MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR

CAROLYN LANCASTER

Mrs. Carolyn Lancaster has owned and operated Guy's & Gal's Clothing Store in Matador for the past seven years. She and her husband, Gary, have two daughters, Shanna Glover of Lazbuddie, and Wendy, a senior at Motley County High School.

In her spare time, Carolyn enjoys reading and watching T.V., if there is ever a time when she can get home and sit down.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Community Chest Accepting Donations For County's Needy

A meeting of the Motley County Community Chest board members was held November 9, 1994.

Kathleen Wason was appointed to the board, replacing James Stanley.

The goal was set at $1500.00. Collection will be from December 1 until December 31.

Letters and envelopes will be sent in bank statements, courtesy of First State Bank.

Your donations are appreciated.

Shoppers Urged To Buy At Home

Special Late Night Of Shopping December 1

With only 32 days until Christmas, Motley County businesses are urging shoppers to buy at home this year when they are Christmas shopping.

Matador businesses will sponsor a special late night of shopping, Thursday, December 1. Most businesses will stay open until 9:00 p.m., with drawings for specials with each purchase beginning at 5:30 p.m. This is special night for Motley County shoppers. Santa Claus will be in Matador that night to take request from all the children. The Motley County Arts & Crafts Club will open their Bazaar, located in the old Ford building. They offer a variety of unique handmade items.

Roaring Springs will sponsor an Old Fashioned Christmas day, Saturday, December 3. Santa Claus will be in town, and each business will have drawings for door prizes. Be sure to browse, and register for the prizes.

Remember Motley County has a lot to offer, so try to buy at home first when shopping for Christmas.

DPS Says Drive Defensively For Thanksgiving Traveling

Thanksgiving is the most heavily travelled holiday of all. This has law enforcement officials pondering what can be done to raise traffic safety awareness during this critical driving period.

Trooper L.B. Snider, Public Information Officer for the Texas Department of Public Safety stated, "We know that the potential for injury and loss of life is greater during holiday periods, especially a high-volume holiday like Thanksgiving. We are asking motorists to drive defensively."

Many motorists have heard the term "defensive driving"; however, it seems few know what it involves. "Much of the art of defensive driving comes from common sense and your own instinct. Training and knowledge of the proper procedure make these senses more effective," Snider explained.

Defensive driving can and should become a way of life for all drivers regardless of age or experience. Don't assume the other driver will make the right decision. Be prepared for anything. Defensive drivers are in tune with their minds and bodies, as well as the road. They're ready for any situation the road might hand them.

But some drivers are out of tune. They give in to distractions, daydreams, fatigue, anger, stress, frustration or perhaps alcohol. They are not prepared to react when a dangerous situation arises.

Defensive drivers also make fewer mistakes. Drivers on the average make one error for every two miles they travel. While not every mistake leads to an accident, about 85% of all collisions are the result of driver error. "The most common mistake is probably speeding. Most people don't match an appropriate speed with driving conditions," Snider added.

Once again, State Troopers will be highly visible during the Thanksgiving holiday trying to make the roads as safe as possible. Let's all do our part to make this a safe and happy holiday.

Eternas Study Club Will Sponsor Christmas Home Tour

The Eternas Study Club is sponsoring the Second Annual Christmas Home Tour. The tour is scheduled from 2-4 p.m. on Sunday, December 4. You may purchase your tickets at the door for a small fee of $5.00 each. We encourage those ages 10 to adult to come enjoy the seasonal delights. The tour will begin at 2:00 in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall and ending at 4:00 p.m. with refreshments and door prizes in the Methodist Fellowship Hall.

The homes scheduled on the tour are as follows: Rodger Evans, Donna Hoyle, Joan Keith, Nancy Long, Margaret Stanley, and Sharon VanHoose. Get yourself into the holiday spirit by attending the tour - and enjoying a fun filled afternoon. See you there!

DON'T FORGET ME — Little Stormie Guerrero sits among an array of toys on display at Matador V&S Variety, where her Grandma Shane and Aunt Sondra are owners. Stormie reminds everyone of the many items Matador businesses have to offer for everyone on your Christmas list, with a special night of late night shopping, Thursday, Dec. 1. Stormie is the daughter of Noel and Lisa Guerrero.

Granny's Old Fashioned Tea Party A Library "Fun" Raiser

Every little girl has played dress-up in Mom's high heels and had a pretend "tea party". On December 3, those fantasies can come true for little girls, ages four to nine, at "Granny's Old Fashioned Tea Party."

A light lunch of favorite finger foods, served in elegant appointments, will cater to her majesty's every whim as she sips punch from china tea cups. A time for pretending is also a chance to practice those special company manners of high society.

