belong to solitude when it lays aside its mask to reveal the flaming pain. Some quality of a prayer supports its virtue that places its aloofness bowed head, to declare kinship with the tall cowboy is still fit his boot-shaped feet and forget the phantoms of spurs that chime the gate of his dreams. A prairie wind is still on but there are no stirrups on the drill ground. It is that day to ride the soft level and finally the sun in cargo of heat and light away from the wharf of his steppes from the saddle loosened the girth, slipped off the straight ears. He did not go away to roll but stood beside him as a gentle head over his. His arms went around the neck. The understanding and horse reached its and the cowboy stood there.

Changes Are Made Here In Faculty

Several changes were made during the past week in the faculty of the Matador school system, with the resignation of two of the teachers, and subsequent replacements, according to Supt. B. F. Tunnell.
At a meeting of the Matador Board of Trustees held last Monday, the resignation of Mrs. Grace McDowell was accepted. Mrs. McDowell is accepting a position in the school system at Dalhart, where her husband is stationed in a unit of the U. S. Army Air Corps.
Mrs. Charlie Keith of Matador was elected to fill the position made vacant through Mrs. McDowell's resignation. Mrs. Keith is a graduate of the Texas State College for Women at Denton, with a major in History and a teaching minor in Government. Her teaching assignment in the high school will be in these two fields.
At the same meeting of the board, Mrs. Julia Luckett Godfrey resigned to assume personal direction of business interests at Spur, since business arrangements made there at the time she took the position of first grade teacher in the Matador school, have failed to materialize.
Mrs. Vernon Doss, graduate of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, whose major work was in Primary Education, was elected to fill the position made vacant through the resignation of Mrs. Godfrey. Mrs. Doss will have the first grade.
Sam King, graduate of West Texas State College, Canyon, whose major was Mathematics, was elected at a previous meeting of the board. He took over his duties in the high school Monday, as teacher in that department, and is assisting Mr. Kelley in the athletic coaching department.

Fledgling Pilots Pretend It's A Zero

Squadron of low winged 200-mile-an-hour advanced training planes at Kelly Field, Texas, piloted by young Air Force student flyers, stage a mock attack on the camera plane. Imagine six streams of hot lead pouring from the guns of these six fledgling pilots and you'll have an idea how a Zero or Messerschmidt pilot feels when Uncle Sam's fighter planes get on his tail. Pilots of planes above and also an undisclosed number of other flyers at seven advanced flying schools in the Gulf Coast Training Center win their wings tomorrow.

Steel Mills' Scrap Margin Is Critical

GET THIS STRAIGHT, TEXAS. The urgent appeal for scrap iron, steel, rubber, brass, copper, aluminum and cooking fats is the most important thing in your civilian war lives today, according to Felix R. McKnight, staff correspondent on the Dallas News.
"No one is kidding about this scrap drive. It's the real thing; could mean the difference.
"Our steel mills, the supporting beam of democracy's arsenal, are almost entirely dependent upon you and your efforts to forge the instruments of war.
"Latest survey of the nation's steel mills reveals an average eighteen day supply of scrap. In one big Texas mill, the average supply is only two days. If the scrap does not keep flowing to that mill it could run through that two-day supply in forty-eight hours and be forced to shut down.
"Or to put it more simple, that old flat-iron you have in discard and just haven't tossed in the scrap heap could make 30 hand grenades.
"Waste greases vital
"Waste greases play a part in this war. Just save two pounds of it, strain it, hurry it to your butcher. Know what you have done? Two pounds of waste cooking fat will make enough glycerine for five anti-tank shells."
Again the Tribune appeals to Motley county residents to bring every pound of scrap metal to the scrap dealers. Get it into circulation against our enemies.
Scouts Collecting Keys
Matador Boy Scouts under leadership of Scoutmaster M. B. Carroll collected a large quantity of scrap metal in their drive here last Saturday. The Scout scrap depot is located on the southeast corner of the courthouse square.
This week they started a new drive to collect old keys which contain valuable metal needed in the war effort. Large glass jars have been placed at the First State Bank and the postoffice where keys may be deposited.

Lions Will Devote Full Support To Scrap Metal Drive

Aroused to the nation's urgent need of scrap metal to continue its war effort, members of the Matador Lions Club pledged support of the scrap metal drive at the regular meeting held at the Methodist church basement, Tuesday.
Boss Lion Douglas Meador, county chairman of the nationwide newspaper campaign, declared that scrap metal still exists in Motley county in large quantities and that it will continue to remain here as an ally of the Axis until the citizenship is aroused sufficiently to salvage every pound to the last nail and sell it to the junk dealers. He appealed to the members to devote their thoughts and interest to methods of securing the metal and arousing the citizenship in a unified effort.
Time usually allotted to a prepared program was devoted to round-table discussion, with each member asked to express an opinion.

