from the south and 330 feet from the west section lines of 43-30-1a, T&P, was at 785 feet and setting 10-inch string. East of Chalk production, Dr. Cooper No. 1 Scott, 330 feet out of the southeast corner of the southwest quarter, was at 550 feet in redbeds. It is a shallow outpost.

Cosden Petroleum Corporation took over on the Tubbs, et al No. 1 Chester L. Jones, deep test east of Vincent, and in section 60-20, LaVaca, in the northwest corner of Mitchell county. The hole had been carried from 5,494 feet to 5,535 feet in black lime, still with no change.

The Coleman Ranch area continued to offer the most active spot in this vicinity. There the Norman & Roche No. 1-B Lucy-Mildred Coleman was taking a potential test after cleaning out to 2,916 feet. This will be the fifth producer for N&R.

Butram and Associates continued highly active with five tests other than the completion underway. Seven-inch string was set with 75 sacks at 2,500 feet on the No. 2-A Coleman, in the northeast quarter of 70-97, H&T, and bottom of hole is 2,550 feet. The operators' No. 3-A Coleman was at 670 feet in redrock, the No. 4-A at 225 feet in redrock, the No. 5-A Coleman at 740 feet in redrock, and cable tools were being rigged on the No. 6-A Coleman.

Dowell & Snowden No. 2 R. L. Solomon, 330 feet out of the southeast quarter of section 71-97, H&T, was at 1,230 feet in anhydrite, and F. A. Gillespie No. 1 Lucy-Mildred Coleman, 1,650 feet from the north and 330 feet from the east lines of section 4-97, H&T, was at 1,240 feet in lime. C. T. McLaughlin No. 1 Coleman, 330 feet from southwest corner of north half of northwest quarter of section 70-97, H&T, was at 200 feet in redrock.

Story Of Cantata Spreading To Far-Off Places

Interest in the cantata, "Big Spring," is being manifested in far-away places.

Earlier in the week James Mont, New York furniture designer who was once a prison inmate before becoming a successful businessman, had offered to sponsor the cantata in Carnegie Hall if it was as good as critics said.

Thursday, City Manager H. W. Whitney had a letter from a woman in Gardena, Calif. wanting a copy of the lyrics and music.

Appreciation for the "wonderful visit in your city" was expressed by Glen Gooch, president of the Texas & Pacific Railway company chorus, which gave the cantata its premiere here last Friday.

"One doesn't have to stay there long to understand why Big Spring is such a fine place," said Gooch. "Your people, in our opinion, are the cream of the crop."

March Continues Low '47 Temperature Level

March continued an unprecedented continuity of sub-normal temperatures for 1947, contributing the third consecutive month with readings below the average since 1900.

Temperatures for the month, while producing a minimum of only 21 degrees, gave a mean of 50.4, which was 5.2 degrees below normal. January was 2.8 degrees below the average and February was 5.9 degrees short of the mean normal.

Thus, the blossoming of fruit trees and evidence of first foliage some three weeks late is explained in the light of sustained coolness. Only once, on the last day, did March contribute a minimum above 50 degrees. The mean was 3.4 degrees above the all time low in 1915. High for the month was 82, well short of the maximum of 97 last year and the minimum was far above the record of four degrees.

April Living Up To Its Tradition

By The Associated Press

April was living up to its tradition today, with scattered thunder showers in the northern part of the state and light rain and mist along the coast.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in Dallas said no heavy precipitation was reported over the state, although practically all sections had cloudy skies. This morning heavy fog and low clouds extended clear along the gulf coast area. At Fort Worth light rain was reported.

Last night, the weather bureau said, there were a few thunder showers in northwest Texas although most of the rainfall was below one-tenth of an inch. The overnight minimum temperature ranged from 52 at Amarillo up to 71 at Laredo. Wink in the southwest mountain area of Texas was the warmest reported point yesterday with the mercury soaring up to 88 degrees.

Motorists Clip Jayhawks, 5-3

Big Spring's Motor's softball team rang up its first win of the 1947 season at the expense of Howard County Junior college Wednesday evening at the city park, scoring two runs in the fifth round to clinch a 5-3 victory.

The Motorists were limited to four bingles by Cotton Thomas but Leon Glenn Bredemeyer of the V8ers turned in an even better job against the Hawks.

Lad Smith's home run in the fifth was the only blow Bredemeyer gave up. He had a stretch of wildness in Round One, walking four men and giving up two runs. Outside of that, he could not be touched.

Bredemeyer collected one of the Ford blows. Others were punched out by Jimmy Felts, Rube Baker and Windmill Brown.

Dodgers Purchase Former Cat Star

HAVANA, April 3. (AP)—Brooklyn Dodger boss Branch Rickey suggested to Clay Hopper, manager of the Montreal farm, that he return Jackie Robinson to first base, and the negro star went back to that station for last night's Dodger-Royal game, which the Dodgers won 12-1.

Rickey decided that Robinson's best chance to make the Brooklyn club would be at first base although he is withholding a definite decision until after the games in Brooklyn next week.

Rickey also decided to purchase righthander Ed Chandler, last year's 20-game winner in the Texas League, from Fort Worth.

MORE PLAYERS ARRIVE

Ballinger Foe Of BS Tuesday

Pat Stasey's Big Spring baseball team, in training for nearly a week now, will probably play their first exhibition game in Ballinger next Tuesday.

The Hoses were originally booked to tangle with the Sweetwater Sports here Saturday afternoon but, since the local park is far from ready, the game was cancelled.

Uniforms for the Big Springers will probably be here next week. The athletes are using borrowed togery at the present time.

Stasey ordered a move in the training site from the Highland Park school park to the Bombarrier school diamond west of town beginning this afternoon. The team will continue to work out at that spot until the new plant is ready.

TRACK FEUD TO BE CARRIED ON IN KANSAS MEET APR. 19

WACO, April 2. (AP)—The hottest track feud ever cooked up in the Southwest—and one that has put more interest in the cinder path sport than anything to come along in Texas—will move out for folks in other areas to see.

Bullet Bill Martinson, Baylor's racing atom, will meet Flying Charley Parker of Texas at the Kansas relays, marking the fourth clash between these top speedsters.

Bullet Bill has the edge right now—he's won two out of three—and Parker will be pouring it on when the ace dashmen of the Southwest battle it out in Kansas April 19, but says J. D. Stovall, Martinson's coach, if everything is even he'll still take Bullet Bill.

"Martinson is too little (134 pounds) to beat Parker against a stiff wind or on a slow track," says Stovall. "But give him a good day and he'll take Charley. But I consider Parker one of the greatest runners of all time; don't get me wrong."