Limited only by imagination, or the confines of Mom's wardrobe or Granny's attic stash of once highly fashionable clothes, each young lady will have a chance to model her costume during the style show. A take-home photo and special treat awaits each guest who attends the extravaganza.

This special fun time is also a fund raiser for the Motley County Library. Each donation of $5 will go toward the purchase of new books for the children's section.

The event will take place on Saturday, December 3, 11:30 to 1:00 at 1503 Eubank, Matador. Reservations can be made by calling Joyce Campbell at 347-2793. Helping her with the hostess duties are Janie Campbell, Lori Campbell, and Marisue Potts.

5 CEU's For Recertification To Be Offered At Satellite Broadcast

On Wednesday, December 7, 1994 the Motley County Farm Bureau and the Motley County Extension Service will sponsor a satellite conference to provide continuing education credits for recertification of private applicator licenses. During the conference five (5) continuing education units (CEU's) will be awarded for recertification of private, commercial and non-commercial applicators licenses. The CEU's include 1 hour of IPM, 2 hours of laws and regulations, and 2 hours of environmental concerns.

The Satellite Conference will be held at the Motley County Farm Bureau Office in Matador from 9 a.m. until 2:20 p.m. on Dec. 7th. A $5 registration fee will be charged to cover the cost of the satellite downlink. Lunch (sandwiches and soda waters) will be provided courtesy of Motley County Farm Bureau.

Anyone interested in attending the conference should contact Michael Clawson, Motley County Extension Agent, at (806) 347-2733, or Tony Rose, Farm Bureau Manager, at (806) 347-2880, before December 5, 1994. Seating is limited; therefore reservations will be on a "first come, first serve" basis.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

RUN FOR YOUR LIFE! — With deer hunting season in full force and Thanksgiving day on Thursday, turkeys and deer are on the lookout, taking care not to get in sight if possible. This picture was taken at a local ranch.

WIND DAMAGE — This tree on the Courthouse lawn was split in half by the high wind on Sunday, November 20. Wind gust were reported as high as 60 mph.

Cooking Corner Tips To Help You

Old-Fashioned Memories From The Pantry
Gather Your Cranberries While You May

A well-bred harvest or holiday meal may well include this moist and marvelous cranberry pumpkin bread.

(NAPS)—From before the first frost right up through the holiday season, few things can warm up a heart and a home like the sight, smell and flavor of fresh baked bread. Among the most popular are special breads baked with the spicy touch of pumpkins and cranberries. By stocking up now, during the fall harvest, you can have all the fruit you need, all year long.

Here are a few hints to help you make the most of the fresh cranberries now at local stores:

- Although they are sometimes available as late as Christmas, this year's fresh cranberries endured weather conditions that may mean they'll be all gone by Thanksgiving.
- Fresh cranberries will keep in the refrigerator for up to two weeks.
- Just before using, sort and rinse fresh cranberries in cold water.
- You can freeze cranberries, without pre-rinsing, in a plastic bag for up to a year.
- If you're cooking with frozen cranberries, don't thaw them first. Just rinse them and use as directed for fresh cranberries.
- Chop cranberries by hand or process three cups (12 oz.) at a time.
- Use them in this smart but simple recipe:

CRANBERRY PUMPKIN BREAD

- |                           |                         |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1 3/4 cups flour          | 1 cup pumpkin           |
| 1 cup sugar               | 1/2 cup oil             |
| 2 teaspoons baking powder | 2 eggs                  |
| 1/2 teaspoon baking soda  | 1 1/2 cups OCEAN SPRAY® |
| 1 teaspoon cinnamon       | Fresh or Frozen         |
| 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg       | Cranberries,            |
| 1/2 teaspoon allspice     | coarsely chopped        |

Preheat oven to 350°. Grease and flour an 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2-inch loaf pan.

Combine dry ingredients in a medium mixing bowl. Combine remaining ingredients, except cranberries, in a separate mixing bowl. Add to dry ingredients, stirring just until dry ingredients are moist. Stir in cranberries.

Spread evenly in loaf pan. Bake 1 1/2 hours or until a toothpick inserted into the center of the bread comes out clean. Remove from pan. Cool completely on a wire rack. Makes 1 loaf.

Social Security Tips

by Terry Richardson

WORKERS' COMPENSATION BENEFITS MAY AFFECT YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

A young man who's getting both workers' compensation and Social Security disability benefits called our office to ask why his Social Security benefits are being reduced. We told him that ordinary disability payments from other sources don't affect Social Security disability benefits but that there are exceptions.

Social Security disability benefits are not affected by disability payments from a private source. Examples of such payments are private pensions or private insurance benefits, Department of Veterans affairs benefits, and supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments. In some cases, a disability payment from a Federal, State, or local government won't affect your Social Security benefits - only if the payment is from an agency where you worked and at least 85 percent of the work has during a period when the agency was paying Social Security taxes. (Many government agencies do not pay into Social Security.)