Lint Harvest Advancing Despite Labor Shortage

U. S. Employment Office Opened Here; Schools Close To Keep Gins Humming

COTTON is flowing in a white river through the suction pipes of eight Motley county gins. One of the most critical labor situations to which this area has been subjected in many years, is being overcome. Rumble of cotton wagons, trailers and trucks echoing into the autumn nights and the hum of gins testify to the resourcefulness of the sturdy cotton farmers and the cooperation of business and professional men who realize the greater-than-ever importance of saving every pound of cotton Motley county's 40,000 acres produce.
Matador schools were dismissed at noon Monday to allow students to gather cotton in the afternoon. Classes have been moved forward and the afternoons will be devoted to farmer's needs for two weeks.
Roaring Springs schools were dismissed Friday afternoon for five weeks to allow students to aid in the cotton fields.
Flomot's two gins had processed 200 bales from the 1942 crop at noon Tuesday.

Bond Quota For October Announced

Motley county over subscribing its September War Bond quota of $12,800, has been assigned the same amount for October, according to an announcement made this week by G. E. Hamilton, county chairman of bond sales.
State Administrator Schofield, urges stamp and bond buyers to make purchases as early as possible and that Motley county over-subscribe the $12,800 October quota, as Texas is behind in its quotas for several months and every possible effort is being made to bring it forward this month.
The state office is looking to Motley county and others which have been leading the quotas, to help bring up the delinquent counties of the state, Mr. Hamilton, declared.

Teachers Will Be Special Guests At Methodist Church

Sunday School teachers, both present and past will be the special guests of the Methodist Church at the morning worship hour, 11:00 o'clock, Sunday, according to an announcement by Rev. W. B. Vaughn, pastor.
"Any one who has ever taught in a Sunday School is invited to be in this service," Rev. Vaughn said, "And it is especially requested that every one who has been helped by some Sunday School teacher in times past, please write that one a letter."
Officers and teachers for the coming year will be installed in this service, and everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Firemen Say Every Blaze Is Sabotage

"Every fire is sabotage," according to Matador Volunteer Fire Department Chief B. C. (Bennie) Cox. "Today, the most innocent kind of thoughtlessness that results in the burning of property, is an aid to the enemies of our nation," Chief Cox, continued. "Vigilance in eliminating the cause of destructive fires will help our country."
In cooperation with the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association of Texas, the local department is asking for support of the public especially during Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10th. The state association asks that fire departments under the leadership of fire chiefs, organize and conduct active clean-up campaigns during the week. Citizens and property-owners are solicited to do their share in cleaning property, both business and residential, throughout the city.

AUGUST HOLMBERG, PIONEER RANCHER DIES AT PADUCAH

August Holmberg, 67, oldest SMS ranch employee in point of service, died unexpectedly at Paducah, Saturday afternoon.
Mr. Holmberg had been employed by the SMS ranches for more than half a century and had been foreman of SMS Tongue River Branch for about 35 years. He lived at Dumont in King county.
A native of Sweden, he came to the United States as a lad and began work for the SMS ranches when only 13.
He was a member of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association and in 1939 was elected most typical cowboy over 55 years old. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and several grandchildren.
The community regrets losing Mr. and Mrs. Jameson as citizens.

MATADORS' FIRST CONFERENCE GAME SCHEDULED FRIDAY

Matador Matadors will try the Crosbyton Chiefs here Friday afternoon for the first conference game of the season, according to announcements by school officials early this week.
In meeting the Chiefs the Matadors will test their mettle against one of the strongest contenders for 1942 district honors, according to the opinion of grid fans.
All fans and supporters of Matadors are urged to back the team in its first conference game by attending the contest, with the assurance of seeing a game well worth their time and money. The Tribune did not secure a list of starting lineups in time for publication.