Stovall is probably the first track coach to feel the wrath of the alumni. And it's considered a good sign. Nobody remembers anyone wanting to fire a track coach before; so, interest must be really picking up. Anyway, the other day

Looking 'Em Over

Decision of the school board to locate the grand stand of the new baseball park in the northwest corner of its Highland Park property means that the plant will have no grass infield, at least for a while. The turf already there extends from about where second base is destined to be to the fences.

However, the infield will be far better than the 'ash heap' at the old San Antonio street park, which was known far and wide for its treacherous bounces.

Roland Murphy, Sweetwater skipper, is looking over three new players who reported to the Sport camp last weekend.

They are Don Odin and LeRoy Ridding, infielders, and fly-chaser Al Wilbanks.

The Sports take on the Clovis Pioneers of the WT-NM league in Sweetwater at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Reports from Central Texas say Denton may succeed Highland Park of Dallas as District 6AA football champion next fall. The Bronchos have 14 lettermen, including practically all of last year's starters, back in September. The Denton gang has a full-back who weighs 204 pounds and is still gaining.

Incidentally, there is a move afoot around Fort Worth and Dallas to have the district setups changed so that champions of Cowtown and Big D will not meet in bi-district play.

Not only Tom Mather but Stanley Taylor and the Barry brothers, Bill and Roy, will be seen in action in the indoor polo match at Leveland, which will start at 2:30 p. m. in the rodeo arena of that city.

Stanley is a four-goal player who suffered wounds in action during the last year. He returned to the saddle recently and reportedly is better than ever.

Kenny Mayne, the Salt Lake City lad who was injured here Monday night in a bout with Dory Detton, departed the hospital yesterday and was to go to his home in Utah before making up his mind about an operation. The medics were recommending it.

Half Of Forsan Grid Work Over

FORSAN, April 3. — Coach Frank Honeycutt today expressed satisfaction at progress made in spring training by his Forsan High school footballers, who are nearing completion of their second week of drills.

The Buffaloes will continue their workouts through April 18.

Coach Honeycutt is working with a squad of 20 men, including four lettermen and five squadmen from the 1946 contingent. Others seeking berths on the 1947 team have little experience.

Returning lettermen include Dan Fairchild, Floyd Pike, Eldon Pratter and Junior Dolan.

O'Dowdy Plans AC Tag Match

Wrestling Promoter Patrick O'Dowdy will stage a different sort of show at the West Texas Auction barn next Monday night—an Australian Tag match in which four tin-ears will pair off for a team match.

Two 30-minute limit matches will first be unreeled to decide opponents for the contest. In the first, Billy McEwin of Gainesville, Texas, goes against Phil Romano of Los Angeles, while Art Brady, Huntington Park, Calif., and Floyd Hansen, Brigham City, Utah, square off in the other.

Netters To Pass Up Angelo Meet

The Big Spring high school tennis team, which has had rough sailing in its starts to date, will pass up the San Angelo Invitational meet this weekend in favor of crowding in additional training for the district wars a week hence.

Coach Johnny Malaise is counting on entering both a boys' and girls' squad in the district show, which is scheduled to take place in Midland.

Baylor, Bovines Chalk Up Wins

Baylor and Texas have boosted their winnings to three games each against no defeats to keep a tie for first place in the Southwest Conference baseball race.

Baylor pounded out a 7 to 4 victory over Texas A. and M. at College Station yesterday to remain undefeated. The Aggies in losing dropped from a tie for first to second place with two wins and one defeat.

Texas breezed to an easy 10-2 victory over Rice last night at Houston to keep its slate clean. The loss was the third for Rice in conference play against no defeats.

In yesterday's other game Texas Christian won its first conference game, defeating Southern Methodist, 7-3. TCU with one victory and two defeats moved into third place. The loss was the third for SMU against no victories.

Shipper Chances For Finish Near Top Depends On Frosh

Outfield Ranks With The Best

BEAUMONT, April 3. (AP)—It's an old fashioned pre-season custom for most managers and typewriter pounders to talk "first division."

This is not exactly the case in the Beaumont Exporter ballclub although Manager Goldie Holt, news Shipper skipper, is finding it difficult not to enthuse about his 1947 prospects.

Exporter baseball fortunes are decidedly on the upgrade this year and if spring training showings can be taken as a yardstick don't lift an eyebrow if the Shippers nudge their way up into the select quartet.

Last year, with a late assembled club, the Shippers didn't finish a bad fifth, and with a vastly improved array of talent this season the Exporters should at least step up a notch, if not higher. That's straight from the hopper.

Skipper Holt has a small looking infield with Red Jessen at first, Clarence Difani at second, Al Stringer at shortstop and Clifton Perez at third.

Jessen, late of Binghamton, fields right and bats left. He's got power. Difani hit 289 with Birmingham in 1946 and Stringer, brother of the ex-Cub shortstop, is from Norfolk where he hit .277. He is quite a fielder. Perez batted .314 at Augusta.

The outfield is the smile-bringer with Russell Burns in left, Frank Shone, who hit 288 with Portland last year, in center, and Veteran Milton Byrnes, ex-big leaguer who played with Newark and Kansas City last year, in right.

Then there is Burton Boyer, a boy who hit .314 at Binghamton, and Jerry Crosby, back from last year's Shipper squad, battling for spots.

Crosby is a fine utility player who can hold down first and second.

Catching is extremely weak and help will have to come from the New York Yankees, parent club. But it is coming.

Bill Anske and Eddie Morris look the best of the lot but they are not ready. Anske played only 14 games last year with Augusta after a spring start with the Shipper. Morris is a semi-pro product.

Pitching looks better-than-average with Raymond Stelmack, who won 10 and lost eight with the Ships last year; Burton Barkeley, former Western Association star; John Mackinson, with a 14-10 record from Sunbury, Pa., where he led the Interstate League in strikeouts; Edward Mizerbeque, who won 12 and lost seven at Augusta; Gale Pringle, with the Ships last year, and Bill Trotter, veteran major and minor league chucker, heading the list.

They are all right handers.

Freddie Collins, Shipper first sacker last year, is trying his hand at pitching and is the only Southpaw on the staff.

Harry Fowle, Bill Gill, Willie Greer, Jack McKinney and Joe Venezuela, all righthanders plucked from the lesser minors, are looking fair and one or two may come through with regular jobs.

Jimmie Cooke, Dick Korte, Harry Ragone and Robert Marquis are four other infielders battling for spots and they are making the inside four step lively.

Korte is a veteran who can still get around.

Tony Farpo and John Wagner are two other outfield prospects who are very much in the running.

Harry Garbett, righthander with Sunbury last year, is another youngster looking good on the Walter Harris and Milton Woodall are two semi-pro catchers who are seeking Texas League assignments.