Examples of public disability payments that may affect your Social Security disability benefit are federal civil service disability benefits, military disability benefits, and State or local government retirement benefits that are based on disability. These benefits may cause the worker's Social Security family benefits to be reduced.

We told the caller that his Social Security benefits were reduced so the combined amount of the benefit he and his family receive, plus his workers' compensation payment and any other public disability payment, won't exceed 80 percent of his average current earnings. If this sum exceeds 80 percent of those earnings, the excess amount is deducted from his Social Security benefit. The combined benefits will never be less than the amount of his and his family's total Social Security benefits before they were reduced.

Before determining the deduction, we first calculated his "average current earnings" - the highest of the following amounts:

— The average monthly earnings used to figure your Social Security disability benefit.

— Average monthly earnings from any work he did (including self-employment) that was covered by Social Security during your five consecutive years of highest earnings after 1950.

— Average monthly earnings from work or a business during the year he became disabled or his year of highest earnings during the 5-year period just before he became disabled.

All earnings covered by Social Security, including amounts above the maximum taxable by Social Security, may be used when figuring average current earnings.

The benefit reduction will last until the month he reaches age 65 or the month his workers' compensation or other public disability payment stops, whichever comes first. That's why it's important for him to let us know if his workers' compensation or public disability payment stops.

For more information on how workers' compensation and other disability payments may affect Social Security benefits, call or visit your local Social Security office or call our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213. The lines are busiest early in the week and early in the month, so if your business can wait, it's best to call at other times.

STUDY LOOKS AT ENERGY AND CLOTHING CARE

The American Fiber Manufacturers Association released a study conducted by Franklin Associates relating to energy use, environmental emissions, and solid waste with the production, consumer use, and disposal of a woman's blouse made of 100 percent knitted filament polyester.

Key findings were:

— 80 percent of life cycle energy requirements are attributable to consumer use.

— 60 percent of laundering energy is used to heat the water; drying consumes 31 percent.

— Cold wash with line drying reduces laundering energy by more than 90 percent.

— Life cycle air emissions and solid waste generation parallel energy consumption.

— Consumer use of air emissions account for more than 88 percent of total life cycle atmospheric emissions.

— Consumer laundering accounts for 68 percent cycle solid waste.

— The longer the useful wearlife of a garment, the less the environmental importance of its source, and the larger the significance of consumer behavior.

NEW PRODUCTS

Some new products for future use have been introduced by different manufacturers:

— Daisy Kingdom has introduced a Battery-Powered Sewing Machine for aspiring sewers. It sews a chain stitch and uses a foot pedal or hand crank.

— Tacony Corporation has introduced Pattern-Life™, a 188 inch wide opaque white paper with a coating on one side and 1 inch grid lines on the other. The coated side is used to bond the paper to pattern tissue, making it more durable; the gridded side can be used to enlarge patterns.

— Stretch & Sew Fabrics has introduced a two-position Iron Rest from Polder. The iron rest clamps securely to the end of your ironing board and can be rotated to accommodate right or left handed people.

— Acme United Corporation has introduced CraftKids, a scissor with blades that cut wavy and crazy shapes - wavy, zig-zagged, or toothy.

— Sullivans USA Inc. has introduced METAFIL by Lasmertz of Germany sewing machine needles that is designed with a specialized eye and scarf that virtually eliminates stripping and splitting of metallic and other embroidery threads.

Educational programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age, or national origin.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Try to remember that you are one of those who can be fooled some of the time.

Lindsey's Lines

by Lindsey Williams

Mrs. Libby Campbell is the 1994-95 sponsor of the students of the Gifted and Talented program. This group usually takes 2 trips annually to GT seminars or workshops. Last Thursday was the first workshop they attended this year.

They were to meet at Wayland in Lubbock for the first part. During this session, different athletes spoke to all of the group from area schools. They spoke about what they do and how much time they spend working each day. They also mentioned ways in which you should balance your studies and sports. They said that after the days work is done, they must still go home and spend time studying.

As the second part of the program, everyone went to Texas Tech for a tour of the Athletic facilities. They toured the football field, basketball court, and a dome containing an indoor track, football field, and basketball court.

Finally, they went back to Wayland for the closing and were dismissed at 2 p.m. to go home.

Lady Matadors Defeated by Crosbyton

The Varsity Lady Matadors were defeated by Crosbyton, 62-59 last Tuesday night. Leading scorer was Kasey Parks with 19. Lesa Prather and Leah Cruse both scored 11. Kasey had 10 rebounds, Leah, 8, and Heather Turner, 6.

Leah was 66% from the free throw line, Lesa, 60%, and Heather 60%. Kasey was 83% from the floor, and Cara Franks was 66%.