Record Is Claimed

Norris Cloyd, a Flomot youth pulled 1,000 pounds of cotton last Tuesday and the community believes his day's work may establish a record.
The first U. S. Employment office ever located in Motley county was opened Friday morning, with Henry L. Mobley of Galveston, in charge, located in the Moore building on the corner of Highway 70 and Main street, formerly occupied by the Campbell Chevrolet Company.
Farmers needing pickers are advised to file with the office. Mr. Mobley said the movement of pickers to this section anticipated by his organization had not materialized but that he believed some relief could be expected within the next week or 10 days. He said late yesterday that he had been advised of a large movement of pickers in this direction.
Farmers Hold Meeting
The largest number of farmers ever to attend a meeting in Matador, met in the courthouse here Saturday afternoon to determine a price standard for picking. The price to be paid assures pickers of fair returns for their labor and to remain consistent with the price being paid in other areas.
Gins were being rushed here late yesterday, result of schools of the county dismissing to relieve (See PICKERS back page)

EMPLOYED AT FLOMOT

Miss Allie Barton, who has been employed in the office of County Agent J. Rufus Emmons, has accepted a position as 'bookkeeper for the Gilbert Gin, at Flomot.

Buffalo Hunters Say Season May be Short

Indians are less troublesome than in former years. Grass and water is plentiful but the buffalo seems to be migrating away from the usual hunting grounds and the season may be short. This is the report made Sunday morning by weary buffalo hunters arriving in Matador after the season's first rally in search of the thundering herd.
The above news head and paragraph might have appeared in a Matador Tribune printed October 8, 1862. The item in today's Tribune is different.
The season was short and it has probably ended. Three buffalo hunters, L. R. Bishop, Ward Rattan and John Stotts returned to Matador early Sunday morning to report they had killed a buffalo in the Tee Pee City country, ending what may have been the shortest buffalo hunt ever conducted in Motley county.
Buffalo In Sudan Patch
A cowboy on Mrs. W. W. Moore's ranch on Tee Pee creek reported last week that he had found a buffalo grazing in a sudan patch on the ranch. Attempting to run the animal out of the field, the procedure was reversed, the buffalo remaining and the cowboy going.
A permit was secured from the State Game Commission to kill the buffalo and a large number of big game hunters spent most of Saturday in search of the solitary, defiant animal. They returned without glimpsing the buffalo.
Leaving Matador before daylight, the three above named hunters drove to the field and waited for daylight. The buffalo had eaten his fill and was lying down when the first rays of dawn betrayed his position to the hunters. Rance Moore, brother-in-law of the ranch owner had requested the head for mounting in event of success, so the hunters aimed their fire to prevent damage to the head and shoulders. The buffalo leaped into the air, bellowing, and departed. The three hunters followed on foot. Darkness was still casting long shadows in the Tee Pee creek hills that once quaked under the thundering hoofs of thousands of bison. The hunters lost their (See BUFFALO back page)

Contributors Are Liberal In Aiding Free Paper Fund

Unusual liberality of Motley county residents is demonstrated in continued unsolicited contributions to the Tribune's policy of sending weekly copies of the home newspaper to all men in the armed service. The mail sack of Tribunes that leave Matador each week to Motley county boys in all corners of the world, is not a gift of the Tribune alone but of people of Motley county who want to do their part in helping the boys in service.
The Tribune wishes to express sincere appreciation for the following unsolicited contributions received during the past week: Jim Clower $1, Mrs. Pete Coffman 50c, Mrs. Lige Cooper 75c, Johnny Moss (Floydada) $2, D. E. Rattan $2.50, Alfred Barton $2, C. M. Barton $2, D. P. Keith $1.50, Mrs. L. H. Clifton $1, Mrs. W. M. Hill $1.00.

Tire Dealers Are Reminded To File Inventory Report

All tire sellers must file September 30 inventory reports of all serviceable tires and tubes before October 15 to comply with the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations, D. I. W. Birnie, chairman of the Motley county War Price and Rationing Board, reminded the trade today.
The inventory, which is mandatory quarterly, is to show the stocks of all new and used tires and tubes, retreads and recaps held by all persons who have any of the items for sale.

SOMEONE'S LIFE IS IN YOUR HANDS!

ROUND up your scrap metal—it's needed to make steel. Steel for armor plate to protect him from bombs and bullets. Steel for weapons to help him do the job that must be done before he can come home again.

You don't want production figures. It's enough to know that 50% of all new steel is made of scrap—that our steel mills now have only enough scrap in sight to last another 30 days at the most!

What happens after that depends on all of us. If production falls and you've not done your part, will you rest easy?
Next week we're starting a collection drive—to build the biggest stockpile of scrap metal you've ever seen. Then when the mills need it, we'll have it—because you came through... for his sake!