The Exporter prospects do look good. They have speed, have shown decided batting punch in camp and exhibition games, have the hustle and there's not a problem child

Soggy Fairways Greet Entries In Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 3. (AP)—Soggy fairways greeted a field of 37 of golf's most talented today as the 11th annual Masters Tournament began with a half dozen players sharing the role of favorite.

Heavy rains of the past few days prevented cutting of the fertile, rolling, 6,800-yard national course and left casual water in many spots. A bridge on the 12th hole was still under water yesterday.

Established in the favorite's niche were Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., the runnerup last year and in 1942; Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., the year's leading money winner; Bobby Locke, the South African champion; Lew Worsham of Washington, D. C., a youngster listed eighth in total money won; Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y., and Carey Middlecoff of Memphis, a gangling young dentist who turned pro last month.

Locke, runnerup to Sammy Snead of Hot Springs, Va., in the British Open last year, arrived with Snead yesterday just in time to get in a quick practice round.

Snead, who won three and tied one match in 16 with Locke on a South African tour, was five under par in his round yesterday while Locke was even par on their hurried jaunt over the layout.

Barron landed among the favorites on the strength of his play in recent tournaments and his showing in practice here earlier in the week. Hogan and Demaret earned the rating as the game's most consistent players of the winter tour.

Herman Keiser of Akron, O., the defending champion, was paired with the famous Bobby Jones, co-

CARY MIDDLECOFF designer of the course, in today's competition, which called for the first contestants to tee off at noon EST.

Rebels Smash Sox

DALLAS, April 3. (AP)—The Dallas Rebels ended a seven-game winning streak of the Boston Red Sox yesterday, defeating the American League champions 7-4 in an exhibition game.

Webb To Enter Angelo Games

Big Spring high school's track and field squad will be strengthened in the San Angelo Track and Field meet Saturday with the addition of Donald Webb, ace miler, and possibly with the return of sprinter Ernie Ache.

Coach Mule Stockton was to test Ache in the 100-yard dash this afternoon at Steer stadium.

The Bovines will be one of 25 or so teams competing in the games. Other squads which have already been entered are Christoval, Big Spring, Ballinger, Coleman, Tivy High of Kerrville, Lake View, Sterling City, Anson, Sweetwater, Eden, Baird, Water Valley, Bangs, Abilene, Junction, Fort Stockton, Del Rio, Ozona, Alpine, Mertzon, Brack and the host team.

Coach Glenn Redfield of Angelo is serving as director general of the meet.

Announces Details of $20,000,000 Price Reductions

Details of the recently announced International Harvester policy of making price reductions to save users of our products approximately $20,000,000 a year have now been worked out.

We have reduced prices on 163 models. These cover 12 basic models of farm tractors, 123 basic models of farm machines, 16 basic models of industrial tractors and engines, and 12 models of motor trucks, as well as certain motor truck attachments. The new lower prices are effective as of March 10, 1947.

These reductions were made not because of any decline in demand, but because we believe nothing is more important to this country than to lower the prices of the goods people buy.

While prices have not been changed on all products, we have made reductions wherever possible, in the amounts possible. Prices of many of our most popular products have been substantially lowered.

Altogether, more than half of the company's customers will be benefited by the reductions, which range from 1% to 23.8% and from $2.50 to $300 per item, based on list prices, F.O.B. Chicago.

Since the people have demanded that the government withdraw from price control in peacetime, the responsibility to keep prices in check is back where it should be—in the hands of business and industry. The business outlook makes it possible for us to move toward the goal of lower prices, and we have felt a duty to act as promptly as possible.

Our ability to maintain these lower prices will depend on the supply and price of materials we buy from others and on uninterrupted production at reasonable wage levels.

The prices listed here carry out our announced policy that "Any price is too high if it can be reduced."

KICK-BACK BREAKS RANCHER'S LEG

The young Seneca rancher said he kicked an old bull to hurry him into a corral. The bull kicked back.

Afghanistan Town Has Modern Boom

HERAT, Afghanistan (AP)—Ancient Herat, once host to the invading armies of Genghis Khan, Tamerlane, Alexander the Great and the Islamic crusaders—more recently an isolated half-forgotten trade center for nomadic tribes, is going modern.

With motor transport and the world's growing appetite for karakul providing prosperity, a new city of parkway streets and modern buildings is being constructed.

"In twenty or thirty years," said the director of the provincial government's foreign relations division, "you'll see a great city in this valley."

In less than ten years, resident engineers say, 3,100 homes and buildings have been constructed. Government offices, fashionable homes and a big almost-modern government-owned hotel (in which

I was the only guest) circle a carefully planned central park and sodded soccer field within sight of the crumbling parapets which knew the shock of Alexander's ancient phalanxes.

Telephone and power lines reach out to the new city and the canyon suburbs in the nearby foothills. From dawn to dark uniformed policemen give vigorous hand signal to a trickle of donkeys, horse carts, camels and a few American automobiles moving English-style along the left side of the road.

Brick shop buildings are nearing completion along a broad avenue outside the ragged old bazaar, and small homes with lawns and gardens have sprung up along pine-shaded drives.

Less than 30,000 of the approximate 300,000 residents remain inside the old city which is said to have housed one million before the coming of Genghis Khan. Complete abandonment of the old city is planned by the efficient young landowners in European dress who constitute an unofficial chamber of commerce.

"After centuries of backwardness resulting from war and confusion, Afghanistan is committed to a policy of peace and progress," said the president of the city government. "As a buffer state between great powers—and friendly to all our neighbors—we now can begin an era of internal improvement completely free of foreign interference for the first time in our history."

The country's almost complete lack of modern transportation media does not dampen the enthusiasm of merchants whose fortunes were built on camel caravans.

"Herat is a good investment," said the manager of the Banque Mellé (National Bank).

"Herat is on a cross-road connecting Iran, Russia, Baluchistan and India. Already there is a growing stream of motor transport from Britain and America during the war.

"Eventual pavement of our national roads will accelerate that flow. Karakul, the so-called black gold of Afghanistan, soon may be moving by air. With foreign aid and advice, the establishment of railroads is not beyond the realm of probability.

LAKESHORE LIGHTHOUSE—The Gross Pointe lighthouse at Evanston, Ill., seen through a stone arch, forms a picturesque point of interest along Lake Michigan's shore.

Home Building Controls Remain In Effect Despite CPA Transfer

Transfer of certain functions and personnel of the Civilian Production Administration to the Office of the Housing Expediter on April 1 in no measure lessens controls over home building that have been in effect heretofore. Regional Expediter Ellis Charles of Dallas has announced.

These controls, he asserted, remain in full force and effect.

Charles said the OHE took over exactly where and when the CPA left off, and that compliance actions started by CPA will be carried as though no transfer had occurred.