The J.V. Lady Matadors were also defeated by Crosbyton, 47-33. Brandi Jameson was leading scorer with 11. Dodie Morris scored 10. Dodie was leading rebounder with 10.

Brandi was 66% from the free throw line hitting 2 of 3. Rebecca Long was 66% from the floor.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

Little Jimmy was frightened by the storm. But his mother said, "Don't worry, son. The wind brings the clouds so it can rain, and it rains so everything can grow. That's God working." "But, mom," he asked, "when's God gonna quit work?" No one is without storms. And the storms of sorrow, like those of the sea, enhance the faculties, the fortitude and the faith of the pilgrim. A smooth sea never made a good sailor, and a life without rain makes a desert. The grass is greener after a rain, and the sailor is braver after a storm. How are you?

MRS. JOETTA BUMGARDNER HOSTS GUILD

Mrs. Joetta Bumgardner was hostess to eleven guests in the Fellowship Hall of United Methodist church in Matador, Wednesday evening of last week. Grace Zabielski brought the devotional using the theme "Tell the World". The lesson centered on "What Really Matters" and the lesson was developed by each one giving a reason she has for praising God. Study leader, Chelsea Read, gave a summation of the Reasons to Praise.

Others present were Suzanne Abbott, Opal Bradford, Billie Clifton, Darlene Fletcher, Freda Keahey, Mary Kelley, Debra Martin, Lee Peacock, Pearl Patten, and Lula Swim.

Mrs. Beth Hinson is with her two sons, Bob and Jim Raven and her daughter, Mrs. Doris Einkauff and their families in San Antonio, Victoria, and Pipe Creek for several days' visit including Thanksgiving day.

Miss Lula Swim is hosting her brother and wife, and their family, Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Swim, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Swim of Lubbock, his son Ruston, and a friend of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Swim of Abilene, their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swim of San Angelo, and their daughter, Emily of Abilene.

Mrs. Ora Stonecipher is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Letha Foust, in Lubbock. They will be joined by other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Thacker, Brad and Blair, went to Lela Wednesday to have Thanksgiving with Mrs. Thacker's family.

Mrs. Clyde Mitchell, LaVoe Thacker's mother, who broke the ball in her hip joint two weeks ago, is now at home using a walker. Good news.

Thanksgiving Day is a quiet family day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buzz Thacker.

Mrs. Roxie Lewis is looking forward to a visit from Rev. Darwin Jordan and family of Columbus, Mississippi, for weekend of Thanksgiving.

Melton Brooks had minor surgery Friday at Methodist Hospital in Plainview. He returned home Saturday. His family was with him.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ray Smith of Edmond, Okla., and his mother Daisy Smith of Matador, visited Odessa Mullins Sunday afternoon.

The Community Thanksgiving service at the Assembly of God Church was well attended and enjoyed very much by everyone.

Harold Stotts

Services for Harold Stotts, 78, of Lubbock were held at 4 p.m. Saturday, November 19 in Southcrest Baptist Church with the Rev. Wilburn Coffman officiating.

Entombment was in Peaceful Gardens Mausoleum under direction of Rix Funeral Directors.

Stotts died Thursday, Nov. 17, 1994, in Methodist Hospital.

He was born May 28, 1916, in Southland. He married Marguerite Hurt in Lovington, N.M., on March 8, 1941. She died Sept. 16, 1993. He was a member of Southcrest Baptist Church and a former member of the Lubbock Lions Club and Knights of Pythias. He was founder and president of Stotts Earth Moving Inc.

He was a brother to the late John Stotts of Matador. He had owned land in Matador.

Survivors include three sons, Dennis and Joe Bob, both of Lubbock, and Mike of Austin; two daughters, Anne Blackledge of Lubbock and Jan Adams of Birmingham, Ala.; two sisters, Kathryn Espy of Fort Davis and Espie Faust of Comfort; three grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

The family suggests memorials to the American Heart Association, 3403 73rd St., Lubbock, 79423.

More Than A Pump

The Heart. The heart is used to symbolically describe the seat and focus of our emotions, our feelings, even our priorities. What effect in our lives does the focus of our hearts have? Are the intentions and responses of our hearts important to consider?

Nobody grows old by merely living a number of years. People grow old by deserting their ideals.

You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt; as young as your self-confidence, as old as your fear; as young as your hopes, as old as your despair.

In the central place of every heart, there is a recording chamber; so long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer, and courage, so long are you young.

When the wires are all down and your heart is covered with the snows of pessimism and the ices of cynicism, then, and then only, are you grown old.

— General Douglas MacArthur

"For the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart. The good man out of his good treasure brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings forth what is evil (Matthew 12:34b-35)

"Thy Word I have treasured in my heart, that I may not sin against Thee" (Psalm 119:11).