Why your own car's Zero Hour comes at 00 miles an hour

ON THE OFFENSIVE you've got to be on the instant. Eager fighters, frisky jeeps, and all that's going along, must get going together—exactly at Zero Hour. But on the home front these brisk mornings, will your own precious car and its engine lubrication get going together—without deadly oiling delay? You can be sure as shootin', with your engine OIL-PLATED for Winter by Conoco Nth motor oil... oil that OIL-PLATES!

Even while the speedometer snoozes at 00 miles an hour—and you're still snug in your "kivers"—the chilly insides of your OIL-PLATED engine will already be coated by lubricant. Protective OIL-PLATING is really sort of "magnetized" to piston rings, bearings, and straight up the cylinders, by Conoco Nth oil's strong "power of attraction"—created by an added modern synthetic. This keeps the OIL-PLATING from all draining down to the crankcase overnight—over week-ends—and longer.

No complete lack of lubrication then, at 00 miles an hour—starting up cold. No long needless risk till cold oil comes inching along through passages as slim as spaghetti.

You're off safely, because OIL-PLATING safely stays on—ready to lubricate before any oil can circulate.

This season don't merely change oil. It's fully as simple and inexpensive to change to an OIL-PLATED engine. Just change to patented Conoco Nth oil at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Co.

JOIN FREE Elect yourself to the ONCE-A-WEEK CLUB at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Choose your own regular day to drive in and have him check your tires, oil, radiator and battery. COMMUNITY MEETING DECLARED SUCCESSFUL
(Delayed)

Thursday night the Agricultural Victory Council met in the Flomot school auditorium with a good representation of the community present. The School band opened the program with three selections. President Joe Speer made a brief introductory talk, with Bob Morris bringing a report of the salvaging of scrap iron. Council leader, Mrs. L. B. Turner reminded everyone to let the good work continue in the scrap iron drive.

Miss Wilma Dickerson, teacher in the Flomot schools, furnished a period of relaxation in a storytelling game, in which everyone participated.

J. Rufus Emmons, county agent, spoke to the Council, and introduced the Ration Board Chairman, D. I. W. Birnie, who spoke on tire rationing. Eugene Perkins brought a brief message from the Memphis Credit Corporation, and W. I. Rushing summarized the entire program. Other visitors recognized were: Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Price of Matador.

Next meeting of the council is set for October 22nd.

MISSES SCHOOL NEWS

We reply to a postal card signed, "Just Another Reader," which contained the following: "Dear Editor: All summer I have waited in eager anticipation for school to start so you would again publish 'El Matador.' The school page is what I have enjoyed more than anything else since I subscribed for the Tribune 4 years ago. It is usually so cleverly written; but last year was a big disappointment and then this year. What has happened? Doesn't the local school have any ambitious young newspaper men and women? Well, is there a reason?"

The answer is Yes. There is a reason; two of them in fact. Because the local school does have ambitious young newspaper men and women, the students have decided to publish their own newspaper this year, and thereby gain more actual experience in general make-up, as well as reporting. They plan to mimeograph their sheet, we understand. A number of schools publish their own newspaper, and it has been the desire of the students here for the past few years, to do so.

In this way, they will be permitted more freedom of expression than is allowable in a county newspaper, and will possibly have more space than we would be able to devote to their contributions.

Now, as never before, the columns of daily and weekly newspapers are in demand to supply the nation with news of the war and the progress of defense on the home front. Due to imminent paper shortages, and a growing scarcity of materials which go into the supplies needed in the printing industry, a number of weeklies have already deemed it necessary to cut down the size of their publications.

We have always been glad to have the school students contribute to the Tribune, but due to the present crisis, with space at a premium, we could find it neither possible nor feasible to promise them as much space this year as in the past. The sponsors and pupils have realized and appreciated our position, and the arrangement is one of mutual understanding.

And personally, we felt that the sponsor and pupils who served last year did a splendid job in meeting the standards which had been set by their predecessors.

Far be it from us to belittle the armies which have been organized of, for and by the women, but we have secretly been wondering just how much good the WAAC and WAVE hope to accomplish toward winning the war. Naturally, no one can say that a time isn't coming when women will be engaged in actual combat duties, but it seems that these armies of women could be doing a much greater service by enlisting their time in the factories, as so many have done, and assist in turning out the needed equipment for the war effort.

We were therefore, highly gratified when we read the following letter in the Dallas News, touching on still another phase of service which could be rendered and which is being entered into by the women who really wish to do their bit. It concerns Women Farm Workers.