CPA regional construction offices are to be discontinued on April 19, according to the present schedule, and six district offices will be combined with other district offices. However, all other district offices and district construction committees will continue their functions.

Controls administered by CPA which are continued by OHE are limitation of non-housing construction to $50,000,000 a week allocation of a few basic raw materials in critically short supply and special assistance to building materials producers in securing necessary machinery and other equipment.

Charles added that all other current housing controls likewise remain in effect. These controls are veterans' preference in buying or renting new houses, a simplified permit system for housing construction and the channeling of surplus materials into housing. Charles also emphasized that sections and amendments of the Second War Powers Act, which bestow authority to control allocation of building materials and facilities related to their use, remain in force until June 30.

County Farmers Gain $20,000 If Bill Passes

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 3. (AP)—Seven-year-old Allison Brown wore her mother's $2,200 diamond and sapphire ring to school to show it to her young friends, but it was missing when she got home.

Police and Boy Scouts searched for it until Allison's mother, Mrs. B. Gatz Brown, reported everything had turned out all right.

She found the ring in the lining of Allison's coat.

Passage of the deficiency appropriations bill by the US Senate now before that body after clearing the House of Representatives Tuesday, will mean an additional $20,000 or so to Howard county farmers who have approved claims to insurance on 1946 cotton crops.

County growers have already received about $250,000 for 1946 cotton crop losses.

George Mahon, congressional from the 19th district, informed M. Weaver, local AAA supervisor, this week that some 17,000 Texas farmers will benefit from the bill.

According to Mahon, approximately 45 per cent of the entire south's growers have not yet been paid for crop reversals.

Net loss to the Government on the entire crop insurance program will be $2 million dollars, Mahon wrote. He predicted that the 1948 crop year would be drastically modified. He added that no modification of the cotton insurance program for 1947 is anticipated.

Reason for the preponderance of local claims already having been settled is that the failure in Howard county was so early and so complete that the claims were processed early and ahead of the deluge that depleted the cotton insurance reserves appropriations.

"I realize that the cotton insurance program has been very imperfect and that it will be drastically changed for the crop year 1948," said Mahon. "But claims on the 1946 crop are obligations of the government and ought to be immediately honored."

Net loss to the government will be about $42 million under the 1946 program. The 1948 program

Packinghouse Men Sign Contract

FORT WORTH, April 3. (AP)—United Packinghouse Workers of America has negotiated a union contract with the Hy-Grade Food Products Corporation of Vernon, A. J. Pittman, district director of the union, said today.

Pittman said that about 100 employees of the Vernon plant will receive wage increases ranging from 16 cents to 37 cents an hour. The agreement also provides, he said, that workers will receive a general increase in four cents an hour in three months and that an additional hike in wages will be made in six months to bring the Vernon scale up to the level in Fort Worth.

The union director said the minimum wage for packinghouse workers in Fort Worth is 80½ cents an hour for women and 91½ cents for men.

Weight for weight, plywood is stronger than steel.

will be revised drastically. Mahon predicted, but he felt that those who had signed for the 1947 program would be protected.

SILVER LINING IN GIRL'S COAT

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 3. (AP)—Seven-year-old Allison Brown wore her mother's $2,200 diamond and sapphire ring to school to show it to her young friends, but it was missing when she got home.

Police and Boy Scouts searched for it until Allison's mother, Mrs. B. Gatz Brown, reported everything had turned out all right.

She found the ring in the lining of Allison's coat.

Flaring Of Gas Will Be Stopped

By PAUL BOLTON
Herald Austin Bureau

AUSTIN, April 2.—It has taken quite a good number of years to find out what natural gas is good for. Gas usually occurs in conjunction with oil—it can occur without oil, but where there is oil, there also in most cases is gas. Originally gas was considered nothing more than a lifting agent for the oil and in itself of no account.

So it was—when found with oil—burned. The word used is "flared." It's a nuisance which shouldn't be left hanging around the place—It will hang—for fear of an explosion.

And it's still being flared. If it is flared where there is no market for the gas, that's legal. For the past three or four years, the Texas Railroad Commission has been building up to the point where it can stop the flaring of gas. Picked out as a guinea pig case was the Seeligson field, down in the Corpus Christi area.

Millions of cubic feet of gas went to the air daily. Hearings were held. Operators didn't move to stop the flaring as rapidly as the Commission thought they should. The commission cracked down. Operators had to stop it by April 1—otherwise—no oil.

The operators came back with a lawsuit. It's now in the courts. It will be a yardstick to measure the Commission's power. There are two sides to the story. Seeligson operators say they're conservation minded. They wanted to put in a gasoline plant, lay gas lines, repressure. But they couldn't get the materials. They've got them ordered now, by the first of next year proposed to have stopped flaring. That was one strong argument. Another was that it would constitute a double discrimination, like this:

There are some operators in the field who do have a market for their gas, therefore these operators can keep on producing oil; therefore the lucky operators will drain oil from beneath the properties of the unlucky ones. That, they argue, is an intra-field discrimination. The commission argues, among other things, that the producers with a gas market have been producing only a short time, maybe they're entitled to catch up on oil already drained from them.

The other argument is that whereas this drastic order has been applied to Seeligson, other fields still flare gas, hence there is an inter-field discrimination. The Commission's reply is that hearings have been called on numerous other fields for like orders. Then the operators argue that under the law the Commission doesn't have the power to stop the production from so-called marginal wells—wells with pumping, or low, capacity—hence there will be inter-well discrimination. These are typical questions the court must answer.

Depended upon persuasion and education to prevent flaring. Chairman Ernest O. Thompson was particularly proud of the East Texas field which he had just inspected. Fond of percentages, Thompson says East Texas with its 23-thousand-plus wells is "97.83 per cent pure, and that's almost as good as ivory soap." Of the 23,055 wells in the field, 22,553 are connected to gasoline plants where the gas is first stripped of its most valuable elements before it is flared.

There'll come a time, Thompson adds, when even the gasoline plants won't flare. To arrive at that time (in East Texas) this is necessary: Production must be got on some basis so that the gas supply to the gasoline plants will be on a smooth, regular basis, so that it will be dependable to a pipeline. Until that is worked out—and the commission has had three hearings on it—there'll still be some 20 million cubic feet a day of residue gas burned in flares. More understandable: Reduced to heat units, that's like burning 3,333 barrels of oil. But such a vast improvement has been made! Time was when all of the gas (2,000 cubic feet times the number of barrels of oil produced per day) was burned.

So long as gas is considered a by-product of oil, as it is now in oil fields, there will be some flared. There will be cases where it would be economically impossible to save the gas. Because it can't be forced into a barrel and stored on the cellar shelf. It requires a pipeline, or a gasoline plant.

But the Railroad Commission has definitely embarked upon a program which has—at its ultimate end—the goal of stopping flared gas wherever is possible. It will mark a new phase in the history, in Texas, of natural resource conservation.

FLYING SUIT FLOATS
WRIGHT FIELD, Dayton, O. The suit incorporates the functions of the light flying suit, the life vest and the emergency sustenance vest.

Census Tabulates 3,706 Students

A tabulation of all initial reports in the Big Spring Independent School district census accounted for 3,706 scholastics, W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, announced today.

The total is expected to increase as soon as a complete recheck of the canvass can be made. The ultimate total last year provided a net of 3,864 scholastics, and school officials still were confident today that the 1946 figure would be exceeded. The re-checking process already has been launched, but first results probably will not be tabulated for several days.

Last year's records show 27 transfers in and 18 transfers out of the district.

Policeman Wonders About Gratitude

LORAIN, O. (UP)—City Patrolman Leo Matuszak wonders "what price glory" after he saved a baby from possible suffocation. The patrolman broke a window ventilator of a locked automobile in which the baby, muffled in a blanket, had fallen on the floor. The baby's father met Matuszak a few minutes later and demanded: "How about putting in a new window?"

The Texas Poll

Budget-Balancing Appears Difficult

By THE TEXAS POLL

AUSTIN, April 3.—The morale of the Texas buying public has remained fairly constant during the last three months.

As more and more is said about the high cost of living and economists ponder the possibilities of depression, one-half of the public appears committed to the view that by next autumn it is going to be harder to balance the family budget.

About the same proportion felt the same way last year just before Christmas. At that time, however, more people were viewing the future through rose-colored glasses than now.

The Texas Poll surveyed sentiment by asking:

"Six months from now, do you think it is going to be harder to make both ends meet, easier or about the same as now?" Note in the results below that the percentage answering "easier" has dropped five points.

	Dec. 1946	Now
Harder	49%	50%
Same	29	35
Easier	18	13
No Opinion	4	2

No significant difference was noted in the thinking of men and women on this subject. However, persons in the lower income groups tended to be more pessimistic than those in the higher economic brackets.

Comparison by economic status: Answering "Harder"

Above-average	39%
Average	48
Low-plus	53
Low	56

Other measurements by the Texas Poll, analyzed along with the current survey, indicate as much as or more sober realism on the part of the public than fear.

Increase in living costs faster than family incomes has been anticipated for sometime. Last August the poll found (1) 86 per cent of Texas breadwinners felt prices had gone up a great deal, (2) 63 per cent said they expected prices to continue rising, (3) 66 per cent predicted their family incomes would remain unchanged for six months while 11 per cent believed their family incomes actually would drop.

In December, half the population foresaw that it would be harder to make both ends meet by this summer, yet two-thirds were satisfied that general price control had been lifted by the government and were against its return. Two months later—considering the outlook for their families from other viewpoints as well as financial—75 per cent believed 1947 would be the same as or better than last year, while only 20 per cent felt it would not be as good, with 5 per cent undecided.

Accidents in homes killed 34,000 Americans in 1946 compared with 33,500 killed in traffic accidents.

Test Vote Scheduled On Lilienthal Issue

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—After weeks of hearings and debate, the Senate headed today into a test vote that will show how members line up on confirmation of David E. Lilienthal for the important post of atomic energy commission chairman.

The vote, set for 5 p.m., is on a motion to return the nomination to committee for further consideration and an FBI investigation.

Lilienthal supporters concede that if the motion is successful it will be tantamount to defeat for President Truman's nominee. On the other hand they would regard its defeat as a long step to eventual victory.

With both sides expecting a close vote, opposing camps were carefully checking the membership roll. One Lilienthal supporter predicted a margin of "two or three votes" in the decisive test.

Debate over Lilienthal was resumed today after an 11 hour and 22 minute session yesterday that lasted until nearly midnight.

Fastest Bomber Produced In US Being Tested

John L. Lewis, mine union chief, went to Capitol Hill to tell a House labor subcommittee his views of the Centra, Ill., coal mine tragedy and the period of mourning he decreed but which some lawmakers have termed a "velled" strike.

An explosion in a Centra mine March 25 killed 11 miners and Lewis ordered a 6-day mourning period for soft coal miners. It began on March 31, the date Lewis once set for start of a coal mine strike but later called off.

Rep. Reeves (R-Mo.) told the House yesterday the mourning period is "a thinly veiled and mocking strike" in "contemptuous disregard" of a supreme court decision.

Lewis previously told a Senate subcommittee that the Centra miners "have been murdered because of the criminal negligence of J. A. Krug." The mines are under control of the interior department, headed by Krug.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 3. (AP)—A long, slim experimental plane powered by four axial-flow jets and described by its builders as the fastest bomber produced in this country flew from here to Muroc Dry Lake on its initial test hop of one hour and 33 minutes yesterday.

There the Consolidated-Vultee XB-46, the second jet propelled bomber built in the United States, will undergo further tests by the Army.

Exact speed of the XB-46 on the test flight was kept secret, but Consolidated-Vultee said the plane, designed as a medium bomber, is equivalent in performance to the heavy bombers used during the war.

Consolidated-Vultee said the four jets develop a total static thrust of 16,000 pounds. The plane rocketed into the air on the take-off after using less than half the 8,500-foot runway at Lindbergh Field.

The XB-46 has a pneumatic system for landing gear and bomb bay doors instead of the usual hydraulic. Its gross weight was given as 21,000 pounds, and its useful load, 42,922 pounds.

An Associated Press survey of the House foreign affairs committee showed a majority favoring President Truman's $400,000,000 Greece-Turkey aid program. Of the 25 committee members, 13 said they favor the program generally, five were undecided or noncommittal, and seven were out of town.

The 13 favoring some aid program included both Democrats and Republicans.

The Senate committee, in a closed session yesterday, was reported to have approved a proposal giving the United Nations authority to halt the American program provided UN was ready to provide similar aid. It also voted to insist upon Senate confirmation of the program's directors and to stipulate that none of the funds could be used to pay off old Greek or Turkish loans from other countries.

These matters also occupied congressional attention:

Portal pay — a Senate-House conference committee undertook today the job of compromising differences between the two branches on Anti-portal pay legislation. House and Senate have passed different bills to ban portal pay suits.

Republicans — Rep. Halleck of Indiana, House Republican lead-

Two Injured As Plane Hits Wires

DALLAS, April 3. (AP)—Two persons were injured last night when their Cessna plane crashed after striking electric wires over the interurban tracks in northeast Dallas.

Richard E. Manning and Miss Veina Potts, both of Dallas, were taken to Parkland hospital with cuts and bruises.

The wires were severed and electric service in the northeast section of the city was interrupted for about an hour. The plane was not greatly damaged.