"The volunteer army of women that is going into the field to meet the farm labor emergency deserves recognition along with the WAAC, the WAVE, and the WASP. The Women's Army, Farm Emergency, the WAFE, is the army behind all armies.

"The WAFE is an army without uniform, with no insignia of rank, and with no time limit to hours worked. This army is made up of tiny tots to grandmothers, there is no age requirement and no physical-fitness test. There is work for all, whether they can do little or much. They are not required to count their vitamins but are lucky to have a cold lunch hastily eaten in the shade of a tree. There are no rest periods. The WAFE is getting experience in farm management, rotation of crops, raising more chickens, turkeys, hogs and cattle, buying bonds, gathering scrap, doing away with waste in the home, doing without everything except the essentials.

"The WAFE may be the wait among all other armies, but it is the army behind them all.

Memo Roberts, Howe, Texas."

prey for a time and finally discovered an object in the mesquites they believed to be the wounded buffalo. They released more fire from powerful rifles and chunks of bark and wood splinters broke away from the object.

Since the State Game Commission permit made it mandatory that the animal be given to charity, the meat was stored at the Leon Ice Company community locker, cut into steaks and roasts and given to residents.

Ownership of the buffalo could not be established since all animals owned in the county were accounted for before the hunt was started.

So buffalo steaks, ribs and roasts are cooking over flameless electric fires, or on the blue blazes of butane gas in many Matador homes, which is also a transformation from the method that would have been employed had this Tribune issue been dated October 8, 1942.

Cottle Co. Pioneer Passes Away At Flomol Wednesday

(By Mrs. L. B. Turner)

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Baptist Church at Flomol, for J. G. Franks, 67, who passed away Wednesday morning at 5:15.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Baptist Church at Flomol, for J. G. Franks, 67, who passed away Wednesday morning at 5:15.

John Green Franks was born in Louisiana on February 18, 1855. He was married to Mary Magdalene Scott in 1878, and to this union were born eight children, one child having preceded the father in death.

The family lived in Cottle county 42 years, and moved to Flomol in January, 1942. Mr. Franks was converted and united with the Baptist church sixty years ago.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Mrs. Mary Franks, and seven children, Mrs. Lela Parker, McAdoo; Mrs. J. R. Thomas, Lubbock; Mrs. Hester Donald, Plainview; Mrs. Dora Davidson, Cheaton and Calvin Franks of Flomol, and Asa Franks of Farmington, N. M. Twenty grandchildren, and eleven great-grandchildren also survive.

All of the children were present for the funeral, except the son in New Mexico, who was unable to attend due to illness.

Interment was made in the Flomol cemetery, under the direction of Hardcastle Funeral Home of Turkey.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Harp and son Bobby, visited relatives in Kirkland Sunday.

Mesdames L. J. Barkley, Alvin Stearns and M. L. Patton visited in Plainview and Hale Center, Tuesday.

men—have failed to realize that train schedules aren't what they used to be. They're people who used to know when the trains ran, and they never bothered to look out for a train unless one was due. But now troop and supply trains come whizzing by at all hours, and these people are being hit and killed by trains that weren't supposed to be there—according to their subconscious reckonings.

New Farm Truck Order Effective On November 15

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 1.—County agricultural agents in Texas are helping acquaint owners of farm trucks with the new government orders which vitally affect them, says state agent of the A. & M. College Extension Service.

A new regulation of the Office of Defense Transportation requires a Certificate of War Necessity for the operation of farm trucks as well as other trucks, busses, and taxis. The regulation becomes effective November 15.

Certificates of War Necessity will govern a truck's maximum mileage or minimum loads, or both, and no operator subject to the order will be able to obtain gasoline, tires, or parts without a Certificate. Enforcement officers of all state and political divisions have been authorized to report violations of the order.

Owners and operators of farm trucks and other commercial vehicles will make applications for their certificates on forms supplied by field officers in the ODT. They will also be required to keep records of their operations.

Christmas Gifts Mailing Limited For Overseas Boys

Christmas shopping is here if you are playing Santa Claus to a member of Uncle Sam's armed forces overseas, postmaster E. F. Springer declared this week.

Mr. Springer said the Postoffice Department is now mapping the final details of one of its most difficult tasks in history—the transporting of Christmas gifts to United States soldiers and sailors scattered all over the globe.

October 1st was officially set as the day on which mailing might begin, with November 1st as the deadline on which the last parcel will be accepted for Yuletide delivery.

If you want to be absolutely certain your gift will arrive on time (subject, of course to the usual hazards of war) the advice of postmaster Springer is to buy now and mail as soon as possible.