Count Zeppelin completed his first airship in 1900.

Mrs. J. C. Short, 93, Dies In Wichita Falls

WICHITA FALLS, April 3. (AP)—Mrs. J. C. Short, 93, who with her husband was recognized nationally in 1944 when they celebrated their 75th wedding anniversary, died last night at the home of a son, Oscar Short. Her husband died in December, 1945.

Born and married in Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. Short moved to Texas in 1879 and to Wichita Falls in the early 1920's.

Survivors include two other sons, two daughters, 36 grand children, 56 great-grandchildren and seven great-great grandchildren.

National Capital Wins Safety Award

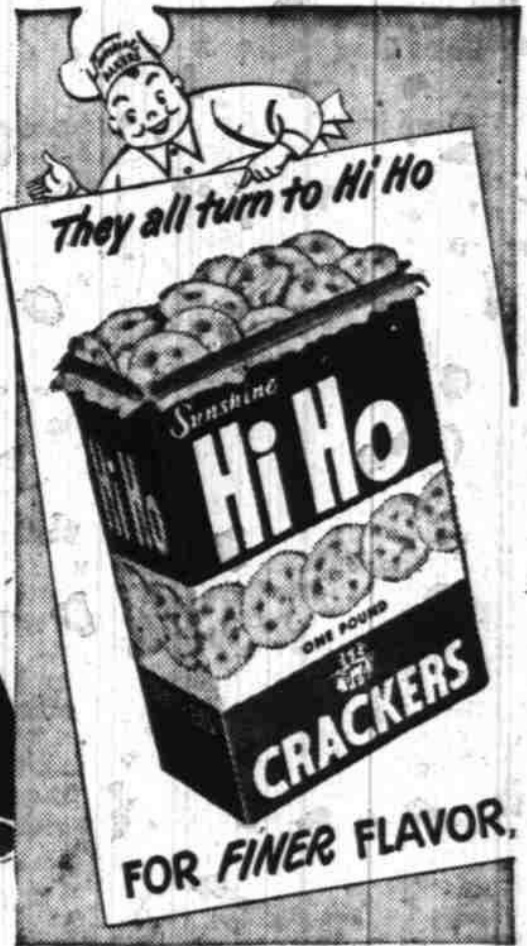

CHICAGO, April 3. (AP)—The state of Connecticut and the city of Washington, D. C., were named today as grand award winners in the 1946 national traffic safety contest concluded by the National Safety Council.

In addition to Connecticut and Washington, D. C., three states and seven cities won divisional first place awards in geographical and population groups.

The states were Texas in the southern division; Minnesota, mid-western; Washington, western; and Connecticut, eastern.

Change Not Always Easy Thing

There is so much to be heard and read about the upheaval at Texas A&M college that it is difficult, if not impossible, to get a fair analysis of the situation.

The veteran students, who comprise about five-sevenths of the total enrollment of the school, appear to be the backbone of the student movement which has resulted in a vote of "no confidence" from that segment in the administration. Doubtless, there is a broad section of support among the ex-students. The years have given them more experience and thus they are less vocal and employ more finesse.

But not all ex-students agree with the attitudes manifest in the furor.

While it is impossible to pin the whole thing down to a word, it seems to us that when it is reduced to its elements, that "tradition" comes about as near incorporating the fundamentals of conflicts as any word could.

The break with tradition seems to be one of, if not the chief cause of the difficulty. Now that break was not accidental; it was premeditated as a part of the basic policy adopted by the board and incumbent upon the administration. It means that a lot of the old customs, cherished by upper-classmen and rooted in the memories of alumni who remember horseplay more readily than academic achievements, were on the way out. The very observance of the Easter season should remind us that uprooting tradition frequently has violent repercussions.

Perhaps one mistake that was made was in failing to take into account the maturity of young men who have returned from the wars. It is not unlikely that they could have been shown the basic objectives and have seen for themselves that not only A&M but every other institution of higher learning worth its salt must break with tradition to meet the demands of a fast-moving world. Time is too precious to concentrate any but the most important things. Perhaps youth as well as more mature people can see this if shown with reason and not arbitrarily.

Clarifying Support Of The UN

The pronouncement of Warren Austin regarding the United States and the United Nations, plus the proposed amendments by Sen. Vandenberg to the Greek-Turkish aid bills are significant.

Neither precludes the imminence of US aid to these countries, and for the avowed purpose of emergency support to forces which are, at least nominally, fostering democracy in preference to communism.

They do, however, put the US on record as renewing its ultimate faith in the United Nations. Perhaps that faith should be immediate, but the UN is faced with some imponderables which make its entry into the Greek-Turkish question bewilderingly complex. In the first place the UN is not yet in a position to do policing against aggression. The assumption that the UN was envisioned to police against communism is vague.

However, the United Nations, with all its flaws and impotencies to date, represents the best hope at the moment of eventual world-wide cooperation in establishing and maintaining the peace.

Thus, the statement by Austin that the United States intends to give support to the UN even more aggressively and the amendments by Sen. Vandenberg, making US aid subject to UN approval and the approval of nations involved, are evidences that the US is now making a statement of position which perhaps would have been more timely had they been made at the time the President first urged the aid. If the action is well founded and sincere, it will do much to remove the stigma of lost confidence in the UN and open the way to its growth.

Size Of Your Rent Is At Stake

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The size of your rent as at stake in what Congress is doing right now.

The present rent control law expires June 30 unless Congress votes to continue it.

Real estate and home-building people have been urging Congress to throw rent control out entirely.

Not President Truman. Tuesday he asked Congress to continue it another year after June 30.

He didn't say so in so many words, but he made it clear he thinks housing still is so scarce that an end to control will shoot rents up.

But Congress is working on what to do about continuing the controls. It can do one of several things:

1. End controls.
2. Continue them as they are.
3. Allow general increases for landlords everywhere.
4. Pass a law too weak to mean anything.
5. Continue controls a few months or a full year.

Congress seems likely to continue controls a while, anyway. But in what form? No one can say.

The work on rent control is being done by two congressional committees: The House and Senate Banking Committees.

Their job is to work out rent control bills upon which the full House and Senate can vote.

The Senate committee has completed its job. It has okayed a bill to do this:

1. Continue controls another year after June 30.
2. Let citizen groups in about 650 areas decide where, and if, rents could be increased or controls ended in their areas.

The Senate bill will lie around now till the full Senate gets a chance to vote for it as is or change it.

It's a little different in the House Committee.

That committee, behind-closed doors Tuesday, okayed a bill to boost all rents 10 per cent.

But—this isn't final with the House Committee. It was to work again Wednesday and maybe, change the bill.

King Paul May Become Real Leader

The Greeks again have heard the fateful words which have come echoing down through the centuries: "The King is dead; Long live the King," and should their new ruler have a modicum of understanding and guts (if one may be permitted this very un-Regal expression) he may give his liberty-loving people the leadership they need to scape totalitarian Communism.

The late King George was a colorful individual who lacked leadership—lacked guts. His whole vicissitudinous life was marked by this deficiency: What the new King, Paul, will produce remains to be seen but, as this column remarked yesterday, he scarcely can be less efficient than his brother.

This is, of course, a particularly critical moment for the Athens government. It might inspire the Red elements to redouble their efforts to overthrow the government, though paradoxically the saving grace in this instance could lie in the very weakness of the late king. He provided little guidance or personality to be missed by people or government. However, it's equally possible that the anti-Communists may find a way of strengthening their position as the result of the wholly unexpected death of King George.

Thus far there has been no indication that the position of Greece, as one of the key bastions of Democracy against aggressive Communism, has been changed. President Truman's proposal for help to this fery little Balkan State still stands, and Congress continues its study of the proposition; The Greek government shows no signs of weakening in the face of the Red offensive.

Simultaneously with this sensational development, another throne came under the spotlight—that of Spain—and it's a peculiar coincidence that both Communism and Western Democracy would give much to see it under their respective isms and within their respective zones of influence. For what happens in Spain will have a mighty effect on the political trend in France—where the Communist electoral vote has been running

"I CALL MY MEN OUT EVERY MONTH"

Hal Boyle's Notebook

Ancient Mariner Rests

OCRACOKE, N. C. (AP)—"Big Ike" O'Neal can still hear the sea, but it doesn't say anything to him anymore.

"Ain't done a stroke of work for eleven years now," said "Big Ike," sitting in a rocker in the weathered frame house where he lives now, a sailor home from the waves.

He still tells his hours by a fine old Cathedral clock he paid $2.50 for 59 years ago. Almost 82, "Big Ike" is one of the few veterans of the era of sail left on this small island off the North Carolina coast, part of the "outer banks" which seamen know as the graveyard of the Atlantic.

Time has chipped away some of "Big Ike's" 240 pounds but hasn't bent his six-foot-three frame. Nor has it slowed his fondness for "yarning" about the days that are gone, when the Hatteras Shoals seized rich ships and turned them into sea skeletons.

"I'm glad to see you—or anybody else for that matter," said "Big Ike" the night I called on him. "I can't talk so well, because I'm using somebody else's teeth. I bought 'em all right. But they ain't really my own teeth. That's why I say I'm using somebody else's teeth."

Two events that stand out in his crowded memory are the first time he ever ate white flour bread and the night the duck flew in through his cottage floor.

"I was eleven years old and never tasted anything but corn meal," he said. "My brother and a fellow bought a barrel of flour in New York, paid ten dollars for it. We spread a sheet out on the floor, rolled the barrel on it and divided the barrel by sawing it in half. The flour was

Marines Serve At Navy Party

WASHINGTON—Using marine enlisted men as servants to be catching among certain brass hats.

This column recently revealed how marine corps commandant Gen. Alexander Vandegrift had used enlisted marines as bartenders, haterback boys, and doormen at cocktail parties, despite marine regulation 553, which states that "under no circumstances shall any enlisted man be employed as a servant."

Gen. Vandegrift, however, is not the only sinner. It now develops that Col. Harold E. Rosecrans, officer in charge of the marines guarding the Washington naval gun factory, also drafted enlisted men. He issued orders detailing two marine sergeants, one corporal and nine privates to act as hat-check boys and doormen and to park cars at a party given for high-ranking officers by Adm. Glen B. Davis, commanding officer at the naval gun factory. In charge of the servant detail was Warrant Officer Ernest T. Bean. The men were not asked if they were willing to serve on this detail, nor were they paid anything for their service.

And while marines were resentful at being relegated to the position of servants for General Vandegrift, the marines at the naval gun factory were even more indignant at waiting on a navy admiral.

Col. Rosecrans has gone even farther and has used a detail of approximately four enlisted men to clean his personal quarters every day. Over the weekend, furthermore, six or seven marines give his home a thorough Saturday house cleaning—sweeping, swabbing, and polishing until the place gleams. It's a fine solution to the servant problem—if you don't mind forgetting Jimma, the Halls of Montezuma and the Shores of Tripoli.

Chairman Bob Taft of the Senate labor committee is facing rebellion from Democrats and some Republicans on his committee who resent his hiring of Dr. Marjorie Shearon as committee consultant. Mrs. Shearon, formerly with the Republican national committee, has publicly called several senators on the committee communists and fellow travelers. Now she expects to be a "consultant" for the unions she has called "communists."

Chairman Fred Hartley (N.J.) of the House labor committee has been calling Republican members only to draft labor legislation. While Democratic congressmen are barred, the US Chamber of Commerce and the National Association of Manufacturers are allowed to sit in on the secret sessions. This unusual, unparliamentary practice has been protested by a fellow Republican, Rep. Gerald Landis of Indiana, who has reminded Hartley that the Democrats did not treat Republicans that way when they were in the majority.

ing job of supervising police activity on the Senate side of the Capitol. In fact, the only black mark against him is that he belongs to the wrong party, he's a Democrat.

So Lieutenant James has been notified that he has been fired—to make way for a Republican successor. Meantime, GOP patronage chiefs are retaining on the payroll Policeman Ellis Duke, who holds down two jobs. In the daytime he works as a Capitol policeman. At night he is a bartender at the Harrington hotel.

The name of the cocktail room where policeman-bartender Duke dispenses drinks fits right into the Republican party. It is called the "Pink Elephant."

STRATEGY MEETING

CIO President Philip Murray held a very significant secret strategy meeting of ten top CIO officials in Pittsburgh last week at which he got reports on new contract negotiations in the steel, auto and electrical industries.

In each of these, Murray was told, industry is refusing to sign bat-gang, collectively for new contracts. His henchmen reported that management sits tight, defies the unions to strike, warning that if they do, Congress will crack down on all labor.

Murray told the conference the same thing had happened in his negotiations with US Steel for a new contract. He said that as a result, strikes are beginning to look more and more inevitable.

In the end, Murray sent out a call for the top 250 CIO officials to meet in Washington ten days hence to chart a new united strategy to force industry to negotiate.

UNDER THE DOME

General secretary of the communist party Eugene Dennis recently confirmed this columnist's belief that communists are not smart. When asked to tell his real name to the House un-American committee, Dennis refused. Instead, he should have said, "I'll tell my real name if the committee chairman will tell his real name." The original name of Chairman J. Parnell Thomas of New Jersey is John Feeney, as Thomas himself laughingly told newsman after Dennis refused to answer.

The Senate year investigating committee has been fishing to link Elliott Roosevelt with the 18-million-dollar wooden cargo plane on which Howard Hughes is still working. So far the fishing has been unsuccessful.

The White House is taking no chances that government witnesses who testify at Senate hearings on the armed-forces merger bill will talk out of turn. Secretary of War Patterson and Secretary of Navy Forrestal were required to submit their prepared testimony to the White House before testifying on Capitol Hill and lesser officials are doing the same.

Congressional mail on the loans to Greece and Turkey is not favorable—despite polls to the contrary. Congressmen report the majority of their letter-writing constituents oppose the loans, particularly to Turkey. They suspect, however, this may be an organized letter-writing drive.

The joint chiefs of staff, the all-powerful Anglo-American military planning board, won't move out of the new state department building. Result—the state department has had to delay moving into its new quarters for another two weeks, while British and American brass hats take their time.

Movies To Encourage Enlistments

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—With Selective Service now ended, the Army plans to use every medium to encourage enlistments, and that includes the movies. Col. Mason Wright of the War Department was dispatched here this week to talk to studio chiefs. Management is already planning a feature to aid the Army's drive. Titled "Five Steps to Heaven," it concerns an ex-GI who returns to a wife and five children and the travails of civilian life. He solves his problems by re-enlisting in the Army.

Greer Garson, tired of the "pap" (her word) that studios are offering in the way of film stories, is doing some writing of her own. One of her yarns concerns Mrs. Sarah Siddons, the 18th Century English actress.

Minnie Set Record At Annapolis

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—When Minnie, Annapolis' best-known cat, died after fourteen years of motherhood, she was credited with leaving three hundred kittens, as well as their kittens, their kittens' kittens and their kittens' kittens' kittens.

Three lilies were placed in her coffin as she lay in state at an Annapolis grocery store and the town turned out to pay its last respects.

No one knows exactly how many relatives Minnie had, but the proprietor swears he kept careful count of her own 300 children.

Minnie, he says, had a litter every nine weeks for 14 years.

Temporary Lull Sets In At A&M

COLLEGE STATION, April 3. (AP)—The Easter holiday intervened today to bring a lull in the troubled affairs of the Texas A&M college cadet corps.

The controversy between students and the college administration, which came to public attention last January after senior officers of the corps resigned as the climax to a night march to the home of President Gibb Gilchrist, will be aired next week before a joint legislative committee.

The committee voted to hold its first meeting in Austin Tuesday night and directed eight students to appear at that time. Summoned before the committee were William J. McCormick of Dallas, senior cadet class president, who was demoted from captain to private and ordered out of the corps by a college military board, cadet Colonel Ed Brandt of Houston, in whom the seniors voted "no confidence," and six officers of the Veterans Students association of the college.

Before the Easter recess began Col. Guy S. Mejoy, corps commandant, ordered the first composite regiment broken up and its units assigned to three remaining regiments. He issued the order after a military board ordered the regiments' commanding officer, cadet J. D. Demopolis of Texarkana, out of the corps. The military boards which have been hearing charges of disobedience, insubordination and disregard for authority against 110 senior officers, will resume its hearings on Monday. In three days of hearings, five panels of college staff officers, working in relays, ordered 27 cadets out of the corps, found 15 innocent and handed out various punishments to 43 others. Fifty-eight more members of the class are to be heard.

When the legislative inquiry committee met in Austin yesterday to organize, Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, author of the resolution which authorized the investigation and a member of the committee, warned members that "you have a much bigger bear by the tail than you think."

He said the trouble at A&M was deep-seated, of three or four years duration, and that the recent student mass meeting was only a "surface pimple" of a "serious inner cancer."

Moffett declared he had reliable information which he said he would introduce at the proper time that "a leading citizen of Bryan who is highly prejudiced against certain A&M officials" is one contributing influence to unrest on the campus.

The ex-Aggie senator said it was his information that the main trouble is stemming from 2,200 students in uniform on the campus and that no trouble exists among 4,900 students not in uniform.

Sen. Fred Harris of Dallas was elected chairman of the committee and Rep. Claud Glimmer of Rock Spring was elected vice chairman. The committee members declined to accept an offer of former Gov. Dan Moody, Austin attorney, to serve as counsel, declaring in favor of conducting their own questioning.

They adopted a policy that would allow them to go into secret session at any time they felt such action would better develop the facts.

Driver, Mother Narrowly Escape As Truck Of Dynamite Explodes

DALLAS, April 3. (AP)—A truck driver and his mother narrowly escaped death just after midnight when their small pick-up truck, loaded with dynamite, exploded on a northwest highway on the edge of Dallas.

The driver, G. E. Black, 36, Fort Worth, was uninjured. His mother, Mrs. J. D. Black, 58, also of Fort Worth, suffered minor cuts and bruises when she fell in her haste to flee from the truck. Three University Park firemen who were approaching the truck when it blew up were less fortunate. All were injured.

Doctors at Parkland Hospital placed Captain G. A. Birmingham under an oxygen tent and said his condition was critical. The doctors said that a preliminary examination showed he had a fractured arm and a possible side injury.

The other two firemen, Andy Anderson and Bob McClary, were dazed by the concussion, but doctors said their injuries were minor. Black told a reporter he was delivering a ton of dynamite from Strawn, Palo Pinto county, to Henderson, when the accident occurred.

He said he noticed a fire in the rear of the truck, stopped and shouted to his mother to jump out. She fell down, but he helped her to her feet. Black and his mother retreated about 100 yards from the truck, and he began warning oncoming motorists.

"I had a little trouble," he said. "Some of them did not want to stop, and some of them came too close. But thank God nobody was hurt. I think my mother'll be all right."

The large blast left a ten-foot crater in the highway pavement. Parts of the truck were found three blocks away.

The explosion awakened thousands of persons in North Dallas and the Park cities, shattered windows over a wide area and damaged a filling station a quarter of a mile from the scene.

J. R. Freeman, night attendant at the filling station said he was turned half-way around by the force of the explosion and a gasoline hose was wrested from his hand. A 12-foot high glass window at the station was shattered.

Peiping-Hankow Railroad Now Held By Chiang

NANKING, April 3. (AP)—Chiang Kai-shek's chief of staff said today that seven-eighths of the entire length of the Peiping-Hankow railroad, one of China's main arteries of communication, now is in government hands.

The chief of staff, Gen. Chen Cheng, said this meant the government controlled 700 miles of the railway and the Communists a stretch of 100 miles. He predicted the section held by Communists soon would be recovered and traffic restored along the entire line.

Chen also said a section of the Fientsin-Pukow railway between Pukow and Tsinan, capital of Shantung Province, had been cleared of Communist troops and that Nationalist striking northward from Tsinan were expected shortly to reach Tehchow, 65 miles distant.
